

INDEX

- Administration Supervision Law of the People's Republic of China, 91–92 administrative law, corruption under, 4 Anti-Corruption Law, in China, 7–8
 anti-corruption laws, 23
 anti-corruption strategies
   CCP and, 49–61
     through political campaigns, 58–60
   in China, 238–240
   enforcement strategies and, 192
   NIS theory, 2–3
   Norad study on, 2
   in the Philippines, 17
   regulation systems for corruption compared to, 22–49
   types of approaches, 2–3
 appearance of influence peddling, 75, 77–78
Before the Gates of Hell: Conversations with Li Zhen before his Execution (Qiao Yunhua), 38–46 behaviour changing mechanisms, in regulatory systems, 22 behaviour manipulation tactics, in ethics enforcement, 163–169 bias, by judges, 81–82
 Bo Xilai, 239
 bribery, in China, 96
 Cai Bin, 181–182, 208, 212
 CCDI. See Central Commission for Discipline Inspection
 CCP. See Chinese Communist Party
 Central Commission for Discipline Inspection (CCDI), 174, 198, 207, 210–211, 214–215, 219, 221, 225, 234, 238
 Cheng Xitong, 31
 China, corruption in, 1–3. See also Chinese Communist Party
   Administration Supervision Law of the People's Republic of China, 91–92
   Anti-Corruption Law in, 7–8
   anti-corruption strategies, 238–240
   average salaries in, 227–228
   bribery, 96
   Civil Servant Law of the People's Republic of China, 91–92, 94 compared to other countries, 14
   conflict of interest and, 93–102
     private gain from information, 99–102
     profiting from official position, 99–102, 122–123
     self-dealing as, 93–96, 120–122
     third-party assistance, 98–99
     transfer of economic value as, 96–98
   Criminal Law of the People's Republic of China 1977, 91–92
   criminalization of, 5–6, 14
   death penalty for, 26–27
   DICs and, 10–11
     behaviour manipulation tactics of, 213–215
   CCP and, 61
   educational programmes, 214–215

- enforcement strategies through, 174–191, 215–218
- ethics cases and, 181–182, 185–186
- information gathering tactics of, 211–213
- interview questions for, 256–262
- political education functions of, 176–177
- Property Uncle case and, 181–182
- supervisory offices, 205–206, 216–217
- economic gains from, 30
- enforcement strategies in, for
  - government ethics, 173–229
  - through anti-corruption bureaus, 192
- behaviour manipulation tactics in, 213–215
- compliance-oriented, 199–211
- deterrence-oriented, 202
- by DICs, 174–191, 215–218, 234–235
- through formal contracts, 174
- through government agencies, 173–196
- through information gathering, 211–213
- interpretation of rules in, 210–211
- legal power and responsibilities of, 196–199
- in military system, 226
- through ministry/bureau of supervision, 191–192
- through National Bureau of Corruption Prevention, 192–196
- in procuratorates, 192
- regulatory regime development, 227–229
- resources for, 215–218
- styles of, 199–211
- violation recognition in, 207–208
- through whistleblowing, 201
- work performance assessment method, 202–203
- favouritism of political parties, 104–105
- government ethics and, 9–10
  - appearance of corruption and, 123–124
  - compared to other nations, 12–13
  - DICs, 10–11
  - enforcement strategies for, 173–218
  - for favouritism, 104
  - for financial disclosure regulations, 107–111
  - future implications for, 127–130
  - government regulations for, 92
  - for influence peddling, 103–104
  - legislative technique for, 233
  - nonexistent aspects of, 128
  - for outside employment and activities, 112–114
  - patterns of, 118–127
  - rule-making technique group, 128–130
  - rules for, 10, 91–130
  - rules reform for, 233–234
  - unjustified restrictions for, 114–118
  - value transfer and, 232–233
  - weak aspects of, 128–129
- guanxi* compared to, 47–48
- influence peddling and, 103–104
- by judges, 105–106
- Judges Law of the People's Republic of China, 91–92
- magnitude of, 28
- movement from minor deviances to, 29–44
- probability of, 29–31
- prosecution of, 1
- public ethics regulation in, 5–6
- punishment for, 36
  - death penalty as, 26–27
  - magnitude of, 28
  - probability of, 29–31
  - sanction magnitude in, 28
- regulatory approach to, 11, 14, 16–22, 61–62, 102–107
  - as complementary, 22–24
  - government as self-regulating, 16
  - methods of, 17
  - as necessary, 22–24

- China, corruption in (cont.)
     parameters of, 16
     for public bodies, 17
     restrictions for, 16
     reporting rates of, 27–28
     research on, 236–238, 240–241
     methodology of, 242–243
     sanction magnitude of, 28
Chinalawinfo, 92
 Chinese Communist Party (CCP)
     anti-corruption approaches of, 49–61
     through political campaigns, 58–60
     corruption within, 1
     criminal approach against, 57–60
     rates of, 59
     regulatory approach against, 60–61
     ruling legitimacy influenced by,
       54, 57–60
 DICs and, 61
 economic growth as influence on, 53
 government ethics rules, 92
     private gain from information
       under, 99–102
     profiting from official position
       under, 99–102
     self-dealing by public officials
       under, 93–96
     third-party assistance under,
       98–99
     transfer of economic value under,
       96–98
 Great Leap Forward and, 52–53
 historical development of, 49–52
 Marxism and, 50
 official ideologies of, 52–53
 ruling legitimacy of, 49–61
     corruption as influence on, 54, 57–60
     moral justification of, 56
     utilitarian justification of, 56
 Three Represents and, 51–52
 Civil Servant Law of the People's Republic of China, 91–92, 94
 Civil Service Bureau (CSB), in Hong Kong, 138–139, 171–173.
     See also enforcement, of
     government ethics
 Civil Service Code, in Hong Kong, 126
 Civil Service Code, in UK, 34, 65, 126–127, 137–138
 Civil Service Commission, in UK, 138–140. See also enforcement,
     of government ethics
 clean plate campaign, 215
 Commission on Civil Rights, 65
 Commodity Futures Trading Commission, 65
 compliance-oriented enforcement
     strategies, 143–144, 147–152, 154–156
     in China, 199–211
 conflict of interest
     in China, 93–102
     private gain from information, 99–102
     profiting from official position, 99–102, 122–123
     self-dealing as, 93–96, 120–122
     self-dealing by public officials, 93–96, 120–122
     third-party assistance, 98–99
     transfer of economic value, 96–99
     transfer of economic value as, 96–98
     by political position, 69
     principles of, 66–68
     private gain from information as,
       66–67, 99–102
     private party assistance as, 66–67, 72–73, 98–99
     profiting from official position as result of, 66–67, 69, 73–74
     regulation of, by country, 66–74
     self-dealing by public officials as, 66–69
     transfer of economic value as, 66–67, 69–72
     values identification in, 66
 corruption. See also anti-corruption strategies; China, corruption in under administrative law, 4
     within CCP, 1
     criminal approach against, 57–60
     rates of, 59

- regulatory approach against, 60–61
- ruling legitimacy influenced by, 54, 57–60
- consequences of, 1–2
- under criminal law, 4, 21–22
  - improvement strategies for, 25–32
- favouritism as
  - in Hong Kong, 76, 78–123
  - in UK, 76, 78–123
  - in US, 76, 78–123
- in Hong Kong, 1
  - appearance of influence peddling as, 75, 77–78
  - favouritism in appointment as, 76, 78–123
  - favouritism of political parties as, 76, 78–79
  - through judicial impropriety, 76, 79–82
  - regulating appearance of, 74–82
- judges and
  - appearance of bias by, 81–82
  - appearance of influence peddling by, 75, 77–78
  - in Hong Kong, 79–82
  - improper acts by, 79–80
  - improper statements by, 80–81
  - impropriety by, 76, 79–82
  - in UK, 79–82
  - in US, 79–82
- through maladministration, 37–49
- through misconduct, 37–49
- in New Zealand, 1
- nonmonetary gains from, 31
- public ethics regulation and, 4–5
- punishment for, 25–28
  - death penalty as, 26–27
  - economic sanctions as, 27
  - imprisonment as, 26–27
  - magnitude of, 25
  - probability of, 25–26
  - sanction magnitude, 25–26
  - seriousness of, 26–27
- reduced economic investment from, 230
- regulation systems for
  - anti-corruption strategies compared to, 22–49
  - within CCP, 60–61
  - in China, 11, 14, 16–22, 61–62, 102–107
  - as complementary, 22–24
  - criminal approach in anti-corruption compared to, 22–49
  - development of, 32–37
  - government as self-regulating, 16
  - methods of, 17
    - as necessary, 22–24
  - parameters of, 16
  - for public bodies, 17
  - restrictions for, 16
- sanction magnitude for, 25–26
- in Singapore, 1
- in Sweden, 1
- traditional acts of, 20–21
- in UK
  - appearance of influence peddling as, 75, 77–78
  - favouritism in appointment as, 76, 78–123
  - favouritism of political parties as, 76, 78–79
  - through judicial impropriety, 76, 79–82
  - regulating appearance of, 74–82
- in US
  - appearance of influence peddling as, 75, 77–78
  - favouritism in appointment as, 76, 78–123
  - favouritism of political parties as, 76, 78–79
  - through judicial impropriety, 76, 79–82
  - regulating appearance of, 74–82
- Corruption Perception Index, 23, 129
- criminal law, corruption under, 4, 21–22
  - improvement strategies for, 25–32
- Criminal Law of the People's Republic of China 1977, 91–92
- CSB. See Civil Service Bureau
- DAEO. See Designated Agency Ethics Official
- Dai Xuemin, 239
- Deng Xiaoping, 50–51

- Designated Agency Ethics Official (DAEO), in US, 139–140.
See also enforcement, of government ethics
- deterrence-oriented enforcement strategies, 148, 154–156
 in China, 202
- DICs. See Discipline Inspection Committees
- Ding Yuling, 57–58
- Discipline Inspection Committees (DICs), 10–11
 behaviour manipulation tactics of, 213–215
 CCP and, 61
 educational programmes, 214–215
 enforcement strategies through, 174–191, 215–218, 234–235
 ethics cases and, 181–182, 185
 by district, 186
 information gathering tactics of, 211–213
 interview questions for, 256–262
 political education functions of, 176–177
 Property Uncle case and, 181–182
 supervisory offices, 205–206, 216–217
- discipline-oriented enforcement strategies, 152–154
- disclosure regulations. See financial disclosure regulations
- employment. See outside employment and activities
- enforcement, of government ethics. See also Hong Kong; United Kingdom; United States
 advisory opinions on, 164–167
 agencies for, 134–142
 behaviour manipulation tactics, 163–169
 through cases and claims, 163
 in China, 173–229
 through anti-corruption bureaus, 192
 behaviour manipulation tactics in, 213–215
 compliance-oriented, 199–211
 deterrence-oriented strategies, 202
 by DICs, 174–191, 215–218, 234–235
 through formal contracts, 174
 through government agencies, 173–196
 through information gathering, 211–213
 interpretation of rules in, 210–211
 legal power and responsibilities of, 196–199
 in military system, 226
 through ministry/bureau of supervision, 191–192
 through National Bureau of Corruption Prevention, 192–196
 in procuratorates, 192
 regulatory regime development, 227–229
 resources for, 215–218
 styles of, 199–211
 violation recognition in, 207–208
 through whistleblowing, 201
 work performance assessment method, 202–203
- collaboration as part of, 146
 common features of, 171–173
 compliance-oriented, 143–144, 147–152, 154–156
 deterrence-oriented, 148, 154–156
 dimensions of, 132–133
 discipline-oriented, 152–154
 educational programmes in, 167–169
 efficacy of, 156–157
 through financial disclosure forms, 135–162
 information gathering tactics, 160–163, 211–213
 investigatory powers in, 142–143
 law making powers as result of, 144–146
 legal authorities for, 142–146
 purpose of, 133
 resource allocation for, 169–171
 response to violations, 155–156
 responsibilities of, 142–146

- rule interpretation in, 157–158
- styles of, 146–159
- through whistleblowers, 162–163
- ethics. See also corruption; public ethics; regulatory systems, for government ethics
  - codes of, 18–19
  - in criminal law, 20
  - defined, 18
  - maladministration and, 20
  - misconduct and, 20
- favouritism
  - in China
    - government ethics and, 104
    - for political parties, 104–105
  - as corruption
    - in Hong Kong, 76, 78–123
    - in UK, 76, 78–123
    - in US, 76, 78–123
  - of political parties
    - in China, 104–105
    - in Hong Kong, 76, 78–79
    - in UK, 76, 78–79
    - in US, 76, 78–79
- Federal Reserve System, 65
- financial disclosure regulations
  - in China, 107–111
    - items for, 110–111
    - reporting rank as influence on, 108–109
    - for state officials, 107–108
  - government ethics and, 82–85
  - for nonsenior officials, 84–85
  - for senior officials, 83–84
- Fong, Phyllis, 33
- Fox, Liam, 171–172
- government ethics. See also enforcement; Hong Kong; public ethics; regulatory systems, for government ethics; United Kingdom; United States
  - in China, 9–10
    - appearance of corruption and, 123–124
    - CCP rules for, 92
    - compared to other nations, 12–13
    - DICs, 10–11
    - for favouritism, 104
    - for financial disclosure regulations, 107–111
    - future implications for, 127–130
    - government regulations for, 92
    - for influence peddling, 103–104
    - key issues for, 252–255
    - legislative technique for, 233
    - nonexistent aspects of, 128
    - for outside employment and activities, 112–114
    - patterns of, 118–127
    - rule-making technique group, 128–130
    - rules for, 10, 91–130
    - rules reform for, 233–234
    - unjustified restrictions for, 114–118
    - value transfer and, 232–233
    - weak aspects of, 128–129
  - codes of, 126
  - conflict of interest and
    - in China, 93–102
    - by political position, 69
    - principles of, 66–68
    - private gain from information as, 66–67
    - private party assistance as, 66–67, 72–73
    - profiting from official position as result of, 66–67, 69, 73–74
    - regulation of, by country, 66–74
    - self-dealing by public officials as, 66–69
    - transfer of economic value as, 66–67, 69–72
    - values identification in, 66
  - for financial disclosure regulations, 82–85
  - for outside employment and activities, 85–88
  - patterns for, 88–91, 232
  - private gain from information and, 66–67
  - private party assistance and, 66–67, 72–73

- government ethics (cont.)
   profiting from official position, 66–67, 69, 73–74
   regulation of, 230–232
     development of, 3–6
     research on, 8–9
   self-dealing by public officials, 66–69
   Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch, 105
   transfer of economic value and,
     66–67, 69–72
 Government ethics, in China, rules for,
   10, 91–130
 Great Leap Forward, 52–53
guanxi (personal government connections), 47–48
 Guo Baogang, 56

 He Haichang, 182–185
 He Tao, 57–58
 Heywood, Paul, 34
 Hong Kong
   anti-corruption laws in, 23
   Civil Service Code in, 126
   corruption in, 1
     appearance of influence peddling
       as, 75, 77–78
   favouritism in appointment as, 76, 78–123
   favouritism of political parties as,
     76, 78–79
   through judicial impropriety, 76, 79–82
   regulating appearance of, 74–82
   enforcement strategies in, for
     government ethics, 134–173
   advisory opinions on, 164–167
   agencies for, 134–142
   behaviour manipulation tactics, 163–169
   through cases and claims, 163
   collaboration as part of, 146
   common features of, 171–173
   compliance-oriented, 143–144, 147–152, 154–156
   through CSB, 138–139, 171–173
   deterrence-oriented, 148, 154–156
   discipline-oriented, 152–154
   educational programmes in,
     167–169
   efficacy of, 156–157
   through financial disclosure
     forms, 135–162
   through ICAC, 23, 135
   information gathering tactics, 160–163
   investigatory powers in, 142–143
   law making powers as result of, 144–146
   legal authorities for, 142–146
   through Political Appointment System, 137
   resource allocation for, 169–171
   response to violations, 155–156
   responsibilities of, 142–146
   rule interpretation in, 157–158
   styles of, 146–159
   through whistleblowers, 162–163
 government ethics in, 64–88
   codes of, 126
   compared to China, 12–13
   conflict of interest and, regulation
     of, 66–74
   for financial disclosure
     regulations, 82–85
   key issues for, 244–250
   for outside employment and
     activities, 85–88
   patterns for, 88–91
   under POBO, 65, 70
   private gain from information, 66–67
   private party assistance and,
     66–67, 72–73
   profiting from official position, 66–67, 69, 73–74
   self-dealing by public officials, 66–69
   transfer of economic value and,
     66–67, 69–72
 ICAC in, 23, 135, 194–195
 judicial impropriety in, 79–82
 public ethics regulation in, 4–5
   historical development of, 34–35
 Hu Jingtao, 52–53, 210

- Independent Commission against Corruption (ICAC), 23, 135, 194–195
- Independent Parliament Standards Authority (IPSA), 74
- information
   in enforcement strategies for government ethics, 160–163, 211–213
   private gain from
     in China, 99–102
     as conflict of interest, 66–67
     government ethics and, 66–67
- integrity
   defined, 4
   regulation of, 4
- IPSA. See Independent Parliament Standards Authority
- Jiang Zeming, 51–53, 210
- Jiao Yulu, 214
- Johnson, Lyndon B., 33
- judges, corruption and
   appearance of bias by, 81–82
   appearance of influence peddling by, 75, 77–78
   in China, 105–106
   in Hong Kong, 79–82
   improper acts by, 79–80
   improper statements by, 80–81
   impropriety as, 76, 79–82
   in UK, 79–82
   in US, 79–82
- Judges Law of the People's Republic of China, 91–92
- Kennedy, John F., 32–33
- Lei Zhengfu, 31
- Leung, Anthony Kam-chung, 171
- Leung Chin-man, 23–24, 73
- Leung Chun-ying, 171
- Leung Ming-yin, 24
- Li Chengyan, 5, 36
- Li Zhen, 38–46
- Lin Zhe, 6–7
- Liu Hu, 181–182
- Liu Jiayi, 57–58
- Ma Sanshan, 46
- maladministration
   corruption through, 37–49
   defined, 20
- Marxism, 50
- military systems, enforcement of ethics in, 226
- Ministerial Code, in UK, 65
- misconduct
   corruption through, 37–49
   defined, 20
- monitoring mechanisms, in regulatory systems, 22
- National Bureau of Corruption Prevention, 192–196
- National Integrity System (NIS) theory, 2–3
- New Zealand, corruption in, 1
- NIS theory. See National Integrity System theory
- Nixon, Richard, 33
- Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation (Norad), 2
- Office of Government Ethics (OGE), 135–138, 171–173. See also enforcement, of government ethics
- outside employment and activities, regulation of
   in China, 112–114
   for current office holders, 112–113
   after retirement from office, 113–114
   government ethics for, 85–88
   for government officers, 85–87
   post-employment restrictions, 87–88
- Pei Minxin, 28, 61
- personal government connections. See guanxi
- Philippines, anti-corruption strategies in, 17
- POBO. See Prevention of Bribery Ordinance
- Political Appointment System, in Hong Kong, 137

- political parties, favouritism for
  - in China, 104–105
  - in Hong Kong, 76, 78–79
  - in UK, 76, 78–79
  - in US, 76, 78–79
- Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (POBO), in Hong Kong, 65, 70
- procuratorates, 192
- profiting from official government positions, 66–67, 69, 73–74
  - through abuse of public funds, 100–101
  - in China, 99–102
- Property Uncle case, 181–182
- public ethics. See also government ethics
  - in China, 5–6
  - in Hong Kong, 4–5
    - historical development of, 34–35
  - regulation of, 4–5
    - administrative, 36
    - historical development of, 32–37
  - in UK, 4–5
    - historical development of, 34
  - in US, 4–5
    - during Johnson administration, 33
    - during Kennedy administration, 32–33
    - during Nixon administration, 33
- punishment, for corruption, 25–28
  - in China, 36
    - death penalty in, 26–27
    - magnitude of, 28
    - probability of, 29–31
    - sanction magnitude of, 28
  - death penalty as, 26–27
  - economic sanctions as, 27
  - imprisonment as, 26–27
  - magnitude of, 25
  - probability of, 25–26
  - sanction magnitude, 25–26
  - seriousness of, 26–27
- Qiao Yunhua, 38–46
- regulatory systems, for ethics
  - anti-corruption strategies compared to corruption strategies, 22–49
  - behaviour mechanisms in, 22
  - for corruption
    - anti-corruption strategies compared to, 22–49
    - within CCP, 60–61
    - in China, 11, 14, 16–22, 61–62, 102–107
    - as complementary, 22–24
    - criminal approach in anti-corruption strategies compared to, 22–49
    - government as self-regulating, 16
    - methods of, 17
    - as necessary, 22–24
    - parameters of, 16
    - for public bodies, 17
    - restrictions for, 16
  - defined, 3–4
  - for government ethics, 230–232
    - in China, 227–229
    - development of, 3–6
    - research on, 8–9
  - of integrity, 4
  - monitoring mechanisms in, 22
  - public ethics, 4–5
    - administrative regulation, 36
    - historical development of, 32–37
  - sanction mechanisms in, 22
- Rothman, David J., 26
- sanction mechanisms
  - for corruption, 25–26
  - in regulatory systems, 22
- self-dealing, by public officials, 66–69
  - in China, 93–96, 120–122
- Shen Lijie, 57–58
- Sherman, Lawrence, 37–38
- Singapore
  - anti-corruption laws in, 23
  - corruption in, 1
- Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch*, 105
- Sweden, corruption in, 1
- Three Represents, 51–52
- transfer of economic value, 66–67, 69–72
  - in China, 96–98
  - through gifts, 97–99

Transparency International, 23
 Tsang, Donald, 24, 73, 122

United Kingdom (UK)

Civil Service Code in, 34, 65, 126–127, 137–138
 corruption in
   appearance of influence peddling
     as, 75, 77–78
   favouritism in appointment as, 76, 78–123
   favouritism of political parties as,
     76, 78–79
   through judicial impropriety, 76, 79–82
   regulating appearance of, 74–82
 enforcement strategies in, for
   government ethics, 134–173
   advisory opinions on, 164–167
   agencies for, 134–142
   behaviour manipulation tactics, 163–169
   through cases and claims, 163
   through Civil Service Code, 137–138
   by Civil Service Commission, 138–140
   collaboration as part of, 146
   common features of, 171–173
   compliance-oriented, 143–144, 147–152, 154–156
   deterrence-oriented, 148, 154–156
   discipline-oriented, 152–154
   educational programmes in,
     167–169
   efficacy of, 156–157
   through financial disclosure
     forms, 135–162
   information gathering tactics, 160–163
   investigatory powers in, 142–143
   law making powers as result of, 144–146
   legal authorities for, 142–146
   resource allocation for, 169–171
   response to violations, 155–156
   responsibilities in, 142–146
   rule interpretation in, 157–158

styles of, 146–159
   through whistleblowers, 162–163
 government ethics in, 64–88
   under Civil Service Code, 34, 65, 126–127
   codes of, 126
   compared to China, 12–13
   conflict of interest and, regulation
     of, 66–74
   for financial disclosure
     regulations, 82–85
   under IPSA, 74
   key issues for, 244–250
   under Ministerial Code, 65
   for outside employment and
     activities, 85–88
   patterns for, 88–91
   private gain from information, 66–67
   private party assistance and,
     66–67, 72–73
   profiting from official position, 66–67, 69, 73–74
   self-dealing by public officials, 66–69
   transfer of economic value and,
     66–67, 69–72
 judicial impropriety in, 79–82
 public ethics regulation in, 4–5
   historical development of, 34
 United States (US)
   corruption in
     appearance of influence peddling
       as, 75, 77–78
     favouritism in appointment as, 76, 78–123
     favouritism of political parties as,
       76, 78–79
     through judicial impropriety, 76, 79–82
     regulating appearance of, 74–82
   enforcement strategies in, for
     government ethics, 134–173
     advisory opinions on, 164–167
     agencies for, 134–142
     behaviour manipulation tactics, 163–169
     through cases and claims, 163
     collaboration as part of, 146

- United States (US) (cont.)
   common features of, 171–173
   compliance-oriented, 143–144, 147–152, 154–156
   through DAEO, 139–140
   deterrence-oriented, 148, 154–156
   discipline-oriented, 152–154
   educational programmes in,
     167–169
   efficacy of, 156–157
   through financial disclosure
     forms, 135–162
   information gathering tactics, 160–163
   investigatory powers in, 142–143
   law making powers as result of, 144–146
   legal authorities for, 142–146
   for OGE, 135–140
   resource allocation for, 169–171
   response to violations, 155–156
   responsibilities in, 142–146
   rule interpretation in, 157–158
   styles of, 146–159
   through whistleblowers, 162–163
   government ethics in, 64–88
     codes of, 126
   Commission on Civil Rights and,
     65
   Commodity Futures Trading Commission and, 65
   compared to China, 12–13
   conflict of interest and, regulation
     of, 66–74
   Federal Reserve System in, 65
   for financial disclosure
     regulations, 82–85
   key issues for, 244–250
   for outside employment and
     activities, 85–88
   patterns for, 88–91
   private gain from information, 66–67
   private party assistance and,
     66–67, 72–73
   profiting from official position, 66–67, 69, 73–74
   self-dealing by public officials, 66–69
   transfer of economic value and,
     66–67, 69–72
   judicial impropriety in, 79–82
   public ethics regulation in, 4–5
- Van Rooij, Benjamin, 59
- Wang Guoyan, 214
 Wang Qishan, 210, 215, 222, 238–239
 Wang Xianming, 208
 Wang Yukai, 206
 Wedeman, Andrew, 28
 whistleblowers, 162–163, 201
 Wu Yongwen, 171–175
- Xi Jinping, 1, 7, 209, 214–215, 222, 225, 238
 Xiu Lin, 41
 Xu Caihou, 239
- Yang Dacai, 212
 Yu Zhengsheng, 224
- Zeng Haokong, 208
 Zhang Hongge, 58
 Zhang Xin, 182
 Zhao Lianhai, 55
 Zheng Xiaoyu, 1–2, 54–55
 Zhou Kai, 57–58
 Zhou Yongkang, 239
 Zhu Lijia, 207
 Zhuang Deshui, 206
 Zou Keyuan, 2