

Index

- aerospace industry. See Chinese aerospace industry
- agriculture-abundant countries, 48–49
- Airbus, 234–235
- Alibaba, 407
- anti-corruption campaign, 4–5
- Argentina
 MIT in, 108
 patents and, 110–111
- asset-augmenting R&D strategy, 270–271
- asset-exploiting R&D strategy, 270–271
- asset-related advantages, 228
- behavioral approaches, to cross-cultural research, 397
- Beijing model, 111
- Beinhocker, Eric, 71
- benevolent hierarchy, 78–79
- BGI, 254–255
- biracials and biculturals/multiculturals, 401–402
- brain circulation, 400
- Brazil
 MIT in, 108
 patents and, 110–111
- business systems of China today, 92–95
 Korean changes in, 97–100 literature, 90 model, 92
 of 1980 Korea, 95–96
- capital. See also human capital; social capital; venture capital accumulation of, 37–38 research and cost of, 142–144
- capitalism benevolent hierarchy and, 78–79
- Leninist party-state and, 134–135 varieties of, 90, 91
- CCP. See Chinese Communist Party
- central authority, societal structure and, 67–68
- China business systems of, current, 92–95 concluding reflections on, 418–425 context and MNEs, 224–226 cooperation challenge of, 72–74 global sourcing of innovation and, 275–287
 group centrism in, 381–382
 India, in global outsourcing industry, 301–304
 India and online marketplaces, 290–291
 India compared with, 275–287, 290–291, 301–304 innovation capability of, 111–112 innovation challenge of, 75–77 innovation systems in, 278–279
 Japan compared with, 69–71
 Korea, studying, and, 102–105 middle income status success of, 122–124
 MNEs and, 224–226, 230–232, 239
 new structuralism and, 49–51
 optimistic view of, 6–14
 outsourcing hubs in, 279, 280 overview of issues related to, xvii–xviii patenting activities in, 284–285, 286 per capita income and, 49 pessimistic view of, 15–18
 R&D intensity in, 281–283
 R&D investment growth in, 281
 R&D investments by US companies and, 283–284
 rules of order, 70

- China (cont.)
 technological specialization in, 112–117
 Three Rules for Understanding China, 239
 unit of identity in, 69
 China Securities Regulatory Commission (CSRC), 167–168
 Chinese aerospace industry Airbus and, 234–235 context, 232–233 government control of, 233
 MNEs and, 232–236
 process improvement in, 235–236 rivalries in, 234
 Rolls-Royce and, 235 stages to maturity of, 233–234 wing-boxes and, 235
 Chinese Communist Party (CCP). See also Leninist party-state anti-corruption campaign of, 4–5
 Common Program of, 8
 Churchill, Winston, 412
 civilization pretending to be state, 68
 CMEs. See coordinated market economies collaboration, MNEs and, 258–260 Common Program, 8 comparative advantage factor endowments and, 37 global outsourcing industry redefinition of, 332–333 identifying latent, 42–43 industrial policy and, 42–43
 Tencent and, 355–357
 tradable goods industries and, 43–44
 comparative management models Alibaba and, 407 development of comprehensive, 406–410
 Haier and, 407–408
 Huawei and, 406–407
shanzhaism and, 408–409 systems approach to, 408–409 Xiaomi and, 408 competition cooperation and, 71
 digital service economy and, 5 SOEs and, 80
 complexity economics, 87
 hierarchy and, 79–80 societal progress and, 59–60 strands of, 61–62
 UMP, 170 consumption, financial repression and, 125 contagion thesis, 73 cool-water hypothesis, 66–67 cooperation China's challenge of, 72–74
 competition and, 71
 innovation and, 56–57
 institutions as insurance, 72 network perspective and, 201–202
 role of, 71–72
 SMEs and, 201–202
 societal progress and, 63–64
 as stabilizing, 59 trust and, 71–72 coordinated market economies (CMEs), 91 corruption
 anti-corruption campaign, 4–5 industrial policymaking and, 134 pessimistic view and, 16–17 countercyclical policy, 47–48 country-specific advantages (CSAs), 227–228 creative goods and services, 369–370 creativity barriers, organizational, to, 345–355 entrepreneurial spirit fostering, 361–362 group centrism and, 382–384 Huawei's, 357–360
 inertia inhibiting, 346–347 knowledge management and, 353–354 lack of organizational capability in managing, 352–354 local protectionism inhibiting, 347–348 mainstream management principles fostering, 362–363 manufacturing model and, 353 market segmentation inhibiting, 347–348 online, 369–370

- overview about, 26–27, 339–340, 345–346
- practices enhancing, 355–360
- private ownership and, 360
- regional distribution of
 - entrepreneurial spirit and, 348–352
- resource allocation and, 353
- shortage of talent with skills in, 354–355
- suggestions for fostering, 360–363
- team, 382–384
- Tencent's, 355–357
- uneven distribution of
 - entrepreneurial spirit inhibiting, 348–352
- credit
 - financial repression and, 125–126
 - industrial policymaking and, 131–132
- cross-cultural management
 - behavioral approaches and, 397
 - comparative management models development and, 406–410
 - conclusions about, 412
 - cultural differences and distance reconceptualized, 410–411
 - cultural distance and, 403–404
 - cultural intelligence development, 411–412
 - eclectic approach and, 397–398
 - environmental approach and, 396–397
 - evolution of research in, 395–398
 - future research directions in, 405–412
 - homogeneous impact of cultural distance and, 404
 - individual distance measures and, 404–405
 - overview about, 28, 394–395
 - reframing research on, 398–405
 - socio-economic approach and, 395–396
 - spatial homogeneity within single nation and, 399–402
- cross-cultural research
 - behavioral approaches to, 397
 - eclectic approach to, 397–398
 - environmental approach to, 396–397
 - socio-economics approach to, 395–396
- CSAs. See country-specific advantages
- CSRC. See China Securities Regulatory Commission
- cultural analysis, 26–28
- cultural constraints
 - cultural diversity and, 378–380
 - on innovation, 378–387
- cultural contexts. See institutional and cultural contexts
- cultural distance
 - homogeneous impact of, 404
 - negative outcomes and, 403–404
 - reconceptualized, 410–411
- cultural diversity, 378–380
- cultural intelligence development, 411–412
- Cultural Revolution, education disrupted by, 8
- culture. See also cross-cultural management; institutional and cultural contexts
 - biracials and biculturals/multiculturals, 401–402
 - clashes in, 77
 - imitation furthered by, 16
 - Korean, 95
- Culture's Consequences: International Differences in Work-related Values* (Hofstede), 394
- decentralization
 - of hierarchy, 79–80
 - overview about, 19–20
- democracy
 - future prospects for, 103
 - Korea and, 98–99
 - MIT and, 5
- Deng Xiaoping, 153
 - liberalization unleashed by, 6–7
 - S&T and, 153–154
- development economics
 - emergence of, 32
 - neoliberalism and, 33–34
 - new structuralism and, 34–35
 - rethinking, 32–35
 - structuralism and, 32–33
- development incentives. See local government development incentives

- development zone fever, 129–130
- digital service economy
 - competition and, 5
 - economic growth from, 5–6
- discovery units, 255–256
- diversity, cultural, 378–380
- domestic markets
 - MNEs and, 250–251
 - optimistic view of, 12–13
- East Asian economies, 132
- economic restructuring
 - first period 1949–1978, 305
 - outsourcing service model cities and, 308–330
 - overview of, 304
 - Policy 18 and, 307–308
 - second period, 1978–early 2000, 305–307
 - third period, early 2000s, 307–330
 - Thousand-Hundred-Ten project and, 308
- economic wealth, institutions and, 88–89
- economic zones, special, 45
- economics. See also development economics; socio-economics
 - complexity, 87
 - hard targets for, 127–129
 - performance and cadre promotion link, 127–128
 - role of government in crisis of, 47–48
- economy
 - digital service, 5–6
 - diminishing returns in, 4–5
 - evolution of, 1–2
 - human costs related to, 2–3
 - savings rates, 2
 - size of, 1–2
- education. See also knowledge; universities
 - Cultural Revolution disrupting, 8
 - human capital formation and, 139–140
 - Korea and, 101, 102
 - MIT and, 110
 - optimism about, 139–140
 - Project 211 and Project 985 and, 376–377
 - quality of, 279–281
 - R&D and, 3
 - SMEs and, 196
- EHCNs. See ex-host country nationals
- Eisenstadt, Shmuel, 69
- employment on-demand, 267
- Enterprise Tax Law, 155
- enterprise-level analysis, 23–24
- entrepreneurial mind-sets, 342, 345
- entrepreneurial perspective
 - individual leadership and, 204
 - innovation factors within, 204–205
 - resource-based view overlapping with, 193–194
 - SMEs and, 204–207
 - studies conducted related to, 205–206
- entrepreneurial spirit, 348–352, 361–362
- environmental approach, to cross-cultural research, 396–397
- environmental degradation, pessimistic view of, 17–18
- ex-host country nationals (EHCNs), 401
- exportation, innovation link with, 194
- export-dependency, 133–134
- externalities, compensation for, 45–46
- factor endowments
 - comparative advantage and, 37
 - new structuralism and, 36–38
- Federal Reserve, financial repression and, 123
- financial repression
 - consumption and, 125
 - credit and, 125–126
 - end of, 125
 - Federal Reserve and, 123
 - middle income status achieved via, 123–124
 - overview about, 21–22
 - Taiwan and, 125
 - weapon of massive asset destruction, 124–127
- financial structure, for developing countries, 46–47
- firm specific advantages (FSAs)
 - defined, 227–228
 - four categories of, 228
 - MNEs and, 227–229

- firms, ease of starting new, 422
 FirstSolar, 341–342
 Founder, 138
 FSAs. See firm specific advantages
- GDP. See gross domestic product GERD. See gross national expenditure on R&D
- Germany
 US compared with, 90–91, 103–104
 working hours in, 103–104
- global outsourcing industry
 China versus India in, 301–304 comparative advantages redefinition in, 332–333
 conclusions about, 336–337
 evolution of, 298–301
 industrial structure and company competitiveness transformation in, 335–336 institutional barriers in Chinese, 304–330 investment priorities resetting in, 333–334 mindset, changing, in, 331 policy development and, 330–336 policy-making simplification and, 331–332 research, areas for further, 330–336
- global sourcing, of innovation
 China and India and, 275–287
 conclusions about, 292–294
 defined, 269–270
 employment on-demand, 267 enterprise manufacturing sector and, 271–273 history of, 270, 289
 implications and challenges concerning, 292–294 implications for emerging economies, 294 implications for SMEs innovation, 292–293 in-house innovation sourcing and, 268 innovation capabilities challenges, 293 IP challenges, 293–294
 offshoring and outsourcing and, 269–272
- online marketplaces for STEM talent, 287–292 organizational capabilities challenges, 293
 overview, 267–268
 R&D strategies and, 270–271
 SMEs and, 271–273, 292–293
 sourcing models and, 269 STEM talent and, 279
 supply side of, 273
- government. See also local government development incentives Chinese aerospace industry and, 233
 incentives, 340–341
 intervention, 38–40, 238–242
 MNEs and, 238–243
 role in economic crisis, 47–48
 S&T appropriation fund statistics, 159
- gradualism, 130–131
- Great Britain, 42–43
- gross domestic product (GDP), 110, 111–112
- gross national expenditure on R&D (GERD) government S&T appropriation fund statistics and, 159 university funding sources, 161
- group centrism in China, 381–382
- integrative research and, 384–386 negative effects of, 380–381 team creativity and, 382–384
- growth patterns at Chinese companies, 340–342
 conclusions about, 342 example of, 341–342 government incentives, 340–341 market demands, 340
- guanxi* (bonding with strong supportive norms about reciprocity), 71–72
- Haier, 407–408
- hierarchy benevolent, 78–79 complexity and, 79–80
 decentralization of, 79–80 initiative and, 78–79
 innovativeness fused with, 80–81
 innovativeness problem within, 77–79

- High Power Distance/Collectivism, 64 high-level equilibrium trap, 87
 Hofstede, G., 394 home base-exploiting and augmenting R&D strategies, 270–271
 Hu Jintao, 154
 Huawei, 140–146
 comparative management models and, 406–407
 conclusions about, 359–360
 creativity of, 357–360
 information system of, 358 innovation-follower strategy of, 358–359 keys to success at, 360, 361
 overview about, 357–358
 relationship-oriented routines of, 358
 summary of strategies used by, 361 surrounding cities from countryside strategy of, 358 talent recruiting at, 359
 TM R&D and, 358–359
 human capital formation, 139–140 institutional constraints on, 376–378
 role of, 372–375
 hybrid firms, technology and, 139
 ICT. See information and communications technology imitation culture furthering, 16
 innovation and, 3–4
 The Knockoff Economy: How Imitation Sparks Innovation, 408–409
 shanzhaism, 408–409
 immigration, spatial homogeneity and, 399–400 India versus China, in global outsourcing industry, 301–304
 China and online marketplaces compared with, 290–291
 China compared with, 275–287, 290–291, 301–304
 fiber optic systems and, 45
 global sourcing of innovation and, 275–287
 innovation systems in, 278–279
 patenting activities in, 284–285, 286
 R&D investments by US companies and, 283–284 services outsourcing overview and, 25–26 university rankings in, 277 individual analysis, 26–28
 distance measures, 404–405 leadership, 81, 204
 Low Power Distance/Individualism, 64
 industrial policy comparative advantage and, 42–43
 economic zones and, 45
 failure, reasons for, 41 growth identification and facilitation and, 40–46 obstacle identification and, 44 paying attention to successful new industries, 45
 pioneering firms compensated for externalities, 45–46 relocation of firms and, 44 six-step framework for, 43–46
 tradable goods industries and, 43–44
 what's needed for successful, 42–43 industrial policymaking constraints to effective, 132–134 corruption and, 134
 credit and, 131–132
 East Asian economies and, 132 export-dependency and, 133–134 information asymmetries and, 133 obstacles to effective, 131–134
 SOE finance misallocation and, 132–135 structure of the state apparatus and, 132 industrial revolutions, 60–61
 Industrial Technology Research Institute (ITRI), 384–385 information and communications technology (ICT), 288–289 initiative, hierarchy and, 78–79 innovation. See also creativity; global sourcing, of innovation; national innovation system
 Beijing model of, 111

- China's capability of, 111–112
- China's challenge of, 75–77
- cooperation and, 56–57
- cultural constraints on, 378–387
- culture clashes and, 77
- as destructive, 59
- education and, 110
- empowerment and, 75–76
- entrepreneurial perspective and, 204–205
- exporting link with, 194
- factors influencing, 192–207
- footprints optimization, 254–256
- growth slowdown and, 109–110
- handicapped, 26
- hierarchy fused with, 80–81
- hierarchy problem and, 77–79
- history of, 6–7
- Huawei and, 358–359
- human capital role for, 372–375
- imitation and, 3–4
- incremental, 206
- India's systems of, 278–279
- inertia inhibiting routines of, 346–347
- institution support role for, 372–375
- institutional barriers to, 198
- institutional constraints on, 375–376
- The Knockoff Economy: How Imitation Sparks Innovation*, 408–409
- knowledge flows and, 249
- Li encouraging, 7–8
- Marx and, 4
- MIT and, 109–111
- MNEs and, 249–256
- new structuralism and, 35–36
- new-to-world, 423
- organizational qualities needed for, 76
- overview about, 25
- patents and, 7, 112, 113
- quantitative indications of, 111–112
- questions surrounding, 77
- R&D-GDP ratio and, 110, 111–112
- requirements, 74–75
- role of, 74–75
- routines of, 346–347
- SMEs and, 190–207
- at societal level, 76–77
- societal progress and, 63–64
- systems, in China and India, 278–279
- technology transfer and, 75, 79
- types of, 369–372
- unemployment and, 420
- vertical collectivism and, 386–387
- weak institutions for funding, 136–138
- workshop and, 75
- innovation-follower strategy, 358–359
- An Inquiry into the Nature and Causes of the Wealth of Nations* (Smith), 35
- institutional and cultural contexts
 - conclusions about, 388–390
 - cultural constraints on innovation, 378–387
 - cultural diversity, 378–380
 - group centrism, in China, 381–382
 - group centrism, negative effects of, 380–381
 - human capital, institutional constraints on, 376–378
 - human capital role and, 372–375
 - innovation, institutional constraints on, 375–376
 - innovation types and, 369–372
 - institution support role and, 372–375
 - overview, 368–369
 - Project 211 and Project 985 and, 376–377
 - TTP and, 377–378
 - vertical collectivism and, 386–387
- institutional and structural obstacles to industrial policymaking, 131–134
- Leninist party-state, 134–135
- middle income status impacted by, 131–138
- overview, 131
- to policies conducive for further development, 131–138
- weak institutions for funding innovation, 136–138
- institutional perspective
 - institutional barriers and, 198
 - IP protection and, 197
 - networking and, 196–197
 - resource-based view overlapping with, 193–194
 - SMEs and, 196–199

- institutional voids, 197
 - factors causing, 198–199
- insurance, institutions as, 72
- intangible assets, 369–370
- intellectual property (IP). See also patents
 - conclusions about, 176–179
 - effectiveness of system of, 421
 - global sourcing of innovation
 - challenges for, 293–294
 - legal risks and, 166–167
 - overview about, 22
 - ownership and decision-making
 - authority, 165
 - pessimistic view regarding, 16
 - policy constraints and, 164–168
 - profits distribution from university-owned, 168
 - SMEs and, 197
 - technology transfer and, 164–168
 - universities and, 165, 166–167, 168
- intellectual property rights (IPR)
 - background leading to, 152–153
 - conclusions about, 176–179
 - financial system abuses, 157–158
 - reward and punishment imbalances and, 158
 - self-serving behavior and, 157–158
- interdisciplinary research, 384
- invention
 - applications, 155
 - history of, 6–7
- invisible barriers. See societal forces, invisible
- IP. See intellectual property
- IPR. See intellectual property rights
- ITRI. See Industrial Technology Research Institute
- Japan
 - China compared with, 69–71
 - comparative advantage and, 42–43
 - centralization in, 70–71
 - human capital formation and, 139–140
 - rules of order and, 70
 - Shinto and, 69–70
 - unit of identity in, 69
- junk patents, 156–157
- The Knockoff Economy: How Imitation Sparks Innovation* (Raustiala & Sprigman), 408–409
- knowledge
 - creation, 369–370
 - diffusion, 369–370
 - from external sources, 200
 - flows, 249
 - impact, 369–370
 - management systems, 353–354
 - MNEs and, 253
 - SMEs and, 210–211
- Korea
 - background related to, 87–89
 - business system changes, 97–100
 - conclusions about, 102–105
 - constants, 100–102
 - at cultural level, 95
 - democratization in, 98–99
 - education and, 101, 102
 - future research implications, 102–105
 - human capital formation and, 139–140
 - implications for China from studying, 102–105
 - indirect finance in, 101
 - at middle level, 95–96
 - 1980 business systems of, 95–96
 - overview, 20–21, 89
 - patents and, 110–111
 - Samsung and, 102
 - short technology cycles and, 115–117
 - since 1980, 96–102
 - at top level, 96
 - top-down decision making in, 101
- labor
 - factors, leading to middle income status, 122
 - migration and, 4–5
- land used as collateral, 128–129
- Law on Promoting the Transformation of Scientific and Technological Achievement, 165
- leaders, business
 - bureaucratic mind-set, 342
 - entrepreneurial mind-set, 342, 345
 - mind-sets of, 342–345
 - risk averse mind-set, 343–344

- short-term mind-set, 342–343
- social networks mind-set, 343–344
- of SOEs, 344–345
- leadership, individual, 81, 204
- Lee Kun-hee, 102
- Leninist party-state
 - anti-reform elements within, 135
 - capitalism and, 134–135
 - institutional and structural obstacles and, 134–135
 - self-conflicted policies of, 134
- li*. See rules of order
- Li Keqiang, xvii, 7–8
- liberal market economies (LMEs), 91
- local government development
 - incentives
 - development zone fever and, 129–130
 - economic performance and cadre promotion link and, 127–128
 - hard economic targets and, 127–129
 - land used as collateral and, 128–129
 - local cadre performance and, 127–128
 - middle income status and, 127–130
 - as obstacles to future development, 127–130
 - revenue and, 128–129
 - zhaoshang yinzi* and, 128, 130
- location bound advantages, 228
- Low Power Distance/Individualism, 64
- Ma, Jack, 407
- Management and Organization Review* (MOR) Research Frontiers Conference, xvii
- market segmentation, 347–348
- Marx, Karl, 4
- masks
 - cultural distance, 403–404
 - homogeneous impact of cultural distance, 404
 - individual distance measures, 404–405
 - spatial homogeneity within single nation, 399–402
- middle income status
 - China's pillars of, 122–124
 - conclusions about, 146
 - financial repression leading to, 123–124
 - institutional and structural obstacles impacting, 131–138
 - labor factors leading to, 122
 - local government development incentives and, 127–130
 - policy choices leading to, 122–123
- middle income trap (MIT)
 - anti-corruption campaign and, 4–5
 - Brazil and Argentina and, 108
 - conclusions about, 117–118
 - criteria for assessing, 108–109
 - defined, 108
 - democracy and, 5
 - education and, 110
 - growth slowdown and, 109–110
 - innovation and, 109–111
 - institutions and, 88–89
 - NIS and, 122–124, 220–223
 - overview about, 108
 - patents and, 110–111
 - R&D-GDP ratio and, 110, 111–112
 - societal progress and, 60
 - technological specialization and, 112–117
- migrants
 - labor and, 4–5
 - social welfare and, 2–3
- migration, 4–5
- mind-sets
 - bureaucratic, 342, 343–345
 - business leaders, 342–345
 - entrepreneurial, 342, 345
 - risk averse, 343–344
 - short-term, 342–343
 - social networks, 343–344
 - of SOEs, 344–345
- MIT. See middle income trap
- mixed or state-led market economies, 91
- MNEs. See multinational enterprises
- model cities
 - barriers caused by policy in, 328–330
 - downstream outsourcing value-chain activities focus in, 329–330
 - goals and policies, 308–330
 - outsourcing and, 309–327
 - point to surface policy approach in, 328
 - supply side focus in, 328–329

- MOR. See Management and Organization Review Research Frontiers Conference
- multinational enterprises (MNEs) absorptive capacity enhancement in, 256–258 acquisitions of, 24
 BGI and, 254–255
 challenges facing, 256
 China and, 224–226, 230–232, 239
 Chinese aerospace industry and, 232–236 collaboration optimization and, 258–260 communication enhancement in, 256–258 competitive disadvantage and, 251
 conclusions about, 263–264
 conventional wisdom and, 249–254 discovery units and, 255–256 discussion, 236–237 domestic market and, 250–251
 FSAs and, 227–229
 global innovation and, 249–254 go out policy and, 251 government interventions effects and, 238–242
 innovation and, 249–256
 innovation footprints optimization and, 254–256 interventions, towards more precise, 242–243 knowledge and, 253
 learning and, 23–24
 lessons for governments regarding, 242–243 local rules of game and, 237–238 mature technologies acquisition and, 251–252 NIS and middle income trap and, 220–223
 overview about, 23–24, 219–220, 248
 recombinant advantages and, 226–230 research agenda related to, 260–263 reverse capability upgrading and, 252 study of partnerships in China, 230–232
 Three Rules for Understanding China and, 239
- national business systems literature, 90
- national innovation system (NIS) advantages, 224
 China's middle income status success and, 122–124 manufacturing sector and, 225 middle income trap and, 220–223
 overview about, 121–122
 STEM and, 152
- National Intellectual Property Rights Strategy Outline (NIPSO), 154
- National Patent Development Strategy, 145–146
- natural resource-abundant countries, 48–49
- neoliberalism, 33–34
- network perspective clusters and, 202–204
 cooperation and, 201–202 knowledge from external sources and, 200
 lock-in and, 203
 resource-based view overlapping with, 193–194
 SMEs and, 199–204
 varying forms of networking and, 200–201
- networking
 institutional perspective and, 196–197
 SMEs and, 196–197
 social networks mind-set and, 343–344 varying forms of, 200–201
- new structuralism agriculture and, 48–49 application of, 40–46
 China's growth and, 49–51
 conclusions about, 51–52
 countercyclical policy and, 47–48 developing countries, different financial structure for, 46–47 development economics and, 34–35
 economic zones and, 45
 endogeneity and, 38–40
 factor endowments and, 36–38 government intervention and, 38–40 government's role in economic crisis, 47–48

- growth identification and facilitation, 40–46
- hypothesis of, 36–38
- industrial policy, six-step framework for, 43–46
- industrial policy, what's needed for successful, 42–43
- industrial policy failure and, 41
- industrial upgrading and, 35–36
- innovation and, 35–36
- natural resource-abundant countries and, 48–49
- obstacle identification and, 44
- other issues illuminated by, 46–49
- overview about, 18–19
- paying attention to successful new industries, 45
- pioneering firms compensated for externalities, 45–46
- relocation of firms and, 44
- Ricardian equivalence trap and, 47–48
- technological innovation and, 35–36
- tradable goods industries and, 43–44
- what is, 35–40
- new-to-world innovation, share of, 423
- NIPSO. See National Intellectual Property Rights Strategy Outline
- NIS. See national innovation system
- non-location bound advantages, 228
- North, Douglass, 35–36
- Northeast Asian advanced economies, 91
- offshoring, 269–272
- One Hundred Talents Awards, 377–378
- one-child policy, savings rates and, 2
- online creativity, 369–370
- online marketplaces
- China compared with India in, 290–291
 - drivers of, 288–290
 - emerging economies and, 290
 - global sourcing history and, 289
 - growth of platforms and users of, 290
 - ICT advances and, 288–289
 - independent contracting and, 289
 - skill shortage in US driving, 289
 - for STEM talent on demand, 287–292
- technology start-ups, growth of, and, 289
- optimistic view
- of China's prospects, 6–14
 - of domestic markets, 12–13
 - education and, 139–140
 - history of invention and, 6–7
 - overview of, xviii
 - patents and, 7
 - of STEM workforce, 13–14
 - technology and, 138–140
 - universities, upgrading of, 8–11
 - of VC funding, 11–12
- organizational analysis, 26–28
- outsourcing. See also global outsourcing industry
- China's hubs of, 279, 280
 - offshoring and, 269–272
 - service model cities, 309–327
 - services, 25–26
- patents. See also utility model patent
- conclusions about, 176–179
 - data research, 145–146
 - flawed policy and, 153–158
 - incentives to spur applications, 154–156
 - increase in, 7, 112, 113
 - India compared with China regarding, 284–285, 286
 - innovation and, 7, 112, 113
 - invention applications for country office statistics, 155
 - IP ownership and decision-making authority and, 165
 - junk, 156–157
 - Korea and, 110–111
 - lack of incentives for, 164
 - MIT and, 110–111
 - National Patent Development Strategy, 145–146
 - optimistic view and, 7
 - performance and incentives misalignment, 156–157
 - preferential tax treatment, 155
 - remuneration, 155
 - reward and punishment imbalances and, 158
 - self-serving behavior and, 157–158
 - subsidies, 154–155

- patents (cont.)
 - suitability and technology, 175
 - technological catch-up and, 112
 - at universities, current state of, 158–163
 - universities producing, 10–11
 - volume of, 169
- patrimonial autocracy
 - benevolence evolving in, 82–83
 - building social capital in, 81–82
- personalism, 422
 - overview about, 27–28
 - societal progress and, 62
- pessimistic view
 - of China's prospects, 15–18
 - corruption, 16–17
 - environmental degradation, 17–18
 - global tensions, 18
 - governance challenges, due to size, 15–16
 - IP system and, 16
 - overview of, xviii
 - political analysis, 18–22
 - private sector, 81
 - Project 211, 376–377
 - Project 985, 9, 376–377
- protection
 - IP, 197
 - local protectionism, 347–348
 - UMP and, 169–176
- R&D . See research and development
- R&D-GDP ratio, 110, 111–112
- recombinant advantages
 - MNEs and, 226–230
 - origins, 227
- reform without losers approach, 375
- regional variation, 104
- relocation of firms, 44
- Ren Zhengfei, 140–146, 406–407
- research
 - cost of capital, 142–144
 - heuristics of, 140–146
 - markets shaped by state, 144–145
 - patent data, 145–146
 - placing firms in proper financial context and, 141–142
- research and development (R&D). See also gross national expenditure on R&D
 - education and, 3
 - exploitation of foreign assets of, 423
 - increase in, 3, 6
 - intensity of, 281–283
 - investment growth in China, 281
 - investments by US companies, 283–284
 - R&D-GDP ratio, 110, 111–112
 - resource allocation effectiveness and, 421–422
 - strategies, 270–271
 - Tencent and, 356–357
 - TM R&D and, 358–359
- researchers, 167–168
- resource allocation
 - creativity and, 353
 - effectiveness, 421–422
- resource-based view
 - explained, 193
 - exporting-innovation link and, 194
 - financial resources and, 193
 - innovation predictors study related to, 195
 - other perspectives overlapping with, 193–194
 - SMEs and, 193–196
- reverse capability upgrading, 252
- Ricardian equivalence trap, 47–48
- Rolls-Royce, 235
- routines, innovation-oriented, 346–347
- Ruiman, Zhang, 407–408
- rules of order, 70
- Samsung, 102
- SASAC. See State-Owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission
- savings rates, 2
- scarcity among plenty paradox, 401
- science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM)
 - global innovation activities and, 279
 - NIS and, 152
 - online marketplaces for talent in, 287–292
 - optimistic view of, 13–14
 - overview about, 25
 - recruiting skilled talent in, 267–268
 - web-based brokerage platforms and, 268

- workforce, 13–14
- science and technology (S&T)
 - appropriation fund statistics, 159
 - Deng and, 153–154
 - Hu and, 154
 - NIS and, 152
 - role of agencies in university, 166
 - S&T Progress Law, 165
- sectorial-level analysis, 25–26
- self-expression/ secular-rational pattern, 64–65
- services outsourcing, 25–26
- shanzhaim* (brand imitation), 408–409
- Shinto, 69–70
- short technology cycles
 - conclusions about, 117–118
 - explained, 114
 - Korea and, 115–117
 - overview about, 21
 - software and, 114
 - Taiwan and, 115–117
 - technological specialization and, 112–117
- silo-structure, 101–102
- small and medium-size enterprises (SMEs)
 - background regarding, 189–190
 - clusters and, 202–204
 - cooperation and, 201–202
 - education and, 196
 - entrepreneurial perspective and, 204–207
 - financial resources and, 193
 - global sourcing of innovation and, 271–273, 292–293
 - innovation and, 190–207
 - institutional barriers and, 198
 - institutional perspective and, 196–199
 - IP protection and, 197
 - knowledge and, 210–211
 - level of financing for, 422–423
 - lock-in and, 203
 - network concept and, 211
 - network perspective and, 199–204
 - networking and, 196–197
 - overview about, 23
 - policies encouraging, 195
 - policy implications related to, 207–209
 - questions for further research, 210–212
 - resource-based view and, 193–196
 - sector contrasts and, 212
 - as sources of innovation, 190–192
 - varying forms of networking and, 200–201
 - VC and, 195–196
- Smith, Adam, 35
- social capital, building, 81–82
- social welfare, migrants and, 2–3
- societal forces, invisible
 - barriers to success in, 82
 - conclusions about, 83–84
 - fear and, 82–83
 - overview about, 56–58
- societal progress
 - autocracy and, 59–60
 - complexity and, 59–60
 - general problem of, 58–60
 - innovativeness and cooperativeness and, 63–64
 - middle class autonomy and, 63
 - MIT and, 60
 - outside methods and, 61
 - personalism and, 62
 - processes associated with, 63–64
 - realms of, 58–59
 - rules for, 60–64
 - traditions and, 60–61
- societal structures
 - central authority and, 67–68
 - civilization pretending to be state, 68
 - cool-water hypothesis and, 66–67
 - evolutionary shaping of, 64–69
 - human drives and, 68–69
 - self-expression/ secular-rational pattern, 64–65
 - survival/traditional pattern, 64–65
 - theories of evolution of, 65–69
- socio-economics
 - analysis, 18–22
 - approach to cross-cultural research, 395–396
- SOEs. See state-owned enterprises
- software, 114
- sourcing models, 269
- spatial homogeneity
 - biracials and biculturals/ multicultural and, 401–402

- spatial homogeneity (cont.)
 brain circulation and, 400 immigration and, 399–400 within single nation, 399–402 war for talent and, 401
- S&T. See science and technology
- S&T Progress Law, 165
- State Assets Transfer Interim Measures Order No. 3, 165
- State-Owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission (SASAC), 165, 166, 344–345
- state-owned enterprises (SOEs), 23 business leaders of, 344–345
 competition and, 80
 finance misallocation and, 132–135 flaws, 80–81
 mind-sets of, 344–345
 SASAC and, 344–345
 share of resources flowing to, 422
- STEM. See science, technology, engineering, and mathematics
- structuralism, 32–33. See also new structuralism
- Suntech, 341–342
- supply side of global sourcing of innovation, 273 model cities and, 328–329 surrounding cities from countryside strategy, 358 survival/traditional pattern, 64–65
- Taiwan
 financial repression and, 125
 human capital formation and, 139–140
 short technology cycles and, 115–117
- technology. See also science, technology, engineering, and mathematics; science and technology; short technology cycles acquisition of mature, 251–252 catch-up, 112
 China's specialization in, 112–117 growth of start-ups in, 289 human capital formation and, 139–140
 hybrid firms and, 139
 ICT, 288–289
 ITRI, 384–385
 Law on Promoting the Transformation of Scientific and Technological Achievement, 165
 MNEs and, 251–252
 new structuralism and, 35–36
 optimism about, 138–140 patent suitability and, 175 physical, 87
 start-ups, growth of, 289 technology transfer
 conclusions about, 176–179
 innovation and, 75, 79
 IP legal risks and, 166–167
 IP ownership and decision-making authority and, 165
 IP policy constraints and, 164–168
 lack of incentives for, 164 profits distribution from university-owned IP and, 168 role of agencies in S&T, 166 at universities, 158–163, 164, 166 value of university, 163
 volume of university, 159
- Telekom Research & Development (TM R&D), 358–359
- Tencent
 creativity of, 355–357
 keys to success at, 360, 361
 managers of, 356–357 market-oriented routines of, 356
 open public platforms of, 357
 overview about, 355–356
 R&D and, 356–357
 summary of strategies used by, 361
 synergizing complementarities of, 356 talent echelon system of, 357
- Thousand Talents Program (TTP), 377–378
 vertical collectivism and, 386–387
- Thousand-Hundred-Ten project, 308
- Three Rules for Understanding China, 239
- TM R&D. See Telekom Research & Development
- tradable goods industries, 43–44 transaction-related advantages, 228 transdisciplinary research, 384

- trust building social capital for, 81–82 cooperation and, 71–72
 institutionalized, 424
 TTP. See Thousand Talents Program
- UMP. See utility model patent
- unemployment, 420
- United States (US)
 Federal Reserve, 123
 Germany compared with, 90–91, 103–104
 R&D investments by companies in, 283–284
 skill shortage in, 289
 working hours in, 103–104
- universities academic publications, 10 autonomy of Chinese, 424 GERD funding sources, 161 history related to, 8–10
 IP legal risks and, 166–167
 IP ownership and decision-making authority and, 165 lack of incentives for patenting and technology transfer, 164 optimism and, 8–11
 patenting activity, current state of, 158–163
 patents and, 10–11
 policy impediments to, 167–168 profits distribution from IP, 168
 Project 211 and, 376–377
 Project 985 and, 9, 376–377 role of agencies in S&T technology transfer and, 166 technology transfer, current state of, 158–163
 upgrading of, 8–11
 value of technology transfer at, 163 volume of technology transfers at, 159
- US. See United States
- utility model patent (UMP) abuses, 170–171 approval times, 171 behavioral preferences differences and, 175–176 complexity of, 170
 conclusions about, 176–178
 current development status of, 169–170 examination process, 170
 filing fees, 171
 invalidated in 2008 compared to 2007, 171
 invalidation rates, 171
 invalidation requests, 171
 low foreign activity reasons, 173–176
 perceived system weaknesses, 175 protection system effectiveness, 169–176
 technology and patent suitability, 175 validity of, challenging, 171–173
- variable interest entity (VIE), 137–138
- Varieties of Capitalism literature, 90
- venture capital (VC) alternatives to, 138 foreign, 137–138
 laws regarding, 136
 optimistic view of, 11–12
 SMEs and, 195–196
 sources of, 137
 weaknesses of, 136–138
- vertical collectivism, 386–387
- VIE. See variable interest entity
- war for talent, 401
- Washington Consensus
 Chile and, 40
 lost decades and, 33–34
- weapon of massive asset destruction, 124–127
- wind power, 142–143
- wing-boxes, 235
- World Values Surveys, 64–65
- Xi Jinping, 4–5
- Xiaomi, 408
- zhaoshang yinzi* (luring investment), 128, 130