

Index

- Abel, Hermann, 213
- Agreement for the Repression of Obscene Publications of May 4, 1910, 68
- Altenloh, Emilie, 63, 93, 124, 230
- Ammann, Karl, 69, 191, 254, 261, 262, 264–265, 269, 282
- Anders als die Andern/Different from the Others*, 164, 171, 256
- anti-“trash” campaigns
  - accusations of profiteering after WWI, 175
  - accusations of profiteering during WWI, 129
  - and national identity in Imperial Germany, 15, 111–118
  - and the Imperial Press Law of May 1874, 102
  - and the Rechtsstaat, 102, 103, 118
  - as a national movement, 108–110
  - continuities between Imperial Germany and the Weimar Republic, 164, 190
  - criticism of movies and pulp fiction, 76–78
  - description of pamphlets’ impact on boys and girls, 85–86
  - descriptions of “trash” inspired crimes and suicide, 81–83, 85, 88
  - during WWI, 122, 136, 144–147
  - emphasis on youth, 73, 94–95, 121
  - measurement of early commercial fiction and movies, 43
  - opposition from film industry, 82, 87
  - regional activism in Imperial Germany, 78, 91
  - rhetorical strategies in Imperial Germany, 2–3, 8–9, 73–74, 76, 78–80, 91–92, 94–95, 102–104, 121, 273
  - rhetorical strategies in Weimar, 191, 210
  - standardization of rhetoric, 74, 76, 78–80, 92, 107–108, 110–111
  - use of rhetoric by Nazi authorities, 278–282
  - use of rhetoric by regional authorities in Imperial Germany, 91–92
  - use of rhetoric in passage of 1926 publications law, 162, 205
  - use of rhetoric in Weimar to critique “enlightenment” films, 175–176, 190, 191
- Asphalt*, 261
- Aufklärungsfilme*. See Enlightenment films
- Backfisch* stories, 38, 206
- Baden, 21, 57, 59, 105, 133, 154, 194, 195, 238, 251, 281
- Badish Criminal Code
  - Article 63, 57–59, 60, 62
- Baker, Josephine, 244, 260
- Basic Law of 1949
  - Article 5, 287, 288, 289
  - provisions on youth, 289
- Battleship Potemkin*, 203, 205, 249
- Bavaria, 62, 105, 134, 153, 194, 205, 208, 223, 224, 243, 250

- Bavarian People's Party (BVP), 180, 201, 204, 208
 Bild und Filmamt. See Bufa
 Bohn, Friedrich Christian, 76
 Brüning, Heinrich, 249
 Brunner, Karl, 96, 107
   and censorship during WWI, 137, 139–140
   as an anti-"trash" lecturer, 107 assessment of pamphlet fiction, 38
   description of "trashy" films, 88–90
   description of anti-"trash" campaigns as a national movement, 109
   description of film industry's popularity in Imperial Germany, 77 explanation of the term "trash," 79 participation in drafting the National Motion Picture Law, 197, 243
   Unser Volk in Gefahr! Ein Kampfruf gegen die Schundliteratur, 79
 Bub, Gertraude, 124, 127
 Bufa, 126
 Buffalo Bill, 2, 25, 27, 28, 29, 35, 74, 83
 Buffalo Bill pamphlet series, 26, 28, 31–33, 129, 135, 192, 206, 215, 216
   Buffalo Bills Todesritt durch das feindliche Lager, 31
   Ein unbekannter Verbündeter, 33
 Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, 23–25, 26–28
 Bulcke, Carl, 247
 Bundesprüfstelle für jugendgefährdende Schriften/Federal Review Board for Youth-Endangering Publications, 289
 Buntline, Ned, 27
 Burgfrieden, 130, 147
   and wartime censorship, 144

 Catholic Center Party, 94, 141, 179, 180, 196, 199, 201, 204, 208, 245, 246, 268 censorship. See also impact censorship and "enlightenment" films, 162–163 and debates about morality in Weimar, 226
   and gender norms, 10, 12–13, 163–164
   and national identity in Weimar Germany, 227
   and political centralization, 13–14, 65–67, 68–70, 221, 241
   and social welfare, 9–10, 163, 189, 190, 196, 199, 219
   and the Weimar constitution, 187–189, 190, 209–210
   as a device for preserving gender norms, 178
   as a form of youth protection, 102–103, 201, 210, 273 continuities between Weimar and Nazi Germany, 10–12, 20, 217, 219, 222, 268, 279, 283–284 debates about display cases in Imperial Germany, 105 debates about social rights and individual rights in Weimar Germany, 199–200, 213
   during WWI, 123, 125, 131–135, 136, 137, 143–144
   film censorship prior to 1914, 56–59, 62–65, 106
   in Nazi Germany, 273–278
   laws in other countries, 198–199, 242 legal challenges by movie theater owners prior to 1914, 59–60 municipal and state regulation of commercial fiction in Imperial Germany, 53–55, 56 municipal and state regulation of film after WWI, 177–178, 193–196, 236, 239 November 12, 1918 repeal, 1, 157, 160–161, 177, 194
   passage of National Motion Picture Law, 196–198
   regional enforcement of 1920 film law, 241
   Reichstag discussions about national legislation in 1918, 142, 156
   Reichstag proposal regarding cinema licensing (1914), 69
   state regulation prior to 1914, 106
   WWI discussions about uniform regulations, 137–139
   WWI registries of "trash," 134–136, 137
 Center Party. See Catholic Center Party
 Christian Democratic Union (CDU), 284, 286
 Christian Social Union (CSU), 284, 287
 Civil Code, 53
   and parental rights, 100
 Cody, William, 23, 26–28

Index

313

- colporteur books, 30–31
 Commercial Code, 53
   Article 42a, 55, 66
   Article 43 and proposals to add Article 43a, 66, 102
   Article 56, 55, 65, 66, 107, 134, 135, 136, 193
 commercial fiction. See also pamphlet fiction and federal legal codes prior to 1914, 55–56
   during WWI, 127–129
   in Imperial Germany, 30–39, 48
   in Weimar, 192, 231
 commercial mass culture
   development of in Imperial Germany, 29–31, 74–75
   during WWI, 122–130
   early regional encounters with, 22–23
   in Weimar Germany, 192, 202–204, 232
   negative reception of, 48–49, 50, 75
 Council of People's Representatives, 160, 179, 180, 194, 236

Das Mädchen aus der Ackerstrasse/The Girl from Acker Street, 255, 257, 259
Das Paradies der Liebestollen/Paradise of the love-stricken, 173 Decree for the Protection of People and State (1933), 274 deputy commanding generals, 119, 121, 125
   and wartime censorship, 119–120, 131, 140
   compulsory savings plans, 153–155
   controls on youth, 148, 152–155
   registries of "trash", 134, 135, 137–138, 139, 158
Der Blaue Engel/The Blue Angel, 255
Der Film-Kurier, 246
Der Jüngling aus der Konfektion/The Young Man from the Ragtrade, 261
Der Raub der Dollarprinzessin/The Rape of the Dollar Princess, 255
Der Todesjockey/The jockey of death, 133
 Deulig, 126
Deutsche Dichter-Gedächtnis-Stiftung
   /German Poets' Memorial Foundation, 76, 107
 Dibelius, Martin, 265, 268
Die Flüchtlinge/Refugees, 270

Die Freudlose Gasse/The Joyless Street, 258, 259
Die Königin der Revue/La Revue des Revues/Parisian Pleasures, 260
Die Nacht im Grünen Affen/The night in the green monkey, 257, 258
Die Nächte einer Schönen Frau/A Woman of Paris, 260
Die schöne Krankenschwester/The Pretty Nurse, 214
Dürerbund/Dürer League, 76, 107, 110

 education, right of the child to, 96
 Eichler, Adolf, 31, 79
 Eisner, Kurt, 223
 Enlightenment films, 9, 157
   and film censorship in Weimar, 162–163, 189, 190, 193, 199, 204, 246 and supposed impact on gender norms, 172–175, 178
   and supposed impact on morality, 171, 172, 177, 190
   as "trash" and "filth," 175
   as a threat to national recovery after WWI, 176–177 complaints about, 160, 161, 173, 176, 191 growth after WWI, 161, 165, 171–172
Erziehungsrechte. See education, right of the child to Es werde Licht!!/Let There Be Light!, 168, 171
Ethel King pamphlet series, 26, 36, 38, 135

 Federal Republic of Germany constitutional protections of individual rights, 287, 288
   free speech, 288
   judicial review, 288
 federalism, 3–4, 52–53, 55–56, 72–73, 105–107
 Feldgrau films, 126
 film
   as a vehicle for free speech, 202 development of industry in Imperial Germany, 39, 42, 124 development of industry in Weimar Germany, 192, 231
   during WWI, 123–127, 158, 230, 231
   early movie theaters, 41–42, 46–47
   early performances in variety theaters, 40

- film (cont.)
   local views, 44–46
   post-WWI "enlightenment" genre, 161
   post-WWI socialization proposals, 160 regional experiences in Imperial Germany, 43–50
   traveling film shows, 40–41
- filth
   definition in Imperial Germany, 3, 73–74, 75, 79, 207
   definition in Weimar Germany, 191
- Fit to Fight*, 168
- Foerster, Friedrich Wilhelm, 155
- Frank Allan* pamphlet series, 192, 215, 216, 232
- Frankenstein*, 256
- Frauennot—Frauenglück/Women's Anguish—Women's Joy*, 256
- Frauenschicksal/The destiny of women*, 260
- gender
   and censorship, 163–164
   and the "new woman," 170
   and the National Motion Picture Law, 260–262
   imbalance created by WWI, 165
   post-WWI labor policy, 170–171
   supposed impact of WWI on male and female norms, 169–170
- German Democratic Party (DDP), 188, 193, 204, 212
- German National People's Party (DNVP), 180, 189, 196, 197, 199, 201, 204, 205,
 207, 208, 213, 218, 246
- German People's Party (DVP), 180, 196, 199, 204, 208, 218, 246
- Gesetz über die Verbreitung
 jugendgefährdender Schriften und Medieninhalte/Law about the Distribution of Youth-Endangering Publications and Media Content*, 290
- Gesetz über die Verbreitung
 jugendgefährdender Schriften/Law
 about the Distribution of Youth-Endangering Publications*, 285–286, 289, 290
- Gesetz zur Bewahrung der Jugend vor Schund- und Schmutzschriften. See Law to Protect Youth from Trashy and Filthy Publications*
- Goebbels, Joseph, 275, 277, 278
- Göring, Hermann, 276
- Grabinksi, Bruno, 167
- Grünberg, Otto Leixner von, 76
- Harald Harst* pamphlet series, 192, 232
- Heinz Brandt* pamphlet series, 129, 135, 206, 215
- Heinze trial, 51–52, 54
- Heldt, Arthur, 80, 83, 116, 203
- Hellwig, Albert
   analysis of causal link between "trash"
     and crime, 87
   assessment of film's development prior to 1914, 105
   assessment of WWI's impact on youth, 150 criticisms of "wartime trash," 146
   description of "trashy" films, 86–87
   discussion of the regulation of pulp fiction
     in Weimar Germany, 191
   explanation of impact censorship, 61–62 participation in drafting the National Motion Picture Law, 197, 243 support for centralized film censorship in Imperial Germany, 69 survey of state authorities regarding a national film censor, 65
- Hindenburg, Paul von, 141, 225, 274
- Hintertreppenromane. See* colporteur books
- Hirschfeld, Magnus, 168, 169, 171, 226
- Hitler, Adolf, 228, 273
- Hugenberg, Alfred, 126
- Hyänen des Meeres/Hyenas of the sea*, 258
- impact censorship, 61, 197
- Imperial Press Law of May 1874, 73
   and film advertisements, 60 applicability to movies, 56
   as a legal barrier to print censorship prior to 1914, 55, 66
   during WWI, 120, 131
- Independent Social Democratic Party (USPD), 2, 179, 189, 199, 223, 245
- International Treaty for Combating the Dissemination of Obscene
 Publications, 67–68
- Jahrmarktkinos. See* traveling film shows
- Jellinek, Camilla, 261, 266, 269
- Jellinek, Georg, 186, 269
- John Kling* pamphlet series, 192, 232
- Joos, Joseph, 196

Index

315

- Jugendschutzgesetz*/Youth Protection Law, 290
 Just, Theodor, 79
- Kaspar, Otto Alban, 21, 22, 194
 Kästner, Erich, 284
 Kracauer, Siegfried, 161
 Krebs, Engelbert, 172, 176, 246
Krieg und Liebe pamphlet series, 145, 206, 215
Kriegsschundliteratur. See wartime trash
- Laband, Paul, 186
Ladenkino. See shop theaters
 Law to Protect Youth from Trashy and Filthy Publications, 2, 120, 162, 200–202, 213–214, 215
 and political centralization, 207, 221, 241
 and wartime “trash” registries, 142, 158
 appeals process, 222, 229
 as a form of youth protection, 201, 210–212
 debates about review boards and their composition, 207–209, 250–252 enforcement, 220, 233–234, 235 failure to define “trash,” 202, 205–207 national registry, 200, 215–216, 233, 242, 271
 opposition to, 201, 202, 206–208, 212–213, 251
 political impact of, 211, 213, 217–218 review boards, 229, 233, 235, 242 review boards’ definition of “trash,” 213–214, 216
 support for, 201, 210
 Legal Guardianship Code, 100
Lex Heinze. See National Code of Criminal Law: Article 184a Local Committee for Film Maintenance in Heidelberg after 1933, 268–270
 enforcement of film law, 255, 256, 262
 membership, 263–266
 participation in appeals process, 254–263
 Ludendorff, Erich, 126, 141, 225, 231
- Malva*, 260
 Marzen, Peter, 45
 May, Karl, 25, 84–85
- Messter, Oskar, 39, 44, 123, 302, 306
 morality
 1904 conference on “immoral literature,” 67 and “enlightenment” films, 160, 171, 172, 193
 and national identity in Weimar Germany, 16, 223, 225, 271
 and the state as a guardian of norms and mores, 52
 Berlin as morally “lax,” 16, 220, 227, 229, 244, 248, 253
 debates about immorality in Weimar Germany, 226 debates about one unifying morality in Weimar Germany, 220, 221, 229, 242, 263, 271
 definition of term, 220
 Heinze trial and fears of increasing immorality, 51–52
 National Motion Picture Law’s provision on immorality, 226 Progressive explanations for immorality, 88 supposed existence of regional moralities in Weimar Germany, 220, 221, 227–228, 242, 252, 271 supposed impact of “trash,” 110, 117 supposed impact of WWI, 150, 166–169
- Mumm, Reinhard, 196
Muß die Frau Mutter werden?/Must a Woman Become a Mother?, 256
- National Association of Protestant Youth Groups, 111
 National Code of Criminal Law, 53
 and parental rights, 100
 Article 184, 54, 193, 279
 Article 184a, 54, 193
 proposed amendments to Article 180, 52
 national identity, 14–15
 and censorship, 242
 and debates about censorship, 19, 227
 and debates about morality, 19, 242–243, 253
 during WWI, 125
 in Imperial Germany, 112–114, 224–225
 in Weimar Germany, 16–17, 223–224, 225–226, 227–228, 270–271

- National Motion Picture Law, 2, 120, 161, 163, 197–198
 and political centralization, 220, 232, 241, 271
 and social welfare, 199–200
 and youth, 216, 217
 appeals process, 222, 229, 253–263
 criticism of appellate court, 247, 257
 criticism of federal reviewers, 221, 227, 246–247, 256–257, 258
 debates about morality standards, 242, 254, 258
 debates about review boards and their composition, 242, 243–245, 248–249
 discussion of December 1919 draft, 243
 disputes about centralized censorship, 246, 248, 249
 drafting and passage of, 196–197
 enforcement of, 217, 221, 232, 235, 268
 federal review boards, 197, 201, 229, 233, 235, 245
 impact censorship, 197, 253
 legislative proposals to decentralize
 censorship, 248
 local film watch committees, 236–239, 240, 267
 opposition to, 199–200, 220, 221, 241
 proposed revisions to, 248–249
 provision regarding immorality, 227, 256–258
 public familiarity with censorship, 268, 272, 284
 regional variations in enforcement, 240, 241
 support for, 199
 National Socialist German Workers' Party
 (NSDAP), 228
 Naumann, Friedrich, 183
Nick Carter pamphlet series, 26, 34–35, 105, 129, 135, 192, 206, 215, 216
Carruthers, der Verbrechenkönig, 34
 obscenity, 53–55
 occupational freedom, 30, 98
 Odenwald, Jenny, 265
 OHL. See Supreme Command of the Army
 Omohundro, John Burwell "Texas Jack," 27
 Oswald, Richard, 168
 pamphlet fiction
 development of in Imperial Germany, 31, 37, 38–39
 during WWI, 128, 145
 in Weimar Germany, 192, 210
 male and female audiences, 38, 145
 popular series during WWI, 129, 135, 145
 popular series in Imperial Germany, 34, 36, 37, 38
 popular series in Weimar Germany, 192 supposed impact on boys and girls, 85–86
 Polligkeit, Wilhelm, 96, 211
 Polunbi, 68
 Popert, Hermann, 207
 Preuss, Hugo, 180, 183, 187
 Progressivism, 8, 88, 182
Prostitution, 172
 Prussia, 63–64, 223, 224
Prussian Allgemeines Landrecht, 99 Prussian Law of Compulsory Correctional Education of 1878, 100
 Prussian Law of Siege, 119, 120, 130, 133, 136, 137, 138, 141, 148, 154, 158
Rat der Volksbeauftragten. See Council of People's Representatives Rechtsstaat
 as a legal barrier to censorship, 73, 103, 118, 121, 130, 143, 158, 190
 legal definition of, 5–7
Reichsfilm dramaturg, 274
Reichslichtspielgesetz. See National Motion Picture Law
 Reichstag. See also Weimar National Assembly
 and sovereignty in Weimar Germany, 182 approval of war credits in 1914, 130
 consideration of legislation regarding film in 1918, 141, 156
 passage of the Law to Protect Youth from Trashy and Filthy Publications, 120, 200, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 218, 251
 proposals to revise the National Motion Picture Law, 248, 249
 Samuleit, Paul, 146
 Saxony, 65, 105, 135, 195, 223, 224, 236, 243, 251
 Schmidt, Georg, 96
schulentlassene Jugend, 73, 97, 98–99
schulentlassene weibliche Jugend, 97, 98 Schultze, Ernst
 criticism of pamphlet fiction, 28, 29, 38, 108, 117

Index

317

- criticism of publishers, 116
 definition of the terms "trash" and
 "filth," 78–79
Die Schundliteratur—Ihr Vordringen, Ihre Folgen, Ihre Bekämpfung, 78
 discussion of movies, 76
 explanation for the origins of commercial mass culture, 30
 founding of German Poets' Memorial Foundation, 76
 support for anti-"trash" movement, 110
Schundfilms, 77, 86–87, 88–90
Schundliteratur
 development of term, 76–81
 subgenres within pamphlet stories, 80–83
 use of term by state authorities, 91–92
 Seeger, Ernst, 227, 247
Sherlock Holmes pamphlet series, 26, 36–37, 135, 192, 215
Der Mädchenmörder von Boston, 81
*Detective Sherlock Holmes and His World-Famous Adventures/Detektiv
 Sherlock Holmes und seine weltberühmten Abenteuer*, 36
Die blutigen Juwelen, 36
 shop theaters, 2, 23, 41, 42, 47, 52, 74
 Siebert, Clara, 160, 172, 177, 267–268
 Skladanowsky Brothers, 43
 Social Democratic Party (SPD), 117, 179, 180, 200, 204, 218, 224
Sozialstaat/social people's state, 9, 190
Sparzwang. See compulsory savings plans
Stadt in Sicht/City in View, 260, 262 statutory positivism, 186–187, 219
 Süersen, Elisabeth, 144
 Supreme Command of the Army (OHL), 126, 131
 Taube, Max, 96
 Tessoroff, Wilhelm, 129, 145
 Thieleman, Walter, 139
 Third Reich
 confiscation of "trash," 276
 implementation of pre-censorship, 277–278
 nullification of the Law to Protect Youth
 from Trashy and Filthy Publications (1935), 277
 Reich Ministry for Public Enlightenment and Propaganda, 277
 revision of National Motion Picture Law (1934), 274–275
 suspension of Article 118, 274
 use of anti-"trash" rhetoric, 278–282
 Tingel-Tangels, 29, 120
 trash
 as a symbol of capitalism's negative impact, 115
 as an external foe, 114
 definition in Imperial Germany, 3, 7, 25–26, 73–74, 75, 79–80, 92, 105, 110–111, 117, 147
 definition in Nazi Germany, 7, 279–282 definition in the Federal Republic of Germany, 286
 definition in Weimar, 7, 203, 205–207
 definition in WWI, 7, 122, 144, 147
 trash literature. See Schundliteratur
 trashy movies. See Schundfilms
 traveling film shows, 40
 Treaty of Versailles, 223, 228
 Universum Film AG (Ufa), 126, 129, 231, 244 unruliness, 121, 148, 149–151, 152
 Van Rensselaer Dey, Frederick, 34
*Verein für Massenverbreitung guter
 Schriften/Society for the Mass
 Distribution of Good Literature*, 76
Viktoria und ihr Husar/Victoria and Her Hussar, 257
Volksbund zur Bekämpfung des Schmutzes in Wort und Bild/People's League for Combating Filth in Word and Image, 76, 108
Wanda van Brannburg pamphlet series, 38
 wartime trash
 and profiteering, 129
 definition of, 7, 128
 development of term, 128
 military registries, 135, 137–138, 139
 purported impact on youth, 144–146
 waywardness, 121, 148, 149, 150, 152
 Weimar Coalition, 180, 184, 204
 Weimar Constitution, 179 and liberal individual rights, 182–184, 185
 and social rights, 163, 182, 184–185
 Article 118, 1, 9, 120, 157, 162, 183, 189, 190, 196, 209, 212, 236, 274

- Weimar Constitution (cont.)
 Article 119, 184, 185, 196
 Article 122, 184, 185
 Article 48, 183, 187, 249, 273
 censorship, 196, 210, 243
 democratic characteristics of, 181–182
 judicial review, 185–186, 219
- Weimar National Assembly
 censorship, 187–189
 constitutional deliberations, 162, 180–181
 passage of National Motion Picture Law, 196–197
- Weimar Republic
 and youth welfare, 188
 as a social people's state, 163, 184, 185, 189, 190, 199, 218
 political centralization, 229–230, 232
- William II, German emperor, 130, 132, 165, 179, 223
- Winnietou*. See May, Karl
- Wirkungszensur*. See impact censorship
- Wolgast, Heinrich, 84
- women
 accusations of immorality during WWI, 167 demographics after WWI, 165
 during WWI, 150, 151, 166
 post-WWI labor policy, 170
- World War I
 and gender norms, 169–170
 and juvenile crime, 148
 ban on foreign films, 125, 126
 censorship policy, 120–121, 130
 controls on youth, 121, 152–155
 demographic impact of, 146, 149, 150–151, 165–166
 impact on family structures, 150
 impact on men and women, 166
 male infidelity, 167
 martial law, 130, 136, 138, 142–143, 148
 prostitution, 168
 stories of female immorality, 167
 supposed impact on sexual morality, 166–169
 venereal disease, 167–168
- Württemberg, 62, 64, 136, 193, 194, 195, 208, 236–237, 243, 248, 250, 251
- youth
 and assertion of social rights in Weimar
 Germany, 191
 and state and federal laws in Imperial Germany, 99–102
 and supposed mutability of, 73, 95–97
 as a national symbol during WWI, 122, 155–157, 158
 as a national symbol in Imperial Germany, 111–113
 as a national symbol in Weimar Germany, 177
 as a symbol of the impact of "trash," 99, 104 compulsory savings plans, 153–155
 consumption of commercial mass culture, 93–94
 delinquency, 148–149
 in Nazi Germany, 282
 in WWI, 121, 147–152
- Youth Cultivation Decree of January 18, 1911, 101–102
- Zentralpolizeistelle zur Bekämpfung
 unzüchtiger Bilder und Schriften* Central Police Authority for Combating Indecent Images and Publications, 68
- Zink, Georg, 265, 269