absolute magnitude of hazard, 48–49 accidental deaths in war, and disaster workers’ trauma, 235 accountability, 5, 329 Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS). See HIV-1/AIDS
active shooter incidents, 199 activities, decreased interest in, 108 acute care centers (US), 141 acute care medical setting, and collaborative care, 144–45
acute medical problems, injuries burn injuries, 129–30
crush injuries, 133
explosion injuries, 133 infectious/bioterrorist
exposures, 124
life-threatening infections, 124–29
musculoskeletal injuries, 130–33 near drowning, 133–34 toxins and nuclear agents
exposures, 124–28
traumatic brain injuries, 130 acute radiation syndrome (radiation sickness), 299
and radiation dose, 300t20.4 symptoms of, 300t20.3
acute stress disorder (ASD), 6, 8, 32, 101, 120
arousal symptoms, 104t7.1
assessment and screening, 114–16
associated clinical features, 102
avoidance symptoms, 103t7.1
core clinical features, 101–06 diagnostic criteria for, 103t7.1, 105t7.2
differential diagnosis of, 102–09 dissociative symptoms, 103t7.1
early interventions, 119
epidemiology, 109–11
generalizing research to post-disaster populations, 120 intrusion symptoms, 103t7.1
management in disaster
setting, 114–16
and mass shooting, 200
negative mood symptoms, 103t7.1
practice guidelines, limitations of,
117t7.7
psychopharmacology for, 117
psychosocial interventions, 118–19
symptoms, 102
treatment and prevention, 116–17, 131t8.4
Acute Stress Disorder Interview
(ASDI), 115, 115t7.6
Acute Stress Disorder Scale (ASDS),
115, 115t7.6
ADAPT model, 91
adaptive capacities, 4, 166, 333 adjustment disorder, 108t7.3, 109
and mass shooting, 200
adolescents
behavioral reactions following disasters, 217t14.2
cognitive behavioral therapy for, 92 developmental characteristics, 220 developmental
considerations, 214–16
prolonged exposure (PE) therapy for adolescents (PE-A), 224
and psychological morbidity, 10
psychological response to media-
based disaster exposure, 184, 185, 186, 189
psychopharmacotherapy in, 93
PTSD in, 140, 222
school-based interventions, 92
Trauma and Grief Component Therapy for, 225
adrenocorticotropic hormone (ACTH), 61t4.1, 63
adult
PTSD in, 140
adults
age-appropriate decisions about media coverage, 188, 189 with childhood trauma histories, 216
children’s reliance on, 221 cognitive behavioral therapy in, 92 developmental considerations, 214 exposure to graphic images, 186
functional impairment, 80
guidelines for helping children, 218t14.3
impact of shooting incidents, 203 intrusive symptoms in, 10
occupational health, 265
personality disorders, 109
psychological response to
media-based disaster
exposure, 183–84
PTSD in, 12, 29, 32, 62, 82, 186, 196, 225
and resilience, 16, 273
stress-related psychopathology, genetic risk of, 69
age, and posttraumatic disorders, 12 airborne diseases, 134 airplane crash, survivors of, 4, 17, 331
alcohol use disorders
and mass shooting, 200
treatment of, 132t8.4
trajectories for, 83–84
and mass shooting, 200
stress-related psychopathology,
and resilience, 16, 273
psychological response to
media-based disaster
exposure, 184
anthropogenic disasters, 46, 47
anger, 9, 32, 137
trajectories for, 83–84
alpha-2 adrenergic receptor, 62 American Association of Geriatric Psychiatry, 136
American College of Surgeons, 145 anxiety disorders, 32
area and path, of disaster impact, 53
armed conflicts, 52, 214 atomic bomb survivors, 299, 300, 303 at-risk populations
  disaster workers, 11
  risk communication, 170–71
attachment behaviors, 335 autogenic massacre, 204 availability bias, and risk communication, 164t11.1
avoidance and numbing symptoms, 32, 200 bacillary dysentery, 134
basal complex, 64
behavioral changes, 4, 9, 101, 144, 203, 231, 302, 325, 328
beneficial effects of disasters, 6 benzodiazepines, 117, 137 bereavement, 10, 328
  of disaster workers, 238–39 persistent complex bereavement disorder (PCBD), 10, 107t7.3
Bhopal, India poison gas leak disaster, 28, 261 biological disasters, 46, See also epidemics; pandemics bioterrorism, 28, 127t8.2, 195, 325, 329 blister agents, exposure to, 1258.1 blood agents, exposure to, 1258.1 body handler, 231, 239
body handling, coping with stresses of, 240 body identification process, 240 bombings, 196–99, 302
Boston Marathon bombing, 181, 183, 186, 198–99 in London, 3, 5, 9, 13, 91, 92 in Madrid, Spain, 3
  in Norway, 201–02
  Oklahoma City bombing, 8, 12, 32, 34, 35, 93, 181, 182, 194, 197–98, 214
  Oslo attacks, 28
  of U.S. Embassy in Nairobi, Kenya, 188, 198, 293
botulism, 127t8.2
Bounce Back Now, 222
brain-derived neurotrophic factor (BDNF), 67, 72 brain regions and associated neural pathways, and resilience, 704.4 brain structures, associated with chronic stress and trauma-response, 64–66 brief CBT disaster intervention, 92 Building Resilience Intervention (BRI), 223
burn injuries, 129–30
business continuity, 247, 250t16.6, 253, 335
calming, promotion of, 91 carbamazepine, 117
care management, 142–43
  care providers. See disaster care providers; disaster workers care responders, and risk communication, 171–72
care, barriers to, 93, See also interventions and care
  strategies to counter, 93–94 catastrophe, 27, 34, 49, 196, See also earthquakes; hurricanes technological catastrophe, 48 catecholamine responses, 62 Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), 152
Crisis & Emergency Risk Communication (CERC)
model, 168
central nucleus, 64
CERA Wellbeing Survey (CWS), 157 characterization of disasters events, 48 chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear (CBRN) agents/events, 28, 193, 195, 207
  compared with natural disaster and pandemic, 277t18.2
  individual and community impact of, 195t13.1
psychological and behavioral responses, 195–96
Chernobyl disaster
  overview, 306–07
  physical and mental health
  studies, 307
Child and Family Traumatic Stress Intervention (CFTSI), 222 children, 225–26
  basic guidelines for helping, 218t14.3
  behavioral reactions following
  disasters, 217t14.2
  biological considerations, 215–16 clinic-based interventions, 223–25
  cognitive behavioral therapy for, 92
  cognitive, motor, and language
  considerations, 216
  community, culture, and societal risk factors, 220
developmental
  considerations, 214–16
  disaster-related loss/grief, 221 disaster-related outcomes in, 216–18 disaster-specific risk factors, 219 and disasters, 136 experience of death of loved ones, 221
  exposure to graphic images, 186
  family risk factors, 220 family-centered
  interventions, 221–22
geographic variability in disasters, 214
human-made disasters
  exposure, 213
  impact of bombing on, 197 individual risk factors, 219–20
  media exposure, 187, 189
  natural disasters exposure, 213 prevention and intervention settings, 221–23
  prevention approaches, 221 psychiatric disorders, 220–21 psychological considerations, 216
  and psychological morbidity, 10
psychological response to media-
  based disaster exposure, 184, 186
psychopharmacotherapy in, 93 response to terrorism and parents, 13
risk and protective Factors, 217–20 school-based interventions, 92, 222–23
sociocultural considerations, 216 treatment intervention, 223–25 vulnerability, 13, 215t14.1 choking agents, exposure to, 1258.1 cholera, 134
chronic dysfunction, 76, 82 chronic stress, brain structures associated with, 64–66
civic society, 55
classifications of disasters, 46–47 claustrophobia (gas mask phobia), 306 disaster change agreements, 150 climate change, risk
  communication, 176–77
climate-related disasters, 1 climatological disasters, 46 clinical epidemiology, and intervention development, 145
  Clinical Institute Withdrawal
  Assessment for Alcohol, revised (CWA-Ar), 137
clinical interview, for ASD and PTSD assessment, 115
Clinician-Administered PTSD Scale
  (CAPS), 115t7.6, 116
Cognitive Behavioral Intervention for Trauma in Schools
  (CBITS), 224
Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Post-disaster Distress (CBT-PD), 92
cognitive behavioral treatment (CBT), 14, 92, 118
cognitive processing (CPT), 118 Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy for Childhood Traumatic Grief (CBT-CTG), 225

collaborative care, 326
and acute care medical setting, 144–45
care management, 142–43
clinical epidemiology and intervention development, 145 definition of, 140
elements of, 142
global examples, 140–41 medication and psychotherapy targeting PTSD, 144 policy and research directions, 145–46 roles and responsibilities in, 143t9.2 U.S. trauma care system, 141–42 communication science, and risk communication theory, 164

Communities
adaptive capacity, 166 capacity, rapid increment of, 94 cohesion of, 328 collective efficacy, 4
core principles designing and delivering services for, 246t16.2 embeddedness, 4 mental health infrastructure, 331 optimism of, 333 response to disaster, 3–6 risk perception of, 333 social fabric of, 1 surveillance post-disaster, 333

Community
mental health surveillance, 334t22.2 community behavioral health providers, role/responsibilities in collaborative care, 143t9.2 community disaster care, 244 assessment and surveillance, 256 community support and development, 254 coping and resourcefulness sustainability, 251–52
core principles for designing and delivering services, 245–46 definitions agreements, 246–47
early interventions, 257–58
first month, 258
first week, 257
effective communications, 248–50 existing services and skills, building on, 253 family and culture, considerations for, 247 framework for disaster-related psychosocial and mental health care, 244–45 integrated emergency management cycle, 256

long-term interventions, 258 medium-term interventions, 258 prevention programs, 254 primary health and social care services, access to, 256 psychosocial and mental health care balanced approach to, 249 delivery, 247 integrated/comprehensive programs, 251 normalization of needs, 249–50 operational programs for, 256–57 for responders, 253
responses, 247–49
psychosocial stressors, 250–51
responders caring for, 258
training for, 258
secondary health and social care services, access to, 256 strategic planning, 254 strategic/staged model, 252, 254 tertiary health and social care services, access to, 256 timely access to effective care, 252 top down and bottom up approaches, 250 universal and selective interventions, 254 values, ethics, and human rights agreements, 245–46 work standards, 253–54 community-efficacy, 91
community-level factors, 53–55
community resilience, 36
early interventions, 331
economic behaviors, planning for, 333 fostering, 330–31
leadership, 333
mental health surveillance and community
preparedness, 333–34
strategies to build, 91 community safety, 194, 331 community socioeconomic status, ecological context, 54 comorbidty, 37 elements of collaborative interventions, 142t9.1 company model, 261–63
Compassion Conviction and Optimism (COO) model, 170
complementary and alternative medicine (CAM), 118–119 complex bereavement disorder, 109 complex emergencies and humanitarian crises, 47 complexity sciences principles, 45–46 complicated grief (CG), 10, 107t.3, 328 concentration problems, 34, 108 conditioned stimulus (CS), 66 confirmation bias, and risk communication, 164t11.1
connectedness, 91
Conservation of Resources (COR) theory, 14 contamination, fears about, 28 textual context fear conditioning, 69 coordinated systems approach, 1 corporate security, 266 corticotropin-releasing hormone (CRH), 61t4.1, 63 cortisol, 61t4.1, 63, 64 counterterrorism, 4
CRED database, 50
Crisis & Emergency Risk Communication (CERC) model, 168 Crisis communication, guidelines for, 164 crisis intervention approach, 244 Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (CISD), 118, See also debriefing Cultural sensitivity, and treatment crash injuries, 133

cultivation theory, 182 cultural sensitivity, and treatment effectiveness, 14 culturally informed interventions, 331 culture, 55–56, 171 culture-bound syndromes, 136 cyclusity, 51

Davidson Trauma Scale (DTS), 115t7.6 dead bodies (working with the dead), 231, 233, 234, 235, 236, 238, 239, 280, 294
definition of disasters, 2 dehydroepiandrosterone (DHEA), 61t4.1 and resilience, 70t4.4, 71 delayed dysfunction, 76 delirium, 129, 137
risk factors, 130t8.3
treatment of, 131t8.4
demographic risk factors for posttraumatic disorders, 12–14 dengue fever, 134
Department of Health in England guidance, 247 depersonalization, 102 deployment teams, 278 depression and pre-existing psychiatric illness, 12 trajectories of, 78, 79t5.1
depression (cont.)
treatment of, 131t8.4
work-related, 11
depressive symptoms, 130 derealization, 102
developing countries, disaster research in, 28
diarrheal illnesses, 134 diagnostic distinction, 102–09 disaster behaviors, 10, 266, 327 disaster care providers, 136, See also disaster workers
and moral conscience violations, 321–22
working outside primary skills, 320 disaster complexity, 45–46 disaster ecology, 44–45
area and path, of disaster impact, 53
community-level factors, 53–55
complexity sciences, 45–46 cyclicity, 51
disaster frequency, 50
trends in, 50
disaster magnitude, 46–47
disaster types and classification, 46–47
and consequences, 47–48
and magnitudes, 46–47
disaster types and frequency, 50
duration of impact and disruption, 51
ecological context of disaster risk and protective factors, 53 graphic factors, 52–53
individual/family factors, 53
multiplicity of events, 51–52
place dimension, 52–53
predictability and warning periods, 52
seasonality, 51
societal/structural factors, 55–56 time dimension, 49–52
topography, 52–53
disaster exposure severity and PTSD, 36
disaster frequency, 50
trends in, 50
by type, 50
disaster hazards, 46, 152
disaster magnitude, 48–49
disaster mental health research history of, 26–29
mental health sequelae of
disasters, 29–36
structured diagnostic interviews, 30t2.1
disaster predictability, 52 disaster research, and ethical dilemmas, 322–23
disaster risk, 87–88
ecological context of, 53 disaster risk reduction, lessons for from mental health of children, young people and families, 154–55
from the mental health consequences of the earthquake sequence in Canterbury, New Zealand, 155–57
disaster warning, 52 disaster workers, 231–32, 329, See also disaster care providers anticipation of exposure, 233 at-risk, 11
communication with family of the deceased, 234
degree of exposure, 235 emotional involvement, 238 exposure to traumatic and mass death, 233
formal and informal support
for, 236–37
grief and bereavement of, 238–39 identification with the dead/victims, 238
inexperienced workers, 240 leadership, supervision, and management practices, 237 memories, 239
moral distress, 314
novelty, surprise, and shock, 233 nuclear disaster workers, mental and behavioral support of, 304–06 personal effects (handling), 234, 235, 238, 239
personal reactions of, 237t15.4 personal safety, 234
previous experience with the dead, 235 and remains location, 233, See also dead bodies; human remains and remains type, 233, See also dead bodies; human remains responding to nuclear events, recommendations for mental and behavioral care of, 305t20.7 responses to stigmatization, 238 rewards and satisfactions, 239 sensory stimulation, 233–34
sensory stimulation
avoidance, 235–36
spouses of, 240
stressors, 236t15.3
training, 236
volunteer status, 236
war dead trauma, 234–35 disruption by terrorists, 193 distress, 6, 8–10
differentiated from psychiatric illness, 37 distress reactions, acute, 88 DNA methylation, 69
DoD/VA guidelines, 118
domestic abuse, 135
dopamine receptor polymorphism,
and PTSD, 69
dorsal anterior cingulate cortex d(ACC), 67
dorsomedial prefrontal cortex (DMPFC), 174
dread risk, 177
drug use, 9, 32, See also substance use/abuse duration of impact and disruption, 51
early interventions, 15, 88–89
for ASD and PTSD, 119
community disaster care, 257–58
for long-term pathology, 91–92 psychopharmacotherapy, 93
psychosocial interventions, 89–91
public health measures, 89
earthquakes, 1, 4, 52
in Canterbury, New Zealand, 155–57
in Christchurch, New Zealand, 149, 155
damage and loss of life caused by, 2 Great East Japan Earthquake, 1, 3, 49, 51, 307
in Haiti, 49, 188, 319
in Hanshin-Awaji, 152
in Imbabura province of Ecuador, 28 in Indian Ocean, 151
in Kashmir, Pakistan, 213 Kobe earthquake, 261 magnitude, 49
in Nepal, 213
survivors of, 118
in Turkey, 222
underwater, 48
Ebola virus, 124–29, 152, 162, 193
psychological and behavioral
response to, 275–76
ecological context
community-level factors, 53–55
individual/family factors, 53
societal/structural factors, 55–56
ecological perspective, 44 economic impacts of disasters, 4–5 economic revival, 332 effective communications, vitality of,
250t16.5
eiders, vulnerability, 13, 135–36 emotional involvement, by disaster workers, 238
emotional reactions, 34 enemy deaths, and disaster workers’ trauma, 235
enhanced public health infrastructure, 333
Index

Enhancing Resiliency Amongst Students Experiencing Stress (ERASE-Stress), 223 epidemics, 28, 52, 152, 153, 162, 245, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 277, 321, 325, 329, 334, See also Ebola virus; HIV-1/AIDS; severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS); Zika virus epidemiologic research for disaster response, implications of findings from, 37–38 epidemiology, 109–11
episodic memories, 113
ethical (EPPM), 171
care providers, and moral conscience violations, 321–22 in disaster research, 322–23 ethical analysis in disasters, 314–15 managing limited resources. See limited resources, management of moral distress, 319–20 pain relief dilemma, 318–19 taking short cuts with informed consent, 320–21 transparency, 316 utility versus justice, 315 working outside their primary skills, 320 ethical issues in disaster psychiatry, 314 ethnicity. See race and ethnicity explosions in Enschede, the Netherlands, 261 injuries due to, 133 explosives, 207
individual and community impact of, 195t13.1
exposure, direct versus indirect, 183–84, 183t12.1 to hazards, 46, 47t3.2, See also disaster ecology impact of frequent viewing, 183t12.1 indirect versus indirect, 189 perceptions of, 28

Extended Parallel Process Model (EPPM), 171 extinction, and sensitization, 67 Exxon Valdez oil spill in Alaska, 261 eye movement desensitization and reprocessing (EMDR), 118, 224 versus TF-CBT, 224
family centered interventions, for children, 221–22 crises, 15

conflicts, 15
role/responsibilities in collaborative care, 1439.2
fear, 331
for personal safety, 183t12.1 and PTSD functional neuroimaging findings, 68–69 molecular imaging findings, 69
structural MRI findings, 67–68
response to, 11, 60, 66
sensitization, 66
and terrorism, 263 fear conditioning, 66–67
contextual, 69
FEMA’s crisis counseling programs, 94 fight or flight response, 61, 113 firearms, 207
individual and community impact of, 195t13.1
first responders, 278, 329, See also disaster workers flash floods, 52
folic acid (and alcohol abuse), 137 food safety threats, 128t8.2 forces of harm, disaster stressors associated with, 47t3.2 friendly fire deaths, and disaster workers’ trauma, 234 friends, role/responsibilities in collaborative care, 1439.2 Fujita scale, 49
Fukushima nuclear disaster disaster-related deaths and suicide, 308 mental health issues, 308 mothers of young children concerns, 308 nuclear power plant workers, 308–09
overview, 307–08
radiation fear, 308 stigma and discrimination, 309
functional impairment, 32, 78, 80, 102, 114, 116, 145, 197, 264
gama-aminobutyric acid (GABA), 113 gastroenteritis, 134
gender and age, in limited resources management, 318 burden of disaster vulnerability, 53 and disaster impacts, 53
impact of shooting incidents, 203
and posttraumatic disorders, 12
and PTSD, 36, 110
as a risk factor, 10, 13, 110, 202, 219 generalized anxiety disorder (GAD), 78 trajectories of, 78, 80

Index

345

gene

© in this web service Cambridge University Press

www.cambridge.org
HIV-1/AIDS, psychological and behavioral response to, 271–73 holocaust victims and survivors, handling of personal effects, 235 homelessness, 14
hope (instilling hope as intervention principle), 91 hospital response plans, 329 hostility, 9 5-HTTLPR, 69, 70
human-caused disasters. See human-made disasters humanitarian aid, planning for, 247–49
human-made disasters, 2 child/child exposure, 213 intentional, 27
intentional, 214
human-made threats, risk communication, 177 human remains, 103t, 1, 197, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 238, 328, See also dead bodies historic remains, 235 hurricanes Hurricane Andrew, 220
Hurricane Hugo, 136
Hurricane Ike, 36, 78, 80, 83
Hurricane Katrina, 1, 3, 5, 13, 16, 27, 33, 47, 51, 83, 93, 119, 135, 151, 165, 170, 188, 224, 261, 318, 322, 325, 327, 333 Hurricane Sandy, 13, 52
hybrid disasters, 46
hydrocortisone, 64, 72, 93, 117 hydrological disasters, 46 Hyogo Framework, 150, 150t hyperarousal, 220
hypervigilance, 328, 329 hypothalamic-pituitary-adrenal (HPA) axis, 60, 63 alterations in PTSD, 63–64 stress-related activation, 63 hypothermia, 134
identification with the dead/victims, by disaster workers, 11, 195, 201, 231, 238, 239, See also overidentification illusion of control, and risk communication, 164t Impact of Event Scale (IES), 115t incapacitating agents (non-lethal), exposure to, 1268.1 incident management, 129, 333 indicated prevention, pediatric, 221 indicated psychosocial interventions, 252, 258 individual/family factors and disaster exposure, 53 infection preparedness, 329 infectious diseases, 134, 152, See also pandemics life-threatening injuries, 124–29 information dissemination, 12 information processing, cognitive factors in, 172–73 neuroscience in, 173–74 injured survivors, collaborative care. See collaborative care injured trauma survivors, and stress, 11 inpatient medical team, role/ responsibilities in collaborative care, 143t insomnia (as a posttraumatic symptom), 34, 108 intervention of, 131t Integrated Emergency Management (IEM) cycle, 248, 249t integrated emergency management cycle, 256
intentional events, 27, 47, 214
Inter-Agency Standing Committee (IASC), 129 International Decade for Natural Disaster Reduction (IDNDR), 150 international disaster response historical background, 149 lessons for disaster risk reduction, 154–57 public health needs, 151–53
Sendai Framework, 149,
153–54, 157–58
UN policies, 149–51
International Federation of Red Cross, 258 International Nuclear and Radiological Event Scale (INES), 299t Internet, and risk communication, 175 interpersonal violence, 2 interpersonal withdrawal, 15
interventions and care, 1, 14–16, 37–38, 95–96
barriers to care, 93 collaborative care. See collaborative care do no harm strategies, 906.5
early interventions, 88–93
expert consensus recommendations, 906.4 implementation considerations, 93–94 knowledge base for, 326 for mass violence, 909t optimal duration of treatment, 119 promising emerging research, 94–95 spectrum of, 876.1
studies, 87–88
intimate partner violence, 135 Japanese Association for Disaster Medicine, 152 job loss, 4
Kaposi sarcoma, 271
KIDNET, 224
k-opioid receptor (KOR), 69 lamotrigine, 117
landslides, 46, 50, 51, 52 leaders, post-disaster training program for, 263t
leadership, 285
and construction of meaning of disaster, 17 context of, 285–86
definition of, 285
mental health professionals, 286
considerations, 287–89
performance and timing, 286–89 in preparation phase, 287t in recovery phase, 289t in response phase, 288t preparation for pandemics, 278 in public mental health, 208 reminders for leaders, 292 senior community/organizational leader, 293
in preparedness phase, 293
in recovery phase, 295–96
in response phase, 294–95
senior health leader, 290
in preparedness phase, 290–91
in recovery phase, 292
in response phase, 291–92
life changes, 44, 46, 47t See also disaster ecology
life-threatening infections, 124–29
limbic circuitry, 113 limited resources, management of, 315–16 age and gender dilemmas, 318
families, 316–17
physically and emotionally disadvantaged people, 316–17 locus coeruleus (LC), 60, 112 locus coeruleus (LC)–norepinephrine (NE) system, 60 losses, 14, 44, 46, 47t, See also disaster ecology loved ones
death of, 328
locating after a disaster, 328 magnitudes of disasters absolute magnitude, 48–49 and disasters types, 46–47 measures of, 49
relative magnitude, 49
major depression, 8
and PTSD, 32
major depressive episode, 32, 35, 37, 107f.3 malaria, 134
marijuana use, trajectories for, 83–84 mass killing, 199
definition of, 199
by terrorists, 193
mass media, 175
mass shootings, 196–97, 199–203
definition of, 199
and distress, 9 effect on children, 214
Norway case, 201–02
Paris case, 200–01
risk factors for adverse psychological outcomes, 200 in schools. See school mass shooting shooters profile, 203–04 Washington, DC, sniper killings case, 202–03 mass sociogenic illness, 195 mass violence, 3 and claming, 91
and connectedness, 91
and hope instilling, 91 and psychological sense of safety, 90 and self- and community-efficacy, 91 maternal care, 69 meaning and cognitive appraisal of disaster events, 17 measles, 134
media exposure, 181–82, 200
management, recommendations for, 188–89 and psychological response, 184–85 types of, 185–86
media/media coverage, 181, 189–90 of CBRN events, 195 of nuclear disaster, 303 of pandemics
pandemics, 280
positive role of, 187–88, 189
psychological outcomes, 187 psychological response to, 182
adults, 183–84
children and adolescents, 184, 185, 186, 189 response to graphic images, 186–87 and risk communication, 174–76
medial prefrontal cortex (mPFC), 67, 112, 173 medical-psychiatric differential diagnosis, 102–09 medical record data system, automated, 145 medical surgical patient, principles of approaching, 135 memories
disaster workers, 239
episodic memories, 113
of ordinary experience, 113 positive memories, 225 triggering of, 240
unprocessed memories, 113 memories, traumatic/disaster-related, 62, 63, 112, 114, 118, 199, 220 consolidation of, 71, 95 and hippocampus, 64
and sensitization, 66
meningitis, 134
mental and behavioral health burden, 11 mental disorders, risk factors for, 110–11 mental health outcomes
predictors, 37–38
mental health sequelae of disasters, 29–36 mental health surveillance, 281 messaging, 175, See also risk communication meteorological disasters, 46
3-methoxy-4-hydroxy phenylglycol (MHPG), 62
Middle East Respiratory Syndrome (MERS), 270 military populations
dead bodies (working with the dead), 235, 236 injured survivors, 11
moral injury, 314, 321
mortuary affairs, 238
personal effects handling, 238
psychosocial interventions, 118
PTSD in, 9, 12
PTSD in, treatment guidelines for, 14 support for disaster workers, 236 trauma-related anger, 10 women, 235
Millennium Development Goals, 150 mineralocorticoid (MR) receptor, 63 minority cultures, and disasters, 136 mirtazapine, 117
Modified Mercalli Intensity (MMI) index, 49 monoamine oxidase inhibitors (MAOIs), 117 mood disorders, 108
moral distress, 314, 316
due to leaving patients with sub-optimal outcomes, 319–20
moral injury, 314
motivational interviewing (MI) interventions, 141, 144 mudslides, 34, 46, 52
multiple unexplained physical symptoms (MUPS), 301, 328 multiplicity of events, 51–52
multivitamins, 137
musculoskeletal injuries, 135–36
musculoskeletal injuries, 135–36
massive malignant
massive massive
malignant
massive
malignant
massive
malignant
nuclear disasters (cont.)
psychosocial responses following, 301t20.6 radiation doses received by various sources, 299t20.2 responding to, 304
risk communication and media, 303 stigmatization, discrimination, and scapegoating, 303–04
Three Mile Island disaster, 306

occupational health providers, 266 Occupational Health Service (OHS), 262–63, 265 olanzapine, 117
older individuals, 10 older individuals, vulnerability, 13 OP94 guidance, 247
opinion leaders, 168–69
opioid use disorders, treatment of, 132t8.4 opioids, 117
withdrawal of, 137
orbitofrontal cortex, 113 organizational disasters. See workplace and organizational disasters organizational resources, 14 orthopedic injuries, 130–33
overconfidence bias, and risk communication, 164t11.1 overidentification (with victims), 11, See also identification oxytocin (OT), 72, 93

pain, treatment of, 132t8.4
pandemics, 1, 153, 207, 270–71, 281–82, 329
compared with natural disasters and CBRN, 277t18.2 early response, 279–81
Ebola virus, 275–76
H1N1 influenza virus, 274–75
HIV-1/AIDS, 271–73
intervention planning for, 271, 278t118.3 later response and recovery, 281 preparedness for, 278–79 psychological and behavioral responses, 271 psychological principles for communities exposed to, 281t118.6 psychological principles to support victims and their families, 281t118.5
public health management of, 276–77 severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS), 273–74 panic disorder/attacks, 131t8.4 risk factors for, 196

Patient Health Questionnaire-9 (PHQ-9), 142
PCL-5 (PTSD Checklist for DSM-5), 116 pediatric clinic-based interventions, 223–25 Pediatric Education in Disasters Manual, 223 pediatricians, roles in addressing children’s disaster-related needs, 223t14.5 people affected by disaster, delayed-onset of, 250t16.6 perceived response-efficacy, 171 perceived self-efficacy, 171 perceived susceptibility, 171 perceived threat and efficacy, 171–72 peri-disaster survivors, 82 peri-disaster-related loss, 81 persistent complex bereavement disorder (PCBD), 10, 107t13.3, 328 personal experience of trauma, 240
personal safety, 194, 331
personality disorders, 109
phantom limb sensation, 133 pharmacotherapy, 37 phases of disasters, 5 physical environment, 55
place dimension, 52–53
plague, 127t8.2
political structure and governance, 56 population displacement, 51 positive attitude and knowledge communication, 34 positron emission tomography (PET), 69 post-disaster negative reactions, 88t6.2 post-disaster time frames, and mental health consequences, 35–36 post-disaster trajectories, 82 permanents, 77
emirical evidence, 78–83 long-term trajectories, 78 for mood and anxiety disorder, determinants of, 80–83 psychopathology, 78–81 post-trauma evaluation, domains of assessment, 115t7.5 posttraumatic distress, 8–10 posttraumatic growth (PTG) defined, 16
and PTSD, 16
and resilience, 16–17
post-traumatic psychiatric disorders, 10 posttraumatic stress, 247

Postramaumatic Stress Checklist (PCL), 142 posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 3, 6, 7–8, 29–30, 101, 120 and anger, 9–10
arousal symptoms, 104t7.1
assessmeit and screening, 114–16 associated clinical features, 102
avoidance symptoms, 103t7.1
in children, 220
psychopharmacotherapy for, 225 psychotherapeutics, 223–25
psychopharmacology for, 117
prevalence, 7
practice guidelines, limitations of, 36
management in disaster response, 223–25
and fear
functional neuroimaging findings, 68–69
molecular imaging findings, 69
structural MRI findings, 67–68
following mass shootings, 199 and functioning problems, 36 generalizing research to post-disaster populations, 120 hypothalamic-pituitary-adrenal (HPA) axis alterations in, 63–64 ICD-10 diagnostic criteria, 7
intrusion symptoms, 103t7.1
and major depression, 32 management in disaster setting, 114–16
negative mood symptoms, 103t7.1
partial, 32
posttraumatic growth, 16 practice guidelines, limitations of, 117t7.7 predictors of, 36
and pre-existing psychiatric illness, 12
prevalence, 7
psychopharmacology for, 117
psychosocial interventions, 118–19
screening, 141
sympathetic nervous system alterations in, 61–63

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
symptom threshold criteria for, 119–20 symptoms, 34, 101–02
timing of, 35–36
trauma-exposed versus trauma-unexposed groups, 34–35
treatment and prevention, 116–17, 1318.4
guidelines for, 14
work-related, 11
posttraumatic stress symptoms (PTSS), trajectories of, 80 posttraumatic stress syndromes, 32 psychosocial and mental health care, framework for, 244–45
psychosocial interventions, 28, 89–91, 252
psychosocial resilience, 247
psychopharmacotherapy, for ASD, 117
for PTSD, 117
for PTSD in children, 225
psychosis, 29
treatment of, 1318.4
psychosocial and mental health care, 117 workplace preparedness, 334 preventive medicine, 329 preventive pharmacotherapy, in children, 225 primary care physicians (PCPs), 141
role/responsibilities in collaborative care, 14319.2
prisoner of war experience, 16, 186 Problem Management Plus (PM+), 94 prolonged exposure (PE) therapy, 14, 95, 118 prolonged exposure (PE) therapy for adolescents (PE-A), 224 prolonged grief disorder (PGD), 10, 10717.3, 328 propranolol, 62–63, 93
protective factors, 87–88
pseudocommando, 204 psychiatric disorders, 6, 7–8, See also specific disorders psychiatric illness, 34 differentiated from distress, 37 psychiatric interventions, 15 psychiatric morbidity, 3 psychic organizers, traumatic events’ function as, 16
psychodynamic trauma-focused psychotherapies, 224 psychological casualties, 326 psychological debriefing, 118, 240, See also Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (CISD) psychological factors affecting physical condition, 8 psychological first aid (PFA), 15, 37, 90, 118, 119, 135, 217, 252, 331 principles of, 27918.4
Psychological First Aid (PFA) – Listen, Protect, Connect (PFA-LPC), 222 psychological response, 1 psychological sense of safety, 90
psychopharmacotherapy, for ASD, 117
for PTSD, 117
for PTSD in children, 225
psychosis, 29
treatment of, 1318.4
psychoeducation, 28, 177 psychotherapeutic strategies for PTSD in children, 225–23 traumatic grief in children, 225 psychotherapy, 37
PTSD Symptom Scale Interview (PSSI), 1157.6
PTSD Symptom Scale Self-Report (PSS-SR), 1157.6 public education, 335
public health announcements, 280
public health measures, 89
public health infrastructure, 89 public health services delivery, 89 shared communication, 89 support to impacted health care delivery systems, 89
public health needs, 151–53 public health planning for fostering community and workplace resilience, 330–34 knowledge about, 334–35 for psychological consequences of disasters, 329–30 public health system, 325 mental health systems, 325 public, and risk communication, 168 quality improvement framework, 91 quetiapine, 117
race/ethnicity and adverse mental health development, 12
and posttraumatic disorders, 12
radiation exposure, 214, See also nuclear disasters direct effect of, 298–301 indirect effect of, 301 radioactive materials, 300 radiologic agents, exposure to, 1268.1
Receive, Accept, Sample (RAS) model, 172–73 recovery, 14–16, 76, 81 facilitation of, 1
and resilience, differentiating between, 16 Red Crescent Societies, 258 refugees, 136, 186
relassing/remitting, 76
relative magnitude, 49
rescue and recovery workers, See also disaster workers exposures to disasters, 35 resilience, 4, 16, 34, 36, 76, 87, 246 brain regions and associated neural pathways, 704.4
of community and workplace, 330–34 dehydroepiandrosterone (DHEA), 704.4, 71 effects on neurobiology, 71 neural pathways, 71
psychosocial resilience, 247
and risk communication, 165–68
workplace disasters, 265 Resilience Activation Framework, 91 resistance, 76
resource, 14
RESPPECT-MIL (Re-Engineering Systems of Primary Care Treatment in the Military), 145 re-traumatization, 18312.1, 194 ricin toxin, 1278.2
riot control agents (tear gas), exposure to, 1268.1 risk management of, 165
socially constructed perceptions of, 165
risk communication, 28, 177
additional strategies, 169–70 at-risk populations targets, 170–71 biases affecting, 16411.1 care responders, 171–72 CBRN events, 195
challenges, 174–75
cognitive factors in information processing, 172–73 Compassion Conviction and Optimism (COO) model, 170
Index

risk communication (cont.)
dos and don’t’s, 170t11.2 during pandemics, 278
ey early approaches, 163 media and new media, 174–76 neuroscience in information processing, 173–74 nuclear disaster response, 303
opinion leaders, 168–69
partnering with the public, 168 preparedness challenge to climate change threats, 176–77 Receive, Accept, Sample (RAS) model, 172–73
recent approaches, 163–66 response and recovery challenge to man-made threats, 177 role in resilience, 165–68
risk factors, 10–12
demographic risk factors, 12–14
risperidone, 117
river floods, 52
RORA gene, 70
rumors, 5, 327, 328

safety, 333, See also community safety Saffir–Simpson Scale, 49
Sandman’s model for risk communication, 164–65
Save the Children, 155
scapegoating, 329
school mass shooting, 5, 204–07, See also mass shooting global impact of a premeditated, 205–07 school violence, 204
school-based interventions, 92, 222–23
screen and treat approach, for early interventions, 92 screening program for stress reactions and functioning, 264
seasonality, 51
secondary stressors, 8
selective prevention, pediatric, 221 selective psychosocial interventions, 252 selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs), 72, 113, 117 Self-Care After Disasters, 136 self-efficacy, 91
Sendai Framework, 44, 149, 150, 153–54, 244 global targets in, 153t10.2 implementation of, 157–58
sensitization, 66
sentience, respecting, 317 separation anxiety, 9 September 11 attacks, 261, 266
serotonergic pathways, 114f7.2 serotonin transporter gene, 200 serotonin-norepinephrine reuptake inhibitors (SNRIs), 117 severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS), psychological and behavioral response to, 273–74 signal value, 177
silent victims, 11
single nucleotide polymorphisms (SNPs), 70 Skills for Psychological Recovery (SPR), 94, 221 Skills Training in Affective and Interpersonal Regulation/ Modified Prolonged Exposure (STAIR/MPE), 92 sleep agents, 117
sleep disturbances, 9, 328
smallpox, 1288.2
smoking, trajectories for, 83–84 sniper attacks, 4, 9, 11, 51, 193, 202–03 social capital, 55, 290 social cohesion, 13 social environment, 54–55
social isolation, 15 social media, 175, 185, 189
in crisis management, 303
exposure, 186
positive role of, 188
versus traditional media, 183t12.1 social support system, 14, 36, 247, 252
ecological context, 54
effect on stress, 14 for mass school shootings, 206
social withdrawal, 15
societal/structural factors, 55–56
somatic symptoms, 9, 15
somatization, 9, 302
somatization disorder, 33–34 special populations, and disaster children, 136 elders, 135–36
minority cultures, 136
SPEEDI (System of Prediction of Environmental Emergency Dose Information), 303 state-dependent recall, 62 stealth terrorism, 28
STEPES-UP (Stepped Enhancement of PTSD Services Using Primary Care), 145 Stress First Aid (SFA) model, 94, 96 stress sensitization, 66 stress-induced cortisol release, 63 stress-induced SNS activation, 64 stressors disaster-related, 36
primary and secondary, 251
psychosocial stressors, 250–51
stress-related psychopathology, genetic risk of, 69–70 Structured Clinical Interview for DSM 5 (SCID-5), 115t7.6
Structured Clinical Interview for DSM-IV (SCID-IV), 116 substance use disorders, 9, 33, 109 substance use/abuse, 8, 32–33 and bombing, 196
and pre-existing psychiatric illness, 12
trajectories of, 83–84
determinants, 84
suicide attack, 194
supervising psychiatrist/psychologist, roles and responsibilities in collaborative care, 143t9.2 Support for Students Exposed to technological disasters, 2, 3, 47, See also human-made disasters technology, use in treatment delivery, 94 telepresence, 182
television exposure, 182, 183t12.1, 185 temptoroparietal junction (TPJ), 174 terror, psychology of, 193–94 terrorism, 1, 3, 27, 193, 207–08, 326
bombings, 196–99
CBRN events, 195–96
chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear devices (CBRN), 193 community resilience, 331
definition of, 193
disruption due to, 193 economic impact, 5
effect on children, 214
effect on economic costs and behaviors, 332, 332f22.4
and fear, 265
mass shootings, 196–97, 199–200
preparedness for the consequences, 327–29 school mass shooting, 204–07
suicide attack, 194
weapons of mass killing and disruption, 194–95 and workplace violence, 261 tetanus infections, 134 thiamine, 137
Three Mile Island disaster
overview, 306
physical and mental health
studies, 306
topography, 52–53
toxic industrial chemicals, exposure to,
126t8.1
trajectories, 84–85, 326 of injury-related PTSD, 11 overview of, 76
peri-disaster determinants, 77 post-disaster determinants, 77 pre-disaster determinants, 77 of substance use and abuse, 83–84
types of, 76–77
transient distress, 251 transport of infected patients, 280 Trauma and Grief Component Therapy for adolescents (TGCT), 225 trauma exposure, 37
Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT), 224 versus EMDR, 224
trauma-focused therapies, 118 trauma-related disorders, 7–8 trauma-response, brain structures
associated with, 64–66
traumatic amputations, 133 traumatic brain injuries, 130 traumatic death, 239–41 stressors in, 233t15.1
traumatic play, 10
traumatic stress responses, 101, 102 and NMRA receptors, 113 neurobiology of, 112 treatment, 14–16
triage, 95, 114, 315
decisions-making, 317
tricyclic antidepressants (TCAs), 117 tsunamis, 3, 28, 48, 151, 152
Asian tsunami, 1, 4, 13, 261, 325
Southeast Asia tsunami, 50 Southeast Asian tsunami, 119 tularemia, 127t8.2
two-step flow theory, 169
types of disaster
and consequences, 47–48
and psychological outcomes, 48 types of disasters, 2, 27
and magnitudes, 46–47
types of disaster, 46–47
typhoid fever, 134
typology of disasters, 27–28
unconditioned stimulus (US), 66 United Nations, disaster risk reduction policies, 149–51 United Nations International Strategy for Disaster Reduction (UNISDR), 150, 153–54
Scientific and Technical Advisory Group (STAG), 154, 154t10.3
universal prevention, pediatric, 221 universal psychosocial
interventions, 252
vector-borne diseases, 134 ventral striatum (VS), 174 ventromedial cortex, 174 ventromedial prefrontal cortex (vmPFC), 112
verbal updating, 95
Vietnam War, 239
viewing specific images, impact of,
183t12.1 virtual contact, 281 vulnerable populations, 10–12
war stressors, 12
Washington, DC, sniper attacks, and
distress, 9
water safety threats, 128t8.2 weapons of mass destructions.
See chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear (CBRN) agents/events
weapons of mass killing and disruption, 194–95
Wernicke’s encephalopathy, 137
wishful thinking, and risk
communication, 164t11.1
withdrawal syndromes, 137 women. See gender death of, and disaster workers’
trauma, 234
lifetime prevalence of exposure to trauma, 6
major depression in, 141, 198 military women, 234
and psychological morbidity, 10
PTSD in, 10, 12, 36, 37, 110
social support for, 14
vulnerability, 53
work productivity and attendance, 332 working in post-disaster environments, 93
workplace and organizational disasters, 261, 267
company model, 261–63
high-risk strategy and low threshold service, 264–65
leadership training, 263–64
occupational health
providers, 265–66
preparedness and training, 266–67
responses, 265
workplace health programs, 266, 334 workplace resilience
early interventions, 331
economic behaviors, planning for, 333
fostering, 330–31
leadership, 333
preparedness, 334
workplace terrorism, 265 workplace violence, and terrorism, 261 work-related exposure in disaster
workers, 11
World Bank
Natural Disaster Hotspots: A Global Risk Analysis, 52
World Health Organization (WHO), 153
risk communication, 175
World Trade Center (WTC) attacks, 182
World Trade Center attacks, 1, 194, 266 yohimbine, 62
Zeller’s axioms, 172–73
Zika virus, 270, 282