Index

1848 revolutions 13
2011 Egyptian Revolution 5, 11, 10, 19, 20, 28, 34, 40, 54, 117, 161, 171; center and periphery 36; demands of protesters 173; four phases 58, 171; national announcements 46; protest convergence mechanisms 53; protesters outside Tahrir 58–59

Abbé Sieyès 35
action cascades 150, 151, 154; rate and speed of convergence 150–152 Adorno, T. 75
advertising 5
Africa 106
Aleppo 111
Alexandria 36, 50, 52, 67
Algeria 29
Amazon Mechanical Turk (AMT) 145 anonymity: as protest 167; logic of 166–167 Anonymous 166
anti-regime incidents: more dispersed 129 anxiety of doubt: motivating action 164 appendix 53
April 6 Youth Movement 19, 20, 37, 39, 50, 173; operations room 51; emails from control room 52; emails on January 25 and 28 53; mass emails 44. See also 2011 Egyptian Revolution Arab Spring 31, 111
al-Assad, Hafez 111
audio cassette 28, 29, 36 authoritarianism 34
average elevation 133
average rates of collective action: versus instances of cascades 144 Axelrod, R. 69, 110
bank runs 8
Bashar Assad 111
behavioral experiments 7, 140
Bennett, L. 5, 32, 55
Berlin Wall 33
betweenness centrality 145, 147; initial average in experimental session 154 Big Data 170
blackout 40, 101, 105, 107, 120, 139, 117, 120; in Syria 163; 2011 Egyptian Revolution 56, 58, 61, 67; 2011 Egyptian Revolution, first reaction 62; role in escalation 64; subjective reaction and sources of news 66. See also media disruption Bouckaert, P. 27, 68
building identity 169
Cairo 10, 12, 19, 27, 36, 40, 52, 53, 117, 27; in 2011 141
Cairo protest participation survey 20, 185
Calvinist predestination 164 capitalism 164
cascade sessions, definition 150 cascade status, latency to 155
Index

Index 207

- Cascades of collective action 25, 140, 155; centrally induced 155; intermediate dynamics of action 156
- Cascades: of apathy 24, 155; of contention 31; of risk taking 24, 140. See also minimal core
- Castells, E. 113, 30, 32
- Cell networks 112
- Censors 167
- Censorship 169
- Central emblem: lack of 166
- Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) 103
- Central leadership 143
- Centrality 15; in social network 19, 142; myth 153; of action, temporal evolution 156
- Centralization 9, 11
- Centralized campaigns 1
- Centralized media 35, 62, 67, 75
- Centralizing, media 28
- Chwe, M. 2, 32, 74
- Cicero 167
- Civil conflict 6; in urban areas 110, 115; contagion activated by disruption 122; coordination and clustering 121; in sparsely populated areas 110; network processes in urban settings 111; preplanned attacks 132; relation between orientation and coordination 113; role of communication technology 106; socioeconomic patterns 119; structural components 133; urban vs. rural 94–95, 110. See also collective action; network collective action; protest
- Civil Rights Movement 4
- Civil violence 106
- Civil war 103
- Cleopatra 17
- Close-knit communities 98
- Clustered contention: and small world networks 71
- Clustering 71, 121, 126, 130
- Collective action 31, 40, 72, 141, 142; based on coordination 30; bipolar distribution of cascades 144; cascades 15, 34; centralized 104; clandestine 73; conventional wisdom on centrality of leaders 74; coordinated 95; coordination vs. contagion 106; decentralized 16, 84; dispersed 71; dynamics of 27, 71; from the center 4; from the margins 4; global cascade 69; global prospects of success 55, 144; group size 110; in small world networks 99; in the margins 30; in urban environments 28; inspired by doubt not conviction 6; itinerant 74; local 8; locally dense and globally dispersed 105; local influence 53; logic of 27; minimal cores 84; more information not helpful 6; network formulation 3; network logic 73; network models 6, 69; other regarding models 78; peripheral processes 30; resource mobilization theories 111; role of information 6; spontaneity and speed puzzle 1, 4; spontaneous 8; spread of 105; subversive 16; surprise factor 8, 23; threshold dynamics 22; threshold models 69, 72, 75; time 8. See also civil conflict; network collective action; protest
- Collective action cascades 6, 144; latency and frequency 149; subject level components 158
- Collective action diffusion processes 157
- Collective action extremes, frequency and intensity 152
- Collective action models: based on public–private signals 95; inward and outward looking 73; signaling 73
- Collective action problem 1; existing solutions 1–3
- Collective action theory: central organization 8, 14; coordination 9; focal points 8, 9, 11; networked version 14–15; peripheral organization 7; selective incentives 9; vanguardist 4
- Collective action thresholds, for action 79
- Collective behavior 167, 170; network patterns 115; spatiotemporal patterns 115
- Collective civil conflict, surprise factor 139
- Collective game of risk taking 147
- Collective lottery 141; with limited information 147
- Collective risk taking: coordination or contagion 40; decentralized 69; dynamics 30; from the margins 139; games 24
- Collective violence 120 communication: face to face 12; intermediaries 31; local 12, 30; of news 55; personal tools 55; personalized 55; with friends and family 62; with local social network 63. See also contagion; information communication conflict nexus 112 communication disruption 29, 38, 74, 100, 133, 135; government intentions 48; nationwide 115; Syria 119 communication media, alternative modes 101 communication shutdown 106 communication technology, catalyst for rebellion or not 110 communication vacuum 165 communications, mobile 34 communications, seditious 33 communicative dynamics, threshold model 78, 81, 82, 91 conflict dispersion 117 conflict in Damascus, contagion in spatial neighborhood 108 conflict locations: daily account 10; daily locations 120; geolocated 100; two main results from nearest incident analysis 108 conflict, spatiotemporal dynamics 106 conflictual event’s orientation, coordinated or not 129 conflictual incidents: coordinated 129; orientation and coordination 129 confounding factors 34, 132 connection, informational 79 connective action 5, 55 connectivity, average levels in each square mile of Damascus 113 conservatism of majority 6, 7 contagion 7, 10, 14, 16, 19, 22, 70, 104, 105, 110, 121, 132, 135, 120, 139; in small world networks, activated by media disruption 137; mechanisms of 167; processes of 137, 163, 125; and dispersion of rebel activity 108; complex 84, 103, 109; definition 107; easier in larger groups 110; geometry of 109; interacting with communication disruption 109; on the battlefield (Montesquieu) 69; simple kind 109; spatial 131; spatiotemporal 10, 122; and spread of violence 6; with multiple reinforcements 109. See also coordination; communication; information contention: local clusters 77; marginal cells 69; peripheral 104 contentious social network 61 control 26 controlled experiments 7 conventions 11 convergence: to global focal point 63; mechanisms of 11, 50, 62 conviction 168 coordinated collective action 107; orientation of 130 coordinated collective violence, list 129 coordinated conflictual incident 129 coordination 6, 7, 8, 10, 16, 19, 107, 109, 110; in conflict 129; and dispersion of conflict in Damascus 108; calculus of 109; centralized 104; harder in larger group 110; over public goods 2; pro-regime incidents 129. See also contagion Corriere della Sera 29 counterinformation 29, 32, 33 critical mass 6, 70, 70, 74 crowd behavior 8, 19, 165 crowd psychology 8 crowds 2, 3 culture industry 32, 75 Czech Velvet Revolution 33 Damascus: 7, 10, 22, 34, 100, 107, 106, 108, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 117, 119, 122, 123, 132, 133, 1-mile grid 122, 123–124; ethnic and economic composition 122; ethnic composition 124, 133; ethnicity and religion 125; income levels 125; neighborhood delineation 126; neighborhoods 120, 121, 126; poor neighborhoods 133; socioeconomic patterns 124. See also Syrian Civil War Damascus conflict location dataset 22, 108 Damascus GIS dataset 122; variables 113, 123 Damascus International Airport 112, 120 Damascus neighborhoods 133; connectivity levels 113 Damascus violent incidents, criteria 113 Dar’a 111
Index

- data, realization instances 18
- De Gaulle, C. 29
- decentralization 6, 12, 15, 16, 27, 100; of contention 116; processes of 11, 104; and political power 163; confounding factors 47, 117; reinforcing and escalating cycles 23; See also dispersion of conflict decentralized communication 31, 35 decentralized conflict 163 decentralized contention 28 deescalation, and communication 107 Della Porta, D. 73 democracy 32 demonstration 2, 28, 32 dense networks, on the local level 71 dependent variable, lagged 133 Despotisme 169 diagonal urban grids 87 dictatorship 32 diffusion 19, 70 diffusion of collective action, and connectivity 89 diffusion of protest, local patterns 35 diffusion, complete 92 dispersion 150; and coordination in Syrian Civil War 129; measure 54 Dispersions Hypothesis 7, 27, 30, 43, 54, 105, 116 dispersion of conflict 6, 22, 24, 30, 107, 116, 117, 118, 152, 132; based on pairwise distances 116–117; locally concentrated and globally dispersed 6, 14. See also decentralization dispersion of protests 41, 53, 58; dynamic profile 54 disruption of communication: local 113; selective 115. See also blackout disruption of public information 94; and rates of collective action 95 disruption of public signal in small world networks 97–99 dissent 31 distance from nearest conflictual incident 127, 133; as a proxy for clustering 127; temporal averages 128; temporal profile 127 Domain Name System (DNS) 104 Duma 29, 35 dynamic models of collective action 79 dynamic threshold models of collective action: communicative and observational 78; example 76–78 dynamics of contagion v. coordination 129 dynamics of contention, originating from the periphery 101 early adopters 14 East Germany 31, 33 Eastern Bloc 31 economic meltdowns 1 Egypt 27, 31, 34, 68 Egypt, state of emergency 50 electoral opinion 32 elevation 123; and civil conflict 133; role in urban v. rural conflicts 123 emails, mobilizational 27, 49 Enlightenment 166, 168 Entman, R. 32 Erdős-Rényi (ER) random networks 145 escalation 27, 64, 71; decentralized 101; during blackout 105; self-reinforcing 67, 71; through decentralization 28 ethnic composition of Damascus 126 ethnic identification 168 experimental network 140 experimental network session, initial action 153 experiments in collective risk taking 140 experiments on cooperation 143 face to face communication 28, 31, 53, 55, 61 face to face interaction 138 Facebook, mobilization campaign 40 February 1917 Russian Revolution 4, 29, 35, 140 Federalist Papers 168 first conflictual incidents 119; temporal distribution 191 fixed effect results 138 flow of information, reliable and streamlined 165 focal point 2, 8, 10, 38; global 63; ideational 11; local 38, 40, 47 focal point explanation, alternative 10 followers 2, 157; peripheral 19 Foucault, M. 8, 18, 28, 29, 164 free-riding 9, 110 Freedom Summer 143
French Revolution xv, 32, 35
Friday of Rage 36
Friday prayers 43, 46

gaining news, from friends 56 geocoded tweets 115
geographical dispersion 106
geolocated dataset of violent conflict locations in Damascus 113
Get Out The Vote (GOTV) campaigns 15
GIS (Geographic Information System) 22
GIS analysis of Syrian Civil War: three components 121–122 global dispersion 121; of conflict 138 global focal point 64
global games: “beauty contest” model 73;
and network structure 96
Google Transparency Report 43, 106, 116
Gould, R. 15, 73, 87, 103, 110
Gramsci, A. 32
Grand Central Terminal 10
Granovetter, M. 15, 69, 74, 75, 141 grids, two-dimensional 23

Habermas, J. 2, 35, 165
Hama 111
Hardin, R. 2, 11
Haussmann 13
Heinmueller, J. 31
Hirschman, A. 164
Hobbes, T. 17, 169
Homs 111
hourly email updates, January 28, 2011 183 Human Rights Watch 27, 68 human science and mobilization 170 identity 11, 169; mutual 8 ideology 1, 4, 8, 11, 164 incentives 1, 103

incumbent 32
individual risk preference 145, 147; measurement 146

individual risk rank 146 influence 13; local 61, 62, 67 influence maximization 5, 142, 143 influence process, from the margins 162 information blackout 28, 30 55 information levels, manipulation of 144 information propagation 5; two-stage model 2, 17, 19, 157 information sources, conventional 17 information vacuum 28, 30; and making of new links 102 influence 143; accurate 12;
authoritarian supervision of 143; available in social network 161;
blackouts 13; definition 168;
ephemeral 18; from friends and family 43; institutionalized 18; local 13, 43, 143, 144, 148; public 14, 22; public and private 94; social value of 139.
See also contagion; communication innovation adoption 70, 95; collective 1; from the periphery 3; social innovation 15 innovation, promotion 5 instigators: peripheral 84, 93, 143, 162; peripheral assignment 150, 152 institutional politics 3 interaction, contagion and disruption 137 Internet 34, 42, 104, 31; and cell networks 27
Internet Protocol (IP) layer 104, 112
Internet usage 62
Internet-based communications 112
Iran 28, 31
Iran, post-election protests of 2009 28, 48
Iranian Revolution xv, 35; media hiatus 35 Iraq 106
isoperimetric problem 21; in graphs 85, 86; pointwise 71
Jackson, M. 80, 85
James Scott xv, 30
January 25, 2011 11, 27, 37, 39, 49; initial protest locations 39, 50, 51; protest dynamics from hourly emails 52–53.
See also 2011 Egyptian Revolution
January 28, 2011 11, 27, 28, 36, 44, 47, 54, 58, 60, 61, 75, 117, 178; dispersion of protesters 60; mechanisms of escalation 58, 40. See also 2011 Egyptian Revolution
Index

Kaplan–Meier estimators 155
Katz, E. 17, 162
Keynes, J. 73, 95
Khaled Said 49
Kuran, T. 1, 3, 12, 32, 69, 141
Kurzman, C. 28

lack of information 165 lag, spatiotemporal 133
landline phones 53
language of rebellion, deviant, irrational 165 latency to cascade status 155
Lazarfeld, P. 17, 162
Le Bon, G. 2, 165
leaderless and spontaneous revolutions: paradox 141, 162 leadership: central 8, 24, 105; peripheral 15, 16, 24, 30, 72, 105; local 6, 14, 29 leading from the periphery 70, 72, 93, 104, 105, 108, 109, 140, 143, 144, 161; dynamics 90, 101, 107; empirics 34; five implications 5–6; four observations 12; network formulation 72; paradigm 1, xv, 3, 6, 8, 19, 20, 22, 25, 28, 30, 34, 53, 61, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 102, 129, 139, 144; research agenda 30; as a strategy 73; three features 105; and two-stage logic 73. See also network collective action; vanguard learning, dynamics 22
Leipzig 12, 32
Lenin, V. 2
levels of connectivity 113 Libya 49
Lichbach, M. 2
limited information regimes 143 limited information, not precluding collective risk taking 144 linguistic shifts 1
local clusters 102, 121
local escalation, global dispersion in Syrian conflict 130 local interaction 35
localization: and proliferation 30; of protests 61; processes 62, 100 localization effect 71
locally dense, globally sparse collective action 163 Locke, J. 8
logic of collective action, minimal cores versus critical mass 70 logistic regression 62, 138 Lohmann, S. 12, 32
longitude and latitude 113
Louis XVI 35
Madison, J. 168
marginal leaders 1
marginals, inciting risky behavior 70 Marx, K. 3, 2
mass mobilization 3, 5; aberrant empirics of 166 mass opinion reversals 150 mass religious conversions 1 mass self-communication 30 mass social movements, lack of leadership 163 mass uprising 31
McAdam, D. 5
mechanism design 19, 142, 161, 162 media 31, 33
media coverage, change in 34 media disruption 6, 22, 27, 30, 34, 58, 67, 71, 72, 98, 138; catalyst for collective action 28, 67; effect on protest dispersion 44; Egypt 2011 36, 37, 48, 67; escalation of civil conflict 143; exacerbating revolutionary unrest 40; phone network in Manhattan 54; psychological effects 53, 54; two processes of escalation 14. See also blackout; network collective action media outlets 33
media usage, among the vanguard 61 media: alternative and local 61; contradictory roles in revolutions 33; inducing normalcy 33; personalized 3; role in social unrest 31; traditional 31; transition from centralized to local venues 94. See also communication; information messaging, cellphones 41 microlevel economic data 124
Middle East 30
military 27, 36
military action, threat of 67 minimal core 22, 23, 70, 72, 74, 78, 84, 85, 120, 121, 126, 131, 138, 144; definition 84–86; in a given graph 85; in canonical graphs 86; in grid 87; size increasing with connectivity 88; versus critical mass 70. See also cascades of collective action; leading from the periphery; network collective action; radius of diffusion minimal cores, of collective action 70 Mirabeau 35
misinformation 8
mobile communications 42, 112 mobile phones 45 mobilization: from the center 163; from the margins 3, 5, 142, 163; local 63; party-based 2; viral nature 170. See also protest mobilizational emails 173 mobilizing from the periphery, employing the network structure 142 modernism, and precision 168
Moldova 31
Montesquieu 8, 17, 69, 164, 169
Moore neighborhoods 135
Morris, S. 80, 87
Mubarak, H. 10, 27, 28, 36, 171 mutual information 11
naive data, and strategy of control 167 narrative: supervised 31; unified 30 National Security Agency (NSA) 103 nationalism 168
natural history, into natural science 169 nearest incident 121, 126 nearest neighbor analysis 122 neighborhood 138
neighbors’ thresholds, estimating 83 network bridges 109; diametrical 91, 99; local 90 network collective action 8, 19, 20, 30, 34, 67, 69, 75, 94, 102, 105, 116, 121, 139, 140, 142, 143, 149; cascades 150; decentralized 40; dense locales 99; and diffusion from dispersed minimal cores 131; escalating in the absence of public signal 97, 98; escalating in the absence of public signal, example 99; logic of 140; three components 34. See also leading from the periphery; minimal core network collective action experiments: random assignment of the vanguard 152 network collective action treatments: frequency of cascade status 152 network degree, of experimental subjects 139 network dynamics 78; of collective action 170 network edges, directed and undirected 79 network effects 70; of majority’s risk aversion 161; peripheral 18 network experiments 5, 24, 141, 152, 140; of collective action 145 network experiments of collective action: first phase 146; second phase 147–148; subject instructions 193; synchronous 141 network game: asymmetric equilibria 80; equilibria 79, 80; non-trivial pure strategy equilibria 80; static 79 network heterogeneity in risk preference 148 network neighbors 81; acting 85; reversion to 61; risk aversion of 159; risk propensity of 159 network structure 73, 75, 148; and collective action 94; and collective risk taking in limited information regimes 143–144; in threshold models of collective action 141 network thresholds, Markov dynamics 83 network treatment 156; central assignment 159; in collective risk taking experiments 141 network: adding links 87; heterogeneity 80; homogeneous 80; levels of connectivity 86 networks: hierarchical 3; local 81
New York 4, 10, 53
New York Times 29
news communication 55
news consumption 58; local 64 news production, local 31 news, from alternative sources 62–64 news, from friends 61, 62, 67 news, methods of communication 56 Nile 48
non-coordinated incidents, more clustered 129 nonparticipants 56, 61; subjective views of media disruption 56
Index

positive externalities 8, 142 power: and visibility 163; of numbers 3 predestination 164 predictability 164, 168, 169, 170 prediction of conflictual incidents 117, 135 Princeton vii printed press 35, 166 Prisoners’ Dilemma 9 private information 75. See also public information progression of risk taking from periphery to center 157 proliferation: dynamics 85; of conflict 123 protest 10, 31, 103; decentralization of 62; dispersion of 40, 43; dispersion measure in Cairo survey 54; participation levels 62; relation with local news consumption 55. See also civil conflict; collective action protest activity 58; and local news consumption 56 protest dispersion; in Cairo 2011 43, 46; not related to size 48 protest location; in Cairo 2011 42, 45; dynamic profile 41 protest participation and media usage, temporal patterns 189 protest wave: of 1989 5; of 2011 1, 3 protesters 60; contrast between steadfasts and nonparticipants 56; profile 58; steadfast 56; typical 11 protests 27, 41, 79; decentralization 43, 67 public information 2, 72, 74, 93; and collective action 95; centers of social life 1, 10; dissuading from collective action 75; public landmarks 93; social value of 95. See also private information public signal 75; absence 23; and media disruption 97; suppression of 98 public sphere 33 public transcript 16, 18, 30, 165, 166 public–private signaling 22 quasi-experiment 37 radio 36 radius of connectivity 23, 91, 92; in grid networks 87, 89 radius of diffusion 70, 72, 74, 85, 89, 132; and connectivity 89–90; and increasing connectivity 90; and network thresholds 90; decreasing with connectivity 93; definition 90. See also minimal core; network collective action randomized experiments 106 rates of risk taking, based on initial centrality of risk propensity 154–155; progression in three network regions 157 rebel strongholds 120 rebellion 95; cycles of 36 rectangular grid 87; minimal core examples 89 regression, OLS 44
repeated collective lotteries 147; payoff structure 148 repertoires of action 1, 2, 8, 11 resource mobilization 107 revolutionary surprise 17 revolutionary unrest 27 revolutionary vanguard 141; distribution in the social network 141 revolutions 8, 12; distinct from riots 32 ring networks 90, 92; connectivity radius 92 riots 32
risk aversion 22; of majority 67, 110 risk awareness 31; independent of the state 32 risk propensity 72; in the network neighborhood 84 risk taking; central 7; in social networks, with local knowledge 161; in the margins 22; of vanguard 140; propensity to 143; thresholds of 74 risk-takers: in central assignment, influenced by neighbors’ risk aversion 159; in the periphery 142, 162 rituals 11
Rogers, E. 15
Roman Empire 17
Romanian Revolution of 1989 166 rumors 12, 29, 29, 31, 33, 36, 161
Russian provisional government 29
Russian Revolution xv, 4
Schelling, T. 2, 8, 10, 75
Schumpeter, J. 32

Index
science of history, lack of empirics 5 science of society 17
Scott, J. 87, 166
sedition 33
selective incentives 2, 6, 9, 70, 107, 141, 120 Shah 28, 29
signaling model of collective action; conformity utility 96; correlations 96; distance between private signals 98; network proxy 96; utility structure 96. See also private signal; public signal signaling, public v. private 74 signals, correlated 75
sit in 2
sleeper cells 73
small world networks 7, 13, 22, 23, 30, 67, 71, 93, 97, 99, 109; and escalation in the absence of public signal 100; from grid networks 101; rewiring to 101. See also network collective action Snowden, E. 103, 112, 115 social control 168
social experiments of collective action 163 social graphs 163
social information 3, 103 social media 31, 142; and civil unrest 27; discouraging unrest 31; incomplete blockage of 41; role in fostering unrest 67 social mobilization 165 social network 5, 10, 24, 57, 70, 75, 84, 140, 144; connections, local 53; structure of 111, 139; largest component 70; localization processes 46; periphery of 7; rewiring of 94 social organization 143, 163; alternative modes 26 social revolutions 150
spatial correlation 105 spatial spillover 139; of violence in Damascus, absence in average data 192 spatiotemporal localization 126 spatiotemporal patterns of conflict in Damascus 121 speed of diffusion 139
spillover of violence 135 spillers 16; of contention 72 spontaneity 16
spontaneous revolution 140
Index

state control, via structural elements 87 state cultural hegemony 33 state media 66
state, hierarchical 13
strike 2, 11
strong ties 8, 17, 143
subject centrality and rates of action 159 Suez 36, 52
sum length of throughways 122, 133 surveillance 74, 111
survey 11
survey locations in Cairo 185 survey, protest participation in Cairo 40, 53, 54, 56, 57–58, 101; sampling strategy 57; two main findings 54–55; summary of results 67
Syria 49, 103, 125; blackout November 2012 120; countrywide blackout 112, 115; countrywide communication network 104; decentralization of civil conflict 117; ethnic and religious allegiances 111; National Security headquarters 112; rebel groups 112. See also Damascus
Syrian Arab News Agency (SANA) 113
Syrian Civil War 5, 14, 22, 40, 106, 111, 112; airstrikes 113; anti-regime incident 121; assassinations 113; bombing 113; framed locally 133; indirect fire 113; pro-regime incident 121; urban setting 110
Syrian conflict location dataset, GIS analysis 132
Syrian conflict, orientation and dispersion 132; removal of public signal 109
Syrian Observatory of Human Rights 112, 113 Tahrir Square 10, 11, 10, 20, 27, 36, 38, 40, 39, 50, 58, 61, 67, 172, 174, 177; global convergence to 38. See also 2011 Egyptian Revolution taxi 167
Tehran 28, 29, 32
television 31
temporal average; for rejecting confounding parameters 135; not showing contagion 135
Thailand 31
The Pensées 17

Third Estate 35
threshold dynamics: action and threshold 82; communicative model 82; observational model 83 threshold models of collective action 73, 75–76, 109; dynamic 76, 78, 81; static 79 threshold update mechanism 81; definitions 82 Tilly, C. 2, 8, 11, 16
tipping point 37
totalitarianism 33
treatment effects; average 17; ephemeral 17, 18
Trotsky, L. 4, 140
Tunisia 49
Tunisian uprising 2011 50
Ukraine 31
unrest; and the media 31; level of 34; proliferation 27 urban conflict 22, 94, 123 urban environment 13
urban neighborhood patterns 94 urban planning, as a tool for political control 110 urban uprising, Damascus 120 vanguard 2, 11, 20, 24, 34, 49, 53, 55, 60, 61, 67, 80, 84, 86, 144, 161; and increasing connectivity 89; central 2, 3, 5, 59; clustering of 84; detection based on risk preference 146; dispersed from the start 55; dispersion levels 55; high levels of initial dispersion 142; initial dispersion 59; local 102; localization 34; marginal 74, 84, 94, 116; network location 73; network modeling 80; of the Egyptian Revolution 61; of the Egyptian Revolution, definition 58; peripheral 3, 6, 7, 14, 16, 30, 58, 69, 81, 139, 140, 142. See also leading from the periphery; network collective action violence: local concentration of 138; routine and coordinated 105 visibility 93, 166; logic of 10 void, as a uniting force 166
Index

Watts, D. 71
weak ties 15, 55, 143
Weber, M. 32, 164; definition of the state 32; on origins of modernism 165
West Germany 31

Zaller, J. 2, 17, 157
Wilkinson, S. 32
World War II 4
Yale xvi