

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

Index

---

- Abbey rebels' narratives accuracy of, 93–94
 alteration of over time, 94–95
 autobiographies, 92–93, 98–100, 105–106, 107–108 coverage of later conflicts, 95 critiques of the Irish State, 102–105, 106–107
 as disillusioned postmemories, 99, 108–109
 interaction with other first person narratives, 93
 Molony on the death of Constable James O'Brien, 94–95
 omitted material, 94
 for the period up to and including the Rising, 95–96
 reassessment of, 1950s Ireland, 106–107 reluctance to provide, 97 transmission by family members, 107–108
 unrewarded service theme, 98–99, 105–106
- Abbey rebels see also Easter rebels; Rising generation archives on, BMH, 91 financial hardship, post-1916, 96–97, 98–99
 Lemass's tribute to, Abbey Theatre 1966, 86–87, 88
 marginalisation of, post-1916, 96 politicisation of, 88–89, 100 post-revolution activities, 89–90
- Abbey Theatre, Dublin
Cathleen ni Houlihan as inspiration for the Easter Rising, 86–87, 110, 111, 162
 commemorative plaque, 86–87, 111 fiftieth anniversary celebrations in, 86, 110, 111
 foundation myth, 97, 172
- founding of and the Gaelic Revival, 87, 162, 173
 production of The Plough and the Stars, 104 protests against The Playboy of the Western World, 70, 173 as site of political significance, 87 survival, post-revolution, 173
- Adams, Gerry, 5, 80
- African-Americans African Blood Brotherhood for African Liberation and Redemption, 143–144 narrative of Irish martyrdom and, 144–145
 significance of Irish radicalism to, 142–145 Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities League (UNIA), 142–143
- Ahern, Bertie, 231, 232, 233
- American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic (AARIR), 140
- Anderson, Benedict, 32, 34–35, 38
- anthropological approaches, 30
- Anti-Conscription Day (21 April 1918) associations with past history, 80, 81
 commemoration of, 78 fellowship through shared performance, 69
 as instant history, 65–66
 Ireland's Solemn League and Covenant: a National Pledge, 67, 74–75
 transformative effect of, 80–81
- archive sources see also Abbey rebels' narratives; Bureau of Military History (BMH); Military Service Pensions (MSP) autobiographical material, 92–93 first person material, 93 reanimation of, 92
 supplementation with unofficial repositories, 91–92
 the Arms Trial, 210
- Asquith, Herbert Henry, 45

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

Index

261

- Assman, Aleida, 20–21
- Australia
     oral histories, WWI veterans, 18 symbolic value, Dardanelles campaign WWI, 41, 82
- Barth, Fredrick, 34
- Battle Songs for the Irish Brigades*, 170
- Beadle, James Prinsep, 194–196
- Behan, Brendan, 103
- Beiner, Guy, 26, 27, 92, 109, 164, 242
- Belfast see also Shankill; West Belfast UVF
     flag protests, Belfast City Hall, 243 loyalist murals, East Belfast, 185
     Somme resolution, Belfast City Council, 248, 250
     state commemorations, the Somme, 248 wall mural commemorating the Battle of the Somme, 184 wall mural commemorating the Easter Rising, 185
- Belfast City Hall, 23, 188, 194, 243, 248, 253
- Belfast/Good Friday Agreement (1998) amendments to the 1937 constitution, 228–229
     reconstitution of a shared community, 229
- Bell, Robert Rea, 130–131
- Blythe, Ernest, 87, 105, 111
- Bowen, Elizabeth, 179
- Bowman, Tim, 114, 119
- Bridges, Harry, 146
- Briggs, Cyril V., 143–144
- British empire
     civic education of the young, 174
     father-son correspondence, 174–175 Irish cultural experiences of, 169 links with Shakespeare, 169–170, 175–176
- Brophy, John, 146
- Brown, Kris, 113
- Bruton, John, 232
- Bryan, Dominic, 36
- Bureau of Military History (BMH) archives of witness statements, 13–14, 90–91
     archives on the Abbey rebels, 91 bitter postmemories, 22 Helena Molony on the 1917
         commemoration, 51, 91
     Helena Molony's witness statement, 95, 97
- Burton, Joan, 239
- Bushell, Nellie
     action during Easter Week, 89
     financial hardship, post-1916, 97
     Lemass's tribute to, Abbey Theatre 1966, 86–87, 88
     post-revolution activity, 89
- Cameron, David, 4
- Cantwell, James, 149
- Carson, Sir Edward, 113, 116, 129, 253
- Cathleen ni Houlihan*, Abbey Theatre production, 86–87, 110, 111, 162
- Celtic mythology, 15
- Celtic Tiger collapse of, 236–237 failure and legacy of 1916, 237–240 modernisation and economic growth, 235–236
- cemeteries see also Glasnevin cemetery, Dublin
     Grangegorman cemetery, Dublin, 177–179
     graveside orations, 58
     National Graves Association (NGA), 59
     role in Easter Rising commemorations, 58–59
     as sites of mass political gatherings, 58–59
     symbolism of cenotaphs and nationalism, 34–35
- Civil War within the Decade of Centenaries programme, 3
     and decline in Irish-American republicanism, 140–141
     divisive effect, 1916 testimonies, 91, 95, 99 politics of and Easter Rising commemorations, 55, 168–169
- Clan na Gael, 140, 142, 146
- Clarke, Joseph, 59
- Clarke, Kathleen, 22, 60, 104
- Clarke, Tom, 60, 96
- Cohen, Anthony, 32
- collective memory see also social memory and individual memory, 14–15, 28 invention of tradition and, 17 legacy of Irish partition, 17–18 and notions of the unified state, 17–18
     and rituals of official commemoration, 17–18, 229–230
     social contexts of, 13–15, 18–19 social memory as alternative too, 18–19
- collective political memory, 20–21
- Collins, Michael, 98, 215, 216, 218

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

262 Index

- commemoration
  - contemporary perspectives on, 8–9
  - as divisive, 239
  - and legitimisation of contemporary politics, 24
  - and present-day identity construction, 28–29, 225, 229–230, 247
  - as stabilisation of historical rupture, 55
  - synchronic approaches to, 36–37
- Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO), 146
- Connerton, Paul, 17
- Connolly, James
  - execution of, 147
  - as inspirational figure, American trade unionism movement, 147–148
  - Jubilee Day riot, 1897, 160
  - Kathleen Murphy carrying the Proclamation for, 48
  - newspaper reports on, 45
  - plaque of, the Ulster Museum, 181, 182
  - as revolutionary figure, 172
  - Socialist Party of Ireland's Connolly commemoration, 58
- Connolly, Sean
  - action during Easter Week, 89
  - in Cathleen ni Houlihan, 87
  - death of Constable James O'Brien, 94–95
  - first person recollections of, 92–93
  - Lemass's tribute to, Abbey Theatre 1966, 86–87, 88
  - politicisation of, Gaelic revival, 88–89
- Corish, Brendan, 211
- Cosgrave, Liam, 211, 213, 217–218, 222
- Cowen, Brian, 238
- Craig, Sir James, 84, 188, 242, 257
- Crawford, Major Fred, 68
- Cruise O'Brien, Connor, 211, 213–214, 216–217
- cultural history
  - arenas of political disturbance, 173–174
  - civic education of the young, 174
  - impact of 1916, 179–180
  - individual experiences of, 183
  - museum exhibits of 1916, 176–177
  - print media representations, 174
  - and representation of 1916, 168
  - Shakespeare and the British empire, 169–170, 175–176
  - transmission of historical events, 30–32, 37
  - transmission through rituals, 25, 29–30, 42
- cultural memory
  - concept of, 19–20
  - heritage sites, 20
  - paired with social memory, 20–21
  - relationship with individual memory, 28
  - through rituals, 36
  - within memory timeline, 20–21
- Cumann na mBan
  - adoption of the Easter lily, 51–52
  - Army pensions and, 101
  - Máire Nic Shiubhlaigh's membership of, 89
  - production of tricolour flags, 54
- Cumann na nGaedheal
  - formal commemorations of Easter Rising and, 55
  - independent Ireland objective, 214–215
- Curran, Fr Michael, 45, 46, 53
- Daly, Mary, 212–213
- de Burca, Seamus, 92, 95, 98–99, 105–106, 107–108
- de Valera, Eamon
  - and commemoration of 1916, 17–18, 55
  - Fianna Fáil connections and, 231
  - founding of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic (AARIR), 140
  - Gaelic Catholic ethos, 105
  - gender discrimination and, 102
  - Helena Molony on, 103
  - threat to the Free State, 214
- Decade of Centenaries commemorative programme
  - challenges to, 225, 241–242
  - the Civil War within, 3
  - conciliatory approaches of, 224–225
  - as a construct, 28–29
  - Easter Rising within, 61
  - ethical remembering, 191–192
  - historians' role, 39–40, 65
  - importance of, Northern Ireland Executive, 191
  - Ireland 2016 commemoration programme, 239
  - loyalist commemorations, 244, 251, 253
  - loyalist murals on, 254, 255
  - 'Road to the Rising' celebrations, 224–225, 239
  - Ulster Museum approach to, 193–194, 203
  - unionist unity and centenary commemorations, 257–258
  - wider historical context, focus on, 3–4

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

Index

263

- Derry see also Londonderry cemeteries as alternative commemorative sites, 59 siege of and Somme mythology, 83, 253–254 St Colmcille and, 74 and the Urban Villages strategy, 191
- Devoy, John, 140
- Dolan, Ann, 168–169, 225
- Donegan, Patrick, 213, 215–216
- Doran, Charlie, 159
- Doyle, Company Sergeant Major Martin, 178
- Dublin see also Abbey Theatre, Dublin;
 Glasnevin cemetery, Dublin
 Arbour Hill, 79, 177, 215, 216–217
 Garden of Remembrance, 216–217, 219–220
 Grangegorman cemetery, 177–179 Little Theatre, 169–170 popular culture in, 169 production of Henry V, Phoenix Park, 175 reconstruction of, 176
- Durkheim, Émile, 31
- Durkheimian sociology collective consciousness, 26 structural functionalism, 30
- Easter lily adoption as badge of the rising, 51–52 as alternative to the flag, 51–52 attempted banning of, 52–53 proposed alternative to, fiftieth anniversary, 52 sale of, 52, 230
- Easter rebels see also Rising generation assertion of their wishes by relatives, 52, 59–60 commentaries of for popular consumption, 71 martyrdom of, 68, 69, 144–145, 184 public humiliation of, 70 tokens of, 71
- Easter Rising see also fiftieth anniversary;
 first anniversary; Proclamation of the Irish Republic African-American appropriation of, 142–145 appropriation of commemorations of by the IRA, 181–182 association of W. B. Yeats and, 86–87, 88 authentication of the immediate legacy of, 58
Cathleen ní Houlihan as inspiration for, 86–87, 110, 111, 162 commemoration and Civil War politics, 55, 168–169 commemoration by Irish-Americans, 141–142 commemoration in the North, 3, 183–184 commemoration in the USA, 151–152 commemorations in the Irish Free State, 55–56, 57–58 commemorative tensions and, 4, 168 communication between the rebels, 45–46 documentation of, 109 as historical rupture, 61
 honouring of and links with the Somme, 234–235 industrial unionism and, USA, 145–148 initial jollity of, 45 inspiration for statue, St Brigid's Church, San Francisco, 149–150 and IRA rationale for armed struggle, 1, 209, 210, 227 literary remembrance, 19
 media coverage of, 44–45, 47 ninetieth-anniversary celebrations, 232–234 problematic official commemoration and, 17–18, 225–226 prohibition of commemorations, Northern Ireland, 56 reluctance to celebrate, 1970s onwards, 227 and state-building, 226–227 temporal discordances in narratives of, 46–47 traditional commemorative events, 3 25th anniversary, 3, 56
 Ulster Museum acquisitions, 1916, 197 unofficial commemorations of, 110–111, 225, 230–231
 wall mural, Belfast, 185
War News news sheet, 43
- Easter Week (24–29 April 1916)
 Abbey rebels' actions, 89 associations with past history, 80, 81 careful scripting of, 67–68 civilian dead, 94 commentaries for popular consumption, 70–71
 as instant history, 65–66
 lack of official celebrations, 78–79 martyrdom of rebels, 68, 69, 144–145, 184 military mementoes, 71–72

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

264 Index

- Easter Week (24–29 April 1916) (cont.)
 official commemorations of, 79–80
 as performance, 69
 three-day gift sale of tokens and souvenirs, 1917, 72–73
 transformative effect of, 80–81
 unofficial commemorations of, 79
 witnesses to performance, 69–70
- Edkins, Jenny, 251 embodied memory, 109–110
 Emmet, Robert, 22, 144, 163
 Erikson, T. H., 35
 Irvine, John, 45
 ethical remembering, 191–192
- Fallon, William, 47
 Falls, Captain Cyril, 84, 113, 114
 Farrell, Michael, 246
 Fenians
 1798 centenary commemorations, 156 nationalist martyrdom culture, 15 veterans of '67, 157
- Ferriter, Diarmaid, 239
- Fianna Fáil anti-revisionist stance, 231–232 challenge from Sinn Féin, 231 collapse of, 2011 General Election, 236 independent Ireland objective, 214–215
 legitimisation of the peace process, 232–233 proposed return to major state celebrations (1978), 218–220 republicanism of and legacy of the Rising, 231, 232
- fiftieth anniversary commemorations,
 Easter Rising
 alternatives to the Easter lily, 52 ceremony at the Abbey Theatre, 86, 110, 111 as constructive patriotism (modernising state), 3 exclusion of O'Casey plays from, 110 Fianna Fáil's stance on, 212–213 flying of the tricolour in Northern Ireland, 53–55 grassroots alternative commemorations, 18 and instability of Ulster, 56–57 opposition to, 22 and present-day identities, 29, 225 refurbishment of Republican plot, Glasnevin cemeteries, 59
- Fine Gael, 231–232
 Fine Gael-Labour coalition government (1973–77) formation of, 211
 Northern policy, 211 policy towards the Provisional IRA, 221–222 proposed single day of national reconciliation, 215–218, 227 Provisional IRA as threat to Irish state, 214–215 search for a cultural shift in 1916 commemoration, 213–214 situation in 1976, 220–221
- first anniversary commemorations, Easter Rising copies of the Proclamation, 50–51
 Helena Molony's organisation of, 49–51
 lack of official celebrations, 78–79 raising of flags around sites of 1916, 49–50, 79 three-day gift sale, 72–73 unofficial celebrations, 79
- First World War see also the Somme commemoration and new historical narratives, Northern Ireland, 249–250 as creative and destructive force, 182–183 displays, Ulster Museum, 186, 189, 197
 Irish Nationalist involvement in, 22–23, 241
National Memory-Local Stories project, Ulster Museum, 202 nationalist/loyalist political differences, 250–251 nation-building and WWI commemoration, Northern Ireland, 247–248 physical and cultural legacy of, 183 rejection of as 'imperialist' war, 241–242 shared history for both nationalists and unionists, 234–235 southern Irish participation in, remembrances of, 22–23
- first-person narratives see also Abbey rebels' narratives accuracy of, 93–94
 alteration of over time, 94–95
 as archive source, 93
 omitted material, 94
 temporal significance of/re-use of over different periods, 94
- FitzGerald, Garret, 211
 Fitzpatrick, David, 17
- flags
 above the GPO, Easter Monday, 46, 47, 53, 68
 Easter lily as alternative to, 51–52

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

Index

265

- first anniversary commemorations and, 49–50, 53
- flag protests, Belfast City Hall, 243
- return of 'Irish Republic' flag by the British, 58
- tricolour flags and fiftieth anniversary, Easter Rising, 53–55
- the tricolour in Northern Ireland, 53–55
- Flags and Emblems (Display) Act (Northern Ireland) 1954, 53–54
- Flavin, Michael J., 159
- Foster, Roy, 239
- Foucault, Michel, 244
- Frawley, Oona, 13, 26, 28
- Friends of Irish Freedom, 140
- Gaelic Revival
  - Celtic mythology, 15
  - and the founding of the Abbey Theatre, 87, 162, 173
  - and inspiration for the Easter Rising, 86–87
  - politicisation of the Abbey rebels, 88–89
- Garvey, Marcus, 142–143, 144–145
- Gaughan, Michael, 220
- Gavan Duffy, Louise, 94
- gender see also women
  - and group identities, 32, 33
  - Irish State's recognition of women's service, 101, 102
  - Molony's campaign for gender equality, 101–102
  - recognition of women's histories, 226
  - women's ineligibility for combatant pensions, 101
- Githens-Mazer, Jonathan, 16
- Glasnevin cemetery, Dublin
  - alternative Easter Rising commemoration, 1935, 55–56
  - dedication of the Cross of Sacrifice, 23, 241
  - Jeremiah O'Donovan Rossa's funeral, 173–174
  - National Graves Association (NGA), 59
  - Peadar Kearney's grave, 108
  - refurbishment of Republican plot, 59
  - tenth anniversary, Easter Rising, 55
- Gonne, Maud, 158, 159, 160, 167
- Good Friday Agreement
  - amendments to the 1937 constitution, 228–229
  - reconstitution of a shared community, 229
- Gordon, Avery, 244
- Goulding, Cathal, 142
- Graff-McRae, Rebecca, 33, 233
- Graham, Brian, 113
- Grangegorman cemetery, Dublin, 177–179
- graves see also cemeteries
  - graveside orations, 58
  - National Graves Association (NGA), 59
  - role in Easter Rising commemorations, 58–59
  - symbolism of cenotaphs and nationalism, 34–35
- Grayson, Richard, 249
- Gregory, Isabella Augusta, Lady, 46, 86–87, 162, 170
- Gregory, Robert, 174–175
- Guillemette, Antoine, 19
- Gwynn, Stephen, 87, 170
- Hackney, George, 199–200, 202
- Halbwachs, Maurice, 14, 18–19, 26
- Hamilton, Alexander, 201
- Hamilton, Margaret, 201
- Harrison, Hubert, 143
- Haughey, Charles, 210
- Hayden, Tom, 141
- Heaney, Paddy, 98
- Higgins, Roisin, 18, 29, 36–37, 110, 212–213
- Hill, Robert A., 143
- historians
  - diachronic approaches, 41–42
  - legitimisation role and contemporary identity formation, 25, 42
  - media roles of, 37–38, 42
  - role in the Decade of Centenaries, 39–40, 65
- historical memory
  - concept of, 2, 13–15
  - contemporary constructs and relevance of, 26–27
  - and nationhood, 33
  - transmission of historical events, 30–32
- historical narratives
  - commemoration and new historical narratives, Northern Ireland, 249–250
  - and contemporary Irish identities, 24–25
  - group identities and, 24–25, 225, 247
- history
  - elevated status of, 39
  - power over the present and the future, 225
  - role within nationalism, 38–39
- Hobsbawm, Eric, 17, 139
- the Holocaust, 21
- Home Rule
  - campaign against, 67, 80

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

266 Index

Home Rule (cont.)

- discussion of during Ulster Day anniversary services and sermons, 75–78
- ‘Home Rule to Partition’ gallery, Ulster Museum, 197–199
- Shankill’s resistance to, 116

Hopkins, Nick, 35

House, Sir David, 221

Hughes, Isaac, 131

Humphreys, Heather, 239

Hunter, William, 201

identity

- contemporary formation of and role of commemoration, 28–29, 225, 229–230, 247
- defining and role of commemoration, 25
- ethnic boundaries, 33–34
- fiftieth anniversary commemorations and, 29, 225
- group identities and historical narratives, 24–25, 225, 247
- and individual/group relationships, 32–33
- in-groups and out-groups, 32
- and legitimisation of history within, 25, 42
- peacebuilding and perceived threat to loyalist identities, 244–246
- ritual and expressions of group identity, 25, 26, 29, 31–32
- unionist identity and the Somme, 112–113, 169, 242–243

individual memory

- within the memory timeline, 20–21
- in relation to collective memory, 28
- relationship with social memory, 28, 109–110
- tensions with public silence, 23

Inghinidhe na hÉireann, 88–89

instant history

- commemoration of, 66, 75–80
- concept of, 65–66
- martial appeal of, 71–72
- performative aspects of, 66, 68–70
- popular consumption of, 66, 70–75
- scripting of, 66–68

IRA Veterans of America, Inc, 141–142

Ireland 2016 commemoration

programme, 239

Ireland see also Irish Free State; Republic of Ireland

- Northern policy, early 1970s, 210
- politicisation of 1916 commemoration, 209

Irish Citizen Army

- Helena Molony as member of, 49, 86, 89
- role in the Easter Rising, 43, 44, 58
- slogan, 242

women recruits, 101, 102

(Irish) Division, 16th, 4

- Irish Free State see also Ireland; Republic of Ireland; the South
- commemorations of the Easter Rising, 55–56, 57–58
- critiques of, Abbey rebels, 102–105, 106–107
- decline in commemoration of 1798 rebellion, 57–58

Irish literature

- post-revolutionary literature, 99–100
- revival and inspiration for the Easter Rising, 88

Irish National Theatre Society, 87, 97

Irish News

- deaths and ‘in memoriam’ pages, 222–223

Provisional IRA protests at, 222

Irish Republican Army (IRA) see also

Provisional IRA

- anti-IRA propaganda, 209–210
- commemoration and appropriation of the Easter Rising, 181–182
- Easter Rising and rationale for armed struggle, 1, 209, 210, 227

Irish-American history, 138–139

Irish-American republicanism

- commemoration of the Easter Rising, 141–142
- decline in, 140–141, 142
- Noraid, 220

Irish-Americans

- Ancient Order of Hibernians, 173–174
- commemorations, post-1968, 152
- and industrial unionism, 145–148
- Mike Quill, 146–148
- return to Ireland, 174
- support for 1916, 173–174

Jeffery, Keith, 114

Jenkins, Walter, 38

Johnston, Denis (The Old Lady Says No!), 163

Joyce, James

- A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man*, 177
- prose, 179

Yeats’s support for, 170–171

Jubilee Day riot, 1897, 160

Kearney, Peadar

- action during Easter Week, 89

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

Index

267

- authorship of national anthem, 86, 99, 103
- biography, 92, 95, 98–99, 107
- critique of the Irish State, 103
- fourth generation celebrations of, 108
- Lemass's tribute to, Abbey Theatre 1966, 86–87
- politicisation of, Gaelic revival, 88–89
- postmemory and, 99
- post-revolution activity, 89–90
- as revolutionary insider, 96
- unrewarded service theme, 98–99, 105–106
- Kenny, Enda, 4, 61
- Kertzer, David, 31
- Kettle, Tom, 170
- Klein, Kerwin Lee, 139
- Knaure, L. M., 202
- Larkin Citizen Army see also Irish Citizen Army, and syndicalism, 44
- Lemass, Seán
  - 1966 golden jubilee events, 3, 22, 212–213
  - Belfast/Dublin political rapprochement, 188–189
  - tribute to the Abbey rebels, Abbey Theatre, 86–87, 88, 110
  - unofficial tenth commemoration, 55
  - visits to the USA, 142
- literary remembrance, 19
- Little Theatre, Dublin, 169–170
- Little, P. J., 87
- living commemorative practices, 222–223
- Londonderry see also Derry, and the Urban Villages strategy, 191
- Loup, Co Derry, 57
- loyalists see also murals, loyalist; unionists
  - belief in nationalist-biased political system, 244–245
  - centrality of Somme commemorations, 112–113
  - commemorations during the Decade of Centenaries, 244, 251, 253
  - commemorative rituals and symbols, 253–254
  - continuous commemorative practices, 254–255
  - foundation myth of the Somme, 1–2, 81–84, 189, 196, 256–257
  - loyalism as ongoing political project, 258–259
  - narrative of loss, 245–247, 251–252
  - paramilitaries, 3, 19
  - past imperial glory and the unjust present, 255–256
  - peacebuilding and perceived threat to identity, 244–246
  - perceived discrimination against, 246
  - period costumes of, 253, 254
  - political motivations for social memories, 3, 19, 41
  - poppy symbolism, 34, 251, 253
  - remembrance as a duty, 252–253
- Lynch, Jack, 210
- Mac Diarmada, Seán, 52, 60, 96
- MacAonghusa, Proinsias, 52
- MacDonagh, Michael, 84
- MacDonagh, Thomas, 68, 71, 169, 171–172, 174
- MacEntee, Sean, 209–210
- MacNeice, Revd Frederick, 69, 75, 76, 85
- MacNeill, John (Eoin), 45, 69
- MacSwiney, Terence, 144–145
- Mansion House Committee, 67
- Markievicz, Countess, 102, 146, 149, 172
- Martin, F. X., 15, 19, 22, 241
- Maskey, Alex, 23
- McBride, Ian, 13, 26, 27
- McCarthy, T. J., 158–159
- McGarry, Fearghal, 156
- McGathern, John, 179
- McIntosh, Gillian, 113
- McKay, Claude, 144
- McKenna, Stephen, 47
- memorials see also statues
  - as cultural artefacts, 20
  - initial political neutrality, 247
  - Thiepval memorial, 18, 82, 189, 248, 249
- memory
  - evolutionary timeline of, 20–21
  - Irish scholarship and, 13
  - models of, 27
  - as new epistemological approach, 109–110
- memory studies
  - historical status of memory, 139
  - memory boom, 13, 109
  - reception of the evidence, 139–140
- Military Service Pensions (MSP)
  - active service testimonies, 90
  - failure to recognize female combatants, 101
  - Helena Molony's dispute with, 101–102
- Milligan, Alice, 96–97
- Molloy, Michael, 48
- Molony, Helena
  - action during Easter Week, 89

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

268 Index

Molony, Helena (cont.)

- campaign for gender equality, 102
- copies of the Proclamation, 96
- on the death of Constable James O'Brien, 94–95
- dispute with the MSP, 101–102
- final days of, 103
- gender equality campaigning, 100
- impacts of the executions on, 95–96
- Lemass's tribute to, Abbey Theatre 1966, 86–87, 88
- organisation of first anniversary commemoration, 49–51
- politicisation of, Gaelic revival, 88–89
- post-revolution activity, 89
- renewed interest in, 111
- and representation of women within Sinn Féin, 96
- on the shortcomings of the revolution, 102–103
- witness statement to the BMH, 51, 91, 95, 97

Montgomery, Dr Henry, 78

Moody, T. W., 16

Moran, James, 104

Moylan, Sean, 157, 161

Moynihan, Daniel Patrick, 142

Moynihan, Maurice, 159

Muldoon, Paul, 111

murals, loyalist

- for the Centenary commemorations, 254, 255
- commemorating the Easter Rising, 185
- East Belfast, 185
- 9th Royal Irish Rifles, Shankill Road, 115–116, 118–119
- post-Agreement Northern Ireland, East Belfast, 244–245
- prison-made commemoration mural of the 36th (Ulster) Division, 181, 183
- Somme imagery, 2, 5, 184
- 36th Division in contemporary murals, 114–116

Murphy, Barney

- financial hardship, post-1916, 97
- Lemass's tribute to, Abbey Theatre 1966, 86–87, 88
- post-revolution activity, 89
- as revolutionary insider, 96

Murphy, Kathleen, 48

Murphy, Seamus

- statues, St Brigid's, 149–150
- upbringing and nationalism of, 149
- mythistory, 16–17

myths

- Abbey Theatre founding myths, 97, 172
- Celtic mythology, 15
- contemporary perspectives on, 16–17
- demystification and new Irish history, 15–16
- mythologizing of 1916, 15
- the Somme as foundation myth for Northern Ireland, 1–2, 81–84, 189, 196, 256–257

national commemoration

- and rituals of official commemoration, 17–18, 164
- within collective political memory, 20
- intersection with social memory, 18–19
- National Graves Association (NGA), 59
- nationalism
- cenotaphs as symbols of, 34–35
- commemorative unity, 1798 centenary, 158–161
- ethno-symbolist approaches, 16
- and historical memory, 34–35, 38–39
- nation as imagined community, 32
- relationship with violence, 161–163

nationalists

- mythologizing of 1916, 15
- WWI as shared history with unionists, 234–235

the nation-state

- 1916 significance within Good Friday Agreement, 229
- boundary markers of, 33–34
- construction of and historical memory, 33, 208–209
- as imagined community, 32, 34–35
- Irish economic collapse and legacy of 1916, 237–239
- new definition of, post Good Friday Agreement, 229
- primordial view of, 34
- revised definition of, 228–229
- revisionism and the national project, 227–228
- role of commemorative rituals, 35
- state-building and the Easter Rising, 226–227

Naylor, Margaret, 178–179

Neil, James Crawford, 94

new Irish history approach, 15–16

Ní Dháibhéid, Caoimhe, 21

Ní Shuibhlaigh, Máire

- action during Easter Week, 89
- autobiography, 92, 97–98, 100, 107, 108

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

Index

269

- in Cathleen ni Houlihan, 87
- classification as non-active combatant, 101
- conflicting recollections on release from Jacob's Factory, 93–94
- coverage of the death of James Crawford Neill, 94
- financial hardship, post-1916, 96–97
- Lemass's tribute to, Abbey Theatre 1966, 86–87, 88
- politicisation of, Gaelic revival, 88–89
- post-revolution activity, 89
- relationship with Yeats, 97–98
- as revolutionary insider, 96
- Nora, Pierre, 94
- the North
  - commemoration of in the Somme, 3, 5, 169
  - commemoration of the Easter Rising, 3
- Northern Ireland see also Belfast; the North; Ulster
- cemeteries and mass political gatherings, 58–59
- commemoration and new historical narratives, post-conflict, 249–250
- exclusivist commemoration traditions, 4
- fiftieth anniversary, Easter Rising, 56–57
- flying of the tricolour in, 53–55
- militant republican marches, 2015, 225, 230
- nation-building and WWI
  - commemoration, 247–248
- Northern policies of Irish governments, 1970s, 210, 211
- official commemorations of, 249
- official Somme commemorations and new historical narratives, 249–250
- peacebuilding as threat to loyalist identity, 244–246
- political motivations for
  - commemorations, 3, 19
- prohibition of Easter Rising commemorations, 56
- sense of 'Britishness' and war commemorations, 249
- the Somme as foundation myth for, 1–2, 81–84, 189, 196, 256–257
- special category status, prisons, 221
- tricolour flags and fiftieth anniversary, Easter Rising, 53–55
- Norway, Mary Louisa, 46–47
- Ó Conaill, Dáithí, 222
- O'Brien, Conor Cruise, 215–216
- O'Brien, James, 94–95
- O'Casey, Sean
  - Juno and the Paycock*, 163
  - omission of, Abbey Theatre ceremony, 1966, 110
  - plays at the Abbey Theatre, 162
  - The Plough and the Stars*, 104
- O'Donovan Rossa, Jeremiah, 173–174
- O'Farrell, Fergus, 242
- O'Leary, John, 160
- O'Leary, Michael, 215
- O'Malley, Ernie, 14, 91–92
- O'Neill, Terence, 57, 188–189
- oral histories
  - analysis of, 14
  - Australian WWI veterans, 18
  - limitations of, 91
- Orange Order
  - commemorations of the Somme, 84–85, 112, 248, 251
  - parades, 15
- Paisley, Rev Ian, 57
- paramilitaries, loyalist, 3, 19
- Peacocke, Canon, 76–77, 78
- Pearse, Margaret, 59–60, 104
- Pearse, Patrick
  - Bertie Ahern's identification with, 232
  - as an educationalist, 174
  - graveside orations, 58, 173
  - within the greater Irish tradition, 51, 172
- Kathleen Clarke's opinion of, 60
- martyrdom of, 68, 102–103
- pamphlet, IRA Veterans of America, Inc., 141–142
- prememory in his writings, 22
- in press cutting used by W. B. Yeats, 171–172
- reading of the Proclamation, 43, 46–47, 61
- as wounded, 45
- Pearse-Connolly Irish Independence Club, 141
- Pikeman of Tralee
  - conception of, 158–159
  - destruction of by Royal Irish Constabulary, 164–165
  - nationalist unity over, 159
  - protracted replacement process, 165–167
  - rededication ceremony, 167
- Pinfield, Second Lieutenant G. V., 178
- Plunkett, Geraldine, 47
- Plunkett, Joseph, 68, 171–172
- pluralistic remembrance, 4

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

270 Index

- political traditions
  - and commemorative processes, 8–9, 258
  - and continuity of 1916 commemorations, 3, 4–5
  - increasing pluralism of 1916
    - commemorations, 3–4
  - nationhood and commemoration, 33
  - political legitimacy through rituals, 35
- politics, contemporary
  - citizen-political elite relationship
    - breakdown, 2011, 236–237, 238
  - legitimation through commemorative acts, 24, 28–29, 55–56
  - political power and commemoration, 8, 25–26, 35, 36–37, 41
  - 2011 General Election, 236
- postmemory
  - concept of, 21, 27–28, 99
  - disillusioned, Abbey rebels, 99, 108–109
  - and latent memories, 22
  - and opposition to 1966 jubilee celebrations, 22
  - reconceptualization of, 21–22
- Pound, Ezra, 170–171
- prememory
  - concept of, 21–22, 27–28
  - and latent memories, 22
- Proclamation of the Irish Republic
  - centrality to the cult of 1916, 212
  - copy in the Ulster Museum, 187, 198
  - first anniversary commemoration copies, 50–51
  - within the greater Irish tradition, 51
  - physical copies of, 47–49
  - by poster, 43, 68
  - reading of the Proclamation, 43, 46–47, 61
  - timing of, 43, 49
- Provisional IRA see also Irish Republican Army (IRA)
  - 1975 talks with the British government, 220–221
  - challenge to cultural appropriation of 1916 commemoration, 213–214
  - Easter Rising and rationale for armed struggle, 1, 209, 210, 227
  - funeral of Michael Gaughan, 220
  - military campaign and Irish government's Northern Policy, 221–222
  - newspaper commemoration for killed volunteers, 222–223
  - as owners of republican memory, 213
  - protests at the Irish News offices, 222
  - as threat to Irish state, 214–215
- Provisional Sinn Féin, 221–222
- Quill, Mike
  - biography of, 147, 148
  - career, 146–147
  - James Connolly's ideas and, 147–148
- Quill, Shirley, 147, 148
- Quinault, R., 28
- rebellion of 1798, centenary see also
  - Pikeman of Tralee
  - Cathleen ni Houlihan* production at the Abbey Theatre, 86–87, 110, 111, 162
  - commemorative statues, 156, 158
  - decline in commemoration of, 161, 167
  - Jubilee Day riot, 1897, 160
  - monumental commemoration, decline in, 164
  - '98 Central Committee, 158, 160
  - '98 Memorial Committees, 158–159, 164
  - political violence during, 159–161
  - and politicisation of the Rising generation, 100, 155, 156–157, 160–161
  - republican activities during, 158
  - unification through centenary celebrations, 155–156
- Reicher, Stephen, 35
- Republic of Ireland see also the South
  - cult of 1916 and political culture, 212
  - economic restructuring, 227
  - irredentist public political culture, 211–212
  - revisionism and the national project, 227–228
  - shared commemorative frameworks, 3, 4
  - threat to from the Troubles, 213, 214–215
- Republican Sinn Féin
  - commemorations, 225
- republicanism
  - during the 1798 centenary, 158
  - ideological continuity and ownership of the Rising, 231–232
  - National Graves Association (NGA), 59
- Ribeiro de Menezes, Alison, 109–110
- Rising generation see also Abbey rebels; Easter rebels
  - influencing/developmental factors, 156–157
  - politicisation during centenary celebrations, 100, 155, 156–157, 160–161
- rituals
  - continuity of, 36
  - and the creation of nationhood, 35
  - diachronic approaches, 25

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

Index

271

- and expressions of group identity, 25, 26, 29, 31–32
- of official commemoration, 17–18, 229–230
- political legitimisation and, 35
- symbols and community within, 32
- symbols and transmission of the past, 25, 29–32, 42
- synchronic approaches, 25–26
- Robbins, Frank, 58
- Robinson, Séamus, 159–160
- Rolleston, T. W., 15
- Rousseau, Frédéric, 192–193
- Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, 120, 125–129, 131
- Royal Irish Rifles (9th)
  - expected recruits from West Belfast UVF, 119–120, 121
  - Shankill Road mural of, 115–116, 118–119
  - West Belfast UVF members of, 122–124
- Russell, George, 174
- Ryan, Min, 93–94
- Saunders, Nicholas, 184
- Saurin, Charles, 46
- Savage, Henry, 73–74
- Shakespeare, William, 169–170, 175–176
- Shankill Road Memorial Garden, 116–118
- Shankill see also West Belfast UVF, WWI fatalities, 116–119, 132
- Shields, Arthur
  - action during Easter Week, 89
  - autobiography of, 92–93, 107
  - critique of the Irish State, 103–105
  - Lemass's tribute to, Abbey Theatre 1966, 86–87, 88
  - The Plough and the Stars* production, 104
  - post-revolution activity, 89
- Shields, Christine, 111
- Shields, Laurie, 107
- Shirlow, Peter, 113
- Simms, Nicholas, 217
- Sinn Féin
  - challenge to Fianna Fáil, 231
  - commemorations of the Easter Rising, 79
  - demand for pamphlets, 71
  - electoral rise, 2011 General Election, 236
  - and First World War
    - commemorations, 250
  - flags and colours, first anniversary commemorations, 50, 79
  - representation of women within Sinn Féin, 96
  - Republican Sinn Féin
    - commemorations, 225
  - Sinn Féin Rebellion Handbook*, 70–71
  - stamps, 71
  - Sinn Féin Ulster Executive, 209–210
  - Skeffington, Hannah Sheehy, 104
  - Skinnider, Margaret, 101
  - social forgetting
    - concept of, 23
    - of Irish-American history, 141
    - of southern Irish participation in WWI, 22–23, 241
  - social memory see also collective memory
    - and commemoration, 18–19
    - and intersection with official commemoration, 18–19
    - archaeology of, 109
    - and cultural memory, 20–21
    - and individual memory, 28, 109–110
    - loyalist political motivations for, 3, 19, 41
    - within memory timeline, 20–21
  - The Soldier's Song*, 86, 98–99, 103
  - Solemn League and Covenant of 1643, 66–67, 253
  - the Somme see also 36th (Ulster) Division; First World War
    - commemorations in Northern Ireland, 183–184
    - commemorations in the North, 3, 5, 169
    - commemorative tensions and, 4
    - as foundation myth for the Northern Irish State, 1–2, 81–84, 189, 196, 256–257
    - honouring and links with the Easter Rising, 234–235
    - as instant history, 81–85
    - on murals, Belfast, 2, 5, 184
    - new historical narratives and, 249–250
    - northern republican engagement with, 23
    - Orange anniversary services for, 84–85, 112, 248
    - painting of by Gusti Spence, Ulster Museum, 181, 183
    - political motivations for social memories, post-conflict Northern Ireland, 3, 19, 41
    - as prememory, 27–28
    - problematic official commemoration
      - and, 17–18
    - as shared Catholic/Protestant narrative, 2, 84
    - Somme resolution, Belfast City Council, 248, 250

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

272 Index

- the Somme (cont.)
 state commemorations, Belfast City Hall, 248 Ulster Museum commemorations, 189 as unfulfillable promise of salvation, post-peace loyalists, 256–257 unionist identity and, 112–113, 169, 242–243 unionist press coverage, 83–84
 UVF commemorations of, 112–113, 181–182
- the South see also Ireland; Irish Free State; Republic of Ireland alternative commemorative anniversaries, 5, 241 southern Irish participation in WWI, 22–23, 241
- Spence, Augustus (Gusty), 181, 183
 Spivak, G., 244
- St Brigid's Church, San Francisco background to, 148
 neighbourhood demographic change, 150–151 renovations and Irish connection, 149 statues, 149
- States of Ireland* (O'Brien), 211–212
- statues see also Pikeman of Tralee; St Brigid's Church, San Francisco 1798 commemorative statues, 156
 memorial statues, nineteenth century, 156, 158
- Stephens, James, 43–44, 45, 46
 Stormont, 188
 Stronge, Sir James, 194
 Switzer, Catherine, 19
- symbols and community within rituals, 32 within rituals, 32 and transmission of the past, 25, 29–32, 42
- synchronic approaches political power and commemoration, 8, 25–26, 35, 36–37, 41 in social anthropology, 30 and the transmission of historical events, 30–31, 36
- Synge, John Millington, 173
- Tajfeld, Henri, 32
 Thiepval memorial, 18, 82, 189, 248, 249
 Thompson, W. I., 19
 Thomson, Alistair, 18
 Thomson, Paul, 16
- Thornely, Lieutenant Francis Bodenham, 196
- Together: Building a United Community (TUBC), 190–191
- Tone, Theobald Wolf, 146, 158
 Tonkin, Elizabeth, 36
- Transport Workers Union (TWU), 147
- Trimble, David, 56
- the Troubles
 as threat to Irish state, 213, 214–215 commemoration of the 36th (Ulster) Division, 3 contemporary relevance to 1916, the Ulster Museum, 181–183
- Turner, Victor, 31
- Twomey, Maurice, 55–56
- Ulster campaign against Home Rule, 67, 80 instability of and fiftieth anniversary, Easter Rising, 56–57 loyalist narratives and the Somme, 1–2, 81–84, 189, 196, 256–257 loyalist narratives and WWI commemoration, 247–248
 Orange anniversary services for the Somme, 84–85, 112, 248
- Ulster Day (28 September, 1912) anniversary services and sermons for, 75–78 associations with past history, 80, 81
 belated publication of the pledges, 66 Covenant buttons, 74 fellowship through shared performance, 68–69
 as instant history, 65–66
 mimicking of the Covenant, 67 preservation of the Covenants, 73–74 Solemn League and Covenant of 1643, 66–67 tokens and souvenirs of, 73–74
 transformative effect of, 80–81
 Women's Declaration, 66, 74
- Ulster Defence Association (UDA), 253–254
- (Ulster) Division, 36th see also 9th Royal Irish Rifles; the Somme base depot flag, 197–198 commemoration of, Ulster Museum, 189 commemorative role of, 3, 248 in contemporary murals, 114–116 continuity with the Covenant and Ulster Volunteer Force, 76–77, 78, 82–83, 253–254 deployment of, 116

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

Index

273

- detailed chronicles of, 84 enlistment of UVF members prior to formation of, 120–121, 129 formation of and the UVF, 113–114, 116 heroic reputation of, 82 links with West Belfast UVF, 115–116
 Orange anniversary services for the Somme, 84–85, 112, 248
 as pals battalion, 114 prison-made commemoration mural, 181, 183
 Shankill Road Tourist Information Board, 116–118
 ‘The attack of the 36th (Ulster) Division on 1 July 1916’ (painting), 194–196, 243
 Thiepval memorial, 18, 82, 189, 248, 249
 12th July commemorations, 112 within state commemorations, Belfast City Hall, 248 within WWI studies, 112
- Ulster Museum acquisitions from 1914–1930, 197
 acquisitions from 1916, 196–197
 ‘Answer the Call’ exhibition, 194, 195 approach to the First World War, 186, 189, 193–194, 197 Commemoration of the Battle of the Somme 5th Anniversary’ exhibition, 189 copy of the Proclamation of the Irish Republic, 187, 198 creating relevance in the collection, 184–186 cultural representations, post-conflict Northern Ireland, 190–191, 192
 Decade of Centenaries commemorative programme, 193–194, 203
 Easter Rising acquisitions, 197 establishment of, 186 exhibitions, 1966, 188–189 ‘Great Irishmen and Women’ exhibition, 1966, 188–189 historical collections, 186 historical displays and contemporary political policies, 192–193 historical exhibitions of significant anniversaries, 189 ‘Home Rule to Partition’ gallery, 197–199 interpretation of 1916 and the Troubles, 181 local history gallery, 186, 187 local unionist politics and, 186–188 Modern History gallery, 193, 198
- National Memory-Local Stories*, 202
 ‘P & K Arm’ (prosthetic), 198–199 personal accounts of WWI and, 201 plaque depicting James Connolly, 181, 182 reopening, 2009, 190 shared history/shared future policy agendas and, 192, 193, 202–203 36th (Ulster) Division’s base depot flag, 197–198
- Ulster Volunteer Force (UVF) see also West Belfast UVF continuity with the Covenant and the 36th (Ulster) Division, 76–77, 78, 82–83, 253–254 disbelief in continuity of history of, 256 enlistment before the formation of the 36th (Ulster) Division, 120–121, 129 evolution of the paramilitary UVF, 131–132 and the formation of the 36th (Ulster) Division, 113–114, 116 George Hackney photos and diaries, 199–200, 202 murals of the 36th Division and modern day UVF, 115–116 newspaper sources for individual histories, 114, 121, 132–137 reservists, 120, 129
 servicemen who did not join 36th (Ulster) Division, 119, 131 Somme commemorations, 112–113, 181–182 in the 10th (Irish) Division, 129 unionist sympathies and, 120
- unionists see also loyalists belief in nationalist-biased political system, 244–245 expression of in built heritage, 188 identity and the Somme, 112–113, 169, 242–243
 mythologizing of 1916, 15
 Orange Order parades, 15 politics of and the Ulster Museum, 188 unionist sympathies and UVF membership, 120 unionist unity and Decade of Centenaries, 257–258
 WWI as shared history with nationalists, 234–235
- United Kingdom see also British empire, shared commemorative frameworks, 3, 4
- United States of American (USA) see also African-Americans; Irish-Americans; St Brigid’s Church, San Francisco

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-14590-0 - Remembering 1916: The Easter Rising, the Somme and the Politics of Memory in Ireland

Edited by Richard S. Grayson and Fearghal McGarry

Index

More information

274 Index

- United States of American (USA) (cont.)
 American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic
 (AARIR), 140
 Clan na Gael, 140, 142, 146
 Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO), 146
 Easter Rising commemoration, 151–152
 Friends of Irish Freedom, 140 industrial unionism and inspiration of the Easter Rising, 145–148
 IRA Veterans of America, Inc, 141–142
 Pearse–Connolly Irish Independence Club, 141
 Transport Workers Union (TWU), 147
 Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities League (UNIA), 142–143
 Uprichard, L. V., 75–76
 UVF Patriotic Fund, 114
- vocabularies, values and ideas, 27
- Walker, Montserrat Henry, 77
 Walkowitz, D. J., 202
 Walton, Martin, 98
 West Belfast UVF see also Ulster Volunteer Force (UVF)
 dates of death data, 122, 125–129 expected enlistment in the 9th Royal Irish Rifles, 119–120, 121
 links with the 36th (Ulster) Division, 115–116
 newspaper sources for individuals, 121–122, 132–137
 in the 9th Royal Irish Rifles, 122–124 in non-infantry units, 127 in non-specified units, 125–127 in other infantry than 9th Royal Irish Rifles, 122–126
- in other units, 130, 132 who served outside the 36th (Ulster) Division, 125–129
- Wills, Clair, 46
 Winter, Jay, 247
 Wolfe Tone Memorial Fund, 60, 158
 Wolfe Tone, Theobald, 146, 158, 216, 218
- women see also gender as guardians of the ideals of the rising, 50–51, 59–60 separation women, Easter Rising, 70
- Wright, Dr William, 77
- Yeats, W. B.
 Abbey Theatre foundation myth, 97 association with the Easter Rising, 86–87, 88
 on Cathleen ni Houlihan as inspiration for the Easter Rising, 86–87, 110, 111 comments on Lady Gregory's chapter on the Rising, 46, 86
 cultural life, London, 170
The Dreaming of Bones, 162–163
 'Easter, 1916,' 170–172 on Free State Senators, 60 on insurrection and links with Gaelic revival, 86–87, 88 newspaper language in his poetry, 172, 179
 Noble prize speech, 87, 97–98 and the protests against The Playboy of the Western World, 70 relationship of national memory and violence, 162–163 relationship with Máire Nic Shiubhlaigh, 97–98
 subscription to a press cutting service, 1916, 171 support for James Joyce, 170–171