

INDEX

Note: “fig” after a locator refers to a figure, while tables are indicated by “t” after the locator.

- Abramovich, Roman, 86
 All-Russian Congress of Private Arbitration
 Courts, 63
 allocation versus enforcement, 18
 American Chamber of Commerce in Russia, 147 anti-corruption initiatives, 192, 200 arbitration and mediation, 59, 63, 64t, 119, 185 arbitrazh courts see commercial (arbitrazh)
 courts
Arbitrazh Procedural Code, 74, 80 arrest, as corrupt coercion, 3, 9, 193, see also Khodorkovsky, Mikhail (Yukos)
- Bailiffs Service, 75, 80
bandity (Russian criminals), 46, 47, 51, 53, 93, 198 bankruptcy forced, 9, 39, 66, 68
 legislation, 66, 74, 79, 80
 banks and banking system
 corrupt coercion, 39, 47, 127
 development in, 127, 142, 182, 195
 Bashneft (Russian oil company), 192
 BEEPS (World Bank-EBRD) Surveys, 13, 35,
 36, 91, 103
Biznes Solidarnost (association supporting entrepreneurs), 88
 “black cash”, 98
 bribery factors influencing, 117, 123, 127, 139, 143, 147
 legislation, 146, 170
 and the predatory state, 87, 88
 Browder, William, 3
 Bureau for the Oversight of Entrepreneurs’
 Rights, 118
- bureaucrats, and corrupt coercion incidence, 2, 22, 43, 198, 201 in predatory states, 85, 88, 181, 191, 192 services provided, 19fig, 20, 39, 58 threat posed by, 25, 93, 186
 business associations role/activities, 6, 52, 99, 111, 119, 124, 181 in transition economies, 199, 201 see also American Chamber of Commerce in Russia; Biznes Solidarnost; OPORA;
 RSPP; TPP
- capability (operational), of legal institutions, 72, 75, 80, 81
 cash economy, and illegal strategies, 127, 135, 136, 138, 142, 146, 182, 196
 cash register machines, legislation, 70
 Center for Economic and Financial Research,
 Moscow (CEFIR), 87
 Center for International Private Enterprises
 (CIPE), 118
 Chamber of Trade and Industry (TPP), 119
 China, People’s Republic of, state legal capacity, 2, 27, 29, 194, 205 ChOPs (Russian private protection enterprises), 48, 52, 53, 55 CIPE (Center for International Private Enterprises), 118
 client/supplier base, and firms’ property security strategies, 147, 166 collective action, as demand-side barrier, 23fig, 28, 33, 124, 204
 commercial (arbitrazh) courts, 59, 60fig, 74,
 82, 84, 94, 192
 Procedural Code, 74, 80
 in Ukraine, 199
 competence, of legal personnel, 76, 82

- consolidating ownership, of firms, 127, 135
- Constitutional Court of the Russian Federation, 70, 74
- consumer electronics sector, 113, 123, 132, 171
- contract investigations, 54, 56, 114, 132
- contract killings, 9, 43, 49
- Convention on Combating Bribery of Public Officials in International Business Transactions (OECD), 146
- corporate raiding, illegal (reiderstvo), 9, 39, 54, 66, 68, 87
- corrupt coercion
 - definition and use, 11, 19*fig*, 20, 58, 180
 - impact on formal legal institutions, 3, 16, 21, 183, 186, 206
 - in post-Soviet Russia, 22, 39, 43, 69, 79, 83
 - in transition countries, 2, 198, 201, see also predatory state
- courts, of general jurisdiction, 59, 74, 81, 82, 84, 192
- cultural norms, and property security strategies, 23*fig*, 29, 37, 66, 97
- customs barriers, 113, 152, 172, see also regulations, burden posed by
- demand-side barriers, to using formal legal institutions
 - customs barriers, 152, 172
 - defined, 5, 181
 - as explanatory factor, 17, 23, 29, 33, 182, 196
 - firm size, 152, 177
 - firms' expectations and collective action, 28, 32, 110, 204
 - in transition countries, 198, 200, 205
 - normative transformations, 23*fig*, 29, 37, 66, 97
 - regulatory burdens, 88, 152, 172, 182
 - tax compliance and informal economy involvement, 28, 32, 110, 151, 181
- Deripaska, Oleg, 86
- dualism, legal, 194
- e-government, 81, 192
- economic complexity, need for formal legal institutions, 6, 30, 38
- economic crimes, 89, 90
- economic security, 11, 45, 52
- energy/oil sector, 40, 45, 86, 145, 193
- "enforcement partnerships", 10
- enforcement versus allocation, 18
- European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD-BEEPS Surveys), 13, 35, 36, 91, 103
- expectations, of firms see perceptions, firms', and property security strategies
- extortion, 9, 11, 46, 49, 51
- FDI (foreign direct investment), 127, 149, 161, 175, 182, 194
- Federal Anti-Monopoly Service (FAS), 84
- Federal Court of Private Arbitration, 63
- Federal Financial Monitoring Service (Rosfinmonitoring), 83
- Federal Narcotics Control Service (FSKN), 90
- Federal Security Service (FSB, KGB successor), 10, 54, 56, 81, 82
- Federal Service for Financial Markets (was Federal Securities Commission), 74, 76
- Federal Tax Police, 90
- financial sector, development, 72, 126, 127, 142, 182, 195
- financing, of legal institutions, 55, 76, 81
- firm size, and property security strategies, 152, 177
 - access to financing, 137–139
 - informal networks, 28, 112, 152, 164, 173
 - protection rackets, 22, 47, 51, 55
 - regulatory / tax burdens, 87, 102, 200
 - use of courts, 44, 59
- Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (USA), 146
- foreign direct investment (FDI), 127, 149, 161, 175, 182, 194
- formal legal institutions, see legal institutions, formal
- FSB (Federal Security Service, KGB successor), 10, 54, 55, 81, 82
- FSKN (Federal Narcotics Control Service), 90
- FTAF (International Financial Action Task Force), 83
- Gazprom (oil/natural gas company), 48, 86
- Ghana, supply-side barriers, 26
- goods or services, see output (of firm), and property security strategies
- Gorbachev, Mikhail, 45, 46
- Gosplan (Soviet state planning agency), 45
- GUBOP (State Directorate for the Struggle with Organized Crime), 55
- Gutseriev, Mikhail, 86

- illegal strategies, effectiveness of
 - consolidation of ownership, 127, 135
 - determining costs and risks, 5, 17, 23*fig*, 31, 35, 38, 182
 - development of financial sector, 72, 126, 127, 142, 182, 195
 - firm size, 152, 177
 - firms' output, 151, 158, 183
 - impact of others' strategies, 33, 99, 116, 125, 181
 - informal networks, 151–153, 166, 173
 - and informal strategies, 21, 30, 185, 190
 - integration into international economy, 126, 128, 149, 182
 - market size, 153, 160, 161
- imports, illegal, 113, 152, 172
- imprisonment of businessmen, 3, 56, 88, 90
- INDEM Foundation (Russian NGO), 13
- independence (political), of legal institutions, 77, 78, 84
- informal economy, involvement in
 - regulatory burdens, 152, 171, 172
 - tax compliance, 110, 166, 181, 200, 203
 - use of formal legal institutions, 23, 28, 98
- informal networks, and property security strategies, 151–153, 166, 173
- informal strategies, 21, 30, 185, 190
- Initial Public Offering (IPO), 143, 144*t*, 147, 148
- institutional/strategic complementarities, 187, 196
- institutional demand
 - developing the theory, 8, 16, 23*fig*, 33, 42, 178, 187
 - expanding the theory, 188
 - post-Soviet Russia, 40, 69, 96, 195
 - role of state, 196
- internal security services, firms', see private security agencies
- International Accounting Standard, 137, 138
- international economy, integration into, 126, 128, 149, 182
- International Financial Action Task Force (FTAF), 83
- IPO (Initial Public Offering), 143, 144*t*, 147, 148
- Japan, property security strategies, 1, 28, 37, 185
- joint stock companies
 - legislation, 59, 74, 79, 190, 199, 202
 - property security strategies, 53, 57, 64
- judicial qualifications commissions (JQCs), 77, 83
- Kaufmann, Daniel, 14
- KGB (Soviet Committee for State Security)
 - personnel, 2, 10, 47
- Khodorkovsky, Mikhail (Yukos), 3, 39, 44, 86, 89
- kryshas* (protection rackets), 10, 47, 51, 52, 56, 58
- Law on Bankruptcy, 66, 74, 79
- Law on Competition (2006), 79, 84
- Law on Cooperatives (1988), 46
- law enforcement agencies
 - corrupt coercion by, 3, 9, 11, 39, 58, 79
 - extent of corrupt coercion, 22, 83, 90
 - financial resources and competence of, 75, 76, 81, 83, 100
 - and property security strategies, 16, 19*fig*, 21, 58, 65*t*, 67*t*, 180, see perceptions, firms', of state legal capacity
- Law on Individual Labor Activity (1987), 46
- Law on Mandatory Pensions Insurance in the Russian Federation (2002), 70
- Law on Private Arbitration (2002), 63
- Law on Private Detective and Protection Activity (1992), 48
- lawyers, use of, 2, 22, 63, 66, 67*t*, 146, 202
- legal coercion
 - in China, 205
 - definition and use, 19*fig*, 21, 180
 - increased use in post-Soviet Russia, 22, 34, 44, 69, 187
- legal compliance, motivation for, 36
- legal departments, internal, 62, 174
- legal dualism, 194
- legal institutions, formal
 - defined, 24, 72
 - firms' impact on, 3, 7, 16, 27, 151, 184, 187
 - legislation passed, 46, 48, 63, 70, 90, 139, see also state legal capacity, defining and measuring
- Levada Center (Russian survey firm), 13, 94
- licensing, see regulations, burden posed by
- litigation
 - against state, 12, 61
 - initiated by government authorities, 70
- Loans-for-Shares scheme, 39

- lobbying
 - by government officials, 90, 117
 - by private sector, 34, 39, 118, 184
- McDonald's (global fast food company), 143, 147
- Madagascar, cultural norms, 29
- mafia, see protection rackets
- market size, and firms' property security strategies, 153, 160, 161
- Mechel (mining and metals company), 86
- Medvedev, Dmitry, 90
- Ministry of Anti-Monopoly Policy and Support of Entrepreneurship, 74
- Ministry of Economic Development and Trade, 83, 170
- Ministry of Internal Affairs (MVD), 9, 43, 47, 55, 76, 83
- multinational companies (MNCs), 127, 143, 146, 148, 149, 182
- Russian, 145
- Navalny, Alexey (anticorruption crusader), 192
- normative transformation/cultural norms, and property security strategies, 23*fig*, 29, 37, 66, 97
- OECD Convention on Combating Bribery of Public Officials in International Business Transactions, 146
- oil/energy sector, 40, 45, 86, 145, 193
- oligarchs, 35, 40, 84, 131, 183
- Ombudsmen for Entrepreneurs' Rights, 90
- open air markets, 46
- operational capability, of legal institutions, 72, 75, 80, 81
- OPORA (Russian business association for Small and Medium Business), 50, 51, 57, 118
- organized crime
 - growth and decline in post-Soviet Russia, 10, 43, 45, 47, 51, 53
 - in Ukraine, 197, see also protection rackets
- output, and firms' property security strategies, 151, 158, 183
- ownership of firms, and property security strategies
 - consolidated, 127, 135, 182, 183
 - dispersed, 130
 - foreign, 146, 149
 - "parchment institutions", 74, 78, 185, 189*fig*, 190
- perceptions, firms'
 - of illegal strategies, 116, 124, 127, 182
 - of others' property security strategies, 7, 28, 33, 99, 124
 - of state legal capacity, 29, 37, 59, 73, 95, 109
- perestroika*, 45, 46, 167
- permits, see regulations, burden posed by
- Peru, small apparel firms, 110
- police, see law enforcement
- political independence, of legal institutions, 77, 78, 84
- Potantin, Vladimir (Russian business tycoon), 39, 131
- predatory state
 - rise in post-Soviet Russia, 44, 72, 91, 181
 - and rule of law in post-Soviet Russia, 195
 - threat to property security, 25, 31, 119, 195, 197
- private arbitration, 59, 63, 64*t*, 185
- private coercion
 - decline in post-Soviet Russia, 22, 43, 54, 58, 65*t*, 67*t*
 - as property security strategy, 19*fig*, 20, 31, 38, 180, 185
 - services provided through, 1, 10, 47
 - in transition countries, 198, 201
- "private ordering", 21, 30, 151, 185
- private security agencies
 - evolution in post-Soviet Russia, 22, 45, 48, 54, 55
 - services provided by, 1, 10, 20
- privatization, in Russia, 34, 47, 73, 127, 129
- procuracy (Russian legal compliance watchdog), 79, 81, 82
- property rights
 - defined, 19
 - and human rights, 195
 - role of state, 6, 24, 25, 196
- property security strategies
 - continuum, 13, 16, 19*fig*, 23
 - defined, 19, 79, 180
 - demand perspective, 29, 182, 196
 - evolution in Russia, 40, 69
 - and rule of law, 195
 - supply perspective, 27, 33, 181, 196
 - in transition countries, 206
- protection rackets
 - evolution, 9, 38, 47, 51

- incidence, 2, 14, 22, 65t, 67t, 82
- and property security, 19fig, 20, 180, 190
- services provided, 11, 34, 58
- in transition countries, 198, 201
- Putin, Vladimir, 34, 71, 86, 88, 90, 193
- raiding (reiderstvo), illegal corporate, 9, 39, 54, 66, 68, 87
- RAN (Russian Academy of Sciences), 47
- regulations, burden posed by, 88, 152, 172, 182
- regulatory agencies, specialized, 24, 74, 167
- “relational contracting”, 21, 30, 151, 153, 158
- reputation of firms
 - building a durable brand, 131, 145, 146, 175
 - and foreign investment, 30, 126, 135, 143, 145, 149
 - and short-term asset grabs, 127, 128
- research methodology, 14, 106
- Rosfinmonitoring* (Federal Financial Monitoring Service), 83
- Rosneft (state-owned oil company), 86, 193
- Royal Dutch Shell (oil company), 86
- RSPP (Union of Russian Industrialists and Entrepreneurs), 117, 118
- RUBOPs, see GUBOP (State Directorate for the Struggle with Organized Crime)
- rule of law
 - comparative perspective, 206
 - in post-Soviet Russia, 189fig, 195
 - state capacity and firms’ property security strategies, 24, 173, 188, 189fig
- “rule of might”, 189fig, 190
- rulers, and property security, 6, 25, 128, 188, 190
- Russian Academy of Sciences (RAN), 47
- Russian Accounting System, 137
- Russian Federal Customs Service, 170
- Russian Federal Property Fund, 90
- Russneft (oil company), 86
- Sakhalin-2 oil and gas project, 86
- sanctions, and property security strategies
 - consolidated ownership, 135
 - determining costs and risks, 5, 21, 23fig, 128, 182, 183
 - development of banking sector, 142
 - integration into global economy, 149
- services firms, see output, and firms’ property security strategies
- shadow economy, see informal economy
- “shadow justice”, 10, 47
- “shadow of the law”, 20, 25, 61, 180, 202
- shell companies, 70, 127
- size, of firms, see firm size, and property security strategies
- SOEs (state owned enterprises), 13, 47, 73, 162, 163fig, 164
- spillover effects, from economic rule of law, 119, 148, 195, 204
- staff competence (in legal institutions), 76, 82
- State Directorate for the Struggle with Organized Crime (GUBOP), 55
- state legal capacity
 - defining and measuring, 23fig, 24, 25, 72
 - in industrialized countries, 205
 - and property security strategies, 4, 5, 23, 27, 31, 35, 181
 - in transition countries, 201
- state owned enterprises (SOEs), 13, 47, 73, 162, 164fig
- state-in-society, 7, 186
- strategic/institutional complementarities, 187, 196
- strategic state, 188
- supplier/client base, and firms’ property security strategies, 147, 166
- supply (state) of legal institutions, see state legal capacity
- Supreme Commercial Court (VAS), 14, 192
- tax authorities
 - corrupt coercion, 54, 68, 79, 86, 87, 90
 - legal coercion, 70
 - litigation against, 12, 61
- tax compliance
 - as demand-side barrier, 28, 32, 110, 181, 188
 - tax reforms, 32, 70, 79, 98, 104, 139, 195
 - in transition countries, 200, 204
- “Three Whales” case, 82
- time horizons of firms, and property security strategies
 - extended, 135
 - short-term, 130
- tipping point dynamics, 33, 99, 111, 122fig, 124
- TNK-BP conflict, 40, 86
- TPP (Chamber of Trade and Industry), 119
- transaction costs, and property security strategies
 - consolidated ownership, 135

- determining costs and risks, 5, 21, 23*fig*, 128, 182, 183
- development of banking sector, 142
- integration into global economy, 149
- Transparency International, Moscow, 45
- transparency, initiatives promoting, 39, 81, 148, 192
- Uganda, property dispute resolution, 2
- Ukraine, state legal capacity, 193, 200
- Unified Social Tax, 102
- Union of Russian Industrialists and Entrepreneurs (RSPP), 117, 118
- VAS (Supreme Commercial Court), 14, 192
- vicious cycles, 32, 98, 111, 114, 120, 124
- Vietnam, property rights legislation, 25
- violence
 - and formal legal institutions, 4, 6, 16, 178, 206
 - and formal legal institutions, 38
 - in post-Soviet Russia, 2, 22, 46, 47, 50, 66
 - state monopoly on, 19, 21, 185
 - virtuous cycles, 32, 99, 111, 123, 204
 - VO guards, see MVD (Ministry of Internal Affairs)
- World Bank-EBRD BEEPS Surveys, 13, 35, 36, 91, 103
- Yakovleva, Yana (Biznes Solidarnost), 88
- Yeltsin, Boris, 46, 47, 74, 100, 129
- Yevtushenkov, Vladimir (Russian oligarch), 193
- Yukos, see Khodorkovsky, Mikhail (Yukos)