

CONTENTS

List of Contributors ix
Acknowledgments xxii

Introduction: Privacy and Power: A Transatlantic Dialogue in the Shadow of the NSA-Affair 1
 RUSSELL A. MILLER

PART ONE Privacy and Data Protection for the Digital Age 37

1 Foucault's Panopticon: A Model for NSA
 Surveillance? 39

SARAH HOROWITZ

2 A Rose by any Other Name? The Comparative Law of the NSA-Affair 63

RUSSELL A. MILLER

3 Privacy as a Public Good 95

JOSHUA FAIRFIELD AND CHRISTOPH ENGEL

4 The Right to Data Protection: A No-Right Thesis 129

RALF POSCHER

PART TWO Framing the Transatlantic Debate 143

5 Privacy, Rechtsstaatlichkeit, and the Legal Limits on Extraterritorial Surveillance 145

ANNE PETERS

6 Privacy, Hypocrisy, and a Defense of Surveillance 180

BENJAMIN WITTES

PART THREE	Transatlantic Perspectives on the NSA-Affair	199
I	American Voices	201
7	Sensing Disturbances in the Force: Unofficial Reflections on Developments and Challenges in the U.S.–Germany Security Relationship	203
	RONALD D. LEE
8	Metadeath: How Does Metadata Surveillance Inform Lethal Consequences?	229
	MARGARET HU
9	“We’re in This Together”: Reframing E.U. Responses to Criminal Unauthorized Disclosures of U.S. Intelligence Activities	257
	ANDREW BORENE
10	Fourth Amendment Rights for Nonresident Aliens	282
	ALEC WALEN
11	Forget About It? Harmonizing European and American Protections for Privacy, Free Speech, and Due Process	304
	DAWN CARLA NUNZIATO
II	European Voices	329
12	The Challenge of Limiting Intelligence Agencies’ Mass Surveillance Regimes: Why Western Democracies Cannot Give Up on Communication Privacy	331
	KONSTANTIN VON NOTZ
13	German Exceptionalism? The Debate About the German Foreign Intelligence Service (BND)	349
	STEFAN HEUMANN
14	The National Socialist Underground (NSU) Case: Structural Reform of Intelligence Agencies’ Involvement in Criminal Investigations?	375
	MARC ENGELHART
15	Legal Restraints on the Extraterritorial Activities of Germany’s Intelligence Services	401
	KLAUS GÄRDITZ

- 16 Assessing the CJEU’s “Google Decision”: A Tentative First Approach 435
 JOHANNES MASING
- PART FOUR Transnational Legal Responses to Privacy and Intelligence Gathering 457
- I International Law 459
- 17 Toward Multilateral Standards for Foreign Surveillance Reform 461
 IAN BROWN, MORTON H. HALPERIN, BEN HAYES, BEN SCOTT, AND MATHIAS VERMEULEN
- 18 Espionage, Security Interests, and Human Rights in the Second Machine Age: NSA Mass Surveillance and the Framework of Public International Law 492
 SILJA VÖENEKY
- 19 The Need for an Institutionalized and Transparent Set of Domestic Legal Rules Governing Transnational Intelligence Sharing in Democratic Societies 508
 SUSANA SÁNCHEZ FERRO
- II European Law 537
- 20 Developments in European Data Protection Law in the Shadow of the NSA-Affair 539
 JENS-PETER SCHNEIDER
- 21 Why Blanket Surveillance Is No Security Blanket: Data Retention in the United Kingdom after the European Data Retention Directive 564
 LUCIA ZEDNER
- 22 Do Androids Forget European Sheep?: The CJEU’s Concept of a “Right to be Forgotten” and the German perspective 586
 BERND HOLZNAGEL AND SARAH HARTMANN
- 23 Adequate Transatlantic Data Exchange in the Shadow of the NSA-Affair 615
 ELS DE BUSSER

- PART FIVE Transatlantic Reflections on the Cultural Meaning of Privacy and Intelligence Gathering 641
- 24 The Intimacy of Stasi Surveillance, the NSA-Affair, and Contemporary German Cinema 643
LAURA HEINS
- 25 Hans Fallada, the Nazis, and the Defense of Privacy 668
ROGER CROCKETT
- 26 “It Runs Its Secret Course in Public”: Watching the Mass
Ornament with Dr. Mabuse 690
SUMMER RENAULT-STEELE
- 27 Secrecy, Surveillance, Spy Fiction: Myth-Making and the Misunderstanding of Trust in the Transatlantic Intelligence
Relationship 707
EVA JOBS
- 28 CITIZENME: What Laura Poitras Got Wrong About
the NSA-Affair 726
RUSSELL A. MILLER AND STEPHEN CHOVANEC
- Index 746*