CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

INDEX

Abolition Act of 1807, 251–264 Abolition of Slavery Act of 1833, 251–264 abolitionism, 254, 256, 258–260, 265 absolute sovereign rights, 262, 384–385 absolute war, 315–316
absolutist court, 195–196 absolutist state, 195, 213, 219–220. See also political absolutism abstract harm, 406–407
Abu Ghraib, 337–338
accountability, 405–406, 409–410, 419 Adams, John, 417–418
Address to the People of Great Britain (Fox), 256 advice-books, 163–165, 178–179, 211–212 aerial bombardment, 20–21, 331–332, 333, 334–337, 338 Aeschylus, 34–35, 41–42
African political systems, 238–239 African societies, European contacts with, 245–246 akolasia, 33–34
Aktion T-4, 348
Alexander the Great, 18, 35, 43, 58–59, 68–74, 210
  as absolute monarch, 72–73 atrocities committed by armies of, 69 battle management approach, 63, 89–90 as civilizer, 69–71 on civilizing process, 62–63 cosmopolitanism and, 69–70, 72–73
  court of, 66–68
  cultural integration under, 90 decision to conquer Persia, 68 interconnectedness increasing under, 73 military approach of, 63
  Persian and Macedonian power unified under, 72–73 Persian court practices and, 71–72 Seneca on, 93–94
  we-feeling and, 72–73
Alexius I, 140–141
Alfonso of Aragon, 174
altruism, limited, 289 ambassadors, 166, 171–172, 188, 218, 220–221 ambivalence of interests, 292, 293, 318–319 American Civil War, 320–321, 322–323 Americas, Spanish invasion of, 231 amicitia, 80–81, 109–110 Amnesty International, 431–432
Anaxarchus, 66–68
Ancient Greece compassion in, 41–42
  genocide in, 17–18, 39, 48 international relations in, 23 mass destruction in, 23
ancient states-systems, 25–26, 264–265 Angell, Norman, 439–440 anger attitudes to, 93–94
  good and bad, 126
  knight's displays of, 125 strategic uses of, 124–125 annihilation units, 11–12, 428 anticipatory pity, 419–420 anticipatory remorse, 419–420 anti-colonial movements, 260–261, 445–446

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

anti-imperial emancipation struggles, 445–446 anti-modernism, 355–356
Antiochus III, 79–80
Antiphon, 36
anti-Semitism, 345, 349–350, 356–357, 363–364, 368–369 Anti-Slavery Society, 260 anti-Western social movements, 444–445 Antoninus Pius, 97
apprentice scheme, 259–260 Ardaugh, John, 260–261
Arendt, H., 367–368
aristocratic age, 313
aristocratic code, 224–225, 312, 355 aristocratic honour code, 308–309 aristocratic self-restraint, 86 aristocratic wars, 308–309, 311, 313–314 aristocratic we-feeling, 312 aristocratic we-identity, 391 Aristophanes, 41–42
Aristotle, 35, 40–41, 46, 155–156 armed force, monopolizing, 201–207 Armenians, 395–396
armies absolutist states and, 213 autonomy in para-military Rome, 101–102 civilizing of, 211–212 fiscal burden of, 202–203, 204, 205–206 increasing discipline of, 309 increasing sizes of, 202–203 living off land, 186–187, 204, 223 looting by, 133–134
  mass, 308
  mixed, 173
  political dangers of, 203–204 professional, 186–187 reserve forces, 326–327 Roman organization of, 89–90 standing, 170, 202, 204–206, 211–212 volunteer, 325
Arrian, 63, 65–68
assassination, 312, 323 Athens, 17–18, 23, 24–25, 31, 35, 40–41, 45 assault on Mycalessus by, 52–53 discourse of barbarism used by, 35 growth of power of, 37–38 honour codes and, 29
  King's Peace and, 38
  laws of war violated by, 30–31
  Melos and, 23, 39, 41–42, 46, 48–49, 50 Mytilene and, 49–50 punishment in, 40–41
  Scione and, 50
  violence and political necessity in, 50–51 warfare frequency of, 38–39 wartime behaviour of, 39 Atlantic slave trade, 20, 234, 246, 248–250 abolition of, 265, 320
  campaigns against, 251–264
  Concert of Europe and, 320
  opposition to, 251–264
  Spanish laws and, 250
atomic bombs, 333–334, 335–336
Augustus, 87–88, 93, 100 Auschwitz, 367–368, 370–371, 377 authoritarian regimes, 374–375 balance of power, 216–217 collapse in Italy of, 174–175

  diplomacy and, 171
  global harm conventions and, 459–460 in great powers relations, 174, 184–185 in Hellenistic states-system, 75–76 institutionalization of, 437–438 inter-city cooperation maintaining, 172–173 moral sensibilities and, 266–267 pacification role of, 216 rationality in, 173 shifts in, 470 short and long-term perspectives in, 411 in state formation, 407 balance of terror, 430–431, 459–460 Balkan Wars of 1875–78, 321–322 banality of evil, 344, 367–368 banditry, 93

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

barbarism, 33–34, 35, 229–230 Celts and depictions of, 235–236 discourse of, 35
  movement towards civilization from, 278 Nazis and, 381
  portrayals of Persians and, 36 regressions to, 345 slavery and slave trade as, 257–258 state power preventing collapse to, 301–302 war leading to, 53
Barbarossa, Frederick, 156
Barbarossa decree, 364–365
Bard, Ralph, 335–336
Bartolus of Sassoferato, 155–156 battle management, 63, 73, 89–90 Battle of Chaeronea, 38–39 Baudri of Bourgueil, 140–141
bellicism, 300–301
Berlin Act of 1885, 262–263
Bernard of Clairvaux, 129–130 Bismarck, O., 326–327, 436–437 black African sexuality, 247 blackness, 247
Bodin, 389–391
Bohr, Niels, 335–336
Book of the Courtier (Castiglione), 177–178 Book on Curtseye (Caxton), 201 booty, 43–47
Bovet, Honoré, 130–131
Brandt, Karl, 372–373, 399 breakdown of civilization, 355, 357–358, 359 da Brescia, Albertano, 154 Britain abolition of slavery in, 251–264 abolitionism in, 259–260 apprentice scheme in, 259–260 radical Enlightenment in, 273–274 slave laws, 251
British Enlightenment, 273–274
Bruni, Leonardo, 155–156
Buckle, Francis, 320
Burckhardt, J., 150–151 bureaucratic rationalization, 346–347 Burke, E., 310–311, 312, 325 bystander phenomenon, 344, 371–372, 374–375

Caesar, 93
Calgacus, 99
Callières, Francois, 217–222, 223–224, 292–293
Calvinism, 215–216 capital punishment, 120–121, 158 capitalism, 408–409, 410 capitalized-coercion states, 205–206 captives, massacres of, 48
Carolingian empire, 108–109
Carolingian Renaissance, 151–152
Carolingian wars, 148
Carthage, 33–34, 79, 80, 81–82
Castiglione, 177–178, 292–293
Caxton, W., 201
Celts, 235–236
Chalcidian League, 54–55
Charlemagne, 108–109
Charles V, 242–243, 244–245
Charles VII, 132–133 chattel slavery, 20
children
  violence against, 401
  as war captives, 46
chivalry, 127, 461–462 control of violence and, 136–137
  in court society, 147
  crusading warfare and, 140–141
  laws of war and, 147
  looting and, 133–134
  national, 146, 147
  nationalization of, 202
  religious transformation of, 129–130 social status and, 132 standards of restraint, 130–131 standards of violence and, 129–130 Christian conversion, 115, 242–243
Christian international society, 228, 230–231
Christian Prince (Erasmus), 208–209
Christian ruler ethic, 126–127 Christian universalism, 227 Church
  anti-Semitism in, 349–350
  Christianity spread by, 230–231

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

civilizing processes shaped by, 114–115 control mechanisms used by, 115–116 crusading warfare promoted by, 118–119 knights and, 114–115, 117
pacification by, 136, 148 slavery and, 245–246
trial by battle opposed by, 113–114 violence restrained by, 115–116, 135–136, 141–142 warriors tamed by, 112, 125–126, 148 Cicero, 34, 66–68, 78–79, 85, 86, 88, 92, 94–96, 98–99, 126–127, 154, 176 cities changes in autonomy of, 156 civilizing process in, 164–165
growth of, 154
pacifying, 162–163
vacuum theory and, 155–156 city-state system competition within, 37–38 countryside dominated by, 161–162
diplomacy and, 19
emotional identification in, 35–36 great powers and, 19
Hellenic, 23, 24, 38–39
Hellenistic states-system and, 76–77 inter-city relations, 55 as international society, 32–33 kinship ties in, 31–32
mass destruction in warfare among, 39 progress undone by, 26–27 Sumerian, 30
warfare frequency in, 38–39 civic nationalism, 325
civic virtues, 176
civil wars, 51, 52–53, 320–321, 322–323 civilians changing meaning of, 309
civilizing process and, 462–463 public concern for, 451 war and, 204–205, 462–463 civilitas, 94, 115
civilité, 195
civility
in colonial era, 20
diplomacy and, 101, 177, 217–218
global, 338–341
humanism and, 177
in Italian city-states system, 183 in modern states-system, 435
slavery and, 253–254
social preconditions developing for, 126 sovereign states and, 307–308 statecraft and, 207–216
war and, 221
civilization breakdown of, 355, 357–358, 359
in colonial era, 20, 231
commercial relations and, 292–293 compassion and, 41–42
court society and, 217–218, 222, 269
diplomacy and, 222
domestic pacification and, 422 economic activity and, 410–411 Enlightenment conceptions of, 304 European conceptions of, 227 genocide and states of, 348 geographical remoteness and, 286 global market, 387
Holocaust and, 353–354
imperial rule promoting, 94–95 international ethics and, 323–324 international society and, 468–469 Kultur and, 352
laws of war and, 393–394, 395–396
market, 451–452 movement from 'barbarism' to, 278 primitivist critique of, 278–279 reversal of Hellenic, 25 singular and plural, 463–464 sovereign rights and responsibilities and, 392–393 sovereignty and, 421–424
standards of, 13–14
treatment of 'uncivilized' peoples by, 12–13 violence in name of, 353–354 war crimes and, 393–400
Western conceptions of violence relationship to, 13–14 world politics and, 264–267, 426–433 civilized identities, 460–461

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

civilized/barbarian distinction, 33, 35, 36 civilizing forces, 382–383 civilizing missions, Enlightenment and, 275 civilizing process, 3, 14, 189–190. See also decivilizing process; global civilizing process Alexander initiating, 70–71 all societies having, 7–8 attitudes to violence and, 4, 122–123 attitudes towards women and, 96–97 Church shaping, 114–115 civilians and, 462–463
  collective emotions in, 119
  colonial era and, 20 colonial mentalities shaping, 233–234 colonialism and, 226–227
  common laws in, 28
  conceptions of non-European societies and, 232–233 continuing progress and, 342–343 control of conflict and, 271 court rationality and, 268–269 court society as part of, 4–5, 19–20, 434 crusading warfare and, 139–140, 142
  emotional identification and, 326 empire as instrument of, 265 established-outsider distinctions and, 231–232 ethos of courtliness and, 127–128 in Europe, 107, 109, 221 euthanasia and, 359–362 external restraints in, 457 genocide and, 5, 363–376
  global harm conventions and, 461–462
  Hellenic, 47–48, 55–57
  in Hellenic city-state system, 24–25
  in Hellenistic and Roman worlds, 103–105 Holocaust and, 346–347
  identification with humanity and, 293–294 imperial, 101, 260 interactions with subject peoples and, 5 interconnectedness and, 88, 420 international anarchy and, 111–112 international criminal law and, 385 international relations and, 22
  international society and, 433–435
  in Italian Renaissance, 160 just war doctrine and, 127
  in Latin Christendom, 18–19
  Macedonian, 62–63, 64
  mass killings and, 359–360, 364 modern diplomacy and, 4–5 monopoly mechanism in, 433–434 morality and, 223
  national sovereignty and, 21–22 Nazi genocides and, 357–359
  in Pax Romana, 91–92
  Peloponnesian Wars and, 49 pleasure in violence and, 427–428 political absolutism and, 196 privatization of bodily functions and, 378 problem of distance in, 288–289 psychogenic dimensions of, 216 psychological dimensions of, 47–48 religious violence and, 138 reversal of, 357–358 self-control in, 457 self-restraint developed in, 9 social roles and, 198 social taboos in, 360 standard of civilization and, 443 standard-setting roles in, 228 state formation and, 457–458, 469–470
  universal, 410
Clausewitz, 312, 313–316, 338
Cleitus, 65–66
clemency, 98–99
Cleon, 49–50
clergy-knights-peasants model of social organization, 112–113 climate change, 454–455 Code Noir, 250–251
coercive labour, 243–244 collateral damage, 337 collective emotions, 119, 428–430 collective fantasies, 429 collective guilt, 375 collective hostility, 313

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

collective identity, 148–149 collective learning, 429–430 collective responsibility, 305 collective security, 167 collective social learning, 25–26 colonial administration, 443 colonial era civilization in, 20, 231
  civilizing process and, 20 international ethics of, 233–234 state reach in, 244–245 colonial genocide, 354–355 colonial mentalities, 233–234 colonialism, 234, 306–307
  civilizing process and, 226–227
  internal, 235, 244–245
  Nazi genocides and, 20
  opposition to, 281, 419–420
  religious, 235–245
  social gradient in, 443 values imposed through, 280–281
  we-feeling and, 284
The Command of the Air (Douhet), 331–332 commercial relations civilizing potential of, 292–293 moderating effect of, 447–448 peace through, 293
commercial societies individual self-regulation and, 291 military values and, 300–301 non-violent interaction in, 289–290 common laws of Hellas, 28, 32–33 comparative sociology, process sociology and, 4–5 compassion, 293
  Christian ruler ethic and, 126–127
  civilization and, 41–42
  in crusading warfare, 139 divinely caused setbacks and, 45–46
The Complaint of Peace (Erasmus), 208 complex responsibility, 255–256, 374, 453–454 Concert of Europe system, 318–321, 323–324, 390–391 concrete harm, 406–407 condottieri, 168–170, 203–204 Congress of Vienna, 318 connected self, 419–420
conquistadores, 239–240 conscience formation, 7–8, 325–326, 369–370 conscription, 203–204, 307–308, 309, 325, 326–327 Constantine, 103, 137–138 Corcyra, 52–53
corporate social responsibility, 408 cosmopolitan citizenship, 387–388, 464–465 cosmopolitan harm conventions, 460–461 cosmopolitan harm principle, 15 cosmopolitan ideals, 298–303 cosmopolitan law, 295–296 cosmopolitan morality, 98–99 cosmopolitan sovereign responsibility, 415 cosmopolitan standards of restraint, 447–451 cosmopolitan standards of social restraint, 426 cosmopolitan subjectivity, 376–377 cosmopolitanism, 60, 90–91 Alexander and, 69–70, 72–73
  civilizing role of, 454 compassionate, 287–298
  duty to refrain from harm in, 297–298 emotional ties and, 294–295 in Enlightenment, 279–280, 306–307 after French Revolution, 325 global order and, 414
  Kant on, 271
  of ordinary virtues, 375–376 refraining from unnecessary suffering and, 323 totalizing nation-state and, 325–326 universal history and, 302–303 Council of Arles, 115–116
Council of Charroux, 115–116
Council of Clermont, 130
Council of Elne, 115–116
Council of Le Puy, 115–116
Council of Nablus, 143 counter-hegemonic movements, 445–446, 454–456 court etiquette, 94

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

court rationality, 164–165, 188, 218, 221, 268–269, 308–309 court society
  absolutist, 195–196
  under Alexander, 66–68
  bourgeoisie incorporated into, 352–353
  chivalry and, 147
  Christianization of, 102–103
  civilization and, 217–218, 222, 269
  civilizing process and, 4–5, 19–20, 434
  diplomacy and, 219–221
  Hellenistic, 63–64
  in Italian Renaissance city-states, 159 medieval, 107
  pacific influences in, 209–210 Persian, 71–72
  supranational, 75–76, 434, 458 courtesy books, 127–128, 163–164 courtliness, civilizing process and, 127–128 courtoisie, 127, 128, 195, 219–220 Crimean War, 318, 320, 321 crimes against humanity, 393–394, 395 crimes against the peace, 393–394 crusades, 136
  First, 116, 140–141
  prisoners of war in, 143
  religious buildings destroyed in, 144 sexual conduct in, 143
  standards of violence and, 129–130
  use of violence in, 140 violence exported through, 136 crusading warfare, 112, 138, 311
  chivalry and, 140–141
  civilizing process and, 139–140, 142
  compassion for foes, 139 harm conventions and, 142–143
  just war and, 138–139 knights' enthusiasm for, 118–119 promotion of, 144–145
  we–I balance and, 141–142
Cugoano, O., 257–258
Curtius, 63, 66–68
Cynicism, 77

Daniel of Beccles, 127–128
Darius, 43, 66–68
Darwin, Erasmus, 299
David I of Scotland, 235–236
De civilitate morum peurilium (Erasmus), 199 De Officiis (Cicero), 88 death camps, 339, 377–378 decivilizing process, 47, 360 Clausewitz on, 313–314
  collective emotions in, 119
  frontier, 244–245, 280–281 harm conventions and, 51–52
  in Hellenic city-state system, 24–25
  in Latin Christendom, 18–19
  of mercenaries, 170
  modernity and, 344
  Nazi genocides and, 349, 374
  Peloponnesian Wars and, 49
  in Roman imperial expansion, 87–88 self-restraint and, 51–52 social habitus and, 360, 364–365
  war and, 359
Declaration of the Eight Powers of 1815, 258 decolonization, 228–229, 234, 450–451 Delian League, 38
Della Vita Civile (Palemieri), 151–152
Delphic amphictyony, 31 democratic accountability, 409–410 democratic government, 4, 401–402, 417–418 democratization, 415 Demosthenes, 40–41, 43
detachment, 282–283, 299 devotional warfare, 140–142
Diaz del Castillo, Bernal, 240
Dieitrephes, 52
Diodotus, 49–50
diplomacy absolutist state and, 219–220 balance of power and, 171 city-states system and, 19
  civility and, 101, 177
  civilizing process and modern, 4–5 continual negotiation in, 221–222 court civilization and, 222
  court rationality and, 218
  court society and, 219–221
  Hellenistic, 75–76
  humanism and, 177–178

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

inter-city dispute resolution and, 172
interconnectedness and, 171, 292
liberal harm principle in, 21–22 nobility serving in, 220–221 power politics and, 217–218, 221 statecraft and civility in, 217–218 direptio, 82
disciplina Romana, 86 discourse of barbarism, 35 Discourses (Machiavelli), 179–180 distance, fighting from, 331 Doctors' Trial at Nuremberg, 361–362 Doctrine of Discovery, 69 Dodd, Thomas, 372–374 domestic pacification, 1–2, 422 double standard of morality, 3, 340–341 double-bind process, 429, 459 Douglass, Frederick, 257–258
Douhet, G., 331–332
Dresden bombing, 334–335, 336–337 drone warfare, 337
Du Rosier, Bernard, 171 duelling, 159–160, 161, 200–201 aristocratic warfare as, 313–314 duty to refrain from harm, 97–98, 99, 294–295, 297–298, 377–379

East India Bill, 262
East India Company, 205–206, 262–263, 286 ecologically responsible statehood, 408 economic war criminals, 370–371 economy
liberalized, 408–409
monetarization of, 192–193
Edward, the Black Prince, 133–134 Eichmann, Adolf, 345–346, 367–370 eirene, 36–37
Elias, Norbert, 14
on attitudes to genocide, 4 on attitudes to violence, 122–124 on court society and civilization, 269 on development of civilization, 4–5 on high levels of self-restraint, 10 on international relations, 1–2, 426–427 on mass killing, 45 on monopolization of state powers, 188 normative inquiry and, 14
on nuclear era, 430–431
on pacification, 10
on realism, 428–429 on ruling elite use of force, 10
on Second World War, 3
on strategic use of anger, 124–125 on we–I balance, 7
on world politics, 425–426 emancipation measures, 258–259 emancipation struggles, 445–446, 463–464 emotional identification, 35, 470 in city-state system, 35–36
civilizing process and, 326
cosmopolitanism and, 294–295 Enlightenment concepts of, 313 ethics and, 293–294
with Hellas, 40
in Latin Christendom, 108, 144–145
Nazi attitudes and, 355–356 with other societies, 279–280 with polis, 35–36, 56
punishment and, 122
scope of, 6, 307–308 slavery opposition and, 254 us-them distinctions and, 365–366 widening scope of, 453–454 emotional responses to suffering, 38–43, 233–234, 403–404 emotional responses to warfare, 201 empires. See also imperialism; specific empires corruption of, 287
growth and collapse of, 58–59
as instrument of civilizing process, 265 opposition to, 419–420
states-systems and, 18 encomienda, 240–241, 242–243
English imperialism, 235
English School, 2–3, 6
Eliasian analysis integration with, 15
Frankfurt School critical theory integration with, 15 international society analyses, 4, 425–426 on state formation, 433–434

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

Enlightenment. See also radical Enlightenment; Scottish Enlightenment central features of, 268–269 civilization conceptions of, 304 civilizing missions and, 275 conceptions of future in, 20–21 cosmopolitanism in, 279–280, 306–307 critical spirit of, 275 criticism of, 303–304 emotional identification expectations of, 313 gender relations and, 274 global civilizing legacy of, 303–305 human perfectibility and, 269–270, 272 imperialism debated in, 285–286
  laws of war and, 323–324
  moderate, 273
  moral progress and, 274 multiple, 272, 273
  optimism of, 313
  political absolutism and, 269
  political ambitions of, 272–273 political processes and, 349 process-thinking in, 297
  self-restraint expectations of, 313 social processes explored in, 275–276 totalizing images of, 272, 273 environmental citizenship, 387–388, 464–465 environmental harm, 15, 416–417, 452–453 Epictetus, 66–68
Epicureanism, 77
Epicurus, 97–98
Erasmus, D., 19–20, 199, 207, 208–211
Eratosthenes, 33–34 established-outsider distinctions, 231–232 ethic of responsibility, 414–421 ethics. See also international ethics human equality and individual rights, 11–12
  interconnectedness and, 223–224, 264–265
  in international law, 405–406 Kant and Smith differences in, 293–294 sovereignty as boundary in, 421–422 transcultural, 464
  widening of horizons of, 417 ethnic nationalism, 325 ethnocentrism, 33–34, 279–280 eunoia, 42–43, 53–54
Euripides, 41–42, 47
Europe
  African society contact with, 245–246
  civilizing process in, 4–5, 107, 109, 221
  conceptions of civilization of, 227 international society outgrowing, 442 representations of outsiders in, 231–232 self-images, 226–227 self-restraint and relations with other peoples, 233 standards of civilization and, 228–229
  state formation in, 109, 191–195 euthanasia, 348, 349, 361–362
  civilizing process and, 359–362 emotional attitudes and, 360 humanitarianism and, 369–370 medical personnel and, 360–361, 363 propaganda in support of, 362 evil banality of, 344, 367–368 gradient of, 370
  use of concept of, 367–368 excommunication, 118–119 extraterritoriality, 385–386 fascism, 228–229, 330–331, 356

The Federalist Papers, 417–419 feminism, imperial, 254 Fenton, Roger, 320–321
Ferdinand of Spain, 245–246 Ferencz, Benjamin, 398
feritas, 91–92
feudal courts, 196
feudal society dispute settlement in, 113–114 industrialization and, 353–354 international politics in, 117–118

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

feudalization, 193
fighting, as purpose in life, 114–115
First Crusade, 116, 140–141
First Lombard League, 156
First World War, 228–229, 311, 326, 327–328, 338, 339 crimes against humanity and, 395 Germany after, 353 reactions to, 329–330 scale of, 328–329, 330–331 soldier's experiences of, 328 totality of, 329–330 forced labour, 260, 317–318 foreign policy civilization process changing, 431–432 honour codes and, 29
  human equality and, 462
  interdependence and constraints on, 438
Forster, Georg, 278–280, 285–286
Fortuna, 178–179, 180–182, 314–315
Fourth Hague Convention, 392–393
Fox, William, 256
France
  absolutist court in, 195–196
  slave laws, 250–251
Franco-Prussian War of 1871, 326–327, 328–329
Frankfurt School, 15, 370–371 Frederick II, 156–157, 269 free companies. See mercenaries free market ideologies, 409–410
French National Assembly, 316–317
French Revolution, 20–21, 274, 307–318, 325 French revolutionary wars, 308–318 nationalism and, 316–317
  we–I balance and, 316–317
frontier decivilizing processes, 244–245, 280–281 gas chambers, 360–361

gender relations, 274
Geneva Convention, 223, 399–400
Geneva Protocols, 393–394 genocide, 1, 23. See also Nazi genocides in Ancient Greece, 17–18, 39, 48
  civilizing process and, 5, 363–376 colonial, 354–355
  gradient of evil in, 370
  modern attitudes to, 4
  modernity and, 344
  nationalism and, 145–146
Gerald of Jerusalem, 142–143 gladiatorial games, 96–97 global business enterprises, 415 global civility, 338–341 global civilizing process, 312, 313, 404–405, 446–447 ethical responsibility and, 414–421 explaining, 456–466 Nuremberg Trials and, 397–398 planned, 380–383
  Western-driven, 447–451 global commerce, 292, 439 global economic justice, 454 global economic planning, 407–408 global environmental citizenship, 387–388 global establishment, 415 global ethical responsibility, 387–388 global harm conventions, 15, 415
  balance of power and, 459–460
  civilizing process and, 461–462
  military necessity weakening, 447–448
  self-restraint and, 449
global interconnectedness, 282–287 global market civilization, 387, 410, 411, 413–414, 423–424, 426 global political associations, 432 global responsibility, 404–414, 464–465 global standards of self-restraint, 466–467 global steering mechanisms, 407–408, 438–439 Glorious Revolution, 273–274
Goebbels, J., 311, 369–370
Great Chain of Being, 231–232 Great Depression, 349–350 great powers
  balance of power in relations of, 174, 184–185
  city-states system and, 19 civilization of relations between, 441–442 dominant harm conventions and, 414–415

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

great powers (cont.)
peace settlements after major conflicts between, 437–438 taming of, 11–12, 404–405, 426, 436–441 Great War. See First World War Greek Enlightenment, 43
Gregory IX (Pope), 117, 142–143
Gregory VII (Pope), 140–141 Grotius, 211–212, 238
group pride, 6–7
guest-friendship, 32–33, 40 gypsies, 349, 355–356

Hague Conventions, 223, 323–324, 392–394
Hague Peace Conference of 1899, 260–261 Hannibal, 80
harm
avoiding, 290–291
environmental, 15, 416–417, 452–453 Marx and forms of, 406–407 non-violent, 452–453, 463 omissive, 372
power to capacity for, outpacing self-restraint, 15 duty to restrain, 97–98, 99 evolution of, 302
increasing capacity for, 339 sociological examination of problem of, 15 responsibility to prevent, 412–413 structural, 413
harm conventions, 15, 31, 43–47
civilizing roles of, 214 cosmopolitan, 460–461
crusading warfare and, 142–143
decivilizing process and, 51–52
global, 415
great powers dominating, 414–415 international, 434–435, 460–461
military necessity weakening, 447–448
process sociology on, 189–190 punishment and, 120–121, 157–158
Roman, 79, 85
Thucydides on, 49
uses of force distinguished in, 129–130 weakening of respect for, 48, 49 Harmon Doctrine, 405–406 Harris, Arthur, 334–335
Hastings, Warren, 262–263 Hawkwood, John, 170 hegemonic global law, 409–410 hegemonic principle, 184–185 hegemonic wars, 189, 216–217, 430, 437–438 Hellenic city-states system, 23
civilizing process in, 24–25
competition within, 37–38
mass destruction in warfare among, 39
Rome and, 60–61
war frequency in, 38–39
we-feeling in, 31–32 Hellenic civilizing process, 26, 47, 55–57 attitudes about, 36 common laws of Hellas in, 28 external relations and, 27 kinship's role in, 31
Peloponnesian Wars and, 49
piracy and looting in, 27–28 psychological dimensions of, 47–48 right of self-assertion in, 28–29 self-restraint in, 28
Hellenic international society, 17–18, 25–38 Hellenic laws of war, 30–31
Hellenic states-system, 17–18
Hellenic we-identity, 35
Hellenistic court society, 63–64
Hellenistic diplomacy, 75–76 Hellenistic states-system, 74–79 balance of power in, 75–76 city-states under, 76–77 decline of, 80
Henry V, 131–132, 134–135
Henry VII, 156
Herodotus, 26–27, 31, 32–33 heroism, nationalism and, 326 Himmler, 350, 356, 359–360, 367, 369–370, 373–374
Hippocratic Oath, 360–362, 363

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

Hippocratic School, 36, 53–54
Hiroshima, 333, 335–336, 339 Histoire Philosophique, 284, 287 historical materialism, on medieval international politics, 117–118 historical sociology, 16–17 history
  providential, 299
  stadial conception of, 279, 300
  universal, 298–303, 411–412
Hitler, A., 346, 348, 350, 355, 359–362, 372–373, 374–375, 395–396 Holocaust, 1, 342–344 bystander phenomenon in, 371–372, 374–375
  civilization and, 353–354
  civilizing process and, 346–347
  evil and, 367–368
  modernity and, 344, 345–359, 376–377, 381
  secrecy of, 364 societal structure and, 345–346 holy war, 138–139
Homer, 27, 28–29, 33
homonoia, 70–71
honour codes, 29, 30, 461–462 hoplite warfare, 43–44
Hostiensis, 145–146
human development controlling violence and, 9 historical inquiry of, 299–300 human equality, 11–12
  foreign policy and, 462
  international relations and, 449
human perfectibility, 269–270, 272 human rights, 12–14, 228–229, 340–341, 401 human trafficking, 254 humaneness, principle of, 340, 449–450 humanism, 151–153, 164–165, 176, 377–378 civil ideology analysed by, 211–212 civilizing process of, 176–177
  diplomacy and, 177–178
  ethical divides in, 210–211 kingly rule and, 208–209 Machiavelli criticism of, 181–182 ordinary virtues and, 379 princely rule and, 165 on restraint in war, 209–210 restraint of power and, 185 humanitarian intervention, 263–264, 385, 386–387, 402, 450–451 humanitarian movements, 323–324 humanitarian responsibilities, 460–461, 463 humanitarianism, 96, 233–234, 303–304, 361–362, 369–370 humanitas, 78–79, 88, 91–92, 95–96, 103, 176–177 humanity, identification with, 293–294
Hume, D., 271, 278, 288–289, 292–293, 298–299, 300–301, 325 Hundred Years' War, 131–132, 133–134, 146, 169, 193 hybris, 28, 42–43

Iliad (Homer), 28–29
Illyrians, 80
imperial civilizing process, 260 imperial feminism, 254
imperial rule freedom of action of governments in, 60–61 resistance to, 260–261 rights and wrongs of, 20
  self-restraint in, 61–62
imperialism, 21–22, 235, 326–327, 380 civilization promoted through, 94–95 civilizing processes and, 101
  corrupting effects of, 280–281 Enlightenment debates over, 285–286 violence in, 20, 353–354 wealth appropriated through, 75 impersonal violence, 331–338 inadvertent harm, 290–291 Indians
  conquistadores treatment of, 239–240 conversion of, 242–244 cultural reactions to discovery of, 237–238, 277–278 encomienda and, 240–242
  enslavement of, 240
  universal society ideas and, 238–239

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

individual liberties, social obligations and, 412–413 individual rights, 11–12, 462–463 industrial killing, 21, 330–331, 338, 339–340, 342–343, 369–370 industrialization, 353–354 industrialized warfare, 329–330 infanticide, 33–34
Innocent II (Pope), 130
Innocent III (Pope), 118–119, 138–139, 152–153
Innocent IV (Pope), 238, 244–245 Innocent VIII (Pope), 245–246 insider–outsider dualisms, 145–146 integration conflicts, 420 integration–disintegration tensions, 11 Inter-Allied Conference on the Punishment of War Crimes, 397–398 interconnectedness, 11, 295–296
  under Alexander, 73
  ambiguities of global, 282–287
  civilizing processes and, 88, 420
  diplomacy and, 171, 292
  ethical sensibilities and, 223–224, 264–265 human understanding improved through, 283 moral imagination and, 288–289
  nationalism and, 329–330
  pacification and, 189
  self-restraint standards and, 15
  sovereignty and, 387
  state formation and, 420
  of states-systems, 171
  survival units and, 432, 465–466
  use of force and sense of, 223–224 interdependence, 172, 295–296, 438 inter-generational learning processes, 432–433 internal colonialism, 235, 244–245 internal pacification, 389–390, 422 international anarchy, 83–84, 111–112, 116–117 International Commission on Intervention and State Sovereignty, 403 international criminal law, 375–376, 385, 386–387, 393, 398, 447–448 international ethics, 1, 304–305, 323–324, 382–383, 393–394, 426 of colonial era, 233–234
  encomienda and, 241–242
  in medieval age, 18–19
  in modern period, 2
international harm conventions, 434–435, 460–461 international humanitarian law, 403–404 international institutions, 406, 438 international justice, 452–453, 464–465 international law, 384–385, 393–394 ethical principles in, 405–406 hegemonic systems of, 404 liberal harm principle in, 21–22
  restraints on force in, 385–386 international order, construction of, 437 International Red Cross, 308, 321–322 international regulatory bodies, 415 international relations, 2
  in ancient Greece, 23
  civilizing process and, 22
  civilizing role of cosmopolitanism in, 454 Elias on, 1–2, 426–427
  human equality and, 449
  inter-state rivalry explanations in, 428–429 nuclear era changing, 430–431
  process-thinking in, 297
  realism versus humanitarianism in, 233–234 shared beliefs and, 3 social processes in, 429–430
  Western ideas of, 13–14
  Wight on, 1–2
international responsibility doctrine, 318–319, 463 international society, 4, 21–22 Christian, 228, 230–231 city-states as, 32–33
  civilization and, 468–469
  civilizing effect of, 5
  civilizing process and, 433–435
  constitutional frameworks for, 212–213

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

contrasts in, 443–444
democratization of, 401–402, 415 dual conception of, 238, 244–245 English School analyses of, 4, 425–426 ethical commitments in, 11–12 expansion of, 426, 441–447, 464 greater equality in, 446–447
Hellenic, 17–18, 25–38
humanitarian intervention and, 450–451 liberalization of, 415 normative expectations of, 389 outgrowing Europe, 442
pluralist and solidarist images of, 6, 386–388, 403, 422–423 reintegrating to, after wars, 214 Rome political ideals as antithetical to, 82
sovereignty and, 386–387, 421–424 suffering reduced by, 12–13
we–I balance and, 7, 402–403, 420–421
Western principles in, 13–14 international trusteeship, 260–261, 262–263 Isocrates, 64–65
Italian city-states autonomy of, 156
balance of power maintained by, 172–173 balance of power system in, 174–175 centralization of power in, 169 civility within, 183 court societies in, 159 external powers used by, 167–168 factionalism in, 157
French and Spanish invasions, 174–175 hegemonic principle and, 184–185 international political environment and, 167–168 mercenaries and, 168
origins of, 154
pacifying urban spaces in, 162 public order in, 157 reduction in number of, 173, 174 taxation in, 169–170
Italian League, 167–168
Italian Renaissance, 109–110
civilizing process in, 160
conceptions of past, 151–152 great power restraint in, 437 humanism in, 151–153, 176, 177–178 Middle Ages concept created in, 150 modern era and, 150–151 political innovation in, 157 restraint of power in, 185
state formation in, 159–160
taxation in, 159–160
tolerance of violence in, 19

Jaspers, Karl, 367–368, 371–372
Jews. See also Holocaust; Nuremberg Laws in Germany, 350, 351 highly assimilated, in Germany, 349–350 Hitler and, 346, 348 massacre of, in Poland, 365–366 Nazi propaganda and, 356–357
violence against, 142
John XXII (Pope), 130
Jozefow, Poland, 365–367
just wars
civilizing process and, 127 crusades and, 138–139
formulation of, 137–138 religious conversion and, 138–139 right to preach and, 242–243
Rome and, 84–85, 88

Kant, I., 271, 278, 283, 293–296, 297–298, 301, 302–303, 306, 411–412
Kellogg-Briand Pact, 395–396 kingly rule
humanism and, 208–209
restraints on, 65–66
kings political roles of, 194–195 restricting power of, 215–216 King's Peace, 38, 128–129 knights anger displays by, 125
Church and duties of, 114–115
Church attempts to restrain, 115–116, 117

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

knights (cont.)
crusading warfare motivations of, 118–119
feminizing, 128
political power and social importance of, 113 restrictions on force used by, 130–131 self-restraint of, 127 violence against women by, 134
we–I balance and, 114–115
we-identity between, 132
Knights of the Templar, 129–130, 138
Kristallnacht, 350, 374–375
Kultur, 323–324, 327–328, 352, 391, 393–394

de Las Casas, Bartolome, 239–240, 242–245 Las Siete Partidas, 250 Latin Christendom, 106 emotional identification with, 108, 144–145 levels of violence in, 116–117 political topography of, 107 regional differences transcended by, 144–145 we–I balance in, 106, 107–108 law. See also international criminal law; international law cosmopolitan, 295–296
hegemonic global, 409–410 justice and, 399–400
natural, 390
necessity and, 181–182
slave laws, 250–251
types of, 400, 402
Laws of Burgos, 241–243
Laws of Jamaica, 1826, 251 laws of war, 12–13, 304–305, 318, 321, 349, 384–385, 449 Athenian violations of, 30–31
chivalry and, 147
civilization and, 393–394, 395–396
early, 322–323
Enlightenment ideas in, 323–324
Hellenic, 30–31
self-restraint and, 394–395
League of Corinth, 38, 53–54, 64–65
League of Nations, 228–229, 260, 262–263, 318–319, 329–330
Leahy, William, 335–336
Leeward Islands Act of 1798, 251
LeMay, Curtis, 335–336
Leo IX (Pope), 140–141
A Letter to a Member of the National Assembly (Burke), 312 levée en masse decree, 311–312 Levi, P., 377–379
liberal democracies, 386–387, 440–441, 449 liberal harm principle, 21–22, 398, 412–413, 447–448 liberal hegemonic culture, 404 liberal peace, 20
liberalization, 415
liberalized economies, 408–409 liberalism, 2, 419–420, 447–448, 449–450
Lieber Code, 322–324, 392–393
Livy, 82
Lombard League, 156–157 long-distance warfare, 331–338 long-term responsibility, 416–417 Lorimer, James, 228–229
Louis XIV, 195–196, 222
Lull, Ramon, 239–240
Lysistrata (Aristophanes), 41–42

Macedon, 18, 25, 38, 39, 48, 54–55 formation of state, 62–68 growth and collapse of, 58–59
growth of, 59–60
as hegemon, 65
monarchy attitudes of, 62–63, 65–66 Rome and, 79–80
tribal roots of, 63
Macedonian civilizing process, 62–63, 64
Machiavelli, 151–152, 168–169, 178–182, 183, 210–212, 390–391 Madagascar Plan, 356–357 malnutrition, 453–454
Mandates System, 260, 262–263
Marcus Aurelius, 93
market civilization, 451–452, 454–455
Marshall, S. L. A., General, 332–333

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

Martens, Feodor, 323–324
Martens Clause, 392–393 Marx, 406–407, 408–409 masculinity, 34, 160
  Machiavelli on, 180
  in self-help systems, 162 mass killings, 344. See also genocide
  civilizing process and, 359–360, 364 in Macedonian expansion, 69 in medieval war, 131–132 participation in, 365–367 soldiers becoming attuned to, 328 state-administered, 346 mass mobilization, 311–312 massacres, 1, 39, 45, 48, 338 Medici, Cosimo, 174, 183 Medici, Lorenzo, 172–173 medieval age international ethics in, 18–19 licit and illicit uses of force in, 129–130 mass killings in war, 131–132 modern age relationship to, 148 violence representations in, 117 warfare in, 117
medieval courts, 107
Melos, 23, 39, 41–42, 46, 48–49, 50
Menexenus (Plato), 35
de Menthon, François, 396 de Mercado, Tomas, 254–255 mercenaries, 131–133, 168–170, 367–368 in early modern Europe, 203–204
  state formation and, 192–193
mercy, Christian ruler ethic and, 126–127 Methodists, 252–253
Michelet, J., 150
Middle Ages attitudes towards violence in, 122–124 changing principles of political life, 111–112 creation of idea of, 150 insecurity causing emotional swings, 124 level of violence in, 110–111 social units in, 107–108 violence against women in, 134 Milgram, S., 366–368
militarism, 326–328, 330–331, 438–439 military conquest, global commerce and, 439 military necessity, 447–448 military power centralization of, 169 concentration of, 173, 174 diplomacy and balance of, 171 pacification and external, 26–27 projection over distance of, 48 specialization of, 93
military values, commercial society and, 300–301 moderate Enlightenment, 273
modern era
  Italian Renaissance as start of, 150–151 medieval age relationship to, 148 violence forms unique to, 343–344 modern ethical sensibilities, 304–305 modern states-system, 22 ancient states-systems differences from, 25–26, 264–265 balance of social and political tendencies within, 432–433 civility in, 435
  civilized-barbaric contrast weakened in, 443–444 emergence of, 109
  integration–disintegration tensions in, 11 level of order in, 433–434 massacres in, 338 medieval elimination contests and, 187 modernization theory, 263–264 modernity, 342–343
  balance of power between parts of, 352
  civilizing process and, 343–344
  decivilizing process and, 344
  genocide and, 344
  Holocaust and, 344, 345–359, 376–377, 381
  Marx on, 407
  Nazi genocides and, 357–359
  Nazis and, 343–344, 355–356, 357–358
  newly–independent societies and, 450–451

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

de Molina, Luis, 210
monopolization process, 193, 194 de Montesinos, Antonio, 241–242 Montesquieu, 279–280, 282, 291–292, 300–301 moral attitudes balance of power and changes in, 266–267 civilization process and, 381–382 social and political forces changing, 266–267 social conditions and, 426 moral concern, gradients of, 288–289 moral indifference, 286 moral progress, 274 moral responsibilities, 372–373, 416, 417–418 morality civilization and world politics and, 264–267
  civilizing process and, 223
  cosmopolitan, 98–99
  of global market civilization, 413 long-term consequences in, 416–417 shortcomings of conventional, 416 universal principles of, 414
More, Thomas, 207, 210–212
Munich Agreement, 373
Musa, Mansa, 238–239
mutilation of bodies, 33–34 mutual restraint, 130–131, 197
Mycalessus, 52–53
Mytilene, 40–41, 49–50

Nagasaki, 335–336, 339
Napoleonic Wars, 214, 258, 308, 317–318, 319–320, 339, 436–438 natio-centric socialization, 432 national chivalry, 146, 147 National Security Strategy of the United States of America (2002), 404 national self-images, 259–260 National Socialism. See Nazis national sovereignty, 21–22 nationalization of suffering, 307–308, 325–331 nationalism, 228, 307–308, 309, 335–336 anti-Semitism and, 350 aristocratic we-identity and, 391 civic and ethnic, 325
  early, 145–146
  French revolutionary wars and, 316–317 heroism democratized by, 326 interconnectedness and, 329–330
  Marx and, 406–407
  sovereignty and, 423 nation-in-arms, 20–21, 329–330 natural law, 390
natural slavery, 35, 236–237 naval warfare, 206–207
Nazi genocides, 21, 346, 353–354, 361–362, 380, 381–382 business corporation involvement, 370–371
  civilizing process and, 357–359
  colonialism and, 20
  decivilizing process in, 349, 374
  gradient of evil in, 370
  humanitarianism and, 361–362
  modernity and, 357–359
  participation in, 364–365 personal involvement in, 370 political responses to, 382–383 racism and, 20
  social conditions and, 348
Nazis, 330–331, 345, 347–348, 353–354, 367, 368–369. See also Nuremberg Trials anti-Semitism of, 350, 356–357 barbarism and, 381
  business corporations and, 371–372 civilized societies and, 381–382 emotional identification and attitudes of, 355–356 modernity and, 343–344, 355–356, 357–358
  propaganda used by, 356–357, 362 religious opposition to, 351–352 split with modern civilization, 380 utopian themes of, 363–364 women and, 356
neo-liberal international institutions, 406 neoliberalism, 407–408, 409–410 neo-medievalism, 107

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

neo-realism, 111–112, 116–117 on global harm conventions, 189–190 human motivation in, 118–119 on medieval international politics, 117–118 neo-Stoicism, 211–212
Neuman, Franz, 370–371
New International Economic Order, 407–408 Nicholas V (Pope), 245–246 nobility armed, 111
diplomats recruited from, 220–221 fighting as purpose in life for, 114–115 merchant-banker, 162–163 military services from, 192–193 relations between, 218–219 royal authority and, 194–195 survival units of, 162 violence levels among, 158–159, 162
'noble savage' concept, 278–279 non-combatants, 135–136, 146 non-governmental organizations, 415, 431–432, 462–463 non-state actors, 409–410, 415 normative inquiry, 10, 14, 17 nuclear weapons, 333–334, 335–336, 339, 430–431, 440–441 Nuremberg Laws, 346–347, 349, 351, 354–355, 374–375 Nuremberg Trials, 372–373, 393, 395–396, 400 global civilizing process and, 397–398 indictments in, 396–397
as triumph of reason and justice, 398–399

Odo of Chateauroux, 138–139
On the Misery of Human Life (Innocent III), 152–153
On the Process of Civilization (Elias), 14
Oration on the Dignity of Man (Pico della Mirandola), 152–153 Oration to Philip (Isocrates), 64–65 Ordericus Vitalis, 128 ordinary virtues, 375–376, 379 organized irresponsibility, 426, 451–456 pacification, 10 balance of power role in, 216 balance of terror and, 430–431 by Church, 136, 148

of cities, 162–163 civilization and domestic, 422
in court society, 209–210 external controls and, 198–199 external military power and, 26–27
interconnectedness and, 189
internal, 301–302, 422
international, 301–302
liberalism and, 2, 449–450 multilateral, 36–37 organized irresponsibility and, 454–455
self-restraint and, 198–199 societal differences and, 426–427 sovereignty and internal, 389–390 specialization of military and, 93 state power and, 11–12 territorial concentration of power and, 186 pacifism, 137–138, 300–301 Pact at Bologna, 156
Palemieri, Matteo, 151–152
Panaetius, 88, 92
Panegyricus (Isocrates), 64–65 Pan-Hellenic political cooperation, 54–55 pan-Hellenism, 35–36
pankration, 23–24
parliamentary democracy, 353
Parthamasirius, 100–101
Parthia, 100–101
Paul III (Pope), 245
Pax Romana, 61–62, 91–92, 208–209 peace collective desire for, 36–37 commerce and, 293
Kant vision of perpetual, 302, 306 peace conferences, 438
peace movements, 323–324
Peace of Augsburg, 212–213, 388–389
Peace of Constance, 156

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

Peace of God, 115–116, 128–129, 135–136, 140–142, 144–145, 148
Peace of Lodi, 167–168, 174
Peace of Westphalia, 109, 212–213, 389, 437–438 peace organizations, 320–321 peace settlements, 437–438
Peloponnesian Wars, 24–25, 30–31, 37–38, 39, 43, 45, 47–55, 76, 311
Persia, 26–27, 31, 33, 34–35
  Alexander deciding to conquer, 68 atrocities in Macedonian invasion of, 69 court practices, 71–72
  Isocrates attitudes towards, 65
  King's Peace and, 38
  Philip ambitions towards, 64–65 portrayals as barbarians, 36
  Sassanid Persians, 101
  second invasion of Greece, 45
The Persian Letters (Montesquieu), 279–280, 291–292
Persian wars, 33, 38–39, 65
The Persians (Aeschylus), 34–35, 39
Peter Lombard, 139
Petrarch, 165
philanthropia, 103
philhellenism, 81
Philip II of Macedon, 38, 48, 59, 62–63 attitude towards allies, 64–65 foreign policy perspective of, 64 restraints on kingly rule and, 65–66 Philip of Macedon, 35
Philip V, 79–80
Phillip II, 210
Physiocrats, 269–270
Piccinino, Niccolo, 169–170
Pico della Mirandola, Giovanni, 152–153 pike infantry, 173
piracy, 26, 27–28, 93
pity, 40–43
planned global civilizing process, 380–383 Plato, 35
Pliny, 95–96
plunder, 186–187, 223, 314–315, 317–318 Plutarch, 65–66
podesta, 162, 164
pogroms, 142, 369–370
polemos, 32–33, 35
polis
  emotional identification with, 35–36, 56 loyalty to, 56
  public life of, 78
  traditional assumptions about, 37–38 political absolutism, 196, 211–212, 269, 389–390 political realism, 24–25, 315–316, 402 Politics (Aristotle), 155–156 Polybius, 76, 81–82, 90–91, 92 popular militarism, 326–328 popular sovereignty, 423 post-colonial states, 446 post-national emotions, 432 post-national political associations, 465–466 post-Western society of states, 453 power. See also balance of power evolution of, 302
  lack of higher monopoly on, 426–427 long-term implications of exercise of, 419–420 projection over distance of, 48 state monopoly on, 11–12, 21–22, 188–189, 457–458 territorial concentration of, 170, 186, 309–310 precautionary principle, 411–412 The Prince (Machiavelli), 180–181 prisoners of war
  in crusades, 143
  enslavement of, 254
  exchanges of, 309, 459–460 killing, 131–132, 143, 204–205 ransoming, 130–131
  restraints on violence and, 459–460 in Second World War, 364–365 problem of distance, 288–289, 297–298 process sociology, 16, 17–18 on civilizing process in contemporary society, 22 comparative sociology and, 4–5
  on global harm conventions, 189–190

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

normative inquiry and, 17
on nuclear era, 430–431 research-theorizing in, 17 proskynesis, 71–72
Protestantism, 202–203
proximity accountability and, 419
social moralities and, 416–417 public cruelty, 96, 120–121, 122–123 punishment, 40–41
art depicting, 158
capital, 120–121, 158
emotional identification and, 122
harm conventions and, 120–121, 157–158
public, 120–121, 122–123 slavery and methods of, 252–253 systems of, 120–121

Quakers, 252–253, 255–256

race
Atlantic slave trade justification and, 246
slavery and, 245–251
racism, 20, 326–327, 335–336, 363–364 radical Enlightenment, 20, 273–274, 281, 463–464 radical Islamist groups, 444–445 ragione, 180–182
raison d'état, 181–182, 214–216 ransom, 130–131, 136–137
realism Elias's variant on, 428–429 humanitarianism frustrated by, 233–234 realpolitik, 45, 352–353, 423 reciprocal moderation, 214 Red Crescent, 321–322
Reformation, 202–203 regional political associations, 432 religious colonialism, 235–245 religious violence, 138 repartimiento, 240–241, 242–243
The Republic (Plato), 35 Requirement (Rubios), 239 Reserve Peace Battalion 101, 365–367 restraints on force, 385–386 restraints on kingly rule, 65–66 revolutionary warfare, 308–318 Richelieu (Cardinal), 221–222
Rome, 18, 54–55 alliance management by, 79–80 army autonomy in, 101–102 army support in, 82–83 battle management approaches, 89–90 Christianization of imperial court, 102–103 collapse of Western empire, 102 cultural integration under, 90
duty to refrain from harm in, 99
expansion of, 59–60, 79–80, 87–88 foreign policy of, 82 frontier as 'moral barrier', 91–92 Greeks' view of, 81–82
growth and collapse of, 58–59
harm conventions, 79, 85
Hellenic world interactions with, 80–81 Hellenic-Hellenistic system incorporated by, 60–61 imperial era, 84–85 international context for violence of, 82 international political ideals, 83 just wars and, 84–85, 88 military constraints, 87 military recruitment, 82–83 military specialization in, 93 as para-military state, 101–102 Parthia and, 100–101
piracy combatted by, 93 public cruelty attitudes of, 96 public representations of violence in, 82 reputation for violence, 81–82 restrained government and, 61 self-restraint, 61–62, 84–85 Stoicism and, 78–79
submission demanded by, 82, 83 unrestrained violence used by, 79–80 view of Greeks, 81 violence exported to periphery by, 99 violence of warfare by, 88 war as normal state, 99–100 Roosevelt, Theodore, 229–230
Rousseau, J. J., 302, 325

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

Royal African Company, 254
Rubios, Palacios, 239
Russell, William Howard, 320–321

Sassanid Persians, 101
Savanarola, 181–182
Scottish Enlightenment, 235–236, 271, 279, 288–289, 300–301
Second Athenian Confederacy, 38, 53–54
Second Cold War, 430
Second Persian invasion, warfare changes and, 45 Second World War, 1, 228–229, 338, 339 aerial bombardment in, 334–336 attitudes to force in, 3 civilization efforts after, 339–340 global steering arrangements after, 438–439 prisoners of war in, 364–365 sexual violence in, 360 social inhibitions weakened in, 334–335 victors' self-restraint after, 436–437 Seleucids, Rome and, 79–80 self-assertion, 28–29, 36–37 self-control, 66–68, 93–94, 442–443, 457 self-distancing, 279–281, 291–292, 299–300 self-help systems, 27, 119, 162 self-limitation of sovereignty, 393 self-regulation, 291 self-reliance, 418–419, 426–427
self-restraint
  aristocratic, 86
  capacity to harm outpacing, 15 changing importance of, 301–302 chivalric standards of, 130–131 civil war and loss of, 52–53 civilizing process developing, 9 decivilizing processes and, 51–52 Enlightenment expectations for, 313 European relations with other peoples and, 233 global harm conventions and, 449 global standards of, 466–467 in Hellenic civilizing process, 28 in imperial rule, 61–62
  interconnectedness and, 15 internalization of standards of, 417 of knights, 127
  laws of war and, 394–395
  mutual, 197
  pacification and, 198–199
  scale of destructive capacity requiring, 466–467 of slave owners, 97 social constraints towards, 6, 55–56 social standards of, 5, 7–8, 9–10, 51–52, 86, 470 unevenness of standards of, 410 of victors after Second World War, 436–437 web of, 198
Seneca, 66–68, 96, 97–99, 126–127, 154 on Alexander, 93–94
  on gladiatorial games, 96 de Sepulveda, Juan Gines, 242–243 Seven against Thebes (Aeschylus), 41–42 sexual conduct, during crusades, 143 sexual violence, 46–47, 122–123, 134–135, 360 sexuality, black African, 247 Sforza, Ludivoco, 167–168 shame, 30, 199–200
Shawcross, Hartley, 396
Short Treatise About Ambassadors (Du Rosier), 171 siege warfare, 45, 46–47, 142–143 Sigebert of Gembloux, 140 signori, 164–165
slave revolts, 260–261 slave wars, 248–249, 251 slavery, 20, 234, 284–285, 306–307 abolition campaigns, 254
  abolition of, 260, 265
  apprentice scheme as alternative to, 259–260 as barbarism, 257–258
  blackness and, 248
  boycotts of products of, 255–256 branding and, 46
  Britain abolishing, 251–264
  campaigns against, 251–264

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

changing attitudes to, 258
Christian doctrine and, 251–264 Church and, 245–246
civilizing measures, 253–254 Concert of Europe and, 320
emancipation measures, 258–259 emotional identification and opposition to, 254 Indians and, 240 justification of, 246, 248 laws of, 250–251
natural, 35, 236–237
political opposition to, 281 prisoners of war and, 254 public sympathy and, 256–257 punishment and, 40–41, 252–253 race and, 245–251 reform efforts, 254
religious conversion and, 245 Roman warfare and, 81–82 self-restraint of owners, 97 Stoics and, 96 warfare and, 39, 43–47, 254 women opposed to, 254
Smith, Adam, 66–68, 288–290, 291, 292, 293–294, 300, 419–420 social attitudes to suffering, 423–424
to use of force, 200–201 social attunement, 197–198 social constraints, self-restraint and, 6, 55–56 Social Darwinism, 326–327, 391 social existence, as process, 297 social habitus, 355
decivilization process and, 360, 364–365 of modern warfare, 333–334 mutual dependence and, 324 social inhibitions, war weakening, 334–335 social interaction, enlarging boundaries of, 183 social moralities, long-term consequences in, 416–417 social processes, 275–276 in international relations, 429–430 social restraints cosmopolitan standards of, 426 shame and stigma preserving, 30 sovereign authority and, 426 social standards of internal and external relations, 352–353 pacification and, 426–427
of restraint, 447–448
of self-control, 442–443 of self-restraint, 5, 7–8, 51–52, 86, 470 self-restraint varying by, 9–10 of warrior code, 352–353 Society for the Promotion of Permanent and Universal Peace, 320 society of states anti-colonial struggles and, 445–446 civil dispositions of constitutive parts and, 435 expansion of, 441–442
harm conventions and, 434–435
post-Western, 453
Socrates, 35
Solon, 40–41, 371–372
sophrosyne, 28, 33–34, 52–53, 86
de Soto, Domingo, 254–255 sovereign authority, standards of social restraint and, 426 sovereign equality principle, 214 sovereign responsibility, 422–423 broadening concept of, 405–406
cosmopolitan, 415
enlarging scope of, 400–404 extensions of, 417 sovereign rights and responsibilities, 388–393, 422 sovereign states, civility within, 307–308 sovereign states-system, 109, 227 sovereignty, 13–14
absolute rights and, 384–385 accountability and, 405–406
as boundary of ethical principles, 421–422
civilization and, 421–424
external, 390
global interconnectedness and, 387 human rights conventions and, 401 internal pacification and, 389–390, 422

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

sovereignty (cont.)
international society and, 386–387, 421–424
in Latin Christendom, 107 law-making power and, 389–390
national, 21–22
national interest and, 390–391
nationalism and, 423
over 'inferior' peoples, 262 pluralist conception of, 386–387, 402–403 popular, 423
self-limitation of, 393 solidarist conception of, 386–387, 402–403 standards of civilization and, 385–386
state, 391–392
state formation and, 384, 421 taming, 391–392 territorial, 421–422
Westphalian, 389, 408
Spain
encomienda and, 240–241
Indian enslavement and, 240 invasion of Americas, 231 slave laws, 250
slave trade and, 248–249
Sparta, 17–18, 23, 24–25, 31, 35, 37–38, 39, 40–41, 45, 50
Speer, Albert, 372–374
The Spirit of the Laws (Montesquieu), 293
St Augustine, 139
St Bernard, 138
St Francis, 120
St Petersburg Declaration of 1868, 322–324, 393–394 standards of civilization, 228–229
civilizing process and, 443
former colonies and, 263–264
sovereignty and, 385–386
standards of propriety, 199–200 standards of restraint, cosmopolitan, 447–451 standing armies, 132–133, 170, 202, 211–212 stasis, 32–33, 35
state formation, 109, 189–190, 191–195, 244–245
balance of power in, 407
civilizing process and, 457–458, 469–470
English School on, 433–434
interconnectedness and, 420
mercenaries and, 192–193
monopolizing armed force in, 201–207 power monopolies and, 193 royal household and, 192
sovereignty and, 384, 421 taxation changes in, 192–193 use of force changes in, 192–193 state of nature, 296
state sovereignty, 391–392 state-administered mass killings, 346 state-building, 21–22, 179–180, 325–326, 434 statecraft
civility and, 207–216
diplomacy and, 217–218
restrained, 218
violence and, 208, 210–211
states
absolutist, 195, 213, 219–220
as annihilation units, 11–12 capitalized-coercion, 205–206 collapse of, 455–456 colonial era and reach of, 244–245 cost of bureaucracies of, 205–206 formation of, 19–20, 159–160, 188–189 monopoly of power, 11–12, 21–22, 188–189, 457–458 monopoly on force, 11–12 royal household separating from, 192 as survival unit, 11, 206–207 states-systems. See also Hellenistic states-system; modern states-system comparative study of, 4–6 consultative mechanism in, 318–319 differences between ancient and modern, 25–26, 264–265 empires and, 18
Hellenic, 17–18

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

interconnected, 171 modern differences from classical antiquity, 2 role of harm conventions and, 15 sociology of, 2–3 sovereign, 109, 227
we-feeling in societies of, 7
we–I balance and, 10
sterilization programmes, 363–364 Stoicism, 61–62, 66–68, 77, 78–79, 94–95, 96
duty to refrain from harm in, 97–98 humanists inspired by, 208–209 Smith influenced by, 292 on war as aberration from norm, 98–99 world citizenship conception of, 293 structural harm, 413 structural realism, 111–112, 117–119 suffering attitudes towards, 120–121 cosmopolitanism and refraining from, 323 emotional responses to, 38–43, 233–234
nationalization of, 307–308, 325–331
public spectacles of, 120–121 remorse for causing, 42–43 social attitudes to, 423–424 Sumerian city-state system, 30 supranational court society, 75–76, 434, 458 survival units, 6–7, 11–12, 24–25, 206–207 after Frankish empire disintegration, 108–109 interconnectedness changing scope of, 432 interconnectedness outpacing changes in, 465–466 lack of higher physical power over, 428
in Latin Christendom, 106
rapid change and, 324
in self-help systems, 162
we-feeling and, 10
we–I balance and, 10, 324
symbolai, 76–77
sympathy, 288–289, 292, 293
Tacitist perspective, 211–212
Tacitus, 99
Tahiti, 278–279
Tarn thesis, 69–71
taxation, 11–12
in Italian city-states, 159–160, 169–170
state formation and, 192–193
state monopoly over, 5, 186, 388
temperantia, 34 territorial sovereignty, 213, 384–385, 386–387, 421–422 terror bombing, 335
Thebes, 45
Thirty Years War, 203–204, 212–213, 316–317, 437–438
Thoughts Upon Slavery (Wesley), 256–257
Three Orders doctrine, 117
Thucydides, 17–18, 24–25, 30–31, 36, 40–41, 42–43, 47, 311 on assault on Mycalessus, 52–53 on causes of Peloponnesian Wars, 37–38 on civil war and moral order, 51 on civilizing and decivilizing processes, 49 on evolution of Hellas, 53–54 on harm conventions weakening, 49 on military power and pacification of societies, 26–27 on Mytilene, 49–50
on piracy, 26
on projection of military power, 48 on raiding and piracy, 27–28 on violation of truces, 32–33 on war and barbarism, 53 time, conceptions of, 298–299 Tokyo Tribunal, 395–396, 400 torture, 337–338
total warfare, 20–21, 23, 307–308, 310–311, 329–330, 380, 381–382, 398 military technology and, 326–327 strategic thinking and, 313–314 totalizing nation-state, 325–326, 339 Trail Smelter decision, 405–406, 411–412 transcultural values and ethics, 464

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

transnational advocacy networks, 415, 419–420 Trapp, Wilhelm, 365–366
Treaty of Münster, 212–213
Treaty of Osnabruck, 212–213 Treaty of Utrecht, 213, 390–391, 437–438
Treaty of Verdun, 108–109
The Tree of Battles (Bouvet), 146 trench warfare, 327–328 trial by battle, 113–114 trials of ordeal, 116
Trojan War, 34–35
The Trojan Women (Euripides), 47 Truce of God, 115–116, 135–136, 140–141, 148 trusteeship, 262–263
Turner, Nat, 257–258

United Nations, 263–264, 318–319, 403 universal civilizing process, 410 universal conscription, 307–308 universal history, 298–303, 411–412 universal human rights culture, 12–14, 228–229, 304–305, 340, 385, 400, 447–448 universal jurisdiction, 402–403 universal moral principles, 414, 423–424, 464 universal society, 238–239 universalism, 148–149
universalistic thinking, 306–307
Urban II (Pope), 140–142, 349
Urbanus (Daniel of Beccles), 127–128 use of force, 2
  Clausewitz on, 314–315
  distinguishing licit and illicit, 129–130 interconnectedness and sensibilities around, 223–224 intra-societal restraints on, 10 Second World War attitudes towards, 3 shift in Western attitudes towards, 337 social attitudes towards, 200–201
  state formation and, 192–193
  state monopoly over, 5, 192–193

vacuum theory of state, 155–156 verecundia, 86
Versailles Settlement, 330–331, 353
Versailles Treaty, 395, 442
Vietnam, 332–333
A View of the Past and Present State of Jamaica, 253–254 violence
  art depicting, 158
  against children, 401
  chivalry and control of, 136–137
  Church attempts to restrain, 115–116, 135–136, 141–142 civilizing process and attitudes towards, 4, 122–123 Clausewitz on use of, 314–315 in collapse of Western Roman empire, 102
  in crusades, 140
  dampening of impulses of, 332–333 human evolution and controlling, 9 in imperialism, 20, 353–354 impersonal, 331–338 increasing capacity to commit, 339 inflicting from distance, 428 at international and societal levels, 301–302
  intra-societal restraints on, 10
  Italian Renaissance tolerance of, 19 Latin Christendom levels of, 116–117 medieval representations of, 117 in Middle Ages, 110–111, 122–124 modern era forms of, 343–344 in name of civilization, 353–354 need to control, 338 nobility and, 111, 158–159 pleasure in, 427–428 political necessity and, 50–51 public representations of, 82
  religious, 138
  religious opposition to, 135–136
  restraints on, 3, 12–13, 459–460 Roman Empire and, 79–80, 81–82, 88, 99 sacralization of, 136
  sensitivity to, 328
  sexual, 46–47, 122–123, 134–135
  standards of, 23–24, 129–130

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

state monopoly over, 186, 388
statecraft and, 210–211
in warrior and civilized societies, 313 Western conceptions of civilization relationship to, 13–14 against women, 134, 401
world politics and, 426–433 vir virtutis, 152–153
virtus, 85, 86, 165
Visconti, Giangaleazzo, 170
Vladimiri, Paulus, 145–146
Voltaire, 287, 325
volunteer armies, 325 von Papen, Franz, 372–374 von Trotha, Lothar, 260–261

war. See also crusading warfare; laws of war; total warfare absolute, 315–316
aristocratic, 308–309, 311, 313
artistic representations of, 320–321 Athenian departures from laws of, 30–31 Atlantic slave trade and, 248–250 barbarism in times of, 53 booty and, 43–47 between Christians, 209–210 civilians and, 204–205, 462–463
civility and, 221
civilized society and, 439–440 classical age practices, 30 Clausewitz on, 314–315
dampening of violent impulses and, 332–333
decivilizing process and, 359
emotional responses to, 201 financing through conquest, 317–318 French Revolution modes of, 309 frequency among Greek city-states, 38–39 Henry V ordinances of, 134–135 hoplite, 43–44
industrialized, 329–330 just, 88, 137–138
long-distance, 331–338 masculinity and, 34
mass destruction in, 39
mass killings in, 131–132
medieval, 117
as pathway to wealth, 75 peace settlements after, 437–438 psychological effects of, 427–428 public discourses about, 53–54 revolutionary, 308–318 rising costs of, 205–206
slavery and, 43–47, 248–249, 254
social habitus of, 333–334
social inhibitions weakened in, 334–335 social transformation of, 20–21 sport and, 23–24
Stoics on, 98–99
as substitute for diplomacy, 313–314 violence against women in, 134–135 wealth accumulated through, 46 women as spoils of, 46–47 war crimes, 393–400 War of Spanish Succession, 213 war photography, 321 warrior codes, 28–29, 352–353 warrior societies, violence in, 313 warriors
Christianization of, 137–138
Church taming, 112, 125–126, 148 commerce taming, 292–293
feminizing, 128
fighting as purpose in life of, 114–115 Wars of Religion, 204
Wars of Succession, 74–75 wealth appropriation through imperialism, 75 violent appropriation of, 46 war as pathway to, 75
we-feeling, 6–7
Alexander and, 72–73
colonialism and, 284
decline of aristocratic, 312
in Hellenic city-state system, 24–25, 31–32 mutual restraint from, 130–131 self-interest and, 289–290
survival units and, 10

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-15473-5 — Violence and Civilization in the Western States-Systems
Andrew Linklater
Index
More Information

we–I balance, 6, 7, 22, 35, 387–388, 470–471
  crusading warfare and, 141–142
  French revolutionary wars and, 316–317
  in Hellenic city-state system, 24–25 international societies and, 7, 402–403, 420–421
  knights and, 114–115
  in Latin Christendom, 106, 107–108
  self-reliance and, 418–419 shifting from Hellas to cities, 32–33 survival units and, 10, 324
we-identity, 6–7, 22, 470
  Hellenic, 35
  Herodotus on, 32–33
  between knights, 132
  nationalism and, 391
  temporality and, 299–300 welfare internationalism, 453, 454 Wesley, John, 256–257
Western state formation, 188–189
Western-driven global civilizing process, 447–448
Westphalian sovereignty, 389, 408
Wiesel, Elie, 371–372
Wight, Martin, 1
  on Delphic amphictyony, 31
  on international relations, 1–2
  on Second World War, 3
  on shared culture, 4
William of Malmesbury, 235–236 women
  civilizing role of, 41–42
  male attitudes towards, 96–97 Nazi attitudes to, 356 opposition to slavery by, 254 siege warfare and, 46–47
  as spoils of war, 46–47 violence against, 134–135, 401
  as war captives, 46
world citizenship, 293, 464–465 world politics
  civilization and, 264–267, 426–433 control of conflict changing, 271 Elias on, 425–426
  non-violent harm in, 452–453 problem of harm in, 15
  violence and, 426–433
world wars. See First World War; Second World War

Xenophon, 34
Xerxes, 33

Yamashita, Doctrine, 399–400

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org