

Index

Entries in bold typeface denote figures or tables.

- Abu Nimer, M., 141–2
Ağa (epitat)
 ambiguity of, 53
 and plaintiff win ratio, 281
 and title agreements, 118
 wealth of, 54, 58
- Agmon, I.
 archival records research, 13–15
 cultural turn, 17–18
- agreements. See also contracts and family, 121
 and gender, 112–14, 113
 and religion, 119–21
 and titles, 115–19
 individual characteristics, 109–12, 111
 party composition, 106–9, 108, 110
 period-based distribution of, 104–6, 105
- agriculture, 38
- Ainsworth, W.
 population, 37
 trade routes, 40
- Akdağ, M., 74
- Akiba, J., 133–4
- Aleppo, Syria
 class structure, 59–60, 60
 court fees, 79
- analysis categories
 family status, 55, 56
 Kastamonu, 49–60
 regression, 182–90
 religious markers, 55 specialists in quantitative, 31–3 titles, 51–4
 value of many approaches in, 31–3
- animal husbandry, 38
- anthropological methods. See also historiography
 and Ottoman legal issues, 127–8 in historical research, 24–5 litigation, 129–37
- archives. See Kastamonu court records
- askeri* (tax-exempt government officials), 50–1
- asymmetric information litigation theory, 157–8
- asymmetric legal uncertainty and trial success, 256–61
- asymmetric stakes and trial success, 255–6
- avarız* (tax), 36–7
- Baldwin, J., 87
- bargain model (dispute resolution). See also disputes
 comparison to court model, 129, 129, 134–6 economics, 161–3
 mediation in, 142
 settlements resemble, 139–41, 143
- Barkey, K., 42
- Beğ (epitat)*, 53
- Beşe (epitat)*, 52–3

- Brunschvig, R., 225
- burden of proof
 and plaintiff win ratio, 279–82, 280, 292, 294, 299, 301 importance of getting, 257–8 plaintiff win ratio, 297
- civil agreements. See also criminal agreements and party size, 170, 187–90, 188, 189
 between individuals, 111
 elite status and, 178
 individual plaintiff win ratio, 266, 270 influences on plaintiffs trial success, 292, 294, 297, 299
 party composition, 106–9, 108, 110
 period-based distribution of, 168, 190–201, 191, 193 settlements common in, 164 titles and trial ratio, 175
 titles and win ratio, 308
 trial stake asymmetry, 159–60
- class structure. See socioeconomic rank
- clients
 characteristics and trial success, 296–302 likelihood of going to trial, 170, 172, 187–90, 188, 189
 plaintiff win ratio, 267–72, 268, 270, 292, 294
- cloth weaving, 38
- conflict management
 anthropological models of, 129, 129 litigation and mediation in, 146
- consumer price index, 44
- contracts. See also agreements classification, 90, 90–1
 involving families, 100
 Kastamonu in 17th and 18th century, 83
 most common, 94–6
 over time, 91
- copper mining, 40
- Coşgel, M. M., 58
- court cases
 agreements/disputes, 104–21 civil and criminal litigation, 86–8, 88 differentiation between family, 86 increase over time, 83–5, 85 location of, 81
 most common, 91, 92–6, 95
 witness social distribution, 78
- court clients and knowledge of trial procedures, 256–61
 and legal representation, 250, 251 case types, 96–9, 97, 100 lack of user identification in, 49–51 power differential, 32–3
- court fees
 and pro-plaintiff bias, 301 charges by functionaries, 79–81, 80
 in Aleppo, 79
 income for functionaries, 134
- court functionary. See also kadi katibs (scribes), 67, 69
muslihun (mediators), 141–2 naib (deputy judge), 65, 68–9 şubudülhal, 70–1, 74–9, 141, 226–31
- court model (dispute resolution), 129, 129–32, 134–6
- criminal agreements. See also civil agreements and party size, 170, 187–90, 188, 189
 and trial success, 292, 294, 297
 between individuals, 111
 elite status and, 178
 individual plaintiff win ratio, 266, 270
 party composition, 108
 period-based distribution of, 168, 190–201, 191, 193
 plaintiff win ratio over time, 299
 titles and trial ratio, 175
 titles and win ratio, 308
 trial stake asymmetry, 159–60
- culture
 and fiqh, 20–3
 and the quantitative approach to sicil study, 16–17, 20 turn, 17–18
- Çelebi (epitat), 52
- Damascus (ancient Ottoman city) (Syria) probate estate inventory research, 17
 socioeconomic rank, 50
 wealth in, 58
- death rate, 44–5
- decision making. See litigation decision making Dede (epitat), 52
 defendant, 215–20

340 Index

- demographics. See also socioeconomic rank and death rate, 44–5 and the quantitative approach, 16–17, 20
- descendant of Muhammad and agreements, 120, 121 as religious marker, 54 as witness, 72, 77
 court case types, 97, 100
 plaintiff win ratio, 276
 status of, 60, 60
 trial ratio of, 180
 wealth of, 56, 57, 58
 written documentation use of, 243
- differential sophistication, 156–7
- dispute resolution economics. See also economics expectations concerning, 156–7 model of, 161–3
 models, 152–6, 154
 stake asymmetry in, 157–8 trial costs, 159–60
- disputes. See also bargain model and agreements, 104–6 and settlements, 143, 291–3 resolution process, 143–6
- divergent expectations litigation theory, 156–7
- Dürer el-Hükkam Şerh Gürer el-Abkam*
 as primary legal text, 213
 legal representation, 260
 oaths in, 239
 ownership, 222
 witness testimony, 226–31
 written documents as evidence, 232, 234
- economics. See also dispute resolution economics and court usage, 84, 101–2 and Kastamonu court record analysis, 55–60, 56, 57, 60 dispute resolution, 152–60, 154 of trial success, 252–61
 Ottoman law research, 291–3
- Efendi (epitat)*
 and plaintiff win ratio, 281
 and title agreements, 118
 highest ranking, 52
 wealth of, 54
- elasticity measure, 58
- elite
 and legal representation, 250, 251
 as mediators, 141–2 civil and criminal agreements, 178 court usage by, 121, 122
 in Aleppo, 59–60, 60
 in şuhudülhal, 74, 76
 likelihood of going to trial, 190–201, 191, 193, 203
 plaintiff win ratio, 275, 276, 297, 304
 plaintiff win ratio over time, 299
 trial stake asymmetry, 157–8
- El-Nahal, G., 134
- Ergene, B.A., See also Kastamonu court records conflict management, 130
 court fees, 79, 80
 court function variability, 85 financial crisis, 49
 hereditary wealth, 58
 women and mediation, 144
 written documents as evidence, 237–8
- eşraf*. See descendant of Muhammad
- Establet, C.
 and the quantitative approach to sicil study, 16–17
 economics, 49
 quantitative analysis of court archives, 14
 socioeconomic rank, 50
 tax-farming, 48
 wealth studies, 58
- evidence
 circumstantial, 240–1 oaths as, 239–40
 preferred, 221–4
 written documents as, 231–9
- Evliya Çelebi, 39
- expectations (evidentiary) and nature of court claim, 215 basic litigation processes, 215–20 case quality, 254–5
 trial outcome, 156–7
- Eyüpgiller, K., 38
- fairness
 in historiography, 33 mediation perception of, 145 perceptions of kadı as, 67
- family. See also zades
 as court witnesses, 71
 as informal registry, 107 case types involving, 100

Index

341

- court usage by, 86, 90, 91, 121, 122 status and plaintiff win ratio, 278 status and trial ratio, 181
- Farge, A., 23
- Faroqhi, S., 36
- fee (court), 79–81, 80
- fetva* (legal opinion) and plaintiff win ratio, 284, 285, 297, 299
 definition of, 259
 in Kastamonu court, 243–5
 influences on plaintiffs trial success, 291–3, 292, 294
- financial crisis (Kastamonu), 49
- fiqh* (jurisprudence), 20–3
- Fogel, R.
 benefits of quantitative approach for, 30 railroad economy, 26–8 function of Ottoman courts, 13–14
- Genç, M.
malikane, 49
 trade routes, 40
 wealth distribution, 46
- gender and agreements, 112–14, 113 and Kastamonu *tereke*s, 43–6, 46, 47, 48
 and title agreements, 116 determination from court records, 51 having titles, 56, 57
 likelihood of going to trial, 173, 175, 178, 190–201, 191, 193
 plaintiff win ratio, 271, 297, 299
 trial stake asymmetry, 157–8
- generalization quantification, 112–14
- Gerber, H.
 anthropology and Ottoman legalities, 127–8
 dispute resolution, 130
 local customs, 134
sulh (amicable settlement), 134
- Ghazzal, Z.
 quantitative analysis of court archives, 14
 review of Establet and Pascual research, 17–20
 role of fiqh in research, 21–3, 25
- Genio, E., 134
- Göçek, F.M., 32
- Gradeva, R., 134
- Grammars of Adjudication*, 20, 22
- hadd* crimes, 138
- Halebi, I.
 manual, 214
 settlements, 140
- Halife* (epitat), 52
- Heywood, C., 40
- Hidaye*
 and legal representation, 260
 legal reference, 213
 oaths in, 239
 types of evidence, 222
 witness testimony, 226–31
 written documents as evidence, 232
- historiography. See also legal practice research, anthropological methods benefits of quantitative approach for, 26–31
 Kastamonu analysis, 49–60, 56, 57, 60, 318–19
 of Ottoman court records study, 13–18
 Ottoman law and economics, 148–56, 154, 159–60
- honorific titles. See titles
- Hourani, A., 50
- Hudson, P., 28, 30
- hypothesis testing quantification, 26–8
- ikrar* (admission), 225, 233, 242
- ilmiyye (religious men), 52–3, 281
- İnalçık, H., 67–9, 74
- inequality in wealth distribution, 45–9, 48
- inheritance tax, 44
- İpşirli, M., 35
- Islamic Law
 anthropological perspective, 133 legal settlement and, 136
- Issawi, C., 37
- Jennings, R.
 impartiality of courts, 32
 legal representation, 246, 249
 quantitative approach, 19
sulh (amicable settlement), 134
- Johansen, B., 233

342 Index

- kadı (judicial authority). See also court functionary
 and mediation, 135–6, 142
 as court functionary, 65–7 basic litigation processes, 215–20
 central to litigation, 141 honesty and reliability of witnesses, 72–3 in dispute resolution process, 144 influence from others in court, 68 kadijustiz, 130
 Kaldy-Nagy, G., 67
 Kankal, A.
 population, 36, 37
 purchasing power, 46
karine (circumstantial evidence), 240–1 Kastamonu court (17th and 18th century).
See also Ottoman courts client usage, 96–9, 97, 100, 314–15
fetva use, 243–5
 functionaries, 65–81, 72, 76, 78, 80 most common cases, 91, 92–6, 95 operations of, 313–14
 partiality of rulings, 303
 plaintiff win ratio, 317–18
 record classification, 81–91, 83, 85, 88, 89, 90, 91
 trial-settlement decisions, 315–17 Kastamonu court case selection individual characteristics, 190–201, 191, 193
 likelihood of going to trial, 167–82
 size of parties affecting, 187–90, 188, 189 statistical analysis of, 182–6 trial and settlement statistics, 166–7 Kastamonu court records. See also sicils, probate estate inventory research, Ergene, B.A.
 and anthropological perspective, 132–4
 basic litigation processes, 216–18
 classification, 81–91
 legal representation, 246–51, 250
 preferred evidence, 222–3 social rank, 49–60
 socioeconomic rank, 56, 57, 60
tezkiye, 230–1
 written documents as evidence, 235–9
 Kastamonu in 17th and 18th century administration, 35–7
 analysis categories, 49–60, 56, 57, 60 economic activities, 38–43 historical background of, 312–13 location, 35
 population, 37–8, 39
 probate estate inventory research, 43–9, 46, 47, 48
katibs (scribes), 67, 69 Kaygun, A., 58
kaza (judgeship), 35
 Kessler, D., 253
 Kinneir, J., 37
 Klein, B., 152–3
 knowledge and trial success, 256–61
 Kousser, M., 25
 Kuran, T., 81
 Layish, A.
 anthropological methods, 133
 custom and justice, 145 legal practice research. See also historiography
 and fiqh, 20–3
 discrepancies in, 18–19
 enchanting nature of, 23–4 methodologies of, 13–18
 legal representation
 and trial success, 260–1, 284–8, 286, 292, 294, 297, 299, 301
 in litigation, 246–51
 life-term tax-farming. See tax-farming
 litigation
 and court model, 131–2 anthropological methods in, 129–37 civil and criminal, 86–8, 88 disputes as, 104–6
 economics of, 252–61
 involving families, 100
 Kastamonu in 17th and 18th century, 83, 167–82
 likelihood of going to trial, 152–6, 154
 most common, 91
 Priest and Klein model of case selection, 152–3
 litigation decision making ikrar, 225
 witness testimony, 226–31
 litigation processes differential knowledge of, 256–61
fetva use, 243–5
 legal representation in, 246–51, 250 oath in, 239–41
 preferred evidence in, 221–4

- quantitative approach, 241–3, 242
 witness testimony, 242
 written documents as evidence, 231–9
- litigation rules and trial success burden of proof, 279–82, 280
fetva use, 284, 285
 legal representation, 284–8
 written documents as evidence, 282–4, 283
- Maden, F.
 Kastamonu economics, 39
 population, 37
malikane (life-term tax-farm), 46, 49
- Mallon, F., 23
- Marcus, A.
 class differences, 59–60, 60
 court fees, 79
 impartiality of courts, 32
- Mecelle-i Ahkam-ı Adliyye*
 basic litigation processes, 215–20
ikrar, 225
 legal representation, 246, 249, 260
 oaths in, 239–41
 Ottoman civil code, 214
 preferred evidence, 221–4
 witness testimony, 226–31
 written documents as evidence, 231–9
- mediation
 and the bargain model, 142 in settlements, 141–2 Ottoman court, 136
 value of compromise in, 144 women and, 144
- Merginani, B., 213, 234
- Meshal, R., 32
- metalware production, 38
- methodology. See historiography
- mevleviyet* (high-ranking judgeship), 66
- microhistory approach to research, 15–16
- middle class
 Aleppo, 59–60, 60
 and legal representation, 250, 251
 as court witness, 76
- military status
 analysis categories, 56, 57
 and legal representation, 250, 251
 and title agreements, 116
 as court witness, 76, 78
 family, 100
 likelihood of going to trial, 175, 207
 plaintiff win ratio, 273, 308 seyfiyye, 52–3, 58, 115, 281
- Miller, R., 253
- Molla (epitaf)*, 52
- Molla Hüsrev, 213
- müfti (jurisconsult)*, 243, 259
- Mülteka el-Ebbur*
 as primary legal text, 214, 222
 oaths in, 239, 240
 witness testimony, 226–31
- muslihun (mediators)*, 141–2
- nafaka (women allowance)*, 45
- naib (deputy judge)*
 in place of kadi, 65
 role of, 68–9
- narrative approach to research, 15
- non-Muslims and court impartiality, 32 and number of court cases, 119–21, 120, 179, 180, 314–15
 burden of proof, 280, 281
fetva (legal opinion), 245
 in litigations, 276, 277 witness testimony of, 226
- oath (as evidence), 239–41, 242
- Ordinary Least Squares model, 184
- Othman, A., 136
- Ottoman courts. See also Kastamonu court dispute resolution process, 143–6 economics and trial success in, 252–61 litigation in, 129–37 settlements in, 143, 291–3
- Pamuk, Ş.
 court fees, 84
 tax-farming, 41
 wealth studies, 48
- Pascual, J.-P.
 and the quantitative approach to sicil study, 16–17
 economics, 49
 quantitative analysis of court archives, 14
 socioeconomic rank, 50
 tax-farming, 48
 wealth studies, 58
- Peirce, L., 32, 134
- period-based distribution of agreements, 104–6, 105, 168, 190–201, 191, 193
- permutations. See expectations

344 Index

- pilgrim. See also religious status and legal agreements, 120
 and legal representation, 250, 251
 family, 100
 likelihood of going to trial, 180, 190–201, 191, 193
 plaintiff win ratio, 297, 299
 wealth of, 56, 57
 witness testimony, 242
- plaintiff win ratio. See also trial success and burden of proof, 279–82, 280 and family prominence, 278
 and religion, 276, 277
 by case type over time, 266 case type, 270
 elite and, 275, 276, 297, 304 fifty percent, 252–4
 gender, 271
 religious/military, 273 size of case, 267, 268
- power differential in Ottoman courts, 32–3 preferred evidence in litigation process, 221–4
- Priest and Klein model, 152–3, 165, 252–4
- Priest, G.L., 152–3
- probate estate inventory research. See also Kastamonu court records benefits of quantitative approach for, 29
 court fees, 79
 economy of court personnel clues, 69–70 importance in Kastamonu, 34, 43–9, 46, 47, 48
- probit model, 184, 186
- prominent families. See zades
- quality (case), 254–5
- quantitative approach. See also regression analysis benefits for, 26–31
 court case selection, 164–6 defense of in sicil study, 18–26 litigation processes, 241–3, 242 need for specialists in, 31–3 on sicil research, 14, 16–17 regression analysis, 182–90 trial outcome influences, 288–91
- Rabb, T., 24–5
- Raymond, A.
 economics, 49
 quantitative research criticism, 14, 20
- real wealth levels, 46
- reaya* (taxpayers), 50–1
- regression analysis (of Kastamonu trials), 182–90
- religious status. See also pilgrim analysis categories, 55, 56, 57
 and legal agreements, 119–21, 120
 and legal representation, 250, 251
 and title agreements, 116
 as court witness, 76, 78
 family, 100
 likelihood of going to trial, 175, 180, 190–201, 191, 193, 207
 plaintiff win ratio, 273, 276, 277, 297, 299, 308
 trial stake asymmetry, 157–8
 witness testimony, 242
- representation. See legal representation
- rope-making, 38
- Rosen, L.
 anthropological methods, 133
 mediation, 136
 perceptions of Islamic law, 67
- Saler, M., 24
- Salzmann, A., 84
- sancak* (subprovince), 35–7
- Sartori, P., 133
- Scheele, J.
 Islamic law, 133
 settlements, 145
- Schilcher, L., 50–1
- Schneider, M., 24
- settlements. See sulh
seyfiyye (military men)
 and plaintiff win ratio, 281
 elite status, 52–3, 115
 wealth of, 58
- Seyyid*. See Descendant of Muhammad
- Shavell, S., 253
- sicils* (court archives). See also Kastamonu court records
 and anthropological perspective, 134–6
 filled with changes in, 237–8 research methodologies concerning, 14–17
 similarity in types of case descriptions, 166–7
- Siegelman, P., 159
- socioeconomic rank. See also demographics and court records analysis, 49–60, 56, 57, 60

Index

345

- and title agreements, 115
- mediators, 141–2
- stigma of going to trial, 160
- stake asymmetry, 157–8, 255–6
- Stiles, E., 132, 144
- subgovernor, 35–7
- sulh* (amicable settlement)
 - according to Islamic Law, 143, 291–3
 - as neighborly process, 134
 - disputes as, 104–6
 - encouragement for, 164
 - involving families, 100
 - Kastamonu in 17th and 18th century, 83, 167–82
 - most common, 94, 95
 - payments, 140
 - types of cases, 89, 89
- Şarife*. See descendant of Muhammad
- şuhudülhal* (witnesses)
 - as advisory council, 74
 - mediators as, 141
 - select individuals repeat as, 70–1
 - testimony in decision making, 226–31
 - title distribution of, 75–9, 76, 78
- tabkim* (arbitration), 135
- tahrir* (official survey), 34
- Tak, E., 88
- Tamdoğan, I., 140
- taxation
 - avarız*, 36–7
 - inequality in Kastamonu, 48
 - litigation, 91
- tax-farming, 40–1, 46, 49
- terekeş
 - father-son wealth, 58
 - limitations of as historical source, 43–5
- tezkiye* (witness reliability verification)
 - immunity from, 73
 - in court records, 230–1
 - popularity of, 72
- titles
 - and legal agreements, 115–19, 116, 118
 - and role in court functionary, 75–9, 76, 78
 - Kastamonu in 17th and 18th century, 51–4, 56, 57
 - likelihood of going to trial, 207
 - trial stake asymmetry, 157–8
- trade routes (Ottoman), 40, 42–3
- trial success. See also plaintiff win ratio and legal rule use, 279–88
 - case types over time, 265, 266
 - economics of, 252–61
 - litigation rules and, 280, 282–8, 283, 285
 - types of plaintiffs, 265–79
- upper classes. See elite
- vakfiyye* (pious endowments), 232
- vali* (governor), 35
- vekalet* (legal representation)
 - and plaintiff win ratio, 284–8, 286, 299, 301
 - and trial success, 260–1
 - in litigation, 246–51, 250
 - influences on plaintiffs trial success, 292, 297
- Waldfoegel, J., 159
- war and economy, 49
- wealth studies
 - of court functionaries, 69–70, 71–3, 72
 - quantitative approach to, 29
 - witness testimony, 226–31, 242
- witnesses
 - quantitative approach and, 241–3, 242
 - tezkiye*, 72, 73, 230–1
 - title distribution of, 75–9, 76, 78
- Wittman, D., 253
- women
 - and legal agreements, 112–14, 113
 - and legal representation, 250, 251
 - and mediation, 144
 - and title agreements, 116, 118, 119
 - likelihood of going to trial, 190–201, 191
 - plaintiff win ratio, 271, 297, 299
 - quantitative research on, 19
 - titles, 56, 57
 - underrepresented in terekeş, 43–4
 - wealth of, 46, 47, 48
- written documents as evidence
 - and plaintiff win ratio, 282–4, 283, 297, 299
 - and trial success, 258–9
 - influences on plaintiffs trial success, 292, 294

346 Index

- zades* (prominent families). See also family and adjudication tools, 242 and court representation, 249, 250, 251
burden of proof, 282
in dispute resolution process, 181, 182
plaintiff win ratio, 276, 278, 299 relation to court clients, 100
status of, 55, 56
Zarinebaf, F., 33
Ze'evi, D.
discrepancies in sicil analysis, 18–19 research techniques, 288–91 Ziadeh, F., 74
zina (illicit intercourse), 73