

Index

- A.T. Kearney globalization index, 19
 AAA Strategies (adaptation, aggregation and arbitrage), 182–183
 accounting, 99–101
 ADDING Value Scorecard, 183–186
 administrative distance
 about, 280–282
 and international interactions, 282
 China case study, 384
 comparative capitalism, 287–290
 external financing, 300–303
 horizontal, 283–285
 interaction of ownership, capital, and labour, 305–311, 344–311 labor, 303–305 labor unions, 304
 market capitalization, 301 ownership outlook, 296 shadow economy, 305
 schematic of pyramid ownership, 292
 vertical, 285–287
 advanced economies bilateral comparison with emerging economies, 373 bilateral distances, 139 capital inflows, 37
 debt financing, 98
 distance traversed by exports, 347 services trade, 362
 Fortune Global 500 regionalization, 351 financial crisis, 363
 market capitalization, 301
 merchandise trade, 366–367
 migration relative to emerging economies, 44
 multinationals, 72, 85, 92, 376–377
 phone calls, 363
 portfolio investment, 362 ratios, depth scores relative to those of emerging economies, 374–375 state-owned enterprises, 297 unilateral comparison with emerging economies, 371–372
 advertising intensity
 Chinese firms, 382
 Emerging Markets, 72
 Fortune Global 500 Gravity Model at Firm Level, 178
 MNE, 67
 relationship with geographic and economic distances, 178
 Agtmael, Antoine W. van, 359
 Almodóvar, Paloma, 174–175
 Altman, Roger C., 23
 Americanization, 12
 Appadurai, Arjun, 14, 17
 Appiah, Kwame Anthony, 192
 Arkwright, Richard, 61
 banking, see capital
 Belgium, company ownership, 293–294
 Bentham, Jeremy, 11
 The Big Shakeup, 363
 The Big Shift, 149, 363
 biology research, 207–208
 BMW sales, production and workforce (Figure), 88
 Bolivia, Patiño tin company, 76 border effects, see law of semiglobalization
 Boston Consulting Group (BCG), 94, 377
 Botswana, breadth measurement, 16 boundaries, see regionalization
 Brandenburger, Adam, 185
 Brazil
 domestic equity investment, 35 world market capitalization share, 35 breadth
 application, 17
 extensity, 15, 16
 law of distance, 3, 16, 119–120
 limited breadth of globalization, 120–126 measurement, 16

394 Index

- breadth (cont.)
measures, 17
velocity, 17
- broad triad, 324–328
- business location, 43
strategy, distance analysis, 179–186 technology transfers, 43
- Business Source Direct, 14
- CAGE Distance Framework
administrative dimension, 133, 281, 373 bilateral comparisons, 370
CAGE Comparator, 137, 215
China case study, 384
country level, 127–129, 176, 178
cultural dimension, 133, 373
developing countries, 370
distance effects, 159 distance scores, use of, 225–226
distance-driven research, 202, 213, 214, 219, 220 economic dimension, 133, 150, 189, 373 firm-level analysis, 179–181
foreign subsidiaries of Fortune Global 500, 175–178 geographic dimension, 132, 322, 373
industry level, 160
introduction of, 202
law of distance, 119, 149
psychic distance, 240
qualitative analysis, 182 quantitative studies, 225–226 region classifications, 335
regionalization, 336–339
technology, 188–189
- Canada
foreign direct investment, 61
Hudson's Bay Company, 58
research and development, 95
US firms in, 172
- capital, see also foreign direct investment administrative distance, 300–303
banks, 302
depth of globalization, 35–39
depth ratios (Figure), 36
external financing, 300–303
first wave of globalization, 60
globalization of business, 98–99
gross capital inflows as GDP percentage (Figure), 37 gross capital inflows by component (Figure), 37
measurement, 17
offshore financial centres, 67–68
standard deviation of nominal return differentials (Figure), 39
- capitalism, see comparative capitalism
- cartels, see firm level
- cartogram, see rooted maps
- Casson, Mark, 208–209
- causality and distance, 211
- Cemex, 191
- Center for Global Enterprise, 82
- centralization, 102, 182, 187, 342, 371, 373
- Centre d'Etudes Prospectives et d'Informations Internationales (CEPII), Chicago Council on Global Affairs, 12, 337
- China
accounting, 99, 100
administrative distance, 384
case study, 379–386
cinema revenues, 43
company ownership, 295
cultural distance, 384
exports, 72
foreign news website viewings, 42
GDP, 60, 61, 72
geographic distance, 384–385
manufacturing costs, 93 media reports on globalization, 13
multinationals, 75, 383
R&D intensity, 378
research and development, 94–95, 96
tea trade, 59
unions, 304
- cinema, foreign films global box office share, 42–43
- cluster analysis, 335
- 'Coca-Colonization', see Americanization
- cognitive distance, 283–285
- collectivist culture, 244
- Collis, David, 187
- communications velocity measurement, 17
- Communist era, 63, 64
- companies, see firm level
- comparative advantage concept, 4
distance-driven research, 208–210
comparative capitalism, 287–290
comparative institutionalism, 289 competitive advantage, 185–186 compounded distance, 215, 225
configuration of activities, 187–188
construal-level theory of psychological distance, 206 consumer electronics, 71–72
coordination of activities, 188–190
cosmopolitan corporate culture, 191–193

- costs reduction, 93–94
- country level
 - breadth measurement, 17
 - CAGE Distance Framework, 127–129
 - Fortune Global 500 Gravity Model, 177
 - future country rankings, assessment, 143–150
 - globalization measurement, 11
 - law of distance, 119
 - market integration, 30
 - regionalization trends, 345–347
- cross-border integration, see market integration
- cultural distance
 - about, 239–240
 - alternative cultural frameworks (Figure), 248–249
 - binary variables, 250–252
 - business implications, 258–262
 - China case study, 384
 - clusters of national cultures (Figure), 246
 - collectivism, 244
 - continuous variables, 252–254
 - critiques of Hofstede's dimensions, 245
 - cultural profiles based on Hofstede's dimensions, 245
 - cultural value scores (Table), 247
 - decision-specific experience and, 175
 - definition, 240–241
 - ethnicity, 250–251
 - femininity, 244–245
 - global leadership, 262
 - individualism, 244
 - Kogut and Singh measure, 249, 254–258
 - language, 249–257
 - leadership challenges, 262–264
 - leadership enhancement, 265–269
 - linguistic difference from the United States, 243
 - management of, 262
 - masculinity, 244–245
 - measurement, 241
 - multidimensional, 254–258
 - national culture and international interactions, 249–258
 - observable differences, 242–243
 - power distance, 244, 259–262
 - religion, 242
 - uncertainty avoidance, 244
 - underlying differences, 243–249
- culture
 - analytical frameworks, 248–249
 - corporate common language, 191
 - corporate cosmopolitanism, 191–193
 - corporate culture, 190–191
 - cultural profiles (Figure), 245
 - foreign films global box office share, 42–43
 - linguistic difference (Table), 243
 - music, international consumption, 42
 - translated books, 42
- da Gama, Vasco, 57
- decision-specific experience and cultural distance, 175
- definition of globalization, 11, 13
- Denmark, multinationals, 85
- depth
 - about, 29, 30
 - application, 17
 - capital flows, 35–39
 - globaloney, see globaloney
 - industry comparisons (Figure), 29, 33
 - information flows, 39–43
 - intensity, 15
 - law of semiglobalization, 3, 15–16
 - measurement, 15
 - people flows, 43–46
 - ratios across industries, 32–33
 - trade flows, 30–35
- Deutsche Bank shareholdings, 98
- developed countries, see advanced economies
- developing countries, see emerging and developing economies
 - China's multinationals, 383
 - developed countries contrasted, 368
 - economic distance, 358–361
 - economic growth, 363–368
 - GDP (Figure), 74
 - historical perspective, 72–74
 - international interactions, 361–363
 - multinationals, 74–76, 375–386
 - state planning, 64
- DHL Global Connectedness Index
 - data, 3, 5
 - globalization measurement, 11, 18, 19, 21, 22, 32
 - law of distance, 211
 - timeliness, 23
- discordance and distance, 212
- distance, see administrative distance; law of distance; regionalization; research, distance-driven
- distance effects, see law of distance
- double-logged specification, see multiplicative specification
- Dunning, John, 205
- East India Companies, 57–58
- economic center of gravity, 347, 364
- economic crisis of 2008, decrease in globalization, 11, 21

396 Index

- economic distance
 - developing countries, 358–361
 - international interactions, 361–363
- education and cosmopolitanism, 193
- email, information flows, 42
- emerging and developing economies
 - advertising intensity, 75
 - Fortune Global 500 regionalization, 351–352
 - R&D intensity, 75
- emerging economies, see emerging and developing economies
- emigration, see people
- employment, see people
- Ericsson
 - front-back organization, 102
 - ownership, 291–292
- Ernst & Young Globalization Index
 - about, 20
 - timeliness, 23
- ethnicity, 250, 252
- Europe
 - cartels, 63
 - Communist era, 64
 - exports, 60
 - foreign direct investment, 61
 - GDP, 60
 - research and development, 94–95, 97
 - service sector employment, 67
- European Union
 - accounting, 99
 - export participation rates, 84
 - financial market integration, 38
 - GDP, 72
 - Unilever’s pan-European integration, 71
- expatriates, 106, 265
- experience, see decision-specific experience
- exports
 - by firm size (Figure), 84
 - firm participation rates, 83–84
- extensivity and breadth, 15, 16
- Facebook, 40
- family-owned firms
 - Belgium, 293–294
 - China, 295, 302
 - emerging economies, 297
 - France, 293–294
 - Germany, 293
 - Japan, 293
 - performance relative to widely-held firms, 296
 - relative to state-owned firms, 299
 - schematic of pyramid ownership, 292
 - Southeast Asia, 295
 - South Korea, 292
 - United Kingdom, 294
 - United States, 294
 - varieties of ownership structure, 300
- FDI, see foreign direct investment
- fDi Markets database, 165
- Feldstein, Martin, 35
- feminine culture, 244–245
- Ferreira, Fernando, 42
- Fiedler, Klaus, 206
- films, see cinema
- finance, see capital
- financial market integration in EU, 38
- Financial Times, 165
- firm level, 259–262
 - accounting, 99–101
 - CAGE Distance Framework, 179–181
- cartels, 63
- configuration of activities, 187–188
- coordination of activities, 188–190
- corporate cosmopolitanism, 191–193
- corporate culture, 190–191
- corporate structure and organization, 70–72, 101–104
- costs reduction, 93–94
- distance within firms, 218–219
- emerging market multinationals, 74–76, 375–379
- Ericsson, front-back organization, 102
- exports, see exports
- finance, 98–99
- firm specific advantages, 205
- foreign affiliates, 85, 92–93, 175–178
- Fortune Global 500 Gravity Model, 178, 179
- globalization of business, 82–83
- headquarters intensity and GDP in ratio, 85
- home market revenues, 87
- joint stock trading companies, 57
- law of distance, 159, 160, 171–178, 218–219
- law of semiglobalization, 56, 83
- leadership, see management
- management, see management
- marketing, see marketing
- multinationals, 61–62
- non-native managers (Figures), 105
- number of multinationals worldwide, 85
- offshoring, 93
- operations, 92–94
- organization of large multinationals (Table), 102
- ownership, see widely-owned firms
- regional business strategies, 340–344
- regionalization trends, 348–350
- research and development, 94–97
- size of firms, 83–89
- small and medium enterprises, 85–86
- strategy, see strategy

- supply chains, 94
- tax jurisdiction, 100
- firm specific advantages, 205
- focus, individuals' need to, 192
- Ford's world car strategy, 70
- foreign affiliates of multinationals, 85, 92–93
- foreign direct investment
 - fDi Markets database, 165
 - firm participation rates, 84–85
 - first wave of globalization, 60–61
 - flows (Figure), 57
 - greenfield FDI at industry level, 165–170
 - law of distance, 204
 - measurement, 35
 - nineteenth-century growth, 59
 - reversal of globalization (1918–1945), 62–63
 - services sector, 68
 - stock, 58
- foreign news coverage, information flows, 42
- Fortune Global 500, 74, 75, 99, 105, 172, 175, 191
- Foxconn, 71–72
- France
 - company ownership, 293–294
 - foreign direct investment, 61, 63
 - foreign news website viewings, 42
 - Franc Area, 63
 - power distance, 244
 - translated books, 42
 - unions, 304
- Freeman, Richard, 305
- frictionless benchmark, 119, 121–122, 141–142, 322
- Friedman, Thomas, 3–4, 12, 92
- GAAP, see Generally Accepted Accounting Principles
- GDP, see gross domestic product
- General Electric, 189, 190
- Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, 99–100
- geographic distance, see regionalization
- Germany
 - BMW sales, production and workforce (Figure), 88
 - company ownership, 293
 - Deutsche Bank shareholdings, 98
 - exports, 60, 72
 - finance, 98
 - foreign direct investment, 61, 63
 - foreign news website viewings, 42
 - Metallgesellschaft, 59
 - Nazi era, 63
 - Siemens & Halske AG, 59
 - tariffs, 66
 - telecommunications, 59
 - translated books, 42
- Global Acumen, 180–181
- global leadership, 262
 - challenges, 262
 - management practices, 265–266
- globalization
 - breadth, see breadth
 - changes over time, 21
 - contradictory perceptions, 23
 - decrease, 11, 21
 - definition, 11, 13
 - depth, see depth
 - etymology, 11
 - first wave, 56
 - global connectedness (Figure), 21
 - history, see historical perspective
 - increase, 21
 - indexes, 18–21
 - inflated notions ('globaloney'), see perceptions of globalization
 - measurement, 11, 15
 - origins, 11
 - public opinion, see perceptions of globalization
 - publications, 12
 - reversal of, 62–64
 - role of government, 65
 - second wave, 64, 70
 - social impact, 17
 - spatio-temporal dimensions, 15
 - trend comparison across indexes (Figure), 22
 - word cloud, 13–14
- 'globaloney', 46–49
 - law of semiglobalization, 46–49
- Globe Telegraph and Trust Company, 59
- Google, 190–191
- Google Scholar, 14
- government's role in globalization, 65–67
- gravity modeling, 119–120, 129–138, 146, 160, 212, 219
 - ordinary least squares modeling (OLS), see ordinary least squares modeling
 - Poisson pseudo-maximum likelihood (PPML), see pseudo Poisson maximum likelihood
- gross domestic product
 - Ancient World, 56
 - emerging markets' shares, 74
 - gross capital inflows as percentage (Figure), 37

398 Index

- gross domestic product (cont.)
 multinational headquarters intensity in ratio, 85
 nineteenth century growth, 59
 real GDP per worker (Figure), 45
 shares of world GDP (Figure), 73 US share, 30
- Head, Keith, 121, 122, 134, 140, 207, 215
 Hechscher-Ohlin-Vanek (H-O-V) model, 204
 Held, David, 15, 16, 17
 Hennart, Jean-Francois, 205
- historical perspective
 about, 56–58
 Communist era, 64
 corporate structure and organization, 70–72
 emerging market multinationals, 74–76
 emerging markets, 72–74
 first wave of globalization, 56–62
 globalization changes over time, 21 government's role, 65–67 investment in intangibles and information, 68–70
 reversal of globalization
 (1918–1945), 62–64
 second wave of globalization, 64–76 services sector growth, 67–68 strategy and organization, 70
- Hofstede, Geert, 243–249, 256–257 home market revenues of large firms, 87
 homophily, 207
 Hong Kong, global connectedness, 32
 Horioka, Charles, 35
 Hudson's Bay Company, 58
 Human Development Index (HDI), 44, 360
- IBM, 189
 immigration, see people impact, see social impact of globalization incumbents, 75, 306, 358, 375–376
- India
 accounting, 99
 British rule, 58
 company ownership, 294–295
 foreign followers of Indian Twitter users, 40 GDP, 72
 state planning, 64
 unions, 304
- individualist culture, 244
- industry level
 CAGE Distance Framework, 160
 depth comparisons (Figure), 33
 greenfield foreign direct investment, 165–170
 law of distance, 159, 160–161, 217–218
 merchandise trade, 162
 modelling, 160–161, 165–166
- inflated notions of globalization ('globaloney'), see perceptions of globalization
- information
 depth of globalization, 39–43
 depth ratios, 41
 growth of investment, 68–70
 measurement, 17
- institutional distance, see administrative distance
- intangible assets, growth of investment, 68–70
- intellectual property
 patents, see patents
 protection, 97
- intensity and depth, 15
- internalization theory, 205–206
- International Financial Reporting Standards, 99–100
- international interactions
 depth and breadth measurement, 17
 economic distance, 361–363
 principal types, 17
- international telephone calls, see
 telecommunications
- 'international', origins, 11
- internet, information flows, 40–42
- Japan
 accounting, 99
 Americanization concerns, 12
 cartels, 63
 company ownership, 293
 finance, 98
 masculine culture, 244 post-Meiji Restoration trade, 59
 research and development, 94–95
 service sector employment, 67
- Jardine Matheson, 59
- JIBS, see Journal of International Business
 Studies
- Johanson, Jan, 204–205
- Johnson & Johnson, 190
- joint stock trading companies, 57
- Journal of International Business
 Studies, 4, 172, 202, 249
- k-means algorithm, 335
- Keynes, John Maynard, 12
- knowledge, see information
- KOF Index of Globalization

Index

399

- about, 19–20
- timeliness, 23
- Kogut, Bruce, 249, 254–258
- Korea, company ownership, 292–293
- KPMG, 189
- Krugman-Helpman (K-H) model, 204
- labor, see people
- labor freedom index, 288, 305–310
- Lamy, Pascal, 4, 66
- language, 123, 149, 249–257
- Latané, Bibb, 207
- law of distance
 - AAA Strategies, see AAA Strategies
 - ADDING Value Scorecard, see ADDING Value Scorecard
 - administrative distance, see administrative distance
 - alternatives to distance, 212–213
 - analytical frameworks, 181–186
 - breadth, 16
 - breadth of globalization, 3, 16, 119–120
 - business application, 159
 - CAGE Distance Framework, see CAGE Distance Framework
 - causality, 211
 - conceptual properties, 211
 - cosmopolitanism, 191
 - country level, 119
 - cultural distance, see cultural distance
 - discordance, 212
 - distance analysis and business strategy, 179–186
 - distance effects, persistence, 138–143
 - distance-dependence, 215
 - economic distance, see economic distance
 - evidence, 119, 165
 - firm level, 159, 171–178
 - focus, individuals' need to, 192
 - foreign direct investment, 204
 - foreign subsidiaries of Fortune Global 500, 175–178
 - geographic distance, see regionalization
 - Global Acumen, 180–181
 - industry level, 159, 160–161, 217
 - institutional distance, see administrative distance
 - linearity, 211
 - management across distance, 186–187
 - meaning, 1
 - multi-country evidence, 175–178
 - nonobviousness, 4
 - power distance, 244, 259–262
 - psychic distance, 220–222
 - regionalization, 321, 324
 - research, see research, distance-driven
 - single-country evidence, 172–175
 - stability, 211
 - subjective distance, 219–222
 - symmetry, 211
 - utility of distance, 201–202
- Law of One Price, 34
- law of semiglobalization
 - definition, 29
 - depth of globalization, 3, 15–16
 - empirical evidence, 29
 - firm level, 83
 - focus on firms, 56
 - 'globaloney', 48
 - knowledge transfer, 43
 - meaning, 1
 - Tobler's law of external influences, 3
- laws of globalization
 - differences, 3
 - status, 1
 - Tobler's laws of geography, 3
- leadership, see management
- Levitt, Theodore, 89
- linearity and distance, 211
- Livingstone, David, 11
- LOP, see Law of One Price
- log-log specification, see multiplicative specification
- Long-term orientation, 245
- M49 Regions, 325–340
- Maastricht Globalization Index
 - about, 19
 - timeliness, 23
- Maddison, Angus, 58, 60, 61, 73
- management
 - across distance, 186–187
 - non-native, 104–107
 - of cultural distance, 262
- market integration
 - actual versus perfect (Figure), 31
 - Law of One Price, 34
 - measurement, 30
 - perfect integration and separation, 56
- marketing
 - function, 89
 - multinational business-to-business, 92
 - place, 91–92
 - planning grid (Table), 90
 - price, 90–91
 - products, 89–90
 - promotion, 91
 - standardization, 89
- masculine culture, 244–245
- Mayer, Thierry, 207, 215, 121, 122

400 Index

- McKinsey Global Institute Connectedness
Index
about, 21
timeliness, 23
measurement of globalization, 11, 15 media
foreign news coverage, information flows, 42
reports on globalization, 13
Metallgesellschaft, 59
Mexico
Cemex, 191
foreign direct investment, 61
US firms in, 172
MGI, see Maastricht Globalization Index
Microsoft, 192
migration, see people
Millward Brown, 91
movies, see cinema
MSN Messenger, 41
multinationals, see firm level multiplicative specification, 160, 215
music, international consumption, 42
Mussa, Michael, 17
- Nadella, Satya, 192
Netherlands
East India Company, 57
global connectedness, 32
news, see foreign news
Nielsen, Bo Bernhard, 191
Nielsen, Sabina, 191
non-native
CEO, 104–105
Fortune Global 500 Gravity Model at Firm Level, 178
top management team, 106, 178
normative distance, 283–285
North, Douglass, 281
- offshore financial centres, 67–68
offshore operations of multinationals, 93
Ohmae, Kenichi, 321, 342
OLI (ownership, location, internalization) framework, 205
OLS versus PPML, 165, 167 operations, see firm level ordinary least squares modelling, 160–161, 165–166 organization, see firm level
ownership, see widely-owned firms
- Palmisano, Samuel, 82
patents
application, 322
application data, 97
information flows, 43
Patiño tin company, 76
people administrative distance, 303–305
cross-border wage convergence, 44–45
depth of globalization, 43–46
interaction of ownership, capital, and labour, 305–311 international student mobility, 45 international tourism, 45 labor costs reduction, 93–94
labor mobility, 66
measurement, 17
migration, 43–45
real GDP per worker (Figure), 45
service sector employment, 67
perceptions of globalization compared to hard data, 46–47
'globaloney', see Globaloney public opinion surveys, 12, 46–47
students, 47
Pew Spring Global Attitudes Survey, 12
Philips Electronics, 189
Pisani-Ferry, Jean, 23
Poisson Pseudo-Maximum Likelihood modelling, 137, 160–161, 165–166, 176–177, 328 political constraints index (POLCON), 285–287 Porter, Michael, 184
power distance, 244, 259–262, 309–311
business implications of, 259 privatization, 294, 298, 299 product market, see market propinquity effect, 206–207
psychic distance, 220–222, 240
psychology research, 206–207
public opinion, see perceptions of globalization
pyramid ownership, 292
- R&D intensity, 95
Chinese firms, 381–383
Fortune Global 500 Gravity Model at Firm Level, 178 relationship with cultural, administrative, and geographic distance, 178, 217 relationship with industries of high trade intensity, 29–32
MNE, 67
regional classification schemes, 325
regionalization
boundary discontinuities, 325–334
breadth, 16
CAGE Distance Framework, 336–339

- China case study, 384–385
- country level trends, 345–347
- decline of, 344–350
- definition of regions, 335
- distance effects, 175, 322–325
- Fortune Global, 350–351
- firm level trends, 304
- geographic distance, 321–323
- law of distance, 321, 324
- regional business strategies, 340–344
- regional focus, 341–342
- regional hubs, 342–343
- regional mandates, 344
- regional networks, 340–344
- regional platforms, 343
- regional portfolio, 342
- Tobler's law of geographic distance, 3
- Tobler's laws of geography, 3
- trade intensities, 32
- regulative distance, 283
- religion, 242
- research and development, see also intellectual property
 - collaborative research, information flows, 43
 - concentration, 94–95
 - funding from abroad, 95–96
 - globalization, 94–97
 - intensity, see R&D intensity
 - law of distance, 175
 - patents, see patents
 - share of business enterprise expenditure, 95
- research, distance-driven
 - about, 200–201
 - comparative advantage case for, 208–210
 - connections to economics and business, 203–206
 - critiques of, 210–213
 - data improvement, 222–225
 - directions for, 213
 - input from other disciplines, 206–208
 - inter-industry variation, 217–218
 - intra-firm distance, 218–219
 - mapping of distance landscapes, 215–217
 - multiple facets of distance, 213–215
 - publications mentioning specific terms (Figure), 203
 - subjective distance, 219–222
 - theoretical case for, 203
 - utility of distance, 201–202
- 'rooted cosmopolitanism', 192
- rooted maps, 181–182
- Rugman, Alan, 205, 215, 217, 321, 324, 348, 349
- Russia
 - Communist era, 63, 64
 - foreign direct investment, 61
 - telecommunications, 59
 - unions, 304
- Salomon, Robert, 180
- Samuelson, Paul, 4
- Samuelson, Robert J., 23
- Santos, Indhira, 23
- Schneider Electric, 189
- science and technology, information flows, 43
- Scott, W. Richard, 282
- services sector growth, 67–68
- Shenkar, Oded, 210–211
- short-term orientation, 245
- Siemens & Halske AG, 59
- Singapore
 - global connectedness, 32
 - outbound international phone calls, 126
- Singer sewing machines, 61–62, 63
- Singh, Harbir, 249, 254–258
- Slater, Samuel, 61
- small and medium enterprises, 85–86
- social impact of globalization, 17
- social impact, theory, 207
- social media, see internet
- sociology research, 206–207
- Sorrell, Sir Martin, 89
- South Africa, Botswana trade, 16
- South-South trade, 366
- stability and distance, 211
- Starwood Hotels, 189
- state planning, 64
- state-owned enterprise
 - China, 74, 295, 302, 367
 - concentrated ownership, 297
 - India, 294
 - industry characteristics, 298
 - issues, 297
 - oil companies, 298
 - United States, 297
 - varieties of ownership structures, 300
 - widely-held firms, see widely held firms
- Stead, William Thomas, 12
- stock market capitalization, 35, 289–290, 302, 306–307
- strategy
 - distance analysis, 179–186
 - regional business strategies, 340–344
 - strategic alliances, 71
 - strategy domains (Table), 209
- Stuart, Gus, 185
- students
 - people flows, 45
 - perceptions of globalization, 47
- subsidiaries, see firm level

402 Index

- supply chains, 94
- Sutton, John, 86, 186, 378, 379, 380, 384–386
- Sweden
 - company ownership, 290–292
 - Ericsson, see Ericsson
 - feminine culture, 245
 - law of distance evidence, 172
 - symmetry and distance, 211
- Taiwan, consumer electronics, 71–72
- Tang, Kam Ki, 16
- taxation
 - accounting standards, 100–101
 - tax avoidance, 100–101
- technology and business coordination, 188–189
- technology transfers, information flows, 43
- telecommunications
 - first wave of globalization, 59
 - international telephone calls, information flows, 40
- TMT, see top management team
- Tobler, Waldo, 3
- top management team
 - diversity, 104, 192
 - Fortune Global 500, 104, 105, 106
 - Fortune Global 500 Gravity Model at Firm Level, 178
 - led by nonnative CEO, 105
- tourism, people flows, 45
- trade
 - Ancient World, 56
 - depth of globalization, 30–35
 - depth ratios (Figure), 31
 - intensities, 32
 - joint stock trading companies, 57
 - measurement, 17
 - merchandise trade, 162–166
 - openness (Figure), 65
 - value-to-weight comparison (Figure), 34
 - value-to-weight ratios, 33–34
- Trade in Value Added (TiVA), 32, 67, 223
- transport costs indexes (Figure), 69
- Twitter, 40
- Ulam, Stanislaw, 4
- uncertainty avoidance, 244
- Unilever, European integration, 71
- United Arab Emirates, foreign born population, 125
- United Kingdom
 - Americanization concerns, 12
 - Botswana trade, 16
 - communications velocity, 17
 - company ownership, 294
 - East India Company, 57–58
 - export value by number of employees, 84
 - exports, 60
 - finance, 98
 - first wave of globalization, 60–61
 - foreign direct investment, 60–61, 63
 - foreign news in newspapers, 42
 - foreign news website viewings, 42
 - Globe Telegraph and Trust Company, 59
 - Hudson's Bay Company, 58
 - imports, 60
 - Indian Raj, 58
 - individualism, 244
 - Jardine Matheson, 59
 - Patiño tin company, 76
 - research and development, 97
 - Sterling Area, 63
 - tax avoidance, 100
 - telecommunications, 59
 - translated books, 42
 - US firms in, 172
- United States
 - accounting, 99, 100
 - Americanization, 12
 - Botswana trade, 16
 - cartels, 63
 - communications velocity, 17
 - company ownership, 294
 - corporate alliances, 71
 - Dollar Area, 63
 - domestic equity investment, 35
 - export participation rates, 83–85
 - export value by number of employees, 84
 - exports, 60, 72
 - finance, 98
 - Ford's world car strategy, 70
 - foreign affiliate sales, 92
 - foreign direct investment, 61
 - foreign news in newspapers, 42
 - foreign ownership of US land, 12
 - GDP, 30, 60, 61, 64, 72
 - Great Depression, 64
 - Hudson's Bay Company, 58
 - immigrants' visas, 44
 - investment in intangibles and information, 69
 - labor mobility, 66
 - linguistic difference (Table), 243
 - market capitalization, 35
 - media reports on globalization, 13
 - offshoring potential, 93
 - overseas operations location, 172–174
 - Patiño tin company, 76
 - perceptions of globalization, 46–47
 - public opinion on globalization, 12–13
 - research and development, 94–97
 - reversal of globalization (1918–1945), 63

- service sector employment, 67
 Singer sewing machines, 61–62, 63
 tariffs, 66
 tax avoidance, 100
 telecommunications, 59
 trade levels, 64
 translated books, 24
 unions, 304
 Wall Street crash 1929, 63
 Walmart, profitability and distance from US, 173–174
 Uppsala internationalization process model, 204–205
- Vahlne, Jan-Erik, 204–205 value chains, 71–72, 92, 159, 358
 value-to-weight ratios, 33–34
 Vantrappen, Herman, varieties of capitalism, 104–106 varieties of capitalism, 282, 287, 288 velocity and breadth, 17
 Verbeke, Alain, 205, 215, 217, 220, 321, 324, 328, 348, 349
 Verne, Jules, 12
- Wagner, Amy, 16
 Waldfoegel, Joel, 42
 Wall Street crash 1929, 63
 Wallenberg family, 290–292
- Walmart, profitability and distance from US, 173–174
Washington Post, 23
 WGI, see Worldwide Governance Indicators database widely owned firms incidence, 290–295
 interaction of ownership, capital, and labour, 305–311
 legal system influence, 306–309 Power Distance Index, 309–311 prospects for increase, 296–300
 pyramid ownership, 292
 religious influences, 309
 varieties of ownership structures (Table), 300 worldwide, 290–295
 Wilkins, Mira, 60
 window of viability, 379
 World Bank data, 19
 World Governance Indicators, 285, 286
 ‘World War’, origins, 12
 Worldwide Governance Indicators database, 285 WPP plc, 89
- xenophobia, 208
- Yahoo Mail, 42
 Yeung, Bernard, 202