Contents

List of Figures  [page xi]

List of Tables  [xii]

Acknowledgements  [xiii]

Notes on the Text  [xvi]

List of Abbreviations  [xvii]

Introduction: Beginnings and Contexts, the Themes of a History  [1]

PART I BUILDING AND CONSOLIDATING
(1883–1914)  [25]

1 The Founding Directors: George Grove and Hubert Parry  [27]

2 The Students  [55]

3 Establishing the Musical and Educational Ethos: Concerts and Curriculum  [81]

4 The Buildings and Finances  [107]

Coda: The First World War  [127]

PART II RENEWAL AND CONVENTIONALITY
(1919–1960)  [131]

5 Hugh Allen's RCM and Musical Life between the Wars, 1919–1937  [133]

PART III CHANGING MUSICAL CULTURES
(1960–1984)  [233]

7 Keith Falkner and Rebuilding Institutional Confidence, 1960–1974  [235]

8 Crossing the RCM Century: David Willcocks, 1974–1984  [286]
Contents

PART IV INTO ITS SECOND CENTURY, 1984–2018 [307]

9 A Changed State of Rivalry: The RAM, the ‘Centre of Excellence’

10 The New Realities of Accounting and Assuring: Securing the
RCM’s Public Funding in the 1990s  [323]

11 Reimagining for the Future  [330]
   Epilogue: A Prosopography  [340]

Works Cited  [353]

Index  [363]