The Cambridge Companion to
Comparative Family Law

Families and family law have faced significant challenges in the face of rapid changes in social norms, demographics and political expectations. The Cambridge Companion to Comparative Family Law highlights the key questions and themes that have faced family lawyers across the world. Each chapter is written by internationally renowned academics experts, and focuses on which of these themes are most significant to their jurisdictions.

In taking this jurisdictional approach, the collection will explore how different countries have tackled these issues. As a result, the collection is aimed at students, practitioners and academics across a variety of disciplines, interested in the key issues faced by family law around the world and how they have been addressed.

Shazia Choudhry is Professor of Law at Queen Mary, University of London. Her research interests lie in the fields of European and UK human rights law, and in particular gender-based violence. She has published a number of articles and chapters, as well as two books, European Human Rights and Family Law (2010 with J. Herring) and Rights, Gender and Family Law (2009 with J. Herring and J. Wallbank). In addition to her publications, her work has included her appointment as Specialist Adviser to the Joint Parliamentary Committee on Human Rights Inquiry into Violence against Women (2014–15); and acting as an expert for the UNFPA, the European Commission and the Council of Europe.

Jonathan Herring is Vice Dean and Professor of Law at the Law Faculty, Oxford University and Fellow in Law at Exeter College, Oxford University. He has written nearly 100 books on family law, medical law, criminal law and legal issues surrounding care and old age. His books include Medical Law and Ethics (2018); Family Law (2018); Childhood, Vulnerability and the Law (2018); Vulnerable Adults and the Law (2016); Caring and the Law (2014); Older People in Law and Society (2009); European Human Rights and Family Law (2010 with Shazia Choudhry); Criminal Law (2018). He has also written for the general public The Woman Who Tickled Too Much (2009) and How to Argue (2012).
Cambridge Companions to Law

Cambridge Companions to Law offers thought-provoking introductions to different legal disciplines, invaluable to both the student and the scholar. Edited by world-leading academics, each offers a collection of essays which both map out the subject and allow the reader to delve deeper. Critical and enlightening, the Companions library represents legal scholarship at its best.
