

Contents

List of Illustrations	page vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction: The Modern Metropolis and the Eclipse of Modernist City Building	I
PART I: SETTING THE STAGE
1 Global Urbanism at the Start of the Twenty-First Century	23
2 The Shape of Cities to Come: Distended Urban Form as the Template for Global Urbanism	46
PART II: AGGREGATE URBANISM
3 Spatial Restructuring on a Global Scale: Enclave Urbanism and the Fragmentation of Urban Space	93
4 Cities as an Assemblage of Enclaves: Realizing the Expectations of Late Modernity	147
PART III: ZONE FORMATS AND THE URBANISM OF EXCEPTION
5 Autonomous Zones and the Unbundling of Territorial Sovereignty	201
6 Typologies of Zones	232
7 Hybrid Zones and the Breakdown of Conventional Modalities of Urban Governance	277
8 An Urbanism of Exception	301
Bibliography	315
Index	391
	v