

Index

- Accelerated Development on Sub-Saharan Africa* (Berg Report), 75
- actors
- in African development strategies, 9
 - convergence of national and international, 114–119
 - institutions and, 21, 73, 108
 - international, 152–159, 172–173
 - national, 162–168, 172–173
 - national vs. international, 88–103
 - regional, 159–162, 172–173
 - relations between, 172–173
 - social legitimacy of actors, 73–74
 - strategic axes, 80–88
- Africa
- colonization of, 51–52
 - debt crisis in, 57
 - economic domination imposed by Northern powers on, 18
 - economic failures in, 12–13
 - GDP, 143
 - poverty reduction in, 143
- African Civil Society Declaration on NEPAD, 17
- African countries. See also names of specific countries
- classification of, 44–45, 47
 - based on resources and location, 45
 - by economic orientation before SAPs, 47–48
 - coastal, 45
 - landlocked, 45
 - liberal and mixed economy, 95–103
 - per capita GDP, 47
 - resource-rich, 45
 - socialist-leaning, 88–95
 - state's role in post-independence, 164
 - syndrome-free, 46
- African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM), 142–143
- African Renaissance, 68
- African Union, 75
- African Union Program, 68
- agriculture, 53, 62, 80–81
- Ahidjio, Ahmadou, 95
- Algeria, 57
- Amuwo, K., 18
- Annan, Kofi, 144
- Attacking Poverty* report, 15
- Bates, R., 38, 107, 111, 154, 163, 166
- Benin, 88–90
 - agricultural sector, 88–89
 - colonial legacy in, 52
 - debt relief for, 116
 - independence from France, 88
 - institutional intrusion in, 154
 - Marxist model of development in, 87
 - national and international actors in, 114
 - neocolonial model of growth in, 9
 - per capita GDP, 47
 - postcolonial model in, 53
 - PRSPs in, 15, 119–122
 - SAPs in, 11
 - state companies with monopolies, 89
 - state's role in economic development, 163
- Berg Report, 75, 76–77
- Biya, Paul, 96
- Blair, Tony, 144
- Botswana, 58
- Boumedienne, Houari, 76–77
- Bouteflika, Abdelaziz, 68

- Brazil, 57
- Bretton Woods Institutes, 115
- Burkina Faso, 90–91
 - colonial legacy in, 52
 - debt relief for, 116
 - independence in 1960, 90
 - institutional intrusion in, 154
 - interventionism in, 91
 - national and international actors in, 114
 - neocolonial model of growth in, 9
 - per capita GDP, 47
 - postcolonial model in, 53
 - PRSPs in, 15, 122–125
 - SAPs in, 11
 - state capitalism, 90–91
 - state-owned corporations, 90
 - state's role in economic development, 163
- Cameroon, 95
 - colonial legacy in, 52
 - debt relief for, 116
 - endogenous development and communal liberalism in, 96
 - Fifth Five-Year Plan, 95
 - industrial sector, 83, 95
 - institutional intrusion in, 154
 - national and international actors in, 114
 - neocolonial model of growth in, 9
 - per capita GDP, 47
 - postcolonial model in, 53
 - PRSPs in, 15, 129–132
 - SAPs in, 11, 96
 - state's role in economic development, 163
- Campbell, J., 109–110
- Can Africa Claim the 21st Century?* (World Bank report), 103
- Capital Flows Initiative, 143
- causality model, 38–41
- Chabal, P., 18, 19
- Chang, H.-J., 8–9, 148
- Chicago School, 58
- Chile, 57
- China, 57
- Cling, J. P., 16
- Clinton, Bill, 144
- coastal countries, 45
- Cold War, 55
- Collier, D., 52, 58
- Collier, P., 44–45, 50, 54
- Collier, R. B., 52, 58
- colonial state, 52
- colonialism, 51–52
- communications, 86
- Compaoré, Blaise, 91
- Comprehensive Development Framework, 105
- Congo-Brazzaville, 93–95
 - agricultural sector, 93–94
 - colonial legacy in, 52
 - debt relief for, 116
 - five-year economic and social development plan, 93
 - industrial sector, 94
 - institutional intrusion in, 154
 - Marxist model of development in, 87
 - neocolonial model of growth in, 9
 - oil industry, 94
 - per capita GDP, 47
 - postcolonial model in, 53
 - PRSPs, 127–129
 - PRSPs in, 15
 - SAPs in, 11, 94
 - state-held monopolies, 94
 - state's role in economic development, 163
- Congo-Kinshasa, 78, 87
- conversion
 - innovation through, 30–31
 - international innovation, 157–159
 - in neo-institutionalism, 25–26
- Cornia, G., 56
- crisis, 23, 152
- critical juncture, 51, 52, 141, 152
- Dahl, R., 110
- Dante, I., 115
- Davos Economic Forum, 68
- de Waal, A., 17
- debt crisis, 57
- Decade Transport and Communications
 - objects for 1978–1988, 86
- decolonization, 78
- Democratic Republic of Congo, 78, 87
- deregulation, 59
- developing countries, 56
- development strategies, African, 8–19
 - in 1960s–1970s, 9
 - in 1980s, 10–13
 - in 1990s, 13–14
 - in 2000s, 14–18
 - analysis of, 169–174
 - empirical level, 169–173
 - epistemological level, 173–174
 - methodological level, 173–174

- development strategies, African (cont.)
 - practical level, 169–173
 - theoretical level, 173–174
- based on state withdrawal, 13–14
- emergence of, 170–172
- perspectives on, 8–9
- relations between actors in, 172–173
- states as main actors in, 9
- developmentalist model, 153–154
- Dezalay, Y., 58
- diffusion
 - in neo-institutionalism, 25
 - of SAPs, 29
- diffusion-imposition, 152–155
- Diorim Hanani, 98
- direct foreign investment, 59
- Dryzek, J., 110
- Durufié, G., 54–55
- Economic and Political Governance Initiatives, 143
- economic crisis
 - African views on, 79–80
 - causes of, 77–80
 - external, 79–80
 - internal, 77–79
 - decolonization and, 78
 - demographic factors in, 78–79
 - geographical factors in, 78
 - lack of human resources and, 78
 - oil shocks, 56–57
 - postcolonial, 53–55
 - World Bank's explanations, 77–79
- economic institutionalism, 20
- education, 81–83
 - children in school, 82
 - cost of, 82
 - dropout/repeater rates, lowering, 82
 - student–teacher ratios, 82
- Enhanced Structural Development Facilities, 66, 155
- Ethiopia, 46
- exchange rates, 59
- exports, 62
- Eyadéma, Gnassingbé, 101
- favorable context, 152
- financial liberalization, 59
- fiscal discipline, 59
- fiscal reform, 59
- Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), 80
- food independence, 80–81
- Fosu, A. K., 46
- G8 Action Plan for Africa, 16
- Gath, B., 58
- Gazibo, M., 103, 140
- Ghana, 78
- gross domestic product (GDP)
 - NEPAD and, 143
 - oil shocks and, 56
 - per capita, 47
 - postcolonial period, 53
 - SAPs and, 62
 - in sub-Saharan Africa, 56
- Group of 77 countries, 76
- Guillaumont, P., 14
- Gunning, J. W., 50
- Gunning, W., 54
- Hall, P., 23–24, 61, 155, 156
- hard controls, 47
- Highly Indebted Poor Countries (HIPC)
 - initiatives, 115, 125
- historical institutionalism, 20, 73
- Hochschild, J. L., 73
- Holden, M., 110
- human resources, 78, 81–83
- ideas, 38–39
 - as constitutive of interests, 109–111
 - definition of, 72–73
 - divergence of, 74–76, 111–114
 - national vs. international actors, 88–103
 - in neo-institutionalism, 21
 - political innovations and, 72–74
- IFC Development Goals (IDGs), 143
- Immergut, E., 73
- inclusion, 110
- incremental change, in neo-institutionalism, 26
- incrementalism, 155
- India, 57
- industrial plantations, 52
- industrialized countries, 56
- industry, 83–86
- innovation
 - historical sources of, 55–58
 - industrial sector, 83
 - international, 36–37, 152–159
 - international dimensions of, 29–31
 - national, 33–36, 37–38, 162–168

- innovation (cont.)
 - regional, 31–33, 37, 159–162
 - representative sample countries, 44–48
 - through conversion, 30–31
 - through diffusion of model by unilateral imposition, 29
 - through learning and adaptation of SAPs, 29–30
- institutionalism, 20. See also neo-institutionalism
 - historical, 73
 - sociological, 73, 74
- institutions
 - actors and, 21, 108
 - asymmetric power of, 154, 171–172
 - definition of, 108
 - emergence of, 108
 - influence on actors' behaviors, 73
 - intrusion by, 152–155
 - in neo-institutionalism, 22
 - roles of, 20–21
 - social legitimacy of actors and, 73–74
- interests
 - convergence of, 111–114
 - ideas and, 109–111, 171
 - political change and, 108
 - political innovations and, 39–41
- international financial institutions (IFIs), 29–31
 - conditions set by, 74
 - conversion, 157–159
 - diffusion-imposition, 152–155
 - financing by, 171
 - interests of, 112, 171
 - learning-adaptation, 155–157
 - missions of, 117–118
 - PRSP and, 115
 - states and, 30–31
 - structural adjustment programs and, 62–63
- international innovation, 36–37, 152–159. See also innovation
 - conversion, 157–159
 - diffusion-imposition, 152–155
 - institutional intrusion, 152–155
 - learning-adaptation, 155–157
- International Monetary Fund (IMF)
 - innovations, 36
 - poverty reduction programs, 105
 - purposes of, 117–118
 - Washington Consensus and, 58
- intertemporality, 50, 51, 55
- Ivory Coast, 97–98
 - colonial legacy in, 52
 - debt relief for, 116
 - five-year economic and social development plan, 97
 - independence in 1960, 97
 - industrial sector, 83
 - institutional intrusion in, 154
 - liberal economic system in, 46
 - national and international actors in, 114
 - neocolonial model of growth in, 9
 - participation of Ivorians in businesses, 97
 - per capita GDP, 47
 - postcolonial model in, 53
 - PRSPs in, 15, 132–134
 - SAPs in, 11, 98
 - state-run companies, 98
 - state's role in economic development, 163
- Japan, 56
- Jespersen, E., 63–64
- Kanon, Bra, 97–98
- Keita, Modibo, 91
- Kenya
 - industrial sector, 83
 - nationalist policy in, 46
- Kérékou, Mathieu, 88, 90
- Keynesian economics, 53–54, 152
- Kingdon, J., 58, 154
- Kuhn, T., 23–24
- labor force, 78
- Lagos Plan of Action, 66, 75
 - African values in, 113
 - vs. Berg Report, 76–77
 - food self-sufficiency in, 81
 - measures advocated by, 76–77
 - recommendations on, 80–88
 - agriculture, 80–81
 - communications, 86
 - education, 80–81
 - human resources, 81–83
 - industry, 83–86
 - natural resources, 83–86
 - transportation, 86
- landlocked countries, 45
- layering, 141
 - in neo-institutionalism, 25–26
 - variables, 33

- learning
 - in national innovation, 165–166
 - in neo-institutionalism, 24–25
 - policy-oriented, 61
 - temporal factor and, 61
- learning-adaptation, 155–157
 - of SAPs, 29–30
 - variables, 31
- Lecours, A., 73
- L'Écuyer, J., 17
- liberal economies, 46, 95–103
 - Cameroon, 95–97
 - Ivory Coast, 97–98
 - Niger, 98–101
 - Senegal, 102–103
- Lima Objectives, 84
- Lindblom, Charles, 155
- Loxley, J., 18
- macroeconomic policies, 62
- Mahoney, J., 51
- Mali, 91–93
 - colonial legacy in, 52
 - debt relief for, 116
 - five-year economic and social development plan, 92
 - independence in 1960, 91
 - institutional intrusion in, 154
 - interventionism in, 91
 - national and international actors in, 114
 - neocolonial model of growth in, 9
 - per capita GDP, 47
 - postcolonial model in, 53
 - PRSPs in, 15, 125–127
 - SAPs in, 11
 - state-owned corporations, 92
 - state's role in economic development, 163
- Malian Development Bank, 92
- MAP Plan, 68–70
- Marshall Plan, 153
- Marxist-Leninist model of development, 88–95
 - Benin, 87, 88–90
 - Burkina Faso, 90–91
 - Congo-Brazzaville, 87, 93–95
 - Mali, 91–93
- Mauritius, 46
- Mbeki, Thabor, 68, 160
- metropolitan state, 52
- Mexico, 57
- Millennium Declaration, 66–68
 - Millennium Development Goals, 66–68
 - goals and targets of, 67
 - poverty reduction in, 105
 - UNDP's role in, 65
 - modernization, 54–55
 - Morocco, 57
 - Moubarak, Hosni, 68
 - Mozambique, 46
 - Mugabe, Robert, 104
 - multiple temporalities, 54
 - Musunge, Peter Mafany, 130
- national innovation, 33–36, 37–38, 162–168.
 - See also* innovation
 - learning in, 165–166
 - return of state in, 166–168
 - withdrawal of state, 163–165
- natural resources, 83–86
- Ndulu, B., 46
- Nee, V., 25
- Nel, P., 106
- neo-institutionalism, 20–28. See also
 - institutionalism
 - concepts in, 22–26
 - conversion, 25–26
 - critical juncture, 23
 - diffusion, 25
 - incremental change, 26
 - layering, 25–26
 - learning, 24–25
 - paradigm change, 23–24
 - path dependence, 26
 - conversion and replacement in, 26–28
 - innovation and change in, 26–28
 - research approach, 41–44
 - variables, 20–22
 - ideas, 21
 - institutions, 22
 - interests, 21
 - time, 22
- neoliberalism, 38–39
- New African Initiative, 17–18, 68
- New International Economic Order, 76
- New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD), 31–33
 - African Peer Review Mechanism, 142–143
 - cumulative effects, 66–70
 - democratic orthodoxy in, 18
 - emergence of, 14–18
 - exogenous borrowings, 144–147
 - financing of, 171

- New Partnership for Africa's Development (cont.)
 genesis of, 140–144
 good governance in, 17 inclusion in, 140–144, 147–149
 layering in, 140–144, 147–149 liberal principles, 16–17
 origin of, 144–147
 priority areas, 69, 141 regional innovation and, 159–161 self-development program in, 16 strategies of, 103–106
 World Bank and, 145–146
- Niger, 98–101
 agricultural sector, 99
 colonial legacy in, 52
 companies, 100 company law, 100
 debt relief for, 116
 Five-Year Plan, 99
 independence in 1960, 98
 institutional intrusion in, 154
 liberal economy, 99
 national and international actors in, 114
 per capita GDP, 47
 postcolonial model in, 53
 PRSPs in, 15, 135–137
 SAPs in, 11, 100
 stabilization fund, 99–100
 state's role in economic development, 163
 temporary consolidation program, 99
 uranium companies, 100
- Nigeria, 9
- Nkoyokm, J., 17–18
- Obasanjo, Olusegun, 68
- O'Connell, S., 44–45, 47, 54
- official development assistance (ODA), 11, 62
- oil shocks, 56–57
- Olympio, Sylvanus, 101
- OMEGA Plan, 68–70
- Opango, Yhomby, 93
- open economies, 46
- Organization of African Unity (OAU), 75
- Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC), 76
- Ould-Abdallah, A., 16
- overseas development assistance (ODA), 143
- paradigm change, 23–24
- Paris Club, 123
- path dependence
 in neocolonial model of growth, 52
 in neo-institutionalism, 26
- petrodollar, 55
- Pierson, P., 42, 58, 155
- plantations, 52
- pluritemporality, 54
- Policy Framework Papers, 66, 155
- policy learning, 61
- political change, interests and, 108
- political decisions, variables in, 24
- postcolonial model, internal crisis of, 53
- poverty reduction, 104–105, 143
- Poverty Reduction and Growth Facility (PRGF), 15
 adoption of, 64–66
 conversion of SAPs, 66
 learning-adaptation, 155
- Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers (PRSPs), 15. See also structural adjustment programs
 adoption of, 64–66, 104–105
 conversion of SAPs, 66
 in formerly liberal or mixed countries, 129–139
 Cameroon, 129–132
 Ivory Coast, 132–134
 Niger, 137–139
 Senegal, 135–137
 Togo, 134–135
 for formerly socialist-leaning countries, 119–129
 Benin, 119–122
 Burkina Faso, 122–125
 Congo, 127–129
 Mali, 125–127
 learning-adaptation, 155
 names, 114–117
- Poverty Reduction Support Credit (PRSC), 15, 66
- privatization, 59
- property rights, 59
- public spending, 59
- rational choice institutionalism, 21
- Reagan, Ronald, 56, 155
- regional innovation, 31–33, 37, 159–162. See also innovation
- Remmer, K., 73
- resource-rich countries, 45

- Ronald, K., 16–17
 Rose, R., 25
 Rueschemeyer, D., 72–73
- Sabatier, P., 61
 Sabourin, P., 42
 Sankara, Thomas, 90, 91, 124
 SAPs. See structural adjustment programs satisficers, 74
 Schröder, Gerhard, 144
 Senegal, 102–103
 colonial legacy in, 52
 debt relief for, 116, 136
 economic growth during colonization in, 78
 independence in 1960, 102
 industrial sector, 83, 102–103
 institutional intrusion in, 154
 national and international actors in, 114
 neocolonial model of growth in, 9
 per capita GDP, 47
 postcolonial model in, 53
 poverty reduction in, 136
 private investments, 136
 PRSPs in, 15, 135–137
 SAPs in, 10, 103
 Seventh Four-Year Plan, 102
 state's role in economic development, 163
 Senghor, Leopold, 135
 Signé, L., xvii–xviii, 103, 111, 140, 164 social learning, 24, 155 social policies, 60–64 socialist economies, 47, 88–95
 Benin, 88–90
 Burkina Faso, 90–91
 Congo-Brazzaville, 93–95
 Mali, 91–93
 sociological institutionalism, 20, 73, 74 soft controls, 47
 state interventionism, 46 states colonial, 52
 Keynesian consensus, 53–54 metropolitan, 52
 return of, 166–168
 withdrawal of, 163–165
 Stewart, F., 64
 Strang, D., 25
 strategic adjustment, 141
 Structural Adjustment Credits, 66 structural adjustment programs (SAPs). See also Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers adaptation of, 10–12, 60–64, 170–171 diffusion of, 29
 emergence of, 52, 55, 170
 evaluation of, 61
 fundamentals of, 58–60
 impact on childhood protection, 63 intentional intrusion by, 111–114 international financial institutions and, 62 learning and adaptation of, 29–30 learning-adaptation and, 157 long-term development and, 64
 origin of, 58–60
 social and economic impacts of, 63–64
 sub-Saharan Africa colonial administration in, 78 extroverted model of economic development in, 56
 GDP, 56
 geography, 78
 substitution, 56–57
 superposition, 110
 syndrome-free countries, 46
- Taiwan, 57
 Tanzania, 46
 Taylor, I., 104, 106
 temporal factor, 49–51
 Thatcher, Margaret, 56, 155
 Thelen, Kathleen, 141
 Third Worldism, 76, 77
 Tilly, C., 58
 Togo, 101–102
 agricultural sector, 101
 colonial legacy in, 52
 debt relief for, 117
 Fourth Plan for Economic and Social Development, 101
 independence in 1960, 101
 institutional intrusion in, 154
 national and international actors in, 114
 neocolonial model of growth in, 9
 per capita GDP, 47
 PRSPs in, 15, 134–135
 SAPs in, 11, 102
 state-run companies, 102
 state's role in economic development, 163
 Toye, J., 10, 57, 58
 trade liberalization, 59 training centers, lack of, 78
 transportation, 86
 Traoré, Moussa, 126

- United Nations Children's Funds (UNICEF)
 - approach to protect most vulnerable groups, 65
 - impact of adjustment on childhood protection, 63
 - innovations, 12
 - poverty question and, 158
 - SAPs and, 65
- United Nations Development Program (UNDP)
 - impact of adjustment, 62
 - innovations, 12
 - policy adjustments, 14
 - poverty reduction policies, 65, 158
- United Nations Economic Commission for Africa, 86
- United Nations General Assembly
 - poverty reduction policies, 160
 - Resolution 3201, 76
- United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO), 80, 84
- uranium companies, 100
- van de Walle, N., xvii–xviii, 12, 19, 62–63, 74, 107, 111, 112, 113
- Venezuela, 57
- Wade, Abdoulaye, 68, 137, 160
- Washington Consensus, 58, 75, 153
 - conditionalities of, 59
 - expansion of adjustments, 57
- Wendt, A., 109–110, 140
- West Africa, 83
- Western Europe, 56
- window of opportunity, 23
- World Bank, 10–12, 13. See also international financial institutions
 - on agricultural growth, 80–81
 - Attacking Poverty* report, 15
 - Berg Report, 75
 - Can Africa Claim the 21st Century?* report, 103
 - expansion of adjustments, 57
 - impacts of adjustment, 62
 - innovations, 36
 - on internal causes of African economic performance, 77–79
 - macroeconomic policies, 62
 - need for adjustment in Africa, 60
 - NEPAD and, 145–146
 - poverty reduction policies, 65
 - purposes of, 118
 - recommendations on, 80–88
 - agriculture, 80–81
 - communications, 86
 - education, 80–81
 - human resources, 81–83
 - industry, 83–86
 - natural resources, 83–86
 - transportation, 86
 - Washington Consensus and, 58
 - World Development Report*, 156, 158
- Young, C., 52
- Zaire (Congo-Kinshasa), 78, 87
- Zambia
 - industrial sector, 83
 - nationalist policy in, 46
- Zimbabwe, 83