

INDEX

- accumulation by dispossession, 174
- Ackerman, Bruce, 403
- act-types, collective action and, 51
- Agreement on Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures (SPS), 42
- Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade (TBT), 119, 121
- a-legality, 195–199
 - in boundary-setting, 307–310
- all-affected principle, 266, 273–278, 384–388
- all-subjected principle, 266–267, 276–277
- alter-globalisations, 176–178
 - anti-globalisation movements and, 163
 - autonomy in, 179
 - collective self-assertion and, 323–324
 - collective unity, 186
 - conflicts between legal orders and, 415
 - contingencies and, 224–227
 - IACA model of law and, 226–227
 - democracy in, 178–181
 - market, 179
 - representative, 179–180, 188
 - giving in, 179
 - global commons and, 199–207
 - enclosing of, 202–207
 - law for humanity in, 200–202
 - human rights law and, 207–224
 - deontological account of legal orders, 209
 - directed obligations in, 208
 - e pluribus unum*, 216–218
 - the good in, 208–210
 - as movement, 210–212
 - pluralism and, 216–218
 - the right in, 208–210
 - subaltern critiques of, 213–216
 - teleological account of legal orders, 209
 - IACA model of law
 - contingencies and, 226–227
 - multitudes in, 196–197
 - immanence in, 179
 - inclusion in, 179
 - multitudes in, 164, 186–199
 - A-legality and, 195–199
 - collective autonomy thesis, 189–190
 - IACA model of law and, 196–197
 - intransitive power of, 193–195
 - as network, 189–193
 - potentia* and, 195–199
 - subjectivity thesis, 190
 - transitive power of, 193–195
 - participation in, 181–185
 - pluralisation in, 185–186, 195–196
 - pluralism in, 179
 - ‘power-to’ in, 179
 - putative unity in, 185–186
 - representation in, 178–181
 - participation as, 181–185
 - resistance and, 232
 - unification in, 185–186
 - WSF and, 181–185

Anderson, Benedict, 57–58

anti-globalisation movements, 122–123

 - alter-globalisations and, 163
 - collective self-assertion and, 323–324
 - counter-globalisations and, 163

- AOP movement. See Assembly of the Poor movement
 Arendt, Hannah, 31–32
 Assembly of the Poor (AOP) movement, 166–167
 asymmetrical recognition
 authority and, 338, 345–346
 boundary-setting in, 288–310
 retaking of, 288–291 collective recognition and, 327
 restrained collective self-assertion, 287
 scope of, 287
 Augenstein, Daniel, 218–219, 352–353 authoritatively-mediated collective action, 54–56 commitments in, 57–58
 impersonal authority relations in, 59
 institutionalisation of, 56–60 authority, 327–347. See also power asymmetrical recognition and, 338, 345–346 circumspection and, 332 collective identity and, 336–338
 collective self-assertion and, 333–340 collective self-recognition and, 341 collective self-restraint and, 340–347
 boundaries of behaviours and, 343–344
 deferrals of, 342–343 indirect recognition and, 342
 limitations of, 345
 suspension of joint action and, 344 functional concept of, 59–60 globalisation and, 15–17
 evolution of, 16
 IACA model of law and, 1–2
 impersonal relationships, 59 leadership and, 334–340
 mandar obedeciendo and, 328–331 obedience and, 329–334 service compared to, 331
 paradox of, 330
 particularism and, 335–336 representation and, 339–340 universalism and, 335–336 autonomy
 in alter-globalisations, 179
 collective autonomy thesis, 189–190
 collective recognition and, 315–316
 autopoiesis, 416
 Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS), 85, 99–100, 104–105, 142–143, 239
 boundary-setting and, 289–290, 301 decision-making by, 377
 GHOS, 100
 Bedorf, Thomas, 320–321
 Benhabib, Seyla, 250
 Berman, Harold, 33
 Berman, Paul Schiff, 28, 236, 247–252.
 See also recognition
 Black, Julie, 88
 Bloch, Ernst, 223
 Blumenberg, Hans, 4 borders, 25–28 legal scholarship and, 36
 Borges, Jorge Luis, 111 boundary-setting in asymmetrical recognition, 288–310
 retaking of, 288–291
 BCBS and, 289–290, 301
 CCC and, 289
 collective self-assertion and, 302–303 disorder and, 295–296 hybrid, 308
 IASB and, 289 illegality and, 295–296
 KRRS and, 290–291, 297
 of legal recognition, 283–285 as orderable, 298–300 politics of, 304–310 a-legality in, 307–310
 commonality in, 304–306
 legal universalism and, 310
 power in, 306–307 questionability of, 294–298 derivative, 296 primary, 296 representation and
 nomos of earth and, 293–294
 paradox of, 291–294, 310
 responsiveness of, 294–298
 UNIDROIT Principles and, 289

- boundary-setting (cont.)
 - as unorderable, 298–300
 - by WTO, 295, 297–298
- Boutros-Ghali, Boutros, 207
- Bratman, Michael, 57, 59
- Buergethal, Thomas, 211–212, 215
- capitalism
 - giving, 171–172
 - global, 63
 - imperialism and, 175–176
 - taking, 171–172
- Carbonnier, Jean, 237
- Carens, Joseph, 277
- cascade of rights, 271
- Castells, Manuel, 70
- CCC. See Clean Clothes Campaign (CCC)
- Chamberlain, Joseph, 172
- Change the world without taking power* (Holloway), 177–186. See also alter-globalisations
- Chevallier, Jacques, 44
- Chimni, Bhupinder, 173–174
- chronotopes, 70
- circumspection, authority and, 332
- Clean Clothes Campaign (CCC), 85, 101–102, 126, 143–144, 239
 - boundary-setting and, 289
 - decision-making by, 289
- closed networks, 91–92
- CMI. See Comité Maritime International
- Codex Alimentarius, 119, 142–143
 - decision-making and, 289
- cognition. See self-cognition
- coherence. See functional coherence; point-default setting coherence
- collective action, 47, 49–53. See also institutionalised and authoritatively mediated collective action model of law; legal collective
 - act-types and, 51
 - articulation of, 54
 - authoritatively-mediated, 54–56
 - commitments in, 57–58
 - impersonal authority relations in, 59
 - institutionalisation of, 56–60
 - background of, 52
 - contextual character of, 52
 - directed obligations, 49–50
 - exclusion and, 51–52
 - hybrid rationality of, 121–123
 - in IACA model of law, 81, 93
 - impersonal authority relations in, 59
 - inclusion and, 51–52
 - marketisation of, 81
 - monitoring of, 54
 - nesting and, 50–51
 - pluralisation in, 112
 - purpose of, 50
 - putative unity in, 112
 - regulation of, 56
 - relational obligations, 49–50
 - requirements of, 58
 - in social theory, 53
 - space in, 51
 - subjectivity in, 51
 - time in, 51
 - transformability in, 52
 - unification in, 112
 - upholding of, 54
- collective autonomy thesis, 189–190
- collective identity, 336–338
- collective recognition, 310–327
 - asymmetric recognition and, 327
 - indicators in, 315
 - legal universalism and, 318–320
 - limitations of, 318–320
 - moral autonomy and, 315–316
 - phronesis* and, 315
 - principal forms of, 314–315
 - representation and, paradox of, 320–325
 - self-cognition and, 311–318
 - self-misrecognition and, 320–325
 - self-recognition, 311–318
- collective self-assertion, 302–303, 314
 - alter-globalisation movements, 323–324
 - anti-globalisation movements, 323–324
 - authority and, 333–340
 - legal universalism and, 326–327

- margin of appreciation doctrine and,
 - 351–352, 354, 356
- restrained, 326–327
- collective self-identification, 234
- collective self-recognition, 341
- collective self-restraint,
 - 340–347
- boundaries of behaviours and,
 - 343–344
- deferrals of, 342–343
- GAL and, 383, 384
- indirect recognition and, 342
- limitations of, 345
- suspension of joint action and, 344
- collective unity, 186
 - legal recognition and, 232
- colonialism, imperialism and, 173,
 - 175–176
- Comité Maritime International (CMI), 128
- commercial arbitrators, international,
 - 128–129, 131, 132
- commercial law, unification of,
 - 135–136
- commitments, in authoritatively-mediated collective action,
 - 57–58
- community in anonymity, 57–58
- complementarity principle, 366–375
 - Rome Statute and, 367–368,
 - 369–370, 371–375
- conceptualisation, politics of, 5–6
- concrete legal orders, 411–412
- conflicts, between legal orders, 349–376.
 - See also* constituent power
- alter-globalisation movements and, 415
- complementarity principle and,
 - 366–375
- Rome Statute and, 367–375
- constitutionalism as factor in,
 - 417–421
- in Germany, 395–397, 401–408
- legal, 417–418
- liberal, 394
- political, 417–418, 420–421
- under GAL, 376–391
 - all-affected principle and, 384–388
 - collective self-restraint and,
 - 383–384
 - equal and unequal regard under,
 - 388–391
 - in IACA model of law,
 - 378–379, 382
 - purpose and function of, 376–377
 - struggles for recognition under,
 - 377–384
- IACA model of law
 - constituent power and, 407
 - GAL and, 378–379, 382
 - national constitutions and, 394–395
- interface rules in, 349–350
- in international criminal law,
 - 366–375
- in limited autonomy regimes,
 - 357–361
- managed transnational mutual recognition, 361–366
- MRAs, 362–366
- safe harbour agreements, 364
- under margin of appreciation doctrine, 350–356
 - coercion mechanisms, 356–357
 - collective self-assertion, 351–352,
 - 354, 356
- national constitutions as factor in,
 - 392–397
- constituent power and, 398–417
- dualist conception of, 403
- extension of, 415–416
- in IACA model of law, 394–395
- normativity and, 404–405
- beyond state boundaries, 408–417
- constituent power, 395–397
 - expansion of, 414–415
 - extension of, 415–416
- IACA model of law and, 407
- national constitutions and, 398–417
- paradox of, 401–408, 410–411
- as political independence, 412
- beyond state boundaries, 408–417
- constitutionalism, 417–421
 - in Germany, 395–397, 401–408
 - legal, 406, 417–418
 - liberal, 394, 406
 - political, 417–418, 420–421

- constitutions, national, 392–397
 - constituent power and, 398–417
 - dualist conception of, 403
 - extension of, 415–416
 - in IACA model of law, 394–395
 - normativity and, 404–405
 - beyond state boundaries, 408–417
- constructive interaction
 - coordination in, 237
 - harmonisation in, 238
 - internormativity and, 237
 - unification in, 237–238
- contingency
 - alter-globalisations and, 224–227
 - IACA model of law and, 226–227
 - legal orders and, 3–4
- continuity
 - in IACA model of law, 74–75
 - pragmatic legal orders and, between state law and, 158
- cosmopolitan globalisation, 17, 23
 - through denationalisation, 17
- cosmopolitan law, 220–221, 225–226
- cosmopolitan pluralism, 241–243, 250
- cosmopolitanism, 241
- The Course of Recognition* (Ricoeur), 274
- Cutler, Claire, 78–79
- cyber law, 145–156
 - codes in, 145–146
 - cyberspace and, 151
 - access to, as human right, 155–156
- eBay under, 149–150, 152–156
- IACA model of law and, 153
- ICANN, 147
- information technologies under, 148–149
- limited territoriality, 145
- norms in, 145–146
- ODR mechanisms, 147
- offline behaviour under, 151
- online behaviour under, 151
- PayPal and, 149, 155–156, 158–159, 169, 205
- territorialisation of data under, 153
- cyber-activism, 156
 - hacktivism, 159
- cyberspace, 151
 - access to, as human right, 155–156
- De Certeau, Michel, 34
- deferrals, 245
- Delmas-Marty, Mireille, 44, 236–241, 244, 247–252. See also recognition
 - on constructive interaction, 237–241
 - on cosmopolitan pluralism, 241–243
 - legal recognition theory and, 243–246
 - on margin of appreciation, 239–241
- delocalised law, 15
- democracy
 - in alter-globalisations, 178–181
 - market, 179
 - representative, 179–180, 188
 - participative, 109–110, 179
 - representative, 109–110
 - in alter-globalisations, 179–180, 188
 - strong, 109–110
 - weak, 109–110
- democratic identity, 275
- denationalisation, 17
- deontological account of legal orders, 209
- Desai, Ashwin, 168–169
- de-territorialisation of law, 14, 21
- de-territorialisation thesis, 29–31
- differentiation process, for legal collective, 111
- directed obligations, 49–50, 208
- discontinuity
 - in IACA model of law, 74–75
 - pragmatic legal orders and, between state law and, 158
- distancing, 83
- Dunoff, Jeffrey, 243
- Dussel, Enrique, 197
- Dworkin, Ronald, 115
- e pluribus unum*, 216–218
- eBay, 149–150, 152–156
- ECtHR. See European Convention of Human Rights
- economic globalisation, 44

- ECtHR. See European Court of Human Rights
- Eisenberg, Avigail, 359
- Elden, Stuart, 18–19
- emergent global legal orders, 165–177
- AOP movement, 166–167
 - cultivating in, 169–176
 - in IACA model of law, 75–76
 - imperialism and, 176
 - MST, 166
 - retaking in, 165–177
 - RTS movement, 166
 - Save Narmada Movement, 166–167
 - taking in, 165–177
 - TWAIL, 174
- Empire, 175–176. See also imperialism
- emplaced rights, 29
- Eslava, Luis, 168
- European Convention of Human Rights (ECHR), 238–239, 350–356
- European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR), 238, 349–356. See also margin of appreciation doctrine
- safe harbour agreements, 364
- exclusion
- collective action and, 51–52
 - globalisation of, 39–42
 - from legal recognition, 234, 257
 - from rights, under global law, 1
 - spatial, 26–27
 - unification as, 135–137
- Expulsions* (Sassen), 170
- extraterritorial jurisdiction, 12–14. See also legal spatiality
- Fault Lines of Globalization* (Tuori), 61, 300
- FIDIC. See International Federation of Consulting Engineers
- Financial Crimes Enforcement Network, 85
- Forest Stewardship Council (FSC), 78, 85
- formulating agencies, 127–128. See also specific agencies
- fragmentation, in IACA model of law, 74–76
- continuity in, 74–75
 - through disassembling of state, 74
 - discontinuity in, 74–75
 - emergent global legal orders, 75–76
 - of regulation, 76
- framing, 264–265
- Fraser, Nancy, 264–267, 386
- on all-affected principle, 266
 - on all-subjected principle, 266–267, 276–277
- FSC. See Forest Stewardship Council
- functional coherence, in legal systems, 124–137
- through formulating agencies, 127–128
 - global regulators, 125, 127–128
 - through global unification, 127
 - through international commercial arbitrators, 128–129, 131–132
 - private self-regulation and, 134–135
 - regulatory unity in, 124
 - in state law, 125–126
- GAL. See global administrative law
- García Duttman, Alexander, 323–324
- genetically-modified organisms (GMOs), trade of, 295
- Germany, constitutionalism in, 395–397, 401–408
- GHOS. See Group of Governors and Heads of Supervision
- Gilbert, Margaret, 48. See also collective action
- giving capitalism, 171–172
- Glenn, H. Patrick, 251
- global, as concept. See global law;
- global markets; globalisation
- global administrative law (GAL), 376–391
- all-affected principle and, 384–388
 - collective self-restraint and, 383–384
 - equal and unequal regard under, 388–391
 - in IACA model of law, 378–379, 382
 - purpose and function of, 376–377
 - struggles for recognition under, 377–384
- global capitalism, 63

- global commons, 199–207
 - enclosing of, 202–207
 - law for humanity in, 200–202
- global human rights, 220–224
- global law
 - exclusion from rights under, 1
 - globality of, 62–73
 - KRRS and, 72–73
 - legal spaces and, 62–65
 - pragmatic legal orders, 60–61, 65–71
 - WTO and, 72–73
 - IACA model of law and, 77
 - inclusion in rights under, 1
 - insights on, 62–65
 - law of, 7–8
 - as local law, 1, 14
 - localisation of, 17–19
 - network of places, 17–18
 - space of action in, 18–21
 - nature of, 42–45
 - privatisation in, 77
 - transnational law and, 14
- global legal orders. See also emergent
 - global legal orders
 - coordination in, 237
 - harmonisation in, 238
 - internormativity and, 237
 - unification in, 237–238
 - legal recognition of, 235–246
 - cosmopolitan pluralism, 241–243
 - legal pluralism, 236–241
 - recognition of, 235–246
- global markets
 - inside/outside and, resistance to, 22–25
 - inside/outside distinction and, resistance to, 22–25
 - WTO as, 24–25
- global network of places, 19–21, 153–154
- global regime. See regimes
- global trade law, unification of, 136–137
- Global Trade Organization (GTO), 32–33
- globalisation. See also anti-globalisation
 - movements; inside/outside
 - authority and, 15–17
 - evolution of, 16
 - cosmopolitan, 17, 23
 - through denationalisation, 17
 - economic, 44
 - of exclusion, 39–42
 - of imperialism, 6
 - of inclusion, 39–42
 - of law, 44
 - as localisation, 15–21
 - TAR and, 15–17
 - of pragmatic legal orders, 71–73
 - resistance to, 165–177
 - rights and, 15–17
 - evolution of, 16
 - sociology of, 15–17, 34–35
 - territory and, 15–17
 - evolution of, 16
 - Zapatistas' resistance to, 165–177
- globality, of global law, 62–73
 - KRRS and, 72–73
 - legal spaces and, 62–65
 - pragmatic legal orders, 60–61, 65–71
 - WTO and, 72–73
- globalized localism, 215
- globe, 32–36
- GMOs. See genetically-modified organisms
- Goldoni, Marco, 395
- the good, in human rights law, 208–210
- governance
 - defined, 87–88
 - legal orders through, 87–90
 - by NGOs, 89–90
 - by TNCs, 89–90
 - regulation and, 87–88
- Group of Governors and Heads of Supervision (GHOS), 100
- GTO. See Global Trade Organization
- Habermas, Jürgen, 110, 122, 251–255
 - on global human rights law, 220–224
- hacktivism, 159
- hard law, 69
- Hardin, Garret, 164, 202–203

- Hardt, Michael, 164
 Harlow, Carol, 384–385
 Hart, H. L. A., 49–50
 Harvey, David, 70, 83–84, 174
 Henkin, Louis, 207 heterotopia, 25 of crisis, 25 of deviation, 25 hierarchies, legal orders and, 90–93 legal systems as, 114
 Hindu culture, human rights in, 216, 280
 Holloway, John, 177–186, 225–226, 328
 Honneth, Alex, 257
 human rights
 access to cyberspace as, 155–156
 cascade of rights, 271
 cosmopolitan law and, 220–221, 225–226
 European Convention of Human Rights, 238–239
 European Court of Human Rights, 238
 global, 220–224
 globalisation and, 15–17
 evolution of, 16
 Habermas on, 220–224 in Hindu culture, 216, 280
 ICCPR, 212
 ICESCR, 212
 international, 211–224
 International Bill of Rights,
 212–213, 215
 International Declaration of Human Rights, 219
 limited commonality of, 270–271 margin of appreciation principle, 217–218
 massive abuses of, 222 as people's rights, 214–215 pluralism, 225 structure of, 215
 subsidiarity principle, 217–218
 UDHR, 44, 212, 269–271
 as universal good, 211–224 universalisation of, 218–219, 271 Western notions of, 218–219 human rights law, 207–224 deontological account of legal orders, 209
 directed obligations in, 208
 e pluribus unum, 216–218
 the good in, 208–210
 as movement, 210–212
 pluralism and, 216–218
 the right in, 208–210
 subaltern critiques of, 213–216 teleological account of legal orders, 209
 Husserl, Edmund, 36
 hybrid boundary-setting, 308 hybrid rationality, of collective action, 121–123
 hybrid regulators, 78
 IACA model of law. See institutionalised and
 authoritatively mediated
 collective action model of law
 IAIS. See International Association of Insurance Providers
 IASB. See Accounting Standards Board
 (IASB) ICANN. See Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers ICC. See International Chamber of Commerce; International Criminal Court ICCPR. See International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights ICESCR. See International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights identification process, for legal collective, 111
 identity theory, 324–325. See also collective identity
 IEC. See International Electronic Commission
 IETF. See Internet Engineering Task Force IFRSF. See International Financial Reporting Standards Foundation (IFRSF)
 Ihde, Don, 151
 illegality, 25

- IMF. See International Monetary Fund immanence, 179 imperialism capitalism and, 175–176
 colonialism as distinct from, 173, 175–176 emergent global legal orders and, 176
 globalisation of, 6
 legal transplants, 55 origins of, 175–176 inclusion
 in alter-globalisations, 179
 collective action and, 51–52
 globalisation of, 39–42
 legal recognition and, 234, 257 in rights, under global law, 1 spatial, 26–27
 unification as, 135–137
 India
 KRRS and, 24–25, 27, 39–40
 Vía Campesina and, 40
 Save Narmada Movement in, 166–167 indirect recognition, 342
 individualism. See normative individualism information technologies, cyber law for, 148–149 inner space, 29 inside/outside, distinction between, 21–32 borders and, 25–28
 legal scholarship and, 36
 conjectures for, 28–31
 de-territorialisation thesis, 29–31
 emplaced rights, 29
 state territoriality, 30–31
 territory and community, 30 global markets and, resistance to, 22–25 globe and, 32–36 limits and, 25–28
 legal scholarship and, 36
 nomos of earth and, 31–32, 40–42
 world and, 32–36
 horizontal character of, 36
 WTO and, 22–28, 32–33
 defined, 23–24
 KRRS and, 24–25, 27
 as spatial unity, 23–24 institutionalised and authoritatively mediated collective action (IACA) model of law, 1–2, 6, 47–62, 73–84. See also legal systems
 alter-globalisations and contingencies and, 226–227
 multitudes in, 196–197
 authority in, 47 collective action in, 81, 93
 compression of space and, 81–84 distancing in, 83
 compression of time and, 81–84
 distancing in, 83
 concept of law and, 47 conflicts between legal orders and constituent power and, 407
 GAL and, 378–379, 382
 national constitutions and, 394–395
 cyber law and, 153 dialectical reconstruction of, 259 emergence of, 59–60 fragmentation in, 74–76
 continuity in, 74–75
 through disassembling of state, 74
 discontinuity in, 74–75
 emergent global legal orders, 75–76
 of regulation, 76
 GAL and, 378–379, 382
 global law and, 62–65 governance in, 87–90
 by NGOs, 89–90
 by TNCs, 89–90
 hierarchies in, 90–93 jurisdiction and, 71–72
 legal collective and, 60, 98–113 differentiation process for, 111 identification process for, 111
 participation in, 109–110
 self-rule, 105
 unity of, representation in, 108–113
 “we” as author, 106–108
 “we” as legislative body, 103–106
 “we” speaker position, 99–102

- legal recognition in, 231, 265–266, 284
- legal spaces and, 64–65
- legal system and, 60
- limits of, 60
- marketisation in, 79–81
 - of collective action, 81
 - of public functions, 80–81
- markets in, 90–93
- networks in, 90–93
 - closed, 91–92
 - collective action and, 93
 - horizontality of, 91
 - as open structures, 92
- pragmatic legal orders and, 60–61, 68, 139–143
- privatisation in, 77–79
 - of global law, 77
 - hybrid regulators, 78
 - private actors as regulators, 78
 - public actors as regulators, 78
- regimes and, 93–96
 - definitions of, 94–95
 - international, 95
 - unity of, 95
- restrained collective self-assertion, 326–327
- scope of, 46
- universalist reconstruction of, 257
- ‘we’ perspective in, 47–49
- intentionality, 109
- interaction. See constructive interaction
- interface rules, 349–350
- internal transcendence, 197
- International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), 100–101, 107, 289
 - decision-making by, 377
 - standard setting by, 118
- International Association of Insurance Providers (IAIS), 104–105
- International Bill of Rights, 212–213, 215
- International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), 127–128
- international commercial arbitrators. See commercial arbitrators
- International Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), 127–128
- International Court of Justice, 13
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), 212
- International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), 212
- International Criminal Court (ICC), 366–375
- international criminal law, 366–375
- International Declaration of Human Rights, 219
- International Electronic Commission (IEC), 118
- International Federation of Consulting Engineers (FIDIC), 128, 144
- International Financial Reporting Standards Foundation (IFRSF), 100–101, 118
- international human rights, 211–224
- International Institute for the Unification of Private Law (UNIDROIT), 127–128, 129–130, 289
- International Labour Organisation, 85
- international law, recognition in, 244
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 383–384
- International Organisation for Standardisation (ISO)
 - decision-making by, 377
 - legal systems and, 116–118, 119–121
 - standard-setting by, 118
 - Statutes of, 75
- International Organization of Security Commission (IOSCO), 85, 104–105
- International Peasant’s Movement. See Vía Campesina
- international regimes, 95
- Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN), 147
- Internet Engineering Task Force (IETF), 154–155
- Internet-based networking, 193

- interpretation, concept of, 109 intransitive power, 329 of multitudes, 193–195
 IOSCO. See International Organization of Security Commission ISO. See International Organisation for Standardisation
- Johns, Fleur, 153 joint action. See also collective action collective self-restraint and, 344
 Jullien, François, 248, 252–253, 280 jurisdiction
 defined, 12
 extraterritorial, 12–14 forms of, 54–55
 IACA model of law and, 71–72 personal, 71 space and, 12. See also legal spatiality subject-matter, 71 temporal, 71 territorial, 71 universal, 12
 justice, as legal element, 124
- Karnataka State Farmers' Association (KRRS), 24–25, 27, 39–40
 globality of global law and, 72–73
 legal recognition and, 257–261, 279–280
 Vía Campesina and, 40
 Kelsen, Hans, 31 on legal spatiality, 11–12
 Pure Theory of Law and, 61
 Kennedy, Duncan, 118
 Kinley, David, 217–218
 Kojève, Alexander, 171–172
 Koselleck, Reinhart, 223
 Krasner, Stephen, 94
 Krisch, Nico, 353–355
 KRRS. See Karnataka State Farmers' Association
 Kumm, Matthias, 398
- Landless rural workers movement
 (MST), 166
 law. See also legal orders; legal systems; specific types of law certainty in, 124
 conceptualisation of, legal orders and, structural similarity of, 7 delocalised, 15 de-territorialisation of, 14, 21
 of global law, 7–8
 of globalisation, 44 globality of, 7–8
 hard, 69 justice as element of, 124 purposiveness as element of, 124 soft, 69 law for humanity, 200–202 law merchants, 85
 Le Maistre, Charles, 301–302
 Le Pen, Marine, 324
 Lefort, Claude, 107 legal certainty, 124 legal collective, 60, 98–113
 differentiation process for, 111
 identification process for, 111
 participation in, 109–110
 self-rule in, 105
 unity of, representation in, 108–113
 “we” as author, 106–108
 “we” as legislative body, 103–106
 “we” speaker position, 99–102
 legal constitutionalism, 406, 417–418 legal orders. See also alterglobalisations; conflicts, between legal orders; emergent
 global legal orders;
 institutionalised and
 authoritatively mediated
 collective action model of law;
 legal systems; pragmatic legal orders autopoiesis and, 416 conceptual development of, 3–4 generality in, 4–5 independent criterion in, 4–5 normativity in, 3 conceptualisation of law and, structural similarity between, 7 concrete, 411–412
 conjectures for, 28–31
 de-territorialisation thesis, 29–31
 emplaced rights, 29

- state territoriality, 30–31
 - territory and community, 30
- contingency and, 3–4
- deontological account of, 209
- dimensions of, 60–62
- flexibility of, 3
- through governance, 87–90
 - by NGOs, 89–90
 - by TNCs, 89–90
- through hierarchies, 90–93
- legal pluralism and, formulation of, 62–63
- through markets, 90–93
- modulations of, 84–96
- through networks, 90–93
 - horizontality of, 91
- nominalism and, 5
- regimes and, 93–96
- spatial closure of, 26
- strangeness and, 22–23
- teleological account of, 209
- unity and, 46–48
- legal pluralism, 5, 37–39
 - defence of, 64
 - formulation of, 62–63
 - legal orders and, 62–63
- legal positivism, 6
- legal recognition. See recognition
- legal scholarship, 36
- legal spaces
 - in global law, 62–64
 - globality of global law and, 62–65
- legal spatiality, 11–15
 - global network of places and, 19–21, 153–154
 - inner, 13
 - jurisdictional understanding of, 11
 - Kelsen on, 11–12
 - lived, 21
 - network of places
 - global, 19–21, 153–154
 - in localisation of global, 17–18
 - unity in, 20–21
 - outer, 13
 - space of action and, 19–21
 - state and, 12–14
 - unity in, 20–21
- legal systems, 113–137
 - CCC and, 126
 - functional coherence in, 124–137
 - through formulating agencies, 127–128
 - global regulators, 125, 127–128
 - through global unification, 127
 - through international commercial arbitrators, 128–129, 131–132
 - private self-regulation and, 134–135
 - regulatory unity in, 124
 - in state law, 125–126
 - as hierarchical structure of
 - norms, 114
 - ISO in, 116–121
 - point-default setting coherence in, 113–124
 - anti-globalisation movements, 122–123
 - hybrid rationality and, 121–123
 - policies in, 115
 - principles in, 115
- legal universalism, 282–283
 - boundary-setting and, 310
 - collective recognition and, 318–320
 - collective self-assertion and, 326–327
- legal universality, 43–44
- legality, 25. See also law
- Lessig, Lawrence, 145–146
- lex constructionis*, 137, 139, 144–145
- lex digitalis*, 85, 145–146
- lex infomatica*, 145–146
- lex mercatoria*, 128–133, 136–137, 239
 - legal recognition and, 232
- liberal constitutionalism, 394, 406
- liberal-legal constitutionalism, 406
- limited autonomy regimes, 357–361
- limits, in inside/outside distinction, 25–28
 - legal scholarship and, 36
- Lindahl, Hans, xi
- lived spatiality, 21
- local law, global law as, 1, 14
- localized globalism, 215
- Loughlin, Martin, 406
- Ludlow, Peter, 159
- Luhmann, Niklas, 3, 416

- managed transnational mutual
 - recognition, 361–366
 - MRAs, 362–366
 - safe harbour agreements, 364
- mandar obedeciendo*, 328–331
- margin of appreciation doctrine,
 - 217–218, 350–356
 - coercion mechanisms, 356–357
 - collective self-assertion, 351–352, 354, 356
 - Delmas-Marty on, 239–241
- marketisation, in IACA model of law,
 - 79–81
 - of collective action, 81
 - of public functions, 80–81
- markets, legal orders and, 90–93
- Marx, Karl, 171–172
- Matua, Makua wa, 174, 213–214
- Mbiti, John, 214
- Menard, Pierre, 111
- Menga, Ferdinando, 224–225, 300, 342–343
- Merkel, Angela, 330
- Michelman, Frank, 254
- migration flows, 277
- Miller, David, 409–410
- modest sociality, 57, 59
- Monbiot, George, 164, 203–205
- MRAs. See mutual recognition agreements
- MST. See Landless rural workers movement
- Multitude* (Negri), 190
- multitudes, in alter-globalisations, 164, 186–199
 - A-legality and, 195–199
 - collective autonomy thesis, 189–190
 - IACA model of law and, 196–197
 - intransitive power of, 193–195
 - as network, 189–193
 - potentia* and, 195–199
 - subjectivity thesis, 190
 - transitive power of, 193–195
- mutual recognition agreements (MRAs), 362–366
- Negri, Antonio, 164, 190
- nesting, 50–51
- network of places
 - global, 19–21, 153–154
 - in localisation of global, 17–18
 - unity in, 20–21
- networks
 - closed, 91–92
 - collective action and, 93
 - Financial Crimes Enforcement Network, 85
 - horizontality of, 91
 - Internet-based, 193
 - legal orders through, 90
 - multitudes as, 189–193
 - open, 92
 - as open structures, 92
 - regulatory, 192
- Neves, Marcelo, 416
- NGOs. See nongovernmental organisations
- nominalism, legal orders and, 5
- nomos* of earth, 31–32, 40–42, 164, 169–176
 - boundary-setting and, 293–294
 - legal recognition and, 233
- nongovernmental organisations (NGOs), 89–90
- non-territorial communities, 30
- normative individualism, 274–275
 - critique of, 404–405
- Notes from Nowhere*, 165–177
- Nouwen, Sarah, 370–371
- Obama, Barack, 313
- obedience, 329–334
 - service compared to, 331
- ODR mechanisms. See online dispute resolution mechanisms
- offline behaviour, 151
- One World* (Singer), 36
- online behaviour, 151
- online dispute resolution (ODR) mechanisms, 147
- open networks, 92
- Operation Payback, 155–156, 158–159
- Ostrom, Elinor, 164, 203–206
- other-differentiation, 234
- outside. See inside/outside
- ownership, as reflexive sense, 23

- Panikkar, Raimon, 215–216 participative democracy, 109–110, 179
 particularism, 335–336
 PayPal, 149, 155–156, 158–159, 169, 205 people's rights, 214–215
 Perry, John, 34 personal jurisdiction, 71 phronesis, 315
 pluralisation, in collective action, 112 pluralism, 36–45. See also legal pluralism cosmopolitan, 241–243, 250
 human rights and, 225
 point-default setting coherence, in legal systems, 113–124 anti-globalisation movements, 122–123
 hybrid rationality and, 121–123 political constitutionalism, 417–418, 420–421 politics of boundary-setting, 304–310
 a-legality in, 307–310
 commonality in, 304–306
 legal universalism and, 310
 conceptual innovation of, 332 of contract technicality, 118 positivism. See legal positivism
potentia (power of the multitude), 195–199 Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper (PRSP), 383–384
 Powell, Walter, 90–93 power
 defined, 328
 intransitive, 329
 potentia, 195–199
 representational, 328
 transitive structure of, 328 power of the multitude. See potentia pragmatic legal orders, 60–61, 65–71, 137–162. See also cyber law
 CCC and, 143–144
 Codex Alimentarius and, 142–143 concrete legal orders compared to, 411–412 continuity between state law and, 158 dependency between, 160 discontinuity between state law and, 158 global topography of, 141–145
 globalisation of, 71–73
 IACA model of law and, 60–61, 68, 139–143
 jurisdictional dimensions of, 137–138
 lex constructionis, 137, 139, 144–145
 limits of, 156–162
 narratives for, 68–69 nomadic collectives, 138–139 sedentary collectives, 138–139 self-rule and, 157 pragmatic unity, 48 private law
 politics of contract technicality, 118
 UNIDROIT and, 127–130 private self-regulation, 134–135 privatisation, in IACA model of law, 77–79
 of global law, 77
 hybrid regulators, 78
 private actors as regulators, 78
 public actors as regulators, 78
 PRSP. See Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper public functions, in IACA model of law, 80–81 Pure Theory of Law, 61
 purposiveness, as legal element, 124

 Radbruch, Gustav, 124 rationality. See hybrid rationality ratione loci, 137
ratione materiae, 137 ratione personae, 137
ratione temporis, 137 reception theory, 111 reciprocal recognition, 246–285
 the common in, 250–252
 in doctrinal contributions, 246 double asymmetry in, 278–282, 283–284 the good and, 267–272
 human rights and, 267–272
 misrecognition and, 253–255 uniformity in, 247–252
 universality in, 247–253

- Reclaim the Streets (RTS)
 movement, 166
- recognition, legal, 230–235. See also asymmetrical recognition;
 collective recognition;
 reciprocal recognition
- boundaries of, 283–285
- of collective self-identification, 234
- collective unity and, 232
- constructive interaction and, 237–241
- doctrinal contributions to, 243–246
- in classical international law, 244
- deferrals in, 245
- reciprocity in, 246
- exclusion from, 234, 257
- framing and, 264–265
- under GAL, 377–384
- of global legal orders, 235–246
- cosmopolitan pluralism, 241–243
- legal pluralism, 236–241
- in IACA model of law, 231, 265–266, 284
- inclusion and, 234, 257
- indirect, 342
- KRRS and, 257–261, 279–280
- lex mercatoria* and, 232
- managed transnational mutual
 recognition, 361–366
- MRAs, 362–366
- safe harbour agreements, 364
- massively shared agency and, 231–232
- nomos* of earth and, 233
- of other-differentiation, 234
- scales of, 263–267
- structural approach to, 230–231
- transformability of, 257
- universalism in, 263–267
- all-affected principle, 266, 273–278
- all-subjected principle, 266–267, 276–277
- democratic identity and, 275
- legal, 282–283
- normative individualism, 274–275
- in reciprocal recognition, 247–253
- WTO and, 257–261, 279–280
- regimes, 93–96
- definitions of, 94–95
- international, 95
- limited autonomy, 357–361
- unity of, 95
- regulation
- defined, 88–89
- governance and, 87–88
- hybrid, 78
- in IACA model of law, 76
- by private actors, 78
- by public actors, 78
- self-regulation, 89
- regulatory networks, 192
- regulatory unity, 124
- Reidenberg, Joel, 145
- relational obligations, 49–50
- representation
- in alter-globalisations, 178–181
- participation as, 181–185
- authority and, 339–340
- boundary-setting and nomos of earth and, 293–294
- paradox of representation, 291–294, 310
- collective recognition and, 320–325
- in legal collective, unity of, 108–113
- Schmitt on, 292
- representational power, 328
- representative democracy, 109–110
- in alter-globalisations, 179–180, 188
- resistance
- alter-globalisations and, 232
- to global markets, 22–25
- to globalisation, 165–177
- restrained collective self-assertion, 326–327
- Ricœur, Paul, 68, 274
- identity theory for, 324–325
- on self-cognition, 311–318
- on self-misrecognition, 320–325
- on self-recognition, 311–318
- collective self-assertion and, 314
- the right, in human rights law, 208–210
- rights. See human rights

- Rome Statute, 367–375
 RTS movement. See Reclaim the Streets movement safe harbour agreements, 364
 Said, Edward, 173
 Santos, Boaventura de Sousa, 164, 200–202, 225–226
The Savage Anomaly (Negri), 190
 Save Narmada Movement, 166–167
Scales of Justice (Fraser), 264–265 scales of recognition, 263–267
 Schmitt, Carl, 5, 31, 169–170, 292, 344, 361. See also nomos of earth
 critique of normativism, 404–405
 Schultz, Thomas, 147
 Scott, Colin, 88–89, 95 self-assertion. See collective self-assertion self-cognition, 311–318 self-misrecognition, 320–325 self-recognition, 311–318
 collective, 341
 self-regulation, 89
 private, 134–135
 self-rule in legal collectives, 105
 pragmatic legal orders and, 157
 Sempasa, Sampson, 136 service, obedience compared to, 331 Shapiro, Martin, 33
 Shapiro, Scott, 57
 Simmel, Georg, 83
 Singer, Peter, 36, 274
 singularity, 197
 Skinner, Quentin, 5 social contract theory, 110
 collective action in, 53 society, as self-ordering, 4 sociology of globalisation, 15–17, 34–35 soft law, 69 sovereignty, as boundary concept, 361 space in collective action, 51
 compression of, in IACA model of law, 81–84
 distancing in, 83
 legal, globality of global law and, 62–65 legal, in global law, 62–64
 IACA model of law and, 64–65
 space of action cartography in, 19
 legal spatiality and, 19–21
 SPS. See Agreement on Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures state disassembling of, 74
 legal spatiality and, 12–14 territory as extension of power, 18–19 Weber's definition of, 13 state law, functional coherence in, 125–126 state territoriality, 30–31 strong democracy, 109–110
 subjectivity thesis, 190
 subject-matter jurisdiction, 71
 subsidiarity principle, 217–218 taking capitalism, 171–172
 TAR. See authority; human rights; territory
 TBT. See Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade
 teleological account of legal orders, 209 temporal jurisdiction, 71 temporality, 223 territorial jurisdiction, 71 territorialisation of data, 153 territoriality, 241 territory community and, 30 as extension of state power, 18–19
 globalisation and, 15–17
 Teubner, Gunther, 77, 91
 Third World Approach to International Law (TWAIL), 174
Thomas v. Norris, 359–361 time, compression of, in IACA model of law, 81–84
 distancing in, 83
Time and Narrative (Ricoeur), 68
 TNCs. See transnational corporations

- trade law. See global trade law
 “The Tragedy of the Commons” (Hardin), 202–203
 transitive power of multitudes, 193–195
 structure of, 328
 transnational corporations (TNCs), 89–90
 transnational law, global law and, 14 Treaty on Principles Governing the Activities of States in the Exploration and Use of Outer Space, including the Moon and Other Celestial Bodies, 13
 Trump, Donald, 313–314
 Tully, James, 359
 Tuori, Kaarlo, 61, 300
 TWAIL. See Third World Approach to International Law
 Twining, William, 6, 50 formulation of legal pluralism, 62–63
- UDHR. See Universal Declaration of Human Rights
 Uganda, ICC and, 371–373
 UNCITRAL. See International Commission on International Trade Law understanding, concept of, 109
 UNIDROIT. See International Institute for the Unification of Private Law
 unity, unification and
 in alter-globalisations, 185–186
 collective, 186
 legal recognition and, 232
 in collective action, 112 of commercial law, 135–136 as exclusion, 135–137 of global trade law, 136–137
 as inclusion, 135–137 of legal collective, representation in, 108–113
 legal order and, 46–48 pragmatic, 48 of regimes, 95
 regulatory, 124
- unification and, 36–45 of network of places, 20–21 Universal Declaration of Human Rights
 (UDHR), 44, 212, 269–271 universal jurisdiction, 12 universalism, 241
 authority and, 335–336
 IACA model of law and, 257
 legal, 282–283
 boundary-setting and, 310
 collective recognition and, 318–320 collective self-assertion and, 326–327
 in legal recognition, 263–267
 all-affected principle, 266, 273–278
 all-subjected principle, 266–267, 276–277
 democratic identity and, 275
 legal universalism, 282–283
 normative individualism, 274–275
 in reciprocal recognition, 247–253
- Valverde, Mariana, 70 van Roermund, Bert, 98, 293 Vía Campesina (International Peasant’s Movement), 40
 Virilio, Paul, 70
 Virno, Paolo, 189
- Waldenfels, Bernhard, 110
 Waldron, Jeremy, 250, 346
 Walker, Neil, 76, 391
 WB. See World Bank
 “we”
 as author, 106–108, 157, 265, 378–379
 as legislative body, 103–106 speaker position, 98–102, 378–379 at stake, 98, 103–106, 129–130, 133–134, 157, 161, 265,
 288–289, 301–302,
 378–379, 411
We are everywhere: the irresistible rise of global anti-capitalism, 165–177
 weak democracy, 109–110

INDEX

463

- Weber, Max, on statehood, definition of, 13
- Wehrle, Maren, 405
- Westergaard, Kurt, 156
- Wikileaks, 156
- Wilkinson, Michael, 395
- world, inside/outside distinction and, 32–36
horizontal character of, 36
- World Bank (WB), 383–384
- world law, 33. See also global law
- World Social Forum (WSF), 181–185, 233
- World Trade Organization
(WTO), 85 boundary-setting by, 295, 297–298 development of, 68
as global market, 24, 25
globality of global law and, 72–73
GMOs and, trade of, 295 inside/outside distinction and, 22–28, 32–33
defined, 23–24
KRRS and, 24–25, 27, 39–40, 42–43
as spatial unity, 23–24
legal recognition and, 257–261, 279–280
SPS of, 42
TBT and, 119, 121
- WSF. See World Social Forum
- WTO. See World Trade Organization
- Young, Iris Marion, 250, 278
- Young, Margaret, 95
- Zapatistas political principles of, 194–195 resistance to globalisation by, 165–177