

Contents

Preface	page ix
1 Revolution Retold: What a Gender Lens Tells Us about the Cuban Insurrection	1
2 “How Can Men Tire When Women Are Tireless?”: Women Rebels before Moncada	23
3 A Movement Is Born: Military Defeat and Political Victory at Moncada	46
4 Abeyance and Resurgence: Sustaining Rebellion in Prison and Exile	65
5 Gendered Rebels: Barriers and Privileges	88
6 War Stories Celebrated and Silenced: Tactical Femininity, Bombing, and Sexual Assault in the Urban Underground	114
7 “Stop the Murders of Our Children”: Mothers and the Battle for Hearts and Minds	144
8 Masculinity and the Guerrilla War of Ideas	165
9 Women Noncombatants: Multiple Paths and Contributions	189
10 Las Marianas: Even the Women in Arms	210
11 Past Is Prologue: Victory and Consolidation	235
Bibliography	247
Index	267