

Index

- Aboriginal people, religious practices
 - of, 31n.12
- abortion
 - compromise over, 7
 - internal conflict of religious liberty and, 271–73
 - Irish Constitution and, 32
 - neutrality concerning, 80–83
 - true other-regarding practices and, 282–85
- accommodation
 - court denial of, 226–28
 - distress or religious offense at others' acts and, 253, 256–58
 - in employment situations, 183–87
 - feigning of religious beliefs to obtain, 84–85, 169–73
 - harm to individuals and, 219–30
 - neutrality and, 80–83
 - religious freedom and principle of, 71
 - secular state and, 84–85
 - tort theory and cost of, 211–12
- Act of Settlement, 48n.71
- administrative efficiency rationale
 - religious-based objections to taxes and, 178–79
 - state intervention in religious practice based on, 166–79
- affirmative religious duty, internal conflict of
 - religious freedom and, 271–73
- Ahmed, Dawood, 22–23
- al-amira (Islamic clothing), 172–78
- alienation
 - absolute precedence of belief and practice and, 104–7
 - religious freedom and minimization of, 72–73
- Amish communities
 - religious freedom protections for, 67–68, 72–73, 147–48
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 190–91, 197–98
- animus, state intervention in religious practices and, 169–73, 171n.146, 306n.197
- apostasy, freedom of religious belief and, 55–57
- Appleby, Scott, 92
- Arab Charter on Human Rights (Arab Charter), 20–23, 41–42
 - definitions of religion in, 126–27
 - freedom of religious belief and, 55–60
 - freedom of religious practice and, 65–66
- Arab League, 20–22
- assisted suicide
 - by non-religious persons, 158–59
 - religious freedom and, 153–54n.59
 - state interventions in, 163–66
- atheism
 - British protections for, 298–99n.162
 - definitions of religion and, 125, 133–35
 - freedom of religious belief and, 59–60
- Augustine (Saint), 246–48
- authoritarianism, balancing demands in the
 - original position and, 113–17
- autonomy
 - discouraging price for permitted acts and, 209–12
 - harm to, protections against, 149–53
 - imposition of monetary damages as violation of, 208–9
 - religious freedom and, 73–75
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 190–91, 196, 197–98

- Bailey, Tom, 9
 balancing of religious rights demands in the original position and, 113–17 fairness and objectivity in, 87–88 methodology of, 10–15 behavior, separation of religious belief from,
 89–90, 98–104
 Bentham, Jeremy, 97n.15
 “best interest” (welfare) test, self-regarding practices involving children and, 193–94, 198–200
 Blackmun, Harry (Justice), 288–89, 293–96 blasphemy laws
 free speech and, 296–308
 in Ireland, 132–33
 Irish non-discrimination cases and, 53 speech protections and, 241–43
 in United Kingdom, 47–48
 U.S. non-discrimination rulings and, 45
 Boyle, Joseph, 76–79
 Bradney, Anthony, 33, 59n.141, 187n.242, 296
 Brennan (Justice), 148–49, 169, 230–35
 British Airways, religious clothing restrictions of, 177–78
 British Bill of Rights (proposed), 320
 British court system animus in rulings by, 306n.197 non-discrimination claims and, 47 self-regarding practices involving children and, 194–95, 198–200
 Bruce, Steve, 92–93
 Buddhas of Bamiyan, Taliban destruction of,
 235–38
 Burial Laws Amendment Act 1880, 48n.70
 Cairo Declaration on Human Rights in Islam
 (Cairo Declaration), 20–22
 definitions of religion in, 126–27
 freedom of religious belief and, 55–57
 freedom of religious practice and, 65–66 captive audiences, speech and, 293–96
 Carter, Stephen, 43, 180–82, 250–51
 Catholic Church
 British anti-discrimination laws and,
 47–48, 49
 harm to autonomy claims involving, 149–53
 Irish Constitution and, 30–33
 Irish non-discrimination cases and, 50–54
 religious clothing in, 172–78 self-mortification rituals in, 157n.77 self-regarding practices in, 194–95 causation quantification and imposition of damages and, 214–19
 speech and, 238–43
 chador (Islamic garment), 172–78
 Charities Act 1993 (U.K.), 130n.212, 130–32
Charlie Hebdo magazine, 301–3
 Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union (EU Charter), 18–23,
 39–42
 Charter of the United Nations (U.N. Charter), 18–23, 39–42
 children
 self-regarding practices involving, 190–200 true other-regarding practices involving,
 279–81
 Children’s Act 1989 (U. K.), 193–95 choice equal protection concerns about religious practices and, 213–14 imposition of, in self-regarding practices cases, 180–87
 self-regarding practices involving children
 and, 196
 separation of belief and behavior
 and, 89–90
 “chosen common way principle,” imposition of monetary damages and, 208–9 Christianity dominance in Ireland of, 32–33 dominance in U.S. of, 27 freedom of religious belief and, 54n.105 range of religious practices in, 112n.107 United States law and, 25n.114 chthonic religious beliefs
 self-regarding practices and, 231–33 unique items claims and, 236n.175
 Church of England, state protections for, 45–50
 Church of Scientology, 50n.85, 130, 149–53 circumcision, as self-regarding practice involving children, 197–98 civil law homosexuality and restrictions in, 291–92
 intermediary state and, 30
 religious freedom and, 13–14, 24–27 true other-regarding practices and liability in, 279–81 civil peace
 blasphemy as threat to, 298–99

- imposition of monetary damages as violation of, 208–9
- prohibitions against religious clothing and, 173–77
- religious freedom and promotion of, 70–72
- Civil Rights Act of 1964, religious discrimination and, 148–49, 219n.79
- civil society, balancing demands in the original position in, 113–17
- Clark, Morris, 215–16
- clear and present danger test, free speech and, 240–41
- coercion in religious belief and practice
 - economic coercion, 180–87, 207–13
 - false other-regarding practices and, 246–48, 254, 258–62
 - individual targets, 279–81
 - internal conflict of religious freedom and, 271–73
 - speech and captive audiences, 293–96
- collective responsibility, equal protection concerns about religious practices and, 213–14
- colonialism
 - discounted damages based on, 234–35
 - history of religious freedom and, 22–23
- commercial interests, tort theory of religious practice and, 228–30
- Commission on Human Rights (U.N.), 18–23
- common core (common ground) approach, religiously oriented original position and, 94n.1, 115–16
- common law
 - atheism and, 59–60
 - religious freedom and, 24–27
 - U.K. religious freedom laws and, 29–30
- communitarian issues, self-regarding practices involving children and, 198–200
- compensation, for injuries to non-religious persons, 204–6
- complex self-regarding practices
 - current approaches to, 202–3
 - defined, 201
 - equal protection concerns, 213–14
 - harm to individuals and, 219–30
 - harm to society and, 230–35
 - imposition of monetary damages for, 207–13
 - injuries to non-religious persons, 204–6
 - quantification and imposition of damages and, 214–19
 - religiously oriented original position and, 203–4, 311–14
- conscience, liberty of
 - absolute precedence of religious belief and practice and, 104–7
 - First Amendment protections and, 139–40n.257
 - homosexuality issues and, 287
 - limits of religious freedom and, 84–85
 - Rawls's concept of, 102–4
 - religious truth and, 78
 - state interests vs., 167–68
- conscientious objectors, religious beliefs and, 124, 127–29, 215n.61, 215–16, 230–35
- consensus
 - religiously oriented original position and, 102
 - third party assistance for self-harm and, 161–66
- consent
 - religious refusal of medical treatment and, 153–66
 - third party assistance for self-harm and, 161–66
- constitutional framework, religiously oriented original position, 102–4, 119–21
- constitutional law
 - definition of religion and, 127–29
 - neutrality principle, religious freedom as violation of, 80–83
 - religious freedom and, 79–80
 - separation of church and state and, 293–96
- Constitution of the United States. See also First Amendment
 - definitions of religion absent in, 127–29
 - economic harm principle and, 146–48
 - non-discrimination principle and, 42–45
 - religious freedom and, 24–27
- Constitution Review Group (Ireland), 67–68
- contemporary society, religio-legal
 - controversies in, 9, 93
- context for religious freedom, 12
- contraceptive mandate, as violation of religious freedom, 2–3n.10
- control, law and religion and issues, 5
- Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (European Convention), 18–23, 39–42
 - assisted suicide and, 153–54n.59
 - definition of religion in, 126–27, 130–32, 137
 - definitions of religion in, 126–27

- Convention for the Protection (cont.)
 economic coercion in self-regarding religious practices, 186–87
 freedom of religious belief and, 55–57, 58–59
 freedom of religious practice and, 61–66, 67–68
 harm to autonomy protections in, 151–52
 Human Rights Act 1998 (United Kingdom)
 and, 67–68
 Ireland and, 32–33, 53–54, 289–92
 mere distress offenses and, 263–66 nations with state religion and, 27–30 restrictions on religious freedom and,
 85n.313
 conversion techniques, harm to autonomy claims involving, 149–53
 corporal punishment, religious beliefs and, 162, 194–95
 corporation as person, 119–21, 129, 141
 harm to non-religious persons and, 273–75
 Council of Europe, Ireland and, 32–33
 Court of Justice of the European Union
 (CJEU), 18–23
 Ireland and, 53–54
 creationism, 301n.173 criminal law, third party assistance for self-harm and, 161–66 critical legal theory, religious freedom and, 14–15
cuius regio eius religio, 35–36, 93 cultural property religious offense claims and, 13 unique items claims and, 230–38 cultural relativism, self-harm by religious persons and, 156–61
 Cumper, Peter, 130n.212 damages discounted damages, 234–35 positive duty as basis for, 233 quantification and imposition of, 208–9, 214–19
 speech as basis for, 241–43 for violence to property, 307n.203
 da Silva, Virgílio Alfonso, 11–12, 87–88 “dead religions” principle, destruction of antiquities and, 237n.179 decision-making harm to autonomy claims involving, 149–53 in religiously oriented original position, 112–18
 Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Intolerance and of Discrimination Based on Religion or Belief (Declaration on Discrimination), 18–23, 40–41 definitions of religion absent in, 126–27
 free speech and, 240–41
 religious beliefs protected in, 55–57 religious practices protected in, 61–66, 135–39 default mechanisms, false other-regarding practices and, 246–48
 definitions of religion international standards, 126–27
 in Ireland, 132–33
 issues with, 122–41
 in national law, 127–33
 in religiously oriented original position, 133–35 religious practice definitions, 135–41
 in United Kingdom, 129–32
 in United States, 127–29
de minimis requirement, economic harm from self-regarding practices and, 144–49
 Denning (Lord), 130, 222–24 de-programming processes, harm to autonomy claims involving, 149–53 destruction of artefacts and structures, 13,
 235–38, 277–78
 Devlin, Patrick (Lord), 285–86, 287–88, 296–97, 306n.197
 directionally motivated reasoning, religious freedom and, 8–9 disclosure requirements, economic harm as basis for state requirements for, 144–49 disintegration thesis, common morality and, 287–88
 blasphemy and, 296–97
 distress or religious offense at others’ acts false other-regarding practices and, 204n.11, 250–53, 256–58
 mere distress claims, 263–66
 true other-regarding practices and, 298–99 divine justice, religiously oriented original position and, 117–18
 doctrinal change, state actions as influence on, 180–82
 domestic standards. See national laws
 Downing, Lyle, 107–12 dress codes, religious clothing as violation of, 172–78
 Durham, Cole, 110

- Durkheim, Emile, 123–24
- duty, concept of
- freedom of religious practice and, 64–65
 - positive duty, discounted damages based on, 233
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 191–94
- Dworkin, Gerald, 107–12
- Dworkin, Ronald, 7, 89–90n.342, 90n.342, 107–12, 119n.137, 278–79, 282–85, 287
- economics and religion
- coercion of religious actors and, 180–87, 207–13
 - “convenient” revenue generation and, 212–13
 - discouraging price for permitted acts and, 209–12
 - harm to individuals and, 219–30
 - liability for speech damages, 241–43
 - losses of non-religious persons and, 204–6
 - monetary damages imposed on religious persons, 207–13
 - religion and, 97–98
- Eisgruber, Christopher, 70–71, 72–73, 83
- emotional distress claims, tort theory of
- religious practice and, 204n.11
- enforcement limitations
- international laws for religious freedom and, 18n.77
 - for religious hatred and violence legislation, 305
- environmental damage
- complex self-regarding practices and, 230–35
 - destruction of property in name of, 241n.205
 - religious group contributions to, discounted damages based on, 234–35
- equality
- absolute precedence of belief and practice and, 106
 - religiously oriented original position and, 116–17
- Equality Act 2006 (United Kingdom), 46–47n.60
- Equality Act 2010 (United Kingdom), 47–48, 130–32
- equal protection concerns, tort theory of
- religious practice, 213–14
- escape, injuries to non-religious persons, inability of, 204–6
- established state
- imposition of monetary damages in, 208–9
 - non-discrimination principle in, 45–50
 - true other-regarding practices and, 289–92
 - United Kingdom as, 27–30
- Establishment Clause (First Amendment), 24–27
- ethical beliefs
- privileging of religious freedoms over, 83
 - religiously oriented original position and, 133–35
- Europe, religious-legal relations in, 27n.129
- European Commission of Human Rights, 186–87
- harm to individuals cases and, 222–24
 - mere distress offenses and, 263–66
- European Convention. See Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (European Convention)
- European Convention on Human Rights (European Convention). See Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (European Convention)
- European Convention on Human Rights Act 2003, 32–33
- European Court of Human Rights
- blasphemy protections and, 299–301
 - British non-discrimination cases and, 47
 - creation of, 18–23
 - definition of religion in, 137
 - definitions of religion in, 126–27
 - freedom of religious practice and, 67–68
 - harm to autonomy claims and, 151–52
 - harm to individuals in, 222–24
 - harm to non-religious persons and, 273–75
 - headscarves cases before, 173–77
 - homosexuality claims before, 286–88
 - Ireland and, 32–33, 289–92
 - law and religious freedom in, 12–13
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 194–95
 - speech as self-regarding practice and, 187–90
 - speech protections under, 241–43
 - state interests vs. religious practices before, 166n.119
 - third party assistance for self-harm and, 165–66
- European Directive 2000/78/EC, 47n.66

- European Union (EU)
 - freedom of religious practice and charter of, 61–66
 - Ireland in, 32–33, 53–54
 - religious rights protections in, 18–23
 - U.K. withdrawal from, 29
- euthanasia. See assisted suicide
- Evans, Bette Novit, 124–25
- evolution, religious objections to teaching of, 301n.173
- “expansion of law” principle, religious freedom and, 2–3
- extranational model of religious freedom, 7–8, 69
 - religiously oriented original position and, 319–22
- fairness
 - absolute precedence of belief and practice and, 106
 - religious freedom and, 87–88
- false other-regarding practices
 - coercion of religious belief and, 246–48, 254, 258–62
 - current approaches to, 244–46
 - defined, 244
 - distress or religious offense at others’ acts, 250–53, 256–58
 - mere distress as, 263–66
 - religiously oriented original position, 253–58, 314–16
 - self-harm per se and, 248–50, 254–56, 262–63
- family, protection of
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 202–3
 - in Irish Constitution, 31–32
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 190–200
 - true self-regarding practices and, 282–85
- federally mandated health insurance, religious resistance to, 25n.114, 90n.342
- feigning of religious beliefs, accommodation and risk of, 84–85, 169–73
- Feinberg, Joel, 250–53
- female genital mutilation, as religio-cultural norm, 159
- fetal rights, abortion debate and, 282–85
- Finnis, John, 7, 78, 96–97, 208
- First Amendment (U.S. Constitution)
 - definition of religion and, 127–29
 - freedom of religious belief principle in, 57–60
 - freedom of religious practice and, 67–68
 - imposition of monetary damages as violation of, 208–9
 - non-discrimination principle and, 43n.37, 44–45
 - religious freedom and, 24–27, 180–82
- First Protocol to the European Convention, 191n.270
- Fish, Stanley, 163
- flag-salute cases, freedom of belief and practice and, 113, 259–61, 293–96
- floodgates argument, tort theory of religious practice and, 226–28
- Foley, Edward, 116–17
- foreseeability principle, quantification and imposition of damages and, 214–19
- formal neutrality, religious freedom and, 80–83
- forum externum*, freedom of religious practice and, 60–68
- foundational issues in religious freedom, 17–34
- Fourteenth Amendment (U.S. Constitution), non-discrimination principle and, 43n.37
- Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities, 35–36n.4
- France, religious freedom in, 24–27, 27n.127
- Frankfurter, Felix (Justice), 260–61
- fraud, by religious actors/religious persons, 144–49
- Fraudulent Mediums Act 1951 (U.K.), 146n.12
- free assembly, right of, in Irish Constitution, 31–32
- free association, right of, in Irish Constitution, 31–32
- Free Exercise Clause (First Amendment), 24–27
 - freedom of religious belief principle in, 57–60
 - state interests vs. religious practices and, 167–68
- free-riding
 - religiously oriented original position and, 133–35
 - tort theory of religious practice and, 226–28
- free speech. See speech
- Fuller, Lon, 7
- functionalist perspective, religious freedom and, 15
- fundamental freedoms, complex self-regarding practices as interference with, 202–3
- fundamental social values, true other-regarding practices and, 267–69

- Galston, Miriam, 107–12
 Garvey, John, 71–72, 73–75, 76–79, 106–7 genocide, speech as incitement to, 301–2n.176
 Gentile, Valentina, 9
 Germany, as intermediary state, 30
 Gey, Steven, 248–50
 Ginsburg, Tom, 22–23
 Glendon, Mary Ann, 9
 Glenn, Patrick, 231–33
 Greece
 harm of self-regarding practices in, 151–52 speech in self-regarding practices and, 187–90
 Greene, Abner, 162
 Grinstein, Joseph, 240–41 grooming and public health, restriction of religious practices and, 169–73, 174n.166, 178, 202–3 group rights alienation and religious freedom of, 72–73
 freedom of religious practice and, 61–66 protection of society and, 285–92
 religious freedom and, 35–36
 true other-regarding practices involving, 281–92 groups rights, self-regarding practices involving children and, 198–200
 Hale (Baroness), 175n.167 harm, concepts of. See also religious injury concept autonomy, harm to, 149–53 distress or religious offense at others' acts, 250–53, 256–58
 economic harm, 144–49
 false other-regarding practices and, 244–46, 248–50 individuals, harm to, 219–30
 internal conflict of religious freedom and, 271–73
 non-religious persons, 273–75 physical health, harm to, 153–66
 religious persons, 275–78
 self-harm by religious actors/religious persons, 144–66, 248–50, 254–56, 262–63
 self-regarding practices involving children and, 190–91
 society, harm to, 230–35
 Hart, H. L. A., 7, 250–51, 285–86, 296–97 headscarf practices, state intervention in, 137, 159n.88, 159–60, 170n.143, 170–71n.145, 172–78, 181n.207, 193n.281, 202n.6
 heresy, freedom of religious belief and, 55–57 hijab. See headscarf practices
 Hindu religious practices, accommodation of, 169–73, 174n.166, 181n.207, 193n.281 historical bases for religious practice colonialism and, 22–23
 discounted damages based on, 234–35
 true other-regarding practices and, 269
 Hogan, G. W., 53–54
 Hohfeldian paradigm
 freedom of religious practice and, 64–65
 internal conflict of religious freedom and, 271–73 holy sites, protections for, 230–38 homeschooling, captive audience issues and, 301n.173 homosexuality as blasphemy, 298–99
 economic coercion of persons and entities opposed to, 186–87, 224–26, 229–30 as harm to society, 278–79, 285–92 injury to religious persons and, 161–66
 religiously oriented original position and, 119–21
 Hope (Lord), 124–25
 Horowitz, Morton, 100n.38
 Human Rights Act 1998 (United Kingdom), 28, 130–32, 130–31n.215, 320 assisted suicide and, 153–54n.59
 atheism and, 59–60
 corporal punishment and, 162
 freedom of religious practice in, 67–68
 non-discrimination principle in, 45–50
 Human Rights Council (U.N.), 18–23 human rights law
 definitions of religion and, 126–27
 freedom of religious belief principle and, 55–57
 freedom of religious practice and, 61–66
 religious freedom and, 18–23, 35–36, 39–42 religiously oriented original position in, 321 identity law and religion and, 5 privileging of religious freedoms over, 83
 immigration, non-discrimination cases and, 50

- incitement of religious hatred, speech as, 189–90, 238–43, 296–308
- incommensurable rights, 10–15
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 202–3
 - fairness and objectivity and, 87–88
 - harm to society claims and, 278–79
 - religiously oriented original position and, 104–7
- individual rights
 - alienation and religious freedom of, 72–73
 - autonomy of religious freedom and, 73–75
 - constitutional framework for religious practices and, 119–21
 - economic coercion as intervention in, 183–87
 - freedom of religious practice and, 61–66
 - personal autonomy and, 75–76
 - public and private religious acts and, 90–92
 - religious freedom and, 35–36
 - religiously oriented original position, 102–4
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 198–200
 - true other-regarding practices involving, 279–81
- Indonesia, as intermediary state, 30
- Inter-American Democratic Charter (Organization of American States), 20–21n.93
- intermediary state
 - Ireland as example of, 30–33
 - non-discrimination on the basis of religion in, 50–54
- internal conflict of religious freedom
 - absolute precedence of belief and practice and, 106
 - religious practice and, 139–41
 - true other-regarding practices and, 271–73
- International Bill of Human Rights, 18–23
- International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (ICERD), 19n.85
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), 18–23, 39–42
 - definitions of religion in, 126–27
 - freedom of religious belief and, 55–57
 - freedom of religious practice and, 61–66
- international law
 - current approaches to religious freedom in, 36–38, 39–42
 - definitions of religion and, 126–27
 - freedom of religious belief principle and, 55–57
 - freedom of religious practice and, 61–66
 - non-discrimination principle and influence of, 42–54
 - religious freedom and, 18–23
 - religiously oriented original position and, 319–22
- International Society for Krishna Consciousness (Hare Krishnas), 149–53
- intra-faith discrimination, 48–49
- invisible benefits, religious accommodation and, 228n.135
- Ireland, Republic of
 - animus in religious interventions in, 171n.146
 - definitions of religion in, 132–33
 - freedom of religious belief principle in, 57–60
 - as intermediary state, 30–33
 - law and religious freedom in, 12–13
 - mere distress offenses avoided by, 263–66
 - non-discrimination on the basis of religion in, 50–54
 - religiously oriented original position in, 321
- Irish Constitution
 - Christian values in, 289–92
 - definitions of religion absent in, 132–33
 - freedom of religious belief principle and, 57–60
 - freedom of religious practice and, 67–68
 - imposition of monetary damages in, 208–9
 - non-discrimination principle in, 50–54
 - religious freedom in, 30–33
- Islamic law
 - definitions of religion in, 126–27
 - divine justice in, 118n.135
 - freedom of religious belief in, 55–57
 - freedom of religious practice and, 61–66
 - heretical Muslims in, 42n.34
 - history of religious freedom in, 35–36
 - human rights in, 18–23
 - intermediary state and, 30
 - international standards and, 41–42
 - martyrdom in, 157n.77
 - norms of legal theory in, 37–38
 - relationship of religion to, 13–14
 - religious clothing in, 172–78
- Islamic State, destruction of antiquities by, 236n.177, 237n.181, 237n.179
- Islamic states, as established states, 27–30
- Israel, personal law in, 63n.166

- Jackson (Justice), 190–91
- Jäderblom (Judge), 176
- Jehovah's Witnesses
 - monetary damages imposed on, 207–13
 - self-regarding practices of, 149–53, 153–54n.59, 183–87, 190–91, 194–95, 200n.325, 295, 300–1
- Jewish faith schools (U.K.), non-discrimination
 - cases involving, 48–49
- jihadist martyrs, 275–76n.41
- Judaism
 - Israeli personal law and, 63n.166
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 197–200
 - state intervention in religious practices of, 169–73, 183–87
- juridification of religion, 2–3
 - definitions of religion and, 137
 - fairness and objectivity in, 87–88
- “just bounds” issues, freedom of religious practice and, 60–61
- justice, theory of
 - absolute precedence of belief and practice and model of, 104–7
 - divine justice and, 117–18
 - Rawls's stages of, 102–4, 118–19
 - religious belief and practice and, 97n.15
 - religiously oriented original position and, 94–112
 - religious truth and, 78
 - veil of ignorance and, 107–12
- Kahn, Paul, 141
- Kalanges, Kristine, 23
- Kelsen, Hans, 7
- labor issues
 - discouraging price for permitted acts and, 209–12
 - economic harm claims against non-profit religious organizations and, 146–48
 - harm to individuals and, 219–30
 - unemployment compensation based on religious-based unemployment, 183–87
- laïcité*, principle of, 175n.170. See also secular states
- law and economics movement, 208n.24
- law and religion
 - analyses and reform of concepts in, 309–10
 - assisted suicide and, 163–66
 - definitional issues and, 122–41
 - divine justice and, 117–18
 - in Europe, 27n.129
 - fairness and objectivity in, 87–88
 - false other-regarding practices and, 244–46
 - methodology for new approaches to, 10–15
 - new approaches to, 5–7
 - prioritization of religious beliefs and practices, 92–93, 100
 - public and private religious acts and, 90–92
 - religious freedom and, 2–3n.10
 - religiously oriented original position, 102–4
 - self-harm by religious practices and, 156–61
 - self-regarding practices in, 143
 - unique items claims and, 235–38
 - in United Kingdom, 27–30
 - in United States, 12–13, 24–27
 - working definitions for, 33–34
- Laycock, Douglas, 125
- Lee, Simon, 305
- legal perfectionism, absolute precedence of belief and practice and, 106–7
- legal persons. See also religious actors/religious persons
 - constitutional framework for religious practices and, 119–21
 - definitions of religion and, 129
- legal theory
 - current approaches to religious freedom and, 36–38
 - personal autonomy in, 73–75
 - public and private religious acts and, 90–92
 - Rawls's contributions to, 96n.6
- legislative stage, religiously oriented original position, 102–4
- legitimacy, religious truth and issue of, 76–79
- “A Letter Concerning Toleration” (Locke), 1–2
- liberalism
 - absolute precedence of belief and practice and, 104–7
 - decision-making in original position and, 112–18
 - liberty of conscience and, 104
 - public and private religious acts and, 90–92, 102
 - religious truth and engagement of, 76–79
- liberty of conscience
 - absolute precedence of religious belief and practice and, 104–7
 - First Amendment protections and, 139–40n.257
 - limits of religious freedom and, 84–85

- liberty of conscience (cont.)
 - Rawls's concept of, 102–4
 - religious truth and, 78
 - state interests vs., 167–68
- Locke, John, 1–2, 38–39, 60–61, 70, 79, 93, 134, 248–50, 309–10
- losses, injuries to non-religious persons as, 204–6
- Lupu, Ira, 78, 86–87, 206, 253
- majority religious practices
 - alienation caused by, 72–73
 - blasphemy protections and, 299–301
 - coercion of beliefs and, 258–62
 - damages based on, discounting of, 233–34
 - false other-regarding practices and, 314–16
 - true other-regarding practices as, 267–69, 281–92, 317–19
- Makarczyk (Judge), 263–66
- Marshall, Thurgood (Justice), 220–21
- Marshall, William, 75–76, 238–43
- Martens (Judge), 151–52
- Martin, Rex, 106
- Marty, Martin, 92
- mass suicides, 156–61, 301–21.176
- May (Lord Justice), 150
- McCarthy (Justice), 291
- McConnell, Michael, 38–39, 71, 80–83, 84–85, 90–92, 125, 210–11
- medical treatment, rejection of
 - by already-ill religious person, 156
 - assisted suicide and, 163–66
 - for children, state actions and, 191–94, 200n.325
 - harm to non-religious persons and, 273–75
 - patient choice and, 160–61
 - self-regarding practices and, 153–66
- mental health, self-regarding practices and harm to, 153–66
- Messner, Francis, 271n.129
- microaggressions, religious freedom and, 3–4
- military spending, religious objections to, 178–79
- Mill, John Stuart, 71–72, 119n.137, 248–50, 251–53
- “minimum core beliefs,” protection of, 87–88
- minority religions
 - alienation of, 72–73
 - animus in state interventions toward, 172–78
 - distress or religious offense at others' acts and, 250–51, 256–58
 - economic harm interventions and, 145–46
 - quantification and imposition of damages and, 214–19
 - secular state protection of, 84–85
 - true other-regarding practices and, 269n.8
- monetary damages
 - “chosen common way principle” and imposition of, 208–9
 - imposition on religious people by, 207–13
 - true other-regarding practices and, 269–71
- Moon, Sun Myung, 50
- morality legislation
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 202–3
 - privileging of religious freedoms over, 83
 - religious freedom as, 31n.10
 - self-harm and, 248–50
- Mormon Church
 - doctrinal change as result of state actions involving, 180–82
 - economic harm claims involving, 148–49
 - polygamy practices of, 176n.180
 - state accommodation of, 174n.166
- Mumby (Lord Justice), 198–200
- Murphy (Justice), 190–91
- Mustill (Lord), 155, 160–61
- Nagel, Thomas, 107–12
- national law
 - assisted suicide in, 163–66
 - definition of religion in, 127–33
 - freedom of religious belief principle in, 57–60
 - freedom of religious practice and, 67–68
 - non-discrimination on the basis of religion and, 42–54
 - religiously oriented original position and, 319–22
- national laws
 - current approaches to religious freedom in, 36–38
 - international laws on human rights and, 18–23
 - religious freedom and diversity of, 13–14, 24–33
- Native American communities
 - complex self-regarding practices as threat to, 230–35
 - state interests vs. practices of, 167–68, 183–87, 196–97, 210–11
 - unique items claims by, 235–38
- natural law and rights, religious truth and, 78

- natural persons, constitutional framework for religious practices and, 119–21
- necessity doctrine, balancing demands in the original position and, 113–17
- negative right
 - beliefs and practices as, 141
 - false other-regarding practices and, 314–16
 - harm to non-religious persons and, 273–75
 - religious beliefs and practice as, 113
 - religious freedom as, 10–15
- neutrality
 - absolute precedence of belief and practice and, 104–7
 - religious freedom as violation of, 80–83
 - true other-regarding practices and, 317–19
- New Zealand no-fault compensation scheme, 217n.70
- Nicholls (Lord), 130–32
- non-discrimination on the basis of religion,
 - principle of, 36–42
 - definitions of religion and, 127–29
 - harm to religious persons and, 275–78
 - in Ireland, 50–54
 - in national law, 42–54
 - tort theory of religious practice and, 228–30
 - in United Kingdom, 45–50
 - in U.S. law, 42–45
- non-established state
 - imposition of monetary damages and separationist approach of, 208–9
 - non-discrimination principles in, 45
 - United States as, 24–27
- non-Muslims, Islamic protections for freedom of religious practice and, 61–66
- non-profit religious organizations, economic harm claims against, 146–48
- non-religious persons
 - beliefs and behavior of, 83, 89–90
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 203–4, 311–14
 - defined, 94n.1, 127–29
 - false other-regarding practices involving, 244–46
 - harm to, 273–75
 - impact of speech as, 189–90, 238–43
 - internal conflict of religious freedom and, 271–73
 - religious injuries to, 204–6
 - religiously oriented original position and, 94–112, 133–35
 - rights of, 8–9
 - true other-regarding practices and, 269–71
 - violence against, 301–3
- non-theistic systems, protection of, 130n.212, 133–35
- norms of religions
 - religious practices and, 135–39
 - true other-regarding practices and, 267–69
- Northern Ireland, sectarian strife in, 302–5
- Nußberger (Judge), 176
- objectivity
 - balancing demands in the original position and, 113–17
 - religious freedom and, 87–88
- O'Connor, Sandra Day, 185
- O'Higgins (Chief Justice), 289–92
- Oklahoma Save Our State amendment, 44–45
- Organization of the Islamic Conference, 20–22
- Orthodox Christian church, self-regarding religious practices in, 151–52, 170–71n.145
- other-regarding practices. See also false other-regarding practices; true other-regarding practices
 - speech acts and, 238–43
- paid prayer, 269–71
- Paley, William, 97n.15
- Palm (Judge), 263–66
- parental rights
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 202–3
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 190–200
 - true self-regarding practices and, 282–85
- Patient Protection Affordable Care Act (PPACA), 129
- Peace of Westphalia 1648, 35–36
- Peculiar People sect, 191–94
- Pekkanen (Judge), 263–66
- Perry, Michael, 31n.10
- personal autonomy
 - religious practice as harm to, 149–53
 - third party assistance to self-harm and, 161–66
- personal law, freedom of religious practice and, 63n.166, 63n.167
- peyote ingestion, in Native American ritual, 183–87, 210–11
- physical health, harm to
 - affirmative acts by healthy religious persons, 156–61
- paid prayer, 269–71
- Paley, William, 97n.15
- Palm (Judge), 263–66
- parental rights
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 202–3
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 190–200
 - true self-regarding practices and, 282–85
- Patient Protection Affordable Care Act (PPACA), 129
- Peace of Westphalia 1648, 35–36
- Peculiar People sect, 191–94
- Pekkanen (Judge), 263–66
- Perry, Michael, 31n.10
- personal autonomy
 - religious practice as harm to, 149–53
 - third party assistance to self-harm and, 161–66
- personal law, freedom of religious practice and, 63n.166, 63n.167
- peyote ingestion, in Native American ritual, 183–87, 210–11
- physical health, harm to
 - affirmative acts by healthy religious persons, 156–61

- physical health, harm to (cont.)
 - already-ill religious persons, 156
 - self-regarding practices and, 153–66
 - third party assistance for, 161–66
- Places of Worship Registration Act 1855 (U.K.), 130
- Plato, 246–48
- Political Liberalism* (Rawls), 98–104
- politics
 - free speech and, 238–43
 - Rawls's exclusion of religion from, 95–104
- polygamy, 292n.126
 - state intervention in, 176n.180, 180–82
- Poor Law Amendment Act 1868, 191–94
- positive duty, discounted damages based on, 233
- positive right
 - beliefs and practices as, 141
 - false other-regarding practices and, 314–16
 - religious freedom as, 10–15
- Poulter, Sebastian, 159–60
- Prevention of Incitement to Hatred Act (Northern Ireland) (U.K.), 302–5
- prioritization of religious beliefs and practices, 92–93, 100, 104–7, 271–73
- prior restraint doctrine, speech liability and, 241–43
- prison administration, Islamic religious practices and, 169
- private acts. See also complex self-regarding practices; self-regarding practices; true self-regarding practices
 - false other-regarding practices as, 244–46
 - religious freedom and, 90–92, 98–104
 - religious practice as, 31n.12
- property, threats to, 306–8
- proselytization
 - captive and religious speech rulings and, 295–96
 - harm to autonomy claims involving, 151–52
 - laws on religious practice and, 65n.181
- Protestant Reformation, 35–36, 235–38
- prudential arrangement, religious freedom and, 79–80
- psychological aspects of religion, 124
 - coercion of religious belief and, 254, 258–62
 - distress or religious offense at others' acts, 250–51, 256–58
- public acts. See also self-regarding practices; false other-regarding practices as, 244–46
 - religious freedom and, 90–92, 98–104
- public emergency concept, freedom of
 - religious practice and, 41–42, 57, 65–66
- public health, restriction of religious practices
 - based on, 169–73, 174n.166, 178, 202–3
- Public Order Act 1986 (U.K.), 29–30
- Public Order (Northern Ireland) Order 1987, 305
- public reason
 - Rawls's concept of, 96–97
 - religiously oriented original position and, 319–22
 - true other-regarding practices and, 267–69
- public safety, complex self-regarding practices and, 202–3
- Purchas (LJ), 46–47
- Race Relations Act 1976 (U. K.), 46–47
- Racial and Religious Hatred Act 2006 (U.K.), 29–30, 59–60, 298–99n.162, 302–5
- Rapoport, David, 70–71
- Rawls, John, 7, 78, 84–85
 - absolute precedence of belief and practice and model of, 104–7
 - on balancing demands in the original position, 113–17
 - on clash of liberties, 269–79
 - on divine justice and original position, 117–18
 - model of religious belief and practice, 95–104
 - public reason concept of, 96–97, 267–69
 - speech as incitement to violence and theories of, 306–8
 - veil of ignorance in model of, 107–12
- Raz, Joseph, 7
- real property, unique items claims involving, 235–38
- reflective equilibrium, Rawls's concept of, 98
- religion, definitional issues with term of, 122–41
- religious actors/religious persons
 - already-ill religious persons, rejection of treatment by, 156
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 311–14
 - economic harm to, 144–49
 - equal protection concerns, 213–14
 - harm to, 275–78
 - harm to non-religious persons by, 273–75
 - harm to physical health by, 153–66
 - healthy persons, affirmative acts of harm by, 156–61
 - imposition of choice on, 180–87

- internal conflict of religious freedom and, 271–73
- monetary damages imposed on, 207–13
- non-religious opposition to, 94n.1
- objections to current approaches to religious rights, 88–93
- protections from self-harm by, 144–66, 254–56
- quantification and imposition of damages and, 214–19
- third party assistance for self-harm, 161–66
- as threat to civil peace, 70–71
- true other-regarding practices by, 275–78
- Religious and Racial Hatred Act 2006, 47–48
- religious belief, freedom of
 - absolute precedence of, 104–7
 - coercion of religious belief and, 246–48, 254, 258–62
 - international standards, 55–57
 - mental illness and, 153–66
 - in national law, 57–60
 - overview of, 54–60
 - principle of, 36–38
 - prioritization of, 92–93, 100
 - public and private acts and, 90–92
 - Rawlsian model of, 95–104
 - separation of behavior from, 89–90, 98–104
 - subjectivity and, 124
- religious clothing, state prohibitions on, 172–78, 202n.6, 211–12
- religious education, protection in Irish Constitution, 31–32
- religious freedom
 - absolute precedence of belief and practice and, 104–7
 - analyses and reform of, 309–10
 - case studies in claims of, 17
 - current approaches to, 36–38
 - extranational model of, 7–8, 69
 - fair and objective administration of, 87–88
 - historical approaches to, 16–17, 35–36
 - improper scrutiny of, 86–87
 - international law and, 18–23
 - limitations of, justifications for, 80–88
 - methodology for new approaches to, 10–15
 - new theoretical approaches to, 5–7
 - protection of, 2–3
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 196–97
 - theoretical justifications for, 68–80
 - Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) (U.S.), 24–27, 127–29, 185–86, 320
 - religious injury concept. See also harm, concepts of
 - injuries to non-religious persons and, 206
 - Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Person Act of 2000 (RLUIPA), 24–27, 127–29, 320
 - religiously oriented original position
 - abortion debate and, 282–85
 - absolute precedence of belief and practice and, 104–7
 - balancing demands in, 113–17
 - blasphemy protections and, 299–301
 - captive and religious speech in, 293–96
 - children's welfare and, 191–94, 198–200
 - coercion of religious belief and, 254, 258–62
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 203–4, 311–14
 - constitutional framework, 102–4, 119–21
 - decision-making in, 112–18
 - definitional issues, 133–35
 - destruction of unique items and, 235–38
 - discourage prices for permitted acts and, 211–12
 - divine justice and, 117–18
 - economic harm from self-regarding practices and, 144–49
 - false other-regarding practices, 253–58, 314–16
 - foundational issues with, 17–34
 - four stages in Rawls's model of, 102–4, 118–19
 - harm to autonomy and, 152–53
 - harm to society and, 230–35, 278–79
 - homosexuality and, 291–92
 - incitement of religious hatred and, 306–8
 - individual targets and, 279–81
 - Native American spiritual practices and, 231–33
 - practical implementation of, 319–22
 - premises and assumptions, 94–112, 118–19
 - prohibitions on religious clothing and, 169–73
 - quantification and imposition of damages and, 214–19
 - Rawlsian model of religious belief and practice, 95–104
 - self-harm by religious persons and, 166
 - self-regarding practices and, 118–19, 143–49, 310
 - speech and, 187–90, 238–43

- religiously oriented original position (cont.)
 - true other-regarding practices and, 269–79, 317–19
 - universalization of religious freedom and, 16–17
 - veil of ignorance and, 107–12
- religious offense claims, 13, 250–51
- religious pluralism
 - decision-making in original position and, 112–18
 - definitions of religion and, 130–32
 - freedom of religious belief and, 54n.105
 - globalization and increase in, 5–7
 - protection of, 1–2
 - religiously oriented original position and, 107–12
 - spectrum of opinion and, 100–2
 - truth and, 79
 - in United Kingdom, 29–30
- religious practice, freedom of. See also self-regarding practices
 - absolute precedence of, 104–7
 - changes in, state actions as catalyst for, 180–82
 - constitutional framework for, 119–21
 - definitions of, 135–39
 - harm to autonomy, intervention on basis of, 149–53
 - historical bases for, 22–23, 234–35, 269
 - internal conflicts involving, 139–41
 - international standards, 61–66
 - national law and, 67–68
 - overview, 60–68
 - principle of, 36–38
 - prioritization of, 92–93, 100
 - public and private acts and, 90–92
 - range of religious practices in modern society, 112n.107
 - Rawlsian model of, 95–104
 - separation of behavior from, 89–90
 - state interests vs., 166–79
- Republic of Ireland, freedom of religious practice in, 67–68
- risk-taking, balancing demands and, 113–17
- ritual slaughter, state interests vs. religious practices involving, 166n.119
- Robilliard, St. John, 297–98
- R (Chai) v. Newcastle City Council, 85n.313
- sacrifice
 - of non-religious persons, 204–6
 - by religious persons, 275–78
- Sager, Lawrence, 72–73, 83
- same-sex marriage
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 202–3, 224–26
 - Irish Constitution and, 32, 291–92
- Sandel, Michael, 77–78, 80–83, 110
- Santeria practices, U.S. law and, 43–44
- Sapir, Gideon, 75–76
- The Satanic Verses*, 298–99
- sati* practices, 156–61
- Scalia, Antonin (Justice), 171n.146, 260, 306n.197
- Scarman (Lord), 222–26, 298–99
- school prayer cases, 258–62, 293–96
- Scottish law, religious freedom in, 12n.58
- second order principle, secularism and, 82n.287
- secular states
 - alienation and religious freedom in, 72–73
 - disregard of religious beliefs and, 84–85
 - headscarf bans in, 175–77
 - neutrality principle and, 80–83
 - religious freedom and, 24–27
 - true other-regarding practices and, 289–92
- Sedley, Justice, 50
- self-annihilatory violence, 275–76n.41
- self-definition
 - harm to religious persons and, 275–78
 - imposition of monetary damages as violation of, 208–9
 - religious freedom and, 75–76
- self-harm by religious persons
 - false other-regarding practices, 248–50, 254–56, 262–63
 - interventions in, 156–61
 - third party assistance for, 161–66
- self-immolation, 156–61
- self-mortification, acts of, 156–61
- self-regarding practices. See also false other-regarding practices; true other-regarding practices
 - administrative efficiency and social uniformity rationales for intervention of, 166–79
 - children and, 190–200
 - complex practices (See complex self-regarding practices)
 - current approaches to, 143
 - defined, 142–43
 - economic coercion as intervention in, 183–87, 207–13
 - economic harm from, 144–49

- grounds for intervention in, 144–66
- harm to autonomy and, 149–53
- harm to physical health and, 153–66
- healthy persons, affirmative acts of harm by, 156–61
- imposition of choice involving, 180–87
- religiously oriented original position and, 118–19, 143–44, 310
- self-harm by religious actors/religious persons, 144–66
- speech, 187–90, 238–43
- third party assistance for, 161–66
- sentiments, beliefs and, 124–25
- Seventh Day Adventists, accommodation of, 183–87
- Sexual Offenses Act 1956 (U.K.), 285–86
- sexual orientation, discrimination based on, 187n.242
- Shari'a law
 - freedom of religious belief in, 55–57
 - religious freedom and, 22–23
 - U.S. non-discrimination rulings and, 44–45
- Sheppard, Steve, 106–7
- Shops (Hours of Trading) Act 1938 (Ireland), 139–41
- Sikh religious practices, accommodation or restriction of, 169–73, 174n.166, 178, 181n.207, 193n.281
- sincerity element
 - religiously orientated original position and, 133–35
 - religious rights and, 129n.204
- slippery slope arguments, restrictions on religious clothing and, 178–79
- Smith, Joseph Jr., 180
- Smith, Steven, 7–8, 95
- snake-handling rituals, 156–61
- social mores
 - Irish Constitution and, 32
 - United States law and religious freedom and, 25n.114
- Social Security benefits
 - religious organizations' exemption from, 147–48
 - state interests vs. religious practices concerning, 167–68
- social uniformity, state intervention in religious practice based on, 166–79
- society, harm to
 - complex self-regarding practices, 230–35
 - true self-regarding practices for protection against, 278–79, 285–92
- soft law, religious freedom and, 18–23
- spectrum of opinion, religiously oriented original position and, 100–2
- speech
 - blasphemy and incitement of religious hatred and, 296–308
 - captive audiences and, 293–96
 - religiously oriented original position and, 187–90, 306–8
 - restrictions on, 206, 238–43
 - separation of belief and behavior and, 89–90
 - true other-regarding practices and, 292–308
- states
 - administrative efficiency and social uniformity as interests of, 166–79
 - analyses and reform of religious freedom and role of, 309–10
 - changes to religious doctrine from actions by, 180–82
 - economic harm as basis for intervention by, 144–49
 - equal protection concerns about religious practices and, 213–14
 - false other-regarding practices and, 246–48
 - harm to physical health and intervention by, 153–66
 - personal autonomy protections by, 149–53
 - prudential arrangements for religious freedom and, 79–80
 - relationship of religion to, 13–14
 - religious group contributions to, discounted damages based on, 234–35
 - religious truth and engagement of, 76–79
 - self-harm by religious persons and interventions by, 156–61
 - self-regarding practices and interventions by, 143, 144–66
 - sovereignty over religious freedom and, 92–93
- status quo bias, religious freedom and, 8–9
- Stevens, John Paul (Justice), 169–73
- subjectivity in belief, 124
- subsidization of religious institutions, state-based approach to, 208–9
- substantive neutrality, religious freedom and, 80–83
- suffrage rights, polygamy and, 180–82

- suicide
 - self-annihilatory violence as, 275–76n.41
 - self-regarding practices and, 153–66
- Sullivan, Donna, 106, 240–41
- Sunstein, Cass, 7, 11–12, 79–80, 87–88, 246–48
- Supreme Court (Ireland)
 - homosexuality cases and, 289–92
 - tort theory of religious practice and, 226–28
- Supreme Court (U.K.)
 - commercial interests and religious freedom and, 229–30
 - freedom of religious belief principle and, 57–60
 - non-discrimination cases before, 48–49
- Supreme Court (U.S.)
 - administrative efficiency and uniformity rationales, state intervention in religious practices and, 169–73
 - captive and religious speech rulings by, 293–96
 - complex self-regarding acts and, 214–19
 - conscientious objector rulings by, 124
 - economic coercion for self-regarding practices and, 209–12
 - economic harm from self-regarding practices and, 144–49
 - freedom of religious practice and, 67–68
 - free speech rulings and, 238–43
 - homosexuality cases before, 288–89
 - mere distress offenses and, 263–66
 - monetary damages imposed on religious persons, 207–13
 - non-discrimination on the basis of religion and, 42–45
 - religious-based unemployment issues and, 183–87
 - religious doctrine influenced by rulings of, 180–82
 - self-regarding practices involving children and, 190–91, 197–98
 - state interests vs. religious practices and rulings of, 167–68
- surrogate mothers, complex self-regarding practices and, 202–3
- tax law
 - monetary damages imposed on religious violations of, 207–13
 - religious-based objections to, 43–44, 177n.182, 178–79
- Temple Mount, Muslim-Jewish conflict over, 275–78
- Ten Commandments
 - public display of, 261–62
 - secularization of, 269n.8
- A Theory of Justice* (Rawls), 98–104
- Thigpen, Robert, 107–12
- third party
 - assistance to self-harm by religious persons, 161–66
 - harm to, 204–6, 273–75
 - speech as incitement to violence and, 306–8
- Tillich, Paul, 124
- toleration
 - civil peace and, 70–72
 - freedom of religious practice and, 60–61
 - non-discrimination on basis of religion and, 38–39
- tort theory of religious practice
 - award recipients and damage quantification, 214–19
 - “chosen common way principle” and, 208–9
 - complex self-regarding practices and, 203–4, 311–14
 - contributions to state, discounted damages based on, 234–35
 - “convenient” revenue generation and, 212–13
 - discouraging price for permitted acts and, 209–12
 - equal protection concerns, 213–14
 - harm to individuals and, 219–30
 - harm to society and, 230–35
 - history, discounted damages based on, 234–35
 - imposition of monetary damages, 207–13
 - injuries suffered by non-religious persons, 204–6
 - majority values, discounted damages based on, 233–34
 - positive duty, discounted damages based on, 233
 - self-harm and, 156–61
 - speech as incitement to violence and, 306–8
 - true other-regarding practices and, 269–71
 - unique items, claims involving, 235–38
- transgender individuals, rights of, 285n.83
- Tribe, Laurence, 75–76, 123
- true other-regarding practices
 - blasphemy and incitement of religious hatred and, 296–308

- current approaches to, 267–69
- defined, 267
- group targets for, 281–92
- harm to non-religious persons and, 273–75
- harm to religious persons and, 275–78
- individual targets of, 279–81
- internal conflict of religious freedom and, 271–73
- protection of society and, 285–92
- religiously oriented original position and, 269–79, 317–19
- speech issues and, 292–308
- truth
 - balancing demands in the original position and, 113–17
 - religious freedom and search for, 76–79
- Tulkens (Judge), 173–75
- Turkey, religious freedom in, 24–27, 45n.54
- Tushnet, Mark, 75–76, 89–90
- Tutu, Desmond (Archbishop), 164–65
- unemployment compensation, self-regarding practices and, 183–87
- Unification Church (“Moonies”), 50, 145–46, 149–53
- uniformity rationale, state intervention in religious practice based on, 166–79
- unique items, destruction of, 13, 235–38
- United Kingdom
 - animus in religious interventions in, 171n.146
 - assisted suicide prohibited in, 164–65n.111
 - commercial interests and religious freedom and, 229–30
 - definitions of religion in, 129–32
 - freedom of religious belief principle in, 57–60
 - freedom of religious practice in, 67–68
 - imposition of monetary damages in, 208–9
 - law and religious freedom in, 12–13, 27–30
 - legality of homosexuality in, 285–86
 - non-discrimination principle in, 45–50
 - prioritization of religious beliefs and practices, 92–93
 - religiously oriented violence in, 302–5
- United Nations Human Rights Committee, 133–35
- United States
 - captive and religious speech in, 293–96
 - definitions of religion in, 127–29
 - dominance of Christianity in, 27, 128n.194
 - freedom of religious belief principle in, 57–60
 - freedom of religious practice in, 67–68
 - law and religious freedom in, 12–13, 24–27
 - non-discrimination on the basis of religion in, 42–45
 - religiously oriented original position in, 320
 - religious resistance to government policy and, 25n.114, 90n.342
 - Shari’a law legislation in, 44–45
 - trivialization of faith in, 92–93
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 18–23, 39–42, 55–57
 - definitions of religion absent in, 126–27
 - freedom of religious practice in, 61–66
- Universal Islamic Declaration of Human Rights (UIDHR), 20–22, 41–42
 - definitions of religion in, 126–27
 - freedom of religious belief in, 55–57
 - freedom of religious practice and, 61–66
- unmarried parents, complex self-regarding practices and, 202–3
- utilitarianism
 - religious freedom and, 97–98
 - religiously oriented original position and, 113–17
- Valticos (Judge), 151–52, 295–96
- values, religiously oriented original position and, 104–7
- veil of ignorance
 - Rawls’s theory of justice and, 107–12
 - religiously oriented original position and, 102–4
- violence
 - religious freedom and, 3–4
 - religious speech as incitement to, 189–90, 238–43, 296–308
 - self-annihilatory violence, 275–76n.41
- virtue jurisprudence, 65n.178, 248n.19
- Walker, Graham, 106
- Walsh (Justice), 139–41, 226–28, 287–88
- Weatherup (Justice), 130–32, 137–39
- West, Ellis, 71
- Western religious and legal values, religious freedom and, 14–15
- witness, practice of, laws on religious practice and, 65n.181

Wolfenden Committee, 285–86, 287, 289	yarmulke, restrictions on wearing of, 169–73, 214–19 women, discrimination against in Islamic law, 41–42
self-regarding religious practices and, 156–61	Zekia (Judge), 287–88
Wright, Chris, 92–93	Zionism, in Islamic law, 41–42, 57, 65–66