

Contents

List of Illustrations	page vii
Acknowledgments	viii
Note on Transliteration	ix
Chronology of Ahmad Fardid's Life and Work	x
Part I Introduction	1
Introduction. Islam after the Fall: Why Fardid Matters	3
1 The Historical Context: The Intellectual's Modern Calling	25
2 "Home" and the "World": "The Swallows Return to Their Nest"?	40
Part II The World of the Young Fardid	65
3 The Young Fardid (1935–1946)	67
4 Henry Corbin's "Imaginative Spirituality" and Iranian "Westoxification"	111
Part III Orientalism and "Spiritual Islam": Fardid, Corbin, Foucault	145
5 Gharbzadegi (Westoxification)	147
6 The Politics of Spirituality: Foucault and the Iranian Revolution	166

vi		Contents
	Part IV Ahmad Fardid's Philosophy after the Revolution, 1978–1981	215
7	Fardid's Philosophy: The Divine Encounter and Apocalyptic Revelations	217
8	A Reckless Mind: Politics of Gharbzadegi	263
	Part V Fardid Remembered	305
9	Interviews with Fardid's Friends and Critics	307
	Conclusion: Fardid after Fardid	345
	Glossary of Names, Terms, and Events	353
	Bibliography	375
	Index	383