

Contents

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| List of Tables | page xi |
| List of Contributors | xii |
| Acknowledgments | xiii |
| | |
| 1 International Law As Behavior | |
| An Agenda | |
| Harlan Grant Cohen and Timothy Meyer | 1 |
| | |
| 2 Deadlines As Behavior in Diplomacy and International Law | |
| Jean Galbraith | 19 |
| | |
| 3 Cooperating without Sanctions | |
| Epistemic Institutions versus Credible Commitments | |
| Regimes in International Law | |
| Timothy Meyer | 45 |
| | |
| 4 Egocentric Bias in Perceptions of Customary International Law | |
| Ryan M. Scoville | 74 |
| | |
| 5 Explaining the Practical Purchase of Soft Law | |
| Competing and Complementary Behavior Hypotheses | |
| Tomer Broude and Yahli Shereshevsky | 98 |
| | |
| 6 Toward an Anthropology of International Law | |
| Galit A. Sarfaty | 128 |

| | | |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 7 | Transnational Collaborations in Transitional Justice Elena Baylis | 158 |
| 8 | Advancing Neuroscience in International Law Anna Spain Bradley | 191 |
| 9 | The Missing Persons of International Law Scholarship A Roadmap for Future Research Tamar Megiddo | 230 |
| 10 | The Wrong Way to Weigh Rights Andrew Keane Woods | 265 |
| | Index | 285 |