

INDEX

- A Shau Valley 135–6
 Abrams, General Creighton 135–6, 196–7 abolished division of responsibilities
 between RVNAF and FWMAF 122 body count 135–6
 guidelines 131–2
 informal appearance 121
 ‘one war’ policy 120, 121, 123–4, 135–6, 142–3 absenteeism 199
 Accelerated Pacification Campaign
 (APC) 120, 124–5, 142–3
 fast-and-thin approach limitations 130 restoration of government bureaucracy to hamlets 128, 131
 a study in the limitations of HES as a tool for measuring pacification progress 127
 uneven progress in achieving other goals 127–8
 Acorn missions 116, 133–4
 Africa
 newly emerged nation, growth as 8
 weakened colonial system 9–10
 AFV–Embassy Joint Committee on Pacification 167–8, 187
 Algeria, French campaigns in 12–13
 ambushing 79, 106–7, 145, 148–9, 167, 170–1, 178
 close ambushing 152–3, 154
 premium on 151
 threats of Australian ambushes 135
 An Ngai 125, 148–9, 194
 An Nhut 116, 125
 An Quang Buddhists 182–3
 Anti-communist Denunciation Campaign (ACDC) 18 anti-communist laws 19
Anti-Guerrilla Operations in South-East Asia: Interim Tactical Doctrine 15
 anti-infrastructure programs 88
 Ap Hean 57–8
 Ap Suoi Nghe 79–80, 102, 128, 150–1, 198
 1ACAU construction 81–2 absence of conditions conducive to prosperity 81
 creation 165
 crop failure diagnosis 165 forced Western-modelled ‘modernisation’ 80–1 Nguyen Toi 129
 refugee relocation 204
 VC infiltration 151
 Ap Tay 53
 armed conflict 14
 Army of the Republic of Vietnam
 (ARVN) 97–8, 169, 190
 ARVN-run Phuoc Tuy districts (governance) 40
 central tenet of a crippled ARVN 193–4 nationalist ARVN officer corps core 41 poor performance 118, 198–9
 population security responsibility 138
 RF post attack at Lang Phuoc Hai 73 significant military victories over 65 US-style divisions 24
 see also Regional Force/Popular Force
 Army of the Republic of Vietnam
 (ARVN) units
 3rd Division 196–7

- 7th Division 173
- 18th Division 84–5, 173, 196, 198
- 1/43rd infantry battalion 43, 50–1
- 2/48th Regiment 133–4
- 4/48th Battalion 110
- 3/48th Regiment 139–40, 197
- 48th Regiment 197, 198
- 10 Military Intelligence Detachment 46–7, 79, 116
- ARVN positions began to unravel 196–7
- Front’s liberated zones withstanding pressure from 67
- Ranger Battalions 24, 43, 197, 198–9
- repeated defeat by PLAF 45–6
- Asia
 - economic integration 10
 - newly emerged nation, growth as 8
 - TVAs and need for river systems 10–11
 - weakened colonial system 9–10
- attrition 105–6
- Austin, Lt Col Thomas 90, 109, 113
- Australia
 - advisory presence remained after 1ATF’s departure 191
 - Australian resources 81–2
 - firepower and mobility 90–1
 - Phuoc Tuy, advisory presence 190–205
- Australian Army 15
 - armoured personnel carriers (APC) 96
 - commanders’ differing ideas on prosecuting war 172
 - counter-revolutionary warfare experience 15
 - imperial mentality 77–8
 - Operation Pinnaroo phases 102–4
- Australian Army Training Team Vietnam (AATTV)
 - ‘... general air of apathy ...’ 100–1
 - RF company commanders report 175
 - Whitlam Labor government withdrawal 203–4
- Australian Army units
 - 1 Australian Reinforcement Unit 139–40
 - 1st Australian Civil Affairs Unit (1ACAU) 80–2, 164–7
 - 1st Australian Task Force (1ATF)
 - see* Australian Task Force
 - 1RAR 104
 - 2RAR 104
 - 2RAR/NZ (ANZAC) 95–6, 170–1
 - 3RAR 96, 104, 105–6, 170–1
 - 5RAR 68–9, 102–4, 123–4, 140
 - 6RAR 68–9, 73
 - 7RAR 79, 95–6, 100
 - 8RAR 144, 150–2, 153, 167, 170–1, 186–7
 - 9RAR 133–4
 - engineers 105–6
 - Royal Australian Engineer (RAE) Corps see Royal Australian Engineer (RAE) Corps
 - Royal Australian Regiment (RAR) see Royal Australian Regiment
- Australian Chief of the General Staff 33
- Australian Directorate of Military Intelligence (DMI) 167
- Australian Forces Vietnam (AFV) 167–8, 172
- Australian Government 139
 - Vietnam withdrawal 144
- Australian operations in Vietnam
 - Operation Ainslie 79
 - Operation Briar Patch I and II 172
 - Operation Bribie 73–4
 - Operation Bundaberg 86
 - Operation Coburg 95–6, 101–2
 - Operation Cooktown Orchid 107–8
 - Operation Cung Chung I–III (Together) 152–3, 167–8, 174–5
 - Operation Enoggera 68
 - Operation Esso 133–4
 - Operation Hammersley 147, 148–9, 150–1, 153
 - Operation Hawker 172
 - Operation Hermit Park 172
 - Operation Hollandia 103
 - Operation Iron Fox 172
 - Operation Ivanhoe 172, 187
 - Operation Leeton 76
 - Operation Mundingburra 133–4
 - Operation Neppabunna 133, 137
 - Operation Nowra 108

- Australian operations in Vietnam (cont.)
 Operation Nudgee 151–2
 Operation Oakleigh 102
 Operation Overlord 172 Operation Phoi Hop 150–1, 171 Operation Pinnaroo 39, 102, 104–7, 109
 Operation Platypus 108
 Operation Portsea 82
 Operation Renmark 103–4, 107
 Operation Reynella 133–4, 136 Operation Toan Thang (Complete Victory) see Toan Thang, Operation
 Operation Vanimo 139–40
 Australian Task Force (1ATF) 53, 54, 119, 187
 1 Division Intelligence Unit 116
 1 Psy Ops Unit's Phuoc Tuy Province Survey 62 actions consolidating changes 90–1
 ambushing 153
 assessment of RD teams 84–5 best results achieved with company/platoon group
 operation 45–6
 bunker engagements and casualties 151
 civic action role 81–2, 117 Civil Affairs section land tenure survey 61–2
 conclusion of Op Pinnaroo; Op Cooktown Orchid 107–8
 cordon and searches (C&S) 86, 102 ending pacification support operations 121
 formal departure from Nui Dat 187–8
 Front unit's supply gathering 149 goodwill generated by civic action 82 growing support for 83–4 impact of arrival at the 'pacification battlefield' 51–2
 improving population security 121 infantry at an immediate disadvantage 151
 intelligence 154
 intelligence summaries 46–7 Jackson and Graham's operational concept implementation 72 keeping casualty rates low 147 keeping Routes 2 and 15 open 36 lack of troops 74, 105–7 limitations in involvement in
 pacification 91
 more protracted resistance 108–9 more sustained effort to restore security 102
 operational concept 106–7, 150–1 pacification tasks, return to 131–2 Phuoc Tuy operating area and headquarters 33 primary mission as destruction of communist main force units 122–3, 170–1, 172
 redeployment 143
 reduced advisory presence retained 186 screening arrival at Nui Dat 54, 66 selective targeting 116 significant overstretching 73–4 strategic, operational and tactical dilemmas for commanders 66, 69
 tactical area of responsibility (TAOR) 130
 Tet Offensive response 101–2
 tradition of raising Australian flag 104
 two battalions dealing with PLAF and PAVN 169–70, 173 understandings of the 'strong communist' and interrelationships 78 unprecedented success against Front 144 US operations before/during deployment to Phuoc Tuy 66 view of Op Pinnaroo as victory 104–5
 withdrawal 186–7
see also Australian Army;
 Australian Army units
 AWOL soldiers 102

- Ba Bien, final briefing by a COSVN representative (general offensive–uprising) 94–5
- Ba Long province 46
 winter–spring campaign 176
- Ba Ria 72
- Barbee, Woodrow W. 114
- Baria 99, 108
 Australian troops, conduct applauded 99–100 bastion of pro-RVN and anti-NLF feeling 51–2 D440 Battalion undetected movement into 96 occupation by D445 Battalion 92
- barrier–shield tactic 153
- base areas 36–7, 62–3, 70, 131, 135 military operations into 105–6
see also Minh Dam Secret Zone
- Battle of Bin Gia, large-scale communist military action 57
- Battle of Hamburger Hill 135–6
- Battle of Long Tan 45–6 275th VC Regiment attack 70 casualties 73
 saga and controversies 73
- Bich, Lieutenant Colonel Tran Dinh 199–200
- Bien Hoa 107–8, 123–4
 5th Division attack 96
 9th Infantry Division 72
- Binh Ba 150–1, 153, 194, 198
 33rd PAVN Regiment occupation 123–4
 614 RF Company in 139–40
 pro-Viet Cong despite surviving colonial framework 56 revolutionary tradition and isolation 56–7
 VC infiltration 151
- Binh Gia 57, 65, 84–5
 surviving on airlifted supplies 197
- Binh Long province 193
- Binh Xuyen 48
- booby traps 104
- bribery 42, 113
- bunker systems 133–4, 148, 153, 172
- Cambodia 188
 logistics networks that extended into 135
 PAVN crossing from Cambodia to Binh Long 193
- Cambodia incursion 152, 169 successful joint US–Vietnamese operations 191–2
- capitalism 157, 158–9
- Catholic parties 182–3
- cave systems 104, 105–6
- ceasefire 201–3
- Central Committee
 realisation of failed offensive 97–8 Resolution 13 issue 65–6, 93–4
- Central Highlands 193
- Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) 28–9 PRU 85
 sponsorship of PRU 43
- Central Military Party Committee 94
- Central Office for South Vietnam (COSVN) 93–4 1ATF as both threat and opportunity 72 dissemination of instructions for general offensive 100 recruitment drive 65–6
 Resolutions 9 and 14 147
- Chau, Tran Minh 49
- Chau Duc district 46, 102
 infrastructure 151
 reconnaissance-in-force operations and access denial 154 sophisticated Party apparatus 46
 winter–spring plan for 100
- Chau Duc District Company 153, 197
 C20 and C21 units; later combined to C41 50
- chemical defoliant 80–1
- Chien Tang* campaign 26
 problems that hampered 26–7
- Chieu Hoi program 87, 149
- Chinese Agricultural Technical Group (CATG) 165
- Chinese Communist Party, ‘revolutionary warfare’ model (Mao Zedong) 12–13

- Christie, Martin S. 148–9
 Christmas bombings 202–3
 civic action 81–4, 91, 117
 Civil Guard (CG) 44
 see also Regional Force/Popular Force
 civil–military command structure 15–16
 Civil Operations and Revolutionary Development Support (CORDS) 29–31, 203–4 continued concern about Phuoc Tuy's progress 132 CORDS Advisory Team land tenure survey 61–2
 creation 84
 ICEX adoption 85 leadership within 160
 misleading CORDS reports regarding PSDF enrolment 176–7 new concept for training units 139 optimism permeated 118 province as underperformer 178 scepticism towards CORDS metrics
 – ‘this month’s fairy story’ 127
 village militias 177
 civil programs 117, 136
 Clearing Zone 171, 195–6
 Clifford, Clark, on Johnson Administration 98–9 close-in ambushing see ambushing Colby, William 177–8
 Accelerated Pacification Campaign, persuasion for 120 pacification acid test – hamlet militia 129 ‘political-pacification’ offensive 124 shift in emphasis away from territorial security to internal security 169 Cold War
 ‘development’ as crucial strategic part 10
 Kennedy’s commitment of Administration to winning in Third World 9
 Combined Campaign Plan 69
 Combined Studies Division 86
 Commander Australian Forces Vietnam (COMAFV) 33
 Task Force confirmation 101–2
 Commonwealth Far East Strategic Reserve (FESR), Australian commitment to 15
 communism 157
 absence of the unconventional/conventional dichotomy in communist doctrine 193–4 communist subversion 19 communist-led insurgencies 159
 campaign effectiveness 16 change-related origins – political, social and economic solutions 8 key existed if it could be found and turned 16 Korean, Philippine, Chinese and Indochinese theatres 9–10
 own peace terms 190–205
 US soldiers addressed consistently with efforts to understand 14 views of threat posed by 9–10 Communist Party
 Central Committee Resolution 13 issue 65–6, 93–4
 central tenet of a crippled ARVN 193–4 pre-1969 strategy driver see ‘general offensive–general uprising’ model communities
 Catholic communities 182 ‘community development’ versus ‘development’ 11–12 experiencing ebb and flow of guerrilla conflict 149 family and community ties 117–18, 149–50 fostering sense of community 163–4 government allegiance 58 joining NLF 16–17
 shaped by economic circumstance, religion, ethnicity and geography 33 Cong, Major Nguyen The 198 consumer goods 158
 consumerism 158–9
 cordon and searches (C&S) 86, 102, 106–7, 116
 1ATF abandonment of 116 corruption 42, 91, 113, 121, 132–3, 141–2, 176, 191, 199, 200, 205

- counterinsurgency active minority cultivation– population security and support 15–16
 assumption of openness to reform programs 22 ‘comprehensive counterinsurgency effort’ proposals 26–7 defined orthodoxy 14 ‘development’ connection 10 extensive experience of 172 frustrations of fighting 104 MAAG’s lip service to 24
 military strategy–
 counterinsurgency–modernisation
 nexus 8
 misunderstandings of nature 69 orthodoxy 22, 23
 responsibility resting with Americans 26
 Rostow’s speech at 1961 course 8 success factors 15–16 traditions 12–13 counter-revolutionary warfare (CRW) 15, 150–1 lack of CRW doctrine 15 ‘main part of struggle is political’
 maxim 15–16
 creating security necessary for RD to succeed 69
 Cullather, Nick, diplomacy inadequate for Asian economic integration 10 culture 16–17
 Currie, Major M.D. 132–3
- D445 Battalion (Viet Cong) 36–7, 45–6, 50–1, 70–1, 73, 92, 108–9,
 133–4, 146–7, 151, 172, 197
 AFV concerns for ‘... largely undetected...’ 172 attack failure, subsequent withdrawal 97
 D440 and subsidiary sapper and artillery support 50–1 differentiating from local cadre or district company 177–8 directive to move into Long Dat district 147
- discovery in Long Hais by 8RAR
 150–1
 Long Phuoc as key recruits/supplies source for 53
 move to intercept US 173rd; subsequent forced retreat 67–8 moving undetected in Baria 96 relief forces disruption to cohesion 96–7
 responsibility for Phuoc Tuy
 offensive 96
 ‘suicide squads’ 154
 Daly, Lieutenant General Tom 147
 Dat, Lieutenant Colonel Le Duc career 40–1
 figure in pacification 41–2
 military force at hand 43 personal failings of subordinates and RVN 42
 removal of Long Tan/Long Phuoc people from Viet Cong control 68–9
 as transplanted Northerner 62–3 Viet Cong regular–saboteurs and spies, distinction 41
 Dat Do district 40, 47–8, 84–5, 99, 102–4, 125, 198
 attacks on 92
 bunker destruction 148
 C25 Company and guerrilla mortar fire 108–9
 D445 occupation 133–4, 197
 easy access challenge 73–4 heavy patrolling in and around 133–4
 improvement in security in 138
 minefield and fence construction between sea and Dat Do 74, 82–3
 mobilising the people 96
 Mulcahy’s perceived leadership failure in 112
 occupied 107–8
 physical boundary 106–7 population security in and around 121 reoccupation 198
 RVN division 59–60
 Task Force’s stubborn refusal to mount operations in 146–7

- Dat Do* history records 66–7 attacks by fire 107–8
 bunker destruction 148
 bunkers 134–5
 Chieu Hoi program effectiveness 87 control of population centres in anticipation of an imminent ceasefire 202 ‘death fence’ 76–7
 Front cadre and soldiers ‘mobilising people’ 203
 Long Hais 104
 minefields 78
 ‘post-resuscitation pacification plan’ 84
 Resolutions 9 examined by Ba Long Province Committee 147 targeting Phuoc Tuy infrastructure 85
 a ‘tense situation’ 154
 Dau, Vo Van 49
 ‘de-Americanization’ 138 democracy 179–80
 democratic governance at all RVN levels 170
 and pacification 90
 Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV) 169 bombing 202–3 isolation of 169, 192–3
 McGarr’s desire to invade 24
 Northerners’ focus on building 20 proposed treaty 200–1 upper hand at negotiating table 65–6 demolition programs 105–6
 Department of External Affairs 132–3
 Department of Foreign Affairs 159
 Deputy Province Senior Adviser (DPSA), on Pacification Programme 92
 Deputy to COMUSMACV for CORDS (DEPCORDS) 124 ‘development’ crucial (US) Cold War stratagem 10 versus ‘community development’ 11–12
 Westad’s – as ‘becoming more like America’ 10 Diem, President Ngo Dinh 165–7 assassination 26
 Chieu Hoi program 87
 ideas on defeating VWP and strengthening RVN 21 legislative solution to land ownership issue 17 overthrow 21
 policy suggestions from allies 20–1 politicisation of RVNAF officer corps 25
 Directory of Military Intelligence (DMI) 186–7
 RF company commanders analysis 175
 Walkinshaw’s views (Op Dong Khoi), report 174
 District Intelligence and Operations Coordinating Centre (DIOCC) 115–16, 195
 Don, Senator Tran Van 182–3 Dong, Prime Minister Pham Van 20 draft dodgers 86, 102
 Duan, General Secretary Le 117, 169 failed third effort to force a military solution 200–1 faith in NLF ability 193–4 ‘general offensive–general uprising’ model, faith in 190, 192–3 hopes for decisive victory – unassailable Paris position 192–3 planning for 1967–68 winter–spring campaign 94 realisation of Tet failure 97–8 securing support for general offensive–general uprising 94–5 ‘talk’ in Party’s ‘talk–fight’ strategy 93–4
 Duc, Captain Le Van 112, 114 Duc My 150–1
 VC infiltration 151
 Duc Thanh district 40, 55, 57, 125, 153
 Mulcahy’s perceived leadership failure in 112 rubber industry 55–6 ‘shadow population’ 57–8
 under almost complete communist control 55

- Duc Trung 128
 Dung, General Van Tien 94
 ‘general offensive–general uprising’ model, faith in 192–3 Dung, Major Le Cong 42
 Dzu, Truong Dinh 183, 184
- Easter Offensive see Nguyen Hue
 Offensive
- economic programs 117
- economics
 communist-led insurgencies,
 emergence factor 8
 economic prosperity as determinant of political allegiance 80, 81 economic self-interest 117–18, 149–50
 French colonial period, economic inequalities 16–17, 48 importance of rice to Long Dat village economies 61–2
 political and economic reforms 14, 21, 145, 179, 185
 rites of ancestor worship, land underpinning 16–17
 strong economic growth in Phuoc Tuy 154 tradition–economic reality intertwining 49–50
 tremendous economic power – IATF 81–2
- elections 89–90, 145, 169, 179
 boycotting or ballot defacing 184–5 disengaged electorate 180–2
 election fixing 89–90 electoral malfeasance 183–4 endorsement 183, 184
 role in increasing political participation 180 showing continuing political divisions within Phuoc Tuy 188 showing limitations of reform process 188–9
 slates 182, 183, 184
 Thieu won unopposed 183, 184–5
 voters 185
 voting 182
- electronic media, growth in 158
- emerging/newly emerged nations 9–10 Rostow’s modernisation-based growth theory 8
 US institutional exports to 10
- Europe, Second World War
 destabilisation of 9–10
- Ewell, Lieutenant General Julian 131–2
 returning to operations in depth against main force units and base areas 135
- First Indochina War 38–9, 62 changed character – French exit from/division of Vietnam 41
- Florence, Major Brian 76
- foreign aid 10
 community development centrepiece 11–12
- Fox, Geoffrey 159
 IACAU’s project planning and selection 165
- France
 French Catholic Personalism
 doctrine 21
 French exit from/division of Vietnam see First Indochina War war against 17, 38–9
- Fraser, Malcolm 174
- Free World Military Assistance Forces (FWMAF) 45–6, 88, 102–4
 abolished division of responsibilities
 between RVNAF and FWMAF
 122 arrival altering power balance in Phuoc Tuy 66
 creating security necessary for RD
 to succeed 69
- Front’s liberated zones – vulnerability to efforts from 67
- military units supporting pacification and securing populated areas 120
- offensive 66
- pacification support 173
- Phuoc Tuy entry 66
- population security pacification
 support 69
- Front’s liberated zones – vulnerability
 to efforts from 67

- Gallia rubber plantation 153
 General Mobilization Law 176–7 ‘general offensive–general uprising’ model 93–4, 100, 117, 190, 192–4 securing support for 94–5 Geneva Agreements 19 ‘ghost soldiers’ 199
 Giap, General Vo Nguyen 20
 Gorton, Prime Minister John 167 Government of Vietnam (GVN) 97–8 costs of To Cong campaign 19–20 growing support through civic action 83–4 ‘illegal squatters’ 58 ongoing war a contest between freedom and authoritarian communism 89, 179–80 overt GVN identification 100 pretensions as protector of loyal villagers 101 pushing slates 183, 184 retreat to Xuyen Moc village 58 Graham, Brigadier S.C. 139–40 breaking of links between main and local forces 71–2, 73–4, 106–7, 134, 145, 146 capabilities of the Territorials 88–9 civic action ‘unduly played up’ 84 criticisms (of decisions) 76–8
 Dat do minefield and ‘fence’ – VC supply stoppages 74, 134 defence of minefield decision 77 lack of troops shaping two decisions 74 main force threat – two attacks 73 operational concept to counterinsurgency context 72
 pacification – operational concept 64–71, 72, 91
 spurning MACV simplistic measures 71 stark choice offered to Front 72 Greater Solidarity Force 182–3 guerrilla warfare 87–8, 102 aggressive action to fix and destroy 14
 Australian doctrine development 15
 Front guerrilla units 50
 guerrilla grievances exploitation 14, 49–50 guerrilla–the people relationship 13–14 infiltration and exfiltration 37–8, 74, 148–9 isolation from supply, intelligence and recruits 14 Kennedy’s warning of and subsequent combat with 9
 low-level guerrilla activity and spectacular events 16 Party preparing for, shifting to, and observing principles of 13 sustained and victorious armies – rural populace support 13–14 Hamlet Evaluation System (HES) 109–10, 125–6 APC study into limitations 127 controversy and drawbacks 126 HES scores 150
 hamlet militia 127–8, 129
 hamlets 143
 destruction of overt GVN identification in 100 eliminating Front via RD groups 43
 Front’s increased political advantage 51
 Front’s last-gasp attempt to gain control of 201
 GVN relocation of 58 hamlet-by-hamlet survey 62
 layers of allegiance 54
 leader kidnappings/assassinations 56, 108–9
 Long Tan relocation to government-controlled hamlets 67
 ‘New Life Hamlet’ (Ap Doi Moi) 43, 84–5 nominated by Komer for APC 125
 penetrations of 110
 policy towards ‘artificial’ hamlets 57
 premature declaration of hamlets as secure 128
 restoration of governments 125, 131

- a thousand hamlets under government control 120
see also villagers/villages
- Hanoi, logical choice not taken 95
- Hassett, Brigadier Frank, CRW pamphlet 15
- Hat Dich ('Base Area 303') 36, 131, 169–70
 - 1ATF operations in 146–7
 - 274th Regiment defence of 72
 - search-and-destroy mission (5th VC Division) 66, 70
- Henderson, Brigadier W.G. 151–2
 - close ambushing 152–3
 - infantry use 145
 - operational concept 145, 170–1
 - pacification support 144
 - 'training by example' 152–3
- Herring, George, '... framework for continuing the war without direct American participation' 203
- 'hidebound' 24
- high-yield rice strains 145
- Ho Chi Minh 20
- Ho Chi Minh Trail 191–2
 - nationwide logistics system connected to 78
- Hoa Long village 53–4, 84–5, 102, 150–1, 154, 194, 198
 - 1ATF civic action priority 82–3
 - caught in the middle 51–2, 54
 - elimination of NPPF company and government leadership in 100
 - Front members living in 86
 - government interference 54
 - Heavyweight base to north of 96
 - Line Alpha detour around 68–9
 - long-term challenge posed by relocated populations 83–4
 - mobilising the people 96
 - Operation Oakleigh 102
 - residual allegiance in 195
 - VC infiltration 151
- Hoan, Nguyen Ton, Deputy Prime Minister for pacification appointment and exile 26
- Hoi My 148–9, 194
- Honda motorbikes 158
- Hop Tac* campaign 26
 - problems that hampered 26–7
- Horseshoe base 133–4
- Hue 193
- Hughes, Brigadier R.L. 102, 105, 108
 - Acorn missions 116
 - saturated Long Hais in explosives 107
 - Tet Offensive response 101–2
- Hung, Bui Thai 49
- imperial mentality 77–8
- incompetence 42, 118–19, 142, 191, 199–200, 205
- India
 - independence 9–10
 - US aid effort centrepiece (community development) 11–12
- Indochina
 - colonial period, economic inequalities 16–17
 - French campaigns in 12–13
- Indochinese Communist Party (ICP), discontent into support against French 17
- Indonesia, independence 9–10
- infiltration 37–8, 74
 - 'typical' 148–9
- insurgencies
 - codified basic principles 14
 - communist-led see communist-led insurgencies
 - as form of armed conflict 14
 - political, social and economic solutions to 8
 - 'steel frame' – former Viet Minh 48–9
 - VWP-led 40
- Intelligence collection and exploitation staff (ICEX) system 85
 - first committee meeting 86
 - progress 115–16
 - see also* Phoenix program; Phung Hoang program
- International Rice Research Institute (IRRI) 157
- Jackson, Brigadier Oliver David 33, 146
 - Nui Dat base buffer zone 68
 - pacification – operational concept 70–1, 72

- Jackson, Brigadier Oliver David (cont.)
 request for Long Phuoc's resettlement 67–8 spurning MACV simplistic measures 71
 threat of main force units 72
- Johnson, President Lyndon Baines 27, 89, 117, 165–7
 challengers – Senators McCarthy and Kennedy 98–9
 escalation of conflict (1965) 40, 64–5
 Komer's patron 124
 pacification, two-fold influence on 27–9
 'pacification czar' – Komer 124–5 pacification revival task 27
- Johnson Administration changes within over the Tet period 98–9 mobilisation 98
 shifting the burden 138
 Vietnam withdrawal 65–6
- Joint Australian Forces Vietnam/
 Australian Embassy Pacification Committee 148
- Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS), bungled efforts at political manipulation 98–9
- Joint General Staff 124
- junta 89–90
- Keinarth, Lieutenant Colonel 132
- Kennedy, President John F.
 Diem–Kennedy relationship collapse 21 guerrilla warfare agenda forced upon military 9 hopes for NLF defeat at hands of RVNAF 23–4
 Johnson presidential challenge 1968
 98–9
 US Congress speech – 'rising peoples'; communism; Cold War commitment 9
- Kennedy Administration
 commitment to winning Cold War in Third World 9
 feelers to opposition factions 26
- military strategy–
 counterinsurgency–modernisation
 connections 8 policy responses – divisions within 16 reaction to growing insurgency in RVN 20–1
 Vietnam, formula application 26–7
- Khanh regime, Nguyen Ton Hoan as Deputy Prime Minister for
 pacification 26
- Khrushchev, Nikita 157
- Kissinger, Henry 200–2
- Kolka, Gabriel 161
- Komer, Robert 160
 Accelerated Pacification Campaign, persuasion for 120
 APC-launch eve departure 124–5
 centralising responsibility for pacification support under MACV 29
 emergence of a popularly based GVN 89
 management problem mandate 31 mandate to improve pacification performance 29
 push for South Vietnamese to mount 'political-pacification'
 offensive 124
 on security situation 110
- Kontum province 193, 196–7
- Krepinevich, Andrew 24
- Ky, Nguyen Cao 89–90, 182–3
 Supreme Court ruling of illegitimacy 183, 184
- Ky–Thieu government 26
- Laird, Melvin 135–6, 138
- Lam, Lieutenant General Hoang Xuan 192
- land-clearing program 106–7, 133–4
- land grabs 120
- land ownership 16–17
- land reform 160
 conceptual problem 18
 Diem's program 17
 direct benefits 162–3 failure 17–18

- Northerners' disastrous handling of 20 rural bureaucracy's inability to cope with tasks 18, 23 tenancy rates 17
 under Viet Minh 17
 underestimating importance 162
- land tenure 61–2, 91
 continued dominance of tenancy in 159
 landlord–tenant relationship 16–17 mechanism for farmers to escape tenancy 145 surveys 61–2
- Land to the Tiller (LTTT) laws 61–2, 145, 160 creation of large, rural middle class 161–2 effectiveness 161 influences on economic fortunes and political allegiances 162–3 success drivers 164 transformed farmer attitude, better than miracle rice 162
- Lang Phuoc Hai 73, 76–7, 84–5, 88–9
- Laos 191–2
 logistics networks that extended into 135
- Latin America, newly emerged nation, growth as 8
- 'Le Loi' campaign 125
- Leggett, Captain Jack 86
- Lerner, Daniel, modernity transition causing dislocation 11
- liberalism (Western), Diem's rejection of 21
- liberated zones 60, 62, 67
- Light Green corridor 60, 73
- Line Alpha 68–9
- Linh, Major Trinh Anh 90
- Lo Gom 73–4, 76–7, 88–9
- Lockhart, Greg 77–8
- logistics (Viet Cong) 151
 crises 145
 key hubs 37, 38, 57–8, 152 logistic disruptions 191–2
 minefields 79
 networks 38–9
- Long, Major Tran Thanh 113
- Long Binh 123–4
- 2RAR/NZ (ANZAC), 7RAR and supporting elements deployment to 95–6
- Long Dat district 46, 147
 C25 Company unit 50 control vital – population concentration and valuable fishing industry 60
- Front continuous division 59–60 importance of rice to economies 61–2 NLF's perceived unimpeded access to 73–4
 sophisticated Party apparatus 46
- Long Dat Party Committee, Long Phuoc seat 67–8
- Long Dien district 40, 99, 102–4, 118, 125
 attacks on 92
 attacks throughout 88 D445 attack 108–9
 easy access challenge 73–4
 Front elements infiltrations into 128
 improvement in security in 138
 mobilising the people 96
 occupied 107–8
 physical boundary 106–7
 South Vietnamese relief force dispatched from 96 Task Force's stubborn refusal to mount operations in 146–7 villagers helped Viet Cong 99–100
- Long Dien village 59–60, 112
- Long Green corridor 60, 74
- Long Hai Mountains (Long Hais) 37, 136 173rd Airborne Brigade's sweep 66, 70
 cave systems 104, 105–6 Front's Minh Dam Secret Zone 38–9
 heavy patrolling in and around 133–4
 key 'high ground' 38
 and Op Pinnaroo 102–4, 105–6
 physical boundary 106–7

- Long Hai Mountains (cont.)
 and population 59–60, 121 sanctuary the enemy has in 148–9
 saturated in explosives 107
- Long Khanh 72, 196, 197, 198
 1ATF operations in 172
- Long Le, attacks throughout 88
- Long Le district 37, 40
 Front's overt government functioning 51–2 Task Force's stubborn refusal to
 mount operations in 146–7
- Long My, US bombing/destruction of 67
- Long Phuoc 51–3, 67–8
 destruction 54, 68
 re-established as 'combat village' 203–4
 remove people/regain control (Dat)
 versus destruction 68–9
 villagers unimpressed with 1ATF 82–3
- Long Son village unit 50
- Long Tan, Battle of see Battle of Long Tan
- Long Tan rubber plantation 73
- Long Tan village 52
 destruction 54
 post-US destruction relocation 67
 re-established as 'combat village' 203–4
 remove people/regain control (Dat)
 versus destruction 68–9
- McAllister, James 89–90
- McCarthy, Senator Eugene 98–9
- McDonagh, Lieutenant Colonel J.F.
 81
- McDonald, Brigadier B.A. 171–3
- McGarr, General Lionel C. 16, 24
- McKeown, M.J. 132–3
- McMahon, Prime Minister William 186
- main force units 72, 122, 123–4, 135 1ATF's primary mission of destruction 122–3, 144, 170–1, 172 established in Hat Dich base area 169–70
- firepower-heavy operations against communist main force units 135–6
- Long Tan's demonstration of dangers posed by 73
- PLAF and PAVN units lurking 204
- symbiotic relationship between communists and guerrillas 78, 146
- Malaya, British efforts 12–13
- Malayan Races Liberation Army 15
- Mao Zedong 12–14
- material aid 21–3
- May Tao, search-and-destroy mission (5th VC Division) 66, 70
- Medical Civil Affairs Program
 (MEDCAP) 82
- Mekong Delta 162–3, 164
 rental inequality in 18
- military action 57, 66, 178–9
- Military Assistance Advisory Group (MAAG) 24, 69
- Military Assistance Command
 Vietnam (MACV) 28–9, 138, 142–3
- II Field Force Vietnam (IIFV) 69, 70–1, 73–4, 101–2, 123
 attempts to quantify HES 126
 centralising responsibility for pacification support under 29
 and counterinsurgency 69 dismissal of 'enclave' arguments 70 emergent optimism on Tet failure 97–8
 emphasis on offensive action 70 institutional culture 25–6
- military strategy
 barrier-shield tactic 153
 failure of communist strategy on the battlefield 95
 military strategy–
 counterinsurgency–modernisation
 nexus 8
 pacification as key part of US strategy 27
- Resolution 13 codification of
 'talk-fight' strategy 65–6
 'talk-fight' strategy 93–4, 147

- US Cold War development strategy 10
- VC ploy – firing mortars from within inhabited areas; preventing retaliatory fire 68–9
- Westmoreland's three-phase strategy 66, 69
- military units
- counterinsurgency role 15–16
 - and pacification 120
- minefields 74, 76, 82–3
- anti-lift devices 76–7
 - mine casualty rates 134, 147
 - mines and booby traps 104
 - morale problems 134
 - redeployment of mines 107
- Minh, General Duong Van 'Big' 183, 184
- Minh, Major 178–9, 195
- Minh Dam Secret Zone (Viet Cong) 38–9, 102–4, 105–7
- Ministry for Social Welfare and Refugees (MSWR) 42
- 'miracle rice' 156–7, 159
- and rural middle class 157–8
- MLRA 15
- Mobile Advisory Teams (MAT) 139–40, 141–2, 152–3
- RF/PF under tutelage of MAT teams 142
- Mobile Advisory Training Team (MATT) 101–2
- modernisation theory 8, 89, 145, 158–9
- appeal of 11
 - forced Western-modelled 'modernisation' 80–1
 - 'high modernism' 10–11
 - Johnson's belief in 27–8
 - 'low modernism' 11–12, 165–7
- Modica, Lieutenant Colonel Giac P. 198, 201, 202
- Morrison, Lieutenant Colonel 134
- Moyar, Mark 161–2
- Mulcahy, William F. 100, 111–12, 125, 128
- on cordon and searches 116
 - fighting potential government turning point 109
 - Kiet's replacement 113
- Murphy, John 80
- Musgraves, Major R. 195–6
- My Xuan 130–1, 176–8
- 'nation-building' 10
- National Constituent Assembly 179
- National Front for the Liberation of South Vietnam (NFLSVN or NLF) 16, 40, 99–100
- anti-pacification focus 148
 - base areas 36, 37, 62–3, 70, 105–6, 131, 135
 - composition 46–7
 - continuous 'Long Dat' 59–60
 - defeated in both a military and a political sense 99
 - district units 50
 - eroded the capability and influence of 154
 - execution of attack series in Phuoc Tuy 92
 - factors in growth of 16–17, 19–20
 - former Viet Minh then 'second wave' core 48–9
 - Front members 102
 - Front 'suppliers' 178–9
 - Front taxation/interdiction 36, 56, 59
 - Front's direct methods to combat action against its own ranks 88
 - growing political marginalisation 191
 - individuals/communities membership/support 16–17, 58
 - land reform policies 62
 - logistical hub – Nui Dinhs 37
 - logistics networks, regional and national 38–9
 - Long Hai sanctuary 38
 - Long Phuoc as support centre 67–8
 - military advantage over RVN 51
 - military dominance, end of 64–5
 - Minh Dam Secret Zone (Long Hais) 38–9
 - mortar fire along Route 15 37–8
 - NLF attack at Lang Phuoc Hai 73
 - NLF-controlled settlements 58
 - NLF guerrillas as 'illegitimates' (Dat) 41

- National Front for the Liberation of South Vietnam (cont.) Nui Dinh's hill system and advantages 37–8 objectives for 66–7
 offensive 108
 and Op Pinnaroo 104
 'Phuoc Tuy's Own' see D445 Battalion post-1959 rise and corresponding Party return 62 pro-Front areas 117–18 recruitment (voluntary/forced) program focus and success 194 relocation of populations 64 RF/PF casualties due to violence 44–5 role of 'government' assumption on basis of a force monopoly 62–3 RVN and Front capitals, armed forces and political infrastructure in 40 shadow structure 58 Slope 30 as key logistical hub 57–8, 79, 80–1 subsidiary base areas 36 sustained by popular support 56, 58 and Tet Offensive 92–3, 97–8 tradition, family and displacement support basis 58, 60, 62 unimpeded access to Long Dat 73–4 upper hand 60 village units 50
 war against 169
 National Liberation Front see National Front for the Liberation of South Vietnam National Police Field Force (NPF) 43, 115–16
 poor behaviour 118
 role in eliminating infrastructure 85
 National Training Centre 96 nationalism 117–18
 nationalist ARVN officer corps core 41
 political nationalism 149–50 Nationalist Salvation Front 182–3 nepotism 200
 neutralisation 128, 178–9
 dossiers for 115–16
 New Deal 10–11, 27–8
 New Zealand Army units see Australian Army units
 Nga, Nguyen Van 48
 Ngai Giao 84–5, 198
 Ngo family 19, 21, 23, 25
see also Diem, President Ngo Dinh; Nhu, Ngo Dinh Nguyen, Huyhn Van 182–3
 Nguyen Hue Offensive 45–6, 190, 196–7, 204
 exposed incompetent and corrupt members of province government 199–200 failures the result of poor leadership at all levels 200, 201 Front paved the way politically for upcoming 194 test of pacification and Vietnamisation 191
 Nhan Xa Party 182–3 Nhu, Ngo Dinh
 assassination 26
 social revolution through Strategic Hamlets 22–3 Nixon, President Richard 117, 157, 169
 China visit 186
 policies to disengage the United States from Vietnam 188 public faith in handling of war plummeted 192 South Vietnam's independence 191–2 unleashing of last resort 202–3
 Nixon Administration 142–3, 167 intensive training/modern equipment to South Vietnam 120 successful pursuit of détente and rapprochement 169, 192–3 see also Vietnamisation
 Northerners 8–32
 DRV building 20
 Nui Dat 37
 1ATF's arrival at 54, 66, 72
 1ATF's defence of 72
 1ATF's formal departure from 187–8
 275th Regiment's attack objective 72, 73

- Australian base 33, 67–8
- Hoa Long proximity to 82–3
- Line Alpha 68–9
- Nui Dinh Hills ('Warburtons') 37, 131
 - importance of 37–8
- Nui May Tao Hills ('Base Area 300') 37
 - IATF operations in 146–7
 - military problem 37
- Nui Thi Vai 37, 130
- Office of Civil Operations (OCO) 29
- 'one war' policy 120, 123–4
 - limits 121
- O'Neill, Lieutenant Colonel Keith 150–1
- Operation Dong Khoi ('Rise Up') 173–4
- Operation Lam Son 719 191–3
 - 'conventional' nature of 193–4
- pacification 131, 143
 - IATF pacification support operations 121
 - basic problem facing 167
 - battlefield complexity 51–2, 55–6
 - coexistence of high and low modernism 12
 - a coloured US attitude 26
 - damage done to pacification 100
 - defining political and social conditions 64
 - derailment, problems leading to 21, 23
 - Diem's attitude 22
 - evolution rather than a revolution in 142–3
 - failure of political reform as a mechanism for pacification 185–6
 - far from well run or effective 91
 - flexibility to deal with complexity of Phuoc Tuy 63
 - importance of effective leadership in 132–3
 - improved implementation not model 26–7
 - inadequacy of material aspects of 83–4
 - incompatibility of population relocation with 79–80
 - increasing focus on as problem of security 41–2
 - in limbo 26
 - management and conception of pacification 29–31
 - as management problem 31
 - nationwide pacification effort 22
 - Nguyen Hue Offensive as test of 191
 - no questioning of underpinning assumptions 26–7
 - as nominal priority 26
 - ongoing, long-term problem facing 121
 - Phuoc Tuy road network 35–6
 - political dimension 124–5
 - population security as critical 69, 145
 - practical–theoretical framework 9
 - 'preparing the battlefield' (Graham's operational concept) 64–91
 - and President Johnson 27–9
 - prioritisation of security over development harmful to 130
 - problems 109
 - progress 185, 191
 - 'rational peasant' underpinning 59
 - RD nominal centrepiece 43
 - RD teams full strength 92
 - recruiting and training PSDF as major objective 176
 - securing of allegiance through material largesse 82–3, 117
 - shaping 8, 16, 31, 40, 54
 - simplistic narrative that pacification had triumphed in the countryside 194
 - sophisticated and varied response for Phuoc Tuy 33
 - success reliant on cessation of Front's access to villages 51
 - supporting see pacification support
 - sustained campaigns 64–5, 144
 - TAKEOFF as 'crash effort' 29–31, 87, 160
 - Tet Offensive paralysis of 92–3
 - US-planned campaigns 26
 - withdrawal of advisory presence marked end 191

- pacification campaigns 90–1, 120
 body count 135
 Chien Tang and Hop Tac 26
see also Accelerated Pacification Campaign
- pacification plans 157–8
- pacification programs 84–5
 continuing Front challenges to 149 continuous nexus of corruption and incompetence within province government 199 events defining 117–18
- pacification support 29, 66, 69, 70–1, 120
 operations 121
 shifting 1ATF away from 144, 173
- Paris negotiations 117
- Paris Peace Accords 190 signing 191
- Paris peace talks 131, 190, 192–3
- patrolling 133–4, 140
- patronage 132–3
- peace, ‘war for peace’ 190–205
- Peace Accords 203
- Pearson, Brigadier C.M.I. ‘Sandy’ 121, 140, 146
 end of tour and return to Australia 144 keen interest in pacification 122
 operational concept 133, 134
 pacification progress 127
 viewed primary mission of 1ATF as destruction of communist main force units 122
- People’s Army of Vietnam (PAVN)
 65–6, 169–70, 198
 33rd Regiment 123–4, 172, 187, 197
 aggressive operations against 69
 Binh Long attack 193, 196–7 campaigns 190
 central tenet of a crippled ARVN 193–4
 heavy costs of Tet Offensive 92–3 increasingly well-equipped formations 193 participation in new offensive 193
 small rearguards 172
 successful operations 188
 Tet Offensive casualties 97–8
 threat posed by large units 123–4
- People’s Liberation Armed Forces (PLAF) 169–70, 198
 5th Division 45–6, 66, 96
 D445 Battalion see D445 Battalion
 aggressive operations against 69
 Front base areas 36–7
 heavy costs of Tet Offensive 92–3
 main force units occupation 56 military victories against ARVN and FVMAF 65–6 repeated defeat of ARVN units 45–6
 small rearguards 172
 sustained strategic offensive against 66
 Tet Offensive casualties 97–8
 threat posed by large units 123–4
 urgent military action against 66
 US battlefield victories over regulars 65–6
- People’s Republic of China 169, 192–3
- People’s Self-Defence Force (PSDF) 125
de facto conscription 177 detachments creation 127–8 enlistment 176–7 ‘hardcore’ (CORDS euphemism) 176–8 pacification acid test 129 recruiting and training of 176 value as a political movement 177 weapons issued 129–30
- Perkins, Raymond L. 187 command ambiguity 195–6 on teenage recruits 194, 195 true (voter) turnout 185
- Personalism 21
- Pfeiffer, Dale B. 109–10, 112
- Phoenix program 115–16, 121, 178–9 to destroy the VCI within villages 127–8 weakness 128, 179
see also Intelligence collection and exploitation staff (ICEX) system; Phung Hoang program

- Phung Hoang program 179, 195
see also Intelligence collection and exploitation staff (ICEX) system; Phoenix program
- Phuoc Hai 148–9, 194
 Front warning of (officials') assassination 87–8
- Phuoc Hoa Long, Front warning of (officials') assassination 87–8
- Phuoc Loi 148–9
- Phuoc Tho, Front warning of (officials') assassination 87–8
- Phuoc Tuy province 117–18
 1966 33–63
 275th Regiment move to 72 ability of province forces to maintain security in absence of 1ATF 173, 178 access to villages basic precondition for existence of insurgency in 149 American and Australian advisers departure 204 amount of cultivated paddy in 156–7 arrival of first US and then Australian and New Zealand forces 64–5, 66 association with VWP 47–8 Australian/Free World military units entry 66 balance of power 66, 90–1 border areas 172
 broad base of support for Republic throughout 188 complex social, political and economic fabric 62, 63 constant churn of personnel within province government problem 114
 continued dominance of tenancy in 159
 continuity in the problems facing 200 coverage by shadow Front districts 46, 57–8
Dat Do history records 66–7 decline in security in 150 dilemmas of security existing 105–6
 'disaster category' 131–2 districts 40
 diversified economy leading to uneven population distribution 34–5 effects of political reform 180 essential statistics, history and monsoonal climate 34 facing onslaught – 'Bereft of their Australian strongmen' 191 failure of military intelligence apparatus in 111, 112 fishing industry 154
 Front faced serious crisis of logistics and morale in 145 future of pacification in 104–5 geography 34, 40, 64 grafting of external, anti-communist populations into 62–3 hamlets nominated by Komer for APC 125 ideal environment for guerrilla operations 38–9 incapable of dealing with any sort of even moderate threat from large Front units 196 land redistribution under Land to the Tiller laws 61–2, 145 leadership failure 112 level of Front support within 194 liberated zone 62, 67
 military force 43
 November 1970 – November 1971 169–89
 November 1971 – January 1973 190–205 an overt government visibility that hid a covert Front presence 54–5 pacification progress 90–1, 126
 Party's stronghold 52
 political effects of the offensive in 198–9 population dispersion 59–60 population triangle 34–5, 38 problems facing pacification 109 province chiefs change from civilian bureaucrats to military officers 41–2 Province Senior Advisers 126
 quick recovery 199–200
 report – 'all is not rosy in Phuoc Tuy' 132

- Phuoc Tuy province (cont.)
 RF/PF backbone of RVN presence 43–4
 road network 35–6
 RVN–Front struggle not ending 203–4
 RVN governance 40
 September 1969 – November 1970 144–68 series of events relevant to pacification in 89 shift in Front strategy 147 strategic importance and operational independence offered by 33 surge in fighting in the province’s populated areas 147
 two competing governments in 58 US escalation 40, 64–5
 waning effectiveness of Phung Hoang in 195 was experiencing one of its best harvests in years 154 withdrawal of 1ATF from 186
 Pleiku campaign, US victories, thus need for US withdrawal strategy 65–6
 Poirier, Captain 132
 Police Special Branch (PSB), role in eliminating infrastructure 85 policy
 land reform policies 17, 62
 ‘one war’ policy 120, 121, 123–4, 135–6, 142–3
 soft sentencing policies 195 towards ‘artificial’ hamlets 57
 US pacification policy 124
 US rotational policies 114
 ‘Vietnamisation’ 120, 121, 138, 139, 142–3, 152–3, 167, 169, 171, 172, 173–5, 189, 191
 policy-makers – US 8, 11–12 Politburo 94, 200–1
 spring–summer campaign 192–3 politics
 active participation professional class domain 180–2 deep political change as factor in insurgency 8
 political and economic reforms 14, 21, 145, 179, 185
 Popular Force see Regional Force/Popular Force population decline in 136
 multiple loyalties and interests of 131
 Phuoc Tuy tenth highest ratio of population to ‘assets’ 132 program that aimed actively to win allegiance of 145 reclamation 90–1 significant minority of population throughout the province was ‘pro-VC’ 149–50 population relocation 53, 58, 64, 67 Australian involvement limitations 79–80 forcible relocation in order to deny them to enemy 79 long-term challenge posed by 83–4 population security 69, 105–7, 119, 121, 134–5, 167–8, 170–1 critical to pacification success 145 Weir’s reluctance to engage in 147 poverty 157, 159
 practical experience in fighting insurgencies 12–13 Project TAKEOFF 29–31, 87, 160
 propaganda 88, 137, 148–9
 Anti-communist Denunciation Campaign (ACDC) 18 anti-election propaganda 90 battle 158–9
 Front’s propaganda and political material distribution 51, 128 spreading 56, 129
To Cong campaign 19
 Prosterman, Roy, Land to the Tiller laws 160–1
 Province Intelligence and Operations Coordinating Centre (PIOCC) 115–16 Province Senior Adviser (PSA) 29–31
 lack of aerial photography – LTTT targets 162–3 Provincial Reconnaissance Unit (PRU) 43, 115–16
 role in eliminating infrastructure 85
 psychological warfare techniques 87

- Quang Tri province 198
 PAVN units attack over the DMZ into 193, 196–7
- Quy, Lieutenant Colonel Vu Van 182–3
- Quynh, Captain Dang Cong 113
- Quynh, Captain Dao Van 114
- Race, Jeffrey 40–1
- RAND Corporation
 experiential (cadre) perspectives –
 NLF study 49
 NLF cadre characteristics–study findings ties 49–50
 NLF recruits/cadre study 48–50
To Cong campaign study 19–20
 ‘VC Morale and Motivation’ project 46–7
- ‘rational peasant’ 59
- Rear Services Group 84 37
- reconnaissance-in-force operations 154
- recruitment 53, 176
 COSVN recruitment drive 65–6
 NLF recruits/cadre study 48–50
 teenage recruits 14, 194 voluntary/forced NLF program focus and success 194
- refugees 57, 203
- Regional Force/Popular Force (RF/PF)
 84–5, 115–16, 195–6
 302 RF Battalion 195–6, 197, 199
 614 RF Company 139–40
 assignation to Route 15 villages 45 attack on PF post at Lo Gom 73–4, 76–7
 attack on RF post at Long Phuoc Hai 73, 76–7
 build up competency of 199
 cordoning Minh Dam 106–7 failed task to prevent Front infiltrations 129
 inadequate level of security 121 Op Dong Khoi (‘Rise Up’) 173–4 para-military origins to full-fledged soldiers 44
 PLAF units faced 45–6
 poor behaviour 118
 poor training and motivation leading to unfettered Front access 51
- Popular Force platoons 43, 45, 110
- population security responsibility 138
- problems dogging 174–5
- Regional Force companies 43–4, 45
- RF morale 175–6
- statistics-driven operations 175–6
- Territorials or ‘Ruff Puffs’ see Territorial Forces
- under tutelage of MAT teams 142
- uneven leadership 175
- weakness 88–9
- repression
 in South Vietnam 18, 19
 wide net of repression 19
- Republic of Korea (ROK), army faced north armoured invasion 24
- Republic of Vietnam (RVN) 40, 89, 198
- Central Lowlands rental inequality 18
- democratic governance at all levels 170
- development hastened by former landlords’ industry investment 17
- division into Long Dien and Dat Do
 districts 59–60
- forestall imminent collapse of 66
- growing insurgency 20–1
- guerrilla-damaged rural bureaucracy 16
- VWP–RVN contest 99
- winning the war 169
- Republic of Vietnam Armed Forces
 (RVNAF) 23–4
 abolished division of responsibilities
 between RVNAF and FWMAF
 122
- ambiguous Tet Offensive victory 92–3
- ambushing 153
- C445-defeated RVN sweep in Long Phuoc 53
- CG and SDC absorption into 44
- collapsed defences 196–7
- complex advisory relationship 25
- counterattack 198
- Diem’s ideas of strengthening 21
- Diem’s politicisation of officer corps 25

- Republic of Vietnam Armed Forces (cont.)
 electoral mechanisms use, yet override with undesired results 188–9 faced well-equipped communist units 193 fear and paralysis Tet induced in 100
 French–RVN perceived continuity 60
 Front’s military advantage over 51–2 governance of Phuoc Tuy 40 greater bargaining power in Paris 125 ‘illegal’ members – no legal RVN standing 50 illuminated problems plaguing 192 inadequacy of logistics system 174–5 incapable of maintaining pacification in absence of 1ATF 145 lack of proficiency in basic combat skills 25 legitimacy 185
 manpower scarcity (by 1972) 195
 Operation Lam Son 719 191–2, 193
 political instability 26
 precarious position – corruption, bribery and incompetence 42, 118–19, 191 real power continued to rest within 185–6 Routes 2 and 15 and villages on them open and controlled 36
 as secondary US material/advisory support priority 44–5 Southerners’ desire to overthrow 20 static Phuoc Tuy position 45 strength to meet communist challenge (without US) 120
 Tet as catastrophe 99–100
 Tet representing intelligence failure on the part of 95 training facility for local RVNAF 139
 VWP cultivation of RVN-targeted people 48 Revolutionary Development (RD) 63, 69, 78, 84–5, 91, 100, 109, 117, 124–5 hamstringing 100–1, 110
 shift away from 120
 teams and trained cadre – program implementation 43 teams full strength 92 technical and material assistance to villagers 43 revolutionary tradition 56–7, 60, 62 revolutionary warfare 12–13, 71–2 assumption of openness to reform necessary to defeat 22
 Mao’s model and role for the people in 13–14
 NLF 16
 road network
 Route 2 36, 55, 197
 Route 15 37–8, 45, 58, 130
 Route 23 58, 59, 74, 82, 197
 Route 44 76, 102–4
 Route 328 36, 58
 Roosevelt, President Franklin D., New Deal societal transformation, split in 10–11 Rostow, Walt
 modernisation theory use 8
 modernity transition causing dislocation 11
 Royal Australian Engineer (RAE) Corps, minefield doctrine 76
 Royal Australian Regiment (RAR) see Australian Army units Rule, Captain Clarence 88–9, 96–7
 Rung Sat Special Zone 130, 131 rural bureaucracy, underachievement 18, 23 rural settings see villagers/villages Saigon 193
 5th Division approaches to Saigon focus 45–6 attacks around and within – Third General Offensive 108–9
 and pacification 129–30
 priority area 66
 Scientific Adviser’s Office 151

- search-and-destroy mission 66, 70, 102–4
- II Field Force Vietnam (IIFV) 69, 70–1, 73–4, 123
- request for Task Force 101–2
- Second General Offensive 107–8
- Second World War 9–10
- security situation 70–1
- in Binh Gia 57
- failure of 24, 26
- improvement in security due to Australian actions 138
- improvements in HES-measured security in the relevant hamlets 127
- lack of security 110
- measures safeguarding Phuoc Tuy 178
- plummeting under sustained Front campaign 144
- prioritisation of security over development 130
- ‘real security’ 125
- restoring security 26
- security responsibility of South Vietnamese forces 187–8
- as ‘stalemate’ 23–4
- see also* population security
- Self-Defence Corps (SDC) 44
- see also* Regional Force/Popular Force
- shadow districts/populations 46, 53, 57–8
- Simpson, Ray 149–50
- social change, as factor in emergence of insurgency 8
- socialism, Personalism as ‘third way’ between liberalism and socialism 21
- Société Indochinoise de Plantation d’Hévéas (SIPH) 55–6
- society
- and modernity 11
- and village 11–12
- Song Rai River 40, 58, 59
- bridge destruction (PF traitors) 197
- South Vietnam
- alternative government, growth of 40
- combat forces, improved performance of 23–4
- decimation by To Cong campaign 47–8
- dilemmas of security existing 105–6
- disaster of Lam Son 719 193
- end of war against France as mixed blessing 17
- forces halting Nguyen Hue Offensive 190
- imminent signing of the ceasefire – ‘Landgrab ‘73’ 203
- independent, non-communist 203
- Johnson’s request for ‘massive effort’ for the people 28
- lack of capacity of the South Vietnamese state 23
- pacification’s success in defeating insurgency within 193–4
- ‘political-pacification’ offensive, push for 124
- post-1954 repression 18
- relief force dispatched from Long Dien 96
- rural backlash against government 19–20
- rural communities actively contributing to development 21
- US troops, steady influx of 65–6
- South Vietnamese Government 157–8
- criticisms 89–90
- democratic government 89
- elections giving legitimacy to 179–80
- political and economic reforms 145
- presidential and Lower House elections 89–90, 145, 169, 179
- value of patronage and merit in 113
- village militias 177
- South Vietnamese high command, poor operational security 192
- Southerners 20, 93–4, 169, 190, 192–3
- armed struggle to overthrow GVN 20
- Soviet Union 169, 192–3
- Special National Intelligence Estimate 95
- Special Warfare Centre 8
- counterinsurgency course (1961) 8
- strategic, operational and tactical dilemmas for commanders 66, 69

- Strategic Hamlet Program 22, 165–7
 Ngos view and failure of 22–3 problems that hampered 26–7
 shortages of all kinds 23 technical assistance and material aid pipeline 22
 ‘suicide squads’ 154
- Tactical Operations Centre (TOC) 112
 ‘talk-fight’ strategy 93–4, 147
 Tam Phuoc 84–5, 136
 Taylor, General Maxwell, galvanising RVNAF 25–6
 Tchepone 191–2
 Team 89 110, 119, 191, 199–200, 203–4
 ARVN unit required a ‘major embarrassment’ 196 gathering supplies as major preoccupation of Front units 149 importance of effective leadership in pacification 132 technology, transformative power of 12 tenancy see land tenure tenant–landlord relationship 16–17
 Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA), Asian export of 10–11 Territorial Forces (‘Ruff Puffs’) 43–4, 76–7, 108, 111, 177–8, 195–6 capabilities of the 88–9 compromised ability to defend Phuoc Tuy 199 control handed back to 170–1 corruption and mediocre leadership 141–2 expanded role for 172 Graham’s inflated view of capability 76–7 personnel shortages and defensive-mindedness 100–1 pointless operations 116
 poor performance 204
 problems not solved by training alone 140
 role in eliminating infrastructure 85
 state of 189 static posture 112
 success in defeating Front incursions 204
see also People’s Self-Defence Force; Regional Force/Popular Force Tet Offensive (1968) 64–5, 109 acid test for province government 113 Australian and South Vietnamese relief forces 96–7 biggest consequence – RVN fear and paralysis 100 catalyst for 193–4
 a catastrophe 99–100
 communication delays 96
 failure to provoke general uprising 117 initial Australian reaction to offensive in Phuoc Tuy 102 intelligence reports of 92
 January – October 1968 92–119
 leadership issue in aftermath 113 NLF, PLAF and PAVN casualties 97–8 perception of 99
 scale of 95
 as shock to US, South Vietnam and allies 94–5
 as turning point of war 92–3 viewed as great strategic victory for communists 98 winter–spring campaign and 94
 Thang, General Nguyen Duc 27, 28–9
 Thanh, General Nguyen Chi 93–4 Thieu, President Nguyen Van 89–90, 124 consolidation of power 160
 land reform as pacification centrepiece 160 Land to the Tiller laws 61–2, 145, 160
 ‘Le Loi’ campaign 124, 125
 objections to proposed treaty 201 troubling size of victory 185
 Thieu Government 169 offensive launched against see Nguyen Hue Offensive suite of economic measures enacted by 145 toppling of 190
 Third General Offensive 107–9

- Third World, Kennedy Administration's commitment to winning Cold War in 9
- Tho, Brigadier Tran Dinh, on
 pacification 28
- Tho, Le Duc 200–1
 'General Offensive–General
 Uprising' model, faith in 192–3
- Thuong, Major Nguyen Van 113, 114–15
 defence of innocence 115
- To Cong* campaign 19–20
 decimation of South Vietnamese 47–8
 effectiveness in Long Phuoc 52 success at high cost to government 19, 48
- Toan Thang, Operation (I and II) 101–2
- top-down nation-building model 165–7
- traditional light infantry formations –
 guerrilla isolation 14
- Tron, Do Tranh 42, 113
- Truman, President Harry, developing world emergence 9–10
- Truoc, Lieutenant-Colonel Nguyen Ba 112, 173
- Tu, Lieutenant Colonel Nguyen Van 29, 187, 189, 196, 198
- Tull, Theresa A. 179
- United States
 air power halting Nguyen Hue Offensive 190
 build-up of US forces and supporting infrastructure 66
 'can-do' culture 31, 114–15
 civil action 117
 firepower and mobility 90–1
 Heavyweight artillery base 96 misconceptions of leadership 115 nationwide pacification effort, support for 22
 offensive 66
 own peace terms 190–205
 pacification, visions of 22
 pacification policy, change in 124
 Paris negotiations fait accompli
 190, 192–3
- Phuoc Tuy, advisory presence 190–205
 reducing US casualties 135–6 rotational policies 114
 smoothing modernity transitions 11
 Team 89's advisers departure 191
 Tet representing intelligence failure on the part of 95
- United States Agency for International Development (USAID) 28–9, 160
- United States Army
 II Field Force Vietnam (IIFFV) 69, 70–1
 creating security necessary for RD
 to succeed 69
 Front's liberated zones vulnerability
 to efforts from 67
 misunderstanding of counterinsurgency nature 69
 Nguyen Hue Offensive 190
 operations before/during 1ATF's
 deployment to Phuoc Tuy 66
 pacification campaigns – Chien Tang and Hop Tac 26
 population security pacification
 support 69
 practical experience in fighting
 insurgencies 12–13
 premium on aggression and 'can-do' attitudes 114–15
 Special Warfare Centre 8
 strategic, operational and tactical
 dilemmas for commanders 66, 69
- United States Army units
 1st Battalion, 83rd Artillery 96
 1st Infantry Division 66, 70
 9th Infantry Division 72
 11th Armoured Cavalry Regiment
 (ACR) 72
 101st Airborne Division 135–6
 173rd Airborne Brigade 54, 66,
 67–8, 70, 102–4
- United States Government 9, 11
 Kennedy Administration 8
 ongoing war a contest between freedom and authoritarian communism 89, 179–80
 practical experience in fighting
 insurgencies 12–13
 self-appraisal yet no questioning of assumptions 26–7

- United States Information Service (USIS) 28–9
 United States intelligence agencies 95
 United States Overseas Mission (USOM) 29
 US Agency for International Development (USAID) 160
 US operations in Vietnam
 Operation Abilene 66, 67, 70
 Operation Hardiwood 66
 Operation Hollandia 66
 Operation Linebacker II 202–3
- Van Kiep 40, 96
 Vann, John Paul 40–1, 110
 Viet Cong 167 attacks mounted on government buildings 194
 bunker systems 172
 Dat's conscripted-'illegitimates' distinction 41
 Ho Chi Minh Trail cutting – logistic disruptions 191–2 increased boldness 109
 Minh Dam fortress as Long Dat centre 38–9 ploy to prevent retaliatory fire 68–9 population 'pro-VC' 149–50 supply system and the 'fence' (Graham) 74 territory – Slope 30 57–8, 79, 80–1
see also National Front for the Liberation of South Vietnam Viet Cong Infrastructure (VCI) 40, 46, 50, 167 coordinate actions against 115–16 elimination 125, 127–8
 officials identified neutralised 128, 178 Phoenix program unable to undermine 121
 premature declaration of hamlets as secure 128 rebuilding of VCI supply system across south-eastern provinces of MR3 195 reduced pressure 195 security provided by Front's district units 50
- Viet Cong (VC) units
 5th Division 66, 70, 72, 96, 123–4
 1st Battalion 172, 196
 3rd Battalion 172
 D440 Battalion 50–1
 D445 Battalion 36–7, 45–6, 50–1, 53, 67–8, 70–1, 73, 92, 96–7, 108–9, 133–4, 146–7, 150–1, 154, 172, 177–8, 197
 33rd Regiment 172, 196
 274th Regiment 72, 172, 196, 197
 275th Regiment 70, 72, 73
 C20 Company 50
 C21 Company 50
 C23 Company 50
 C25 Company 50, 108–9
 C41 Company 50, 151
 C445 Company 52–3
 local force units 70–2, 145
 main force units see main force units tax collection, propaganda spread and assassination 129
- Viet Minh 48
 former members 20, 48–9
 land reform policies 17
 Long Dat area as 'liberated zone' 60
 'steel frame' of insurgency 48–9
To Cong campaign impact yet exploitation opportunities 19–20
- Vietnam
 French exit from/division of Vietnam 41 land as crucial cultural aspect 16–17 maintenance of a military dictatorship in 89 security situation as 'stalemate' 23–4 Tet Offensive as turning point of war 92–3 see also Republic of Vietnam
- Vietnam War
 American historiography of 99
 Johnson's economic, social and political aspects of the war 27 nature of 77–8, 117, 135–6 November 1968 – August 1969 120–43
 'self-contained' war 33

- Vietnamese Government
 did not move seriously against major sources of villager grievance 91
 hierarchical mode 40
 rural middle class loyalty to 17
- Vietnamese Information Service (VIS)
 88, 158–9
- Vietnamese Military Security Service
 (MSS) 142
- Vietnamese Workers Party (VWP) 201–2 apparatus decimation 19 armed struggle not undertaken 47–8
 communist leadership's realisation of Tet failure 97–8 cultivation of RVN-targeted people 48 Diem's ideas of defeating 21 directive of no armed struggle 19 insurgency of 1959 40 leadership 19, 20, 147
 'Northerners' 20, 62–3, 94–5
 Op Lam Son prompting leaders to pursue military war solution 192–3
 Phuoc Tuy association 47–8
 post-1959 rise and corresponding Party return 62
 propaganda campaign to identify members 18, 19
 'Southerners' 20, 93–4, 169, 190, 192–3
 strategy failure 64 struggle against 40 sustained Front campaign against
 pacification 144
 US bludgeoning into accepting terms 190
 VWP–RVN contest 99
- Vietnamisation 120, 121, 138, 139,
 142–3, 152–3, 167, 169, 171,
 172, 173–4
- Nguyen Hue Offensive as test of 191 optimistic forecasts' basis 189 vast amounts invested in the RVNAF as part of 174–5 Walkinshaw's characterisation as
 'on track' 174
- Village Self-Development (VSD) 145, 163–4
 funds, influence on economic fortunes 164 success of 164–5 villagers' responses 164
- villagers/villages access basic precondition for existence of insurgency in 149 access to government-controlled information source 158–9 actively engaged with political process versus voting out of a sense of duty 180
 'attitude of the villagers' 26–7
 'combat villages' 203–4 contested villages 82–3 Front cadre entering villages to collect rice 135, 137
 Front guerrilla units 50
 Front's increased political advantage 51
 layers of allegiance 54
 leader kidnappings/assassinations 56
 'liberated villages' 51–2, 67
 loyalty through Western aid and reform 11–12, 22, 43
 village militias 177
- Vincent, Major-General 95–6
- voting see elections
- Walkinshaw, Robert L. 173–4, 186–7
 disengaged electorate 180–2
- Walt, Lieutenant General W. 69
- war
 'conventional' war 69
 First Indochina War see First
 Indochina War
 'one war' policy 120, 121, 123–4, 135–6, 142–3
 Vietnam see Vietnam War war against France see First Indochina War
 'war for peace' 190–205
 war-weariness 182, 185
- Weir, Brigadier S.P. 'Black Jack' 145–7
- Clearing Zone 171
- Graham's minefield 'as biggest blunder' 76

- Weir, Brigadier S.P. ‘Black Jack’ (cont.)
 operational concept 146–7, 151–2
 reconnaissance-in-force operations 150–1
 returned 1ATF to hunting main force units 144 Weir–McDonald, parallels 171, 172
- Westmoreland, General
 aggressive operations against PLAF/PAVN 69 Tet as great opportunity 97–8 three-phase process for winning the war 66, 69, 70–1 Westmoreland–Abrams, comparison 121, 123–4
 Westmoreland–Weir, comparison 146
- Wetherill, Major General Robert 114–15
- Weyand, Lt General Frederick, imminent enemy offensive 95–6
- Whitlam Labor government
 AATTV withdrawal 203–4
 Australian advisers’ withdrawal 191
- Wieland, Captain J.E. 141–2
- Wilton, Lieutenant General John 33, 95–6
- Xa Long Tan, 173rd Airborne Brigade’s defeat at 54
- Xuyen Moc–Dat Do–Duc Thanh tri-border area 196
- Xuyen Moc district 40, 46, 194, 198
 1ATF operations in 146–7, 172
 Australian 161st Reconnaissance Flight civic action in 82
 Australian perception of being friendly 59
 C23 Company (Viet Cong Xuyen Moc District Company) 50 distribution of allegiance and control in 58 economic reliance on export; subsequent shut down 59 enthusiasm towards pacification a reflection of economic hardship 62 Front influx 58, 59
 road network links 58
 sophisticated Party apparatus 46
 surviving on airlifted supplies 197
- Young, Colonel William H. 109, 110
- Young, Stephen B. 127–8, 177, 179–80
- Zasloff, Joseph 48
 ‘steel frame’ of insurgency 48–9