

Index

- abortions, in Mexico City, 142
acople system, 207–208
 Acosta, Nando, 206
 agricultural contractors, 175
 agrochemical drifts, 183–188 assignment of blame in, 186–187
 effects of, 184
 in Formosa (Argentina), 183–188
 public officials' response to, 185
 Alas Equipo Colombia party, 168
 ALAS Party (Colombia), 163
 Alaska (El Salvador), 122
alcoholímetro antidrunk driving program, 144
 Alderete, Huáscar, 201–202
 Alencar, Otto, 226
 Alencor, Marcelo, 80
Alianza Republicana Nacionalista (ARENA), 119
 Alperovich, Jose, 207–208
 Amigos dos Amigos, 80, 85 anti-violence policies. See also violence in Bogotá (Colombia), 137
 drug trade and, 237
 failures and successes of, 237–242
 in Ilopango (El Salvador)
 local agreements, 120–129
 peace agreements, 123–124
 peace zones, 118–119
 policing actors, 126–127
 truce brokering, 117
 mano dura policies, 237, 240–241
 Medellín model, 238–239
 in Mexico City, 144
 C414 intelligence center, 144
 Ciudad Segura (Safe City) surveillance
 project, 146–147
 Por tu Familia, Desarme, 145–146
 zero tolerance model, 141
 mixed model of social governance, 239–240
 negotiation of pacts among gangs, 240 punitive imprisonment, 237–238 range of interventions, 238 violence rate and, 237
 zero tolerance model, 237
 Araújo Castro, Álvaro, 162, 165, 168, 169
 Araújo Castro, Sergio, 165
 Argentina, 26, 195–198
 agricultural boom, 176–177 concentration of agro-food chains, 177 herbicide use, 176–177
 land disputes and, 177
 agrochemical drifts and violence in Formosa, 183–188
 authoritarian practices in, 195–198
 Córdoba
 civil society, 178
 crop spraying in, 177–180
 soybean production, 178
 violence in, 189, 190
 economic conditions in 1983–2002, 200–204
 federalism in, 195–198, 208–210

- Argentina (cont.)
 Formosa province
 agrochemical drifts in, 183–188
 peasant movement in, 183, 184, 185–186, 187
 public employment in, 183
 soybean production in, 184
 symbolic violence in, 186, 189–190
 unsatisfied basic needs in, 183
 homicide rate in, 53–54
 Jujuy province, 194
 Alto Comedero project, 201
 caudillos, 200–202
 party system, 205–207
 Peronism in, 198–200
 social mobilization, 202
 social organizations, 205–206
 jurisdiction levels, 196
 Kirchner era in 2003–2015, 204–210
 Pampa region, 175
 peripheral provinces, 196–197
 postneoliberal governments, 176–177 rent economy in, 197 rise of “new” social movements in 1990s, 197
 Santiago del Estero
 death of activists in, 181–182, 189 Indigenous peasant movements, 182, 189
 land disputes in, 180–182, 189
 soybean production in, 180
 subnational authoritarianism in, 190
 soybean industry, 174–176
 subnational mobilization in, 173–191 subnational politics in, 192–210 economic factors, 197–198
 subnational violence in, 208–210
 Tucumán province
 D2 provincial police unit, 208
 hegemonic party system in,
 207–208
 intergovernmental relations in, 194
 mano dura policies, 204
 Obediencia debida law, 203
 Operation Independence, 203
 party system, 204
 Peronism in, 198–200
 reform of 1907 Constitution, 203–204
 resistance to democratic change in, 202–204
 sugar industry in late 19th century, 199
 violence in, 194–195
 violence research in, 54–55
 weak federalism in, 204–205 authoritarianism
 in Argentina, 190, 195–198
 in Bahia (Brazil), 222–224
 in Colombia, 153–172
 monopolization of linkages, 158–159
 nationalization of influence, 157–158
 parochialization of power, 156–157
 in Córdoba (Argentina), 190
 in Mexico City, 63–64
 subnational, 20–21, 153–172, 190, 222–224
 violent coercion in, 10
 Bahia (Brazil), 216–217
 adoption of 1989 Bahia Constitution, 218 clientelism in, 222–227, 228, 236
 Magalhães regime, 216
 Military Police of Bahia, 217–219, 220–222
 military regime in, 217–218 participatory procedures, 223
 police professionalization, 218, 228
 police violence in, 217–219, 235
 population, 216
 regime change in, 219–222
 social movement organizations in, 220, 223
 state violence and, 219–222
 subnational authoritarianism in, 222–224
 baianidade, 222
 Bandera Blanca conservative party
 (Argentina), 203
 Barrio 18 (La18) gang, 112–113, 121–123, 125, 127, 128
 Becker, Gary, 44, 52
 black males, violent death risk, 3, 23–24, 75
 black movement, 220, 226
 blacks. See also race
 homicide rate in, 3, 23–24
 in Jamaica’s class structure, 94

- in Kingston (Jamaica), 18
 lack of de facto citizenship, 95
 population, 97
mano dura policies and, 9 political elites in Haiti, 9 slavery and, 11
 social movement in Bahia (Brazil), 220, 224–225, 226
 violence against women and, 24
 violent death risk in young males, 3, 23–24, 75
- Blackwell, Adam, 128
- Bolivia, victimization rates in, 46
- Bratton, William, 237
- Brazil, 26, 211–229
 civil and military police, 79
 clientelism in, 215–216
 criminal factions in Comando Vermelho, 77–80
 disorganized nature of, 81 emergence of, 77
 decentralization in, 234
 drug trade in, 15, 77–78
 homicide rate in, 42–43, 52, 75
 analysis of, 50–51
 gender-specific, 48
 municipal dataset, 52
 homicide rates in, 7–8
 hosting of 2016 Olympics, 76
mano dura policies, failure of, 81
 political regimes, 213
 Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), 75–92
 acts of police bravery, 80
 criminal factions in, 76–80
 gangs, 18
mano dura policies, failure of, 80–83
 militias, 87–91
 prison system in, 81–82
 Unidades de Polícia Pacificadora, 83–87
 social domination, 213
 state violence, 213–215
 victimization rates in, 46
 violence in, variations in, 23–24
 violence research in, 54–55
- Brizola, Leonel, 79–80
- broken windows theory, 136, 139
- Buenos Aires (Argentina), violent neighborhood in, 13
- bureaucratic-authoritarian regimes, 3
- Bussi, Antonio Domingo, 203
- C414 intelligence center, 144
- Cabral, Sergio, 84
- Cafiero, Antonio, 200
- Calderón, Felipe, 135
- Calderón Rivadeneira, Arturo, 163, 164–165
- Campo Grande (Brazil), 89
- Canada
 crime patterns in, 46
 homicide rate in, gender-specific, 48
- Caracas, 133
- Cárdenas, Cuauhtémoc, 66, 67
- Cardoso, Fernando Henrique, 224, 236
- Cargill, 12
- Caribbean, 26
 homicide rate in, 2
 violence in, 231–236
- carlismo*, 220, 222, 224–225, 226
- carlistas*, 216, 222
- Carrillo, Ricardo, 127
- caudillos*, 200–202
- Central America. See also El Salvador femicides in, 3, 25
 gangs, 12, 240
 homicide rate in, 2
- Cesar (Colombia)
 civil society, 167–168
 conflicts, 160–162
 economics, 160–162, 167
 electoral and partisan dynamics,
 168–170
 national political coalitions, 168
 paracracies in, 162
 politics, 160–162
 post-AUC trajectories, 162–166
 turnover in, 166–170
- Chabat, Jorge, 133
- Chile
 community policing in, 13–14
 homicide rate in, 49
 population, 51
 violence research in, 54–55
- Chocobar, Javier, 181
- chronic violence, 239
- cities, 27
- City of God* (film), 75
- Ciudad Juárez (Mexico), homicide rate in, 55
- Ciudad Segura* (Safe City) surveillance
 project, 146–147

- civil society organizations, 4, 10–11. See also police and policing anticrime policies and, 10–11
 in Argentina, 209
 in Brazil, 15
 in Chile, 13–14
 in Colombia, 167–168, 238
 criminal networks and, 15
 Ilopango (El Salvador), 120
- class. See also inequality; race contra-reforma agraria and, 154
 criminalization of, 233–235
 garrison communities and, 97–101
 homicide rates and, 3
 identity-based division based on, 61
 in Jamaica, 94, 95
 labor force and, 94
 lower class youth and violence, 10
 male marginalization and, 103
 police interaction and, 11–12 political party rivalry and, 94 respect and, 103–105
 second-class citizenship, 60, 232, 235
 state security and, 108–109
 symbolic violence and, 186
 violence against women and, 24
- clientelism, 4, 6–7, 69. See also embeddedness; networks
 armed forms of, 18
 in Brazil, 215–216
 bureaucratic, 64–65, 66–73
 centralized control, 22
 citizen participation and, 69–70 citizen–police interactions and, 69–70 contemporary studies on, 60–61
 definition of, 65, 138
 nonstate armed groups and, 17 regional violence and
 in Argentina, 173–191, 192–210
 in Bahia, Brazil, 192–210
 in Colombia, 153–172
 semiclientelism, 138, 147–148
 state violence and, 213–215
 urban violence and
 in El Salvador, 112–131
 in Kingston, Jamaica, 93–111
 in Mexico City, 59–74, 132–149
 in Rio de Janeiro, 75–92
 violence and, 235
 in Argentina, 173–191, 192–210
 in Bahia, Brazil, 192–210
 in Colombia, 153–172
 in El Salvador, 112–131
 in Kingston, Jamaica, 93–111
 in Mexico City, 59–74, 132–149
 in Rio de Janeiro, 75–92
- Coke, Christopher “Dudus,” 101
 Coke, Lester Lloyd (aka Jim Brown), 101, 102
- Colindres, Fabio, 112, 117
- collective violence, 195
- Colombia, 26, 153–172
 comparison of Cesar and Magdalena, 160–170
 civil society, 167–168
 conflicts, 160–162
 economics, 160–162, 167
 electoral and partisan dynamics, 168–170
 national political coalitions, 168
 politics, 160–162
 post-AUC trajectories, 162–166
contra-reforma agraria, 154 drug trafficking in, 12
 elites, 156–157, 234
 homicide rate in, 52
 gender-specific, 48
 internal conflicts, 26
parapolítica scandals, 158 regime juxtaposition in, 156–159
 subnational authoritarianism in, 153–172
 monopolization of linkages, 158–159
 nationalization of influence, 157–158
 parochialization of power, 156–157
 victimization rates in, 46
- colonization
 in the Caribbean, 9
 Latin America, 8
- Comando Vermelho, 77–80
 Complexo de Alemão attacks, 84 control of favelas, 78–79 control of Ilha Grande prison, 77 drug trade, 78–79
 split of, 80
- Community Action Movement (Colombia), 170
- community policing, 105–106
- Community Program for Neighborhood Improvement (PCMB) (Mexico City), 143–144
- Complexo de Alemão, 84–85

- Córdoba (Argentina)
 civil society, 178
 crop spraying in, 177–180
 soybean production, 178
 subnational authoritarianism in, 190
 violence in, 189, 190
- Corporación Mandala, 239
- Costa Rica, homicide rate in, 53–54
- Cotes, Luis Miguel, 164
- crime economic theory of, 44
 homicide as proxy for, 44–47
- criminal violence, 195
- Cuba, 9, 51
- Dahl, Robert, 20
- De Aparici, Ricardo, 201–202
- de la Sota, Jose Manuel, 178
- decentralization, 10, 22–23, 149, 233–235
- delegative democracy, 196, 209
- democracy, 20
 in Argentina, 178, 192
 Formosa, 183
 violence and, 195
- authoritarian, 183
- in Brazil, 213–215
 clientelism in Bahia and, 223 transition to democracy, 79, 218
- clientelism and, 223, 227–229
 in Colombia, 153
- Dahl's principles of, 20
- delegative, 196, 209
- drug trafficking and, 15
- emergence in Latin America in 1980s, 135–136
- formal institutions of, 20–21
- local autonomy after transition to, 10
- Magdalena's economy and, 167
- policing Mexico City and, 62–66
- race and, 24
- role of police in, 214
- state violence and, 227–229
- subnational, 172
- violence and, 6, 20
- democratic governments, violence in factors in, 10–11
 vs. authoritarian governments, 10
- democratization, 4, 233–235
 in Bahia (Brazil), 216–217
 clientelism in, 222–227
 police violence in, 217–219
- regime change in, 219–222
- state violence in, 219–222
- subnational authoritarianism in, 222–224
- of clientelist police violence, 69–70
- in Colombia, 156, 159, 164
- economic growth and, 167
- effects of, 10
- failure to solve violence and security problems with, 136
- fall of authoritarian government and, 166
- metropolization of crime and, 66–73
- municipal-level, 133
- national political coalitions and, 168
- neoliberal, 4
- partial, 172
- police violence in, 68
- political regimes and, 213
- semiclientelism and, 138, 147–148
- social domination and, 213
- state repression and, 18
- state violence and, 213–215
- subnational, 154, 159, 166, 172
- in subnational Argentina, 192–210
 authoritarian practices in, 195–198
 economic deterioration, 200–204
 federalism in, 204–210
 party system in, 205–208
 Peronism and, 198–200
 resistance to democratic change in,
 202–204
 violence and, 194–195, 208–210
 subnational authoritarianism in, 20–21
- violent actors in, 135–136
- Diazgranados, Omar, 162
- Dominguez, Carlos, 199
- Dominican Republic, 9
- donmanship, 103, 106–107
- Draco-IE, 90
- drug gangs, 12
 in favelas, 78–79
 former military and civil police in, 92
 militias, similarities with, 91–92
- drug trade/trafficking, 9, 12
 antiviolence policies, 237
 in Brazil, 15, 77–78
 in Colombia, 12
 Colombian guerrillas' reliance on, 12
 Comando Vermelho and, 77, 78–79, 80
cucaracha effect in eradication of, 237

- drug trade/trafficking (cont.)
 democracy and, 15
 gangs in, 12
 hot spots, 39
 insurgents and, 17
 in Kingston (Jamaica), 97, 234
 in Mexico City, 70
 Mexico's war on, 26
 in Rio de Janeiro
 criminal factions, 75–76, 81
 in favelas, 83
 police involvement, 82
 role in definition of political power, 167
 in Tivoli Gardens (Kingston, Jamaica), 107
 violence in, 232, 234
 youth violence and, 3
- drug traffickers, 17 challenge to hegemony of political parties, 9
 clientelist exchanges, 70
 direct violence and, 16
 extradition to the U.S., 158
 paramilitary groups' protection to, 161 police links with, 18
 PRD's pressure on, 73 subnational violence in Colombia and,
 154
 ties of political candidates with,
 165–166
- Durán Gelvis, Miguel Ángel, 163, 169
- Ebrard, Marcelo, 142–145
- Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC), 25
- economic crimes, 5
- economic theory of crime, 44
- Ecuador, 51
- El Faro* (online newspaper), 117, 118, 127
- El Salvador, 19, 26, 112–131
 anti-violence policies in Ilopango
 local agreements, 120–129
 peace agreements, 123–124
 peace zones, 118–119
 policing actors, 126–127
 truce brokering, 117
 end of national truce, 129–130
 gangs, 112–113, 116–117
 homicide rate in, 2, 112
 gender-specific, 48
 public order regimes
 in 1992–2012, 115–117 brokering truce in 2012, 117
 peace accords, 115–116
 peace zones, 118–119
 theories, 114–115
 rape in, 9
 victimization rates in, 46
 violence reduction in, 114–115, 117
 violence research in, 54–55
- Elite Squad* (film), 75
- elites
 in Colombia, 156–157, 234
 in Haiti, 9
 in Jamaica, 94
- embeddedness, 14–17, 19, 25–26, 235. See also clientelism; networks
- Escobar, Pablo, 238
- family violence, 142
- favelas, 75–76. See also garrison communities; Rio de Janeiro (Brazil) of Batán, 90
 Comando Vermelho's operation in,
 78–79, 83
 Complexo de Alemão, 83
 GPÆ in, 86
 homicide rates in, 7–8, 41–42
 massacre in 1993, 81
 military style operations in, 83 militias in, 18, 87–91 number of, 87
 police presence in, 86–87
 in Rio de Janeiro, 7–8, 87
 Rocinha favela, 85
 taking back of, 18
 UPP in, 84, 86
 of Zona Norte, 79–80
 of Zona Oeste, 87
- fazenda*, 16
- Federation of Sugar Industry Workers (FOTIA), 199
- Fellner, Eduardo, 205
- femicides, 3, 6, 25, 47–48
- feminicide, 6–7
- Fernández de Kirchner, Cristina, 176, 179, 189
- Fernando Riera, Pedro, 199
- Ferreira, Cristian, 181–182
- Ferreira, Malevo, 203

- Filho, Jerônimo Guimarães, 89
 Food Pension for Seniors (Mexico City), 141, 142–143
 Formosa (Argentina), 183–188
 agrochemical drifts in, 183–188
 effects of, 184
 public officials' response to, 185
 peasant movement in, 183, 184, 187
 landowners' reaction to, 185–186
 public employment in, 183
 soybean production in, 184
 symbolic violence in, 186, 189–190
 unsatisfied basic needs in, 183
 Fox, Vicente, 61
 Franco, Wellington Moreira, 80
 Free Access for Medical Services and Drugs program (Mexico City), 142
Frente Farabundo Martí para la Liberación Nacional (FMLN), 112
Fuerza Republicana (Argentina), 204
 Fundação Palmares, 225
 Funes, Mauricio, 118–119, 130
- Gaeco/RJ, 90
 Galván, Miguel, 181–182
 gangs. See also militias Barrio 18 (La18), 112–113, 121–123, 125, 127, 128
 drug gangs, 12
 in favelas, 78–79
 former military and civil police in, 92
 militias, similarities with, 91–92
 in El Salvador, 112–113, 116–117
 hegemony of political parties and, 9
 in Jamaica, 97
 legitimate power and, 16
 Mara Salvatrucha (MS-13), 12, 112–113, 121–123, 125, 127, 128 negotiation of pacts among, 240
 garrison communities, 93, 99–101, 236.
 See also favelas; Kingston (Jamaica)
 civil rights in, 105–106
 community policing in, 105–106
 subnational violence in, 101–105
 gender violence, 25, 54–55, 142. See also women gendered crimes, 11
 genetically modified (GM) crop, 174–177
 Gini index, 53
 Giuliani, Rudolph, 71, 139, 141
 Giuliani Partners, 71
- Gnecco, José Alfredo, 165–166
 Golding, Bruce, 101, 102
governismo, 222
 Green Party (Colombia), 163, 165
 Grupamento de Policiamento em Áreas Especiais (GPAE), 86
 Guatemala, 51
 Guimarães, Natalino José, 89
- Haiti
 elites in, 9
 homicide rate in, 27–28
 population, 51
 rape in, 9
 hate crimes, 5
 herbicides, 176–177
 homicide rates, 2
 Argentina, 53–54
 Brazil, 7–8, 42–43, 48, 50–51, 52, 75
 Canada, 48
 Caribbean, 2
 Central America, 2
 Ciudad Juárez (Mexico), 55
 Colombia, 48, 52
 Costa Rica, 53–54
 El Salvador, 2, 48, 112
 gender-specific, 47–48
 Haiti, 27–28
 Honduras, 2, 48
 Ilopango (El Salvador), 130
 Jamaica, 2, 93
 Latin America, 53
 Mexico, 41–42, 48, 52
 Mexico City, 132
 South America, 2
 Southern Africa, 2
 United States, 52
 Uruguay, 48
 Venezuela, 2, 48, 52
 volatility of, 43
Homicide Report (Igarapé Institute), 49
 homicides
 as homogeneous phenomenon, 47–49 intensity of citizen fear and, 2–3 as proxy for crime, 44–47
 as proxy for violence, 44
 homosexuality, 11
 Honduras
 homicide rate in, 2
 gender-specific, 48
 victimization rates in, 46

- Ilha Grande prison (Brazil), 77–80
 Ilopango (El Salvador), 120–129
 Alaska, 122
 gangs
 negotiation and dialogue, 121
 territoriality before the truce, 121–123
 homicide rate, 120, 130
 Las Cañas, 122
 peace agreement in dialogue and information-sharing, 127 local deals, 129 perceived gains, 127–129
 policing actors, 126–127
 reason for, 123–124
 selection as first peace zone, 120 win/win situation in, 124–126 public order regimes before the truce, 121–123 reduction of violence in, 120–121
 territoriality before the truce, 121–123
 violence control in, 126–127 incarceration rates, 52, 53–54
 Indigenous people, 8, 11. See also class; race colonization in 16th century, 8 insurgency and, 157
 land disputes, 181–182
 paternalism and, 11
 peasant movements, 182, 189 racist insubordination of, 194 reliance on food production, 177
 in Santiago del Estero and Formosa, 173 sexual enslavement in Guatemala in 1980s, 9 violence against, 173, 194
 industrialization, 8
 inequality, 53. See also class; race
 economic growth and, 167, 232
 economic theory of crime and, 44, 52
 homicide rates and, 55
 in Latin America, 53
 neoliberalism and levels of, 232–233 political participation and, 236
 in Rio de Janeiro, 75
 structural, 75–76
 violence and, 10–11, 16, 21, 27, 135, 136, 232
ingenios, 199
 insecurity, as daily reality, 2
 Insfrán, Gildo, 183
 Institutional Revolutionary Party (Mexico), 59, 63, 64–65, 66, 235 insurgents, 17, 104, 157
 Integrated Territorial Social Development Program (Mexico), 141
 International Monetary Fund (IMF), 174
 Jamaica, 26, 93–111
 class structure, 94
 clientelism in, 236
 democratization in, 234
 elites, 94
 gang violence in, 97 garrison communities, 93, 99–105, 236
 GDP of, 97
 homicide rate in, 2, 93
 male marginalization in, 103 middle-class security in, 108–109
 political parties, 18, 94, 96–97
 political tribalism in, 93–94, 96–97 race and class structure in, 94 retributive approach in criminal justice, 109–110 roots of violence in, 231–232 security approaches in, 108–110
 Jamaica Labour Party, 94, 96–97, 99, 101
 Japan, 53–54
 Jenefes, Guillermo, 201
 Juárez, Carlos, 180
 Juárez, Sandra, 181
 Jujuy (Argentina)
 Alto Comedero project, 201
 caudillos, 200–202
 intergovernmental relations in, 194
 party system, 205–207
 Peronism in, 198–200
 social mobilization, 202
 social organizations, 205–206
 Justicialist Party (Argentina), 195 Kingston (Jamaica)
 drug trade in, 97
 elections
 1962, 99
 1967, 99
 1972, 99
 1993, 99–100
 2011, 100
 garrison communities, 99–101
 subnational violence in, 101–105

- lower-class neighborhoods, 97 Metropolitan Region, 97, 99–100
 population, 95, 97
 urban space, 99
 urban warfare in, 101
 Kirchner, Néstor, 176, 180, 204–205, 207
- La Violencia* (Colombia), 153 Labor party (Argentina), 199
 land disputes, 12–13
 crimes in, 16–17
 in Santiago del Estero (Argentina), 180–182, 189 landowners, 4, 16–17
 Las Cañas (El Salvador), 122
 Latin America. See also individual countries
 colonization, 8
 homicide rates in, 53
 incarceration rates in, 52, 53
 state violence in, 233–235
 state–society relations in, 227–229
 subnational regime in, 227–229
 victimization rates in, 45–46
 Lebbos, Paulina, 208
ley de lemas, 204
Ley de Proscripción de Pandillas, 128
 LGBT movement, 219, 220, 226
 Liga da Justiça, 89
 locations of violence, identification of, 21–22
 López, Roberto, 181
 López Obrador, Andrés Manuel, 71, 140–142
 Lula da Silva, Luiz Inácio, 76, 220, 224–225
 Luna, Trino, 160, 162, 164
- machismo*, 24
 Macri, Mauricio, 196
Madres de Ituzaingó, 177–180, 189
 Magalhães, Antônio Carlos, 216, 222–223, 236
 Magdalena (Colombia)
 civil society, 167–168
 conflicts, 160–162
 continuity in, 166–170
 economics, 160–162, 167
 electoral and partisan dynamics, 168–170
 national political coalitions, 168
 paracracies in, 162
 paramilitary groups in, 161
 politics, 160–162
 post-AUC trajectories, 162–166
 Maia, Cesar, 88–89
 Maloof, Dieb, 162, 169
 Mancera, Miguel Ángel, 145–147
 Manley, Joshua, 96
 Manley, Michael, 99
mano dura policies, 9, 23, 80–83, 120, 204, 237, 240–241. See also police and policing Mara Salvatrucha (MS-13) gang, 12, 112–113, 121–123, 125, 127, 128
 Martínez, Luis, 119
 Martínez Flores, Alberto, 143
 Marvin “El Chino,” 126, 128
 Massop, Claudius, 102
 Medellín model, 238–239
 mega-agricultural firms, 175
 Menem, Carlos, 200, 204
 Menjivar, Francisco, 126, 127
 Metrobus, 144
 Mexican Revolution of 1910–1920, 62
 Mexico, 26
 decentralization in, 234
 gangs, 17
 homicide rate in, 41–42, 52
 gender-specific, 47, 48
 PRD-DF government, 138–139
 violence research in, 54–55
 war on drugs, 26
 Mexico City
 antiviolence policies in, 144
 C414 intelligence center, 144
 Ciudad Segura (Safe City) surveillance project, 146–147
 Por tu Familia, Desarme, 145–146
 zero tolerance model, 141
 appointment and removal of police chief in, 64 citizen participation in urban security, 69
 clientelism in, 132–149, 236
 authoritarian, 63–64
 bureaucratic, 66–73
 crime rates in, 133, 147 democratic policing in, 66–73 Federal District, 138
 homicide rate in, 132
 neighborhood committees, 69
 nonviolent crimes, 137

- Mexico City (cont.)
 patron-client exchanges in, 64 police and policing in, 62–66, 147, 235 bureaucratic clientelism, 64–65,
 66–73
 Cárdenas administration, 66, 67
 loyalty to PRI regime, 63, 66
 patron-client networks, 64, 71
 post-Mexican Revolution of 1910–1920, 62
 under PRD rule, 61, 67, 69, 71
 under PRI rule, 69
 reform of, 67
 police violence in, 59–68, 74
 population, 138
 repressive gentrification in, 72 rule of law promotion in, 71
 semiclientelism in, 147–148
 social policies, 138–140
 Ebrard administration, 142–145
 López Obrador administration, 140–142
 Mancera administration, 145–147
 “taxing” of local residents for security services in, 70
 urban poor in, 72–73
 vigilantes, 70
 violence in causes of, 134–138
 sociological interpretations of, 135–136
 solutions to, 134–138
 violence prevention programs, 138–140, 145–146
 voluntary disarmament in, 145–146
 Mexico City Metrobus, 144
 Mi Policía (app), 146
 Mijango, Raul, 117, 118
 Military Police of Bahia, 217–219, 220–222
 militias, 16. See also gangs acting with discretion, 90–91
 clientelist exchanges, 70
 combatting, 90 communities under, 89 control of commercial activities, 89 development of, 18
 drug gangs, similarities with, 91–92 expansion of, 88, 91
 former military and civil police in, 92
 history of, 88
 investigation of, 87
 Liga da Justiça, 89
 in Rio de Janeiro, 87–91
 as self-defense communities, 88–89
 Minas Gerais (Brazil), 219
 Miranda, Julio, 204, 207
 mixed model of social governance, 239–240
 in Mexico City, 138–140
 Ebrard administration, 142–145
 López Obrador administration,
 140–142
 Mancera administration, 145–147
 semi-clientelism and, 147–148
 solutions to violence, 134–138
 violence prevention programs, 138–140
 mobs, 5
 MoCaFor. See Movimiento Campesino de Formosa
 Molina Araújo, Hernando, 161, 168
 Monsalvo Gnecco, Alberto, 164
 Monsanto, 12, 174, 179–180, 189
 Montreal, crime patterns in, 46
 Morales, Geraldo, 206
 Moreno, Douglas, 118, 123, 125
 Moreno Pallares, Cristian, 169
 Moreno Panezo, Cristian, 162
Movimiento dos Trabalhadores Rurais Sem Terra (MST), 220, 225
Movimiento Campesino de Formosa (Peasant Movement of Formosa, MoCaFor), 183, 187–188
Movimiento Campesino de Santiago del Estero (MOCASE) (Argentina), 181
Movimiento Nacional Campesino Indígena
 (MNCI) (Argentina), 181
Movimiento Unidad (UNIDAD), 119
 mulatto elites, 9
 Mungia Payés, David, 118, 119, 128
 National Action Party (Mexico), 61
 National Coordination of the Urban Popular Movement (CONAMUP)
 (Mexico City), 143
 National Indigenous Peasant Movement
 (Argentina), 181
 National Liberation Army (ELN)
 (Colombia), 153
 National Security Forces (Brazil), 83
 neighborhood committees, 69
 neoliberalism, 232–233

- neopatrimonial connections, 25–26
 Neto, Antônio Carlos Magalhães, 222 networks, 14–15. See also clientelism; embeddedness benefits of, 15
 of criminals, 15
 security, 15 structural violence and, 15–16
 New York City
 crime patterns in, 46
 homicide rates in, 45
 nonviolent crimes, 137
- Obediencia debida* law, 203
 Onganía, Juan Carlos, 200
 Operation Independence, 203
 Organization of American States (OAS), 126 organized crime/criminals, 4, 11, 81
 Ovalle, Francisco, 165–166
- Paes, Eduardo, 88–89
 Pan American Games, 83
 paramilitary groups, 11, 157, 161
 parastatal organizations, 4
 Parliamentary Committee of Inquiry
 (Brazil), 88–90
Partido de la Revolución Democrática (PRD). See Party of the Democratic Revolution (Mexico)
Partido de la Soberanía Popular, 206
Partido de la U (Colombia), 165
Partido do Movimento Democrático
 Brasileiro (PMDB), 223
Partido dos Trabalhadores (PT), 220, 223–224
Partido Revolucionario Institucional
 (Mexico), 133
Partido Verde–Opción Centro (Colombia), 162
 Party of the Democratic Revolution
 (Mexico), 61, 66–67, 68, 69, 71,
 133, 138–139, 147–148, 235, 236
Pax Mafiosa, 132
Pax Narcotica, 43
 peace zones, in El Salvador, 118–119
 Peasant Movement of Formosa, 183
 Peasant Movement of Santiago del Estero
 (Argentina), 181
 People's National Party (Jamaica), 94, 96–97, 99
- Perón, Juan, 196
 Peronist General Confederation of Labor (CGT), 199 perpetrators of violence, 3–4 Peru
 rape in, 9
 victimization rates in, 46
 violence research in, 54–55
 petty crimes, 11, 19 petty gangs, 4
 Pimiento, Mauricio, 169
 Pinedo Vidal, Miguel, 169 police and policing, 22–23, 233–235 authoritarian regimes and, 10
 in Bahia (Brazil), 217–218, 219, 220–222, 228
 in Chile, 13–14
 class and, 11–12
 clientelism and, 69–70
 control of violence in, 126–127 decentralized community, 23 democratic, 66–73
 democratization and, 233–235
 differential, 95
 in favelas, 76, 83–87
 former military and civil police in drug
 gangs, 92
 incarceration rates and, 53–54
 in Jamaica, 66–73, 240–241
 drug trade and, 96–97
 gang violence and, 96–97
 garrison communities, 99–101
 political tribalism in, 96–97
 question of rights, 105–106
 Tivoli Gardens, 101–105
 in Latin America (statistics), 53–54 links with drug traffickers, 18 mano dura, 9, 23, 80–83, 120, 204, 237, 240–241
 in Mexico City, 62–66, 67, 147, 235
 bureaucratic clientelism, 64–65,
 66–73
 Cárdenas administration, 66, 67
 loyalty to PRI regime, 63, 66
 patron-client networks, 64, 71
 post-Mexican Revolution of 1910–1920, 62
 under PRD rule, 61, 67, 69, 71
 under PRI rule, 69
 multiscalar analysis of, 22–23
 as part of exchange networks, 18–19

- police and policing (cont.)
 patron–client relationships and, 65–66 PMBA and, 217
 private and public actors, 113, 114–115, 120–121, 126–127, 129 professionalization of, 218, 228
 in Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), 79
 acts of police bravery, 80
 civil and military police, 79
 expulsion from the force, 92 hard line responses, 80–83 state-level operation, 79
 UPPs, 83–87
 Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), 80
 role in democracy, 214
 in Russia, 53
 state violence and, 217–219
 state–society relations in, 214
 traditional model of, 66
 Tucumán (Argentina), 208
 in Venezuela, 53
 zero-tolerance model, 71, 108, 139, 141, 149, 237
 police violence. See also violence authoritarian clientelism and, 62–66
 in Bahia (Brazil), 217–219, 220, 235
 bureaucratic clientelism and, 66–73 in democratization, 68 extralegal, 68
 in Mexico City, 59–68, 74
 cases of, 68
 under PRI rule, 66
 in transition to democracy, 62–66
 in Quito, Ecuador, 1–2 policía de barrio, 69
 political parties, 18
 in Argentina
 Jujuy (Argentina) in 2002–2013, 205–207
 Peronist party, 198–200
 Tucumán (Argentina) in 2003–2013, 207–208
 gangs and, 124
 gangs/drug traffickers’ challenge to hegemony of, 9 Jamaican, 9, 94
 class structure and, 94 creation of garrison communities, 18
 drug trade and, 96
 transition to independence, 96–97
 violent political tribalism in, 93–94
 networks and, 15
 nodes and, 26
 semiclientelism and, 138
 violence and, 4
 political tribalism, 96–97
 political violence, 195
 Popular Integration Movement (MIPOL) (Colombia), 169 Popular Movement of Jujuy, 200
Por tu Familia, Desarme program (Mexico City), 145–146 poverty, 11–12
 criminalization of, 3, 71, 72, 235
 economic theory of crime and, 27, 44
 gender-based violence and, 25
 in Kingston (Jamaica), 97
 neoliberalism and levels of, 232–233
 race and, 3
 reduction of, 137, 139, 200
 structural violence and, 232
 violence and, 16, 21, 27, 135–136, 194, 232
 in women, 25
Prepa Sí educational program (Mexico City), 142, 143
 Primeiro Comando da Capital (Brazil), 92 prisons, 226–227
 antiviolence policy and, 237–238
 in Brazil, 92
 in Colombia, 160
 criminal factions in, 82–83
 in El Salvador, 117
 gangs and, 80, 81–82
 Ilha Grande prison (Brazil), 77, 80
 in Rio de Janeiro, 77, 80, 81–82
 in São Paulo, 23–24, 92
Programa de apoyo temporal al ingreso (PATI), 125
 Quijano, Salvador, 124
 Quito (Ecuador), police corruption in, 1–2 race. See also blacks; class; inequality
 antiviolence policies and, 233–235
 black population in Brazil, 3 colonialism and, 231–232
 criminalization of, 3, 233–235
 democracy and, 24
 exploitation based on, 11
 homicide rates for young black males, 23–24, 75 homicides and, 3 neglect and exploitation based on, 11

- nodes and, 25–26
 - poverty and, 11–12
 - status mobility, 3
 - violence against women and, 24
 - violence and, 27
 - Radical Civil Union (Argentina), 195
 - rape, 9
 - Red Ángel* program (Mexico City), 143
 - Regional Human Development Report for Latin America, 54–55
 - Regional Integration Movement (Colombia), 169
 - regional violence
 - in Argentina, 173–191, 192–210
 - in Bahia, Brazil, 192–210
 - in Colombia, 153–172
 - regions, 27
 - Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia (FARC), 153
 - Ribeiro, Darcy, 80
 - Riera, Fernando Pedro, 203
 - Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), 75–92
 - acts of police bravery, 80
 - criminal factions in, 76–80
 - gangs, 18
 - mano dura* policies, failure of, 80–82, 83
 - corruption, 82–83
 - violence, 83
 - militias, 87–91
 - prison system in, 81–82
 - Unidades de Policía Pacificadora, 83–87
 - Rivas, Carlos, 126, 128
 - Rocinha favela, 85
 - Roundup herbicide, 174, 177, 178
 - Ruano, Salvador, 123–124, 125, 126
 - rural violence, 3
 - Córdoba (Argentina), 177–180
 - Formosa (Argentina), 183–188
 - Santiago del Estero (Argentina), 180–182
 - Russia, policing rate in, 53
 - Sacam, Antonio, 119
 - Safe City surveillance project (Mexico City), 146–147
 - Sala, Milagro, 205–206
 - Salinas, Francisco Ramón, 119
 - Sánchez, Arturo, 70
 - Sánchez Céren, Salvador, 129
 - Santiago del Estero (Argentina)
 - death of activists in, 181–182, 189
 - Indigenous peasant movements, 182, 189
 - land disputes in, 180–182, 189
 - soybean production in, 180
 - Santos, Juan Manuel, 165
 - São Paulo (Brazil)
 - blacks in, violent death risk of, 23–24
 - criminal organization in, 92
 - homicide rate in, 7–8, 42–43, 50
 - PMBA strikes in, 221
 - prisons in, 23–24, 92
 - violence against women in, 25
 - Seaga, Eddie, 99, 101
 - second-class citizenship, 60, 232, 235
 - semiclientelism, 138, 147–148
 - Sinaloa (Mexico), gangs, 17
 - slavery, 8, 9, 11, 16
 - Slim, Carlos, 141
 - small-time criminals, 19
 - Snopek, Carlos, 200, 201
 - Snopek, Guillermo, 199, 202
 - Soares, Luis Eduardo, 86
 - Social Capital Card, 145
 - Social Development Law (Mexico City), 140, 141
 - social exclusion, 135–136, 232
 - social governance, in Mexico City, 138–140
 - alcoholímetro* antidrunk driving program 144
 - Ciudad Segura* (Safe City) surveillance project, 146–147
 - Community Program for Neighborhood Improvement, 143–144
 - Ecobici bike sharing program, 144
 - Food Pension for Seniors, 142–143
 - Free Access for Medical Services and Drugs, 142
 - Integrated Territorial Social Development Program, 141
 - Metrobus, 144
 - mixed model, 239–240
 - Por tu Familia, Desarme* program, 145–146
 - under PRD rule, 133
 - Prepa Sí* educational program, 142, 143
 - Red Ángel* program, 143
 - Social Capital Card, 145
 - Tu Ciudad Te Re-Quiere* program, 145
 - Universal Citizen Pension, 141
 - urban violence and, 136
 - violence prevention and, 138–140
- South America, homicide rate in, 2

- Southern Africa, homicide rate in, 2 sowing pools, 175
 soybean industry, 174–176
 state agents, 4
 state violence, 5, 213–215. See also violence
 in Bahia (Brazil), 217–222
 clientelism and, 213–215
 in Latin America, 233–235
 police and, 217–219
 prevalence of, 10–11
 regime change and, 219–222
 state–society relations, 227–229 street vending, 65, 142
 structural violence, 6–7
 agricultural production and, 232
 definition of, 6, 40, 194
 deviant/violent behavior and, 94 marginalized people and, 8
 networks and, 15–16
 paternalism in, 236
 in Tucumán (Argentina), 204 subnational authoritarianism, 20–21 identity and, 23 subnational regimes
 Bahia (Brazil), 216–217
 Córdoba (Argentina), 177–180
 Formosa (Argentina), 183–188
 in Latin America, 227–229
 mobilization within, 173–174
 Santiago del Estero, 180–182
 state violence and, 213–215
 state–society relations and, 227–229 subnational violence, 230–242. See also violence
 in Argentina, 208–210
 in garrison communities, 101–105
 institutional logic of, 208–210
 in Tivoli Gardens (Kingston, Jamaica), 101–105
 Sweden, 53–54
 symbolic violence, 186–187

Tabernaculo Avimiento Internacional, 126
 Terceiro Comando, 80
terreiros de candomblé, 222 terrorism, 5 Tivoli Gardens (Kingston, Jamaica), 99
 civil rights in, 105–106
 community policing in, 105–106
 creation of, 101
 donmanship in, 103, 106–107

 drug trade in, 107
 identity formation in, 102–105 notion of place in, 106–107 respect in, 103–105
 subnational violence in, 101–105
 Toronto, crime patterns in, 46
 Tovar, Vilbrun Edward, 169
 Tovar Pupo, Jorge (Jorge 40), 159, 161 transnational corporations, 175 Tu Ciudad Te Re-Quiere program (Mexico City), 145
 Tucumán (Argentina)
 D2 provincial police unit, 208
 hegemonic party system in, 207–208
 intergovernmental relations in, 194
 mano dura policies, 204
 Obediencia debida law, 203
 Operation Independence, 203
 party system, 204
 Peronism in, 198–200
 reform of 1907 Constitution, 203–204
 resistance to democratic change in, 202–204
 sugar industry in late 19th century, 199
 Tupac Amaru, 195, 206–207

 unemployment, 2, 19, 27
 in Brazil, 23–24
 crime and, 44, 136
 urban violence and, 136
 urban youth, 136
 Unidades de Policía Pacificadora (UPP), 83–87. See also police and policing corruption in, 85–86
 costs of, 85
 establishment of, 84
 staff, 86
Unión Cívica Radical (UCR) personalistas, 199, 203
 Union of Construction Workers of the Argentine Republic (UOCRA), 179
 United Nations Development Program
 (UNDP), 163
 United Self-Defense Forces of Colombia
 (AUC), 155, 160, 162, 164, 170
 United States, homicide rate in, 52
 Universal Citizen Pension (Mexico City), 141
 urban violence. See also violence
 clientelism and
 in El Salvador, 112–131

- in Kingston, Jamaica, 93–111
 - in Mexico City, 59–74, 132–149
- contributors to, 136
- in Rio de Janeiro, 75–92
- unemployment and, 136
- Uribe, Álvaro, 159, 165
- Uruguay, homicide rates in, gender-specific, 48

- Valera, Félix, 163, 165–166
- Venezuela
 - homicide rate in, 2, 52
 - gender-specific, 48
 - policing rate in, 53
- Verón, Marita, 208
- vigilantes, 70
- violence
 - antiviolence policies, 237–242
 - changing forms of, 8–14
 - chronic, 239
 - clientelism and, 235
 - in Argentina, 173–191, 192–210
 - in Bahia, Brazil, 192–210
 - in Colombia, 153–172
 - in El Salvador, 112–131
 - in Kingston, Jamaica, 93–111
 - in Mexico City, 59–74, 132–149
 - in Rio de Janeiro, 75–92
 - conjunctural dimension of, 231–233
 - decentralization and, 233–235
 - definitions of, 5–6
 - democracies and, 20
 - democratization and, 233–235
 - embeddedness of, 14–19, 235
 - homicides as proxy for, 44
 - local geographic characteristics of, 233
 - policing and, 233–235
 - poverty and, 16, 21, 27, 135–136, 194, 232
 - regional
 - in Argentina, 173–191, 192–210
 - in Bahia, Brazil, 192–210
 - in Colombia, 153–172
 - state, 5, 213–215
 - in Bahia (Brazil), 217–222
 - clientelism and, 213–215
 - in Latin America, 233–235
 - police and, 217–219
 - prevalence of, 10–11
 - regime change and, 219–222
 - structural, 6–7, 15–16, 194, 231–233
 - subnational, 230–242
 - in Argentina, 208–210
 - in garrison communities, 101–105
 - institutional logic of, 208–210
 - in Tivoli Gardens (Kingston, Jamaica), 101–105
 - symbolic, 186–187
 - types of, 5–8
 - urban
 - in El Salvador, 112–131
 - in Kingston, Jamaica, 93–111
 - in Mexico City, 59–74, 132–149
 - in Rio de Janeiro, 75–92
- violence brokers, 60
- violence prevention programs. See antiviolence policies
- violence studies, 27–30
 - access problems in, 28
 - data collection in, 27–28
 - effects on researchers, 30
 - methodology, 39–56
 - analysis levels, 49–51
 - homicides as homogenous phenomenon, 47–49
 - homicides as proxy for crime, 44–47
 - homicides as proxy for violence, 44
 - sample and case selection, 51–55
 - researcher safety in, 29–30
- violent pluralism, 6

- Wagner, Jaques, 219–220, 222, 224–225
- wars, 5
- white-collar crimes, 4
- Wilton Gardens (Kingston, Jamaica), 99
- women
 - beliefs about inferiority of, 24
 - femicides, 3, 6, 25, 47–48
 - feminicide, 6–7
 - as victims of crimes, 25
 - violence against, 3, 24
 - high rates of, 3
- World Bank, 174

- Yanes, Pablo, 140
- youth
 - criminalization of, 141
 - democracy and, 24
 - gang membership. See gangs
 - inequality and, 10

298

*Index*youth (cont.)

interventions, 238
marginalization of, 72, 91–92, 103
PATI program for, 125
pessimism among, 193
Prepa Sí program for, 143 scholarship programs, 145
unemployment, 136
violence, 3, 116, 195

violent death risk in black males, 3, 23–24, 75

Zambrano, Juan Carlos, 209

zero-tolerance model, 71, 108, 139, 141, 149, 237. See also police and policing

Zona Oeste, 87, 88–89

Zúñiga, José Francisco, 164