

Contents

List of Figures and Table	page ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgment	xv
List of Abbreviations	xvii
 Part I Historical Epistemology
1 Introduction: Rethinking History and Freetown Historiography	3
2 Frontiers of Identity: The Creoles and the Politics of Belonging	30
 Part II Beyond the Colonial Sphinx: African Agency in the Making of the Colony
3 Realpolitik and Boundaries of Power: The Temne in Local Administration	63
4 Intergroup Relations and Genealogies of Conflict: The Temne and Freetonian Dichotomy	87
 Part III Ethnocentrism and New Frames of Popular Culture
5 Temne Cultural Associations and Popular Representations	105
6 Islamic Triumphalism in a Christian Colony: Temne Agency in the Spread and Sierra Leonization of Islam	127

viii	Contents
7	From the Margins to the Center: The Role of Temne Market Women Traders	166
8	Conclusion: Nexus of Microhistory – New Perspective on the Colony’s Historical Landscape	189
	Bibliography	197
	Index	211