

Index

- abduction, 95
- Abraham, 50, 53–56
- action, 6
- adaptability, 18, 133, 143, 146, 149–151, 155, 158, 184
- adjudication, 20, 45, 83, 102
- adjudicatory consistency, 102
- aesthetic experience, 5, 7
- aesthetic outlook (Kierkegaard), 174, 176
- aesthetic reflection, 116
- agency, xii, 7–8, 18–19, 39, 113, 156, 158–159, 174, 177–179
  - and alienation, 178–179
  - and passivity, 173
  - and presence in the social world, 133, 182
  - conceptions of, 156
  - diminution of in the case of coercion, 167
  - false conceptions of, 174–175, 177
  - lack of, 158
  - most fundamental condition, 182
  - rational, 147–148, 150–151, 158
  - theatrical, 175
- agility, 18, 133, 143, 146, 149–151, 155, 184
  - as a moral imperative, 148
- alienation, xii, 18–19, 53, 156–159, 163, 167, 171–174, 179–181, 184
  - and alienation from others, 169
  - and disappearance of the inner space, 158
  - and essentialism, 157–158, 172
  - and indifference, 160
  - and loss of agency, 174
  - and product alien to the producer, 159
  - and self-alienation, 158, 169
  - and two forms of indifference, 179
  - and unconscious self-determination, 173
- as disempowerment and disillusionment, 160
- as insight in emotional form, 159, 161, 172
- as loss of agency, 178
- engendered by the legal relation, 157
- epiphany of emancipation, 173
- from others, 169
- personal dimension, 158, 179
- social dimension, 158, 179
- two-fold, 151
- American legal realism, 26, 81, 162
  - and Kelsen's legal positivism, 26
- amour-propre, 136, 175, 179
- analytical jurisprudence, 16, 61, 64–65, 67
- anxiety, 157
- Arendt, Hannah, 125
- art, 16
- artificial reason of law, 15
- Austin, John, 22, 26, 42
- authenticity, 157, 180
- authority, 3, 12, 14, 23, 25, 30, 36, 38, 47, 49–55, 60, 68, 70, 75–76, 85, 87, 89, 91, 97, 103–104, 106, 110–111, 120, 124–126, 149, 184
  - above precedents, 106
  - and authoritarianism, 52, 54
  - and identification, 52–53
  - and individual judgment, 52
  - as the right to rule, 50
  - divine, 53
  - epistemic, 89, 91, 104
  - legal, 79
  - moral, 48–49, 52, 54
  - of law, 1, 33, 47, 49, 54, 56, 69, 77, 87, 110, 125–127, 183
  - of precedent, 102, 104–105

- authority (cont.)
  - political, 125
  - practical, 50–51, 62, 110–111
  - service conception of, 50–54, 124, 126
  - status-based, 52, 54
- autonomous agency, xii
- autopoiesis, 32, 103
- bad man, 57, 59, 72
- Balin, Jane, 71
- Barry, Brian, 139
- basic norm. See Grundnorm
- Behler, Ernst, 72, 130–131
- belief, xi, 6, 10–12, 24, 30, 38, 44, 50, 68–69, 71, 81, 93–95, 97, 100, 118, 120, 122, 151, 154, 157, 160, 172, 177
  - fact of, 10, 12, 95–96
  - in law, 93
  - inchoate, 97
  - shared, 93
- Bentham, Jeremy, 25, 83, 111
- Berardi, Franco, 159
- Besson, Samantha, 118
- Bieber, Justin, 145
- Bix, Brian, iv, 3–4, 34, 47–48
- Blair, Tony, 73
- Bochenski, Joseph, 89
- Böckenförde, Ernst-Wolfgang, 3
- Bork, Robert, 44
- Brandom, Robert, 13, 120
- British Empire, 82
- Bulygin, Eugenio, 62
- burdens of judgment, 5, 118
- cases, 7, 15, 20, 29, 37–38, 43, 54, 58, 65, 74, 76–77, 83–84, 91–92, 101–106, 114, 117, 125, 129, 146, 154, 179
  - equal weight of, 103
  - pedigree of, 103–104
  - primordial, 105
- catallaxy (Hayek), 172
- character masks, 167
- chilliness of the legal world, 21
- choice, 9–12, 33, 47, 96, 108–109, 112–114, 121–124, 127, 129, 131, 133–134, 137–142, 147–148, 150–152, 156–157, 160, 162, 166–167, 176, 181–184
  - and self-constitution, 143
  - and valuable options, 140, 144
- consumer, 129
- freedom of, 141, 161, 181–182
- from reason to, 119, 121
- play of, 140–141, 143, 145, 152, 154
- value of, 140–141, 152
- claim to validity, 10, 12–13, 17, 57, 96
- coercion, 4, 18, 42, 123, 127–128, 138, 157, 161, 166
  - and a withdrawn option, 164
  - and choice of a lesser evil, 127, 162, 164, 179
  - and demeaning the person, 164
  - and diminution of agency, 167
  - and incentives, 166
  - and leverage, 166
  - and private law, 156
  - broader use thereof in Hale, 165
  - demeaning the person, 165, 167
  - economic, 163
  - legitimate, 128
  - mutual, 162
  - narrow view, 163
  - narrower understanding of, 166
  - narrower view, 163
  - working through the will, 162, 164
- coercive act, 63, 114, 162
- coercive threat, 127, 162
- coercive threats, 114, 166
- Cohen, G.A., 26, 58, 81, 139
- Coke, Sir Edward, 15
- Colebrook, Claire, 73
- Coleman, Jules, 22–23, 33–46, 48
- collective private self-determination, 149, 173
- commodification, 168
- commodities, 159, 162, 165, 168
  - fetishism thereof, 168
- common law, 43, 71, 79, 82–83, 100, 102–106
  - and doctrine, 2, 60, 83, 102, 105–106
  - and legal science, 102
  - and memory of facts, 104
  - critique of, 83
  - false, 83, 102, 106
  - genuine, 78, 83, 102–106
  - ordinary, 83, 105
  - remembering cases, 102
- common sense, 16–17, 57, 64–65
- common understandings, 14
- communis error facit ius*, 81
- communism, 180
- community in alienated form, 170, 172–174
- competition, 146, 148, 151, 170

- conception of law, 16, 19, 22
- conceptual analysis, 19
- conceptual criteria, 20
- conflict, tragic, 149, 180
- conformity to reasons, 50
- conscience, 16, 54, 122
- considered judgments, 20
- constitution, 1, 13, 25, 28, 30, 54, 70, 88, 90
  - social, 38
- constructive interpretation, 15
- content-independent reasons, 13
- conventional rules, 39, 42, 93
- conventionalism, 16, 22, 30, 32, 34–36, 40, 44, 46, 56, 76–77
  - and permissive consensus, 41
  - as a symptom, 44
  - social, 41
- conventions, 36, 39–44, 46, 70–72, 75–77, 86, 100, 125, 132, 184
  - and social asymmetry, 42, 44
  - as second nature, 46
- court decisions, 15, 72
- courts, 23, 42–43, 57, 63, 72, 75, 83, 90, 105, 121, 129
- covering, 136
- Coyle, Sean, 4
- criminal justice, 66
- criteria of legal validity, 23
- critical reflective attitude, 37, 39, 41, 43, 45, 58
  - and interpretive attitude, 76
  - social reading, 39
  - substantive reading, 39
- critical theory, 180
- custom, 12, 14–15, 94–96, 99–100, 104, 107
  - and form of knowledge, 95
- customary law, 7, 12, 14, 17, 39, 94–97
  - as a defective source of law, 96
  - as an embodiment of knowledge, 96
  - usus and opinio juris, 95–96
- cynicism, 74

- Darwall, Stephen, 10, 50–51, 121, 126, 178
- Davidson, Donald, 70, 72
- de Man, Paul, 72
- death penalty, 95
- decision, 11, 13–15, 27, 34, 40, 43, 47, 49, 81, 92, 97, 102, 104, 111, 113, 131
  - as a way of making up one's mind, 97
- della Mirandola, Pico, 134
- deontic, 13
- depression, 157

- despair, 19, 149, 156, 174–179
  - two forms, 184
- detached attitude towards law, 20, 62–63, 67, 69, 75
  - and playacting, 69
- detached legal statements, 67, 71, 73–74, 76–78
- Dickinson, Julie, 60
- differend*, 50
- disclaimed claim, 13, 93, 183
- discretion, 27–28, 141
- discrimination, 18, 28–29, 133–137, 139, 144–147, 150, 152, 154, 184
  - and disappearance, 136
  - and freedom, 139
  - and hiding, 18, 133, 136, 146, 152–153, 184
  - and human dignity, 155
  - and immutable characteristics, 18, 133, 135, 146–148, 150–151, 154
  - and protodiscrimination, 152
  - and rebellion, 153
  - and self-denial, 18, 133, 144, 146
  - and self-repair, 18, 133, 135, 143–145, 148–149, 152, 184
  - and unequal treatment, 144
  - as inherently irrational, 138
  - behavioral, 145
  - discriminating against everyone equally, 148
  - entrenched patterns of, 154
  - indirect, 146
  - internal obstacles, 148
  - on the grounds of race, 154
  - participation of victims of, 153
  - perpetrator, 145
  - prohibited grounds of, 153–154, 184
  - protection from, 18, 133, 135, 147–148
  - systemic, 145–146
  - wrong of, 135–136
- distributive justice, 172
- diversity, 154
- Dixie Chicks, 149
- dualism in legal thought, 16
- Duarte d'Almeida, Luís, 59–60, 62
- ducking, 42, 71, 136, 184
- duress, 127, 162, 178
- Duxbury, Neil, 162, 164–166
- Dworkin, Ronald, 4, 20–23, 25, 33–36, 38–39, 42, 46, 48, 68, 70–71, 76, 80, 99, 111–112, 123, 130, 147, 175

- economic power, 18, 156, 161–163, 167–170
   and alienation, 173
   as point of economic activity, 169 dependent on private property and freedom of contract, 161
   hard, 163–164, 166
   its coercive force resides in the situation, 179 maximization of, 169
   normative baseline, 164
   root cause of alienation, 167 soft, 163, 166
   struggles over, 167, 170, 179 superseded by common control, 180 economic rationality, 147 efficacy, 58, 66, 84 emergence of the positive form of recognition.
   See sources of law, and forms of recognition
 Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 98 empowerment, 66, 146, 179 endorsement of law, 54, 83, 95–97, 99 endorsement of options, 140–141
 Engels, Friedrich, 39
 Epstein, Richard, 139 equal freedom, 133, 148 equal rights, 18 equality of application, 104 equality principle, 18, 129, 133–134 and arbitrariness, 135
   and human dignity, 134
   and reciprocity, 184
   and systematic legal knowledge, 15, 98
   as protection from discrimination, 18, 134
 essentialism. See alienation, and essentialism Esser, Joseph, 27
 estrangement, moral, 150 ethical outlook (Kierkegaard), 174, 176–177 evaluative outlook: and coercion, 164 evaluative outlook, 9, 115, 118–119, 123 evil, 6, 18, 50, 108, 110, 113–114, 127, 156, 166–167, 177
   lesser, 127–128, 162–164, 166–167, 179 residing in the situation, 166 exclusionary reasons for action. See reasons for action, exclusionary existentialism, 94, 157
 explanation, 6, 47, 54, 67, 76, 80, 110, 114–115, 118, 183
 Explicability, 8–9, 13–15, 125, 133, 182–183 of action, 8, 112, 133, 182
   explication. See explicability external perspective, 37, 77, 101 external point of view, 40, 58–59, 75 extortion, 164, 182
 extralegal factors, 28–31
 Feuerbach, Ludwig, 170
 Fichte, Johann Gottlieb, xii, 92, 127–128, 176, 178
 fiction, 5 fiction (Vaihinger), 55 fiction of a duty, 55
 finality, 102
 Fine, Michelle, 71
 Finnis, John, 3, 58
 Fish, Stanley, 4, 27
 followership, 50, 54 form of life, 115–116, 153 form of recognition. See sources of law
 Frank, Jerome, 81
 Frankfurt, Harry, 179
 Free Law Movement, 27, 81
 freedom, 5, 18–19, 108–109, 112, 114, 120, 123, 129, 133, 137, 139, 141, 144, 151, 153, 156–157, 161, 165, 167, 170, 181, 184
   and discrimination, 143–144 and equality, 134, 143
   and identification, 140
   and lack of resources, 139 and value of options, 139 as a common achievement, 180 as self-determination, 134, 138–139 formal, 137, 139–140, 181 in a Hayekian sense, 138 individual, 181, 185 inner, 16
   legal, 156
   of choice, 134, 137–139, 142, 145, 152, 182
   of contract, 156
   of religion, 151 social. See social freedom substantive, 182 to be who one is, 141 true, 148
   unequal, 144
   value of, 139
 freedom of contract, 18, 156, 161, 167, 170
 Freud, Sigmund, 2, 177
 Fried, Barbara H., 162–163
 Fried, Charles, 102

- friendship, 54
 full package of human rights, 155
- Gadamer, Hans-Georg, 31–32, 74, 141
 Gamm, Gerhard, 46, 141
 Gardner, John, 3, 22–25, 28–29, 32–34, 36–39, 43, 45, 48–55, 94, 103, 110–111, 122
 German idealism, 17, 79
 God, 25, 50, 53–55, 139
 Goffman, Erving, 74 going with the crowd, 41–44, 71, 100
 Grand Ole Opry, 145, 149
 Gratianus, 103
 Green, Leslie, 23, 36
 Grey, Thomas C., 102
Grundnorm, 26, 55, 86
 Guinier, Lani, 71
- Habermas, Jürgen, 85, 99, 116, 122, 130, 180
 Haferkamp, Hans-Peter, 108
 Hale, Robert, 161–167, 178 hard cases, xii, 7
 Hare, R.M., 115
 Harris, James W., 60, 64, 68
 Hart, H.L.A., 4, 20, 22, 25–26, 32–38, 40, 42, 57–59, 64–67, 75, 79, 86, 91, 93, 101,
   109–110, 118
 Hart-Dworkin Debate, 33
 Hart's postscript, 34
 Hayek, Friedrich August von, 138, 142, 148, 153, 172
 Hegel, G.W.F., xii, 17, 46, 79, 98, 101, 114–115, 118, 123, 137–138, 140, 148, 150, 153, 174,
   180–182
 Heidegger, Martin, 158
 Hellman, Deborah, 136
 Herget, James E., 81
 hermeneutics, 2, 4, 27, 32, 120, 179
 Herzog, Lisa, 148
 hierarchy of the legal process (Stufenbau), 28 and interdependence, 31, 90
 Hill, Christopher, 83
 Himma, Kenneth Einar, 34 historical contingency, 14 historical school of jurisprudence, 79
 Hobbes, Thomas, 54, 80, 111–112
 Hogebe, Wolfgang, 93 holding of cases, 62, 104–105, 166
 Hollerbach, Alexander, 108
 Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 35, 57, 72, 81, 162
- Honneth, Axel, 136, 178, 181
 Horn, Christoph, 3, 117
 human dignity, 81, 110–111, 133–134, 142–143, 145, 148, 153, 155, 168
   and counting as someone, 136–137 thin version of, 143 violations of, 155 human flourishing, 172 human needs, 170–171, 180 and social primary goods, 172 human resources, 147, 161, 167–168, 179
 hypothetical judgment, 26
- idealizations, xi, 2, 16, 25–26, 43–45, 56, 65, 67 unnecessary, 16
 identification, 53
 immutable characteristics. See discrimination, immutable characteristics imperative, 26
 imperative theory of law, 25 inalienability, 18, 133, 150, 153 indefinite conversation, 131 indeterminacy, 17, 24, 27, 40, 46, 101, 116–117 individual endowments, 147 individual responsibility to adjust to market demand, 146
 injustice, 54 insufficient reasons, 14, 97, 122 integration of society, 2 intellectual intuition, 92 interdependence, 153, 160, 170, 173, 178, 185 internal attitude. See internal point of view internal perspective. See internal point of view internal point of view, 37, 39–43, 45, 57–59, 74–75
   invasion by the external point of view, 77
   social dimension, 43–44
   substantive dimension, 43–45 internal statements, 41, 57–61, 67–69, 71–72, 75–77, 84, 87, 94, 106
 interpretation of legal practice, 76 intuition, 19, 94 sociological, 67
 ironic disruption, 154 irony, xii, 18, 20–21, 72–74, 78, 122, 175, 184 and authoritarian societies, 74 and interpretation of works, 129 and parabasis, 74 and reversal, 73
   and symbolic detachment, 76

- irony (cont.)
 and symbolic victory, 73, 75, 130–131 bitter, 17, 57, 80, 132, 144, 184 elusiveness, 72–73
 performative success, 73
 romantic, 131
 serene, 15, 80, 108, 128, 130–131, 184
- Isaac, 50
- Jaeggi, Rahel, 144, 151–152, 158
- Jhering, Rudolph von, 26, 100
- judgment, xi, 3, 5–6, 18–19, 29, 33, 37, 47, 50–51, 54–55, 62–63, 71, 90, 109, 111, 114–119, 121, 124, 165
 surrender of, 110, 125
 suspension of, 5
- judicial rulings, 90
- jurigenesis, 99
- jurisprudence purpose of, xii, 17, 25, 34, 61, 64, 67, 79, 81
- Kant, Immanuel, 3, 37, 55, 59, 113, 115–117, 129, 149, 174, 176, 178
- Kelsen, Hans, xi, 3, 16–17, 22, 24–28, 31–36, 55, 57–59, 61–67, 77, 79, 86, 89
- kenosis, 92, 95
- Khurana, Thomas, 176
- Kierkegaard, Søren, 19, 50, 52, 113, 149, 156, 174–179
- Kirchmann, Julius Hermann von, 106
- Kletzer, Christoph, 80, 92
- knowledge as a social fact, 10
- knowledge in the state of revocation, 12
- Korsgaard, Christine, 113, 117, 120, 140–143, 148–149, 154, 165, 175
- Kosch, Michelle, 113, 149, 174–177
- Kramer, Matthew H., iv, 33–34, 66
- Kripke, Saul A., 43
- labor, 139, 159–161, 167, 171, 180
 as an expression of life, 160, 171 situation of, 160
- Lachenmann, Helmut, 145–146, 149, 152–153
- Lafont, Cristina, 120, 130
- Langdell, Christopher Columbus, 102
- late capitalism, 33
- late legal positivism. See legal positivism, late
- law, 92
 and freedom of choice, 108–109, 114 and immorality, 128
 and morality, 3, 18–19, 23, 26, 29, 32–33, 35, 40, 47–49, 51, 54, 56, 61–65, 68, 70, 74, 77, 108–110, 112, 129, 131, 174, 178 application of, 27, 29–31 as a command, 13–14, 58, 86
 as a social fact, 25
 as a system, 98
 as a whole, 91–93, 96, 98–100, 103–104, 106–107
 as an expression of human will, 25 as an imperative, 62
 as in and of itself historical, 135 as prediction of court behavior, 63 breaches of, 63–64
 creation of, 27, 29–30 in a permanent state of reproduction, 32 intuition of (custom), 15
 literalness of, 13
 objectivity of, 88–89, 92–93, 95, 98, 100, 106 origin of, 93–94
 rationalization of, 99 reaching out beyond itself, 134 self-obfuscation of, 25 shared intuitions of, 94
 subjectivity of, 88–89, 91–93, 98, 101, 107 synthesis of legal application and law creation, 32
 systematic elaboration of, 80–81
- law as integrity, 20, 58, 75, 141
- law professors, 1, 43, 75
- law-application, 27, 29, 31
- law-creating social facts, 17, See sources of law
- law-creation, 27–29, 31
- Lear, Jonathan, 141, 154
- legal act (Kelsen), 27
- legal constructivism, xi, xii, 16, 19, 25, 27, 32, 35, 56, 182
 negative task, 26
 positive task, 25–26
- legal expertise, 1–2, 65
- legal formalism, 81
- legal interpretation, 2, 14, 24, 27–32, 39–40, 45, 76, 78–79, 100, 111–112, 120, 130,
 174
- legal knowledge, xi, 1–4, 6–7, 12, 14, 17, 19, 21–22, 24–25, 44–45, 56–57, 62, 65, 69–70,
 74, 78–80, 82, 85–86, 89, 93, 96–100, 104, 106, 183
 and common law, 105

- and endorsement of law, 96
- and existence of legal systems, 84
- and pure form of knowing the law, 92
- and social power, 45
- as a social fact, 85
- as a source of law, 91
- as objective activity, 92–93
- as self-knowledge, 87–89, 91
- common law as imperfect version of, 83
- distortion by money and power, 86
- genuine common law not a form of, 102
- obliteration of, 103
- process of, 107
- self-reflection of, 35
- symptoms, 22
- systematic, 17
- teleology of, 96
- unenlightened, 23
- legal man, 17, 57, 60–61, 68–72, 75
  - and playacting, 71, 77
  - as avatar of Kelsen's reconstructed legal norm, 65
  - as revenant of the moral man, 67–68
  - conventionalist understanding of, 57, 69–70, 74–75, 77
  - normative conceptions thereof, 77
- legal obligation, 11, 36, 42, 48
  - and coercion, 127
- legal officials, 29–30, 33, 36, 38, 40, 42, 59, 63, 65, 72
- legal person, 16
- legal positivism, xi, xii, 2–4, 6–7, 16–17, 19–20, 22–27, 29–30, 32–36, 45, 48, 56–58, 64–65, 67, 69, 77–79, 88–89, 91, 182
  - and descriptive accuracy, 25, 56
  - Anglo-American, xi
  - demystification of law, 22
  - descriptive dimension, 27
  - exclusive, 80
  - inclusive, 36, 48
  - its critical edge, 16, 22–23, 64–65
  - late, 5, 22, 32–35, 47, 56
  - separability of law and morality, 22, 109
  - soft. See legal positivism, inclusive
  - varieties of, 28
- legal powers, 28, 55, 65–66, 85
- legal profession, 57, 71
- legal relation, xi, xii, 7, 9–12, 14, 16–19, 26, 35, 56, 80, 108, 114, 121–125, 127–128, 131, 134, 137, 156–157, 174, 182–184
  - and abstract persons, 123, 137, 156–157, 167, 170
  - and being a stranger, 16
  - and coercion, 128
  - and external freedom, 114
  - and moral reasoning, 129
  - and morality growing beyond itself, 129
  - and politics, 125
  - and presence in the social world, 182
  - and property-owning persons, 161
  - and Puchta's puzzle, 128
  - and realization of the ends of others, 126
  - as morality growing beyond itself, 108
  - authority of rights, 125
  - beyond, 177
  - casts us as choosers, 133, 137, 182
  - emergence, 121
  - internal, 122
  - possibility of, 114
  - three ideas, 133
  - transcendence of morality, 123
- legal sanctions, 63, 128, 157
- legal scholarship, 14–16, 22, 84, 97, 99–100, 130
  - as a source of law, 97–98
  - interdisciplinary, 105
  - systematic, 15, 17, 92, 98, 100–101, 104, 106
- legal science, 81–84, 87, 98–99, 101–102, 104–107
  - and common law, 82, 102
  - as a source of law, 82, 91
  - as self-knowledge of the law, 82
  - legislative memory, 101
  - pure, 62
  - transformation of cases into classificatory schemes, 101
- legal statements, 60, 67, 69, 72, 75, 77–78, 87
- legal system, xii, 1, 4, 17, 19, 23–24, 31, 33, 36, 38, 42, 44, 58–60, 65–67, 69–70, 78, 84–85, 88, 93, 100, 103, 105, 129
- legal validity, 12, 16, 22–23, 26, 33, 35–36, 47, 85, 88
  - and moral merit, 13, 22–24, 28, 56
  - criteria thereof, 23
  - moral criteria of, 33, 35
- legality, 10, 36, 38, 61
  - and irony, xii, 57, 75
  - and the legal relation, 126
  - in Kant's philosophy, 10, 59

- legislation, 3, 7, 11, 13–15, 17, 28, 30, 43, 83, 90, 96–99, 101, 104, 106–107, 172
 legislature, 3, 28, 30, 90, 97, 164
 Leiter, Brian, 22, 26, 33–34
 Lenin, Vladimir Ilyich, 142
 Levellers, 83
 libertarianism, 66
 life projects, 18, 133, 148 linguistic conventions, 30 literary theory, 27
 litigation, 102
 Llewellyn, Karl, 33
 Locke, John, 3, 136
 Lohmann, Georg, 167, 169
 Löwith, Karl, 174
 Luhmann, Niklas, 23, 32, 40, 103, 118
 Lukács, Georg, 142, 173
 Lyotard, Jean-François, 50
- Mackie, John, 115, 118
Man (Heidegger), 158
 Marcuse, Herbert, 158 market society, 18, 133, 151, 172 and mutual coercion, 162
     as inherently coercive, 167
 Marmor, Andrei, 36, 38, 48, 58, 86 marriage, 54
 Marx, Karl, 19, 39, 144, 158–162, 167–174, 178–179
 Marxist critique of law, xii
 Me and I (Mead), 150
 Mead, George Herbert, 41, 68, 150
 Menke, Christoph, 5, 69, 116, 149–150, 176, 180
 Merkl, Adolf Julius, 17, 27–28, 79, 85 metaethics, 19
 methods of interpretation, 24, 30, 38 methods of knowing the law, 24, 85
 Mieth, Corrina, 117 money, 1–2, 7, 53–54, 86–87, 116, 127, 139, 153, 163, 165–166
     products as, 168
 moneymaking, 167
 Montesquieu, 87 moral complexity, 5 moral intuition, 30 moral judgment
     antinomy of, 20
 moral justification, 9 moral man revenant of, 67
- moral objectivity, 5, 35
 moral obligation, 69 moral obligations, 110 moral relation, 112–114, 121, 123, 129 moral relativity, 117 moral standing, 128
 moral theory, 19, 111, 117 moral universalizability. See also universalization
 morality, xii, 2–3, 5–7, 16, 18–19, 22, 24, 26, 29–30, 32–36, 47–48, 53, 55–56, 61–64,
     69–70, 77, 110–111, 113–114, 117, 121–123, 128–129, 149, 183
     and reasons for action, 62
     antinomy of, xi, 20, 114, 118, 127 as a problem, 47 choosing to be moral, 122 conflict within, 109
     dissociation within, 150 egalitarian, 149
     emancipation from, 122–123
     facilitation of, 122–123 of community, 112 pragmatic dimension, 62
     reaching out beyond itself, 121–122, 134, 183
     suspension of, 5
 Moreau, Sophia, 154
 Müller, Adam, 131
- Nagel, Thomas, 166 natural endowments, 175 natural law, xi, xii, 2–4, 6, 19, 32–33, 48, 84, 134
 Nazi law, 109 necessary form. See sources of law necessary source of law. See sources of law, and necessary form of recognition
 Neuhausser, Frederick, 136–137, 175, 181
 Nietzsche, Friedrich, 42, 174 normal justification thesis, 50–51, 110
 normative baseline, 167
 normativity, 16, 19, 26, 30, 42, 48, 55, 57–58, 61–64, 67, 75, 77, 109 and reductionism, 58, 69, 72 divestment of, 75
     morally considered, 62
     nomological construction of legal norms, 63, 67

- of law, 16, 30, 57, 61–62
- of law different from morality, 62–66, 77
- norms, xi, 3, 10, 15–16, 18, 22–23, 27–31, 35–37, 43, 47–48, 55, 60–64, 66, 75, 77, 84, 88, 90–91, 93, 98–99, 106, 110, 177, 182
- as guiding action, 64
- reconstructed legal norm (Kelsen), 62, 64, 89
- secondary legal norm, 63, 65
- social, 173
- O'Neil, Onora, 116
- Oakeshott, Michael, 123
- obedience, 38, 59, 75, 114
- objectivity, 2–4, 35, 79, 90
  - in law, 79
  - of law, 88
- obligation to obey the law, 47
- Oliphant, Herman, 81
- ontological commitments, 32
- oracular statements, 84
- originalism, 2, 30, 76, 78–79
- overruling, 103
- parabasis, 72, 74
- paradox of autonomy, 176
- parliamentary sovereignty, 103
- Parsons, Talcott, 2
- particularity, 9
- passing theories, 72
- passivity, 87, 173
- Patterson, Dennis, 3, 22, 33, 38–39
- Paulson, Bonnie Litschewski, 35, 58, 109
- Paulson, Stanley L., 16, 26, 31–32, 35, 58–59, 61–62, 66, 86, 109
- peer group, 41, 75, 77
- Peirce, Charles S., 75, 95
- performative contradiction, 69–70
- peripheral imputation (Kelsen), 62
- Pfaller, Robert, 177
- Pinkard, Terry, 46, 148
- Pippin, Robert, 46, 101
- planning theory of law, 26
- playacting, 68–69
- political correctness, 82
- political morality, 30
- political reason, 14
- political theory, 111
- Politics, 4, 13–14, 47, 74, 80, 110, 183
- positive forms of recognition. See forms of recognition
- Postema, Gerald J., 83, 111
- postmodernism, 147, 158
- post-positivist legal theory, 17, 19
- post-positivist situation, 4
- power, 1–2, 7, 10, 24, 31, 33, 35–36, 45, 54–55, 71–72, 78, 86–87, 101, 103, 105, 114, 136, 147, 159–161, 163, 165, 168, 174, 179. See also economic power, social power
- alien, 171
- and legal knowledge, 86
- discretionary, 103
- divine, 50
- of adaptation, 158
- of legislatures, 106
- power-conferring norm. See legal powers
- practical identity, 18, 133–134, 140–144, 149, 151, 154, 165
- and freedom, 140–141
- and perfect personal planner, 150
- as moral beings, 145
- choice of, 150
- indeterminate, 146–147
- of moral beings, 143, 148
- particular, 148
- shaped by market forces, 148, 150
- practical knowledge, 10, 12–15, 97
- practical reason, 3, 13, 15, 99, 101, 117–118, 122, 125–127, 134, 143, 148
- intersubjectivity, 127
- precedent, 103, 105
- preferences, 114, 147, 163, 166
- primary goods, 171
- private collective self-determination, 149
- private property, 18, 156, 161, 168–170, 181, 184
- protodiscrimination, 152
- psychologism, 25
- public law, 25
- Puchta, Georg Friedrich, xii, 17, 79, 95, 108–114, 123, 128
- Puchta's puzzle, 108, 112, 114, 128
- as signifier of the legal relation, 128
- Pure Theory of Law, 3, 16, 24, 58–59, 61–62, 64, 66
- purposive action, 91
- puzzled man, 35, 65
- quaddition (Kripke), 42–43
- Quante, Michael, 144, 159

- quasi-concepts, 101
 Quintillian, 73
- Radbruch, Gustav, 109
 Rawls, John, 5, 19, 118, 151, 153, 171–172
 Raz, Joseph, 13, 17, 23, 25–27, 30, 37, 47, 49–53, 57, 59–61, 63–64, 68, 75, 77, 80, 110–111, 120, 124–125, 148 reason disclaimed, 120, 122 reasonable disagreement, 5, 29, 47, 118 reasonableness, 50, 99 reasons for action, 10–11, 13, 17, 24, 47, 50–54, 57, 59, 61–63, 65–67, 69, 76, 110, 112, 123–125, 128, 135 exclusionary, 26, 47, 49, 59–61, 75, 110, 120, 136 reasons of others, 11, 21, 119, 126–127, 183–184
   and morality, 129
 Rebutensch, Julianne, 150–151, 175 reciprocity, 12, 56, 118–119, 122, 127, 157, 168, 184 reflective equilibrium, 19–20 reflective form of life. See spirit reinventing oneself, 176, 178. See discrimination, and self-repair responsiveness to reasons, 8, 19, 48–49, 51–52, 110, 113, 121–122, 125, 152 Ricoeur, Paul, 2 right answer, xi, 3–6, 112, 114 rights, 3, 9, 11, 18, 56–57, 83, 100, 108, 111, 121–122, 125, 128, 131, 133–134, 156–157, 167, 182 human, 155 role-taking, 9
 Rorty, Richard, 131
 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 136, 148, 175 rule of law, 83
 rule of recognition, 34, 36, 38–39, 41–44, 48, 59, 67–68, 86, 93
   and pattern of behavior, 39
   as a convention, 46
   as practice, 44, 46
   as ultimate rule, 38, 86, 88, 92 rule-application, 58 rule-following, 37, 76 rules and convergent behavior, 45, 71–72, 76 and paradigmatic cases, 45
   and pattern of behavior, 37, 39–40, 43, 45, 58
   general, 102–103
   internal negativity, 46
   justification of, 41
   pre-emptive force of, 51 primary, 84, 91
   secondary, 84–85, 89, 91 shared grasp of, 38–39, 41
   social, 26, 37, 39–40, 42–43, 46
- Salome, 5
 Sander, Fritz, 17, 31–32, 79
 Savigny, Carl Friedrich von, xii, 98
 Scanlon, T.M., 112
 Scarano, Nico, 117
 Schelling, F.W.J., 17, 79, 94, 108, 113, 149, 174
 Schlag, Pierre, 74
 Schlegel, Friedrich Wilhelm, 72, 131
 Schlink, Bernhard, 6
 Schmitt, Carl, 33, 40–41, 54
 Schopenhauer, Arthur, 115
 Schulte, Joachim, 45 second-personal perspective, 10, 13, 50, 120–122, 126, 178, 183–184
 Sedwick, Sally S., 115 self-authenticating sources of valid claims, 151, 153 self-choice, 157 self-constitution, 141, 143, 154, 176 self-discovery, 142, 146
 self-esteem, 21, 153 self-idealization, 25 self-improvement, 148, 162 self-interpretations of legal practice, 45 self-knowledge, 7
   legal, 80
 self-preservation, 162, 179 self-realization, 150, 159, 162, 169, 179–181, 184–185 self-transcendence, 122 sense of appropriateness, 80
 separability of law and morality, 22–25, 33, 35–36, 56, 109
 separability thesis, 22–23, 56
 serene irony. See irony Shapiro, Scott J., 19, 26, 34–36, 38, 40–42, 60–61, 67, 80, 111 shared co-operative activity. See rules, social Shklar, Judith, 68
 Simmonds, Nigel, 3, 66 sinners, 108–109
Sittlichkeit, 53, 181 slavery, 167, 169, 180, 182 social classes, 38, 144, 161–162, 167 social control, 41, 64–65, 164

- social facts, 2–3, 10, 12, 14, 23, 25, 36, 58, 65, 69, 80–81, 85, 92, 95–96, 98, 147, 183
 social freedom, 19, 126, 156–157, 178, 180–182, 184
     and solidarity, 182
     and the legal relation, 184
     two conditions of, 181 social justice, 171 social power, 18, 156 social roles, 52, 181
     and reciprocity, 181
 social struggles, 18, 133, 135 social system's theory, 27, 32, 103 socialism, 180
 society as a system of co-operation, 171 sociological theory of law, 64
 Solum, Lawrence B., 30, 70
 Sombart, Werner, 33
 sources of law, xi, 3, 7, 11–15, 17, 20, 22–24, 28–32, 36, 62, 79–82, 85–86, 88–92, 94, 96–100, 121, 183–184
     and forms of recognition, 85–92, 94–96, 104, 184
     and necessary form of recognition, 85–88, 90–97, 99–100, 104, 184
     as gestalts of legal knowledge, 17, 82, 99
     as objectifications of knowledge, 13 as practical knowledge in a suspended state, 15
     communication between, xi, 80, 82, 90–91, 97, 99
     epistemic, 90
     established view of, 80
     first, 96, 100
     last, 100
     prototype of forms of recognition, 94 sequence of, 98, 107, 184 ultimate form of recognition, 86 sources thesis, 80 sovereign, 32, 54, 58, 80, 111 sovereign legal process, 32 species being, 169–173, 179 inversion of, 171 mutual recognition thereof, 171 spirit, 16, 44, 46, 89–91 objective, 101
stare decisis, 83, 103, 105–106 as nemesis of legal science, 104 statutory lawlessness, 109
 Stewart, Hamish, 66
 stoicism, 150–151
 subjectivity, 7, 13, 19, 88, 90, 95, 99
     moral, 143
 symptoms, 22, 35, 44–45, 47
 system integration, 172 system of endorsements. See common law, genuine
 systematic elaboration of law, 15, 92
 Taylor, Charles, 138, 157
 technocracy, 125
 Teubner, Gunther, 27
 Theunissen, Michael, 11, 122, 125 trade and barter, 18, 156, 168 trade-off between freedom and equality, 144 tragedy, 149
 transcendence, 6, 78 true community, 170, 173 truth, 2–3, 6, 22, 31, 60, 87, 131, 161
 truthsaying, 87, 89, 92, 94 understanding, 99 unequal treatment, 18, 134–136 and rational action, 135–136
 Unger, Roberto Mangabeira, 176 unity of primary and secondary rules, 20, 36, 91 universality, 9, 113, 120–121, 126–127
     and social freedom, 178
     its negation, 126
 universalization, 8–9, 18–19, 55–56, 98, 114–116, 118–119, 123, 183
     across a set of rules, 98
     and reciprocity, 118–119, 184
     and role-taking, 115, 118
     and social freedom, 185
     basic, 18, 108, 118–119, 128 puzzle of, 115
     reflective, 18–19, 108, 118–120, 125–128, 133, 156, 183
     stages of, 115
 unlawful act, 63
 Vaihinger, Hans, 55 valuable options, 141–143, 182
 Velleman, J. David, 8, 113, 116, 120, 140
Veranderung, 11, 13, 15, 122, 127, 183
 Viennese school of legal positivism, 17 volition, 99, 114, 122
     unwilling, 127
volonte de tous, 173

volonté générale, 15 voluntarism, 50

Waldron, Jeremy, 5, 47, 118
Wallace, Stephen, 81
Waluchow, Wilfrid J., 34
Walzer, Michael, 181
wantonness, 138

weakness of the will, 165
Wilde, Oscar, 5, 106
Winch, Peter, 45
Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 40, 43, 45–46, 129

yielding, 9–11, 13–14, 119, 125, 127, 175, 179, 183–184
Yoshino, Kenji, 136