

Index

- Africa
 fate of dictators from, 131
 Allende, Salvador, 222–24
 Allesandri, Jorge, 221
 Amin, Idi, 131
 Ansell, Ben, 20
 Arab Spring, 19, 50, 96, 131
 Argentina, 20, 90, 95
 economic shock and popular democratic transition in, 105–06
 exchange rates in, 119–20
 Aristotle, 4
 Asian Tigers, 50
 Australia
 as successful democracy, 99 authoritarian elites, 30, See also economic elites; political elites authoritarian political elites, 31–32 consolidated dictatorships and, 36–37
 elite-biased democracies and, 36 fear of popular democracy by, 42
 autocratic constitutions. See elite-biased constitutions
- Bahrain, 19
 Barrientos, Colonel René (Bolivia), 15
 Belgium, 96, 107
 constitutional amendments in, 154
 bicameralism, 155
 elite-biased constitutions and, 84–90, 91–92
 in Sweden, 186–87
 binomial electoral systems
 in Chile, 92
- Bolivia, 15, 96
 elite-biased constitution and, 155
 Brazil, 20, 90, 95
 Bulgaria, 92, 284
 constitutional reforms in, 145
- Canada and colonial legacies, 253 British role in Canadian independence, 254–56
 Canadian gaining of constitutional control in 1982, 257
 differences between Canadian and American societies and, 254
 voting rights and, 257
Capital in the Twenty-First Century (Piketty), 11
 capitalism, 10
 case selection, 10, See also Chile; Sweden
 Ceaușescu, Nicolae, 131
 Central African Republic
 constitutional reforms in, 154
 centralized wage bargaining, 199
 Chile, 5, 9, 10, 36, 44, 45, 96, 106, 284 agricultural policies under elite-biased
 democracy, 241
 binomial electoral system in, 92
 conservative fiscal and monetary policies under elite-biased democracy, 238–41 constitutional amendments and experiments with popular democracy, 154, 214–15
 constitutional reforms in 1989, 234–36
 constitutional reforms under elite-biased
 democracy, 242–44

- Chile (cont.)
 decrease in income inequality under popular democracy, 224 fate of former Pinochet regime officials under elite-biased democracy, 237–38 Great Depression and, 217–19 historical trajectory of taxation in, 222–23 history of financial system of, 213–14
 income inequality in, 210
 income inequality under elite-biased democracy, 241–42 land reform in, 221–22, 229–30 legacy and economic policy from Pinochet era, 224–30 manufacturing sector rise and fall, 216
 military as partisan actor in, 211, 214–15 1980 Constitution under Pinochet, 230–34 over-representation of conservatives in elite-biased democracy of, 236–37 popular democracy and economics under Allende, 222–24 popular democracy under Allesandri administration (1958–1963), 221 possible start of popular democracy in, 219–21 as republican oligarchy in 19th century, 212–14 rise of manufacturing during WWI, 216–17 suffrage for women in 1948, 220
 under Pinochet, 224–30
 unions in, 220
 China, 16, 20, 50
 Chun Doo-hwan (South Korean dictator), 132–33
 Colombia
 constitutional reform in, 143
 colonial and occupier legacies, 67, 247–49, See also Canada and colonial legacies; Philippines and American colonial legacies classification of, 249–51 conventional wisdom on, 251–53
 elite-biased constitutions and, 73–74
 Ukraine and Soviet legacies, 263–68
 Color Revolutions, 19 consolidated dictatorships, 26, 36–37, 45 distributional outcomes under, 61–62 political outcomes under, 36 transitions between volatile and, 43–44 constitutions, 8, 10, See also elite-biased constitutions; elite-biased constitutional amendments and annulments; governance and material outcomes under democracies with amended autocratic constitutions
 as elite deal-making, 66, 67–68 measuring autocratic or democratic constitutions inherited by transition type, 72–73 popular democratic transitions and, 74 scholarship on importance of, 12, 13 as social contract that underpins democracy, 12 Sweden's constitution of 1809, 184–86, 204 unforeseen circumstances and mistakes in, 29 Continental Divide (Lipset), 254
 contractarian view of democracy, 20 crime and violence, 3
 crony capitalism, 10, 17, 61
 Cuba, 16
 Czech Republic, 247
 Czechoslovakia, 247
 De Geer, Louis, 186
 decentralization development of in Sweden, 191
 democracies. See also elite-biased democracies; popular democracies contractarian view of, 20 countries with successful, 99 democracy defined, 72 democratic breakdown, 273–79
 dictatorships as birthplace of, 12 differences between life in dictatorship and, 1 economic elites preference for if rights are protected, 16 flaws in, 2–3, 6–7, 8, 99, 283–88
 flaws in South African, 18 flaws in Swedish, 208 growth of as main form of governance internationally, 1 health and education outcomes in vs. dictatorships, 6 illiberal institutions in, 9 income inequality under, 6–7, 11–12 number of in world, 75 political elites preference for if protected from prosecution, 16 political elites under, 31 rarity of Dahlian ideal type democracy, 9 suggestions for reforming deficiencies of, 12, 283–88 Democratic Republic of Congo, 131

Index

305

- democratic transitions. See also elite-biased democratic transitions; popular democratic transitions from above, 17
 in Bolivia, 15
 constitutions and, 10
 economic growth and, 50 from 1800–2006, 76–80
 elite displacement during, 17
 elite-biased constitutions and, 247
 as elite driven, 12
 global and historical vs. regional or time period approach, 12 income inequality and, 56, 57 masses role in, 19
 modernization theory and, 56
 in Myanmar, 64, 66
 natural resource reliance and, 110
 as non-random and non-exogenous event, 11 outsider economic elites role in, 19, 20–21 per capita income and, 110 percent of revolutions under dictatorships resulting in, 19 preemptive transitions, 17 protection and continuance of elite interests after, 11, 65–66, 270
 redistribution and, 4–5
 social and political factors in Sweden's development from elite-biased to popular democracy, 175–77 statistical results of determinants of elite biased vs. popular, 112–16 statistical strategy for estimating, 110–11
 theoretical predictions of, 100–01
- Denmark, 96, 107
- dictators
 data on prior to democratic transitions, 80 death of and constitutional reform, 156–57, 162–64 elite-biased constitutions and empirical results of dictator punishment, 135–38 elite-biased constitutions and measurement of dictator punishment, 133–35 elite-biased constitutions and punishment of, 80–90, 93, 131–33 fate of, 131–33
 fate of former Pinochet regime officials, 237–38
- dictatorships. See also consolidated dictatorships; elite-biased constitutions; elite-biased democratic transitions; legislature under dictatorships; volatile dictatorships assumptions on elites and the poor preferences about, 15–16 as birthplace of democracy, 12 differences between life in democracy and, 1 elites under, 8, 9, 12 health and education outcomes in vs. democracies, 6 redistribution of land and, 20
 transitions between consolidated and volatile, 43–44
- Duterte, Rodrigo, 263
- earthquakes, 112–14. See also natural disasters
 measurement of as variable in democratic transitions, 108
- Eastern Europe
 constitutional reforms in, 145, 154
- economic elites, 30. See also incumbent economic elites; outsider economic elites constitutions and self-interest of, 13, 29
 fear of popular democracy by, 42
 precipitating factors for exiting authoritarian regime, 47–48 preference for democracy if rights are protected, 16 protection of rights and interests of, 28
 under dictatorship, 12
- economic growth, 50
- economic openness, 160
 shift in as proximate factor in constitutional reforms, 158, 164
- economic shock and collapse
 in Chile under Allende, 222–24
 Great Depression in Chile and, 217–19
 measurement of as variable in popular democratic transitions, 109 popular democratic transition in Argentina and, 105–06 as proximate factor in constitutional reforms, 157–58, 163, 164 as proximate factor in popular democratic transitions, 102, 116
 Sweden's transition from elite-biased to popular democracy and, 196
- education
 in Chile under popular democracy, 224
 in democracies vs. dictatorships, 6
- Egypt, 20, 29, 50, 276, 287
 elite-biased constitutions and, 96
 military as partisan actor in, 65

- El Salvador, 92
- elections
 - democratic, 25
- electoral systems, 156
 - in Chile, 236–37
- elite-biased constitutions and, 80–90, 92–93
- elite-biased constitutional amendments
 - and annulments, 141–43, See also
 - constitutions; elite-biased constitutions;
 - governance and material outcomes under
 - democracies with amended autocratic
 - constitutions
- in Belgium, 154
- in Central African Republic, 154
- in Chile, 154, 214–15
- in Chile under elite-biased
 - democracy, 242–44
- in Colombia, 143
- constitutional reforms in Chile in
 - 1989, 234–36
- coordination of outsider economic elites and
 - the masses as cause of, 155–58
- death of dictators and key insiders and,
 - 156–57, 162–64
- under democracy between 1800 and
 - 2006, 144–54
- in Eastern Europe, 145, 154
- economic collapse and shocks as proximate
 - factor in, 157–58, 163, 164
- economic openness shift as proximate factor
 - in, 158, 164
- empirical predictions for new or holdover
 - autocratic constitutions, 158–59
- empirical strategy and results of
 - determinants in new or holdover
 - autocratic constitutions, 161–64
- in Fiji, 154
- further entrenchment of elite bias and, 155
- in Ghana, 145
- in Indonesia, 143
- measurement for coordination potential
 - between outsider economic elites and the
 - masses, 159–61
- measurement of, 159
- in Myanmar, 143–44
- in the Netherlands, 154
- process and politics of, 143–44
- in Spain, 143
- in Sweden, 154, 204
- in Turkey, 154
- elite-biased constitutions, 173, 270, See also
 - constitutions; elite-biased constitutional
 - amendments and annulments; governance
 - and material outcomes under democracies
 - with amended autocratic constitutions
- banning of leftwing parties and, 80–90, 93
- bicameralism and, 84–90, 91–92
- Chile's 1980 constitution under
 - Pinochet, 230–34
- colonial legacies and, 73–74
- constitutional impediments to popular rule
 - associated with, 80–90
- data on dictators and for holdover
 - constitutions inherited by democracies
 - from autocracies, 80
- democracies inheriting authoritarian
 - constitutions since 1800, 80–90
- in democratic transitions, 247
- electoral systems and proportional
 - representation and, 80–90, 92–93
- as elite deal-making, 63–64
- elites protection of interests in, 13, 68–70
- elites protection of interests in Egypt, 96
- elites protection of interests in Europe, 96
- elites protection of interests in Latin
 - America, 95–96
- empirical results of dictator punishment
 - and, 135–38
- enforcing under democracy of, 71–72
- fate and punishment of dictators
 - and, 131–33
- federalism and, 80–91
- fiscal and monetary outcomes in post-WWII
 - era and, 128–31
- forestalling popular initiation of legislation
 - and, 80–90, 94
- inheritance of and annulments of since
 - 1800, 76–80
- measurement of dictator punishment
 - and, 133–35
- popular democratic transitions and, 74
- Portugal and, 73
- prohibiting retroactive criminal punishment
 - and, 80–90, 93
- proportion of democracies with since
 - 1800, 75–76
- protection of property rights and, 80–90, 94
- statistical strategy for estimating dictator
 - punishment and, 135
- trends in since 1800, 74–75
- elite-biased democracies, 3, 8, 10, 26, 27–28,
 - 36, See also Chile; Myanmar; South
 - Africa; Sweden
- adult suffrage in, 124

Index

307

- authoritarian elites and, 36
- democratic breakdown in, 273–79
- democratic transitions from
 - 1800–2006, 76–80
- effect of proximate factors and structural underpinnings on elites and the masses and, 51–53
- elites and the masses preferences for, 39–41
- as less inclusive, pluralistic, and egalitarian than popular democracies, 9, 142
- progressive taxation and, 118–20
- proportion of with autocratic constitutions since 1800, 75–76
- redistribution in, 118
- shifts to from popular democracy, 279–83
- social and political factors in Sweden's development from elite-biased to popular democracy, 175–77
- as sustainable regime type, 41–42
- transitions to popular democracy from, 44
- trends in since 1800, 74–75
- as variable in governance and material outcomes in democracy, 120–21
- elite-biased democratic transitions, 19
 - data on dictators and, 80
 - defined, 106
 - distributional outcomes under, 61–62
 - elite displacement transitions, 17
 - governance outcomes, 57–58
 - income inequality and, 56
 - legislature under dictatorship and, 102, 112–16
 - legislature under dictatorship in Mexico and, 103–04
 - legislatures and, 46–47, 107
 - measurement of key variables in, 106
 - modernization theory and, 56
 - natural disaster in Mexico and, 104
 - natural disaster in Myanmar and, 104
 - natural disasters and, 48–49, 102, 108, 112–14
 - oligarchic regimes and, 127
 - outsider economic elites as threat and, 17–18, 47–48
 - pervasiveness of, 21
 - precipitating factors behind, 47–48
 - redistribution after, 58–60
 - scholarship on, 12
 - state capacity and, 45, 102, 107
 - state capacity in South Africa and, 102–03
 - state capacity in Venezuela and, 103
 - statistical results on the determinants of, 112–16
 - transitional justice for outgoing political incumbent elites and, 60
- elites. See also authoritarian elites; economic elites; elite-biased democracy; elite-biased democratic transitions; elite-biased constitutions; incumbent economic elites; outsider economic elites; political elites
 - assumptions about preference for dictatorships, 15–16
 - defined, 11
 - protection of interests and rights after democratic transition, 11, 65–66
 - under dictatorships, 12
- Europe
 - elite-biased constitutions and, 96
- exchange rates, 119–20
- federalism
 - elite-biased constitutions and, 80–91
- Figueiredo, João, 132
- Fiji
 - constitutional reforms in, 154
- fiscal and monetary outcomes
 - after democratic transitions, 58–60
 - in democracies with amended autocratic constitutions post-World War II, 170–73
- formal institutions, 29
- France, 107
- Frei, Eduardo, 221
- Gaddafi, Muammar, 131
- Georgia, 19
- Ghana
 - constitutional amendments in, 145
- globalization, 5, 6, 11, 165
- governance and material outcomes under democracies with amended autocratic constitutions, 165. See also constitutions; elite-biased constitutions; elite-biased constitutional amendments and annulments
- empirical results by regime type, 167–70
- empirical strategies explaining outcomes by regime type, 166–67
- fiscal and monetary outcomes post-World War II, 170–73
- measurement strategies explaining outcomes by regime type, 165–66

- governance and material outcomes under
 democracy, 57–58
 egalitarian democracy variable, 117 equal distribution of resources variable, 117 percentage of population with suffrage
 variable, 117
 range of consultation variable, 117 redistribution measures, 118–20 representation of disadvantaged groups
 variable, 117, 118
 statistical strategy for explaining by regime type, 122–24
 Great Britain, 7
 Great Depression
 in Chile, 217–19
 Guatemala revolution and popular democratic transition in, 105
 Haggard, Stephan, 17 health
 in Chile under popular democracy, 224
 in democracies vs. dictatorships, 6
 of dictators, 61
 Hitler, Adolf, 131
 Hungary, 107
 illiberal institutions, 9
 income inequality. See also redistribution
 in Chile, 210, 224
 in Chile under elite-biased
 democracy, 241–42
 under democracy, 2–3, 6–7, 11–12
 democratic transitions and, 56, 57
 elite-biased transitions and, 56
 in Spain under democracy, 15
 in Sweden during the 1900 to 1910
 period, 175
 in Sweden during the 1950s to 1960s
 period, 203
 Swedish policies reducing, 199–200
 in the U.S., 283
 incumbent economic elites, 32–33, See also economic elites; outsider economic elites effect of proximate factors and structural underpinnings on and political regime outcomes, 51–53
 Great Depression in Chile and, 217
 vs. outsider economic elites, 33–35 reaction to liberalization in Sweden, 182–84
 in Sweden under dictatorship, 177–80
 volatile dictatorships and, 37–39
 Indonesia, 20, 50
 constitutional reform in, 143
 industrialization, 109
 informal institutions, 29
 Iran, 50
 iron law of oligarchy, 66
 Italy, 90
 Kaufman, Robert, 17
 Kenya
 elite-biased constitution of as furthering elite bias, 155
 Kirchner, Christina and Nelson, 119–20
 Kyrgyzstan, 19
 land reform and redistribution, 2, 20, 105
 in Chile, 221–22, 229–30
 in Philippines, 263
 Latin America, 5
 elite-biased constitutions and, 95–96
 leftwing party bans
 elite-biased constitutions and, 80–90, 93
 legislature under dictatorship elite-biased democratic transitions and, 102, 112–16
 elite-biased democratic transition in Mexico
 and, 103–04
 forestalling popular initiation of legislation
 and, 80–90
 popular democratic transitions and, 102, 112–16
 legislatures, 49, 61, See also bicameralism elite-biased transitions and, 46–47
 measurement of as variable in democratic transitions, 107
 Libya, 286
 Malaysia, 20
 Mandela, Nelson, 285
 Marcos, Ferdinand, 262–63
 Marx, Karl, 4 masses, the assumptions on preference for
 democracy, 15–16
 consolidated dictatorships and, 36–37
 constitutional amendments and annulments
 and, 155–58
 governance outcomes for in democratic transitions, 58

Index

309

- measuring coordination potential between
 - outsider economic elites and, 159–61
- popular democracy and, 42–43
- popular democratic transitions
 - and, 35–36
- in Sweden's transition to popular
 - democracy, 205
- volatile dictatorships, 37–39
- median voter
 - popular democracy and, 36
 - redistribution and, 4–5
- Mexico, 16, 20
 - legislature under dictatorship and
 - elite-biased democratic transition
 - in, 103–04
 - natural disasters and elite-biased democratic
 - transition in, 104
- military as partisan actor, 10, 13–14
 - in Chile, 211, 214–15
 - measurement of military size in democratic
 - transitions, 110
 - in Myanmar, 18, 64, 66
 - in Turkish and Egyptian democratic
 - transitions, 65
 - in Venezuela, 103
- Mobutu, Sese Seko, 131
- modernization theory, 56
- Myanmar, 64, 66, 284
 - constitutional amendments in, 143–44
 - military as partisan actor in, 18
 - natural disasters and elite-biased democratic
 - transition in, 104
- natural disasters. See also earthquakes
 - elite-biased democratic transitions and,
 - 48–49, 102
 - elite-biased democratic transition in Mexico
 - and, 104
 - elite-biased democratic transition in
 - Myanmar and, 104
 - measurement of as variable in democratic
 - transitions, 108
- natural resources, 257
 - democratic transitions and, 110
- Netherlands, 90
 - constitutional amendments in, 154
- New Zealand
 - as successful democracy, 99
- Nigeria, 90, 275
- North Korea, 16
- North Vietnam, 20
- oligarchic regimes, and democratic
 - transitions, 127
- outsider economic elites, 20, 33–35, 270,
 - See also* economic elites; incumbent
 - economic elites
 - consolidated dictatorships and, 36–37
 - constitutional amendments and annulments
 - and, 155–58
 - democratic transitions and, 17–18, 20–21,
 - 44, 47–48
 - endogenous sources of change and, 109
 - measuring coordination potential between
 - the masses and, 159–61
 - popular democracy and, 42–43
 - revolutions and, 19, 108
 - rise of in Sweden, 180–82
 - volatile dictatorships and, 37–39
- Pakistan, 20, 90
- pension reform
 - in Sweden, 193
- per capita income
 - democratic transitions and, 110
- Pérez Jiménez, Marcos, 103
- Peru, 277
- Philippines and American colonial legacies,
 - 248, 258–59
 - Ferdinand Marcos and, 262–63
 - Philippine constitution and, 262–63
 - Philippine independence and, 259–62
 - U.S. military bases and, 263
- Piketty, Thomas, 11
- Pinochet, General Augusto, 224–30
- Poland, 90
 - constitutional reforms in, 145
- political elites
 - consolidated dictatorships and, 36–37
 - constitutions and self-interest of, 13, 29
 - under democracy, 30
 - precipitating factors for exiting
 - authoritarian regime, 47–48
 - preference for democracy if protected from
 - prosecution, 16
 - protection of their rights and interests, 28
 - transitional justice for during democratic
 - transitions, 60
- popular democracies, 10, 26, 27, See also Sweden
 - adult suffrage in, 124
 - authoritarian elites fear of, 42
 - challenges of in Sweden, 205–06

- popular democracies (cont.)
 current state of in Sweden, 207–08
 effect of proximate factors and structural underpinnings on elites and the masses and, 51–53 effects of in Sweden, 205–06 governance outcomes under, 57–58 impact of on governance and material outcomes, 120–21 impediments to popular rule from elite-biased constitutions, 80–90 median voter and, 36
 as more inclusive, pluralistic, and egalitarian than elite-biased democracies, 142 outsider economic elites and the masses and, 42–43
 in Philippines, 263
 progressive taxation and, 118–20
 question of start of in Chile, 219–21 shifts from to elite-biased democracy, 279–83
 social and political factors in Sweden's development from elite-biased to popular democracy, 175–77 transitions to from elite-biased transitions, 44
 popular democratic transitions, 42–43
 constitutions and, 74
 defined, 106
 distributional outcomes following, 61–62
 earthquakes and, 112–14
 economic inequality and, 57 economic shock and collapse as proximate factor in, 50–51, 102, 116 economic shock and collapse in Argentina and, 105–06
 elite-biased constitutions and, 74
 endogenous sources of change in, 109
 legislature under dictatorship and, 102, 112–16
 the masses as actors in, 35–36
 modernization theory and, 56
 redistribution after, 58–60
 revolution in Guatemala and, 105
 revolutions and, 49–50, 102, 114–15 statistical results of determinants of, 112–16
 statistical strategy for estimating, 110–11
 transitional justice for outgoing political incumbent elites and, 60 Portugal, 19, 284
 elite-biased constitution of, 73 poverty, 3
 power resources theory, 6
 progressive taxation, 118–20 property rights protection of under elite-biased constitutions, 80–90, 94 proportional representation, 154, 155
 elite-biased constitutions and, 80–90, 92–93
 in Sweden, 188–91, 201–02
 Przeworski, Adam, 72
 redistribution, 10, See also income inequality in elite-biased democracies, 118 fixed exchange rate measure, 119–20 forms of, 118
 of land under dictatorships, 20
 as measure in governance and material outcomes under democracy, 118–20 outcomes after democratic transitions, 4–5, 58–60 progressive spending measure, 118 progressive taxation measure, 118–20 total size of government measure, 118 revolutions, 29, 286–87
 defined, 109
 economic growth in historically underdeveloped nations and, 20
 measurement of as variable in popular democratic transitions, 109
 outsider economic elites and, 19, 108 percent of under dictatorships resulting in democracy, 19 popular democratic transition in Guatemala and, 105
 popular democratic transitions and, 49–50, 102, 114–15
 reasons for rarity of democratic transitions after, 19–20
 Sweden's transition from elite-biased to popular democracy and, 197
 Romania, 90
 constitutional reforms in, 145
 Russia, 20
 Salazar, António (Portuguese President), 73
 Samuels, David, 20
 Scandinavia
 and successful democracies, 99
 Sein, Thein (President of Myanmar), 64
 Senegal, 90

Index

311

- Singapore, 20, 50
- Slovakia, 247
- South Africa, 18, 29, 36
 - federalism and, 91
 - flaws in democracy of, 18
 - state capacity and elite-biased democratic transition in, 102–03
- South Korea, 20, 50
 - fate of Chun Doo-hwan (South Korean dictator), 132–33
- Spain, 7, 15, 90
 - constitutional reform in, 143
 - inequality in under democracy, 15
- state capacity, 61
 - elite-biased democratic transitions and, 45, 102
 - measurement of as variable in democratic transitions, 107
 - South African elite-biased democratic transition and, 102–03
 - Venezuela and, 103
- Suárez, Adolfo (Spanish prime minister), 15
- Sudan, 131
- suffrage, 154
 - in Canada, 257
 - in Chile, 220
 - in Jim Crow era, 124
 - percentage of in elite-biased vs. popular democracies, 124
 - in Sweden, 187
- Swar al Dahab, Abel Rahman, 132
- Sweden, 9, 10, 36, 67, 106, 107, 191–92
 - annulment of the 1809 Constitution in 1974 as transition to popular democracy, 204
 - bicameral legislature of, 186–87
 - centralized wage bargaining in, 199
 - challenges of popular democracy in, 205–06
 - constitution of 1809 of, 184–86
 - constitutional amendments in, 154
 - current state of welfare state in, 207–08
 - decentralization in, 191
 - economic shocks and collapse in transition from elite-biased to popular democracy in, 196
 - effect of WWI on elite-biased institutions, 193–97
 - effects of popular democracy in, 205–06
 - factors in exceptionalism and egalitarianism of, 174–75, 208
 - flaws in democracy of, 208
 - growth of social democracy and progressive policy between WWI and WWII, 197–200
 - incumbent economic elites reaction to liberalization, 182–84
 - incumbent economic elites under dictatorship in, 177–80
 - initial reforms of elite-biased democracy in, 195–97
 - outsider economic elites rise in, 180–82
 - pension reform in, 193
 - policies reducing income inequality post-WWII in, 199–200
 - political distortions to popular democracy remaining after WWII, 201–02
 - proportional representation in, 92, 188–91, 201–02
 - proximate reasons for 1970s reforms, 204–05
 - social and political changes associated with transition from elite-biased to popular democracy in, 175–77
 - suffrage rights trajectory in, 187
 - transition from elite-biased to popular democracy in, 197
 - unicameralism as culminating the transition to popular democracy in, 203–04
 - unions in, 199, 202, 206
- Syria, 50, 287
- Taiwan, 20, 50
- Thailand, 276
 - elite-biased constitution of as furthering elite dominance, 155
- trade openness
 - decline of in Chile, 219
- transitional justice
 - for incumbent political elites in democratic transitions, 60
- Tunisia
 - constitutions as elite deal-making in, 67–68
- Turkey, 15, 94
 - constitutional amendments in, 154
 - military as partisan actor in, 65
- Uganda, 131
- Ukraine, 19
 - Soviet legacies in, 263–68
- unemployment rates, 7
- unicameralism, 203–04

- unions, 6, 119
 - in Chile, 220
 - in Sweden, 176, 199, 202, 206
- United States, 7, 9, 90, See also Philippines and American colonial legacies
 - income inequality in, 283
 - political capture of institutions and economic regulation by powerful financial interests in, 280–83
 - suffrage in U.S. South during the Jim Crow era, 124
- Uruguay, 20
- Venezuela, 90, 103
- volatile dictatorships, 26, 36, 37–39, 42
 - distributional outcomes under, 61–62
 - transitions between consolidated and, 43–44
- World War I
 - effect of on elite-biased institutions in Sweden, 193–97
 - manufacturing in Chile during, 216–17
- Zimbabwe, 20