

Contents

List of illustrations	ix
Preface	xi
1 The editor in context	1
Editorial skills	1
The book industry	3
Who's who in publishing	6
Portrait of a profession	9
Publishing in New Zealand	14
Editors described	15
How do you become an editor?	18
Commercial reality	19
2 The publishing process	22
The book	22
Other publications	29
The production process: overview	33
Legal concerns	35
The ethics of editing	41
Design, typography and formatting	46
Technology relevant to editing practice	46
Reproduction	47
3 Management and liaison	48
Liaison and negotiation	48
Author	49
Designer	53
Project definition	54

Contents

Preparing an estimate	58
Project documentation	61
Monitoring	66
4 Substance and structure	70
Substance	70
Structure	73
What makes a book	75
Appraising a document	79
Structure on screen	84
Single-source publishing	92
5 Language	94
Clarity and precision	94
English rules OK!	98
Common errors	101
Voice, tone and pace	103
Spelling and punctuation	105
Quotations	107
Enumerations	110
Specialised and foreign material	111
6 Illustrations and tables	115
Appraising pix	115
Integrating pix with text	116
Editing pix	119
Tables	125
7 Completeness and consistency	129
Eliminate meaningless variation	129
Prelims	130
Endmatter	132
Jacket and cover	134
References	135
Indexes	142
8 Proofs	144
The proofreader's role	145
Proofreading marks	148
Mark-up	149
Proofreading methods	153
9 Editing methods	161
Copyediting: a twelve-step program	161

Contents

Language editing	167
Substantive editing	172
Creating a screen publication	180
Ceteris paribus	183
10 Working with documents and files	185
Screed or screen?	185
Resources for on-screen editing	188
Equipment maintenance	190
Techniques for managing documents	193
11 Freelance editing	199
I think I'll go freelance	199
Health, safety and productivity	201
Running a small business	204
Contracts	206
Costs	207
Cash flows	209
Work flows	212
Appendix: Symbols for text mark-up and proof correction	218
Notes	221
Select bibliography	228
Glossary	231
Index	244