

Index

- Abdulhamid II, Ottoman sultan, 77, 91, 121, 135
- Achilleion (palace), Corfu, 182
- 'Admiral of the Atlantic': Wilhelms adopts title, 84
- Aehrenthal, Alois, Freiherr Lexa von, 121
- Africa: Wilhelm's colonial ambitions in, 78, 127, 168, 170
- Agadir crisis (1911), 127–8
- Albert, King of the Belgians, 146
- Albert, Prince Consort of Queen Victoria, 60
- Aldenburg-Bentinck, Count Godard van, 181
- Alexander, Prince of Hohenlohe-Schillingsfürst, 20
- Alexander III, Tsar of Russia: Wilhelm visits (1884 and 1886), 30
- Alexander Regiment, 60
- Alexandra, Tsarina of Russia (Alicy of Hesse), 83
- Algeciras conference (on Morocco, 1906), 91, 94
- Alice, Princess of Hesse-Darmstadt, 25
- Alsace-Lorraine, 88
- Amerongen, Kastell, 181
- Andrássy, Count Gyula, 169
- Anna, Landgravine of Hesse: Wilhelm expels, 60
- Anti-Revolutionary Bill (1894), 60
- anti-Semitism: Wilhelm's, xv, xxii, 115, 189, 192; Waldersee's, 28, 48; Hitler's, 190
- Anti-Socialist Bill (1890), 50–1
- Asquith, Herbert Henry: and Battenberg's conversation with Wilhelm, 126
- August Wilhelm, Prince of Prussia, joins Nazi Party, 188
- Auguste Viktoria, German empress ('Dona'): marriage to Wilhelm, 25; marriage relations, 28, 107; telegraph from Wilhelm proposing summer holiday (1914), 155; supports Wilhelm in readiness for war, 159; exile in Netherlands, 181; death, 183
- Austria-Hungary: and origins of First World War, xiv; Germany orders to attack Serbia, xv; German alliance with, 51; Bismarck's war with (1866), 73; supports Germany at Algeciras conference, 92; annexes Bosnia-Herzegovina, 121; prospective war with Serbia, 122, 138, 141–2, 152–3; Wilhelm pledges support for, 122–4, 136–7, 140; Wilhelm urges to attack Serbia, 124; in First Balkan War, 135; Wilhelm advocates making alliance with Turco-Bulgaria, 136; sees Serbia as threat, 136; dispute with Serbia over Scutari, 143; ultimatum to Serbia (October 1913), 145; ultimatum to Serbia (July 1914), 154; Wilhelm proposes 'halt in Belgrade' policy to, 157; and war with Russia, 160
- Bad Kreuznach, 169
- Bad Reichenhall, 8
- Baghdad Railway, 78
- Balholm (Norway), 154
- Balkan Wars (1912–13), xxi, 123, 135, 144
- Balkans: Austrian claims in, 121
- Ballin, Albert, 132, 141
- Battenberg, Admiral Prince Louis of, 89, 126, 139
- Bavaria, 149
- Bebel, August, 60

- Beit, Sir Alfred, 90
- Belgium: Hitler conquers, xvi; Wilhelm demands support in event of war, 87; Wilhelm proposes invading, 87; proposed conquest, 142; German threat to, 147; German attack halted, 162; and German war aims, xxi, 168, 170
- Belgrade: policy to halt in, 157, 159; Wilhelm proposes Austria occupy, 157
- Benedetti, Vincent, Count, 96
- Bérard, Elisabeth (Countess Wedel), 27
- Berchtold, Count Leopold, 145–6, 163
- Berckheim, Count Sigismund von, 150
- Berg, Friedrich Wilhelm von, 176, 184
- Bernstein, Max, 109
- Bernstorff, Johann-Heinrich, Count von, 175
- Bethmann Hollweg, Theobald von: on Reichstag's attack on Wilhelm's personal rule, 110; succeeds Bülow as Chancellor, 117–18; and German willingness to go to war, 124; seeks agreement with Britain, 129; resists Wilhelm's naval expansion policy, 129; proposes agreement with Britain, 132; Wilhelm distrusts, 133, 141; offers resignation (1912), 134; requests war readiness of Wilhelm, 136; shooting with Franz Ferdinand, 138; speech on prospective war, 140; attempts to dissuade Austria from attacking Serbia, 142; on incorporation of Serbia, 146; powerless to prevent war, 148; seeks to ascertain Britain's intentions in event of war, 149; decides on war with France and Russia, 149; encourages Wilhelm's 1914 Scandinavian cruise, 153; despair at Wilhelm's intentions, 155; and disposition of Royal Navy, 155; aims to put Russia in wrong, 156, 158–9; and Britain's intentions in event of war, 156; and 'halt in Belgrade' proposal, 157; welcomes popular enthusiasm for war, 160; and Wilhelm's authority, 163; war aims, 168; opposes unrestricted U-boat warfare, 173; constitutional reform proposals, 174; resignation and succession, 175
- Bienerth, Karl, Freiherr von, 137
- Bigelow, Poultney, 186–7
- Bismarck, Herbert, Count von: Wilhelm's conflicts with, 21; as head of Auswärtiges Amt, 30; attempts to influence Wilhelm, 45; Wilhelm demands promotion of Eulenburg to Munich, 46; resigns, 53; on Bülow's marriage, 65
- Bismarck, Otto, Prince von: dismissed, xvi, xvii, 43, 52, 54; Wilhelm's conflicts with, 21, 43–5, 48–51; and Wilhelm's correspondence with Alexander III, 30; forms Prusso-German Reich, 33; and Wilhelm's bellicosity, 33; and succession to throne, 34; favours personal monarchy, 41; Waldersee conspires against, 45; and Jews, 52; death, 52; Reinsurance Treaty with Russia (1887), 53; authority, 56; and Wilhelm's marginal comments, 58; Bülow on, 65; wars, 73; Wilhelm belittles, 73; fear of encirclement, 75; on unworthiness of Orient, 76; and Ems Telegram (1870), 95; and monarch's vulnerability to criticism, 103; treated by Schweningen, 104
- Björkö (island): Wilhelm meets Nicholas II on, 84
- Björkö, Treaty of (1905), 85, 87, 94
- Bleichröder, Gerson, 48, 51
- Boer War: Wilhelm sends plan of campaign for Roberts, 112–13
- Boers, 75
- Bonn, University of, 24
- Bosnia: annexed (1908–9), xxi, 121, 124, 128, 135
- Boxer rebellion (China), 76
- Bramann, Gustav, 35
- Brand, Adolf, 108
- Brest-Litovsk, Treaty of (1918), 170
- Britain: reasons for fighting war, xv; Wilhelm seeks to ascertain intentions in case of war, xxii; as rival to Germany, 75; and Boer War, 76; naval arms race with Germany, 79, 96; German strategy against, 79; alliances, 80, 83; Entente Cordiale with France, 79, 87, 89; and prospect of war with Germany, 87; proposed expeditionary force in event of war, 90; commitment to support France, 90; Wilhelm's policy towards, 94; Wilhelm plans to provoke into attack on Germany, 95; Wilhelm claims superior knowledge of, 95, 171; Wilhelm expresses hatred of, 96–7;

- rapprochement with France, 98; Wilhelm claims friendship towards, 112; Wilhelm believes unready to intervene in war, 124; Wilhelm hopes for rapprochement with Germany, 125; Wilhelm's final visit, 126; and German antagonism, 132; undeclared role in prospective war, 134, 141, 143, 148–9, 156–8, 160, 162–3; distracted by Ulster problem, 150; Wilhelm plans invasion from Belgium, 169; policy of European balance of power, 79, 128, 140–1, 144, 169–70, 192; and Wilhelm's proposed new world order, 170; and First World War as struggle for existence, 171; defies Germany (1940), 192
- Bulgaria: alliance with Turkey, 135; Wilhelm seeks alliance with, 154
- Bülów, Bernhard, Prince von: material status as Chancellor, 55; appointed head of Foreign Office and Reich Chancellor, 63, 65; character and background, 65; homosexual tendencies, 65, 108; relations with Philipp zu Eulenburg, 65, 67, 93, 104; 'system', 67, 103; relations with Wilhelm, 68, 114; on Wilhelm's speech in Damascus, 77; offers resignation (1906), 85; and Wilhelm's visit to Tangier, 89; and prospect of major war, 90; subservience to Wilhelm, 94; considers Wilhelm out of right mind, 95; prevents publication of Wilhelm's interview with Hale, 97; and attacks on Liebenberg circle, 108; and constitutional crisis over Wilhelm's Daily Telegraph interview, 111–13, 116; and Wilhelm's claims to support Britain, 112; Wilhelm blames for November crisis, 114; resigns (1909), 116; approves Austria's annexation of Bosnia-Herzegovina, 121
- Burián, Count Stephan, 169
- Capelle, Admiral Eduard von, 153, 156
- Caprivi, General Georg Leo von: succeeds Bismarck as Chancellor, 16, 52–4; modest means, 55; retires as Prussian minister-president, 58; Wilhelm dismisses, 58; and Wilhelm's hostility to political parties, 59; Holstein supports, 63; Bülów on, 65
- Cassel, Sir Ernest, 132
- Catholic Centre Party: and Kulturkampf, 49, 51; gains in 1890 election, 50; Lieber leads, 59; Wilhelm criticises, 174; heads coalition government (1921), 186
- Cecil, Lamar, 152
- Centre Party see Catholic Centre Party
- Chamberlain, Neville, 190
- Charlotte, Princess of Prussia (Wilhelm II's sister; 'Ditta'): porphyria, 9; relations with mother, 13; as patient of Schweninger, 104; and Wilhelm's sense of infallibility, 113
- China: German troops sent to, 69; Russian interests in, 76; Wilhelm sees as 'Yellow peril', 111
- Chlodwig, Prince zu Hohenlohe-Schillingsfürst, 55; appointed Reich Chancellor and Prussian minister-president, 58, 65; and Wilhelm's wish to support Boers, 75; and Eulenburg's demand for blackmail refund, 104
- Churchill, Winston S.: doubles Royal Navy's budget, 131; orders Royal Navy to Scottish waters, 155
- Clark, Christopher, 54, 75, 151; The Sleepwalkers, 151–2
- Congo, 127, 170
- Conrad von Hötzendorf, Franz, Freiherr von, 123, 137, 144
- Continental League, 112–13
- Copenhagen: German plan to besiege, 82
- Corps Borussia fraternity, 25
- Daily Dispatch* (Manchester newspaper), 111
- Daily Telegraph*: Wilhelm's interview in ('November storm'), 97, 110–14, 116, 122
- Dallwitz, Hans von, 175
- Delcassé, Théophile, 91
- Denmark: Hitler conquers, xvi; Bismarck's war with (1864), 73; fleet destroyed by British (1807), 81; German plan to invade, 82
- Dommes, General Wilhelm von, 189–90
- Donaueschingen, 109, 111, 114, 122, 135
- Dönhoff, Countess Marie von: marriage to Bülów, 65
- Doorn, Huis (Netherlands), 181–3, 187–8, 192
- Dreadnought*-class battleships, 129–30, 142
- Dresky, Captain Gustav von, 8, 16
- Drews, Bill, 176
- Dunkirk evacuation (1940), 192

- 'Eastern Question', 135
 Edward VII, King of Great Britain: Wilhelm insults to Alexander III, 30; Wilhelm banishes from Vienna, 33; on Wilhelm's visit to Tangier, 89; and Wilhelm's argument with Hardinge over naval arms race, 96; Wilhelm's hostility to, 97, 99, 190; on German threat in continental war, 98; death, 125; funeral, 126; and Entente Cordiale, 192
 Egypt, 97
 Einem, General Karl von, 90
 Elisabeth, Princess of Hesse-Darmstadt (Ella), 25
 Ems Telegram (1870), 95
 Entente Cordiale, 79, 82, 87, 89–90, 92
 Ernst, Jakob, 106
 Ernst August, Duke of Brunswick, 144
 Erzberger, Matthias, 186
 Eulenburg, August, Count von, 64, 117
 Eulenburg, Count Botho von: appointed Prussian minister-president and interior minister, 58; Wilhelm dismisses, 58; declines Chancellorship, 117
 Eulenburg-Hertefeld, Philipp, Count zu: as Wilhelm's favourite, xxi, 28, 46, 64; Wilhelm confesses character defects to, 19; and Wilhelm's succeeding to throne, 20, 36; Wilhelm writes to on father's illness, 35; influence on Wilhelm, 43, 48–50, 58, 63–4; Wilhelm meets, 45; Wilhelm demands promotion to Munich, 46; accompanies Wilhelm on Scandinavian cruise, 48; and Caprivi's appointment as Chancellor, 53; proposes appointment of Bülow, 63; relations with Bülow, 63, 67; relations with Holstein, 64; and Bülow system, 67; and Wilhelm's aim for German dominance, 74; arranges Bülow's appointment, 93; scandal and fall, 103, 109, 114; homosexuality, 104, 106; as ambassador in Vienna, 104; resigns as ambassador, 106; Holstein challenges to duel, 106; Harden's campaign against, 107
 Europe: balance of power in, 79, 128, 140, 169–70; Wilhelm plans United States of, 132, 192; under Nazi domination, 192
 Falkenhayn, General Erich von, 150, 153, 156–7, 159–60, 172–3
 Feodora (Feo), Princess (Charlotte's daughter), 9
 Fez, 127
 Finance Reform Bill (1909), 116
 First World War: origins, xiv; importance, 171
 Fischer controversy, 142
 Fisher, Admiral John Arbuthnot, Baron: predicts decisive battle for 1914, 131
 France: German threat to, xiv, 133; reasons for fighting war, xv; Hitler conquers, xvi; Waldersee calls for early strike against, 44; Bismarck's war with (1870–1), 73; Entente Cordiale with Britain, 79, 87; Wilhelm's contempt for 'Gauls', 86; alliance with Russia, 88; Holstein on prospective war with, 89; British support for, 90; Wilhelm plans to provoke into initiating war, 95; Britain seeks rapprochement with, 98; Wilhelm claims perfidy against Britain, 112; and prospective Balkan war, 122; Wilhelm and Moltke consider strategy towards, 123; occupies Fez, 127; and second Moroccan crisis, 128; unpreparedness for war, 138; and prospective German war with Russia, 141, 149; proposed German conquest of, 142; Moltke forecasts imminent war with, 147; Germany decides on war with, 149; Wilhelm orders ultimatum to, 160; and German war aims, 168, 170; falls (1940), 192
 Franz Ferdinand, Archduke of Austria: social circle, 109, 121; Wilhelm visits, 111, 138; letter from Wilhelm pledging support for Austria, 123; Wilhelm urges to concede to Russia, 143; assassination, 149, 151; memorial service, 151; funeral, 152; Wilhelm's relations with, 163
 Franz Joseph, Emperor of Austria-Hungary: and Wilhelm's hopes for autocratic rule, 49; Wilhelm promises support to, 122, 144; Wilhelm venerates, 150; fails to inform Wilhelm of annexation of Bosnia-Herzegovina, 122; Serbs ordered to accept rule, 145; telegram from Wilhelm on impending war, 160
 Freemasons: Wilhelm's hostility to, 186, 192
 French, General Sir John, 144
 Freud, Sigmund, 10

- Friedrich, Duke of Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Augustenburg, 25
- Friedrich, Grand Duke of Baden, 48, 63
- Friedrich II, King of Prussia ('Frederick the Great'), 45, 73, 86, 123
- Friedrich III, German emperor and King of Prussia (Wilhelm's father; 'Fritz'): death, xv, 36; marriage, 3; accession, 10; and Wilhelm's upbringing, 14, 16, 18; on Wilhelm's marriage to Dona, 25; cancer of larynx, 28, 34–6; Wilhelm usurps role, 28; on Wilhelm's egotism, 28; and succession to throne, 35–6
- Friedrich Wilhelm I, King of Prussia (the 'Sergeant King'), 48, 93
- Friedrich Wilhelm IV, King of Prussia, 3
- Friedrichshof Schloss, Kronberg, 96
- Fromkin, David: Europe's Last Summer, 152
- Fürstenberg, Max Egon II, Prince zu, 28, 109, 111, 114, 116, 121, 123, 136, 163
- George III, King of Great Britain, 9
- George V, King of Great Britain: Wilhelm woos, 126; and Britain's intentions in case of war, 139, 157–8, 162; attempts to avert war, 159; and Wilhelm's belief in absolute monarchy, 167
- George VI, King of Great Britain: offers asylum to Wilhelm, 191
- Gerard, James, 167
- Gerhardt, Karl, 34
- German army: presence at Wilhelm's court, 55; enlargement, 134
- German navy: expansion, 33, 79, 132; Lee threatens to sink, 90; Reichstag opposes strengthening, 91; arms race with Britain, 96; Wilhelm denies built against Britain, 111–12; Novelle, 131; revolution (November 1918), 176
- German Navy Bill (1907), 111
- German Republic: proclaimed (1918), 177
- Germans: Wilhelm accuses of betrayal, 186
- Germany: fear of encirclement, xiii, 75, 98; aim for supremacy, xiv, 75; and origins of First World War, xiv; as nation state, xx; and personal rule, 41, 103; alliances, 51, 136, 141; territorial limits, 73; Weltpolitik, 78–9; outvoted at Algeciras conference, 92; and prospective Balkan war, 122; Wilhelm hopes for rapprochement with Britain, 125; antagonism towards Britain, 132; pledges support for Austria, 138; war aims and proposed new world order, 168–9; victory over Russia, 170; revolution (November 1918), 176, 186; invades Netherlands (1940), 191
- Golden International, 114
- Goltz, Field Marshal Colmar, Freiherr von der, 117
- Göring, Hermann, 182, 188
- Göring, Karin, 188
- Görtz, Emil, Count von, 14, 109
- Gottberg, Major-General Walter von, 19
- Greece: Wilhelm seeks alliance with, 154
- Grey, Sir Edward: and Battenberg's conversation with Wilhelm, 126; and Prince Heinrich's visit to England, 139; on Serbian reply to Austrian ultimatum, 156; on Britain not remaining neutral, 158; supposed offer to remain neutral, 162; and George V's declaration of Britain's intentions to intervene, 162; and Chamberlain, 190
- Groener, Wilhelm, 177
- Habsburg monarchy, xiv
- Haehner, Dr Alfred, 183
- Hahnke, General Wilhelm von, 52
- Haldane, Richard Burdon, Viscount: negotiates with Tirpitz and Wilhelm, 132–3, 141; on Britain's intentions in case of war, 140
- Hale, William Bayard, 78, 96–7, 114
- Hapag (shipping line), 132, 154
- Hard Labour Bill (1898), 60
- Harden, Maximilian, 95, 104, 106–10, 114
- Hardinge, Sir Charles, 96
- Harnack, Adolf (von), 62
- Hatzfeld-Wildenburg, Paul, Count von, 175
- Heemstra, Baroness Lily van, 181, 183
- Heeringen, Josias von, 128
- Heinrich, Prince of Prussia (Wilhelm II's brother): birth, 13; childhood, 16; education, 19; Queen Victoria snubs, 30; on Caprivi's appointment as Chancellor, 53; marriage, 83; visits Britain to ascertain intentions, 139, 157–8; attempts to dissuade Austria from attacking Serbia, 142; attends Franz Ferdinand's memorial service, 152; telegram from George V on 'halt in Belgrade' policy, 159; eagerness for war with France, 159

- Heinrich XXII, Prince of Reuss, 183
 Heligoland: U-boat harbour, 142
 Hepburn, Audrey, 183
 Hermine, Princess von Schönaich-Carolath:
 marriage to Wilhelm, 183; admires
 Hitler, 188, 190
 Hertling, Count Georg von, 175
 Herzegovina: annexed (1908–9), 121
 Herzl, Theodor, 77
 Highcliffe Castle, Hampshire, 111
 Hill, David J., 125
 Hindenburg, General Paul von
 Benckendorff und von: leadership, 43,
 174, 176; as supreme army commander, 172–3; threatens resignation, 174; and succession to Bethmann, 175
 Hinzpeter, Georg Ernst: and Wilhelm's consciousness of damaged arm, 12; and Wilhelm's upbringing, 14, 16, 18–21, 24,
 45; retires, 48; encourages Wilhelm, 49;
 influences Wilhelm's reforms,
 59–60
 Hitler, Adolf: foreshadowed by Kaiser, xv;
 conquests, xvi; relations with Wilhelm, xxii, 188, 190; discusses restoration of Hohenzollerns, 188, 190; anti-Semitism,
 190; Wilhelm congratulates on conquest of France, 192; plans war of extermination in east, 194
 Hohenau, Wilhelm, Count von, 114
Hohenzollern (imperial yacht), 94, 106, 117,
 126, 128, 151, 154, 156
 Hohenzollern dynasty: personal rule, xxi, 41; porphyria, 9; military feats, 21, 73; and Wilhelm II's accession, 43; downfall, 172, 177; inherits property after Wilhelm's abdication, 182;
 unpopularity, 185; hopes for restoration,
 188
 Holstein, Friedrich von: on Wilhelm's attitude to mother, 30; influence on Wilhelm, 48–9; and Wilhelm's hostility to political parties, 59; relations with Eulenburg, 63; Bülow consults over resignation, 85; and Wilhelm's visit to Tangier, 89; antagonism towards France, 90; plans for major war, 91; on Eulenburg, 104; challenges Eulenburg to duel, 106; letter from Harden on Wilhelm's Daily Telegraph interview,
 110; Wilhelm blames for November crisis, 114
 Homolatsch, Anna, 27
 homosexuality: Wilhelm's rumoured, 28,
 106; Eulenburg's, 104, 106; and
 Liebenberg circle, 107–8, 114
 House, Colonel Edward, 167
 Hoyos, Alexander, 122, 153
 Hugenberg, Alfred, 188
 Hülsen-Haeseler, General Count Dietrich
 von, 111, 114
 Ibsen, Henrik, 43
 Ilsemann, Sigurd von, 188
 India: Wilhelm on Muslims in, 136
 Ingenohl, Admiral Fredrich von, 154
 Irène, Princess of Hesse-Darmstadt (Prince Heinrich's wife), 83
 Islam: Wilhelm courts, 77, 90, 121
 Italy: German alliance with, 51, 138; attack on Tripoli, 135; Wilhelm proposes Austria persuade to enter war, 156
 Jagow, Gottlieb von, 143, 149–50, 163
 Jameson Raid (1896), 75
 Japan: treaty of alliance with Britain, 79, 83;
 war with Russia (1904–5), 83, 86, 90, 94,
 124; Wilhelm sees as 'Yellow peril', 111
 Jerusalem, 76
 Jesuits, 186
 Jews: Waldersee's hostility to, 28, 48, 51, 187;
 Wilhelm's antipathy to, 33, 114, 186, 189,
 192; Bismarck and, 52; Hitler
 denounces, 190
 Kaiser Wilhelm Canal: widened, 129, 131, 142, 145
 Kaiser Wilhelm Society (now Max Planck Society), 62
 Karpf, Admiral Johannes von, 152
 Kartell coalition, 49–50
 Kassel, 18, 20–2, 24
 Kayser, Dr Paul, 49–50, 59, 75
 Kiaochow, Bay of (China), 76
 Kiderlen-Wächter, Alfred von: and commitment to war, 124; and second Moroccan crisis, 127–8; discourages war with France, 128; resists Wilhelm's naval expansion policy, 129; and Wilhelm's neutral policy on Serbia, 136; urges war readiness on Wilhelm, 136
 Kiel, 155–6; revolution (1918), 176
 Kiel Week (1914), 151
 Klopp, Emilie, 27

- Kreuzzeitung* faction, 44
 Kruger, Paul, 75
 Kruger Telegram (1896), xxi, 75–6, 113
 Kruse, Lili von (Kuno von Moltke's wife), 104
 Kulturkampf, 50–1
- Langenbeck, Bernhard von, 4
 Lascelles, Sir Frank, 95
 Latin races: Wilhelm disparages, 74, 144
 Lecomte, Raymond, 108
 Lee, Sir Arthur, 90
 left liberals: Wilhelm condemns, 33
 Lenin, Vladimir I., 170
 Leopold II, King of the Belgians, 87–8, 146
 Lerchenfeld-Köfering, Count Hugo von, 117, 141, 175
 Leuckart von Weissdorf, General von, 151
 Leuthen, battle of (1757), 192
 Libau (Liepāja, Latvia), 154
 Lichnowsky, Karl Max, Prince von:
 appointed ambassador to London, 58;
 on Britain's intentions in case of war,
 140, 149, 156; and Wilhelm's pledge to Austria, 142; telegrams on prospect of British neutrality, 160, 162; emotional reaction to war, 162; advice ignored, 163
 Lichnowsky, Princess Mechtild, 162
 'Liebenberg round table', 58, 65, 107; scandal,
 103–4, 107, 109
 Lieber, Ernst, 59
 Liège, 162
 Lloyd George, David: and slide into war, xiv;
 warns of Britain supporting allies, 128
 Loewenfeld, General Alfred von, 117
 Louis XIV, King of France (the 'Sun King'), 97
 Lucanus, Hermann von: and Bismarck's dismissal, 52; in Civil Cabinet, 55
 Lucke, Sergeant, 14
 Ludendorff, General Erich, 48, 167, 172–7
Lusitania (liner), 173
 Luxembourg: German attack halted and resumed, 162
 Lyncker, General Moriz, Freiherr von, 150,
 153, 167, 172, 175
- Mackensen, Field Marshal August von, 186
 Mahomedans, 77, 136
 Margarethe, Landgravine of Hesse, 183
 Marne, battle of the (1914), 172
- Marschall von Bieberstein, Adolf, Freiherr: as adviser to Wilhelm, 48; appointed head of Foreign Office, 53–4, 58; and Wilhelm's hostility to political parties,
 59; in parliamentary conflicts, 63; and
 Wilhelm's support for Boers, 75
 Martin, Dr Eduard Arnold, 3
 Max, Prince of Baden, 176–7
 Mesopotamia, 78
Meteor (ship), 151
 Metternich, Count Paul von: Wilhelm's intemperate messages to, 133; advice overlooked, 163
 Michaelis, Georg, 171, 175
 Middle East: Wilhelm in, 76; and Wilhelm's imperial ambitions, 136
 Moltke, Helmuth von (Julius): replaces
 Schlieffen as chief of General Staff, 87,
 93; and prospective war with Britain and France, 95; Liebenberg circle supports,
 108; on war threat between Austria and Russia, 123; on strategy towards France,
 123, 159; and second Moroccan crisis,
 128; and Wilhelm's complaints about
 Bethmann Hollweg, 130; pleads for war readiness, 136; urges early war readiness,
 136, 149; discussions with Austrians,
 137–8; attempts to dissuade Austria from attacking Serbia, 142; on Scutari crisis, 143; demands on Austria, 144;
 discussion with Albert of the Belgians, 146; advocates continental war, 150;
 audiences with Wilhelm before outbreak of war, 156; prepares for war, 160; and Wilhelm's proposal to concentrate on war with Russia, 160; nervous reaction to impending war, 162;
 replaced by Falkenhayn, 172
 Moltke, Kuno, Graf von, 64, 104, 106, 109, 114
 Monts, Count Anton, 117
 Morier, Sir Robert, 14, 20
 Moroccan crisis, first (1905–6), xxi, 89–91, 127
 Moroccan crisis, second (1911), 126, 128, 144
 Morocco: Wilhelm visits (1905), 88
 Müller, Admiral Georg Alexander von: and Wilhelm's command of war at sea,
 173; and prospective war with France,
 128; and Wilhelm's complaints about Bethmann's timidity, 130; and Wilhelm's hopes of leading Europe, 132;

- shocked at Wilhelm's coarse language, 133; advocates continental war, 150; reports Franz Ferdinand's assassination to Wilhelm, 151–2; with Wilhelm on last Scandinavian cruise, 154; aims to put Russia in wrong, 156; on Britain's not remaining neutral, 158; on Wilhelm's speech on impending war, 160
- Munich Agreement (1938), 190, 192
- Mutius, General Max von, 187
- Napoleon I (Bonaparte), Emperor of the French, 86, 97
- National Conservative Reich party, 49
- National Liberal party, 49
- Nazi Party: rise to power, 188; Wilhelm's view of, 190
- Netherlands: Hitler conquers, xvi; Wilhelm's exile in, xxii, 177, 181, 185; Wilhelm threatens with invasion, 88; Germany invades (1940), 191
- New York Times*, 96
- Nicholas II, Tsar of Russia: Wilhelm's correspondence with, 30, 83, 185; letter from Wilhelm on Mahomedans, 77; marriage, 83, 107; Wilhelm encourages to oppose 'Yellow peril', 84, 93; meets Wilhelm on Björkö, 84; and Wilhelm's promise of support for Austria, 144; and potential effect of war on monarchy, 150; exchange of telegrams with Wilhelm (1914), 158; and Wilhelm's belief in absolute monarchy, 167; fall (1917), 169
- Nietzsche, Friedrich, 43
- Norddeutsche Lloyd shipping line, 154
- Norway, Hitler conquers, xvi
- 'November storm' see Daily Telegraph
- Nuremberg rallies, 188
- O'Danne, August, 16
- Olmütz (1850), 127
- Ottoman Empire see Turkey
- Palestine, 77
- Pan-German League, 128
- Panther* (German gunboat), 127
- Philip II, King of Spain, 97
- Plessen, General Hans von, 153, 160, 175, 177
- Pohl, Hugo von, 156
- Poland: and German war aims, 168–70; Hitler invades, 190, 192
- porphyria, 9
- Port Arthur, 86
- Potsdam, 24, 59, 90, 151–2, 156
- Prussia: and personal monarchy, 41; supremacy in Reich, 51; Civil List, 54; constitutional reform, 174
- Prusso-German Reich, 33
- Puerto Rico, 79
- Quidde, Ludwig, 57
- Radolin, Prince Hugo, 117
- Radowitz, Joseph Maria von, 92
- Radziwill, Princess Marie, 95
- Rathenau, Walther, 132, 186
- Reich see Germany
- Reichstag: Wilhelm's hostility to, 33; elections (1890), 49–51; Wilhelm attacked in, 59; opposes strengthening fleet, 91; attacks Wilhelm's personal rule, 110; approves funds for battleship building, 113; debate over constitutional crisis and Daily Telegraph interview, 113; and army enlargement, 134; increasing power, 174
- Reinsurance Treaty (with Russia, 1887), 53
- Reval (now Tallinn), 83, 154
- Rheinbaben, Georg, Freiherr von, 117
- Rhodes, Cecil, 78
- Richter, Eugen, 59
- Roberts, Field Marshal Frederick Sleigh, Earl, 112
- Roggenbach, Franz, Freiherr von, 34
- Roman Catholic Church: and Kulturkampf, 50; Wilhelm denounces, 60, 186
- Romania, 152, 154
- Rominten (East Prussia), 182
- Roosevelt, Theodore: proposes Wilhelm expand in eastern Europe, 78; visit to Germany, 125
- Royal Navy (British): and German naval expansion threat, 79, 129; and German plan to seize Denmark, 82; budget doubled by Churchill, 131; review (July 1914), 155; sails to Scottish waters, 155
- Rudolf, Crown Prince of Austria-Hungary, 25, 27
- Ruhr district: miners' strike, 48
- Russia: in Triple Alliance with Britain and France, xiii, 80, 88, 98; German threat to, xiv, 79; reasons for fighting war, xv; war with Japan (1904–5), xxi, 83, 86, 90, 94; prospective war with Germany and Austria-Hungary, 33, 94, 122–3, 141, 149;

- Waldersee calls for early strike against, 44; Reinsurance Treaty with Germany (1887), 53; interests in China, 76; Wilhelm claims perfidy against Britain, 112; and prospective Balkan war, 122; refrains from starting war (1909), 124; German war against, 149, 162; Wilhelm believes unready for war, 150; and Austrian threat to Serbia, 153; unprepared for war, 153; and Serbian mobilisation, 155; Bethmann aims to put in wrong, 156, 158–9; Austria prepares for war with, 160; and German war aims, 168, 170
- Saladin: Wilhelm praises, 77
- Samoa, 77
- San Remo, 35
- Sarajevo, 149
- Saxony, 149
- Sazonov, Sergei, 155
- Scandinavian cruises (Wilhelm's), 48, 96, 117–18, 127, 153
- Scheefer, Max, 108
- Scheidemann, Philipp, 177
- Schemua, Field Marshal Blasius, 137–8
- Schlieffen, Count Alfred von: strategic plan, xvi; succeeds Waldersee as chief of General Staff, 63; on proposed war with United States, 79; opposes plan to invade Denmark, 82; 'Julius' von Moltke replaces as chief of General Staff, 87, 93; and first Morocco crisis, 89; considered too old for major war, 90
- Schlitz (Hesse), 14
- Schoen, Wilhelm von, 95, 121
- Scholl, Friedrich von, 127
- Schrader, Dr Max, 16
- Schrötter, Captain Gustav von, 14, 16
- Schweninger, Ernst, 104
- Scutari (Albania), 143, 145
- Senden-Bibran, Admiral Freiherr Gustav von, 93
- Serbia: Habsburg antagonism, xiv; reasons for fighting war, xv; Austria ordered to attack, xv, 124; prospective war with Austria-Hungary, 122, 138, 141–2, 152–3; Austria sees as threat, 136; dispute with Austria over Scutari, 143; Austrian ultimatum to (October 1913), 145; ordered to accept Austrian rule, 145–6; Austrian ultimatum to (July 1914), 154, 159; mobilises, 155; conciliatory reply to Austrian ultimatum, 156; and impending major war, 160
- Sigmund, Prince of Prussia (Wilhelm II's brother): death, 13
- Silesian War, First (1740), 86
- Silvesterbrief* (Wilhelm's), 90
- Slavs: Wilhelm disparages, 74, 154; as prospective enemies, 141, 143
- Social Democratic Party of Germany: Wilhelm's hostility to, 33, 50–1, 60, 91; strength, 50, 59; objects to indulging Wilhelm's extravagance in Netherlands, 182
- Sommssics, Ella, 27
- Sophie, Princess of Prussia (Wilhelm II's sister), 13
- South America: Wilhelm's ambitions in, 78
- Spa (Belgium), 176, 181
- Spitzemberg, Baroness Hildegard von, 110, 128
- Springe (Hanover), 138
- Stamfordham, Sir Arthur Bigge, Baron, 144
- Steiner, Rudolf, 93
- Stoecker, Adolf, 44
- Stuart Wortley, Colonel Edward James, 111–12
- Szögyény-Marich, Count Ladislaus von, 122, 154
- Tangier: Wilhelm visits, 88
- Three Emperors, Year of (1888), xx, 41
- Tirpitz, Admiral Alfred: appointed Secretary of State at Navy Office, 63; naval expansion plan, 79, 95, 113, 129, 131, 134; supported by von Senden-Bibran, 93; naval policy, 94, 148; and Wilhelm's letter to Tweedmouth, 95; agreement with Bethmann Hollweg, 130; negotiates with Haldane, 132–3; suspicion of Britain, 132; shooting with Franz Ferdinand, 138; urges immediate war, 148; on leave (July 1914), 153; mocks Wilhelm's plan to blockade eastern Baltic, 156; and Wilhelm's belief in British neutrality, 158; and Wilhelm's command of war at sea, 173; resigns, 173
- Triple Alliance (Germany–Austria–Italy), 136, 138
- Triple Entente (Britain–France–Russia), xiii, 80, 98, 112, 132
- Tripoli (Libya), 135
- Trotsky, Leon, 170

- Tschirschky und Bögendorff, Heinrich von, 123, 146, 157
- Turkey (Ottoman Empire): Wilhelm wishes to take 'Holyland' from, 97; Young Turks' revolution, 121, 135; in First Balkan War, 135; Wilhelm seeks alliance with, 154
- Tweedmouth, Edward Marjoribanks, Baron, 95, 112, 114
- U-boat warfare, 173
- Ukraine, 170
- Ulster (Northern Ireland), 150
- United States of America: builds up Atlantic fleet, 78; Wilhelm's prospective war with, 78; opposes Germany at Algeciras conference, 92; and Wilhelm's racial visions, 125; kept out of war, 173; enters war, 173
- Valentini, Rudolf von: and Wilhelm's Daily Telegraph interview, 111; proposes Bethmann Hollweg as Chancellor, 117; eagerness for war with France, 159; and succession to Bethmann Hollweg, 175; replaced by von Berg, 176
- Varnbüler, Axel, Freiherr von, 64, 106–9
- Versailles treaty (1919), 147, 152
- Victor Emmanuel III, King of Italy, 138
- Victoria, Empress Frederick (Wilhelm II's mother; 'Vicky'): marriage, 3; and Wilhelm II's birth injury and treatment, 6, 10; character, 10; difficult relations with Wilhelm, 11, 13, 17, 20, 28, 30; and Wilhelm's upbringing and education, 16, 18–19; letters from Wilhelm, 16, 22, 24; on Wilhelm's character defects, 18; Wilhelm rejects, 24, 30, 35; horrified at Wilhelm's military zeal, 25; retains Englishness, 30; and succession on husband's terminal illness, 34; and Wilhelm's succession to throne, 36; smuggles papers to Britain, 36; on Wilhelm's vanity, 56; memorial unveiled, 126
- Victoria, Princess of Prussia (Wilhelm II's sister; 'Moretta'), 13
- Victoria, Queen of Great Britain: family, 3; and Wilhelm II's birth, 4; Wilhelm insults to Alexander III, 30; anger at Wilhelm, 30; letter from daughter Vicky on Wilhelm's vanity, 56; birthday (1913), 143; Wilhelm claims to be favourite grandchild, 163
- Victoria Luise, Princess of Prussia and Duchess of Brunswick (Wilhelm's daughter), 144
- Waldemar, Prince of Prussia (Wilhelm II's brother): death, 13
- Waldersee, Count Alfred von: and von Schrötter's resignation, 16; anti-Semitism, 28, 48, 51; and Wilhelm's succession, 28, 34; advocates war with Russia and France, 33, 44, 54; influence on Wilhelm, 43–4, 48; and fall of Bismarck, 44–5, 50; not appointed Chancellor, 52–3; replaced by Schlieffen, 63; commander-in-chief in China, 76; opposes Moltke's appointment as chief of General Staff, 93; on Wilhelm's sense of greatness, 94
- Waldersee, Count Georg von: preparations for war, 149
- 'war council' (8 December 1912), 142
- Weber, Max, 103
- Wedel, General Count Carl von, 117, 145
- Weimar Republic: funds Wilhelm's exile, 181–2
- Wenninger, General Karl, Ritter von, 159
- Wermuth, Adolf, 129
- Wilhelm, Crown Prince of Prussia (Wilhelm's son), 154
- Wilhelm I, King of Prussia, 17, 34–5, 54, 73, 96; death, 35
- Wilhelm II, German emperor and King of Prussia: conspires to begin war, xv; character defects, xv, 18, 20–1, 28; anti-Semitism, xv, xxii, 33, 115, 186–7, 189, 192; as Schattenkaiser, xvii; birth, xx, 3; accession and power, xxi; autocracy and divine right (personal rule), xxi, 37, 41, 47, 103–4, 113, 167; exile in Holland, xxii, 181; arm injured at birth, 4, 8, 11; treatment for injured arm, 4, 20; unhappy childhood, 10–13; ear trouble, 8; temper and bouts of rage, 9; strained relations with mother, 13; upbringing and education, 14, 17–18, 20; learns to ride, 14; letters to mother, 17, 22, 24; fetish over mother's hands, 22–4; rejects mother, 24; life as student and officer cadet, 24; marriage and family, 25, 28; affairs, 27; rumoured homosexuality, 28, 106; fantasises about

- imprisonment of mother, 30; slanders English royal family, 30; hatred towards parents, 30, 35; correspondence with Nicholas II, 30, 83, 185; power and ambition, 33, 54–6, 58; hostility to political parties, 33, 59; and succession to throne, 35–6, 41; influenced by Waldersee, 43–5; conflict with Bismarck, 44, 48–52; supports Waldersee's pro-war party, 44; affection for Eulenburg, 45–6; Scandinavian cruises, 48, 96, 117–18, 127, 153; wishes to renew Reinsurance Treaty with Russia, 54; income and fortune, 54; personal rule denounced in Reichstag, 59; Potsdam speech to army recruits, 59; encourages technological innovation, 60; Eulenburg on, 67; militant speech to troops bound for China, 69; aims for Germany as world power (Weltmachtpolitik), 73–4, 76, 78, 128; support for Boers, 75; visits Middle East, 76; supports naval shipbuilding plan, 80; proclaims love for Britain, 82; pressures Nicholas II to oppose 'Yellow peril', 84; self-styled 'Admiral of Atlantic', 84; meets Nicholas II on Björkö, 85; nervous breakdowns, 85, 114, 158, 182; Tangier visit (1905), 89; Silvesterbrief against major war, 90–1; growing hostility towards Britain, 94, 96–7; claims superior knowledge of Britain, 95, 171; mental state questioned, 95, 114, 126, 167; letter to Tweedmouth, 95; gives New York Times interview with Hale, 96; Daily Telegraph interview and constitutional crisis, 97, 110–12, 116; fear of encirclement, 98; confides in Eulenburg, 107; in Liebenberg circle, 107; breaks off contact with Eulenburg and Kuno von Moltke, 109; abdication demands, 110, 176; on state visit to London (1907), 111; attempts to intervene in Boer War, 112–13; paranoia, 116, 185; initially rejects Bethmann Hollweg as Chancellor, 117; and Austrian annexation of Bosnia-Herzegovina, 122; warns France against supporting Russia in war, 123; racial vision and prejudices, 125, 141, 144; final visit to Britain (1911), 126; anger at French occupation of Fez, 128; promotes battleship building programme, 129, 131–2; Haldane negotiates with, 132; welcomes First Balkan War, 135; pledges support for Austria-Hungary, 122, 136, 140; reaction to Lichnowsky's report on British intentions, 140; uncertainty over Britain's role in forthcoming war, 141, 157; summons 'war council' (8 December 1912), 142; on postponement of war, 143; on escalating Balkan War (1913), 144; authority to prevent or wage war, 148, 151; prophesies third Balkan war, 149; disapproves of early war with France and Russia, 150; orders fleet to return home, 155; attempts mediation in Austria–Serbia crisis, 157; exchanges telegrams with Nicholas II (1914), 158; determination to settle with France, 159; ultimatum to Russia and France, 160; speech on impending war, 160; proposes concentrating on war with Russia, 161; shared responsibility for outbreak of war, 162–3; war aims, 168; proposed new world order, 169; role in war, 172; opposes constitutional reform, 174; abdication announced, 177, 181; lifestyle in Netherlands, 181–2; death and estate, 182, 194; women visitors in Netherlands, 183; remarries (Hermine), 183; widespread hatred of, 185; attitude to Hitler, 188, 190; rejects offer of asylum in Britain (1940), 191; dreams of Nazis' ultimate victory, 194
- Wilhelmina, Queen of the Netherlands, 88, 181
- Wilson, General Henry, 131
- Windthorst, Ludwig, 51
- Wirth, Joseph, 186
- Wolf, Frau (brothel keeper), 27
- Württemberg, 149
- 'Yellow peril', 84, 93, 111
- Young Plan, 188
- Young Turks, 121, 135
- Zimmermann, Arthur, 149, 153
- Zukunft, Die* (journal), 104, 106