PREFACE

SOME of these essays have already appeared in the London Mercury, the London Quarterly, the Contemporary, and the British Review. To the editors of these publications I desire to make the usual acknowledgments. Nor must I omit to thank the staff of the University Press for the almost unflinching care and accuracy to which I owe the correction of many slips and of a few more serious errors.

The book will be found to contain some perhaps audacious traversings of opinions currently held or associated with distinguished names; as well as 'reconsiderations' of opinions I formerly held myself. Whatever may be thought of the views expressed, I may at any rate claim that modicum of indulgence which is due to sincerity. "Molesta veritas, sed obsequium multo molestius, quod peccatis indulgens praecipitem ferri sinit."
