

CONTENTS

FOREWORD BY THE MOST REV. THE PRIMUS

CHAPTER I

THE METHOD OF REVIVAL

Consistency—Prayer Book questions—Ritual—Social reform—Missions home and overseas—A movement not an event pp. 1–8

CHAPTER II

THE FIRST STAGE

1833–1845

Oxford the scene—The Church in chains—Scandals—The Christian Year—Wordsworth and Scott—Keble's Assize Sermon—The Oxford Leaders—Tracts for the Times—Dr Pusey—Newman's sermons—The first blunder—Newman's doubts and Tract 90—The disaster—Was Newman right? pp. 9–25

CHAPTER III

THE SECOND STAGE

1845–1878

Newman's lament—Great is truth—Gifted supporters—Persecution—Cambridge—Ritual troubles—The dawn of freedom—The Movement alive and spreading pp. 26–35

CONTENTS

CHAPTER IV

BEGINNINGS AND THE FIRST PUBLIC
SCHOOL IN SCOTLAND

1833-1857

“The shadow of a shade”—North Catholic, South “English”—W. E. Gladstone—The Marchioness of Lothian—St John’s, Jedburgh, and John Keble—Old
 St Paul’s, Edinburgh—Gladstone and Glenalmond—
 “No Popery” cry—Trinity College, Glenalmond, buildings—Canon Bright and Bishop Browne—St
 Margaret’s School pp. 36-51

CHAPTER V

TWO YOUNG CATHEDRAL BUILDERS

Lord Forbes and the Hon. G. F. Boyle—Perth Cathedral—J. M. Neale—Bishop Wordsworth—Cumbrae Cathedral and College—A religious community—The College suspect—Keble and Cumbrae—The Founder’s character pp. 52-63

CHAPTER VI

A SCOTTISH PUSEY

Alexander Penrose Forbes—At Oxford—Friendship with Pusey—Bishop of Brechin—Opposition in Dundee—Letter of Bishop Forbes—St Paul’s, Dundee—Simplicity of services—The Bishop’s preaching—The Bishop’s Charge—Trial for false teaching—The last fifteen years—His death pp. 64-81

CONTENTS

CHAPTER VII

SOME FRUITS OF THE REVIVAL

1860-1880

Parties—The beginning of ritual—Progress—Scottish Cathedrals—Archbishop Longley in Inverness—Lambeth Conferences—Church or party?—Scottish Sisterhoods—Retreats pp. 82-92

CHAPTER VIII

THE CATHOLIC REVIVAL AND THE SCOTTISH PRAYER BOOK

Value of liturgical interests—Scottish liturgists—The Scottish revision, Catholic and practical—Its rich variety pp. 93-97

CHAPTER IX

SACRED LEARNING AND SACRED ART

Pietism—Interest in the Christian faith—Intellectual energy of Tractarians—Scholarship in Scotland—
 Puritan fear of art—Church architecture in Scotland—
 Church music—College of Church music—Other arts
pp. 98-107

CHAPTER X

THE WORTH OF CATHOLIC PRINCIPLES
TO-DAY

Theology changes, the faith remains—Fundamentals
 —The Church—Apostolic Succession—Responsibility of the Ministry—The Eucharist—Private Confession
pp. 108-118

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-43788-3 - The Oxford Movement in Scotland
W. Perry
Table of Contents
More information

CONTENTS

CHAPTER XI

THE CATHOLIC MOVEMENT IN THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES

Dr Lee—Church Service Society—Dr Milligan—
Scottish Church Society—Christian unity
pp. 119–125