

Index

- Abramson, Jill, 354
- Adams, Henry, 79
- Adams, John:
- Andrew Young compared with, 16
 - and the Convention of 1800, 6
 - Plan of 1776 drafted by, 36
 - and Vergennes instructions, 46, 70–71
 - and the Anglo-American treaty (1783):
 - and American fisheries, 27–28, 71
 - consequences of his diplomatic disobedience, 25–29
 - coordination with Jay, 67, 70–71
 - on the “glory” of having broken the Continental Congress’ directives, 14, 67
 - and the precedent set by his, Franklin’s, and Jay’s insubordination, 23, 29–31
- Adams, John Quincy:
- reservations about diplomacy expressed by, 3
 - secretary of state. See Clay, Henry
 - stroke on the House floor, 187
 - and the Treaty of Ghent, 6
- Allen, Robert, 250
- Alliance of 1778:
- and American dependence on France, 39–40
 - Article 2 stipulation of prior consent, 25, 37
 - signing of, 35–36
 - and territory acquired as a result of the war, 40
- and the treaty of amity and commerce, 36
 - and Vergennes’s instructions
 - acceptance by Congress, 42, 58–59
 - and American claim to fisheries off the Grand Banks, 60
 - criticism of, 42
 - Franklin’s circumvention of, 46–51
 - issuing of (1779), 40–41
 - Jay, Adams, and Franklin’s differing reactions to, 45–51
 - reactions expressed to Livingston, 44–46
- Alsop, Joseph, 331
- Alsop, Joseph and Robert Kintner, 283, 293, 299
- American diplomatic service:
- exam system, 7–10
 - and the Rogers Act (1924), 8–9
 - and the Stone-Flood Act (1915), 8
 - suspicion and distaste for professional diplomacy, 2–4, 7–8, 356–357
 - and the twenty-first century, 23
- American diplomatic service – ambassadorial appointments:
- amateurism of, 5, 9, 11, 19–22, 200–201
 - and the Moses-Linthicum Act (1931), 10–11
 - pay-to-play arrangements, 9, 19
 - and personal relationships with the president, 10, 20–21
 - and political appointees, 21

- American diplomatic service –
 ambassadorial appointments: (cont.) underfunding of, 5–6, 9, 245–246, 355–357
See also Adams, John; Cohn, Gary; Daniels, Josephus; Kennedy,
 Joseph P.; Page, Walter Hines; Trist, Nicholas Philip; Wilson, William
 – and disobedience:
 and American pre-Civil War ministers, 15 non-American diplomatic history compared with, 1–2, 14–15, 22, 44, 355
 and the precedent set by the Anglo-American treaty (1783), 29–31 and the profit America gained from insubordination, 1, 13–14, 79–81, 121, 125, 187, 198–199, 307–308,
 354–356
 American isolationism:
 and challenges faced by Franklin, Deane, and Lee in forging the Franco-American alliance, 35, 37–38, 72 and Livingston and Monroe's defense for departing from their instructions, 113
 as a theme in U.S. history, 37
See also Page, Walter Hines – and American isolationism
 Amiens. See Treaty of Amiens Anaya, Pedro:
 negotiations with Trist in Hidalgo, 174–175 official statement praising Trist for his negotiations, 190–191
 as president ad interim of Mexico, 158, 175 and Trist's recall to Washington, 159–162
 Anglo-American treaty (1783):
 criticism of, 25–29
 and freedom of navigation and commerce on the Mississippi River, 24, 64–67, 71 management of it criticized. See Livingston, Robert – as secretary of foreign affairs as a precedent for America's foreign policy, 29–31
 and restitution of property and estates, 66, 72
 signing of, 24–25, 30, 72–73, 76
 Vergennes misled by Adams, Franklin, and Jay during the final stage of negotiations, 71
See also Franklin, Benjamin – and the Anglo-American settlement (1783); Jay, John – and the Anglo-American treaty; Oswald, Richard – and the Anglo-American treaty
 Anglo-Spanish treaty outlawing the slave trade, and Trist's views on slavery, 135–139
Arabic sinking and the Arabic pledge, 216–217, 224
 Aranda, Pedro Pablo Abarca de Bolea, Conde de, 53–55, 61
 Arnett, Peter, 311, 316
 Asquith, Herbert, 212, 221
 Asquith, Margot, 268
 Astor, Nancy, Viscountess Astor, 250, 252
 Astor, Viscount, 253–254
 Bailey, Thomas A., 116, 168
 Baldwin, Robert, 189
 Balfour, Arthur, 198, 238
 Ball, George W., 322–323
 Bankhead, Charles, 146–147
 Bannon, Steve, 354
 Barbé-Marbois, François de:
 and American claim to fisheries off the Grand Banks, 60
 and the Anglo-American treaty, 27
 and Livingston's memorandum, 93–94
 meetings with Napoleon, 103–104 terms for purchasing Louisiana offered to Livingston in a midnight meeting, 107–109, 121
 Barnes, Harry Elmer, 198–199, 238
 Battle of Buena Vista, 126, 169
 Battle of Churubusco, 150 Battle of Monterey, 126, 169
 Beck, Jozef, 278
 Bemis, Samuel Flag, 24, 30, 36, 42
 Beneš, Edward, 263, 265, 269
 Berle, Adolf, 261–262, 278
 Bilainkin, George, 291
 Bingham, Robert, 245–246
 Black, Conrad, 244, 290

- Blair, Anne, 304–305, 347
- Bonaparte, Joseph:
 and Livingston's memorandum
 outlining reasons to cede Louisiana, 93–94
 Livingston's negotiation of the Louisiana Purchase, 121
 signing of the Treaty of Amiens, 88
- Bonaparte, Napoleon:
 the end of Franco-American harmony raised as a threat by Jefferson, 88–89, 93
 foreign minister of. See Talleyrand-Périgord, Charles Maurice de
- icebound fleet, 99, 117
 and Livingston's memorandum
 outlining reasons to cede Louisiana, 90–94
 meetings with Barbé-Marbois, 103–104 renunciation of Louisiana, 102–103
- Boot, Max, 305
- Boston Globe*, interview with Joseph Kennedy, 297–299
- Bourne, Edward Gaylord, 7–8
- Braun, Heywood, 272
- Breckenridge, John, 100
- Brent, Robert A., 191
- Brent, William, 7
- British Foreign Office: and the disobedience of David Erskine and Craig Murray, 14–15 Minister Owen St. Clair O'Malley, 12 and Trist's views on slavery, 135, 139
- British press:
 and Henry John Temple, Viscount Palmerston, 135 on Joseph Kennedy's ambassadorial appointment, 247–248 on Joseph Kennedy's interview with the Boston Globe, 299 on Joseph Kennedy's meeting with Wohlthat, 277
 on Joseph Kennedy's Trafalgar Day speech, 271
- Browne, Malcolm, 311, 316
- Bryan, William J.: and the British government's rejection of the Declaration of London, 204
 Page's criticism of, 210–211, 215–216, 223–224
 resignation of, 215
- Buchanan, James:
 payment to Mexico authorized by, 179 and Polk's orders recalling Trist to Washington, 154–156, 159, 162
 Trist given Polk's main nonnegotiable demands by, 129
 Trist recommended for concluding the settlement with the Mexicans, 127–128
 and William Brent, 7
 – draft treaty with Mexico written by:
 and the border with Mexico, 162, 178–179 and the status of Mexicans living in ceded territories, 180 and the “suspension of hostilities,” 180 and Trist's mission, 127
- Buddhist unrest under Diem:
 American policymakers and journalists blamed by Diem for encouraging it, 324, 332, 338–339
 Diem's denial of religious persecution, 310, 314, 324
 Lodge's response to Diem's crackdown on pagodas, 316–318 and marital law imposed by Diem, 316 Nhu identified as responsible for the pagoda raids, 319 raids on pagodas throughout South Vietnam, 315–316 self-immolations featured in the American media, 338–339
 Xa Loi Pagoda as a center of dissident activity, 330
 – crisis of 1963:
 and Lodge's ambassadorship, 304–305
 Nolting's efforts to defuse the crisis, 310, 313–314
 protests of Diem's handling of, 310 protests of the banning of Buddhist flags by Dang Xi, 309–310
 Thich Quang Duc's self-immolation, 310–311
- Bundy, McGeorge, 342, 345–346
- Butler, Anthony, 7
- Butler, William:
 orders to remove Trist from Mexico, 186 replacement of Scott as commander of the American army in Mexico, 175–177
- Byrnes, James, 295

- Cabot, George, 302
 Cadogan, Sir Alexander, 265, 267, 273
 Calhoun, John C., 6, 20
 Carter, Boake, 239–240
 Cass, Lewis, 176
 Castro, Fidel, 308
 Cerami, Charles A., 88 Chamberlain, Neville:
 death of, 297
 and Hitler's aggression in Poland, 275, 278–280 and Hitler's demands for Sudeten Germans, 258–260, 263–264, 267–269 and Joseph Kennedy, 249, 268–269, 273, 279–280, 294 Charles III, 34, 40, 57
 and Gibraltar, 38, 44
 Churchill, Winston:
 appeasement with Hitler and Mussolini opposed by, 253–254
 and the destroyers-for-bases deal, 286, 289, 295
 “We shall fight on the beaches” address, 287
 – and Joseph Kennedy, 282
 and Churchill's communications with FDR, 281, 296 and Joseph Kennedy's departure, 294
 Joseph Kennedy's opposition to his defense policies, 286–288, 291
 Clark, James Beauchamp, 4 Clay, Henry:
 as a presidential nominee, 186 and the Compromise of 1850, 171 and Treaty of Ghent, 6
 Trist offered a State Department clerkship by, 132–133
 Cliveden set. See Astor, Nancy, Viscountess Astor; Astor, Viscount Cogan, Ralph, Globe interview with Joseph P. Kennedy, 298–299
 Cogliano, Francis D., 80
 Cohn, Gary, 354–356
 Colby, William, 322
 Conein, Lucien:
 discussion with Minh regarding Diem's ouster, 338–339 Lodge's engagement of, 318–319 memorandum to Lodge of his discussion with Don regarding Nhu and Diem (23 August), 319
 Coolidge, Calvin, nomination of Dwight Morrow as ambassador to Mexico, 10
 Cooper, Jr., John Milton, 199–200
 Coughlin, Charles, 245
 Cronkite, Walter, 332–333, 338
 Cronon, E. David, 12
 Curley, James, 302
 Curry, Jabez, 3
Daily Mail [London], 247
Daily Telegraph [London], 247
 Daladier, Edouard, 267–268
 Dalton, Hugh, 269
 Dangerfield, George, 83, 88, 118
 Dang Xi, 309–310
 Daniels, Josephus, 11–13
 Davis, John, 302
 Deane, Silas, 35–38, 41
 De Bedts, Ralph F., 251 Declaration of London (1909):
 and Page's support of British rejection of, 204–209 rejection by the British government, 204
 Wilson administration's withdrawing from, 209–210
 Derrick, James, 155
 DeVoto, Bernard, 79
 Diem, Ngo Dinh. See Ngo Dinh Diem
 Dietrich, Marlene, 256–277
 Dirksen, Herbert von, 243, 258 disobedience in American foreign policy. See American diplomatic service – and disobedience Dodge, Cleveland:
 as a candidate to replace Page, 225–226, 233
 as Page's benefactor, 202
 Dommen, Arthur J., 306
 Don, Tran Van. See Tran Van Don Donovan, “Wild Bill,” 287
 Dos Passos, John, 3
 Doubleday, Frank, 224, 229
 Doyle, Percy, 182–184
 Dulles, John Foster, 304
 Dunn, John Michael, 349–350
 Duong Van Minh:
 and the ARVN commanders' reluctance to depose Diem, 328–329

- Diem's special forces confronted in the coup, 348 discussions with Conein regarding Diem's ouster, 328–329, 338
 and John Kennedy's directive to Lodge to avoid giving covert encouragement to a coup, 339 meeting with Lodge after the coup, 352 and U.S. aid cuts, 328, 338–339
- Edmondson, Charles, 298–299
 Eisenhower, Dwight D., 303, 308 Lodge nominated to be U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, 303
 Eliot, Charles, 6
 Elliot, Charles W., 184
- Fairbanks, Douglas, Jr., 300
 Farley, James, 281
 Federalists:
 George Cabot, 302
 Jefferson's criticism of, 80 response to the Louisiana Purchase, 116–117
 Felt, Harry, 347
 Ferrell, Robert H., 43–44
 Fitzmaurice, William Petty, 24
 Flott, Frederick, 349
 Forrestal, Michael, and the cable to Lodge ordering Diem's ouster, 321–322
 Forsyth, John, 139
 Fox, Charles James, 49–50
 France, See also Alliance of 1778; La Luzerne, Anne César, Chevalier de;
 Louis XVI; Louisiana Purchase;
 Vergennes, Charles Gravier comte de Franklin, Benjamin – and the Alliance of 1778: negotiations with Deane and Lee in Paris, 35–36
 and Vergennes instructions, 44–51
 – and the Anglo-American settlement (1783):
 and Adams's coordination with Jay, 70–71
 and diplomatic disobedience, 25–29 and disobedience of Congress, 51 and his differences with Jay, 54–57, 65, 70–71
 and his incapacitation by a kidney stone, 59, 66, 70 necessary conditions for peace required
 by, 50–51, 66, 69
 and the precedent set by his, Adams's, and Jay's insubordination, 23, 29–31
 and the territory of Canada, 47–48 and Benjamin Vaughan, 63–64 Vergennes notified of the provisional treaty's signing by, 73–76
 Freaner, James: delivery of the Mexican-American pact to Buchanan, 185, 191
 and Trist's decision to stay and complete
 the treaty, 164
 Frelinghuysen, Frederick, 302
 Friedman, David, 357–358
 Fuller, John D. P., 168
- Garner, Dwight, 354–355
 Garnier, Francis, 15 Gates, Horatio:
 and the Battle of Saratoga, 35, 39 on the pact to purchase Louisiana, 78 geopolitics, and American aversion to professional diplomacy, 2–4 George III: and British possession of Malta, 103 and freedom of navigation on the Mississippi, 24
 and Gibraltar, 38
 as king of France as well as king of Britain, 54
 and recognition of U.S. independence, 52, 59, 62, 69
 and Shelburne, 47, 50–51, 64, 69 and the treaty of conditional and defensive alliance, 37 Gérard de Rayneval, Joseph-Mathias: covert mission to Shelburne, 61–62 and Jay and Franklin's meeting with Vergennes, 54
 U.S.-Spanish differences discussed with Jay, 60–61
 Ghormley, Robert, 288
 Gibraltar, 38, 44, 54, 64, 72, 76
 Goodrich, Chauncey, 4
 Graebner, Norman, 125–126
 Grant, Ulysses S., 196
 Grant, Zalin, 349–350
 Grasse, Comte de, 43, 61–62

- Great War:
 the Gallipoli campaign, 218 and the reform of America's diplomatic service, 8–9
See also Lusitania tragedy; Page, Walter Hines – and American isolationism;
 Versailles Treaty
- Greeley, Horace, 188
- Gregory, Ross, 199–200, 238
- Grenville, Thomas, 49–50
- Grey, Sir Edward:
 and the Declaration of London, 205, 207–208
 and the House-Grey Memorandum, 221–222
 Page's close working relationship with, 209, 219
 on Page's presentation of Lansing's note, 219
- Gullion, Edmond, 311
- Haig, Alexander, 358
- Halberstam, David, 316 and Buddhist unrest in Saigon, 315, 338 coup against Diem promoted by, 320
 Lodge portrayed by, 304
 Nolting portrayed by, 311
- Halifax, 3rd Viscount (Edward Wood), 259, 263, 278
 Joseph Kennedy's admiration for, 249 what-America-would-do-if-and-when question, 260–262
- Hamilton, Alexander:
 and the Anglo-American settlement, 25,
 29–30, 68
 Livingston and Monroe's acquisition of Louisiana supported by, 78–79, 117
- Harkins, Paul, 329 disapproval of a coup against Diem, 306–307, 326–327, 346 and Lodge, 316, 334, 340, 345–346 and Tran Van Don, 340, 342
- Harriman, W. Averell, 321
 anti-Diem arguments presented to JFK, 329 and the cable to Lodge ordering Diem's
 ouster, 321–322
 Nolting's pro-Diem views dismissed by, 330
- Harrison, William Henry, 139
- Hearst, William Randolph, 245
- Henderson, Nevile, 263, 279
- Henderson, Timothy J., 167
- Henlein, Konrad, 263
- Herring, George, 305
- Hilsman, Roger:
 anti-Diem arguments presented to JFK, 329 cable to Lodge ordering Diem's ouster, 321–322
 Lodge's response to, 325–326
- Hise, Elijah, 7
- Hitler, Adolf: advancement across continental Europe, 248–249, 290–293
 aggression in Poland, 280–281
 Anschluss, 243, 249, 252–254
 Blitz of London, 290–293 and Lindbergh's assessment of the military aviation situation in Europe, 242, 252, 264–265 and Mexican oil, 11–12 and the Sudeten Germans, 257–259, 263, 265–267
See also Kennedy, Joseph P. – and Hitler
- Ho Chi Minh, 309
- Hoare, Samuel, 281
- Hone, Philip, 190
- House, Col. Edward, 200–201, 207, 231–232
 and financial support for Page's ambassadorship, 202 and Page's battle to persuade Washington to join the Allied cause, 198, 210, 223
 Page's resignation letter discussed with Wilson, 233
 peace missions to Europe, 213, 220–221 successors to Page recommended by, 225–226, 233–234
- House-Grey Memorandum, 221–222
- Houston, Sam, 189
- Hull, Cordell:
 and the destroyers-for-bases deal, 289–290
 editing of Joseph Kennedy's speeches by, 242–243, 252–253, 262 and Joseph Kennedy's meeting with Puhl and Wohlthat, 276
 and Joseph Kennedy's placation of Hitler, 253, 264, 281

- Joseph Kennedy's rebukes of, 243, 258, 271, 277 and Joseph Kennedy's Trafalgar Day speech, 270–271
 and Josephus Daniels, 11–13
 speech presented before Joseph Kennedy's Pilgrims Society address, 252–255
- Ickes, Harold L., 246, 300
 Ilchman, Frederick Warren, 8 Irving, Eugene, 124
- Jackson, Andrew: and Nicholas Trist, 124, 127, 133–135, 140 practice of rotating diplomats introduced by, 6
- Jay, John – and the Anglo-American Treaty (1783): coordination with Adams, 70–71 and the Franklin-Jay faceoff, 57, 66 French lineage of, 57 and his disobedience of orders, 25–29, 65, 69–70 and Oswald's commission, 51–53, 59–60, 69 and the precedent set by his, Franklin's, and Adams's insubordination, 23, 29–31 Vaughan's delivery of his message to Shelburne, 63–66, 69
- Jefferson, Martha, 133
 Jefferson, Thomas:
 Federalist opposition to. See Federalists and Trist's family, 130–131 and Trist's legal studies, 131 and the underfunding of diplomats, 6, 20
See also Madison, James – as secretary of state – and the Louisiana Purchase treaty: contribution to, 80, 116 and cost concerns, 80, 114
 the end of Franco-American harmony raised as a threat to Napoleon, 88–89, 93 and his constitutional scruples, 80, 114–116 on Livingston and Monroe's contribution, 81 Monroe appointed as envoy to Paris, 100–101
- Jennings, Phillip, 306
 Jerrold, Douglas, 137–138
 Johnson, Amy, 269
 Johnson, Hugh, 272
 Johnson, Lyndon B., coup against Diem opposed by, 307, 329
 Johnston, Henry P., 52
 Johnston, Willis Fletcher, 68
 Jones, Thomas, 269
- Kaiser, David, 305
 Karnow, Stanley, 308, 331, 345
 Kattenburg, Paul, 332
 Kennedy, John F.: assumption of office in January 1961, 308 and Thich Quang Duc's self-immolation, 311
 – and the coup against Diem:
 anti-coup counsel given by senior advisors (29 October), 344 directive to Lodge to avoid giving covert encouragement to a coup, 339–340 and funding cuts for the Commodity Import Program (CIP), 336–338
 and the Harriman, Hilsman, and Forrestal cable, 322 and his inability to dismiss Lodge but troubled by his behavior, 341–342 and his interview with Walter Cronkite, 332–333 instructions to discourage the generals conveyed to Lodge, 337, 345 Lodge viewed as a potential competitor for the 1964 presidential election, 339 and the news of Diem's death, 351–352
- Kennedy, Joseph P.: Aberdeen address, 261
 anti-Semitism of, 244, 250–251, 257, 272–273, 283, 300
Boston Evening American interview, 260–261
Boston Globe interview, 298–299 and British high society, 249–252 his golfing abilities compared with those of Walter Hines Page, 197 Pilgrims Society speech, 252–253, 255 presidential ambitions of, 247, 251, 301
 Trafalgar Day speech, 270–271
See also Churchill, Winston – and Joseph P. Kennedy

- Kennedy, Joseph P.: (cont.)
 – and Hitler:
 and the Battle of London, 290–293 and Kennedy’s unpreparedness for diplomatic service, 241, 245 and Kennedy’s views that “democracy is all done,” 298 and meetings with Nazi officials, 243, 255–258, 275–277 Munich agreement stubbornly endorsed by, 270, 294, 297 plan for relocating Jews, 251
 – appointment as ambassador:
 efforts to dissuade him, 239–240 and FDR’s mistrust of him, 247, 251, 262 and German ambassador Dirksen, 243, 256–258 and German ambassador Ribbentrop, 255–256 his connections as assets to FDR, 244–246, 262 and his frustration with FDR, 282 his notion that he was a policymaker, 254, 256–257, 259, 268 his radio speech endorsing FDR’s reelection, 296–297 and his rapport with the press, 241, 312 his resignation, 293, 297, 301 and his vacationing, 258, 260, 272, 274, 277, 283
 Walter Hines Page contrasted with, 197, 242, 299
 Kennedy, Robert F., 308 anti-coup counsel given to JFK, 307, 344
 Kessler, Ronald, 244
 King, Rufus, 81–82, 85, 102–103, 113, 118
 Kissinger, Henry, 358 Krock, Arthur:
 and his attention to Joseph Kennedy’s interests, 252, 272, 292
 Joseph Kennedy’s ambassadorial appointment endorsed by, 241, 312
 Kukla, John, 94, 109
 LaFeber, Walter, 42
 La Luzerne, Anne César, Chevalier de: and American demands for navigation rights, 63 and the instructions for the Alliance of 1778, 41–44 and Jay’s appointment as peace commissioner, 57 Lansing, Robert:
 and the Arabic case, 216
 and the Declaration of London, 205, 207–210
 note on the definition of contraband, 217–219 and Page’s battle to persuade Washington to join the Allied cause, 198, 207, 210, 231–232 and the U-boat controversy, 222
 as Wilson’s secretary of state, 216, 220, 222, 228 Leclerc, Charles-Victor, 84–85, 88, 99
 Lee, Arthur, 35–38, 42–43
 Lee, Raymond, 294
 Lee, Richard Henry, 26, 58
 Lee, Robert E., 179
 LeHand, Missy, 283
 Le Van Kim:
 anti-Nhu tirades summarized by U.S. media, 320–321
 Nhu and Diem discussed with Phillips, 319 Lindbergh, Anne Morrow, 252 Lindbergh, Charles: and Dwight Morrow, 10
 and Joseph Kennedy, 242, 252, 264–265, 268–269
 Lippmann, Walter, 271–272, 283
 Livingston, Edward, 131
 Livingston, Robert – and the Louisiana Purchase: the beneficial effects of his insubordination, 13, 79–81, 121 and his fictional timeline of events, 117–121 his view of himself as a policymaker, 81 and Monroe’s appointment by Madison, 102, 104, 110 and Monroe’s concerns about the urgency of ratification, 115 and Napoleon’s ceding of Louisiana, 102–103 negotiations with Talleyrand. See Talleyrand-Périgord, Charles Maurice de – Livingston’s negotiations with

- as secretary of foreign affairs, 44–45, 71, 82
- and Adams’s decision to disobey Congress’s orders, 67
- and Jay’s decision to disobey Congress’s orders, 29, 65, 69–71
- the management of the Alliance of 1778 criticized by, 25, 76
- and reactions to Vergennes’s instructions, 44–46
- Lodge, Emily Sears, 344
- Lodge, Henry Cabot, I, 302
- Lodge, Henry Cabot, II:
 - on Diem’s likability, 343
 - disregard of State Department directives on the Korean conflict, 303
 - Ngo Dinh Nhu’s criticism of, 331
 - noblesse oblige attitude, 303, 355
 - rapprochement with the media, 303, 312, 316–317
- and the coup d’état against Diem:
 - cable to JFK contradicting his orders and asserting the need for a coup, 340
 - and the cautious path favored by State, Defense, and the CIA, 307
 - critics of Lodge who believe Diem’s elimination was a mistake, 306
 - and efforts to persuade Diem to favorably impress U.S. opinion, 343–344
 - final communications with Diem, 347–351
 - General Don’s meetings with, 342
 - and Harkins, 316, 334, 340, 345–346
 - and the Harriman, Hilsman, and Forrestal cable, 322–323
 - and insurgent generals, 323, 327–329, 352
 - and JFK. See Kennedy, John F.
 - JFK’s reaction to Diem’s death, 351–352
 - and Kennedy’s directive to avoid giving covert encouragement to a coup, 339–340
 - Lodge’s satisfaction with its success, 351
 - and Ngo Dinh Nhu’s plotting against Diem, 317
 - reports of Nhu’s double-dealing with Hanoi passed to State, 320
 - and Rusk, 326
- Louis XVI:
 - and the 1778 Alliance, 36, 46, 50
 - financial crisis brought about by war, 76
 - and Vergennes’s project to supply George Washington’s army, 31–32
- Louisiana Purchase, 127.4–192.1 passim
- and Livingston and Monroe’s defense for departing from their instructions, 113–114
- significance of, 78–79
- Spain’s ceding of Louisiana to France. See Treaty of San Ildefonso
- Trist’s negotiation of the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo compared with, 123
- See also* Livingston, Robert – and the Louisiana Purchase; Monroe, James – and the Louisiana Purchase; Talleyrand-Périgord, Charles Maurice de – Livingston’s negotiations with
- boundary of:
 - extent of the region acquired by Livingston and Monroe, 78
 - Livingston’s demands for New Orleans and the Floridas, 95–99
 - New Orleans and territory east of it only, 89
- cost of:
 - and Jefferson’s concerns, 114
 - and Monroe’s signing of a guarantee of payment, 115
 - and orders issued by Madison to Monroe, 101–102
 - terms for purchasing Louisiana offered to Livingston in a midnight meeting, 107–109, 121
- signing of, 112
 - Federalists’ response to, 116–117
 - and Livingston’s fictional timeline of events, 117–121
 - Napoleon’s ceding of Louisiana, 102–104
 - news of the settlement, 113
- Louis Philippe, 192
- Luce, Clare Boothe, 284
- Lusitania* tragedy, 214–215, 217, 224, 231
- Lyons, Louis, Globe interview with Joseph Kennedy, 298–299

- McCone, John:
 coup against Diem opposed by, 307, 329, 344
 and the Harriman, Hilsman, and Forrestal memo, 322
- McCormac, Eugene Irving, 124
- McMahon, Robert, 18
- McNamara, Robert S.: coup against Diem opposed by, 307, 322, 336–337
 fact-finding mission to South Vietnam, 333–336
 and funding cuts for the Commodity Import Program (CIP), 336–337 and Lodge's cable to JFK insisting on the need for a coup, 341, 346 on Rusk's management of Lodge, 326
- Macron, Emmanuel, 355
- Madison, James:
 demands for the Treaty of Ghent, 6 and the instructions of 1781, 58 and Trist, 130, 132 U.S. peace commissioners criticized by, 26–27
 – as secretary of state:
 Livingston and Monroe's acquisition of Louisiana supported by, 78
 and Monroe's concerns about the urgency of ratification, 115
- Mahin, Dean B., 171
- Maier, Charles, 17
- Maitland, Terence and Stephen Weiss, 305
- Mann, Robert, 305
- Marcy, William L.: letter claiming that Trist had been “directed” to show Scott Polk's peace terms, 129, 141 and Polk's orders to recall Trist, 186 and Scott's threat to advance on Querétaro, 183–184
- Mattis, James, 353–354
- May, Theresa, 355
- Mecklin, John, 304, 317
- Mercer, John, 27, 106
- Merkel, Angela, 355
- Messersmith, George, 262
- Mexico:
 British recognition of the Huerta regime, 201 defeat in “Mr. Polk's War,” 126
 German interest in its becoming an ally against the United States, 236–237
 Josephus Daniels as FDR's ambassador to, 11–13
See also Anaya, Pedro; Peña y Peña, Manuel de la; Santa Anna, Antonio López – negotiations for Mexico's surrender; Trist, Nicholas Philip – and the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo
- Mississippi River: area west of. See Louisiana Purchase freedom of navigation and commerce on, 24, 54, 64–67, 71, 82, 99–100, 113 and Spanish claims to the North American continent, 53–55, 58, 61 as the western boundary of the United States, 14, 24, 40, 50, 62, 64, 66
- Moffat, J. Pierrepont, 252–254, 271–273
- Molotov, Vyacheslav, 2, 278
- Monroe Doctrine:
 and fear of overseas involvement as a theme in U.S. history, 37
 Page on isolationism as a threat to it, 198, 201, 207
- Monroe, James – and the Louisiana Purchase: arrival in Paris, 102, 104 guarantee of the payment stipulated in the treaty co-signed by, 115 and his attribution of the success of the mission to Jefferson, 119
 his view of himself as a policymaker, 81
 Jefferson's appointment of him as an envoy to Paris, 100–102 urgency of the Purchase's ratification conveyed by, 115
 – as president:
 and the endurance of his feud with Livingston, 121 and Trist's admission to West Point, 131 See also Monroe Doctrine
- Mooney, James, 275
- Moon Jae-in, 353–354
- Mora y Villami, Ignacio, 158
- Morgan, Edmund, 36
- Morgan, Robert, 125, 148
- Morgenthau, Henry, 246–247
- Morning Post* [London], 247–248
- Morris, Richard B., 30, 56

- Morrow, Dwight:
 as ambassador to Mexico, 10 and Charles Lindbergh, 10
- Mowrer, Edgar, 287
- Moyar, Mark, 306, 308, 340
- Munich agreement:
 and Hitler's demands for the Sudetenland, 259–260, 263, 265–267
 Joseph Kennedy's stubborn endorsement of it, 270, 294, 297 in light of Joseph Kennedy's Aberdeen address, 261
- Murphy, Robert, and Lodge's disregard of State Department directives, 303–304
- Mussolini, Benito, 12, 248
 Munich conference with Hitler, Chamberlain, and Daladier, 267–268
- Napoleon. See Bonaparte, Napoleon
- Nasaw, David, 245, 251, 272, 292
- New Orleans – port closed to Americans by Morales, 96–97
 and resolutions by western legislatures demanding seizure of the city, 99–100
- New York Times*:
 on the Boston Globe interview with Joseph P. Kennedy, 299 on Gary Cohn, 354–355 Joseph P. Kennedy's ambassadorial appointment endorsed by, 241 op-ed on Trump's agenda by Anonymous, 354
 and Walter Hines Page, 203, 219
See also Krock, Arthur
- Ngo Dinh Diem:
 and Buddhist unrest. See Buddhist unrest under Diem and conditions in South Vietnam at the time of his rule, 308–309
 death of, 350–351
 described in Conein's memorandum to Lodge, 319
 interview with Paul Kattenburg, 332 McNamara and Taylor's impressions of, 335–336
See also Kennedy, John F. – and the coup against Diem; Lodge, Henry Cabot, II
 – and the coup d'état against Diem
- Ngo Dinh Nhu:
 death of, 350–351
 Don and Conein's discussion of, 319 interviews with the media, 331 and John Kennedy's insistence to Diem that he be removed, 333
- Ngo Dinh Nhu, Madame, 309 on American journalists in Saigon, 331 anti-Buddhist views of, 314, 331 influence on Diem, 309 interview for CBS television, 313
 Lodge's discussion of her with Diem, 324 McNamara's discussion of her with Diem, 335 mother. See Tran Van Chuong, Madame
- Nguyen Dinh Thuan, 319
- Nguyen Ngoc Tho, 334–335
- Nhu, Ngo Dinh. See Ngo Dinh Nhu
- Nixon, Richard, 19, 358
- Nolting, Frederick E.: Diem advised regarding Buddhist unrest, 310, 313–314
 JFK's replacement of, 311
 pro-Diem views of, 307, 311, 330
- Observer* [London], 247
- O'Connell, Daniel, 137
- Olney, Richard, 6
- Oswald, Richard – and the Anglo-American Treaty (1783), 72
 Article 5 proposed by, 72 commission challenged by Jay, 51–53, 59–60, 69
 negotiations with Franklin, 50–54, 66–67 and provisions for the restitution of property and estates, 66
 and recognition of U.S. independence, 51–52
- Packer, George, 354
- Page, Walter Hines:
 and the blacklist controversy, 226–227
 and Doubleday, Frank, 224 and the Easter Rising, 226 Joseph Kennedy's ambassadorship contrasted with, 197, 242 resignation letter submitted at the close of Wilson's first term, 232–234
 Wilson's appointment of, 200–201
 Wilson's speech to the League to Enforce Peace criticized by, 225

- Page, Walter Hines: (cont.)
 – and American isolationism:
 and the Arabic case, 216–217
 and criticism by historians, 199–200, 238 and his support for British rejection of the Declaration of London, 204–207
 and the House-Grey Memorandum, 221–222
 and the Lusitania tragedy, 214–215, 217, 231 Page’s arguments for abandoning isolationism, 198–199 and the Sussex pledge, 224–225, 236
 and the U-boat controversy, 222 and the Wilson administration’s withdrawal from the Declaration of London, 209–210 and Wilson’s acknowledgment that neutrality was no longer feasible, 237–238 and Wilson’s insistence on neutrality, 210–211, 220–225, 227–231, 234–237 Parton, James, 133
 Pearson, Drew, 250
 Peña y Peña, Manuel de la:
 and Baja California, 178 endorsement of the treaty, 184 and Mexican constitutional requirements, 174, 177 Mexican government led by his Moderado party, 153, 158–159, 175 payments to Mexico negotiated with Trist, 179–180 provisos for accepting the treaty, 181 and Trist’s recall by Polk, 160
 Perkins, Bradford, 15, 42, 69
 Perkins, Frances, 246
 Pétain, Philippe, 287
 Phillips, Rufus, 319–320
 Pichon, Louis André (French chargé in Washington): on Livingston’s nomination to represent the United States in Paris, 82–83 and Talleyrand, 116 Pillow, Gideon: and Polk, 148, 166, 192
 as Scott’s second-in-command, 128, 148–149 and Trist’s failed bribe of Santa Anna, 150 in Trist’s memorial to Congress, 192
 Trist’s testifying at his trial, 161, 191, 193
 Pletcher, David M., 139 Polk, James K.: and William Brent, 7 concern about a Whig victory in the next presidential election, 185–186 and Elijah Hise, 7 his nonnegotiable demands for Mexico given to Trist by Buchanan, 129 Mexico’s defeat in “Mr. Polk’s War,” 126 and news of Trist’s insubordination, 175–177 and Gideon Pillow, 148, 166, 192 recommendation that the Senate ratify the treaty, 186–187 and Winfield Scott, 128, 142, 161, 172
 Trist selected to accompany Scott’s army, 126–128, 141
 See also Trist, Nicholas Philip – and the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo Porter, Rob, 353–354
 Prieur, Denis, 141
 Puhl, Emil, 275

 Ramsay, David, 79
 Rayneval. See Gérard de Rayneval, Joseph-Mathias Reynaud, Paul, 286–287
 Ribbentrop, Joachim von, 255–256 Richardson, John:
 dissident generals’ distrust of, 328
 pro-Diem views of, 307, 329
 Rives, George L., 187–188
 Robinson, Ione, 269
 Robinson, William, 3–4
 Rockingham, 2nd Marquess of (Charles Watson-Wentworth), 43–44, 50
 Roosevelt, Eleanor, 298–299, 301
 Roosevelt, Franklin D.: amateurism of his ambassadorial appointments, 11 appointment of Kennedy. See Kennedy, Joseph P. – appointment as ambassador and the destroyers-for-bases deal, 289
 Good Neighbor Policy, 11–12
 and Josephus Daniels, 11–13
 and Kennedy’s Trafalgar Day speech, 270–271

- and Kennedy's views of Hitler. See Kennedy, Joseph P. – and Hitler
- Quarantine Speech, 248
- and the Strong and Gormley mission, 288
- and the Welles mission, 284–285
- Roosevelt, James, 246
- Rosenthal, Jim, 352
- Rotter, Andrew J., 17
- Rusk, Dean:
 ambivalence about ousting Diem, 325, 344 Lodge recommended to JFK to replace Nolting, 311–312
 Lodge's disobedience of his orders, 306, 325–326, 352
- Safire, William, 21–22
- Santa Anna, Antonio López, and the Battle of Churubusco, 150
 – negotiations for Mexico's surrender:
 his initial reluctance, 126 and his request for a bribe, 149–150, 156 and his resignation, 157 withdrawal of his army to Querétaro, 153
- Santo Domingo slave rebellion, 79, 84–85, 88, 99, 117
- Schlesinger, Arthur M., Jr., 340
- Scott, Winfield:
 Butler's replacement of him as commander of the American army in Mexico, 175–176, 193 letter asserting Trist was "authorized" to show him Washington's peace terms, 129, 141
 Mexico City captured by, 126, 152–153
 Polk's dislike of him, 128, 161, 175 qualifications to treat with the Mexicans, 143 threat to advance on Querétaro, 150, 174, 177, 183–184
 and Trist's decision to stay and complete
 the treaty, 163
 Trist selected to travel with him, 126–128, 142
- Sevier, Ambrose, 126–127, 176, 188–189
- Shaplen, Robert, 304
- Sharkey, John, 338
- Sheehan, Neil, 316
 coup against Diem promoted by, 320
 and Nolting, 311
- Shelburne, Earl of (William Petty Fitzmaurice):
 and the Anglo-American settlement, 64–66, 72
 covert talks with Gérard de Rayneval, 61–62
 and free trade, 64
 and Oswald's negotiations with Franklin, 47–49, 67
 as prime minister under George III, 50 the turf war over control of Britain's geopolitics, 49–50 and the withdrawal of British military forces from U.S. territory, 24
- Simon, John, 263
- Skipwith, Fulwar, 106
- Slessor, John, 265
- Smith, Arthur D. Howden, 124
- Smith, John, 78
- Smith, Persifor, 144, 146–147
- Soto, Miguel, 122–123
- Soviet Union:
 Finland occupied by, 284
 Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov, 2, 278 invasion of Afghanistan, 16
 Nazi-Soviet pact, 243, 278
 Nikita Khrushchev, 308
- Sparks, Jared, 62
- Sprague, Marshall, 104
- Stewart, Geoffrey C., 305
- Stinchcombe, William, 39–40
- Strong, George, 288
- Sulzberger, Arthur, 241
- Sumner, Charles, 196
- Talleyrand-Périgord, Charles Maurice de, communication with Pichon (French chargé in Washington), 116
 – Livingston's negotiations with:
 Livingston's circumvention of, 96–97, 121
 and Livingston's memorandum, 90–94, 118 and Livingston's note outlining the territories to be purchased by the United States, 97–99, 121 and Napoleon's control of the treaty until its ratification, 115 Spain's ceding of Louisiana kept secret
 by, 86–87
 the whole of Louisiana offered by, 104–106

- Taylor, Maxwell:
 coup against Diem opposed by, 307, 329, 336–337, 344
 fact-finding mission to South Vietnam, 333–336
 and funding cuts for the Commodity Import Program (CIP), 336–337 on the Harriman, Hilsman, and Forrestal cable, 321–322 on JFK's reaction to Diem's death, 351
- Taylor, Zachary, 169
- Temple, Henry John Temple, Viscount Palmerston, 135, 139
- Thich Quang Duc, 311, 313
- Thich Tri Quang, 310
- Thompson, Dorothy, 272
- Thornton, Edward:
 and Santa Anna's request for a bribe, 149–150 sealed treaty delivered to Santa Anna, 146 and Trist's decision to stay and complete the treaty, 163, 165
- Tillerson, Rex, 356
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 137
- Tran Van Chuong, 313, 330–331
- Tran Van Chuong, Madame:
 Diem's negative view of, 343 negative view of the Diem regime conveyed to Lodge, 313
- Tran Van Don:
 anti-Nhu tirade summarized in the U.S. media, 320–321 Diem's special forces confronted in the coup, 348 discussion with Conein regarding Nhu and Diem (23 August), 319 and Harkins's communications, 340 on John F. Kennedy's Cronkite interview, 333 Lodge's discussion of Harkins with him (27 October), 342
- Treaty of Amiens:
 British violation of, 114 and French maneuvers in North America and the Caribbean, 99 and Malta, 103
- Treaty of San Ildefonso: clandestine nature of, 81, 86
 Livingston's learning of, 87
- Trist, Elizabeth, 130–131
- Trist, Nicholas Philip:
 memorial to Congress, 128, 163, 192–193 views on slavery, 135–139 – biographical information, 123 admission to West Point, 131 circumstances of his upbringing, 130 intractability of, 130 legal studies, 131–132 old age and death of, 122, 194–196 and Pillow's trial, 161, 191 as private secretary to Andrew Jackson, 127 as private secretary to Thomas Jefferson, 131–132 wife. See Trist, Virginia
 – as a rogue diplomat:
 Andrew Young compared with, 16
 Gary Cohn's sedition compared with, 356 punishment for disobeying orders, 14, 122–124 Walter Hines Page compared with, 198 – and the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo:
 as an achievement in American diplomatic history, 13–14, 122–123, 125, 196 and American capacity to justify disobedience based on informed reasoning, 122–124 and the border between the U.S. and Mexico, 129, 151–152, 174, 178–179 and British Chargé Percy Doyle, 182–184 choice of Guadalupe Hidalgo as the venue, 174 his compensation while negotiating the treaty, 191, 194 his failed attempt to bribe Santa Anna, 149–150, 156 his signing of the treaty, 184 Mexico's status as an independent nation, 167–169, 173 and Polk's admission that it met or exceeded all of Washington's war aims, 13–14 and Polk's orders recalling him to Washington, 2, 123, 155–156, 159–160, 175, 186, 188–191, 194

- Polk's selection of him to travel with Scott, 126–128, 140 purchase price negotiated by, 179 and Santa Anna's bribe, 149–150, 156 scholarly appreciation of, 125–126 and Trist's personality, 124, 126
- Trist, Virginia, Nicholas Trist's courtship of, 132
- Trueheart, William, 316
- Trump, Donald:
 contempt for diplomacy, 356
 emissary to Israel. See Friedman, David and Gary Cohn, 354–356 meeting with Steve Bannon, 354 and the U.S.-South Korean Free Trade Agreement (KORUS), 353–354
- Van Buren, Martin, 133, 139, 143
- Van Deusen, Glyndon, 168
- Vaughan, Benjamin, 63–64, 66, 69
- Vergennes, Charles Gravier comte de:
 and Jay's appointment as peace commissioner, 57
 misled by Adams, Franklin, and Jay, 71 See also Alliance of 1778 – and Vergennes instructions
- Vergennes, Charles Gravier comte de – and the American revolution:
 on British concessions, 24 and Franklin's notification of the signing of the Anglo-American settlement (1783), 73–76
- Versailles Treaty:
 Hitler's Anschluss as a violation of, 249 and injustices perceived by Hitler, 263, 266–267, 274
- Vishinsky, Andrei, 303
- Von Schuschnigg, Kurt, 248
- Vu Van Mau, 330
- Wallace, Hugh, 233
- Watts, William, 358
- Webster, Daniel, 187
- Weiner, Tim, 352
- Welles, Sumner, 254, 276, 279, 288, 293, 296 fact-finding mission to Europe, 284–285
- Wellington, Duke of, 152
- Whitworth, Lord, 102–103
- Willkie, Wendell, 293
- Wilson, Sir Horace, 266
- Wilson, William, 20–23
- Wilson, Woodrow, 6
 and the blacklist controversy, 226
 chief political adviser. See House, Col.
 Edward Declaration of War against Germany, 237–238
 “peace without victory” address, 235 secretaries of state. See Bryan, William J.; Lansing, Robert
 speech to the League to Enforce Peace, 225
 and the Sussex pledge, 224–225, 236
 – and Walter Hines Page:
 and British recognition of the Huerta regime, 201 initial meeting of, 200–201 and the repeal of the Anglo-American Hay-Pauncefote Treaty, 201–202
See also Page, Walter Hines – and American isolationism
- Wohlthat, Helmut, 243, 275–277
- Wolcott, Oliver, 4, 26
- Wolfkill, Grant, 338
- Wood, Edward. See Halifax, 3rd Viscount
- Woodward, Bob, 353–355
- World War I. See Great War; Lusitania tragedy; Page, Walter Hines – and American isolationism; Versailles Treaty; Wilson, Woodrow
- World War II
 Dunkirk, 287
See also Churchill, Winston; Hitler, Adolf; Kennedy, Joseph P.; Lindbergh, Charles; Munich agreement; Roosevelt, Franklin D.
- Worth, William, 162–163
- Young, Andrew, rogue diplomacy of Adams and Trist compared with, 16
- Young, G. M., 16