INTRODUCTION

Most of us think of Bismarck only as the Iron Chancellor, who forged the separate states of Germany into a Federal Empire through “blood and iron”.

In this volume the Baroness Seydewitz has given us an engaging picture of Bismarck as child, youth and man, a picture which shows how gradual was the development which led up to his historic acts.

Miss Swales has caught the spirit of the man at each stage of his life, and her illustrations are almost a synopsis of the story.
