

INDEX

- absolutism 82, 111–34, 175
 - academic objections to concept 132–4
 - centralization of power 123
 - contribution to modern society/constitutionalism 123, 214, 219, 252
 - counterweights to 131–2, 133
 - destabilizing factors 128, 133–4
 - hostility towards 83
 - ineffectiveness 133–4, 157
 - internal contradictions 123–5
 - see also names of countries*
- Accursius (Accorso di Bagnolo) 36
- Acerbo Law (Italy 1923) 298
- Administration of Justice, Decree Concerning (France 1788) 177
- Alanus Anglicus 48
- Alfonso X of Castile 57
- Allgemeines Landrecht (Prussian legal code) 172–3
- Altenstein, Karl Sigmund 234
- Althusius, Johannes 104
- America (colonial)
 - colonial charters 183
 - corporate rights, debate on 183–4
 - demands for statutory empowerment 185–6
 - fiscal rights, controversy over 185–6
- American Revolution 182–94, 205–6
 - (debate on) underlying principles 204
- Angevin dynasty 57, 70
- Anselm of Canterbury, Archbishop 34
- Anti-Federalist party (US) 194, 201
- Appeals, Law on (USSR 1987) 363
- Aragon, representational system 113
 - see also* Castile
- Arato, Andrew 5
- Armed Forces Movement (Portugal) 344, 345
- armies, standing, creation of 131
- Articles of Confederation (US 1777–81) 190–1
- Assembly of Notables (France 1787–8) 177, 178, 207
- assizes, institution of 51–2, 69
- Augsburg, Religious Peace of (1555) 91
- Austria
 - aftermath of First World War 290–2, 300–2
 - Constitution (1920) 290–2
 - revision (1929) 301
 - Constitution (1934) 301, 302
 - emergency laws 281, 301–2
 - Constitutional Court 291–2, 337
 - suspension 300
 - Constitutions (1848/49) 236–7, 246, 255
 - suspension 255–6
 - legal code 164
 - pluralism of constitution 173
 - reactionary turn 301, 308
 - relationship of Federation to member states 290
 - reversion to elite power (post-1849) 255–6
- Auxiliary Service Law (Germany 1916) 278
- Azo of Bologna 66
- Bacon, Francis, The Elements of the Common Lawes of England 105

- Baldus de Ubaldis 48–9
 Bank of Amsterdam, foundation (1609) 138
 Bartolus of Sassoferrato 48–9
 Basic Law (West Germany 1949) 335–8 ambiguities 335–6 catalogue of rights 335–7 specialized areas, removal from state jurisdiction 336
 Batavia, Republic/constitution (1798) 220
 Bavaria 129
 1818 Constitution 231–3, 234
 anti-feudal policies 232–3
 Soviet republic (1918–19) 282
 Bayonne, Statute of (1808) 230
 Becket, Thomas, Archbishop 34
 Belgium
 1831 Constitution 244
 influence elsewhere in Europe 245
 Bentham, Jeremy 2
 Berman, Harold 92
 Bèze, Théodore de 107
 bills of rights absence from French (1799) Constitution 225 in post-war Italian Constitution 331
 in US Federal Constitution 194–6, 197
 in US states/constitutions 192, 196 bishops decline in powers 44–6 disputes over appointment 33–4 (see also investiture contests) excommunication 45
 independence of papacy 44–5
 Bismarck, Otto von 261–3, 266
 Blackstone, William 164, 183, 238
 Blickle, Peter 87–8
 Bodin, Jean 121, 124
 Böhm, Franz 324
 Boissy d'Anglas, François-Antoine, comte de 221
 Bolingbroke, Henry 161
 Bologna
 constitutional documents 63 law school 26, 35–6, 40, 47 republican constitution (1796) 220
 Sacred Ordinances (1282) 63
 Bonapartist regime (France 1799–1815) 223, 254 anti-inclusive nature 227 attempts to reconcile opposing aims 226–7, 228 constitutional dimensions 223–4 dislocation of state and society 227 influence across Europe 233–4, 240, 244, 249, 370 representative assemblies 224–5 selectivity of rights regime 226 see also French Constitution (1799)
 Boncerf, Pierre-François 214
 Boniface VIII, Pope 53–4, 72
 Botero, Giovanni 80
 Bourbon dynasty 175 bankruptcy 176 conflict with parlements 178 constitutionalization 211–12
 Bourjon, François 165
 Boutaric, François de 165
 Brabant, rule/representation 137
 Bracton, Henry de 60
 Brandenburg/Kurmark 85, 86, 235 regional representation 100
 union with Prussia 130
 see also Prussia
 Britain/British Empire see United Kingdom
 Brüning, Heinrich 306, 322
 Brunkhorst, Hauke 5–6
 Bulgaria 360
 Constitution (1947) 327–8
 Constitution (1991) 359, 361
 bulls, papal, forged 54
 Burke, Edmund 2, 161, 184

caciquismo (Spanish system of governance) 265
 Cadiz, Constitution of (1812) 230–1 attack on hereditary privileges 230–1
 Caetano, Marcelo 342, 344
 Calonne, Charles Alexandre, vicomte de 207
 Calvin, Jean/Calvinism 99, 101, 128, 140

- opposition to 107–8
- canon law
 - formalization 31–2
 - in Italian city-states 48–9
 - objections to 89–90
 - revival/refinement 28–31
 - universality 27
- Capetian dynasty 52–4, 57, 72
- capitalism see organized capitalism
- Carli, Filippo 285
- Carlist movement (Spain)
 - 253
- Carlos IV of Spain 230
- Carolingian dynasty/era 20, 26
- Casimir IV of Poland 81–2
- Castile 81
 - absolutist regime 112–13
 - medieval legal code 57, 60
 - fragmentation 117
 - unification with Aragon 81
- Castile-León 56
 - representational system 71
- Catholic church
 - authority to override/remove laws
 - 30–1
 - bureaucracy 28
 - conciliar character 29–30
 - conflicts with emergent states 33–9
 - corporate status/integrity 27, 29–30, 39
 - Episcopal regime 28
 - exercise of power 31
 - Great Schism (1378–1417) 30
 - internal organization 27–8
 - legal order 25–32
 - impact on medieval society 32–9
 - increased need for 37–8
 - legal personality 27, 29–30, 31
 - legal principles 28–31, 56
 - legal status in Empire 26–7
 - monastic regime 28
 - relations with dictatorial regimes
 - 343–4, 349
 - role in promotion of temporal order
 - 32–3
 - secular institutional features 28
 - separation from secular state
 - functions 38–9
 - universal applicability of laws 31
 - see also* canon law; papacy
- Catholic League 108
- centralization
 - balancing against elite prerogatives
 - 254
 - consensual support 80
 - in England 70–1
 - in France 119
 - in Holy Roman Empire 42–4
 - impact of First World War 279–80
 - late nineteenth-century increases
 - 256–7
 - medieval moves towards 20, 22–3, 24, 77–80
 - relationship with rights-based
 - constitutionalism 162, 219–20
 - in Spain 112
- Charles I of England 140
 - acknowledgement of constitutional
 - order 145
 - indictment/execution 142, 145
- Charles VII of France 82
- Charles X of France 229
- Charles XI of Sweden 169
- Charte (France 1814) 228–30
 - anti-controversial objectives 229
 - revision (1830) 229
- Charter of January 1612 (Sweden) 135
- Christian Democratic Party (Italy)
 - 330–2
- Christian III of Denmark 97
- civil law
 - introduction of French code 211
 - private rights under 163–4
- civil society, emergence in post-
 - Fascist/-communist states 361
- Civil War, English (1642–9) 185
 - causes/prefigurings 140–1
 - common law principles 141–2, 198
 - impact on private rights 163–4
- coalition governments 295–6
- Cocceji, Samuel 163
- Code Louis (1667–70) 123
- Code Michau (France 1629)
 - 121, 125
- Codex Fridericianus (Prussia 1747–9)
 - 171

- Codex Theresianus (Austria, C18, never enforced) 164
- Coke, Edward 105–6, 140, 163, 185
- collective obligation, doctrine of 152
- commissaires* (France) 120–2, 125 distinguished from officiers 121
- common law
 - and American constitutions 182–3
 - as basis of constitution 140, 141–2, 144–5
 - challenges to royal/parliamentary prerogatives 105–6, 139
 - foundations of 50–2
 - and fundamental law 105–6
 - private rights under 163–4
 - and Reformation 90
 - relationship with Parliament 147, 148, 153–4
 - systematization 148
- Communist Party, reduction of powers in (post-)Soviet Russia 363–4, 366–7
- communist states, post-First World War 282
see also Soviet Union
- Confessio Augustana (1530) 91
- conflict theory, models of 18–19 see also Marx, Karl
- conservatives
 - middle-class 259
 - in nineteenth-century Germany 236
 - opposition to national-liberal constitutionalism 253
 - in UK 273–4
- Constance, Peace of (1183) 47, 48, 62
- Constant, Benjamin 222, 228
- Constituent Assembly (France 1789) 213
- constitutional court(s) 329, 332–4, 337–9, 353–4 determination of proper subjects for legislation 333
in eastern Europe 356–9, 367–70
English Parliament as 141–2 human rights cases 360–1 limitation of state powers 369, 370 political restrictions 367–8 rectification of state weaknesses 332–3
resolution of rights conflicts 334, 338 review of state decisions 338–9 role in state consolidation 333, 334, 337–9, 368, 369
see also names of countries
- constitutional rights
 - as best mechanism for transmission of power 157
 - recognition of 153–7
 - underpinning of legitimacy 155–6
- constitutional sociology 374–6 academic status 5–7 benefits 375–6
early history 1–3 objectives 7–8
- constitutionalism, early theories 8–9, 151–2
see also constitutional sociology;
early classical constitutionalism; national-liberal constitutionalism
- constitution(s)
 - as articulations of societal processes 372–3
 - changing significance 141
 - defined 8–12
 - distinguishing features 10–11
 - early (pre-written) 9–10
 - evolutionary processes 12–19, 73–5,
168, 218, 239–40, 252–3, 373–4
 - medieval vs. modern 72–3
 - political structure 11–12
 - post-war drafting 327–9
 - role in societal transformations 75–6
 - theoretical debates 1–2
 - written 181
- consuls
 - in Italian city-states 46, 62–3
 - in post-revolutionary France 223–4
- corporate constitution(s) 293, 300, 309–10
prefiguring of fascism 309–10
- corporations
 - collaboration with states 275, 278
 - grant of rights to 283–5
 - proscription 177, 208
 - role in state 175–6, 287
see also corporate constitutions

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

INDEX

429

- Cortes (Spanish representative assembly) 71, 115, 230 and 1970s reforms 351–2, 353 deliberative role 113 under fascist regime 318–19, 320 in imperial period 263–4 monarchical attempts to undermine 114 restrictions 112–13, 114, 116
 Council of the Revolution (Portugal) 344–5 credit institutions, formation of 138
 Crimean War (1854–6) 267
 Cromwell, Oliver 144, 145–6, 147
 Cromwell, Thomas 90, 91, 92
 Czechoslovakia
 Constitution (1948) 327, 328
 post-1990 amendments 361
 Constitutional Court 327, 359
- Dahlmann, Friedrich
 Christoph 248
 De Ambris, Alceste 285
 Declaration of Rights (America, 1765) 183–4
 Declaration of Rights (England, 1689) 144, 146, 149, 154
 Declaration of the Rights of Man (France 1789) 9, 209–10, 213 Defence of the Republic, Law for the (Spain 1931) 318 defensive rights see negative rights defeudalization 158
 English experience of 50, 69 fiscal strategies (France) 120–1 investiture contests, as symptomatic of 37–8 limited (in medieval period) 22–3 nineteenth-century completions 245 state formation as 40–1, 61–76
 Delaware, 1776 Constitution 185
 De Maistre, Joseph 2 democracy collapse (post-First World War) 300–2 constitutional commitments to 242 and judicial review 339 limited role in nineteenth-century states 249–51, 269–70 limited role in US constitutionalism 203–4
- Denmark
 extension of monarchical powers 128
 Reformation 97
 Depretis, Agostino 260
 Dicey, A. V. 273
 Diets, role in imperial constitution 84, 100
 Dispensations Act (1534) 97
 Dollfuß, Engelbert 301 droit administratif, French tradition of 211 du Tillet, Jean 106 dualism (constitutional) in ‘absolutist’ regimes 116–17, 128–9 difficulty of maintaining 111 medieval/early modern 76, 87–8, 111 (planned) eradication 171 role of rights 166–7 reconstruction via rights 167 reduction 156 retention in eighteenth/nineteenth-century states 168–71, 172–3, 174, 180, 265
- Dubois, Pierre 53
 Ducos, Roger 223
 Duguit, Léon 3
 Durkheim, Émile 3, 9, 14
 Dutch Republic 137–9 anti-centralizing ideology 137–8 borrowings 149–50 eighteenth-century constitutionalism 168 fiscal system 138, 149 national bank 138 state legitimacy/abstraction 138–9
- Dworkin, Ronald 5
- early classical constitutionalism 134 examples 134–53
 early modern period/society constitutional trends 9, 10–12, 86–8, 110–57 transition from Middle Ages 86–8

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

430

INDEX

- Eastern Europe
 - adoption of international norms 360–1
 - (immediate) post-war constitutions 327–8
 - common features 327–8, 355
 - post-Cold War constitutional developments 355–62
 - rights provisions 361–2
- Ebert, Friedrich 304
- Edward I, king of England 51–2, 70
- Egret, Jean 127
- Eisner, Kurt 283
- electorate, extensions of 257, 272, 282–3
 - see* universal suffrage
- Electors (in Holy Roman Empire) 66–7
 - fluctuations in constitutional status 79
- elites
 - balancing of interests with centralizing ideology 254
 - opposition to national-liberal constitutionalism 253
 - resumption of effective power (under fascism) 304–6
 - strengthening of position (mid-late C19) 255, 256–7, 258
 - urban, rise to power 23–4, 63–4
 - see also* families; fascism; nobility
- emergency laws/powers
 - in/after First World War 280, 290, 300, 309
 - in post-Soviet Russia 366
- empires, state-building within 241, 243–6, 248–9
 - see also* Germany; Holy Roman Empire; imperial era
- employment
 - state sector, impact of war on 275
- Enabling Law (Germany 1933) 307
- England 77
 - baronial moves for power 69–70 (see also Magna Carta)
 - colonial taxation 183–4
 - conflicts of church and state 50
 - constitutional developments (C17) 139–53
 - balancing processes 143–4
 - benefits to political system 144–8
 - internalization of political conflicts 150–1
 - creation of central political institutions 52
 - divergences from continental polities 50
 - eighteenth-century constitutionalism 168
 - electoral reform 238–9
 - fiscal system/policies 142–3, 149, 150
 - coercive, objections to 140–1
 - parliamentary control 148–50
 - sources of revenue 68–9
 - integration of courts 51–2
 - integration of law and statute 153–4
 - investiture contests 34
 - jurisdictional conflicts 139–41, 147
 - limitations on rights 181
 - limits of feudal organization 50
 - medieval transformations 50–2, 55, 60
 - legal reforms 50–2
 - as model for other constitutional states 170, 178–9, 182–3
 - monarch(y)
 - central role 57, 139
 - legal challenges to 139–43
 - natural/fundamental law 104–6
 - opposition, institutionalization of 150–1
 - party politics 160–1
 - patronage 160
 - recognition of constitutional rights 153–6
 - Reformation 89–90, 91, 92–3, 97–8, 139
 - representative system/reforms 73–4, 83 (see also parliament)
 - separation of powers 150, 238
 - state
 - account of foundations 154–5
 - expansion of powers 146–8
 - formative processes 68–71, 151–3, 160–1
 - public status 160

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

INDEX

431

- statutes removing papal jurisdiction 97–8
- weaknesses of state 77, 143
see also United Kingdom
- Enlightenment, political theory 1–2, 6, 7, 8–9, 14, 162–3, 182, 376
- Enrique II, king of Castile 112
- estates
 - balancing of powers with monarch 87–8
 - in Holy Roman Empire 84–5, 100, 173–4
 - Nazi revival 321–2
 - redefinition 236
- Estates-General (France)
 - calls for re-convention (1760s–80s) 180
 - decline in importance 82, 118
 - medieval summonings 72
- Étienne de Tournai 48
- European Convention on Human Rights (1950) 341, 360
- excommunication
 - of bishops 45
 - threats of 32–3
- executive, limits of competence 188–9
- fair trial, right to 188
- families, rule by
 - in imperial Spain 264
 - in Italian city-states 64–5, 80–1
- fascism/Fascist regimes 304–9
 - co-option of private groups 295, 299, 308–9, 310, 325–6, 348–9
 - common features 307–9, 320
 - ‘compensatory statehood’ 308–9
 - constitutional theory 311–12, 314
 - crisis of statehood 325–6
 - depletion of state autonomy 325–6
 - merging of public and private law 311–12
 - post-war reaction against 327, 328
 - reason for rise 309–11
 - see also* Fascist regime (Italy); National Socialists
- Fascist party/regime (Italy) 302
 - anti-corporatist elements 314–15
- bureaucracy 298
- co-option of outside power sources 298, 308
- compared/contrasted with Nazi Germany 304–9, 323
- corporate elements 298, 311–15, 317, 320
- creation of one-party state 298
- dismantling of parliament 297–8
- economic strategy 314
- executive apparatus 298–9
- Grand Council 298, 308
- hybrid nature 299–300
- labour law 312–15
- legislation to strengthen position 296–8, 312–14, 319
- National Council of Corporations 313
- prohibition of associations contrary to national order 297–8
- role in coalition government 296
- treatment of rights 312–16, 325
- weaknesses 314–15
- Federal Constitution (US 1787–9)
 - 182–3, 194–200, 203–4
 - construction of sovereignty 204
 - inviolable status 200, 221
 - judicial provisions 198–200
 - (positive/negative) treatment of rights 194–6, 197, 204
 - provision for strong central state 196–8, 205
 - separation from political process 203
- Supremacy Clause (Art. 6) 199
- tax provisions 196
- Federalist party (US) 194–5, 199, 201, 203–4
 - domination of judiciary 199
- feoffs 21, 23
- Ferdinand VII King of Spain 230
- Ferry, Jules 272
- feudalism
 - absence from Swedish society 136
 - administrative developments 23–4
 - ‘bastard’ 77
 - definition/validity of concept 20–1
 - endemic violence 22
 - legal order 21

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

432

INDEX

- feudalism (cont.)
 - legal restructuring 24–5
 - moves away from 20, 22–5 (see also defeudalization)
 - power structures 21–2, 41
 - relationship with church 26
 - residual, in eighteenth-century France 180
 - sources of revenue 22
 - statutory abolition 207
 - transformations to underlying structure 22–5, 41–2, 55
 - undermining of central concepts 37, 38–9
 - see also* ‘feudal reaction’
- ‘feudal reaction’ (France, C18) 127
- Fifth Republic (France 1958–) see French Constitution (1958)
- First Continental Congress (1774) 184, 185
- First World War 274–94
 - aftermath 279–95, 310–11
 - burdens on emergent states 292–3, 311
 - crisis of inclusion 294
 - economic chaos 293
 - military units, non-disbandment 294
 - unemployment 282
- diversion of capital into relevant sectors 276
- financing 276
- impact on civilian society 279–80
- impact on party politics 277
- impact on state formation/functions 275, 280–4, 292–3, 309, 310
- implications for labour
 - organizations 278–9
- military legislation 281
- mobilization of resources/
 - manpower 275, 281
- national debts 276
- range of impacts on different nations 275–6
- see also* emergency laws
- Fiume, national republic of 285
- Florence 62
 - electoral system 62–3, 64
 - Ordinances of Justice (1293) 63
 - political structure 80
 - public finances 65
- Flotte, Pierre 53
- Form of Government (Sweden, 1634) 135
- Fortescue, John 83
- Foucault, Michel 15
- Fourth Lateran Council (1215) 29
- Fourth Republic (France 1946–58) 329
 - Constitutional Committee/Council 329
- France
 - 1848 revolution and aftermath 242–3
 - administration/officials 120–2
 - conflict with judicial arm 210
 - expansion 121, 124–5
 - influence in other states 130–1
 - judicial privileges 127
 - separation from feudal jurisdiction 121
 - specialization 122
 - (attempted) eradication of private power 121–2
 - centralizing trends 78, 119
 - Civil Code (1804) 228
 - introduction 227
 - civil wars 125–6
 - constitutional theory (pre-1789) 10
 - corporate structures 175–6
 - decentralizing trends 77–8
 - development of modern society 123
 - early modern (‘absolutist’) regime 117–28
 - eighteenth-century developments 175–81
 - financial/legislative crisis 179–80
 - legal code/debates 165
 - role of private groups 175, 179–81
 - erosion of corporate/local functions 120–1
 - feudal transformation 52–5
 - fiscal policies/methods 118–19, 120, 121–2, 176–7, 209
 - centralization 123
 - failure of projected reforms 177
 - problems 179–80
 - use of parlements 119

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

INDEX

433

- fundamental law, application of
 - doctrine 106–9
- generalization of law 123
- impediment to state formation
 - 175–81
- judicial system 165
- July Revolution (1830) 229
- land ownership 175
- monarchy
 - conflicts with parlements 125–7
 - constitutional restraints 124, 125–6, 127–8
 - depletion of power 123–5
 - early modern strengthening of position 118, 122–3
 - medieval role 57
 - problems facing 176–9, 206–7
 - reduction of private status 124–5
- natural law, application of doctrine
 - 163
- obstacles to state formation 118
- post-revolutionary
 - constitutionalism 219–28
- representative system/reforms 71–2, 73–4, 82–3, 221
- Restoration era (1814–48) 228–30
- retention of privatism 126–8
- rise of national sovereignty 241
- social hierarchy 117–18; absolutist suppression 118
- weakening of constitutional structures 118–19
- weaknesses of state 121, 126–7, 180–1, 206–7
- see also* Bonapartist regime; Fourth Republic; French Constitution (various dates); French Revolution; Second Empire; Second Republic; Third Republic
- Franco, Francisco 317, 318–21
 - death 347, 351
 - weaknesses of regime 347–51
- see also* Spain: fascist regime
- freedom of movement/assembly/
 - expression, rights of 188
- freedoms, modern
 - defined 222
 - link with constitutionalism 375
- French Constitution (1791) 208, 211–15
 - institution of national sovereignty 214
 - rights provisions 218–19
 - role in social transformations 218
 - strengthening of state power 212, 218
- French Constitution (1795) 220–3
 - legislative system 221
 - list of rights 220–1
 - move away from popular sovereignty 221–2
 - supreme legal status 221–2
- French Constitution (1799) 223–6
 - counter-revolutionary objectives 225
 - fusion of democratic and anti-democratic elements 225–6
 - lack of government approval 225
 - representative provisions 223, 224–5, 226
 - separation of powers 223–4
 - strategic features 225
- French Constitution (1814) see Charte
- French Constitution (1848) 250
- French Constitution (1852) 254–5
- French Constitution (1875) 269–72
 - exclusion of private groups 270–2
- French Constitution (1946) 329
- French Constitution (1958) 329
- French Revolution/revolutionary
 - government 8, 126, 182, 207–19
 - abolition of parlements 180
 - administrative law 217
 - attitude to judicial power 210–11
 - balance of republican and liberal ideas 215–16
 - consolidation of state power 209–10
 - Constitution (1793) 220
 - constitutional jury, establishment of 222
 - constitutional philosophy 205–19, 222–3, 240
 - Directory (1795) 221
 - early legislation 207–10
 - handling of administrative officials 120

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

434

INDEX

- French Revolution/revolutionary government (cont.)
 hostility to 237–8 ideological conflicts 215–16 increased abstraction/inclusion of state 208–9, 212 influence across Europe 230–2, 233, 235, 240, 243–4 international responses 9
 legal reforms 210–11, 216–17
 as reaction to existing order 207 relationship with absolutist regime 219
 representative system 212 separation of legal rights from personal standing 207–8 survival of feudal elements 207 as watershed in constitutional evolution 218–19
see also French Constitution (1791/1795)
- Friedrich I ‘Barbarossa’, Emperor 40, 47
- Friedrich II, Emperor 66
- Friedrich II of Prussia 164–5, 172
- Friedrich Wilhelm IV of Prussia 255
- Friedrich Wilhelm ‘The Great’, Elector of Brandenburg 130
- Fronde (French civil war, mid-C17) 125–6, 178
- functionalism 13 rejection 14
see also historical functionalism
- Fundamental Labour Law (Spain 1938) 320
- fundamental law(s), doctrine of 103–4, 108–9, 110, 145, 148 internal conflicts 106 placing of parliament above 153 post-Reformation rise 104–8
- Fundamental Laws (Russia 1906) 268
- Gaulle, Charles de 329
- Gentile, Giovanni 312
- Gentillet, Innocent 107
- Gentz, Friedrich von 236
- Georgia, 1777 Constitution 192
- German Labour Front 322
- Germany (federal state)
 aftermath of First World War 283, 302–9
 Civil Code (1900) 262
 consolidation of authority 337–8, 340
 Constitution of 1848–9 247–8 non-realization 250 Constitutional Assembly 246–8 suppression 250
 Constitutional Court 337–9 designated functions 337 dilution of state power 262 electoral reforms (in response to First World War) 277 emergency laws: in/after First World War 280, 303–4 fiscal policy/legislation 264 imperial constitution 261–3, 266, 271 liberal features 261 misconceptions 263–4
 treatment of rights 262 influence of nineteenth-century constitutionalism 237 judicial review 337–8
 labour law: impact of First World War 278 limitation of parliamentary role 263 material constitution 286–8 national feeling, impact of First World War on 280
 party politics 263, 277, 286–7
 post-war constitutionalism 329, 335–40 powers of member states 262 regional constitutions 335 supremacy of federal law over state law 289, 337–8 transformations following First World War 286–9 unification 241–2, 246–8
 weaknesses 261–3, 265
see also Basic Law; National Socialists; Weimar Republic
- Germany (separate states) ‘absolutist’ tendencies 129–30 civil law codes 233–4

- constitutional ambiguities 173–4
- debates on rights 233–4
- federatist movements 246–8
- general legal code 163
- Imperial courts 43, 78–9
- Imperial rule 43
- limits of state power 174
- medieval legal reforms 43, 57
- moves towards (secular/religious)
 - independence 93–4
- nineteenth-century constitutional
 - developments 231–7
- opposition to papal courts 89
- post-Napoleonic trends 249
- post-Reformation trends 128–30
- power of state bureaucracy 237
- Reformation 89, 91, 98–100
- regional assemblies 84–6, 100, 173–4
- regional charters 67–8
- religious tolerance 166
- state-building processes 85
 - see also* Prussia
- Giolitti, Giovanni 261, 296–7, 340
- Girard du Haillan, Bernard de 107
- Glasgow 238
- Glorious Revolution (England 1688–9)
 - 146, 150–1, 153–4
- Golden Bull (1356) 66–7
- Gorbachev, Mikhail 362, 363, 364, 370
- government, distinguished from state
 - 161
- Gramsci, Antonio 16
- Grand Remonstrance (England 1641)
 - 141, 144
- Gratian, Decretum 28–9
- Greece 243–4
- Greenleaf, W. H. 275
- Gregory VII, Pope/Gregorian reforms
 - 26–7, 32, 35, 43–4, 45
- Gruder, Vivian R. 180
- Guidi, Dario 312
- Guizot, François 229
- Gundling, Nicolaus 166
- Gustav Adolf of Sweden 135
- Gustav I Vasa of Sweden 91, 96
- Habermas, Jürgen 4, 5, 9
- Habsburg dynasty/empire
 - decline of power 93, 101
 - private-law codification 164
 - rebellions against 137, 241, 248–9
 - rule of Spain 112
- Hamilton, Alexander 195, 199, 202
- Hardenberg, Karl August von 233–5, 337–8
- Harrington, James 152
- Hauriou, Maurice 3, 271
- Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich 2, 237
- Heinrich IV, Emperor 34
- Helsinki Accords (1975) 356, 360
- Henri II of France 107, 121
- Henri IV of France 118
- Henry I of England 34, 51
- Henry II of England 51–2, 69
- Henry VIII of England 89, 91, 97–8
- Hesse
 - Constitution (1833) 237
 - Constitution (1946) 335
 - regional representation 100
- Hilferding, Rudolf 288
- Hindenburg, Paul von 304–5
- Hintze, Otto 14
- historical functionalism 12–15
- Hitler, Adolf 305
 - attempts to exclude from power 306
 - installation as chancellor 305–6
- Hobbes, Thomas 152
- Hohenstaufen dynasty 41–3
- Hohenzollern dynasty 130, 171, 285
- Holbach, Paul-Henri Thiry, Baron d'
 - 179
- Holy Roman Empire 66–8
 - centralization of power 42–4
 - conflicts with church 25–6, 33–4, 36, 50, 61–2
 - constitutional structure,
 - development of 99–100
 - disputes with French monarchy 54
 - dissolution (1806) 231–2
 - Dutch secession from 100–1
 - fiscal supply 67–8
 - fragmentation 93–4
 - fundamental law, application of
 - doctrine 104
 - imperial authority 40–1, 57, 66–7, 99, 173

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

436

INDEX

- Holy Roman Empire (cont.)
 - restraints on 99–100, 104
 - imperial candidates, papal
 - adjudication of worthiness 34
 - integration of church in 26
 - internal military conflicts 99
 - internal rulers' claims to power 48–9
 - judicial reforms 78
 - late medieval developments 78–9
 - legal code, drafting 163
 - legal system, relationship with canon law 29
 - nationalist movements within 244–6
 - power structure, changes to 83–6
 - statutory implementation 85–6
 - regional representation 67, 84–5, 100
 - relations between Empire and states 98–100, 128–9, 174
 - rule of Italian city-states 44–50
 - transformation into secular state 40–4
 - unitary personality 68
 - see also* Electors; Germany (imperial/independent states); princes
- Honorius III, Pope 53
- Hooker, John 98
- Hooker, Richard 105
- House of Lords (UK), move to reform 274
- Huber, Ernst Rudolf 324
- Huguenots 107–8
- human rights
 - international norms 360–1
- Hume, David 2
- Hundred Years War (1337–1453) 78
- Hungary 244–5
 - communist insurrection (1919) 283
 - Constitution (1949) 327, 328
 - Constitution (1989) 361
 - Constitutional Law Council 359, 369
 - rebellions against Habsburg rule 245, 248–9
 - reformist legislation 245
- immunities 21, 41
 - feudal grants of 21
- role in Holy Roman Empire 41–2, 68, 129
- strengthening of central power 23
- supersession by more formal structures 41–2
- imperial era 257–9
 - common features of states 257–9
 - constitutional pragmatism 265–6
 - residual dualism 265–6
 - state/constitutional strengths 274
 - state weaknesses 258, 264–6
 - synthesis of disparate elements 257–8
- inclusion
 - crisis of (post-First World War) 294
 - impact of First World War 279–81, 282–3, 308, 324–5
 - impact on rights-based constitutionalism 162
 - importance to political power/stability 18–19, 59–61, 65–6, 74–6
 - increasing use (post-Reformation) 102–3, 148, 154–5, 373–4
 - limits, study of 164
 - moves away from 221
 - nineteenth-century advances 239–40, 254–5, 257, 271–2
 - checks on 240
 - in revolutionary constitutions 193–4, 208–9, 218
 - weaknesses, in imperial era 264–5
- inflation, post-First World War levels 293, 302
- inheritance tax 273
- Innocent III, Pope 34
- institutions 373
 - crossing of social/geographical divides 24–5
 - early modern developments 156–7
 - medieval development 24–5, 58–9
- Instrument of Government (England 1653) 145–6, 148
- intendants* (France) 121–2, 125–6
 - calls for suppression 125–6
- interdisciplinarity 5
- International Court of Justice 341

- international law
 - application via constitutional courts 337
 - determination of national laws/ rulings 341
 - increasing consolidation 360
- Interregnum (England 1649–60) 147
- investiture contests 33–4
 - impact on medieval societies 34–9, 40–1, 42, 44–6, 50–1, 56
- Irnerius of Bologna 35
- Italian Communist Party (PCI) 330–1
- Italian Socialist Party (PSI) 284, 295, 330–1
- Italy: city-states 33
 - alliances between 46 (see also Lombard League)
 - appointment of authorities 62
 - canon law 48–9
 - concentration of power 42, 46, 80–1
 - economies 65
 - formulation of legal systems 49, 62, 65–6
 - independence of Empire 45–6, 62
 - avoidance of reintegration 46
 - limitations 64
 - internal violence 64
 - law schools 26
 - legal battles with Empire 47
 - limitations of statehood 63–5
 - moves towards oligarchy 64–5
 - nineteenth-century constitutions 245–6, 248–9, 258–61
 - erosion/suppression 250
 - post-revolutionary republics (1790s) 220
 - regalia, recognition of 47–8
 - separation of judicial powers 46, 65
 - shifting power structures 23–4
 - state-building 44–50, 55, 61–6
- Italy: nation-state
 - church–state relations 333
 - Constitution (1948) 330–3, 340
 - bill of rights 331
 - distributory rights 331
 - Constitutional Court 332–4, 340, 353
 - democratization 284–5
 - development of parliamentary legislature 259
 - emergency laws: in First World War 281
 - judicial review 332
 - labour law 261
 - impact of First World War 279
 - legislation without parliamentary approval 260
 - movements for establishment 246
 - national feeling, impact of First World War 279
 - national symbols 246
 - party politics 284–5, 295–7, 330–2
 - small parties' crucial role 296
 - personalized system of governance 260–1 (see also trasformismo)
 - political aftermath of First World War 284–5, 295–300
 - power of elite groups 296
 - split of executive and parliament 296
 - post-war constitutionalism 329–34
 - moves towards consolidation/ unification 334
 - unification 241–2, 259–60
 - violent conflicts in society 294
 - weaknesses 261, 265, 266, 272, 296, 332–3, 340
 - see also* Fascist regime
- Jacobinism 215–16, 220, 329
 - opposition to 270
- Jago, Charles 113
- James I of England/VI of Scotland 105
 - 141, 163
- James II of England 146
- Jenkins, David 152
- John of Paris 30
- Joyous Entry of 1356 (Netherlands) 137
- Juan I of Castile 81
- Judicature Ordinance (Sweden, 1614) 135
- Judicial Reform Statute (Russia 1864) 267
- judicial review 198–203, 332, 338–9, 353

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

438

INDEX

- judicial review (cont.)
 - application in practice 199–200
 - centrality to US constitutionalism 198–9, 201–3
 - in Eastern Europe 357–8, 359
 - in German states 337–8
 - and international law 341
 - in post-war France 329
 - relationship with democracy 339
 - role in distribution of political power 201
- judiciary
 - accountability to parliament 154, 195
 - conflicts with legislators 147
 - constitutional responsibilities 199–200
 - independence: constitutional provision 331–2, 337, 353, 357–8, 363–4, 366–7
 - rejection 327–8, 350–1
 - limits of competence 188–9
 - prohibition on political/legislative activity 210–11, 215, 227
 - state control 211
 - strengthening (in United States) 198–9
 - use as tool of repression 350
- Judiciary Act (US 1789) 198
- juries, introduction in USSR 364
- Justinian, Emperor, Digest 40
- Kant, Immanuel 7
- Karl XI of Sweden 128
- Kelsen, Hans 290–2, 337
- Knichen, Andreas 94
- König, Reinhard 99
- Kossuth, Lajos 245
- Kun, Béla 283
- labour
 - activism post-First World War 282
 - disputes, removal from state jurisdiction 336–7
 - impact of First World War 277–8
 - political parties representing 277–9, 282–3
 - see also* employment; labour law; trade unions
- Labour Charter (Italy 1927) 313–14
- labour law
 - France 272
 - Germany (Weimar) 286–8
 - Italy 261, 312–14, 331
 - Nazi 322–3
 - Soviet Union 365
 - Spain 319–20, 350–1, 352
 - UK 273
- land ownership, legal rights of 175
- late Middle Ages 77–88
 - growth of representative structures 80
 - representative/delegatory trends 81–6
- latitudinarianism 166
- Latvia, constitutional reforms 359–60
- law
 - increasing need for 37–8
 - medieval transformations 24–5, 56–9
 - positivization 35–6, 88–9, 92, 94–5, 96
 - post-Reformation debates, polarization 110
 - reduced influence of external considerations 58
 - relationship with church authorities 25–32
 - repeatability 58
 - written, spread of 58, 59, 74
 - see also* fundamental laws; natural law; normativity; power, political; private law; public law
- Le Bret, Cardin 124
- legislation, statutory powers of 74–5
- legislative participation, right of 188
- legislature, limits of competence 188–9
- légistes* 53–4, 72
- legitimacy 374
 - basis in international law 360–1
 - conflicting views (C17 England) 140
 - crises of 142–3, 341–2, 362
 - depoliticization 226
 - Enlightenment theories 1–2
 - impact of First World War 280–2
 - innovative approaches to 102
 - internal sources 101, 189–90

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

INDEX

439

- judicial guardianship 200–4
- national sovereignty as source of 213–15
- natural/fundamental law models 107–8
- in Reformation societies 95, 96
- responsibility of all areas of government for 189
- rights-based 162–3, 172, 193–4, 203–4, 287, 310–11, 361
- role of constitutional courts in 333, 339, 353–4, 358–9
- sociological model 376
- through popular sovereignty 192–3
- légitimiste* movement (France) 253
- Leibniz, Gottfried Wilhelm 163
- León
 - representational system 71
- Lex van der Lubbe (Germany 1933) 306
- L'Hospital, Michel 109
- Liber Augustalis (Sicilian statutes) 42–3
- Liberal Party (UK) 274, 283
- liberalism, German 236
- Liberation Movement
 - (Russia, late C19) 268
- Lithuania, union with Poland 82
- Littre, Émile 271, 274, 278, 283
- Lloyd George, David 273, 278, 282
- Locke, John 154, 162–3, 183, 184
- Lombard League 46
 - conflicts with Empire 47–8
- London, Concordat of (1107) 34
- Louis XIII of France 118, 121, 125
- Louis XIV of France 123, 126, 127
- Louis XV of France 178
- Louis XVI of France 206–7
- Loyseau, Charles 117–18
- Luhmann, Niklas 4, 13, 14–15, 18
- Luther, Martin/Lutheranism 89, 99, 128
- Mably, Gabriel Bonnot de 178
- Madison, James 195, 201, 202, 203–4
- Magna Carta (1215) 51, 60, 69
- Magnus IV Eriksson of Sweden 60
- Mainzer Landfriede (German penal code) 43
- Maitland, F.W. 52
- Major, J. Russell 87
- Mann, Michael 14, 17
- Marsilius of Padua 30
- Martin, Luther (US revolutionary figure) 194
- Marx, Karl/Marxist theory 2–3, 15, 18, 243, 287–8
- Massachusetts, 1780 Constitution 189, 190, 192
- Maupeou, René-Nicolas-Charles-Augustin de 178
- May Edicts (France 1788) 178
- Medici family 80
- Melanchthon, Philipp 91
- Mellis, Guido 279, 299
- Merton, Statute of (1236) 52
- Middle Ages 11
 - anti-feudal processes 22–5
 - constitutional trends 20, 72–3, 157
 - prefiguring of modern constitutionalism 73
 - see also* late Middle Ages
- middle classes, rise/shift in political position 258
- Milan 62, 80
- military units, post-war refusal to disband 293
- Millerand, Alexandre 271
- minimalism, as feature of nineteenth-century constitutions 257, 259, 264–5, 266
- ministerial responsibility, central role in state 270–1
- modernity, theories of 13
- monarchy/ies
 - constitutionalization 211–12, 227, 228, 245–6
 - constraints on 72–3, 83
 - executive role, in late nineteenth-century constitutions 256–7
 - institutionalization of power 77, 79–80, 81
 - obligation to seek wise counsel 106–7
 - revival of authority (late medieval) 87–8

- monarchy/ies (cont.)
 - as source of justice/order 57, 69
 - see also* absolutism; royal courts;
 - royal prerogative; names of countries
- monetary economy, development of 23–4
- Montgelas, Maximilian 232–3
- Montils-les-Tours, Ordonnance de (1454) 78
- Moreno de Vargas, Bernabé 112–13
- Moser, Johann Jakob 174
- Münch, Richard 4
- Munitions Act (UK 1915) 278
- Mussolini, Benito 284, 294, 296–9, 302, 305–6, 307, 311, 313, 317, 320, 333
- Nader, Helen 117
- Näf, Werner 87
- Napoleon I, Emperor 220, 223–8
 - Code Napoléon see France: Civil code
 - see also* France: Bonapartist regime
- nation, concept of 212–15
 - building, wartime impact on 279
 - impact on nineteenth-century state formation 241–2, 253
 - as legitimating principle 213–15
 - see also* nationalism
- National Assembly (France 1789) 207
- National Insurance Act (UK 1911) 274
- national-liberal constitutionalism 252–3
 - divergence of Weimar Constitution from 287
 - opposition to 253
- National Socialist (Nazi) Party/regime 305, 320–6
 - co-option of elite groups 305–7, 308–9
 - compared/contrasted with Italian fascism 307–9
 - corporate arrangements 321–6
 - destruction of judicial order 307
 - dismantling of apparatus of state 307
 - economic policy 323, 324
 - industrial design 322–3
 - creation of cartels 323
 - internal structure 306–7
 - rise to power 305–6
- national sovereignty 189–91
 - absence from European state-building processes 196–7
 - in German Confederation 247–8
 - internalization of authority 190–1
 - nineteenth-century advances 240–1
 - in (post-)revolutionary France 212–15, 217–18, 225–6
 - relationship with rights 191, 193–4, 226, 242, 248
 - role in state autonomy 213–15
 - in Spanish constitution 230
 - in US constitution 196–8, 203–4, 205–6
- nationalism
 - nineteenth-century developments 248–9
- natural law 103, 110, 162–3, 181
 - as basis of English Revolution 140
- natural rights, theory of 163, 173
- Naumann, Friedrich 289
- Nazis see National Socialist regime
- Nedham, Marchamont 151–2
- negative (defensive) rights 184–6, 187–9
 - complemented by positive aspect 189–90, 191, 192–3, 194
 - role in construction of US Federal state 194–6, 197
- Netherlands
 - beginnings of modern state 93
 - representative system 86, 100–1
 - revolt against Spanish rule 89, 93, 137–8
 - revolution on French model (1795) 220
 - see also* Dutch Republic
- New Hampshire, 1776 Constitution 187–8
- New Jersey, 1776 Constitution 187–8
- New York (state), 1777 Constitution 192
- Nicholas II, Tsar 269
- Nineteen Propositions (England 1642) 145

- nobility
 - assimilation into state administration
 - 122–3, 130–1, 132
 - conflicts with monarchy
 - in Russia 266
 - in Spain 114
 - hostility to reform projects 235
 - hostility to written law 74
 - nineteenth-century attacks on
 - powers 230–1, 233–4, 247, 267–8
 - retention of powers in Imperial age
 - 265–6, 269
 - rights of veto 169
 - role in feudal order 21–3
 - role in Spanish power structures 56
 - weakening of powers 22–3
 - see also* elites
- Nogaret, Guillaume 53
- Nonconformists, prohibition of 151
- normativity
 - as basis of constitutional theory 3–5, 7–8, 9–10, 13–15, 373–4, 375–6
 - rejection 2–3
 - conflicts over 142–3
 - functional 374–5
 - legal 18, 60–1
 - of new constitutional principles
 - 365–6, 370–1
 - rights as basis of 161
- North Carolina, 1776 Constitution
 - 187–8, 192
- Norway, first constitution (1814) 220
- Ockham, William of 30
- October Manifesto (Russia 1905) 268
- officiers* (France) 120–1, 125
- Oldendorp, Johann 90
- opposition, institutionalization of
 - 150–1, 160–1
- Opus Dei movement 349
- Orange, dynasty of 137–8
- Organization of Labour, Law for the
 - (Germany 1934) 323
- organized capitalism, system of 287–8
- Orléanist regime (France 1830–48)
 - 229, 242
- Ottoman Empire 241
- liberation of Greece from 243–4
- Ottomische Handfeste 67
- ownership, rights of see property
- Oxford, Provisions of (1258) 70
- pactismo* 113–14, 115, 116
- Padua, constitutional documents 63
- Paine, Thomas 190, 191
- Palazzo Chigi, Pact of (1923) 312
- Palermo, 1848 Constitution 245
- Palopoli, Nicola 312
- Panunzio, Sergio 284
- papacy
 - claims to temporal authority 25, 33–4
 - conflicts with French monarchy
 - 52–4, 72
 - ending of temporal powers 246
 - legislative powers 26–7
 - national statutes limiting power
 - 97–8
 - opposition to Imperial supremacy
 - 29, 61–2
 - support for Italian city-states 48
 - supreme power (plena potestas), doctrine of 26–7, 29, 36
- Papal States, 1849 Constitution 246
- Papen, Franz von 305
- Paper Constitution (England 1244) 70
- paramilitaries 293
- Parker, Henry 141–2
- parlement(s)* (France) 78, 83, 119–20, 177–80
 - abolition 127, 180, 210–11
 - ambiguity of role 119
 - commitment to local privileges
 - 126–7
 - composition 126
 - constitutional obligations, perception of 178–9
 - criticisms 179
 - executions of members 180
 - hereditary prerogatives 177–9
 - representative competence 119–20
 - resistance to monarchy 120, 125–7, 178, 180
 - statutory restrictions 125–6
 - subordination to judiciary 123

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

442

INDEX

- parliament (England/UK)
 - attempts to limit judicial power 147
 - conflicts with monarchy 140–2
 - as court of common law 140–1
 - emergence as centre of power 69–71
 - exercise of fiscal powers 150
 - incorporation, weakening of private actors 150
 - king in, rule by 97–8
 - as main organ of governance 238
 - ratification of legislation 145–6
 - statutory acknowledgement of rights 146
 - supremacy, principle of 146–8, 153–4, 272–3
 - colonial rejection 183
- parliaments (general)
 - bicameral 221, 255
 - increase, post-Reformation 102
 - increased powers in wake of First World War 282
- Parsons, Talcott 4, 14, 18
- parties (political), development of
 - benefits 160–1
 - in England/UK 160–1, 272–4
 - in Imperial Germany 262, 286–7
 - impact of First World War 276–7, 281
 - in Italy 295–7, 330–2
 - in revolutionary America 194–5
 - in Sweden 170
 - see also* labour; names of countries/parties
- ‘Peace of God’ 32–3
- Pennsylvania
 - Charter of Privileges (1701) 183
 - Constitution (1776) 186, 187–8, 190, 191, 192
 - Constitution (1790) 192
- Peoples’ Party (Italy, Catholic) 294–5
- perestroika* 362–6
- personal rights 161–7
 - recognition 149
- Petit-Renaud, Sophie 72
- Petition of Right (England 1628) 141, 143–4, 148
- Philip IV of Spain 113
- Philippe-Auguste of France 53
- Philippe III ‘the Bold’ of France 53
- Philippe IV ‘the Fair’ of France 53–4, 72
- physiocracy 176–7
- Piedmont, legal code 164
 - see also* Piedmont-Sardinia
- Piedmont-Sardinia, 1848 Constitution
 - 246, 250, 251
 - adaptation for unified Italy 258–9
- Pilsudski, Jozef 301
- Pisa, legal system 45, 49
- Pistoia, legal system 49
- Pitt, William (the Younger) 239
- Pius IX, Pope 246
- pluralism 13, 343–4, 349, 354–5, 361
- Poland 355–9
 - anti-imperial movements 248–9
 - Constitution (1791) 169
 - Constitution (1921) 300
 - Constitution (1952) 327, 328, 355–6
 - Constitution (1997) 358, 361
 - constitutional reforms (1970s) 356–9
- Constitutional Tribunal 356–60, 369
 - benefits 358–9
 - as model for other states 359
- eighteenth-century developments
 - 168–9, 170–1
 - fragmentation of state power 169–71
- partition (from 1770s) 169
- Reformation 97
- representative system 81–2
- separation of powers 357–8
- social/political unrest (1970s) 356
- vulnerability to invasion 169
- Political Reform, Law for (Spain 1976) 351
- popular sovereignty
 - as core constitutional principle 252–3
 - in German constitutions 232, 289
 - imperial-era conceptions 270
 - nineteenth-century restrictions 250–1
 - in (post-)revolutionary France 212–13, 216–17, 217–18, 243

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

INDEX

443

- controlled nature 216
- distinguished from state 222–3
- moves away from 221–2, 228
- transfer of locus 226, 228
- rights-based restraints 217
- in smaller post-revolutionary republics 220–1
- subordinated to national 204
- in US Federal Constitution 194, 202–3
- in US state constitutions 191–4
- Portugal 302–3, 342–7
- armed forces
 - provisions for emergency rule 345–6
 - reduced powers 347
 - relations with government 343–4
 - role in 1970s transition 344
- church–state relations 343–4, 345
- Constitution (1933) 316–17
- ‘balance’ of labour and capital 316–17
- treatment of rights 316–17
- Constitution (1976) 345–6
- authoritarian features 345–6
- economic programme 346
- (limitations of) rights catalogue 345, 346
- revision (1982) 346–7
- Constitutional Court 347, 353
- constitutional transition (1974) 344–5
- economic problems 342–3
- electoral reforms 345
- judicial reforms 345–6
- labour laws 343
- military coup (1926) 302
- military regime 308, 316–18
- collapse 342–4
- Novo Estado 302, 342, 344, 346
- pluralism of regime 343–4
- positivism 109, 174, 270
- Pothier, Robert-Joseph 165
- Poulantzas, Nicos 17
- power, political
 - abstraction 56–7, 74–5, 92, 94–5, 96, 101–3, 166–7, 208–9, 252–3, 372, 375
 - adaptive dimensions 374
 - attainment of distinctive character 39
 - autonomy 16–18, 24, 59–61
 - concentration in state 204–5, 281, 307–8
 - demarcation 15–16
 - depersonalization 158
 - detachment from hereditary tenures 232–3
 - diffusion 59–61
 - distinguished from social influence 15–16
 - even distribution 201
 - evolutionary/adaptive nature 16
 - feudal sources/structures 21–2
 - historical-functionalist theory 15–16
 - impact of First World War on structures 280–2
 - increased immediacy 279
 - independence of church 38–9
 - institutional instruments 17–18
 - linked to grant of rights 162–3, 167, 188, 190–1
 - microanalysis, objections to 18
 - move towards uniform transmission 158–9
 - nation as basis of 214, 217–18
 - normative features 374–5
 - positivization 108
 - relationship with law 18–19, 58–9, 61, 65–6, 76, 144–5
 - reserves of, as defining factor of societies 17, 372–3, 375
 - reversion to private groups 299, 304, 325–6
 - prevention 372–3
 - social theory 14
 - Weberian theory 14
- Pragmatic Sanction (Netherlands 1549) 93, 137
- pre-modern society/constitutions 10–12
 - see also* Middle Ages
- Preuß, Hugo 286, 289
- Prime Minister, office of (UK) 239
- Primo de Rivera, Miguel 317–18
- prince, figure of (in theoretical literature) 35–6

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

444

INDEX

- princes (in Holy Roman Empire)
 - authority over religious policy 91
 - balancing against imperial power/interests 84
 - conflicts with Empire 99
 - impact of judicial reforms 78–9
 - increases in power 68
 - limits to powers 67
 - territorial dominance 93–4
- Principles of Civil Legislation, Law on (USSR 1991) 365
- private law 11
 - separation from public 167, 181
- private rights 163–6, 240
 - conversion into public 75
 - depoliticization 204–5
 - detachment from state jurisdiction 165–6
 - distinguished from public 181
 - legal documents constructing 165–6
 - political control 165
 - rise in status 164–5, 181–2
 - role in constitutionality 181
- privilegium de non appellando illimitatum* 129
- Proclamations, Act of (1539) 97
- property, rights of 163–4, 195–6, 233
 - in revolutionary France 208
- Prussia 129, 171–3
 - abolition of nobles' judicial powers 234
 - admission of nobility to state administration 130–1, 132
 - centralization of judicial authority 171–2
 - conflicting constitutional principles 236
 - Constitution (1848) 236–7, 246, 250–1
 - 1850 revisions 255
 - counterweights to absolute power 131–2
 - domination of German Confederation 250, 261, 263
 - emulation of absolutist methods 130–1
 - Estates 85
 - increased constitutional importance 235–7
 - increased international status 130–2
 - independence of provincial decrees 173
 - legal/economic reforms 233–6
 - limits of political unity 172–3
 - nobles' hostility to reform projects 235, 236
 - post-1848 developments 237
 - reactionary trends (post-1848) 255
 - religious tolerance 166
 - representative structures 234–5
 - rights-based legal code 163, 164–5, 172, 233
 - standing army 131
 - strengthening of state power 171–2
 - subordination to Reich 288
- Prynne, William 145
- PSI see Italian Socialist Party
- public law 11–12, 121
 - early developments 103–4, 108–9, 110, 157
 - in revolutionary France 217
 - role of rights 162
 - states failing to provide 117
- Public Order, Law of (Spain 1931) 319
- public rights 156
- Public Security Law (Italy 1926) 298
- Pufendorf, Samuel 166
- Putin, Vladimir 369–71
- Pütter, Johann Stephan 174
- Pym, John 147
- Quo Warranto legislation (England, 1278–94) 52
- Randolph, Edmund 203
- Rawls, John 7
- Rebuffi, Pierre 107
- Recess of 1653 (Brandenburg/Prussia) 130, 132, 171
- Reform Act 1832 (England) 238–9
- Reformatio Sigismundi 79
- Reformation 88–103
 - aftermath 103–10, 128–9
 - constitutional impact 88–9, 96–103

- power structures 95–6
- processes of state formation 94
- societies bypassed by 111–12
- regalia 41–2, 68
 - in Italian city-states 47–8
- regional assemblies
 - in France 82–3
 - in Holy Roman Empire 67–8, 100
 - in Russia 267–8
 - see also* Diets; Estates; parlements
- Reichskammergericht, establishment of 78–9
- religion, freedom of 166, 195
- Religion, Wars of (16th C) 106–9
- Rennes, parlement of 178
- representation
 - late-medieval increases 81–6
 - property qualifications 221
 - see also* electorate; inclusion;
 - parliaments; regional assemblies; names of countries/polities
- representation/free assembly, rights of 155
- Republicanism, ideals of
 - distinguished from democracy 204
 - expression in state constitutions 186, 191
 - ‘republican liberalism’ 270
 - theoretical expressions 151–2
- Restoration (England 1660) 146
- Restraint of Appeals, Act in (1533) 89–90, 97
- revolutionary constitutions 2, 241–2
- Richardson, H. G. 20–1
- Richelieu, Armand Jean du Plessis de, Cardinal 124–5
- Riddarhusordning (Sweden, 1626) 135
- rights
 - in American constitutional debates 182–91
 - legitimizing role 203–4
 - role in Federal Constitution 195–6
 - two types of 186
 - as basis of legal order 216–17, 218–19
 - as basis of revolutions 182 (see also American Revolution; French Revolution)
 - conflicts over 334
 - as defining characteristic of
 - constitutionality 168, 181, 219–20, 242, 247–8, 252, 310–11
 - in eastern European constitutions 328
 - in fascist constitutions 311–15, 319
 - erosion 325
 - selective application 316–17
 - guaranteed under English law 184–5
 - limitations 181, 240, 249–51, 361–2
 - and natural law 162–3
 - obstacles to promotion of 168
 - political 181
 - positive dimension 189–91
 - in post-war/post-fascist Western constitutions 335–7, 346, 352
 - pre-defined 192, 212
 - and public law 162
 - relationship with nationalism 248
 - relationship with rise of statehood 165–7, 195–6
 - religious 166
 - social function (implicit) 197–8
 - societies lacking system of 341–2
 - state as primary source of 209
 - transformation in corporate constitutions 310–11
 - triple function (in revolutionary constitutions) 193–4
 - universality 155, 161, 173, 240–1
 - see also* legitimacy; negative rights;
 - personal rights; private rights; public rights; names of countries/constitutional documents
- Rikstag Ordinance (Sweden, 1617) 135
- Robespierre, Maximilien 215–16
- Rocco, Alfredo 285, 297–8
- Rocco Law (1926) 313
- Roman law 78, 79
 - cited in medieval debates 35–6, 43–4, 47–9
- concept of rights 254
- in England 51
- in post-revolutionary Europe 234
- Reformation use of 90

- Roman law (cont.)
 - role in church law 26–7, 28–9, 31–2
 - support for imperial authority 40–1, 53–4, 66
 - teaching in universities 53
- Romania 360
- Roncaglia, Diet of (1158) 47
- Rotteck, Karl von 236
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 215
- royal courts, role in medieval
 - judiciaries 58, 73–4
- royal prerogative, doctrine of 105
 - challenges to 139–43
- Rudolph I, King 66
- Rural Code (France 1791) 207
- Russell, Conrad 141
- Russia (imperial) 267–70
 - conflict of monarchy and nobility 267
 - depleted financial/administrative capacities 268
 - geographical importance 286
 - Great Reforms (1861) 267–8
 - local assemblies 268–70 (see also zemstvos)
 - nobility, political status 267–8
 - parallels with other imperial states 269–70
 - (partial) constitutional revolutions (1905) 269
 - state administration: expansion 267–8; personal nature 269
 - see also* Russia (post-Soviet); Russian Revolution; Soviet Union
- Russia (post-Soviet) 355, 366–71
 - administrative weaknesses 368
 - benefits of constitutionalism 369–70
 - benefits of judicialization 368–9
 - collapse of state autonomy (early 1990s) 368
 - Constitution (1993) 366–7
 - Constitutional Court 367–70
 - powers 367, 368–9
 - dual judicial control 367
 - legal reforms 366–9, 370
 - limitation of state powers 369
 - problems of constitutional development 367–8
 - rule of law 370–1
- Russian Constitution (1918) 286
- Russian Revolution (1917) 282
- Sack, Johann August 233
- Saint Germain, Édité de (1641) 125
- Salandra, Antonio 297
- Salazar, António de Oliveira 302–3, 316–18, 342, 345, 346, 348, 349
- Savigny, Friedrich Carl von 2, 9, 233
- Savonarola, Girolamo 80
- Savoy 164
- Saxony
 - 1831 Constitution 237
 - regional representation 100
- Sayles, G. O. 20–1
- Schelsky, Helmut 4
- Scheppele, Kim Lane 5
- Schleicher, Kurt von 306
- Schmerling, Anton von 256
- Schmitt, Carl 3
- Schumpeter, Joseph 14
- Sciulli, David 5
- Scotland, Enlightenment philosophy 2
- Second Empire (France 1851–70) 250, 254–5, 269
 - constraints on executive power 254
- Second Republic (France 1848–51) 242–3
 - factional conflicts 243
 - founding principles 242–3
 - weakening of rights system 243
- separation of powers, doctrine of
 - in American constitutions 188–9
 - in Eastern Europe 357–8
 - medieval prefigurings 46
 - in modern Germany 337
 - in modern Spain 354
 - post-Reformation emergence 150
 - in (post-)revolutionary France 210–11, 223–4
 - in UK constitutional thinking 238
 - see also under names of countries*
- Seth, Rutger von 170
- Settlement, Act of (England 1701) 154

- Seyssel, Claude de 83
 Sicily, Kingdom of 47–8
 centralization of power 42–3
 nineteenth-century constitutions 246
Las Siete Partidas (Castile legal code) 57, 60
 Sieyès, Emmanuel-Joseph, Abbé 212, 213, 216, 222, 223–4, 225, 227
 Sigismund I, Emperor 79
 Sinzheimer, Hugo 288
 Six Edicts (France 1770s) 176–7
 Skocpol, Theda 17
 Smith, Adam 2
 Smith, Thomas 98
 Social Democratic Party (Germany) 286–7, 288, 305, 336 socialists, election to office 271 see also Italian Socialist Party society/ies defining characteristics 17
 homogenization 241 internal conflicts, state regulation 292–4 as sources of constitutional development 372–3 transformative processes 36–7, 75–6, 157, 218 see also power, political; states sociology ‘classical’ 3, 370–1 emergence as academic discipline 1–2
 see also constitutional sociology
Songe du Vergier (anon., 1370s) 54 sovereignty see national sovereignty; parliament; popular sovereignty
 Soviet Union 327–8
 collapse (1991) 366
 Constitution (1977), 176
 amendments 363
 Constitutional Supervision Committee 364 depoliticization of criminal law 364 economic reforms 364–5 influence on other East European constitutions 355–6 normative principles 365–6 over-concentration of power, results of 362, 364 reform of legal system 363–4 removal from political sphere 363–4 tax reforms 365 transition to democracy 362–6
 Spain
 ‘absolutist’ regime 112–17, 123, 127
 constitutional elements 116–17
 influence in other states 130
 see also monarchy below
 aftermath of First World War 283 attempted coup (1981) 351
 Constitution (1876) 317
 Constitution (1978) 352–4
 Constitutional Court 353–4 constitutional transition (1970s) 347, 351–5, 361
 benefits 354–5
 labour reforms 352
 legal reforms 352–4
 recognition of political rights 352–3 reduction of state responsibilities 354 corporatist constitutionalism 317–18 disputes between state and regions 351; resolution 354
 economic problems 115
 fascist regime 318–21 administrative flaws 348–9 criminalization of dissent 350 labour/economic legislation 319–20
 labour law 350–1 limits on economic responsibilities 348 military support 348 pluralism 349
 politicization of criminal law 350–1
 relationship with church 349 selective liberalization 348 totality of state control 347–8

- Spain (cont.)
 imperial era/constitution 264–5, 272 residues of aristocratic power 264 lapse into feudalism 115 legal system codification 57
 overstretching under dictatorship 350–1 specialized tribunals 350
 monarchy
 checks on power 116, 125 conflicts with nobility 114
 constitutionalization 230–1 crisis (C17–18) 115–16 ‘privatization’ 114, 128 role in medieval proto-state 56 nineteenth-century developments 230–1, 256
 party politics 354
 political apparatus 114–15
 processes of state formation 55–6 representational systems 71, 73–4;
 curtailment 112–14
 Second Republic/Constitution
 (1931) 318–19
 union activism 318
 weaknesses of state 77, 115–16, 117 under dictatorship 347–51 see also Aragon; Cadiz, Constitution of; Castile(-León); León
 Sparre, Erik 134–5
 Spirito, Ugo 312
 St German, Christopher 90
 Stalin, Joseph 355
 Stammer, Otto 340
 Stamp Act (UK 1765) 183–4
Ständestaat (German political order)
 84–5
 Nazi revival 323, 324
 state constitutions (US) 182–3, 186, 190
 expressions of popular sovereignty 191–3 judicial elements 198 relationship with federal constitution 203, 204
 role of rights 193–4
 second wave (1790s) 192
 state(s) assumption/generation of power (post-Reformation) 95–6 authority over church 90–1 consolidation of power 155–6, 164–5, 252, 281–2 constitutional limitation of power 291–2 corporate/legal personality 39, 102–3, 152 defining characteristics 74–5, 103–4, 159, 325 density of governance, increase in 73–4 destabilizing influences 166–7 differentiation from other social spheres 159, 181
 enlargement (post-First World War) 292–3 expansion of powers (C17) 146–8 fragmentation (in early modern period) 110–11
 functions 11–12
 fundamental/natural law models 110 identification with economy 133 increased need for law 37–8 increasing interpenetration with society 276 increasing structural integrity 257 independence of personal influence 291–2 integration of private groups 159 interaction with private actors 276 lacking fully evolved rights systems 341–2 legitimate autonomy (under natural law) 104
 limitation of issues dealt with by 159 need for judicial regulation 291–2 obligation to justify actions 35–6 obstructions to modernization 168 premature process of transition 266, 292–3 processes of formation 19, 40–56, 61–76, 108–9, 158–9, 167

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

INDEX

449

- role of law 56–61
 - as public entity 156, 239–40
 - representative/consultative
 - functions 74–6
 - separation from church 38–9, 88, 333
 - sovereignty, moves towards 36, 55, 92–3
 - strengthening via rights 167
 - unitary form, tightening of 101–3, 133
 - varying efficiency of models 111
 - waning of power (late-medieval) 77
 - weakness 166–7, 168, 265–7, 325–6, 374, 375
- States-General (Netherlands) 86, 93, 137–8
- Status of Judges, Law on (USSR 1989) 363–4
- statutes, as foundation of authority 49
 - increasing reliance on 101–3
- Stein, Heinrich Friedrich Karl
 - Reichsfreiherr vom und zum 233
- Stuart dynasty, challenges to 139–43
- Submission of Clergy, Act of (1534) 97
- Supremacy, Act of (1534) 97–8, 139
- Supremacy, Act of (1558) 97–8
- Supreme Court (US) 198–203
 - composition 199
 - as guardian of legitimacy 200–3
 - institution 198
 - strengthening of federal state 199–200, 204
- Svarez, Carl Gottlieb 172, 173
- Sweden
 - balancing of noble and non-noble interests 136
 - civil service 136
 - consolidation of state 136–7
 - Constitution (1719–20) 169–70
 - abandonment 170
 - constitutional legislation 135
 - constitutional treatment of war 136
 - ‘early classical’ constitution 134–7
 - flaws 135–6
 - eighteenth-century regime 168–71
 - oligarchical nature 170
 - extensions of monarchical power 128, 135–6
- imperial expansion 136
- medieval Land Law 60
- parliamentary apparatus 135
- party politics 170
- Reformation 91, 96–7
- representative system 169–70
- rule of Norway 220
- tax exemptions 136
- Syndical Law (Italy 1926) see Rocco
- Law
- syndicalism 284–5, 298
- taxation
 - agreement of taxed, calls for 183–4
 - coercive 140–1
 - colonial 183–4
 - opposition to 183–4
 - early modern
 - England 148–50
 - France 118–19, 121–2
 - impact of First World War 275
 - late nineteenth century: Germany 263
 - medieval 22
 - England 69–70
 - France 72
 - (post-)revolutionary
 - France 209
 - United States 196
 - Soviet Union 365
 - wartime 275
- Teubner, Gunther 5
- Third Republic (France 1870–1940) 269–72
 - depersonalization of government 271–2
 - influence in other areas 300
 - labour law 271
 - impact of First World War 277–8
 - see also* French Constitution (1875)
- Thirty Years War (1618–48) 129–30
- Thompson, I. A. A. 116
- Thouret, Jacques-Guillaume 210
- Tilly, Charles 14, 158
- Toleration, Act of (England 1689) 166
- Tolerance, Edict of (Prussia 1685) 166
- Tönnies, Ferdinand 3

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

450

INDEX

- Tory party (England) 161
- Touching the Fundamental Lawes* (anon., 1643) 145
- Townshend Act (UK 1767) 183
- Trade Union Act (UK 1913) 274
- trade unions
 - abolition 299, 314, 323
 - access to state power 284–5, 287, 288, 322
 - activism 318
 - constitutional recognition 352
 - impact of First World War 278–9
 - see also* syndicalism
- trasformismo* (Italian system of governance) 260–1, 340
- abandonment 284
- good points 261
- reversion to 296
- Treason Act (England 1534) 97
- Tribunal de Cassation (France 1790) 217
- Triennial Act (England 1664) 146
- Tübingen, Treaty of (1514) 85
- Tudor dynasty 77, 92–3
- Turgot, Anne-Robert-Jacques, Baron de Laune 176–7, 179, 206–7, 214
- unemployment, in wake of
 - demobilization 282
- unification, nineteenth-century
 - movements/processes 241–2, 279
 - see also* Germany; Italy
- Union Treaty (Dutch Republic 1579) 137, 138
- United Kingdom 237–9
 - emergency laws (wartime) 281
 - imperial-age constitution 270, 272–4
 - labour law 273
 - impact of First World War 278
 - party-politics 272–4, 282–3
 - productivity (in First World War) 275
 - wartime expenditure 275
- United States 19
 - attitude to judicial power 210
 - balance of republican and liberal ideas 215
 - checks on unregulated state authority 187–8
 - constitutions/constitutional debates 182–205
 - as model for European systems 206, 212–13, 214, 216, 217
 - constructions of statehood 195–6
 - founding principles 201–3
 - opposition to English system 201, 205
 - depoliticization of state 202–3, 205
 - division of competence (federal/state) 199–200
 - influence in post-war Europe 329, 331, 335
 - limitation on legislative power 191–3
 - party political conflicts 194–5, 199, 201
 - separation of political authority from colonial legal system 186–7
 - strength of federal state 196–8
 - role of Supreme Court in 199–200
 - see also* America (colonial); American Revolution; Federal Constitution; state constitutions; Supreme Court
- universal (male) suffrage 243, 261, 276–7, 330
- USSR see Soviet Union
- Vatican Council II 349
- Venice, political structure 80
- Vermont, 222
 - Constitution 188, 192
- Vindiciae contra Tyrannos* (anon., 1579) 107–8
- violence
 - uncontrolled in post-war societies 293
- Virginia Declaration of Rights (1776) 184–5, 196
- Voltaire (François-Marie Arouet) 179

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-61056-9 - A Sociology of Constitutions: Constitutions and State Legitimacy in Historical-Sociological Perspective

Chris Thornhill

Index

More information

INDEX

451

- Waldeck-Rousseau, Pierre 271
- Walesa, Lech 358
- Wall Street Crash (1929) 304, 322
- Wars of the Roses (England 1461–85)
77, 83
- Weber, Max 1, 3, 14, 263, 289
- Weber, Werner 340
- Weimar Republic
 - budgetary legislation 303–4
 - collapse 303–5, 322
 - concentration of power in presidential cabinets 304
 - Constitution (1919) 286–90, 319, 321–2, 337–8
 - Nazi suspension 307
 - weakening 304
 - constitutional theory 3, 287, 319,
324–5, 336
 - construction of abstract/unified state 288–9
 - currency inflation 303
 - influence in modern Germany 335
 - labour law 286–8
 - presidential government (1930–3) 302–3
 - remedying of problems 335
 - role of military 304
 - social violence 294
 - welfare state/policies
 - in modern Germany 336–7
 - in Weimar Republic 287, 290, 322, 323–4
- Wellington, Arthur Wellesley, 1st
Duke of 239
- Westminster
 - Provisions of (1259) 70
 - Statute of (1275) 52
 - Statute of (1285) 52
- Westphalia, Treaty of (1648) 166
- Whig party (England) 161, 273
- Whitelocke, James 141
- William III of England 146
- Wittenberger Gutachten* (1538) 91
- Worms, Concordat of (1122) 34
- Württemberg 85
 - 1819 Constitution 231–2
 - Duke's negotiations with estates 174
- Yeltsin, Boris 366, 367, 370
- Yugoslavia, Constitutional Courts 359
- Zangara, Vincenzo 312
- zemstvos* (Russian local assemblies)
268–70
- Zemstvo Congress (1904) 269