Animals with Talent

Can animals think? Are they artistic? Are they musical? Here are two stories about animals with special talents:

In Thailand, there's a group of very interesting elephants. These elephants are good at drawing. They can also paint. Their pictures are beautiful and interesting.

People look at the pictures and say, "These elephants are really artistic and smart." You can see the pictures in special shops and on the Internet.

Nora is a beautiful grey cat, but she isn't a typical cat. She can play the piano! Nora's owner, Betsy, is a music teacher. There are two pianos in Betsy's living room. Nora plays both. Nora likes the pianos a lot. She likes playing the piano with Betsy's students. Her music is very nice.

Nora is friendly – and famous, too. There's a video about Nora on the Internet, and she's got a website. There are articles about Nora in newspapers, too.

Are there any amazing animals in your town?
