

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-62638-6 - The Sources of English Literature: A Bibliographical Guide for Students: Sandars Lectures 1926

Arundell Esdaile

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

	page
Introduction	3
The need of bibliography	5
World bibliography	10
Manuscripts	14
General bibliographies	20
General catalogues of great libraries	25
Booksellers' and collectors' guides	30
Book-trade lists of current books	32
Works on different periods	39
Lists of the products of various localities: Scotland, 59; Ireland, 61; English towns and counties, 62; Wales, 69
Lists of works in particular literary forms: drama, 70; the novel, 78; translations, 81; character-books, 81; law, 81; sciences, 82; ballads, 83; newspapers, 85
Lists of the works of members of religious bodies	86
Bibliographies of single authors	88
Dictionaries of anonyma and pseudonyma	97
Catalogues of private libraries to 1887	99
Indexes of book-sales	112
Some recent private libraries	113
Lists of bibliographies of English literature	120
Index	123