

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-62662-1 - Commercial Relations of England and Scotland 1603–1707

Theodora Keith

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

CHAP.	PAGE
INTRODUCTION	xvii
 I. UNION OF 1603.
a. CONDITION OF TRADE AT THE TIME OF THE UNION	1
Commodities imported and exported, 1–2. Organisation of trade, 2–4. Trade with France, 4–5; Low Countries, 5–6; Baltic, 6; Spain, 7; England, 8.
b. NEGOTIATIONS FOR COMMERCIAL UNION	9
Desire of James for Union, 9. Clauses of Union treaty dealing with commerce, 10–11. English opposition, 11–13. Scottish privileges in France, 13–14. Answers to English objections, 14. Results of negotiations, 15. Restrictions on trade between England and Scotland, 1613–40, 16–19.
 II. 1603–1650.
a. INDUSTRY IN SCOTLAND	20
Encouragement by king and council, 20–1. Cloth manufacture, 21–3. Regulation of wool supply, 23–4. Export of coal, 25. Tanning industry, 26. New Industries: linen, soap, sugar, glass, 27–8. Salt manufacture, 28. Fishing, 29–31. Decrease of prosperity, 1640–50, 32.
b. TRADE WITH ENGLAND	32
Scottish trade hindered by English wars, 32–3. James's navigation policy in England and Scotland, 34–5. Intercourse with England, 35–7. Wool trade, 37–9. Coal trade, 39. Effect of Bishops' wars on trade, 39–40. Greenland fishing and English Muscovy Company, 40–1.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-62662-1 - Commercial Relations of England and Scotland 1603–1707

Theodora Keith

Table of Contents

More information

xiv		CONTENTS
CHAP.		PAGE
	Colonisation and Trade in America	42
	Plantation of Nova Scotia, 42–3. Conflict with French, 44. Burnett's licence to trade with Virginia, 45.
	Colonisation in Ireland	46
	Plantation of Ulster, 46. Trade with settlers, 47.
	c. TRADE WITH FRANCE, HOLLAND, ETC.	47
	Trade with France, 47–9. Effect of English war with Spain on Scottish trade with the Low Countries and Spain, 50. Trade with Portugal, 50. Baltic trade, 51. Scots settlers and soldiers in Germany, 51–4.
III.	1650–1660	55
	Union of England and Scotland under Commonwealth, 55–6. Condition of country, 56–7. Imposition of taxation, 58. Revenue and expenses of Scotland, 59. New customs tariff, 60. Prohibitions of export, 61–2. Scottish import of salt into England, 62–4. Tax on coal, 64–5. Trade with England, 65. Effect of the Union on foreign trade, 65–6. Losses of ships during civil war, 66–8. Hindrance to trade through Dutch and Spanish wars, 69–70. Results of Union, 70.
IV.	1660–1707.
	SCOTTISH ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	71
	a. INDUSTRY	72
	State of country at Restoration, 72–3. Encouragement of industry by protection, 73–4. Council of Trade established, 74. Companies established to promote industry, 74–5. Privileges of companies, 75. Protection against English competition, 75–6. Poverty of country, 76. Progress in Glasgow, 76–7. Fishing Company established, 77. Contemporary account of Scotland, 78. Principal exports, 78. Export of linen to England, 78. Act of 1681 for encouraging industry, 79–80. New companies founded and capital obtained, 80. Legislation regarding export and import of wool and cloth, 80–2. Cloth manufacture, 82–4. Linen manufacture, 84–5. Sugar manufacture, 85. Fishing, 85–6. Bank of Scotland, 86. Condition of country at beginning of eighteenth century, 86–7.
	b. TRADE WITH ENGLAND	87
	End of commercial Union, 87–9. English restrictions on Scottish trade, 89. Scottish retaliation, 90–1. Nego-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-62662-1 - Commercial Relations of England and Scotland 1603–1707

Theodora Keith

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

XV

CHAP.		PAGE
	tiations for freedom of trade, 1667, 91–3. Negotiations for complete Union, 1669, 93–4. Failure of both, 94. Scottish exports to England: cattle, 95–7; linen, 97–8; salt, 98–101. English exports to Scotland, 101. Smuggling trade in wool, 102. Scottish export of English wool to Continent, 103–9.
c.	TRADE WITH IRELAND	109
d.	TRADE WITH THE PLANTATIONS	111
	Navigation Acts, 111–5. Reasons for excluding Scots from Plantation trade, 113–4. Endeavours to except the Scots from restrictions of the Acts, 116. Negotiations for commercial Union, 116. Licences for Scottish trade, 116–7. Illicit trade between Scotland and the Plantations, 118–9. Methods of smugglers, 120–1. Attempts at prevention, 121–2. Amount of trade, 123–5. Complaints of Scottish trade, 125–6. More stringent enforcement of Acts after 1695, 126–7. Continuance of trade, 127–8.
e.	SETTLEMENT IN AMERICA	128
	Transportation of prisoners under Commonwealth, 128–9. Value of Scots settlers, 129. Transportation of vagabonds, etc., 130–1. Scottish settlement in New Jersey, 131–4. Trouble with New York, 135. Differences between Scottish and English settlers, 135–7. Scottish settlement in Carolina, 137. Its failure, 138. Question of naturalisation of Scots in Plantations, 138–140.
f.	TRADE WITH FRANCE	140
	Character of Scottish trade, 1660–1707, 140–1. Disadvantages of English connection, 141–3. Adoption of more independent policy, 143. Increase of Scots shipping, 144–5. Relations of England, Scotland and France, 145. French impositions on Scottish trade, 146–8. Scottish retaliation, 149–50. Result of prohibition of import of wine, 150. Prohibition removed, 150–1. Amount of trade between Scotland and France, 151–3. English attempts to prevent the trade, 153–4. Sufferings of Scottish merchants through French wars, 155–6.
g.	TRADE WITH HOLLAND, ETC.	156
	Effect of Dutch wars on Scottish trade, 156–7. Staple port removed to Dort, 1667, 157–8. Return to Campvere, 158. Commodities exported to Holland, 158–9. Trade with Baltic ports, 160. Scots and English merchants at Hamburg, 161. Scots in the Mediterranean, 161. Dangers to shipping, 161–2.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-62662-1 - Commercial Relations of England and Scotland 1603–1707

Theodora Keith

Table of Contents

More information

xvi

CONTENTS

CHAP.	PAGE
V. THE COMPANY OF SCOTLAND TRADING TO AFRICA AND THE INDIES	163
Scottish need for markets, 163–4. “Act for Encouraging of Forraigne Trade,” 164. English East India trade, 164–6. Paterson’s schemes, 166–7. “Act for a company trading to Affrica and the Indies,” 167–8. Influence of English merchants in company, 168–9. Meetings in London, 169–70. Attention of English Parliament directed to company, 170–2. Agitation against it, by English East India Company and Plantation officials, 172–5. Effect of English opposition in Scotland, 175. Subscription of capital, 175. Attempts to raise capital in Amsterdam and Hamburg, 176. Opposition of English Resident in Hamburg, 176. Scheme for settlement on Isthmus of Panama, 177–8. First expedition, 178. Its ill-success, 178–9. Proclamations in English colonies against settlers, 178–9. Second and third expeditions, 179. Capitulation of settlers to Spaniards, 179. Further alarm in English Parliament, 180. Scottish indignation at ruin of company, 181. Results of its failure, 182.
VI. THE UNION	183
Necessity for Union, 183–4. Pamphlets on subject, 184–6. Negotiations of 1702–3, 186–7. Demands of Scottish Commissioners, 187. Results, 187. Scottish Parliament of 1704, 187. Question of Succession, 187–8. Acts allowing import of French wines and export of wool, 189. Act of Peace and War, 190. English alarm at Scottish Acts, 190. Act of Security, 190. Meeting of English Parliament, October, 1704, and debate on Scottish affairs, 191. “Act for...securing the Kingdom of England,” 191–2. Seizure of the Worcester, 192–3. Meeting of Scottish Parliament, 1705, 194. “Act for a treaty with England,” 194. Proposals of Commissioners, 195. Conditions of treaty, 195. Land-tax, Customs and Excise, 195–6. The Equivalent, 196. Discussion on salt-tax, 196. Position of African Company, 197. Scottish shipping, 197–8. Scottish opposition to treaty, 198. Concessions made, 199–200. Passing of Act by Scottish and English Parliaments, 200. Results of Union, 201. Import of French wines into England from Scotland, 201–3. New fiscal regulations, 203–4. Effects of Union on industry, 205.
BIBLIOGRAPHY	207