

INDEX

- Agra and Masterman, 340, 344 agriculture and pastoral activity influence of rising interest rates, 404 processing products, 209 and river transport, 305–6 share of workforce, 194, 196
 American Civil War and demand for British capital, 336 effect on wool prices, 96 Angas, G. F. damage to roads by wheeled traffic, 304 n.
 artesian water
 effect on carrying capacity of land, 79–80 stimulus to government investment, 79 assets, social and productive, 4, 50–3 Australasian Agency and Baking Corporation founded, 142 and Richard Goldsbrough, 149 use of overdrafts, 150 Australasian Mortgage and Agency Co.
 importance, 1889–90, 142
 debentures and deposits, 1864–91, 152
 mortgage advances, 1880–91, 144
 paid-up capital, 1864–91, 151
 Australian Agricultural Co., 74–5, 82, 88, 94, 96, 103
 fencing, 74, 82
 property purchases, 103 Warrah, 74, 81–2, 95
 washpool, 76–7, 88–9
 Australian Estates Ltd.
 see Union Mortgage and Agency Co.
 Australian Joint Stock Bank advances on land, 128 Australian Mortgage (Mercantile) Land and Finance Co. and British funds, 153 clients' debts, 166 debentures and deposits, 152
 formed, 129
 importance in 1880, 142 increasing interest obligations limit advances, 439 interest rates, 170–1 lending arrangements, 137
 mortgage advances, 144
 paid-up capital, 151, 154
 records of Paddington Station, 91 reduced advances in 'seventies, 138–40 registered mortgages, 134–5 station debts, 132
 use bank overdrafts, 150 balance of payments, 408 bank interest (deposits) and building societies, 262–3 competition in, 157–8, 262 effects of wool prices, 263 on British deposits, 171 Bank of New South Wales advances on the security of land, 127
 interest rates, 171
 paid-up capital, 1868–80, 155
 registration of mortgages, 134, 137, 138
 and Richard Goldsbrough, 93 n., 132 banks and pastoral agencies advances in dryer areas, 138–9, 141 attempt to restrain clients, 170–1, 434–5 attitude to borrowers, 170, 172 decline in business in 'seventies, 139–40 direct intervention on stations, 440–1 direct mortgage contracts, 130 financial reconstruction, 439–40 foreclosures, 437–8
 government use of banks, 145, 146 growth of pastoral industry, 126–7 in 'fifties, 128 in Melbourne, Sydney, 129–30 increase control of pastoralists, 435–6 indirect pastoral advances, 103, 150 linked with banking, wool selling, pastoral finance, 133
 mortgage advances, 144
 non-banking companies, 142–3 non-pastoral activities, 146–7 overvaluation of station assets, 436 policy on registration of mortgages, 137–8 registration as lessees of Crown Land, 134–5 relative shares of business, 141, 143–5 right to accept land as security, 127–8 short-term debentures, 438 source of pastoral finance, 126–147 specialisation in wool, 128, 133 suspensions, 438–9
 use of wool lien, stock mortgage, 126, 137 British capital anxiety of creditors in 'nineties, 437–8 approach through local institutions, 298 attracted by colonial government investment, 335–6 attracted to banks by rise in deposit rates, 263

- British capital (cont.)
 - causes fall in interest advance rates, 285
 - and conversion of consols, 160
 - and debenture issues, 153-4, 159
 - deposits in Australian banks, 160-2
 - effects on Victorian railway construction, 330
 - effects on railways, 356-7
 - for Crown Land purchase, 349
 - in financing Melbourne building boom, 286
 - in government investment, 292
 - in industry, 162-3
 - in urban real estate, 163-5, 245, 424
 - inflow, 103, 108
 - influence on mortgage interest, 171
 - less interest in colonial securities, 447-8
 - role in Australian economic growth, 5-6
 - small investors, 58, 153
 - stimulates speculative building, 272-3
 - supply, 350-1
 - turned from America to colonies, 334-5
 - British economy, 5
 - budget surpluses
 - in public investment, 347
 - deficits and surpluses by colonies, 348
 - relation to overseas borrowing, 381
 - balance of payments, 436
 - building companies
 - see* land, building and investment companies
 - building costs, 276, 277, 278, 280-1
 - building industry
 - change business organisation, 211-12
 - contrast rural, urban building, 206, 208, 213
 - effect on manufacturing, 207-8
 - effect on urbanisation, 228-9
 - growth, 269-73
 - import materials, 269
 - influence on general level of economy, 227
 - long cycle, 225-7
 - materials, 219-21, 267
 - materials production, 206, 208
 - owner-building and commercial building, 211, 267, 268, 269, 272-3
 - share of workforce, 1891, 196
 - source of funds, 212
 - building materials
 - conversion from temporary to permanent style, 220
 - definition permanent and temporary dwellings, 219
 - in relation to imports and residential investment, 272
 - increase in commercially produced materials, 269-72
 - influence of imports on Australian economic growth, 25-6
 - and naturally available materials, 235, 267-8
 - overseas imports, 271-2
 - production Victoria and N.S.W., 270, 272
 - production and imports, 273
 - relative importance as manufacture, 204-5
 - relative importance timber, brick and stone, 220-1
 - statistics, 203-4
 - types dwelling materials, 1861-1901, 220
 - Victorian and N.S.W. overseas imports, 26
 - building societies
 - as landlords, 431-2
 - banking activities, 258-9
 - bank overdrafts to, 258
 - changing advance policy, 260-1, 262
 - compete with banks for deposits, 163, 164, 256-8, 263, 431
 - creditors Australian, 429
 - decline in Victoria, 427
 - deposits in building societies, savings and commercial banks, 1874-92, 256
 - early organisation, 254
 - effect on demand for materials, 208
 - failures, 429-30
 - finance of speculative builders, 260-1, 264
 - history: South Australia, 247-8; N.S.W., 249-51, 253; Queensland, 254; Victoria, 248-9
 - in residential finance, 212, 265
 - incorporation, 246-7, 249-53 n., 254, 259
 - interest in real estate, 264
 - interest rates, 262-3
 - liabilities, 258
 - links with commercial banks, 245, 246 n.
 - and mortgage banks, 265
 - permanent societies, 255-6
 - reconstruction, 430-1
 - relative importance in colonies, 247
 - short-term loans, 258
 - sources of funds, 257, 424, 431
 - stimulus to other financial institutions, 212
 - terminating societies, 254-5
- Cadell
- Murray River shipping, 301, 311, 313 n.
 - Victorian and N.S.W. rivalry in Riverina, 364
- capital formation
- composition of, 50-2
 - and gross domestic product, 43, 47-8

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

INDEX

463

- capital formation (cont.)
 - productive, 51
 - rate of growth, 41–3
 - social, 51
- capital scarcity, 39–41
- capital–labour ratio in manufacturing, 206, 207, 209–10
- cattle
 - factor in sheep expansion, 69
 - fencing, 75
- Childers
 - conversion consols, 336 n.
 - flotation Victorian loan, 342
- Chinese in Australia, 235 n.
- Clarke, Andrew
 - comments on local labour supply, 391
 - report on railways, 362 n.
- climate
 - drought, 100, 173–4, 179, 403, 435, 440
 - drought indexes, output, flocks, 177
 - effect on flock increases second half 'eighties, 108–9
 - favourable conditions, 1860–92, 86–7
 - and sheep distribution, 63, 69
- Clough, Richard, 128
- coal mining
 - assisted by government railway investment, 401
- Coghlan, T. A.
 - and immigration and housing, 268, 268 n.
 - and marriage rate, 236 n.
 - road mileage, N.S.W., 314, 314 n.
 - roads, 318
 - views on: fencing, 57, 176; labour supply, 390, railways, 357; ratio Australian and British deposits, 162 n.
- Cohen, Hon. Henry E.
 - N.S.W. railway to Riverina, 367–8
- collective bargaining
 - see* trade unions
- colonial socialism, 1, 5, 291 ff.
- Commercial Banking Co. Sydney
 - importance 1889–90, 142
 - paid-up capital, 1868–80, 155
- commercial banks
 - association with building societies, 245, 245 n., 246
 - commercial banks, 1874–92, 256
 - deposits affected by building societies, 256–8
 - deposits, Victorian building societies, savings and commercial banks, 1874–92, 256
 - interest rates, 262–3
 - responsibility for government credit, 384–5
 - role in residential finance, 245
 - use of British deposits, 256
- communication
 - development restricted by finance, 341
 - effect of intercolonial rivalry, 293, 296
 - effect on economic growth, 292–3
 - government new capital formation, 294–5
 - importance in government capital formation, 291
 - methods finance, 345–9
 - rivers, 293, 295–6
 - role of government, 291
 - situation 1850, 299–300
- company registration, 413
- Conoble Co.
 - pastoral partnership, 137
- consols-conversion, 160, 336
- contract builders
 - importance of, 267, 268–9
 - residential, pastoral, government, 268
- Cooke, Jay, 335
- Cunningham, Hastings
 - absorbed by Australasian Mortgage and Agency Co., 142
 - established, 129
- customs revenue
 - statistics, 346
- customs taxation
 - see* import duties
- Dalgety
 - deposits and debentures, 1864–91, 152
 - enters debenture field, 155
 - foreclosures, 437
 - importance, 1889–90, 143
 - incorporated, 142
 - interest obligations limit advances, 439
 - mortgage advances, 1880–91, 144
 - paid-up capital, 1864–91, 151, 150
 - and Richard Goldsbrough, 149 n.
 - wool merchant, 128
- Dangar meat project, 98–9
- Darbyshire, 353
- Davenports
 - property speculation, 102–3
 - spread interests, 130
 - urban–rural partnerships, 136–7
- Deakin
 - provision work for unemployed, 391
- debentures
 - alternatives to bank deposits, 154
 - availability of, 155
 - and deposits of pastoral companies, 152
 - government, 340, 342–5, 344
 - and government inscribed stock, 350
 - increase in 'eighties, 154–5
 - interest rates on, 171, 345
 - local attempt to finance communication, 341

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

464

INDEX

- debentures (cont.)
 - of incorporated non-banking companies, 153–5
 - reasons for use, 153
 - and share capital, 150
 - taken by British investors, 159
- demography
 - see* population
- dependent population
 - change in ratio to breadwinners, 198–200
 - effect of migration and marriage, 198
 - influence on urbanisation, 199–200
 - rate increase country, city compared, 182–3
 - ratio to breadwinners in Victoria, N.S.W. South Australia, Queensland, 199
- deposits
 - change to interest-bearing deposits, 156–7
 - collection British funds by Australian banks, 160–2
 - commercial banks, 156
 - competition non-banking organisations, 157
 - current account, 156
 - in Australian banks, 156
 - interest rates, 171
 - of colonial governments, 160
 - statistics, 161
- Dibbs, G.
 - labour supply, 390–1
 - subscribers to Australian government securities, 389
 - use Crown land sales to finance government capital formation, 349, 380
- dingo
 - eradication and fencing, 92
- domestic product
 - changing composition of, 195–7
 - factors checking growth, 1861–4, 279
 - importance manufacturing, 196–7
 - relation to decline in building, 427
 - relation to residential investment, 275, 279, 281–2
 - shares in, 195
- Donaldson, Hon. Stuart
 - intercolonial smuggling, 363
- drought
 - effect on overstocked pastures, 435, 440
 - index of, 177
 - nullifies advantage of railways, 403
 - sheep losses, 179, 435
- Durack family (Queensland), 103
- Echuca
 - comparison freight charges rail and river, 402
 - importance of river traffic, 311
 - finance for rail link, 341
 - rail link with Melbourne, 330–1, 364
 - tonnage of river ships, 312
- economic stability, 10
- economic depression, 407–12
- Elder, Thomas
 - business with Riverina, 129
 - diversion resources to Western N.S.W. and Queensland, 130
 - pastoral finance, 128
- Elsinora Station
 - debt, 166
 - fencing, 79
- English, Scottish and Australian Bank paid-up capital, 1868–80, 155
- entrepreneurship
 - failure in private railways, 303
 - special skills needed, 293
- Ercildoune
 - fencing, 72 n.
 - wash plant and leaflet, 72, plates I–III
 - washpool, 95
- Evora Station
 - fencing cost, 84
 - report, 78
- export prices
 - prices, wage-rates, and immigration, 396
- exports
 - components, 30, 31–3, 35–6, 37–8
 - to Britain, 29
- Federal Bank
 - associated Federal Building Society, 245 n.
- fencing
 - advantages, 57, 93
 - affected by size of stations, 79
 - by station labour, 81
 - effect in dry areas, 94
 - encouraged by high prices in 'seventies, 97
 - for enclosure, 73
 - in 1870, 72
 - needed to maintain stock, 97
 - Paddington Station, 91
 - station plans, plates IV–VIII
 - techniques, 73–5
 - techniques and experiences Victoria and N.S.W., 93, 94
 - to form station, 78
 - valuation, 60, 68
 - wire netting against rabbits, 80, 440
 - see also* paddock system
- financiers unincorporated
 - as intermediaries for banks, 150
 - history of, 130, 149–50
 - importance in early pastoral finance, 158
 - overdrafts, 150
 - see also* Richard Goldsbrough, Thomas Mort, Wilsons, Morphetts, Davenports

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

INDEX

465

- foreign technicians (railways)
 - reasons for control railways, 352–3
 - transmit British traditions, 354–5
- Forlonge, William
 - Victorian ambitions in Riverina, 306 n.
- freight charges
 - comparison, rail and river, 402
 - encourage more efficient transport to gold fields, 301
 - limit use non-local building material, 235
- friendly societies (and benevolent institutions)
 - role in residential finance, 245
- gold mining
 - cheaper transport, 301, 303
 - effects on Port Melbourne, 300
 - expansion small ports, 300–1
 - influence on growth, 32, 35, 33, 39, 215–16, 299–305
- Goldsbrough, Richard
 - amalgamation Australian Agency and Banking Co., 142
 - association Thomas Mort, 130
 - decline business early 'seventies, 139–40
 - deposits and debentures, 1864–91, 152
 - dispute with Bank of N.S.W., 132, 137
 - formalised lending arrangements, 137
 - methods of finance, 131–2
 - paid-up capital, 1864–91, 151
 - registration of mortgages, 134–5
 - summary of career, 149
 - use overdrafts, 149–150
 - wool merchant, 111, 128
- Goldsbrough, Mort and Co.
 - extent clients' debts, 166–7
 - importance 1889–90, 143
 - mortgage advances, 1880–91, 144
 - pressure British creditors, 437
 - reconstruction, 438
 - reliance on short term debentures, 438
 - report artesian water, 80
 - union Goldsbrough and Mort, 130
 - water conservation, 80
- government capital formation
 - and budget surpluses, 346–7
 - change to treasury bills, 448–9
 - and communication, 291, 292
 - components of, 294–5
 - contraction N.S.W., Queensland, Victoria, 433–5
 - contribution to economic growth, 5–6, 399–404
 - and Crown Land sales, 298
 - and customs taxation, 378
 - decline of roads, 296
 - decreasing interest of British investors, 448
 - and developmental gain, 345
 - effect on balance of payments, 442
 - effect on labour supply, 394
 - effect on local industry, 400–401
 - effect on private sector, 373–5, 399–404
 - finance, 337–51
 - fixed interest obligations, 442
 - and foreign borrowing, 297, 298, 335
 - gross capital formation on roads by states, 316–17
 - importance of roads and railways, 291
 - inefficiency causes instability, 298
 - and land sales, 378–80
 - level unjustified by stimulus to output, 443
 - local authority, 336, 444
 - need for further railways, 450
 - and overseas borrowing, 339, 372, 376–7
 - and private capital formation, 370–2, 376
 - Queensland, 445–6
 - railway gauge, 332–3
 - reduction deposits in London, 447
 - rivalry limits external economies, 293
 - share gross domestic capital formation, 449–50
 - Victoria, 446–7, 449
- government investment finance
 - administrative procedures, 376–7
 - customs taxation, 377–8
 - decline in overseas borrowing, 350–1
 - internal revenue, 377–81, 345–7
 - land sales and private borrowers, 349, 378–80
- local debentures, 341
 - overseas borrowing, 337–51
 - sources revenue N.S.W., Victoria, Queensland, 346
 - use of banks in overseas borrowing, 343, 384–5
- government workforce
 - annual-initial labour ratio, 395
 - importance in setting wages and conditions, 391–2
 - numbers, 394
 - poached on private labour, 298, 394, 397, 398
 - shortage labour, 298, 390, 391, 395
 - use assisted migration, 393
 - work for unemployed, 391
- growth rates, 9, 12, 13–14, 16, 18–19
- Hanson, William
 - effects 1884 land legislation, 92 n.
- Hanson, W.
 - South Australian railway engineer, 353
 - South Australian railway policy, 331, 331 n.

- harbour development
 - overtaxed after discovery of gold, 300, 301
 - at Port Elliot and Victor Harbour, 313
 - and government investment, 291, 292
- Higginson, Frank L.
 - cost of fencing Evora Station, 84
- Higinbotham, T.
 - intercolonial rivalry, 356, 365 n.
 - responsibility Victorian railways, 352, 353, 354
 - Victorian railway development, 326 n.
- Hobson's Bay Railroad Co., 302, 352
- housing
 - available data, 232
 - building regulations, 222-3
 - comparisons rooms and population, 215-19, 233
 - comparison rural, urban dwellings, 235
 - conditions, 1861, 215-16, 223, 232
 - described, 1861, 223
 - design, 222-3
 - effect of gold mining, 215-16
 - exteriors, 223
 - housing and demographic change, 234
 - multiple front, 222
 - net increase rooms and population, 217
 - rooms per house, 221
 - share owner-occupiers, 259-60
 - tents and temporary dwellings, 216, 219-20
 - vacant dwellings, 216-17, 219
 - verandah, 222
- housing demand
 - economic factors influencing housing demand in Victoria and N.S.W., 276-80
 - effect changes in age composition of population, 238-40, 241, 242
 - effect of marriages, 236-8
 - effect of migration, 240-243
 - factors influencing, 232
 - housing and demographic change, 234
 - role of unassisted migrants, 243-4
- Hunter River Railway Co., 302
- immigration
 - attracted by railway building, 358
 - compared increase in rooms, 241
 - compared natural increase, 240, 241, 242
 - effect on age structure of population, 238, 239, 240, 242
 - effect on export trade, 243
 - effect on housing demand, 234, 393
 - encouraged speculative building, 242-3
 - importance of unassisted migrant, 243-4
 - in 'eighties, 242
 - influence on owner-building, 268
 - influence on urbanisation, 192, 198
 - inverse movement with unassisted, 393-4
 - marriages and housing demand, 238, 240-4
 - mobility of migrant labour, 392, 395
 - and new building, 268
 - organised in Eastern Australia, 241
 - prices and wage rates, 396
 - relation to private capital formation, 392-3
 - relative importance assisted and unassisted, 243-4
 - stimulus to building activity, 241-2
- immigration assisted
 - declines, 396
 - financed by government loan funds, 393
 - influence on housing demand, 393
 - lags behind government capital formation, 394-5
 - leading role of Queensland, 392
 - prices and wage rates, 296
- imports, composition of, 25-6, 32
- import duties
 - and government demand for investible funds, 377-8
 - increase demand for local manufactures, 208
 - protective tariffs, 378
- import prices
 - prices wage rates and immigration, 396
- industrial classification
 - by census dates, 194
 - distribution workforce by industry N.S.W., 204
 - distribution workforce by industry Victoria, 203
 - occupations 1891 census by states, 196
 - relative rates growth, 195-6
- industrial investment
 - compared residential investment, 213-14
 - engineering, carriage and waggon construction, 209
 - factor in capital formation, 194
 - regional distribution in Victoria, 201-2
 - Victorian statistics, 207-9
- industrial workforce
 - building workers, 268-9
 - distribution by industry N.S.W., 204
 - distribution by industry Victoria, 203
 - employment brickyards, sawmills, 270, 272
 - employment in building industry, 269-72
 - growth female population encourages textiles, 205, 208
 - industrial classification, 194, 196
 - owner-builders, 267-8
 - rates of growth, 202
 - regional distribution in Victoria, 201-2
 - relation capital, labour, output, 206-210

INDEX

467

- industrial workforce (cont.)
 - share of colonies, 201
 - summary employment in building materials, 273
 - Victorian statistics, 207–8
- industry
 - development, 201–210
 - influence urbanisation agriculture, 190, 192
 - influence urbanisation building, 188, 192
 - influence urbanisation commerce, 186, 187, 188
 - influence urbanisation dairying, 190, 192
 - influence urbanisation wool, 192
 - labour-intensive production, 208–9
 - order importance manufactures, 204–6
 - ratio capital, labour, output, 207–8
- industry, capital equipment
 - effect on productivity, 210
 - ratio capital, labour, output, 206–10
 - rapid expansion, 209
- insurance companies
 - in residential finance, 245–6
- intercolonial rivalry
 - duplication facilities, 360, 367
 - effects on inland waterways, 296, 313
 - effects on overseas borrowing, 447
 - in Riverina, 306
 - in transport for gold fields, 301–2
 - increases political pressure on railways, 356–7
 - influences finance agencies, 306–7
 - limits efficiency, external economies transport, 293, 298
 - and railway investment, 443, 446
 - traffic with Riverina, 364–9
- intercolonial traffic
 - in Riverina, Victoria, South Australia, 305–7
 - overland traffic, 1860–1900, Victoria, N.S.W., South Australia, 308–9
 - Victorian exports and imports via River Murray, 310–11
- interest rates
 - effects of government finance, 349
 - effects on exports, imports replacement, 369
 - fixed interest obligations public sector, 442
 - influence of rising government capital outlays, 404
 - low rates Queensland loans, 446
 - on government overseas borrowing, 345
 - on land mortgage, 100, 108
 - on new colonial securities in London, 447
 - restrict agriculture and manufacturing, 404
- investment boom
 - begun by wool price rise, 283
 - restriction in housing by interest rates, 283
- Island Station, the
 - fencing, 72
 - plan, plate V
- Jones, R. financial statement on railways, 361
- Joyce, A.
 - building on outstations, 73
 - difficulties of shepherding, 93
 - station equipment, 59, 71, 80, 81
 - washpools, 88
- labour
 - effects of shortage on economy, 403–4
 - importance of colonial governments as employers, 391
 - and mobility of migrants, 392, 395
 - productivity, 5, 13, 14–15
 - role of migration, 392–8
 - shortage, 390–1
 - unwillingness of government to import, 397–8
- labour shortage
 - effects on wage rates, 390
 - prejudicial to colony, 397–8
 - scope of, 390–1, 395
- land and mortgage banks
 - established Queensland, 424
 - in Victoria, 249, 249 n.
 - rates of interest, 262–3
 - role in residential finance, 245, 247, 264
 - speculation in real estate, 264–5
 - statistics, 265
 - see also* building societies
- land, building and investment companies
 - borrowing from Britain, 429
 - effects on collapse of Victorian boom, 264–5
 - failure, 429–30
 - history in N.S.W., 249–51
 - interest in real estate, 264
 - N.S.W. liabilities building societies and building companies, 258
 - reconstruction, 430–1
 - relative importance, in N.S.W. and Victoria, 247–9
 - reliance on banks, 428
 - role in residential finance, 245
- land revenue
 - finance government investment, 345, 349, 378–80
 - statistics, 346
- land sales (Crown)
 - and local debentures, 379
 - related government need for investible funds, 379
 - to secure freehold title, 379

30-2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

468

INDEX

- land tenure
 - division leases 1884 causes rise in capital formation 108
 - effects on pastoral investment, 91–2
 - land purchase and capital formation, 89, 90
 - leasehold, 86, 89
 - leasehold tenure legislation, N.S.W., Queensland, 90–1
 - position 1879, 101
- Lang, G. S.
 - report on Riverina, 65, 129
- Learmonth, Ercildoune, 95
- Lisgar Building Society
 - see* St Joseph's Building Society
- livestock increase
 - accumulation, 44–5
 - imputed value as cash income, 97, 180
 - incentive to capital outlay, 99, 109
 - slaughtering, 97–9, 118
 - slaughtering and imputed livestock increase, 98
 - transfer assets to stock new runs, 97, 109
 - treatment, Warrah Station, 99
 - to finance capital requirements, 117–19
- living standards
 - Britain and Australia, 5
 - and high wages, 404
 - on pastoral stations, 59
- Lloyd, use of land sales to finance government capital formation 380
- local authorities
 - borrowing, 337 n.
 - gross capital formation on roads by states, 316–17
 - new capital formation in communication, 294, 295
 - responsibility for roads, 314–15
- London and Australian Agency Corporation use for transfer of British funds, 153
- London Chartered Bank
 - paid-up capital, 1868–80, 155
- London Committee of the Associated Banks,
 - division of responsibility, 343–4
 - formed, 343
- long-run disequilibrium, 411–15
- McCaughy, Samuel
 - buys Dunlop and Toorale, 102
 - debt, 166
- McFarland Bros.
 - Barooga, 97
 - debt, 169
- McIlwraith, Sir T., sale of colonial debentures in England, 389
- Macpherson, C. R., at Paddington Station, 91
- manufacturing
 - capital–labour ratio, 206–10
 - composition in N.S.W., 205–6
 - composition in Victoria, 204–5
 - employment by industry, 203–4
 - factors encouraging local manufacture, 208
 - importance of building materials, 206, 208
 - importance in national product, 196–7
 - labour-intensive production, 206, 209
 - regional distribution, 201–2
 - share workforce, 1891, 196, 201
- maritime strike, effects on pastoral industry, 433–4
- marriages
 - available statistics, 236–7
 - effect on housing demand, 234
 - factors lessening influence, 237–8
 - influence on housing, 236–8
 - and new residential investment, 236–7, 285
 - relation official marriage rate and gross family formation, 236, 237
- Martindale, captain, and N.S.W. railway development, 352
- Matheson on government reliance on banks, 385
- meat canning, 98
- meat, frozen
 - as solution to overstocking, 435, 440
- Melbourne
 - building boom, 163–5, 187–8, 286–7
 - building societies, 248–9
 - centre intercolonial trade, 307
 - dominates Victorian urbanisation, 186, 187, 188
 - factors encouraging growth, 187–8
 - growth ended by depression, 185, 188
 - port, 300–1
 - rapid growth, 1881–91, 187
 - and Sydney expansion, 191–2
- Melrose Station
 - fencing, 74
 - ownership, 74 n.
 - plan, plates VI–VII
 - subdivision, 101
- Metropolitan Permanent Building Society
 - earliest permanent building society, 255
- mining
 - and housing, 215–16, 267–8, 280
 - influence on transport, 301
 - influence on urbanisation, 186–7, 189, 193
 - migration of families of miners, 241

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

INDEX

469

- Modern Permanent Building Society data, 217 n. ground plans, 222 n., 223
 loans to speculative builders, 273 operations in Melbourne, 248 n. rates of interest, 262–3
 types of clients, 260–2
 use of British funds, 257
- Morphetts speculation in property, 102, 103 spread of interest, 103
 urban–rural partnerships, 136–7
- Mort, Sir Thomas
 associated Richard Goldsbrough, 130 decline in business in 'seventies, 159
 diverted from wool, 129 finances pastoralists by reinvestment, 149 registered company, 142
- mortgage banks and land companies
 borrowing from Britain, 163 establishment, 163
- mortgage companies beginning N.S.W., 247 n.
 in Victoria, 249, 249 n.
 role in finance of residential building, 245, 247
- mortgage financing attracts N.S.W. trade through Victoria and South Australia, 306–7 and business fluctuations, 119–20 decline in early 'seventies with wool boom, 139–40
 demands reduction flocks, 110 development of, 125–47, 58 encourages intercolonial trade, 306–7 and existing assets, 119 formal agreements, 137–8 growth specialised financing organisations, 146–7 increase in share on non-banking companies, 140–1
 increase in 'eighties, 143 land as security for, 127–8 leading agents, 142 and lease registration, 134–5 long-term basis of loans, 107–8 other investment fields, 146–7 rise in interest rates in 'eighties, 100, 108 wool lien and stock mortgage, 127, 130, 137 for sources mortgage finance see banks, sources finance; financiers, unincorporated; pastoral companies, sources finance
- mortgage interest building society advances, 278 and credit contraction, 170–1 fall in rates, 1865–71, 281 fall through inflow of British funds, 285 in relation to cash surplus, 179 influence British investment, 171 obstacle to owner-occupier investment, 283 on advances in Victoria, 276 relation to wages and residential investment, 282
- Mullens, Marshall and Co.
 broker to London branch of Associated Banks, 243, 244
- Municipal Institutions Act
 transfers roads to local authority, 314, 315
- Murrindinda Station
 fencing, 72
 plan, plate VI
- National Bank of Australia
 paid-up capital, 1868–80, 155
- New Zealand Loan and Mercantile Agency debentures, 152, 153, 154, 155, 438
 formed, 129
 importance, 1889–90, 142, 143
 losses and reduction loans and investment, 437
 mortgage advances, 1880–91, 144
 paid-up capital, 1864–91, 151
 share of loan business, 150 suspension, 438
 transfer to Australia, 140, 148
- Niall, J. M., relations with Barr-Smith, 108
- nomadic techniques
see shepherding
- Oriental Bank
 access to London market, 344
 paid-up capital, 1868–80, 155
- O'Shanassy
 on customs taxation, 378 organisation, Victorian loan, 342, n.
- outstations mark boundaries, 73 replace shepherding, 71
- Overend Gurney crisis, 340, 344
- overseas borrowing and Associated Banks, 342–3 and budget deficits and surpluses, 349–50, 380–1
 by government, 1860–1900, 338
 by inscribed stock, 350 course of, 337–51
 declining role in public works expenditure, 449 effect of intercolonial rivalry, 447
 fixed interest obligations public sector, 442
 from Britain, 29, 33, 34

- overseas borrowing (cont.)
 and government capital formation, 339
 interest rates, 345
 and land purchase, 349, 379
 net yields on new colonial securities, London, 447
 private borrowing diverted to public capital formation, 378–9 public and private, 442 and public and private capital formation, 372, 376–7 reduction London deposits of colonial governments, 447–8 role in Australian economic growth, 5–6 to finance migration, 393
- owner-building encouraged by immigration, 268
 history of, 267–8
 revived by high interest rates, 283 share in urban expansion, 208 stimulated by high rental, low construction costs, 275–7
- owner-occupiers of dwellings early importance, 259–60 effect of falling market prices of houses, 426–7 factors encouraging, 275–8, 279, 281 impeded by fall in wages, 284 impeded by high interest rate on advances, 283 importance in urbanisation, 212–13 landlords and speculative builders, 260–2 losses with the collapse of building
 finance, 431
- Paddington Station, effects of Land Tenure Acts, 91
- paddock system consequences, 176 on Melrose Station, 75
- Parker, Hugh, 131
- Parkes, Sir Henry
 labour supply, 390
 Murray River traffic, 362 n., 366
 Queensland border traffic, 367
- pastoral capital formation and advance policy, 107–8 attempts to recoup early losses, 434 cause of downturn in 1881, 107 concentration on station structures in sixties, 87
 decline in 'nineties, 61, 434–5, 439 difficulties in estimating yield, 173 effects of climatic conditions, 108–9, 440 effects of high wool prices and slaughtering, 97–9, 108–10 effects of leasehold tenure, 86 effects of maritime strike, 433 factors encouraging long-term investment, 86–7, 108–10
 and foreclosure by companies, 440–1 fluctuations in 'seventies, 97–100 general effects, 58 influence on spread to interior, 61, 305 influence of speculative investment for short-term gains, 61, 77, 85 influences on, 85–6 instability in 1884, 176
 and land purchase, 114–16
 and livestock increase, 117–19 optimism on long-term recovery, 179–80
 and overseas borrowing, 108 and pastoralists' equities, 170
 reconstruction, 440–1 relation to urban real estate, 165 repetitive features, 58 and residential and railway investment, 61, 283–4
 role of government in Queensland, 77, 79 role of individuals and institutions, 103 and rural productivity, 57 use of on-station labour and materials, 115–16, 127
- pastoral companies sources of finance debentures, 153–5
 deposits, 157
 difficulties over short-term debentures, 438 increase due to new incorporations, 153
 paid-up capital, 151–4
- pastoral costs effect of railways, 401 in relation to number of animals, 178 and income in 'seventies and 'eighties, 172–5 increase in dryer areas, 176 increase in transport costs, 178 land rent, 178 rise in 'eighties, 178–9, 434 rise in shearing wages, 178, 398
- pastoral finance
 British creditors, 437–8 capital requirements, 112, 305 centred in Melbourne and Sydney, 129– 30 companies attempt to restrain clients, 434– 5 data, early records, 111, 112 and development of communications through Melbourne, 306–7
 foreclosures, 437–8
 growth of banks and business houses, 128–9
 increased control of pastoralists, 435–6

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

INDEX

471

- pastoral finance (cont.)
 internal financing, Warrah, 123 intra industry transactions in existing assets, 112-13, 118-19, 148 land as collateral, 127-8 liens on wool, stock mortgages, 126, 127, 130, 137
 and livestock increase, 117-19 major companies, 142-3 and non-industry savings, 120
 overvaluation of station assets, 436 pastoral partnerships, 136-7 self-finance, 120-3 techniques (wool lien, overdraft, mortgage), 130-1 and transfer British resources, 5
- pastoral expansion and new technology, 441, 450 and outlay of capital, 4-5
- pastoral industry effect of maritime strike, 433 problems of 'nineties, 434-5 reorganisation by finance agencies, 435-6
- pastoral partnerships, 136-7
- pastoral technology as expansive influence, 441, 450 effects on yields, 87 and land selection, 89
- pastoral workforce decline in shepherding, 71, 305 shortage checks investment, 75, 107, 397 supply, 58
 underemployed station labour, 82, 97, 115, 116, 159, 176
 use of contract labour, 82, 83, 116 use of on-station labour, 74, 81, 87
 'peacocking' land, 379, 89 n.
- Pirillie, station buildings, 75-6
- Pollard, railway engineer on Riverina railways, 365 n.
- population annual increase by colonies, 230 effects on housing demand, 276-7 housing and demographic change, 234
 net increase rooms and population, 228, 233, 217
 and residential construction, 216-19 and residential investment, 226, 237 urban-rural distribution by colonies, 184-5
- population—age composition balance disturbed by migration and birth rate, 238-9, 240, 241, 242 effect on urbanisation, 187, 198, 237, 238-40, 284-5, 286 effect on housing, 238-40 share of age groups, 239-40
- Post Office banks, 157
- private capital formation effects on government sector, 399-404 and government capital formation, 371-2, 376, 379 impeded by government, 373-5
 and overseas borrowing, 372 recovery from depression, 449-50
- Queensland Investment and Land Mortgage Agency Co.
 deposits and debentures 1864-91, 152
 in pastoral finance, 142, 143 losses, 437
 mortgage advances, 1880-91, 144
 paid-up capital, 1864-91, 151
- Queensland National Bank
 importance, 1889-90, 143
 paid-up capital, 1868-80, 155
- rabbits control by fencing, 80 pasture deterioration, 178, 434, 435, 440
- Rae
 on British freight rates and passenger fares, 354 intercolonial competition, 356
- railway freights decrease to encourage metropolitan business, 368
 keep railways to settled area, 296 objective in building railways, 358, 359 to cover interest commitments, 361-2
- railway gauges
 Deniliquin-Moama railway, 326 effect on external economies, 296-7 effect on costs, 332-3 and financial difficulties, Queensland, South Australia, 355 influence of British tradition, 355
- railway investment decline, 444-5, 446, 447
 fails to attract private capital, 302-3 geographical distribution, 327, 329, 330-3 government investment in railways by colonies, 320
 history of, 321-33
 interest in metropolitan business gains, 368 objectives, 358, 359 reduction in yields, 445, 446 reliance on social gains and external economies, 361-3 rivalry in Riverina, 293, 364-8, 443, 446
 short-term gains, 443
 undertaken by colonial government, 304-5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

472

INDEX

- railway investment policy
 - achievements, 369
 - aimed at control of trade by capital cities, 367
 - control through finance, 355
 - control through Victoria and N.S.W., 354 and external economies, 292-3, 362-3
 - N.S.W., 323, 329, 360, 361, 363, 365, 366, 367-8, 369
 - Queensland, 327, 358, 367
 - select committees of inquiry, 354-5
 - South Australia, 326-7, 361, 363-4, 365
 - technical versus political control, 352-3, 355, 357, 360
 - Victoria, 323-4, 326, 329-31, 359, 360, 363, 364, 365
- railway revenue, 346
- railway workforce
 - importing key personnel, 297
 - from private activity, 297-8
 - need for migration, 297
- railways
 - achievements, 369
 - as adjunct to river transport, 295-6
 - as substitute for roads, 304-5, 319-20
 - assist coal mining, 401
 - concentration on capital cities, 297
 - contribution to pastoral industry, 401-2
 - contribution to rural development, 399
 - co-ordination with other media, 296
 - economy in gauge and construction, 296-7
 - fan design, 293
 - government investment in railways by colonies, 320
 - and growth of towns, 189-91
 - influence on urbanisation, 187, 190-2, 192
 - initiative taken by private enterprise, 300
 - mileage, 324
 - railways built in south-east Australia by decades, 325
 - and residential construction, 268
 - restricts river transport, 313, 401-2
 - routed to established areas, 296
 - undertaken by colonial governments, 291
 - variations in gauge, 332-3
 - workforce, 303
- railways, British
 - influence on Australia, 354-5
- railways, private
 - attempt to sell South Australian railways, 331 n.
 - Deniliquin-Moama, 304 n., 326
 - established, 300, 302
 - Queensland, 332 n.
 - reasons for failure, 302-3
- rents
 - effect of boom, 282
 - effect on owner-occupiers, 275-8
 - investment for, 281
 - percentage of wage income, 275-8, 280
- residential construction
 - change in standard and size of houses, 215
 - and demand for building materials, 208
 - housing and demographic change, 234
 - limited by competition of government building and railways, 268
 - and population growth, 215, 226, 233
 - sources, finance, 145
- residential construction, finance
 - advances, 263
 - decline in land market, 426, 428
 - distribution by types of client, 261
 - elimination of concealed charges, 262
 - failure of building societies and companies, 429-30
 - growing similarity of types, 246-7
 - importance of banks and land, building and investment companies, 264
 - in various colonies, 247-53
 - increase in size of loans, 262
 - increased availability in 'eighties, 272-3
 - losses from real estate speculation, 425-6
 - mortgage banks and building societies compared, 265
 - promotes speculative building ahead of demand, 273
 - reconstruction, 430-1
 - share building societies in new residential investment, 265
 - shares of owner-occupiers, landlords and speculative builders, 259-62
 - terminating building societies, 254-5
 - types of institutions, 245-7
 - use of local savings, 212, 245, 254, 256-8
 - use of speculative investors, 286-7
 - Victorian Building Societies Act, 1874, 258-9
- residential investment
 - by colonies, 264
 - change to owner-occupiers, 426-7
 - conditions in various colonies, 284-7
 - course of, 227-31
 - decline in 'nineties, 424, 427
 - decline in speculation, 424-7
 - declines in N.S.W. and Queensland, 285-6
 - and demographic change, 234
 - and domestic product, 279-82, 427
 - dominance urban residential investment, 212-13
 - exceeds other urban investment, 213-14
 - failure building societies and companies, 429-30

- residential investment (cont.)
 - influence of owner-occupation, 212–13, 222, 281–3
 - importance, 211–14
 - long-run cycle, 225–7
 - Melbourne boom, 1885–8, 286
 - mismanagement, 426
 - outstrips demand, 425
 - and population increase, 226
 - recession, 228
 - reconstruction, 430–1
 - and rents and wages, 282
 - share building societies, 265
 - sources finance, 212, 231
- residential real estate
 - importance owner-occupiers, 212–13
 - speculation losses, 425–6
- Ricketson, Henry, on Barratta Station, 97
- river navigation
 - by Cadell, 301, 311
 - difficulties of, 311–12
 - government failure to improve facilities, 313
- river transport
 - combined with railways, 295–6
 - destroyed by growth of railways, 401–2
 - growth of, 305–14
 - Murray, Murrumbidgee, Darling, 293, 295–6, 363–4
 - rail and river charges compared, 402
 - and rail links, 330–1
 - responsibility of government, 291, 292
 - river ship tonnage entered, 312
 - use in pastoral activity, 306–7
 - used mainly by private enterprise, 313
 - Victorian exports and imports via River Murray, 310–11
- road construction
 - effects of increased weight of drays, 315, 318
 - fencing limits width, 318
 - N.S.W. policy, 315
 - South Australian policy, 319
- roads
 - description N.S.W., 315, 318
 - financed from ordinary revenue, 341
 - gross capital formation by states 1860–1900, 316–17
 - mileage and quality, 314
 - neglect road construction, 314–20
 - neglected in concentration on railways, 296, 304
 - new capital formation, 294–5
 - situation, 1850, 299–300
 - south Australia, 319, 319 n.
 - transferred to local authority, 314–15
 - Victorian development to meet needs of gold fields, 302, 303
- Roads Board of South Australia, Central
 - compared railway construction, 319–20
 - established, 299–300
 - gross capital formation by states, 316–17
 - road building programmes, 319
 - Ten Year Plan, 319, 319 n.
- Roads Department of New South Wales
 - difficulties, 315, 318
 - gross capital formation, 316–17
 - policy, 315
 - subdivision into roads districts, 318
- Robinson, Sir Hercules, on external economies of railways, 362
- rural real estate
 - factors encouraging high prices, 103
 - interest in pastoral expansion, 58
 - and interest rates, 71
 - influence on building stations, 71
 - old estates, 101
 - property values, 104–6
 - speculation in station equipment, 83
 - subdivision of estates to provide finance, 100–1
 - use of tenants to equip land, 74
- Saint Joseph's Building Society
 - established, 249, 251
 - loans to speculative builders, 273
 - types of clients, 260–2
- savings banks
 - compete for deposit funds, 157, 256
 - deposits of Victorian savings banks, 1874–92, 256
 - interest rates, 263
 - interest rates compared building societies, 262–3
- savings, local
 - use to finance residential building, 212
- sawmills
 - growth of industry, 269–70, 272
 - number and employment, 270
 - on stations, 267
- scab
 - causes loss of sheep, 71
 - effect of fencing, 95–6
- Scottish Australian Investment Co.
 - debentures, 153
 - demand for funds, 140
- sectoral rates of growth, 16–24
- sectoral shares, 22
- shearing costs, 178, 434
- sheep distribution
 - dependence on water supplies, 63, 65, 77
 - history of, 62–70
 - map of sheep areas, 64
 - movement into dryer areas, 69–70
 - N.S.W., 62, 63, 65, 66

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

474

INDEX

sheep distribution (cont.)

Queensland, 63, 70

statistics, Eastern Australia, 67

statistics, N.S.W., 67, 68

statistics, Queensland, 69 statistics, Victoria, 69

Victoria, 63, 65

sheep population decrease in quality, 176–7

effect of expansion into drier areas, 176–7 flock increases in 'eighties, 108, 109, 175, 176 increase after 1870, 62

losses in droughts, 179

N.S.W., 63, 66, 68

Queensland, 63

reduction of, 435

reduction urged by finance companies, 110

Victoria, 63

Wimmera, 63

and wool prices and pastoral investment, 62 and wool yield, 177

sheepwashing advantages and disadvantages, 88

declining, 76

investigation, 95

see also washpools

shepherding

change to outstations, 71 decline as result of fencing, 92 defects, 93

early pastoralists, 59

relation to flock increase, 94 shipping effects of discovery of gold, 300–1

position 1850, 299

Simpson on labour shortage, 391

South Australian Land Mortgage and Agency Co.

debentures and deposits, 1864–91, 152

mortgage advances, 1880–91, 144

paid-up capital, 1864–91, 151

pastoral finance, 142

speculation and bank liquidity, 163–5 for short-term gains, 61, 77, 85 in station improvement, 83 speculative building contractors change to speculative building in 'eighties, 272–3

decline, 424–7

encouraged by building society policy, 264 encourages more ornate exterior of houses, 223 importance of building in advance of population, 234–5 in residential investment, 211, 212 land subdivision, 425–6

mismanagement, 426

outstrips commercial, industrial assets, 213–14 stimulated by British investment, 273 stimulated by migration, 242–3

Speight appointed, 354 role in Victorian railways, 357 squatters living conditions, 59

see also station residences

Squatting Investment Co., 103, 111 stability, economic, 10

Stanley on immigration, 397–8

station debts

Barooga Station, 125

debt burden, 1870–1, 168

foreclosures, 437–8

growth of, 166–9

influence of non-pastoral savings, 166 interest exceeds station income, 436 interest on Barooga, 167 numbers pastoralists indebted, 135, 137 pastoral statement, 1889–91, 169 rise causes decline in capital formation, 170

rise in 'eighties, 166–7, 434

statistics, 132

station equipment

enables expansion to dryer areas, 58, 305 for water conservation, 60 hut, stockyard, waterhole system, 71, 74 inducements to invest, 85, 95

plans station fencing, plates IV–VII

position, 1870, 72

real estate speculators, 83, 85

types, 59

use contract labour, 82–3

use of on-station labour, 74, 81, 82, 87, 97, 267

use of on-station resources, 81, 82, 267 values of improvements in N.S.W., 73

see also wash pool, fencing, station residences station labour—use of underemployed see fencing, station equipment, pastoral finance station residences decline in standards after 1860, 75–6

description, 59, 60

improvements in 'fifties, 'sixties, 71–2 station size early stations large, 78–9 effect on provision of fences, 79 influence on equipment, 74

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

INDEX

475

- station size (cont.)
 - station stock and holdings, 104–6
 - subdivision to finance new capital equipment, 100, 101
- stock mortgage, 127, 130
- Sydney
 - as port, 299
 - building societies, 250 ff.
 - contrast Melbourne, 191–2
 - factors encouraging growth, 192
 - names building societies, 250–3 n.
 - steady growth, 188
- Sydney Railroad Co., 300, 302
- Symonds, R., in charge finance, 352
- tariffs
 - see* import duties
- telegraph
 - adjunct to railways, 304
 - undertaken by colonial government, 291, 292
- terminating societies (building)
 - disadvantages, 255
 - organisation, 254–5
- textile and clothing industry
 - female labour, 205, 208, 210
 - home production, 205, 208
 - share of employment, 205, 204
- Thomas Brinley, 393
- trade unions
 - effect on wages, 390
 - interest in conditions other than wages, 404
 - regard government employment as pattern for state, 392, 404
- Trail, Dr, on sheepwashing, 95
- Trust and Agency Co.
 - deposits and debentures, 1864–91, 152
 - in pastoral finance, 142
 - mortgage advances, 1880–91, 144
 - paid-up capital, 1864–91, 151
 - supplants unincorporated financiers, 149
 - use British funds for debentures, 153
- Turner, H. G.
 - visits Britain to arrange agency, British and Scottish deposits, 161 n.
- Turner, J. and Co., exchange wholesale importing for wool, 128
- unemployment
 - brief periods of, 390
 - causes outcry against immigration, 394
 - responsibility of colonial government, 391
- Union Bank of Australia
 - importance, 1889–90, 142
 - paid-up capital, 1868–80, 155
- Union Mortgage and Agency Co. (Aust. Estates Ltd.)
 - clients' indebtedness, 169
 - deposits and debentures, 1864–91, 152
 - entry debenture field, 155
 - formed, absorbed Sloane firm, 142
 - importance Queensland, 1889–90, 143
 - increase clients' indebtedness, 167
 - mortgage advances, 1880–91, 144
 - paid-up capital, 1864–91, 151
 - use British funds, 159 n.
- urban real estate
 - boom, 164–5
 - increases foreign obligations, 165
 - source British investment, 165
 - speculation affects liquidity bank assets, 163–5
 - value to rural economy, 165
- urban population
 - compared rural absorption population increase, 185–6
 - compared rural, N.S.W., Queensland, Victoria, 184
 - definition, 184
 - effects of capital cities, 186
 - exodus from Melbourne with depression, 428
 - intercensal increase, 185
 - percentage share in total, 184
- urbanisation
 - age and sex structure of population, 187, 198, 237, 238–40, 284–5, 286
 - Australia and Europe, 181
 - changing composition capital formation, 194
 - changing composition of output, 195
 - comparison urban and rural population by states, 184–5
 - effect of growth industry, 202
 - increased share workforce government, professional, manufacturing, 195–7
 - and industrial expansion, 182
 - influence migration and marriage, 198–200
 - influence on railway planning, 237, 359–60
 - influence on residential building, 234–5
 - and investment, 194
 - place in Australian economic history, 6
 - ratio dependants to breadwinners, 198–200
 - stimuli towards, 181–3
- urbanisation, N.S.W.
 - contrast Victoria, 185, 191
 - growth country towns, 188–9
 - growth of towns and railways, 189–91
 - influence migration, 192

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-63395-7 - Investment in Australian Economic Development 1861-1900

N. G. Butlin

Index

More information

476

INDEX

- urbanisation, N.S.W. (cont.)
 - influence mining, 189–90
 - and market centres, 190
 - and railways, 190–1, 192
 - steady growth of urban and rural population, 188
 - urban and rural population compared, 184–5
 - and wheat, sheep, dairying, 190
- urbanisation, Queensland
 - effect of migration, 198
 - importance in rural areas, 185, 192
 - influence of railway system, 192
 - role of Brisbane, 192–3
 - sex and age structure of population, 238–40, 284–5, 286
 - treatment of mining camps in census data, 185
 - urban and rural population growth compared, 184–5
- urbanisation, Victoria
 - attraction of population to north, 187
 - change in sex, age structure of population, 187, 198, 237, 238–40, 285
 - change ratio dependants to breadwinners, 198–9
 - dominance Melbourne, 186, 187, 188
 - fluctuation of rural population share, 185
 - influence exploitation agricultural areas, 186
 - influence gold mining, 186–7
 - towns outside Melbourne, 186–7
 - urban, rural population compared, 184–5
- vacancy rates (housing)
 - cause decline in rents, 427
 - high rents increase, 216–17
 - maintain high level of building, 280, 282
 - Victoria, 219
- Vermont sheep, 176–7
- Victoria Companies Act, 128
- wages
 - fall causes decline in owner-occupiers, 284
 - kept high by government capital outlays, 404
 - less important than working conditions, 404
 - prices, wage rates, immigration, 396
 - relation to rent and house construction, 276–8, 281–2
 - rise through labour shortage, 290, 398, 404
 - statistics, 276–7, 280
- Warrah Station
 - decline in yields, 179
 - fencing, 74, 75, 94
 - fencing to eliminate risk of selectors, 89
 - internal financing, 122–3
 - neglect imputed gains livestock, 99
 - use contract labour, 82–3
 - washpool, 76, 82, 88–9, 95
 - wool income, 96
- washpools
 - description, 72
 - obsolescence, 76
 - plan and leaflet, Ercildoune, plates I–III
- water conservation
 - aid to expansion, 305
 - artesian water, 79–80
 - as station equipment, 59, 60, 77
 - expenditure, 79
 - government provision of capital, Queensland, 77
 - increased on marginal areas, 176
 - reticulation from bores, water channels, 79
- water supplies
 - importance in transport of rural products, 403
 - influence on sheep distribution, 63, 77
 - Murray Darling river system, 63, 65, 69
- Watson, Hon. James
 - government overseas borrowing, 380
 - government relations with banks, 387
 - labour supply, 390, 398
 - N.S.W. rail link with Riverina, 368
- Watson, R.
 - responsibility for Victorian railways, 352, 353
- Weekes, Elias C.
 - Murray river traffic, 366
- Westgarth, William
 - in public loan flotation, 342–3 n.
 - unable to dispose of Victorian holdings, 448
- wheat
 - statistics of wheat belt, drought, output, 177
 - transport needs, 303
- Whitton, John
 - chief engineer, N.S.W. railways, 352, 353
 - intercolonial competition, 356
 - opposed narrow gauge, 354, 355
- Wilsons
 - in pastoral finance, 102
 - spread interests, 130
 - urban rural partnerships, 136–7
- Wilson, Sir John
 - private financier, 135
- wool exports
 - and growth, 31–2, 35, 36–7
 - handled by Victoria, 307
 - South Australian and Victorian trade with N.S.W., 308–9
 - Victorian trade via River Murray, 310–11

wool lien, 127, 130	workforce
wool prices	building materials industry, 270, 273 and costs, 174–5	building workers, 268–9, 272 decline from 1875, 100	capital–labour ratio, 206–10
effect of over supply, 175–6	changing composition, 194–7 incentive to investment, 1872–7, 95–6, 283	decline in rural occupations, 195
and livestock increase, 110	estimated numbers, 12
pastoral investment and sheep population, 62	influence marriage, migration, 198
and reduction of indebtedness, 107, 140	labour shortage, 298, 390–1, 397
wool incomes in 'seventies, 96–7	occupational groups at census dates, 194 yield per sheep, 177	occupations, 1891 census, 196 wool production	poaching by government impedes private sector, 373, 374, 397 decrease in output per head, 1877–90, 177	rates of growth, 195 decrease quality, quality dryer areas, 176	rise government, professional, commercial, industrial groups, 195
graph of drought indexes, output, flocks, 177	role migration, 392–8
Vermont sheep, 176
wool yield, 177	zeal, in Victorian railways, 353