

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64686-5 - A History of the Beja Tribes of the Sudan

A. Paul

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

|                                                               |                 |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|
| Preface                                                | page vii |
| Chapter I Introduction                                 | I               |
| II The Beja Country and its Tribes                            | 12              |
| III Beja Origins                                              | 20              |
| IV The Gold and Incense Lands (2500–50 B.C.)                  | 27              |
| V The Sabaeans and the Kingdom of Axum(700 B.C.–A.D. 750) | 38              |
| VI The Enemies of Rome (50 B.C.–A.D. 640)                     | 52              |
| VII The Arab Infiltration (640–1520)                          | 64              |
| VIII The Subjugation of the Tigré (750–1700)                  | 80              |
| IX The Turkia (1520–1880)                                     | 91              |
| X The Mahdia and the Re-occupation(1881–1900)             | 106             |
| XI Recent History (1900–1950)                                 | 120             |
| Appendix I Beja Chronology                             | 133             |
| II The Beja Tribes and their Sub-divisions                    | 137             |
| III The Arteiga Tribes                                        | 140             |
| IV The Ababda                                                 | 143             |
| V The Halenga                                                 | 144             |
| VI The Fellata Melle                                          | 146             |
| VII The Beja Camel                                            | 147             |
| Bibliography                                           | 149             |
| Glossary                                               | 153             |
| Index                                                  | 154             |

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64686-5 - A History of the Beja Tribes of the Sudan

A. Paul

Table of Contents

More information

LIST OF PLATES

|     |                                                                                                                                          |                       |
|-----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| I   | A view of the Red Sea Hills( Photograph: J. F. E. Bloss, Esq. )                                                               | facing page 14 |
| II  | A Hadendowi Camelman( Photograph: Sudan Government Public Relations Office )                                                  | 24                    |
| III | Watering Cattle( Photograph: Sudan Government Public Relations Office )                                                       | 68                    |
| IV  | Suakin( Photograph: Central Office of Information. Crown Copyright Reserved )                                                 | 102                   |
| V   | (1) Beni Amer shifta(2) Police Patrol in the Red Sea Hills( Photograph: Sudan Government Public Relations Office ) | 130                   |
| VI  | Jebal Kassala( Photograph: F. H. Kane, Esq. )                                                                                 | 144                   |

LIST OF MAPS

|   |                                                        |                  |
|---|--------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| 1 | The Beja country                                       | page viii |
| 2 | The Nile valley and Red Sea in classical times         | 53               |
| 3 | The Southern Thebaid                                   | 58               |
| 4 | Reproduction of part of the map of John Senex,1709 | 94               |
| 5 | The Red Sea battle area, 1883-91                       | 109              |