PREFACE

The sole justification for a preface to the chapters which follow is an expression of my indebtedness and thanks.

I am grateful to Miss Kathleen Raine for readily allowing me to quote from an article on the work of the late Edwin Muir.

I am also indebted to the courtesy of publishers who have given me permission to make quotations from certain books, details of which are given in the footnotes. In particular, my grateful acknowledgments are due to the Syndics of the Cambridge University Press (F. M. Cornford, The Unwritten Philosophy and other Essays; C. H. Dodd, The Bible To-day); to the Delegates of the Oxford University Press (R. G. Collingwood, The Idea of History; R. Otto, The Idea of the Holy); to the Chicago University Press (P. Tillich, Systematic Theology); to Thomas Nelson and Sons Ltd. (The Revised Standard Version of the Bible); to the Student Christian Movement Press (K. Barth, The Teaching of the Church regarding Baptism; J. A. T. Robinson, The Body; P. Tillich, The New Being); to James Nisbet and Co. Ltd. (P. Tillich, The Courage to Be); to Longmans, Green and Co. Ltd. (G. W. H. Lampe, Reconciliation in Christ); to Ernest Benn Ltd. (W. J. Turner, Beethoven: The Search for Reality); and to Hodder and Stoughton Ltd. (C. F. D. Moule, The Sacrifice of Christ). The two poems by Alice Meynell are reproduced by kind permission and by arrangement with Burns, Oates and Washbourne, Ltd.
