

Index

- ACS. See American Cancer Society (ACS)
- Adams, Abigail, 36–37
- Adams, John, 36
- Advances. See Medical advances
- Affluence needed for surgery, 19th century, 26, 31–32 as risk factor, 262–263, 342
- Agnew, D. Hayes
     background of, 54–55
     on cancer origins, 60, 63, 297 on dyscrasia, 58 on limits of cancerous tumors, 73 painting of, 83–84
     on prognosis, 74–75
     removal of Cope’s breast tumor, 79–81 on surgical removal of breast tumors, 71–72
- The Agnew Clinic* (Eakin painting), 83–84
- Allinson, Margaret, 33
- Alternative therapies Coley’s serum (toxins), 139–142, 201–202
     compression therapy, see Compression therapy Krebiozen, 197–202
     patient experience with, 11–14
- American Cancer Society (ACS) alliance with National Cancer Institute, 166, 243–244, 254 and cancer clinics, 211–216
     on early detection, 160–161, 317 foundations of educational campaign, 146 information provided by, 154, 158–160, 164, 171, 316 “little red door” campaign of, 158–160 multi-modal treatment campaigns, 185–186 origins of, 144, 314
     pamphlet withdrawal, 171 pap smear support, 219, 331 on self breast exams, 222, 332
     supporters of, 150, 168
     “Time is life” film of, 163–166, 318
- American Medical Association (AMA), 150, 199, 204, 326
- American Society for the Control of Cancer (ASCC). See American Cancer Society (ACS)
- Amputation. See Complete operation (Halsted mastectomy); Surgery
- Androgen (male hormone) treatment, 196–197
- Anesthesia film portrayal of, 164–165 introduction and consequences of, 54, 88 and surgery, 24–25, 51, 71

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-65146-3 - Unnatural History: Breast Cancer and American Society

Robert A. Aronowitz

Index

More information

348 • Index

- Antisepsis, 51, 54
- Arm problems and swelling. See Post-surgical complications
- Ashkenazi Jewish women, 6, 270, 286, 342
- Bailar, John, 240–242, 245–247
- Banks, Mitchell, 90
- BCDDP. See Breast Cancer Detection and Demonstration Project (BCDDP)
- Beahrs, Oliver, 243, 246–247, 249–251
- Bell, Sir Charles, 153
- Benign vs. malignant tumors doubt over, 20th century, 171–173 in late 19th century, 69–70 in mid- and late 19th century, 53–56, 62
- Biggs, Dr., 100–101
- Biopsy
as cause of cancer (Halsted), 89–90, 98–100 cervical, 218, 220–221 and “do not delay” propaganda, 146 increase of, 160–161, 264 vs. mammography, 230, 232
in 19th century, 72
patient experiences with, 9, 11–12, 14
physician honesty about results of, 206
“Time is life” film portrayal of, 164–165
20th century views on, 97–98, 309
- Birkbeck, George, 38–39, 292
- Biskind, Morton, 194–195, 197
- Black, M.M., 173–174, 180
- Bloodgood, Joseph on complete operations, 88, 92, 110, 152 on fear as physicians’ ally, 171 on microscopy and pathology, 99, 101, 103–104, 306–307 on women seeking medical attention, 111, 161
- Blood test for cancer, 216–218
- Boggs, Dr., 123
- Brandt, Allan, 263
- BRCA1/BRCA2 genes identification of, 6 literature and research on, 286
and risk, 274
- Breast cancer. See Cancer
- Breast Cancer Detection and Demonstration Project (BCDDP), 236–240. See also Consensus Conference (NIH); Health Insurance Plan (HIP), clinical trial comparison with HIP study, 246 criticism of, 238–239 “minimal” cases of cancer, 246, 250, 340
overview of, 236–238, 337
preliminary results of, 246–247 quotations on, 235–236 and radiation exposure, 240–242, 338–339
results of, 239–240, 338
- Breast cancer risk. See Risk
- Breast feeding as cause of cancer, late 19th century, 66, 68–69 experiences of, 102
and incidence of breast cancer, 22, 53
- Breast lobules, 9
- Bringham, Deborah, 46
- Bringham, Elizabeth, 30, 42–43
- Bringham, Joseph, 30, 44
- Bronson, Mrs. (character), 163–166
- Buchan, William on causes of cancer, 22–23
description of cancer, 24
Domestic Medicine, 22–23, 287
on surgical removal of breast tumors, 26, 288
- Burgess, W. E., 139–142, 201
- Burgess, William, 139–142
- Burney, Fanny account of disease, 30, 288
on decision to have surgery, 31 medical attention, decision to seek, 25

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-65146-3 - Unnatural History: Breast Cancer and American Society

Robert A. Aronowitz

Index

More information

Index • 349

- physician advice for, 31
  - surgery of, 33
- Burnham, Curtis, 119–120, 128
- Buxton, J.L. (pseudonym), 111–114

- Cachexia, 57–58, 60–61
- Cameron, Charles C., 216
- “Campaign of fear.” See “Do not delay” campaign
- Cancer. See also Natural history of cancer
  - cervical, 179, 218–221, 321, 332
  - communication about in early 19th century, 36
  - disappointments in, mid-20th century, 181–182
  - as disease of civilization, 68–70, 298
  - humoral explanations of, 29, 49–50, 290
  - idiosyncratic nature of, 171–173
  - individuality of, 13
  - vs. infectious diseases, advances in, 82
  - local vs. constitutional disease, 27–28, 57–62
  - in men, 298
  - 19th century descriptions of, 22–24, 28, 287
  - ontological vs. idiosyncratic perspective, 13–14
  - pessimism about surgery as cure, 25–26, 48, 52–53
  - and pre-cancer ideas, 178–181
  - from radiation exposure, 240–242
  - shift in thinking about in mid-19th century, 51–56
  - spectrum of, 266
  - as taboo subject, 127–133, 311
  - term, as cultural construct, 7–8, 11, 286
- Cancer, defining and classifying
  - by Halsted, 99–100, 306
  - 19th century, 47–48, 54–56, 297
  - spectrum of, 266
  - 20th century, 188, 315
- Cancer Act 1971, 236
- Cancer and Common Sense* (Crile), 186–190
- Cancer blood test, 216–218
- Cancer clinics, 211–216
  - costs and role of, 212–213
  - disappointment and decline in, 213–216, 329
  - obstacle to, 212
  - reasons for forming, 211–212
- Cancer culture, 21st century, 267–268, 343
- Cancer education and propaganda. See also American Cancer Society (ACS)
  - the AMA against quackery, 326
  - for cancer clinics, 212, 215
  - do not delay campaign, see “Do not delay” campaign
  - and Rachel Carson, 184
- Cancerous vs. Noncancerous tumors. See Benign vs. malignant tumors
- Cancer phobia. See Fear
- Cancer registries, 168
- Cannon, Mott D., 127–128
- Carcinoma. See Cancer
- Carcinoma in situ
  - 20th century statistics on, 258, 260–261, 340–341
  - ductal (DCIS), 14–15
  - lobular (LCIS), 9–11
  - and predeterminist skepticism over, 180
- Carson, Rachel
  - and alternative treatments, 194–195, 197–202, 325
  - death of, 203–204
  - diagnosis and mastectomy of, 184–186, 322
  - and hope, 195–197
  - and Krebiozen, 197–202
  - legacy of, 209
  - and privacy, 185, 195, 207, 209
  - and recurrence of cancer, 190–194, 202–203, 323–324

350 • Index

- Carson, Rachel (cont.) and relationship with Crile, 183–184, 186, 282, 328 and Silent Spring, 193–195, 199 and spirituality, 202
- Casper, Monica, 219–220
- Caulk, Ralph, 192–195, 200–201, 203
- Causative factors. See Etiology
- Cervical cancer mortality from, 221, 332
 and pap smears, 218–221
 pre-cancer research on, 179, 321
- Chemotherapy
 Carson's experience, 185–186, 191, 206 and ductal carcinoma in situ, 260–261 and mammography screening, 237 as modern treatment decision, 259, 272 patient experiences with, 11–12, 16
- Childbirth, increased age of as risk factor, 3, 5, 22, 65, 259, 262, 297
- Childe, Charles P., 91, 145–146
- Clarke, Adele, 219–220
- Classification of cancer. See Cancer, defining and classifying
- Clinical health practices. See Medical practices and perceptions
- Clinical trials. See also Novel therapies attention to, 336 and axillary lymph node removal, 274 vs. complete operation for LCIS, 180 and delayed treatment, 146–147 and diagnostic blood tests, 217–218 and effective treatments, 254 and hormone replacement therapy, 276–278, 344–345
 and Krebiozen (absence of studies on), 198–200
 of mammography, 226–227, 232–234, 254, 336–337
 need for, 206–207
 Nolvadex (tamoxifen), 17–19
vs. physician case studies, 225–226 and risk reducing pills, 275–280, 344
- Cochrane, Archie, 243, 246, 339
- Coe, Henry C., 152
- Cohnheim, Julius, 63
- Coley, William, 140–142, 313
- Coley's serum (toxins), 139–142, 201–202
- Collective risk. See Risk
- Colposcopy, 211, 218, 331
- Communication about cancer, 19th century, 36, 80 about prognosis, 20th century, 115–117, 121 between doctors and patients, see Doctor-patient relationships of doctors to Halsted, 303 between Halsted and patients, 86–87, 96, 311–312
- Complementary and alternative therapies. See Alternative therapies
- Complete operation (Halsted mastectomy). See also Surgery controversy over, 86, 175–177, 302, 318 and “cures” from, 96–97, 196
 diagram of, 89 efficacy of, perceived, 90–93
 origins of, 88–90, 302 and pectoral excision, 89–90
 and recurrence, 305
- Compression therapy, 41–44, 134, 292–293
- Connoly, Mrs. (pseudonym), 156–157
- Consensus Conference (NIH), 242–255
 background of, 242–244
 BCDDP preliminary results, 246–247
 criticism of, 247
 debate from, 245–246 outcome of, 247–251, 339–340 overview and context of, 251–255 purpose of, 244–245
- Constitution
 arguments for, 57–58

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-65146-3 - Unnatural History: Breast Cancer and American Society

Robert A. Aronowitz

Index

More information

Index • 351

- as cause of cancer, 65–66, 297
- vs. local disease, 57–62, 66, 297
- role in cancer therapy, 66
- Control of a Scourge* (Childe), 145–146
- Cooper, Sir Astley, 26, 288
- Cope, Elizabeth, 78
- Cope, Margaret, 81, 301
- Cope, Mary S., 77–82
  - death of, 81–82
  - illness and diagnosis of, 78–79
  - post-operative period of, 80–81
  - surgery of, 79–80
- Cope, Thomas Pym, II, 78
- Cope, Walter, 78–79
- Cox, Ann, 43–46, 293–294
- Cox, John, 42–44, 46
- Cox, Susanna Dillwyn, 21
- Crile, George “Barney”
  - as advisor to Carson, 190–194, 196–197, 202–203
  - background of, 186–187, 206–207
  - Cancer and Common Sense*, 186–190
  - on cancer detection, 170–171, 319
  - criticisms of surgical practices, 322
  - in evaluative sciences, 189, 323
  - on Krebiozen therapy, 199–201, 325
  - objections to Carson screenplay, 183–184
  - skepticism about cancer, 186–190
- Crile, Jane, 186, 195–196, 324
- Crumb, Mrs. (pseudonym), 100–101
- Cures. See also Survivorship
  - claims made about, 20th century, 152–155
  - and complete (Halsted) operation, 90–93, 95–97, 304–305
  - opinions about, late 19th century, 66, 74–75
  - pessimism about surgery as, 25–26, 48, 52–54, 59
  - remission vs. complete remission, 325
- Cushing, Harvey, 93, 139–140
- The Cyclopeida of Practical Surgery* (Walshe), 296
- Daland, Ernst, 149
- Danach, Dr., 78–79, 81
- “Danger signs” of cancer, 146
- Dattwyler, Mrs. (pseudonym), 138–139
- Dattwyler, Rosalie (pseudonym), 138–139
- DCIS. See Ductal carcinoma in situ (DCIS)
- Death. See Mortality
- Deaver, John B., 107–108, 151, 161, 172–173, 179
- Decision making. See also Hope
  - based on clinical findings, 72, 90, 103–104
  - in Halsted’s time, 281–282
  - and hormone replacement therapy, 278–279
  - in 19th century, 79–80, 280–281
  - and role of idiosyncrasy, 73
  - in 20th century, 282
  - in 21st century, 268–270, 343, 345
- “Delay” campaign. See “Do not delay” campaign
- De Morgan, Campbell, 57, 61, 64
- Detection. See Breast Cancer Detection and Demonstration Project (BCDDP); Early detection; Screening
- Diagnosis, 71–77
  - of benign vs. malignant tumors, 72–73
  - biopsies for, see Biopsy
  - blood testing, 216–218
  - and cancer detection blood test, 216–218
  - classification of, 99–100, 306
  - doubts and limitations of, 102, 118–119
  - Halsted on, 89–90
  - mammography for, see Mammography
  - microscopy as standard for, 306–307
  - over-diagnosis, 258–261

352 • Index

- Diagnosis, (cont.)
 and pap smears, 218–221
 self breast exams, 222–223 by surgeons vs. pathologists, 97–104, 305–306
 tests, research for, 217–218, 331 women's role in, 110–111
 x-rays, see X-rays
- Dickensen, Sally, 43, 46
- Diet and risk, 5, 262
- Dillwyn, William, 21
- Disease infectious vs. cancerous, 147, 169 local vs. constitutional cancer, 57–62 ontological perspective of, 13 vs. risk, 9–11
- Dissemination of cancer. See Metastasis
- Doctor-patient relationships between Halsted and patients, 86–87, 96, 311–312
 honesty in, 4–5, 16–17, 28–29, 81, 119–120, 204–206
 in 19th century, 25–26, 48–49, 76
 patient experiences, 11–12, 186 patient honesty, 310 and responsibility, 101
 and risk factors, 280–284 and self breast exams, 222–223, 332–333
 and threshold for advising surgery, 92–93
 in 20th century, 110–111, 115–117, 121, 189, 208, 328
 in 21st century, 345
 unwillingness to speak of cancer, 127–133
- Domestic Medicine* (Buchan), 22–23, 287–288
- “Do not delay” campaign and cancer clinics, 211–216 disappointment in, 181, 210–211 efficacy of, 160–162, 171, 174, 317 opposition and resistance to, 148–152, 169–170, 174
 overview of, 144–148
 propaganda of, 152–153, 159–160 responsibility and blame resulting from, 155–160
 supporters of, 167
 and surgical efficacy, 152–155
 “Time is life” film of, 163–166, 318
- Drug companies, 276
- Dublin, Louis, 168–169, 214
- Ductal carcinoma in situ (DCIS) patient experience with, 14–15
 as risk factor, 14–15, 260–261, 341
- Duke, W.W., 111–114, 309
- Dunn, John, 223
- Durovic, Dr., 201
- Dyscrasia, 58
- Dysplasia, 179–180, 227–228, 334. See also Carcinoma in situ; Pre-cancers
- Eakin, Thomas, 83–84
- Early detection. See also Biopsy; Screening campaign for, 145–146, 314 and genetic testing, 6
 Halsted on, 144
 and incidence of breast cancer, 3
vs. late presentation, 26, 51, 91, 145–146, 148–149, 156–157, 300, 303
 in 19th century, 22, 287
 overview of, 144–145
 skepticism about, 174
 in 20th century, 124–125
- Eddy, David, 243
- Education. See Cancer education and propaganda
- Egan, Robert background and research, 229–230 and BCDDP conference, 243 on disinterest in mammography, 224 and Gershon-Cohen, 225 on “new” cancer, 253

Index • 353

- and radiation exposure, 335
- on screening, 231–232, 253
- Elephantitis chirurgica (lymphedema), 104–109
- Ely, William, 99–100
- Embolism, usage of term, 60
- Emlen, Samuel
  - early accounts of wife's tumor, 22
  - initial response to wife's tumor, 24
  - on non-surgical treatment for wife, 27, 43–44, 288–289
  - on reoccurrence of cancer, 40–41
  - on wife's decision for treatment, 31
  - on wife's prognosis, 33, 45
- Emlen, Susan Dillwyn
  - acceptance of disease progress and fate, 42, 46
  - birth of, 21
  - death of, 21, 46–47
  - on decision to have surgery, 29, 31–32, 48–49, 280–281
  - detection of breast lump, 22, 287
  - and fears of cancer and surgery, 22, 24–25
  - non-surgical treatments, 29, 41–44, 292
  - obituary of, 21, 286
  - physician advice for, 27, 288–289
  - post-operative period of, 33–34
  - progression of breast cancer, 27, 289
  - recurrence of cancer in, 34–41, 292
  - surgery and surgical preparations for, 31–33
- Empiricism in medicine, 19th century, 52–53
- Endocrine ablation therapy, 191, 197, 200
- Environmental risks, 262–263, 342
- “Epidemic of diagnosis,” 258–261
- Epidemiology
  - and delayed treatment, 147, 314–315
  - increase in cases, 20th century, 307
  - Lane-Clayton's work in, 153–154
  - literature and research on, 286
  - risk of breast cancer in US, 1–3
- Estrogen exposure, 259, 262, 276–278, 285, 344–345
- Ether. See Anesthesia
- Etiology of cancer, 62–71
  - chronic irritation, 19th century, 66–67, 69, 299
  - epithelial tissue origins, 19th century, 63–64, 297
  - and fear, 23–24, 289
  - Halsted on, 93–94
  - hereditary, 19th century, 67–68, 298
  - late-19th century beliefs, 63–65, 297
  - mid-19th century shift in thinking about, 51–56
  - modern civilization, effects on cancer, 68–70, 298
  - physical trauma, 19th century, 66, 297
  - and spreading of cancer, 122
  - substances believed to cause, 69–70
- Evans, Jonathan
  - illness letters of, 78
  - post-operative letters of, 80–81
  - surgical letters of, 79–80
- Evans, Rachel Cope, 78
- Evans, Warwick, 125–126
- Evil, breast cancer as, 30
- Ewing, James, 130–131, 155, 172, 212
- Excisional biopsy. See Biopsy
- False-positive results
  - from diagnostic blood tests, 217–218, 330
  - from mammography, 263–265
- Fear
  - of cancer, 19th century, 22, 24
  - of cancer, 20th century, 118–119, 124–127, 187–189
  - of cancer, 21st century, 262–265
  - as cause of cancer, 23–24, 289
  - of death from cancer, 31
  - experiences with, 163–166

354 • Index

- Fear (cont.) increase in, 1, 152–153, 159–162, 169–171, 316–317
 and late presentation to doctors, 145–146
 and Nolvadex advertisement, 18–19, 286 of radiation exposure, 338 of spreading cancer, 122 of surgeons to operate in early 19th century, 30
 of surgery, 19th century, 24–25, 48, 301 of surgery, 20th century, 148–152
- Figures. See Incidence of breast cancer; Mortality; Risk; Statistics
- Fisher, Bernard, 189, 265–266, 274–275, 343
- Fleck, Ludwik, 216, 330
- Follis, Dr., 123, 139–140
- Foote, Frank W., 178, 315
- Francis, Helen (pseudonym), 127–128, 135
- Francis, Ruth (pseudonym), 127–128
- Freeman, Dorothy, 184–185, 192, 322
- Freund, Ernst, 217
- Friedrickson, Donald, 244
- Gail formula, 271
- Galen, 59–60, 289–290
- Garfinkle, Susan, 286–287
- Genes, 6, 274, 286
- Genetics developments and implications/
 overview of, 6–7
 hereditary beliefs, late 19th century, 67–68, 298
 information and privacy, 11 literature and research on, 286
 and risk, 274
- Germ theory of disease, 51–52, 70–71, 294
- Gershon-Cohen, Jacob, 334–335
- Gilman, Alfred, 216–217, 330
- Gold treatment, 192–193, 323–324
- Goodman, Louis S., 216–217, 330
- Green, Ruth (pseudonym), 129–131
- Greenough, Robert, 161
- Gross, Samuel, 75–77
- Growths. See Tumors
- Gynecological exam. See Cervical cancer; Pap smears; Screening
- Haagensen, Cushman D., 169, 180–181, 223
- Hall, Elisha, 38, 292
- Halsted, William S. See also Complete operation (Halsted mastectomy) on cancer as surgeon's disease, 97–104, 305–306
 complete operation, efficacy of, 90–93, 305 complete operation of, 88–90, 302 on elephantitis chirurgica, 104–109 on origins of cancer, 93–94 on late presentation of patients, 144 literature about, 302 moralism and honesty, 308 on nonsurgical treatments, 133–142, 201–202, 313
 not naming cancer, 127–133, 311
 overview of, 86–87
 on pain management, 138–139, 313 patient relationships, 115–124, 281–282
 on preventive exams and fear, 124–127 recurrence, claimed rate of, 305 on responsibility and standards, 109–111
 surgical innovation of, 89–90, 302–303
 views on breast cancer, 93–97, 305
- Halsted mastectomy. See Complete operation (Halsted mastectomy)
- Handley, W. Sampson and radiation and radium treatments, 135, 312–313

Index • 355

- on spread of cancer (embolization), 94, 304
- Harkin, Thomas, 269
- Hauck, James, 159
- Hayworth, E.B., 156–157
- Health Insurance Plan (HIP), clinical trial. See also Breast Cancer Detection and Demonstration Project (BCDDP); Consensus Conference (NIH)
  - compared with BCDDP study, 246
  - controversy over screening, 242–244
  - effectiveness, women under 50, 238, 241, 254
  - and radiation exposure, 241
  - screening study of, 233–234, 236
- Healy, Michael, 185, 191, 201
- Heller, Jacob, 217
- Hemlocke pills, 36
- Hereditary predisposition. See Genetics
- Hewson, Addinell, 72–73, 299
- History
  - importance of understanding, 19–20
  - as term, 4
  - trends in breast cancer, 4–5
- Hoffman, Frederick, 150, 168
- Holistic therapies. See Alternative therapies
- Holleb, Arthur, 220, 236, 239, 247, 338
- Honesty
  - Halsted's expectation of, 308
  - vs.* hope, 17, 116, 283
  - in late 19th century, 81
  - patient experiences with, 16–17, 28–29, 186, 190–192
  - of patients, 310
  - physician controversy over, 204–206, 326–327
  - as trend in doctor-patient relationships, 4–5
  - in 20th century, 119–121, 204–206, 327
  - and unwillingness to speak of cancer, 20th century, 127–133, 311
- Hope
  - complete operation as gesture of, 132
  - and decision to have surgery, 48–49, 76, 300
  - vs.* honesty, 17, 116, 283
  - and recurrence, 309
  - and 20th century disappointment, 181–182
  - in 21st century, 268–269
- Hormone replacement therapy (HRT), 259, 276–278, 344–345
- Hormone therapy
  - androgen treatments, 196–197
  - hormone replacement therapy, see Hormone replacement therapy (HRT)
  - preventative, 267, 275–276, 344
- Huggins, Charles, 216–217
- Huntington Cancer Research Fund, 141
- Hutchinson, Jonathan, 58–59
- IBTR (ipsilateral breast tumor recurrence), 274–275
- Idiosyncrasy
  - and medical ignorance, 132, 278
  - in 19th century, 73
  - vs.* ontologic view, 13–14
  - and surgical implications, 92
  - in 20th century, 171–173
- Incidence of breast cancer. See also Risk explanations for, late 19th century, 69–70
  - increase in cases, 20th century, 257–261, 307, 340
  - 19th and 20th century increase, 3, 22
  - in US women, 1–3, 257
- Individual risk
  - behavior and, 262–263
  - factors affecting, 270–275
  - vs.* social risk, 5
- Infection
  - vs.* cancer, 82
  - cancer as, late 19th century, 60–61
  - post-operative, 97–98, 105–107

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-65146-3 - Unnatural History: Breast Cancer and American Society

Robert A. Aronowitz

Index

More information

356 • Index

- Inheritance, late 19th century view of, 67–68, 298. See also Genetics
- Invasive cancer. See Metastasis
- Ipsilateral breast tumor recurrence (IBTR), 274–275
- Ivy, Andrew, 199. See also Krebiozen
- Jackson, Dudley, 220
- Jaffee, Annette, 268
- James, Alice, 70
- James, Henry, 70
- James, William, 70
- Janes, Robert, 167
- Jasen, Patricia, 287
- Jenner, William, 59
- Kaiser, Raymond, 171, 319, 330
- Kaminer, Gisa, 217
- Kelly, Howard, 119–120, 123, 128, 134–135
- Kiernan, James G., 129, 312
- Kilpatrick, John, 214
- Krebiozen, 197–202
- Kushner, Rose, 243, 247, 275, 344
- Lane-Claypon, Janet, 153–154
- Lasker, Mary, 159
- Latency, 60–62, 304
- LCIS (lobular carcinoma in situ). See Lobular carcinoma in situ (LCIS)
- Lear, Linda, 184
- Leborgne, Raul, 225, 333–334
- Lees, J.C., 175, 177, 181, 320
- L'Esperance, Elise, 213
- Life expectancy after cancer in 19th century, 75
- Life insurance companies and cancer, 168, 213–214
- Little, C.C., 213
- Lobular carcinoma in situ (LCIS)
20th century views on, 178–179, 321
patient experience with, 9–11
as precancer risk factor, 10, 180–181, 260–261, 341 terms, meaning of, 9–11, 180–181
- Local vs. constitutional disease, 57–62, 66, 94–96, 297
- Logan, Deborah, 32
- Logan, James, 21
- Logan's plaster, 24, 27
- Louis, Pierre, 53
- Lymphedema, 72, 104–109, 307–308
- Lymph nodes
excision of, and risk, 88, 274
patient experiences with, 14
swelling in glands, 72, 104–109, 307–308
- MacCallum, W.G., 308
- MacDonald, Ian, 173–176
- MacFarlane, Catherine, 214–215, 219, 222, 329, 331–332
- MacMahon, Brian, 246, 248–249, 340
- Malignant tumors. See Benign vs. malignant tumors
- Mammary cancer, as term, 93–94. See also Cancer; Terms, discussion of meaning
- Mammography
Breast Cancer Detection and Demonstration Project, 236–240, 337 and clinical practice, 229–232, 333 Consensus Conference on, see Consensus Conference (NIH) effectiveness and limitations of, 232–234, 263–265, 343
false-positive results, 263–265
Gershon-Cohen on, 334–335 and “new” cancer, 253
ontological vs. idiosyncratic perspective, 13–14
patient experiences with, 8–9, 14 risk from radiation, 240–242, 245–246, 261, 338, 341–342
as term, 230, 335
in 21st century, 263–265

Index • 357

- Martin, Hilda (pseudonym), 105–106, 125
- Mastectomy. See Complete operation (Halsted mastectomy); Surgery
- Matas, Rudolph, 89
- Mckinnon, N.E., 167, 176–177, 180–181
- McMahon, Brian, 244
- Medical advances. See also Technology anesthesia, see Anesthesia chemotherapy, see Chemotherapy
 colposcopy, 211, 218, 331
 the complete (Halsted) mastectomy, 89–90 in discerning cancer from non-cancer, 53–56, 62, 69–70, 171–173 genetics, see Genetics in infectious disease vs. cancer, 82 microscopy, see Microscopy in nonsurgical therapies, 133–139 radiation, see Radiation treatment radium, see Radium treatments screening, see Screening 20th century, 166–171, 181–182, 318
 x-rays, see Mammography; X-rays
- Medical practices and perceptions biopsies, see Biopsy of cancer as disease of modern civilization, 68–70, 298 of cancer consultations in late 19th century, 63 of cancer diagnosis, 20th century, 98–99 of cancer etiology, late 19th century, 297 of cancer mortality, 20th century, 166–171, 318 of cancer treatments as futile, 84–85 of complete (Halsted) mastectomy, 90–93, 175–177 and cytotechnicians (Pap smears), 219–220
 “do not delay” campaign, 144–148
 “do not delay” campaign skepticism, 148–152 every man his own doctor, 32, 291 of localization of cancer in late-19th century, 57–62
 in 19th century, 27–28, 47–48, 51–56
 and public health demonstration projects, 237 repeat and extensive surgeries, 77, 300 responsibility, see Patient responsibility; Responsibility of surgeons of responsibility, 87 specialists, desire for, 136
- Men, breast cancer in, 68–69, 298
- Menarche, 3, 22, 262, 270–271, 285
- Menopause
 as causative agent of breast cancer, 65, 289–290 and incidence of breast cancer, 3, 23
 and Tamoxifen, 9
- Menstruation onset. See Menarche
- Mercury, as cancer treatment, 29
- Metastasis. See also Recurrences communication about, 115–117 and effectiveness of treatment for, 176, 320 increase in cases, 20th century, 259–260, 341
vs. recurrence, 304 term, introduction of, 59–61 20th century views on, 94–96, 304
- Metastatic theory, 60
- Meyer, Willy, 89–90
- Microscopy. See also Pathology
 colposcopy, 211, 218, 331
 frozen-section technique, 103–104, 307 and pathology, 19th century, 55–57 vs. physician observations (empiricism), 52–53, 72–73, 98–100 as standard diagnostic tool, 65, 83–84, 102–104, 131–132, 306–307
- Miller, Florence (pseudonym), 126

358 • Index

- Moralism and correct clinical approach, 165–166 and early surgery, 27
 Halsted on, 308
 in predeterminism, 176–177
- Morbidity, 72, 80–81
- Morgan, Campbell de, 57, 61, 64
- Mortality and 20th century educational campaign, 147, 162 20th century statistics, 153–155, 166–171, 176, 257, 318 and cervical cancer, 221, 332
 and complete (Halsted) operation, 91–92
 and HIP clinical trial, 234, 336–337 increase in, mid-19th century, 53, 298 from surgery, late 19th century, 71–72, 299 trends in, 3–4
- Moxon, Mr., 58
- Murphy, James, 120, 134, 142, 310
- Mutations, susceptibility genes, 6
- National Cancer Institute, 166, 217–218, 230–231 alliance with American Cancer Society, 166, 243–244, 254 Breast Cancer Detection and Demonstration Project, 236–240, 337 breast cancer risk assessment test, 270–271, 343 randomized controlled trial for mammography, 232–234
- National Institute of Health (NIH), 229
- Natural history of cancer ignorance of, 20th century, 188 pre-cancer, views on, 178–181 and predeterminism concept, 20th century, 173–178
- The Nature and Treatment of Cancer* (Walshe), 52, 294–295
- NCI. See National Cancer Institute
- Needle biopsy. See Biopsy
- Neoplasms. See Tumors
- Neurasthenia treatment, 130
- NIH (National Institute of Health), 229
- Nolvadex. See Tamoxifen
- Non-invasive cancer. See Carcinoma in situ
- Nonsurgical treatments. See Novel therapies; specific treatments
- Norris, George Washington, 66, 297–298, 300
- Notkin, Louis, 177
- Novel therapies. See also Alternative therapies; Traditional therapies; Treatment approach to, in early 19th century, 44–45 Coley's serum (toxins), 139–142, 201–202
 compression therapy, 41–44, 292–293
 Krebiozen, 197–202
 salvage treatments (radium and x-ray), 133–142
- Nursing. See Breast feeding
- Nutrition and risk, 5, 262
- Ontology vs. individuality, 13–14
- Oral contraceptives, 5
- Osler, William, 134–135
- Ovarian cancer, patient experience, 15–17
- Over-diagnosis, 258–261
- Paget, Sir James
 on causes of cancer, 55, 66 on germ theory and cancer, 71 on inheritance, 67–68
 on latency period of cancers, 297 life of, 295
 on malignancy, as term, 56
 on prognosis, 73–74
- Pain management, 138–139, 313
- Papanicolaou, George, 218–221, 332
- Pap smears, 214–215, 218–221, 329, 332

Index • 359

- Park, W.W., 175, 177, 320
- Parke Davis and Company, 141
- Parker, Willard on age of cancer appearance, 300
 background of, 62–64, 295
 on cancer as disease of modern civilization, 68–70, 298 casebook of, 63–64, 297
 on causes of cancer, 65–66, 297–298
 classification of cancer cases, 64–65 on doubts of cure for cancer, 55 on effectiveness of surgery, 75–76, 299–300
 on inheritance, 68
- Parran, Thomas, 213
- Parrish, Joseph, 27–29, 44
- Paternalism
 in 20th century, 110–111, 131, 184, 312
 as changing trend, 4–5 example of, in 20th century story, 146
- Pathology. See also Microscopy epithelial tissue origins, late 19th century, 63–64, 297 vs. Halsted's diagnoses, 89–90, 98–99, 102–104, 305–307 and idiosyncrasy of cancer, 171–173 introduction of, and cancer diagnosis, 72–73
 and pap smears, 218–220
 predeterminist view on, 177
 "Time is life" film portrayal of, 164–165
- Patient responsibility. See also Responsibility of surgeons campaign for, 144
 and individual risk, 5, 262–263, 270–275
 and mammography, 226, 252–253
 and risk of radiation exposure, 339
 and self breast exams, 222–223
 shift from doctor to patient, 155–160 shift from patient to doctor, 226
- Patin, Gui, 25
- Paul of Aegina, 25
- Pearson, Joseph, 43–44
- Pectoral muscles, excision of. See Complete operation (Halsted mastectomy)
- Pelvic exams, 214–215, 218–221, 329, 332
- Peskind, Dr. A., 128
- Pessimism. See also Skepticism
 in 20th century, 90, 123–124, 303
 about "do not delay" campaign, 148–152, 170–171, 319 and disappointments, mid-20th century, 181–182 of statistics and lung cancer, 318 and surgical intervention, early 19th century, 25–26, 30–31, 288 and treatment of cancer, late 19th century, 74–75, 82–85 and treatment of cancer, mid-19th century, 52–54, 59, 61–62
- Pharmaceutical companies, 276
- Physical trauma
 blunt, 66, 297 chronic irritation/habitual, 66–67, 69, 298–299
- Physick, Philip Syng
 on compression therapy, 44, 293 on Emlen's surgery, 40 examination of Emlen, 27 and honesty regarding prognosis, 28–29 illness of, 27, 32
 life of, 24, 287–288
- Pike, Malcolm, 238
- Post-surgical complications infection, 97–98, 105–107
 and "life at risk" experience, 142–143
 lymphedema, 72, 104–109, 307–308
 mutilation, 82–83, 110, 117, 149 patient acknowledgment of, 106, 119, 312 range of motion, 106, 117–118, 307, 310
- Pott, Percival, 57
- Power, D. A., 90, 303

360 • Index

- Pre-cancers, 178–181
 ductal carcinoma in situ, see Ductal carcinoma in situ (DCIS) dysplasia, 179–180, 227–228, 334 lobular carcinoma in situ, see Lobular carcinoma in situ (LCIS)
 and risk, 265
 views on, mid-20th century, 188
- Predeterminism, 173–178
 on carcinoma in situ, 180 Crile on, 188–189
 criticism of, 177–178, 254
 death of, 234
 on moralism, 176–177
 overview of, 173–176
 on pathology, 177
- Preexisting conditions, 11
- Prevalence. See Incidence of breast cancer
- Price, W.A. Ida (pseudonym), 129, 312
- The Principles and Practice of Surgery, being a treatise on surgical diseases and injuries* (Agnew), 60, 296–297
- The proclivity of women to cancerous diseases* (Snow), 68–69, 297–298
- Proctor, J. Peebles, 133
- Prognosis and clinical vs. moral findings, 90 early 19th century of recognition of, 28–29, 289 and examination of cancer cells in late-19th century, 57 example of, 115–117 for patients in late 19th century, 73–75 and precancers, 178–181
- Propaganda. See also “Do not delay” campaign
 the AMA against quackery, 326
 for cancer clinics, 212, 215
 and Rachel Carson, 184
- “Prophet of doom.” See MacDonald, Ian; Predeterminism
- Public health practices. See Breast Cancer Detection and Demonstration Project (BCDDP); Health Insurance Plan (HIP), clinical trial; Mammography; Screening
- Pyramid of breast cancer risk (Fisher), 265–267, 343
- Pyrole umbellate, 44, 46, 293–294
- “Quack” treatments, 139–142, 145, 149–151, 201–202. See also Novel therapies
- Rachel Carson: Witness for Nature* (Lear), 184
- Radiation treatment as adjuvant therapy, 135, 196, 312–313
 patient experiences with, 192, 194–195, 206, 323
 radioactive Yttrium implant, 200, 203, 208 radium treatments, 312–313
 risk from, 240–242, 261, 313, 341–342
- Radical mastectomy. See Complete operation (Halsted mastectomy)
- Radiology and introduction of mammography, and risk of radiation exposure, 241, 245–246 training of technicians, 335
- Radium treatments, 120–121, 312–313
- Radner, Gilda, 16–17
- Randomized controlled trials. See Clinical trials
- Rauscher, Frank, 240–241
- Ravdin, I.S., 226, 228
- Recamier, J.C.A., 60, 296
- Recurrences. See also Metastasis
 after complete mastectomy, 90–92, 95
 Agnew on, 74
vs. cures, 116 detection and limitations of, 20th century, 118–119
 Halsted’s claimed rate of, 305

Index • 361

- ipsilateral breast tumor recurrence, 274–275
in late 19th century, 75, 77 and physician reaction to, 309 and repeat surgeries, 77, 300 20th century views on, 304
- Reductionist temper and constitution, 57–58 and new ideas about cancer, 51–52, 56
- Reimann, Stanley, 169–170
- Reluctance to consult doctors. See Women, late presentation
- Responsibility of surgeons. See also Patient responsibility historical example of, 111–114 limitations of, 101
and metastasis, 95–96
overview of, 87, 90, 109–111
placing blame, 20th century, 155–156 post-surgical concerns, 307–308 and screening, 339–340
- Risk affluence as factor of, 262–263, 342 assessment number (Nolvadex ad), 18–19
causality and prevention, 270–275 and decision making, 265–270 vs. disease and importance of terminology, 9–11 and doctor-patient relationships, 280–284
environmental factors, 262–263, 342 vs. experience of breast cancer, 265–270 and fear in the 21st century, 262–265 interpreting statistics for, 257–261, 340 misunderstandings of, 272–274
overview of, 256–257
and pills/medications, 275–280 pyramid of (Fisher), 265–267, 343 from radiation, 240–242, 261, 338, 341–342
risk assessment test (NCI), 270–271, 343 statistics in US, 1–3
term, as cultural construct, 5–6 uterine cancer and Tamoxifen, 9
- Rivington, Mr., 67, 298
- Robbins, Lewis C., 179–180, 228–230
- Rodell, Mary, 186
- Rodman, John
Cancer in the female breast with the method of cure and cases of illustration, 287 on fear as cause of cancer, 23–24, 289 on localization of cancer, 27–28, 287
- Rodman, W. L., 92–93, 304
- Roentgen, Wilhelm Conrad, 224
- Roentgenography. See Mammography
- Rush, Benjamin, 37–38, 292
- Safford, Frederick, 169–170
- Salvage therapy. See Radiation treatment; Radium treatments; X-rays
- Sanderson, Dr., 185, 204–205
- SBE (self breast exam), 222–223
- Scabies, 60
- Screening. See also Early detection; Mammography
blood testing, 216–218
Breast Cancer Detection and Demonstration Project, 236–240, 337 and cancer clinics, 211–216
and carcinoma in situ, 341 and compliance of women, 221, 269–270
Consensus Conference on, see
Consensus Conference (NIH)
and general practitioners, 215–216, 330 mammography, effectiveness and limitations of, 232–234, 343
mammography and Gershon-Cohen,

362 • Index

- Screening (cont.)
- mammography in clinical practice, 229–232
  - and mortality rates, 3–4
  - overview of, 210–211
  - and pap smears, 214–215, 218–221, 329, 332
  - and responsibility, 247–248, 339–340
  - and risk of radiation exposure, 240–242, 261, 338–339, 341–342
  - self breast exams for, 222–223
  - women’s willingness to undergo, 18, 286
  - x-rays for, 223–225
- Second-opinions, in early 19th century, 39–41
- Self breast exams (SBE), 222–223
- Senn, Nicholas, 88
- Sepsis. See Infection
- Sequard, Brown, 57
- Shapiro, Sam, 233–234, 243
- Sharpless, Sally, 40–41, 43–44, 46–47
- Shimkin, Michael, 232–234
- Shipley, Mary, 51–52
- Side-effects of treatment. See also Post-surgical complications
- and “life at risk” experience, 142–143
  - radiation and radium, 135–136, 194–195
- Sigerist, Henry, 90, 303
- Silent Spring* (Carson), 193–195, 199, 322
- Skepticism. See also Pessimism
- about early detection, 171–172, 174
  - about lobular carcinoma in situ, 180–181
  - about mammography, 224–229, 336
  - about surgery as cure, 52–53, 75, 90, 152–155, 186–190
  - about unproven treatments, 45, 49, 141–142, 200, 275–278
  - of “do not delay” campaign, 148–152
- Small, Frank, 91
- Smith, Abigail Adams, 36–37
- Smith, Elizabeth (pseudonym), 115–124
- death of, 123–124
  - diagnosis of breast mass, 115
  - fears of, 118–119
  - post-operative period of, 117–119
  - prognosis of, 115–117
  - recurrence of cancer in, 123
- Smith, John Watts (pseudonym)
- on death of wife, 123–124
  - prognosis letters about wife, 115–117, 310
- Smith, Margaret, 46–47
- Smith, Sarah Logan, 21
- Smith, William, 36–37
- Snow, Herbert
- background of, 297
  - on causes of cancer, 68–70, 298
  - on latency, 61
  - The proclivity of women to cancerous diseases*, 68–69, 297–298
- Social factors
- and “effectiveness” of compression therapy, 43–44
  - importance of, 7
  - influence of and decision to operate, 76
  - influence on women, 126
  - late presentation of patients, 26, 51, 91, 300, 303
  - vs.* medical, 3
  - modern civilization, effects of, 68–70, 298
  - paternalism, 4–5, 110–111, 131, 146, 184, 312
  - responsibility, see Patient responsibility; Responsibility of surgeons and surgical removal of tumors in early 19th century, 26
  - willingness to undergo screening, 18, 286
- Society
- causes of cancer, in 19th century literature, 22–23
  - vs.* individual risk, 5

Index • 363

- recognition of breast cancer in early 19th century, 49
- surgeons vs. general practitioners, 149–152
- unwillingness to speak of cancer, 127–133
- and use of medical technology, 269–270
- worry about 20th century cancer trends, 168–169
- Specialists, 136, 151
- Speer, F.D., 173–174
- Spirituality and acceptance of disease state, 42–43, 202
- and death of Susan Dillwyn Emlen, 46–47
- vs.* medicalized end of life care, 134
- in mid-20th century, 189–190
- reliance on, in early 19th century, 49–50
- Spread of cancer. See Metastasis
- Stacey, Mary, 292
- Stahl, George, 26, 288
- Standard, Samuel, 205
- Statistics
age of cancer appearance, 300
- of breast cancer in United States, 1–3
- for cervical cancer, 221, 332
- and complete (Halsted) operation, 91–92
- of delayed treatment, 147, 314–315
- and ductal carcinoma in situ, 14–15
- hereditary and cancer, late 19th century, 298
- interpretation of, breast cancer, 257–261
- mortality from surgery, late 19th century, 299
- and Parker's casebook, 63–65
- of patient presentation, 160–161, 317
- pessimism over, 174–175, 318
- of recurrence, Halsted vs. other surgeons, 305
- role of, in mid-19th century, 53
- of surgery effectiveness, late 19th century, 74–76
- of survival, 20th century, 153–155
- in 20th century, 166–171, 318
- Stern, Rignoni, 53, 69, 298
- Stewart, Fred W., 178–180
- Stokes, Hetty Newlin, 80–81
- Strax, Phillip and Breast Cancer Detection and Demonstration Project, 236
- and Consensus Conference (NIH), 243
- and Health Insurance Plan clinical trial, 233–234
- poem of, 235
- on radiation risk, 241, 245
- on self breast exam screening, 223
- Studies. See Clinical trials
- Surgeons. See also individual surgeon names cancer consultations, late 19th century, 63
- disgust at tumors removed, 76–77
- factors influencing decision to operate, 76, 300
- high standards set for, 20th century, 109–111, 308
- and idiosyncrasy of cancer, 171–173
- interests in cancer as local disease, 58–62
- and mammography, 252
- vs.* other clinicians, 149–152, 226, 289, 317
- and pathology role, 72–73
- pessimism about cancer cures, mid-19th century, 52–54
- reluctance to operate, early 19th century, 29–31, 36–38
- role of, late-19th century, 66
- Surgery. See also Complete operation (Halsted mastectomy) affluence needed for, early 19th century, 26, 31–32
- anesthesia introduction, 54

364 • Index

- Surgery (cont.)
 description of (Agnew), 71 effectiveness of, 74–76, 152–155 fear of, 24–25, 48, 148–152, 301 improvements in, 79–80
 lowered threshold for, 20th century, 93, 151–152
 pessimism about, pre- and early 19th century, 25–26, 29–30, 288
 physician perspective of, 19th century, 23–24, 287 preparation for, early 19th century, 29, 31–32, 48 prophylactic, 6 and quality of life, 74 repeat, 77, 300
- Surveillance. See Screening
- Survivorship/Survival. See also Cures; Mortality
 after complete mastectomy, 92, 96–97, 152–154, 174 of cancer vs. other diseases, 38
 and delayed treatment, 147
 and hope for, 48, 132
 improvements in, 162, 166–167
 with or without treatment, 148 progress in 20th century, 166–167 and radiation treatment, 138
- Susceptibility genes and 20th century disappointment, 181–182 discovery of, 6 future tests for, 6 literature and research on, 286
 and risk, 274
- Tamoxifen
 advertisement for, 17–19 decision to take, 267, 272 lobular carcinoma in situ, 9
- Technology. See also Medical advances biopsy, see Biopsy blood test for cancer, 216–218
 and cancer clinics, 211
 and cancer detection blood test, 216–218
 colposcopy, 211, 218, 331
 in late 19th century, 72
 and mammography, 223–226, 333
 microscopy, see Microscopy thermography, 228–229, 237–238, 248, 335
 x-rays, see X-rays
- Temper/temperament constitution, 57–58, 62 emotions as cause of cancer, late 19th century, 65–66, 297
 reductionist, 51–52, 56–58
- Terms, discussion of meaning breast cancer, 7–8, 50, 90, 93–94, 286 cancer, 7–10, 54–56, 286, 315 complete or radical mastectomy, 89, 302, 308–309 conservatism, 302, 308–309
 dyscrasia, 58
 elephantitis chirurgica (lymphedema), 105–107
 embolism, 304
 history, 4
 lobular carcinoma in situ, 9–11, 180–181
 malignancy, 56
 mammography vs. roentgenography, 230, 335
 metastasis, 59–61
 ontological perspective of disease, 13 poultice, 306 precancerous, 179
 precancer vs. cancer, 179–180 remission vs. complete remission, 325
 risk, 5–6
 risk factors, risk reduction, 5 scirrhus, 40
 screening, 210
 signs vs. symptoms, 328 temper, 52 unnatural, 7 vagueness in, 181–182

Index • 365

- Testing blood, for cancer, 216–218 future genetic, 6 mammography, see Mammography patient contributions to, 6–7 research for diagnostic test, 217–218, 330–331
- Thalidomide, 325
- Thermography, 228–229, 237–238, 248, 335
- Thier, Samuel, 243–245, 248–249
- Thomas, Mary, 117–118
- “Time is life” (ACS film), 163–166, 318
- Traditional therapies
 Hemlocke pills, 36
 Logan’s plaster, 24, 27
 mercury, 29
- Transillumination, 224
- Transmission of cancer beliefs in late 19th century, 60 fear as vector of, 23–24, 289
- Treatment
 19th century descriptions of, 23–24, 287–288 alternative, see Alternative therapies chemotherapy, see Chemotherapy
 compression therapy, 41–44, 292–293 effectiveness of, 20th century, 304–305 endocrine ablation, 191 hormonal, see Hormone therapy mastectomy, see Complete operation (Halsted mastectomy); Surgery and mortality rates, 3–4 non-surgical, 27, 37–38, 133–139, 288–290 novel and quack therapies, see “Quack” treatments; Novel therapies prophylactic surgery, 6 radiation, see Radiation treatment traditional, see also Traditional therapies trends, historical, 4–5
 x-rays, see X-rays
- Truth-telling. See Honesty
- Tumors. See also Benign vs. malignant tumors benign, perspective on, 69–70, 72–73 fear of in 19th century, 22 predeterminism concept and, 173–178 size of detection in the 19th century, 22, 287
- United States Public Health Service (USPHS), 229, 236
- Unorthodox treatments. See Alternative therapies
- Vaginal smear. See Pap smears
- Velpeau, Alfred-Armand, 73
- Venet, Louis, 233–234
- Virchow, Rudolph, 63
- Walshe, W. H. on cancer, mid-19th century, 51–56, 60, 295–296
 on causes of cancer, 297
 on classification and naming of cancer, 295 vs. De Morgan on cancer, 57 life of, 294–295
vs. Paget on cancer, 56
- Walter, H.B., 98
- Warren, Stafford, 224–225, 333
- Washington, Mary, 38, 292
- Wasserman reaction, 216, 330
- Watchful waiting, as cancer treatment, 290
- Welch, William on Coley’s serum (toxins), 142 correspondence from Halsted, 89–90, 302–303 on over-diagnosis of cancer, 260 on surgeons vs. pathologists, 98, 103–104
- Weston, Sally, 21

366 • Index

- WFA (Women's Field Army), 163–164, 212–213, 329
- Wheaton, Judith (pseudonym), 129–131
- White, Dr., 83
- Whitehead, John, 98, 305
- Wide field radiation, 191
- Wilcox, W.F., 167–168
- Williams, I.G., 175–176
- Wolfe, Sidney, 243, 245
- Women. See also Breast feeding; Menarche; Menopause
- attitudes encouraged in, 126
  - with breast cancer in 1970s, famous, 237
  - and cancer culture, 21st century, 267–268, 343
  - and control over future, 263–265, 268–270
  - interpreting statistics today, 257–261
  - late presentation of tumors to doctors, 26, 51, 91, 145–146, 148–149, 156–157, 300, 303
  - and “life at risk” experience, 142–143, 267
  - and mammography, 251
  - propaganda aimed at, 152–153, 159–162, 316–317
  - “protection” from cancer diagnosis, 20th century, 127–133, 311–312
  - and responsibility for early detection, 155–156, 222–223
  - and risk of radiation exposure, 240–242
  - role in cancer treatment, historical, 4–5, 110–111, 124–125
  - role of compliance in screening, 221, 267, 269–270
  - as test subjects, 6–7, 134, 142, 190, 207–208, 310
- Women's Field Army (WFA), 163–164, 212–213, 329
- Women's Health Initiative and HRT, 276–278, 344–345
- Wright, Sir Almroth, 107–108
- Wysor, J.C., 101–102
- X-rays. See also Mammography
- mammography and Gershon-Cohen, for screening, 223–225
  - side-effects of, 240–242, 261, 313, 341–342
  - as technological advance, 133–139
  - use of, 113, 119–120
- Young, Samuel, 41, 44, 293
- Yttrium-90 treatment, 200, 203, 208
- Zelen, Marvin, 238