DEDICATION

TO THE MASTER OF BALLIOL

DEAR MASTER OF BALLIOL,

In asking you to accept the dedication of this volume of Essays on Adult Education, the contributors have not only had in view the privilege of associating your name with their effort, but have also desired to express their high appreciation of the great services which you have rendered to the cause whose interests they hope to advance, and to record their gratitude for the inspiration which your example and devoted labours have ministered to all who have this cause at heart.

It is a happy omen for the success of the cause and the friendly co-operation of our two Universities that we are allowed to associate the name of so distinguished a member of Oxford University with a volume which appears under the auspices of the Cambridge Press.

I am,

dear Master of Balliol,
most sincerely yours,
THE EDITOR.

CAMBRIDGE,
1 May 1920.
