

INDEX

- Admiralty, Norris and the Board of, 87, 88; Boards of, 146, 146 n.; Vernon and the, 182–186
- Ambrose, Captain, conduct at battle of Toulon, 30, 32; cashiered, 32 n.; commands on Italian coast, 241, 243; relieved by Com. Cooper, 243 n.
- Amelot, M., 97
- 'Ann,' fireship, at battle of Toulon, 17, 38, 40; charge against Mathews concerning, 265
- Annapolis, attacked by French, 201, 203
- Anson, Admiral George, made a commissioner, 146; 161, 170
- Antigua, naval base, 192; defences of, 195, 196
- Argenson, d', 161
- Aulnay, d', 161
- Balchen, Admiral Sir John. His instructions (July, 1744), 104, 105; his fleet, 106; his cruise, 107, 110; his instructions (September, 1744), 111, 112, 235; his death, 113
- Barailh, Admiral de, 76, 79–84; escapes from Dunkirk, 87; 90
- Barnett, Captain Curtis, 18, 19
- Beaucherk, Admiral Lord Vere, 146, 161, 170
- Bedford, Duke of. First Commissioner, 146, 146 n.; 161, 184, 185, 217
- Bentley, Lieutenant and Captain, 30, 38, 270
- Berkeley, Captain, 270, 271
- Boscawen, Captain E., 86; commands detached squadron, 101, 102, 105
- Brest squadrons. Influence on battle of Toulon, 3–5, 44, 45, 56, 266; reported preparing, 58, 59; sighted by 'Phoenix,' 62; reported going to Mediterranean, 65–67; off Calais, 68; off Portland, 69; off Brighton, 72; off Dungeness, 72; off I. of Wight, 81; secrecy of preparation of, 76, 78; sighted by Norris, 83, 84; detachment of under Camilly, 98, 101; doubts as to position of, 102; 107; puts to sea, 104, 108; blocks up Mediterranean convoy, 107; works in a chain of squadrons, 110; blocked up by Balchen, 109, 112; strength (Jan., 1745), 118; influence on Mediterranean campaign (1744), 125–127, instructions as to (Feb., 1745), 147, 148; preparation of (April, 1745), 152, (May) 154, (June) 155, 157, (July) 158; Hardwicke's supposition, 163; 165, 166; Vernon's view as to, 169; reported readiness of, 187; 189
- Breton, Cape. See Louisbourg
- Brett, Captain Percy, 115, 116; engages 'Elizabeth' in 'Lion,' 163, 164
- Brodrick, Captain, reconnoitres Brest, 58–62
- Burrish, Captain, at battle of Toulon, 28, 28 n., 38, 38 n., 52, 52 n.
- Byng, Captain John, 170–175, 179, 189
- Camilly, Admiral de, 80, 98, 101, 110
- Carteret, Lord, 72 n.
- Castellar, Marquis, 240
- Caylus, Marquis de, commands 2nd Toulon squadron, 139, 141; arrives at Martinique, 210, 211; his mission, 216 n.; effect in the West Indies, 219–222; British reinforced in consequence of, 224, 238, 247
- Charles Edward, Prince, lands in France (1744), 62; 74, 77; sails for Scotland, 163, 164
- Charles Emanuel, King of Sardinia, 1, 2, 136, 143, 144, 248, 250
- Charles VII, Bavarian Emperor, 84; his death, 159
- Cockburn, Lieutenant, his conversation with Lestock, 40
- Conflans, Admiral de, 99 n.; sails for Martinique, 157, 158; relieves Caylus, 222; attacks Anguilla, 222; returns to Europe, 223
- Convoy. (British.) The victualling convoy (March, 1744), 66, 86, 96–99, 108, 109, 125–127, 141–143, 234, 235; put in force for Channel and Baltic, 102; delay of Jamaica convoy, 103; Davers's convoy, 113, 114; hampering effect on main squadrons, 116, 117; convoys (May, 1745), 153; Martin delayed by, 154; Lisbon convoy, 157; convoys (Oct., 1745), 175, 176; West Indian convoy system, 191–194; 'Kinsale's' convoy attacked, 194, 197; Rowley and the British convoys, 234–236; and the French, 237, 238, 244, 245
- (French.) Martinique convoy disturbs movements, 113; Martin's instructions regarding, 117; escapes

- of l'Etandière, 151, Conflans, 157, Macnémara, 157; 158; effect of system, 198, 199; Lee and Conflans's, 223; Townsend and du Guay's, 229; success of French convoys, 231; Mitchell and Macnémara's, 232, 233
- Cooper, Captain, 36, 36*n.*; off Cadiz, 236, 241, 243*n.*, 246, 250, 251; cashiered, 36*n.*
- Cope, General Sir John, 170, 171, 172
- Councils of war. Norris, on his two objects, 71, 72; Roquefeuil, on his instructions, 80, on situation (Feb. 24, 1744), 84; Balchen on the Dutch squadron, 112; Martin, on l'Etandière's squadron, 151, on dividing fleet and attacking Basque Roads, 158; Mathews, inter-allied councils at Turin, 1–3, at Vado Bay, 130, at Villefranche, 122–123; Long, with Lobkowitz, 134–136; Captain of 'Kinsale,' on leaving convoy, 194; Ogle and Trelawny, on war with France, 198; Warren, on Shirley's proposal, 206–208, on assaulting Louisbourg, 215; Townsend, on local expeditions, 228; Medley, on the situation off Carthage, 242; opinion of the Court Martial on necessity for holding, 260, 261
- Court, Admiral de, 7, 7*n.*, 32, 35, 36, 41, 41*n.*, 47, 47*n.*; his instructions, 257–260
- Courts Martial. Admirals Mathews, 54–56, 144, 260–267; Lestock, 13, 13*n.*, 16*n.*, 17, 56, 57, 268–271. Captains Pett, 4, 4*n.*, 27; Sclater, 27; Watson, 27; G. Townshend, 27; Burrish, 28*n.*, 52, 52*n.*; R. Norris, 30, 252; Ambrose, 32*n.*; Williams, 32*n.*; Cooper, 35, 52, 53, 53*n.*; Temple West, 35*n.*, 52, 53; Lloyd, 36*n.*, 52, 53; Dilke, 36*n.*; Mostyn, 115; C. Mitchell, 233; Master of the 'Northumberland,' 99
- Cruisers. (British.) Boscawen's and Mostyn's squadrons, 101, 102, 105; off Dunkirk, 103, 103*n.*; Hamilton's, 148, 149; 'Cruisers' (May, 1745), 153, (Oct., 1745) 175; Griffin's, 152; Legge's, 188; function in trade defence in West Indies, 191, 192; stations in West Indies (April, 1745), 200
- As scouts (see Scouting)
- (French.) de Camilly's squadron, 98, 101, 103, 104; off Lisbon and Cadiz, 108, 109; chain of cruiser squadrons in Atlantic, 110; Mediterranean cruising squadrons, 138–139; effect of Caylus in West Indies, 219–221; in Mediterranean, 243
- Davers, Admiral R., appointed to relieve Ogle, 110; his changed instructions, 113; sails for Mediterranean, 114; relieves Ogle, 200; effect of Caylus upon, 220–222; ordered to detach ships to Barbados, 224; reinforced, 229; 230; difficulty of attacking French convoys, 231, 232
- Diversions. At Velletri, 135
- Dutch auxiliary squadrons, called for, 100, 100*n.*, 106, 112, 117; Dutch desire to withdraw, 118; 148, 156, 158, 166*n.*, 168, 175, 176
- 'Elizabeth' (French), engagement with 'Lion,' 163, 164
- Etandière, des Herbières de l', evades Martin (March, 1745), 151, 152; reinforcement sent to Warren because of, 215; 218; in West Indies, 221, 223; leaves Hispaniola (Aug., 1745), 231
- Fighting Instructions, 19, 24, 26, 26*n.*, 34, 52, 53, 55, 262, 262*n.*
- Fleury, Cardinal, relations with Jacobites, 74
- Forbes, Captain John, 24
- Gages, General de. His position (Feb., 1744), 6, 96, 129; (June, 1744), 133, 135; goes into winter quarters (1744), 237, 246; reaches Genoa, 247
- Hamilton, Admiral Lord A., 88, 146
- Hamilton, Captain, commands a cruising squadron, 148, 149
- Hardy, Admiral Sir Charles, appointed to take convoy to Mediterranean, 86; delayed, 96, 97; sails, 98, 99; strikes his flag, 102; 132
- Hawke, Captain E., at battle of Toulon, 24*n.*, 29, 34, 34*n.*, 37, 37*n.*, 42; commands a cruising squadron, 140; 240, 249; extract from Journal (Feb. 11, 1744), 255
- Heathcote, Alderman, 51
- Hocquart, Chevalier, in 'Médée' reconnoitres Spithead, 79; taken by 'Dreadnought,' 99
- Hooff, Admiral t', 100*n.*, 106, 166, 169
- Hyères Road, fleet base, 5–10; 122, 131, 132
- Initiative, Lestock and, 13, 13*n.*, 18, 19; effect of Article 21 upon, 24, 26, 26*n.*, 52, 53; Captain Burrish, 28; ships astern of 'Namur,' 29, 30; Captain Purvis, 32; van ships, 35, 36; Hawke and 'Poder,' 37; Norris, 71; Warren, 206, 207, 208
- Instructions, permissive, 224, 225, 225*n.* (For individual commanders, see under their names)

- Invasion, French plan of (1744), 74–77; possibilities of success, 89, 90; plan of (1745), 161, 173; relations of British naval and military commanders in, 171, 172*n.*; functions of flotilla, 177–179; 188
- Jonquière, Admiral de la, 139
- Kaunitz, Baron, proposes attack on Naples, 128, 129
- Keith, Lord, his instructions for attacking transports, 92
- Knowler, Lieutenant, his visit to Admiral Lestock, 17
- Knowles, Captain Charles, prepares defences of Antigua, 195; cruises off Martinique, 196, 197; objects to Warren removing 'Superbe,' 207; his views on Caylus's arrival, 210, 219, 220; recommends capture of St Lucia, 226
- Lage, Captain de, 7*n.*, 8*n.*, 47*n.*, 48*n.*; in command of Toulon squadron, 246
- Lee, Commodore Fitzroy, 209*n.*, 219; C.-in-C. Leeward Islands, 219, 222, 223, 230
- Lestock, Admiral Richard, relations with Mathews, 9, 50, 51, 52; brings to astern of station, 13, 14; his conduct of the rear division, 16–20; 37; chases on Feb. 13th, 1744, 46; his strictures on discipline, 54; court martial findings, 56, 57; charges against, 268–271
- Lobkowitz, General Prince, 7; 96; 128; ordered to attack Naples, 129, 130, 131, 134–137; his retreat, 143, 144; his situation (Dec. 1744), 237; urges retention of ships on coast, 245; 247; relieved by Schulemberg, 248
- Long, Captain, cooperates with Austrian army, 134–137; 141
- Louisbourg (Cape Breton Island), 149–152, 154, 157; its importance, 201–203; origin of expedition against, 203–207; siege and capture of, 209–216
- Lützwow, Baron, 143
- Mackie, Captain, 17, 38, 39
- Macnémara, Commodore, leaves Brest (July, 1745), 157; at Hispaniola (Nov., 1745), 229, 231; leaves for France, 232; engaged by Mitchell, 232, 233
- Maldon, 75, 89
- Mann, Horace, 134, 135, 143, 245, 246
- Maria Theresa, Queen of Hungary, 6, 7, 129, 130, 239
- Marsh, Captain, 13*n.*, 270, 271
- Martin, Admiral William, 66, 67; flag in Balchen's fleet, 106; commands squadron in the Soundings, 147, 148; his movements, 149, 150; chases de l'Etanduère, 151; 152; his squadron (May, 1745), 153–156; misses Conflans and Macnémara, 157; 158, 159; his instructions (Aug. 7, 1745), 165; 166–169; his squadron (Oct., 1745), 175, (Dec., 1745), 181; called to the Downs, 183; relieves Vernon, 184; in the Narrow Seas, 186–188; 214
- Mathews, Admiral Thomas, conference at Turin, 1, 2; his thoughts on Brest squadron, 3–5, 44, 45, 56; relations with Lestock, 9, 50, 51, 52; orders van and rear to increase sail, 16–18; engages enemy, 22, 23; orders fireship attack, 38; reasons for breaking off chase, 45–50; does not inform subordinates, 5, 52; his conduct during action, 53, 54; reasons for his condemnation, 54–56; extract from his Journal (Feb. 11, 1744), 254; charges against him and findings of Court, 260–267
- Maurepas, M. de, Minister of Marine, 138
- Mayne, Admiral Perry, 186, 189
- Medley, Admiral Henry, 110, 114, 116, 149; appointed second in command in Mediterranean, 241; 242, 249, 252
- Michell, Captain Matthew, commands squadron in Downs, 189
- Mitchell, Commodore Cornelius, engages Macnémara, 232, 233
- Montalban, Castle of, 123, 124
- Mostyn, Captain, 101, 102, 114, 115
- Mountagu, Lieutenant and Captain, 13*n.*, 270
- Navarro, Admiral Don, 27, 257; to be under French command, 258
- Nesmond, Commodore de, 110, 111*n.*, 138
- Newcastle, Duke of, correspondence with Mathews, 5, 6, 7, 45, 63, 121, 127, 131, 132, 133, 138; with Norris on invasion, 64–72; with Rowley, 142, 143, 239–241; on the situation (1745), 160, 161; with Shirley, 203; with planters, 223, 224
- Noailles, Marshal de, his advice to Louis XV, 94, 95; 159
- Norris, Admiral of the Fleet Sir John, attends Committee of Council on invasion, 62; his instructions, 63; his orders and movements, 64–73; 78; sights French fleet, 83–85; protest by Admiralty against his instructions, 87–89; his strategy, 91–93; 108; his attitude towards patronage, 182
- Norris, Captain Harry, 105
- Norris, Captain Richard, 30, 38, 252

- 'Northumberland,' loss of the, 99
- Ogle, Admiral Sir Chaloner, 111, 193 n., 197; his movements (1744), 198, 199; declines to send ships to Louisbourg, 203; relieved by Davers, 200
- Orméa, Marquis d', 1, 127, 129
- Osborn, Captain Henry, blockaded by French in Tagus, 108–111; 141, 142; 224, 235, 236; misses Levant convoy, 238, 239; in command off Cadiz, 241–243
- 'Phoenix,' reconnaissance of Brest, 59–62; 90
- Piosin, Admiral de, commands a detached squadron, 139; 156, 242–245, 248
- 'Poder,' capture of, 37; abandoned, 41, 42; charges against Mathews for burning her, 265–267
- Prestonpans, battle of, 174
- Pretender, the young. See Charles Edward
- Reggio, Admiral, 231; expected with treasure fleet, 248
- Reynst, Admiral, 100, 106
- Rochambeau, Admiral, 110, 111 n.
- Rodney, Captain, 103; opinion on Lestock's conduct, 19 n.
- Roquefeuil, Admiral Comte de, 58, 59, 76; his sailing hastened, 77; his first instructions, 78; his second, 79; 80; his further movements, 81–85; 90
- Rowley, Admiral William, at battle of Toulon, 10, 13, 16; his conduct of the van, 32–36, 41, 42, 54; takes command of Mediterranean squadron, 141; his movements, 141–144, 234–236; his instructions to Osborn, 237; his new instructions (Jan., 1745), 239, 240; his dispositions, 241–244; his character, 244, 245; his aims, 248, 249; off Carthage, 249; his coastal bombardments, 251; recalled, 252, 253
- St Lucia, Caylus and, 216 n.; British proposal to capture, 226–228
- Sandwich, Lord, a commissioner of Admiralty, 146 n., 184
- Saxe, Marshal Comte de, 76, 78 n., 81 n., 82–85; his instructions for invasion (1744), 272–274
- Slater, Captain, 26, 42
- Scouting, 'Winchelsea' off Toulon, 8, 9; Mathews's omission to keep touch by, 48; sends scouts to Rosas, 120; 265, 267; 'Phoenix' and others off Brest, 58–62; cruisers in Channel, 68; 'Gibraltar' off Dunkirk, 71; 'Médée' off Spithead, 81, 83; Williams off French coast, 101, 102
- 'Solebay' off St Vincent, 111; Davers and the French, 113; Martin off Brest, 152, 154; his lack of scouts, 158, 159, 214; Vernon and Dunkirk, 169–171, 174; Folkestone cutters as scouts, 178, 179
- Scrijver, Admiral, 100, 106; his appreciation of Warren, 205, 206
- Shirley, William, proposes expedition against Louisbourg, 201–204; 206–208, 210, 213, 229
- Sinzan, General, 130
- Smith, Captain Thomas, 98, 162, 177; his flotilla orders, 178, 179
- Suse, Marquis de, 123, 124
- Tencin, Cardinal, 74, 74 n.
- Thompson, Admiral Sir Charles, his orders for attacking transports, 91
- Torres, Admiral de, off Tortuga Bank, 197; sails for Europe, 199; British attempt to intercept off Cadiz, 240
- Toulon, battle of, 1–57; Mathews returns off, 122; French squadron returns to, 122; effect of squadron at 130–133; strength of squadron, 137; reorganisation of squadrons, 139, 140, 142, 142 n.; French squadron re-enters, 236; 237, 242, 243, 249
- Townsend, Admiral Isaac, ordered to West Indies, 224–226; attacks French convoy, 228, 229; sails for Louisbourg, 229, 230; 248, 249
- Townshend, Captain G., commands off Riviera, 252
- Trade, defence of in Channel, 103, 104; course of British West Indian, 190–193; French West Indian, 193, 194; Knowles's operations against (1744), 196; Davers and defence of, 222, 223; success of French convoys in defence of, 231; Rowley and attack upon, 244, 245, 248, 249
- Troop transports, Mathews and, 44, 49, 266; defence of and attack on: Norris, 71, 72, 80, 81, 89–92; Commodore Smith's arrangements for attacking, 177, 178; attack on French (Dec., 1745), 179; defence of Pepperell's, 209
- Vaudreuil, Admiral de, 139
- Velletri, battle of, 134–136
- Vernon, Admiral E., to command the fleet (1745), 161, 162; his instructions (Aug. 7th), 165, 166; his squadron, 167; his suggestions, 168, 169; detaches Byng, 172; views on close blockade, 174; his squadron (Oct., 1745), 175; his dispositions, 176–181; his removal from command, 182–186

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-66069-4 - The Navy in the War of 1739–48: Volume II

H. W. Richmond

Index

More informationIndex

279

- Vernon, Lieutenant, 41
 Vettes, General de, 1
 Victualling fleet. See Convoys
 Villettes, Arthur, at Turin, 1; 126;
 conference at Vado Bay, 130; visits
 Rowley, 248
 Wade, Marshal, attends Committee of Council on invasion, 62, 171
 Walpole, Horace, 74 n.; his opinion of Warren, 206
 Warren, Commodore and Admiral
 Peter, on routes of trade, 192;
 action before declaration of war,
 195, 195 n., 196; recommends capture of Louisbourg, 202–204; his character, 205, 206; sails for Louis-bourg, 207; his part in the expedition, 208–216; promoted, 217; Governor of Louisbourg, 218, 219; 229
 Watson, Captain Charles, 26 n.; extract from his Journal (Feb. 11, 1744), 256
 Watson, Captain T., loses ‘Northumberland,’ 99
 West, Captain Temple, 35; his views on military obedience, 36, 36 n., 131, 132
 Winchelsea, Lord, 60 n., 108
 Williams, Captain, 30, 32; court-martialled, 32 n.