Index

4th National Audit Project (NAP4), 193
capnography, 60, 194
cricothyroidotomy, 102
difficult airway, 41
key themes from, 194–195
methodology, 193
recommendations, 195–196 results, 193

abdominal aortic aneurysm, rupture, 144–145 acute cardiogenic pulmonary oedema, 144 acute respiratory distress syndrome (ARDS), 136 adjustable pressure limiting (APL) valve, 14, 55 agitated patient, trauma victim, 139 airway adjuncts, 24–27, 55
airway assessment, 41–49 bag-mask ventilation, predicting difficulties, 44 difficult airway definition, 42
HAVNO predictor, 48, 185
Mallampati and other scoring systems, 47–48 pre-anæsthesia, 43–44
airway management. See basic airway management airway manoeuvres, 22–24
non-responders, 33–35
airway obstruction, 33–35
causes of, 4, 20, 32
high probability of, 37–40
alfentanil, 70
alveolar hypoventilation, 4
alveolar ventilation perfusion mismatch, 4–6 AMPLE history, 61, 185
anaesthesia, 1. See also rapid sequence induction (RSI) AMPLE history, 61, 185
analgesia, 70, 115
drug-related complications, 75–78
induction drugs, 64–70
minimum standards of monitoring, 58 neuromuscular blockers, 70–75
non-traumatic coma, 152
PEACH mnemonic, 52, 185
pre-anæsthesia patient assessment, 43–44 triad of, 63
anaesthetic breathing system, 13–15
pitfalls using, 16
Anaesthetic Non-Technical Skills (ANTS) assessments, 182
analgesia, 70, 115
anaphylaxis, 36, 38, 76–78, 146
angio-oedema, 38, 146
apnoeic oxygenation, 82
apnoeic patient in respiratory arrest, 33 arterial blood gas analysis, 17–18, 27 asthma
intubation, indications for, 141–142
intubation, specific considerations, 142
ketamine, 142
post-intubation care, 142–143
atracurium besylate, 75 atropine, 123
audit, 2. See also 4th National Audit Project (NAP4) clinical, 182
departmental, 183
personal, 183
Ayres T-piece, 126
backward, upward and rightward pressure (BURP), 85, 95
bag-mask device, 11, 27–29
application, 27
equipment choice, 28
sealing techniques, 28
ventilation, 28
ventilation, predicting difficulties, 44
basic airway management, 20–29
airway adjuncts, 24–27
airway manoeuvres, 22–24
oxygenation, 27–29
positioning, 20–22
bi-level positive airway pressure (BiPAP), 11
bougie, 57, 85, 97
paediatric use, 128
bradycardia, 72
British Thoracic Society (BTS) guidelines, 6
bronchospasm, 37
burns, intubation indications, 37, 39
BURP manoeuvre, 85, 95
can’t intubate, can oxygenate situation, 97–98 can’t intubate, can’t oxygenate situation, 41, 92, 98
capnography, 60, 87
failure to use, 194
bronchospasm, 37
cardiogenic pulmonary oedema, 167 cardiogenic shock, 144
cardiopulmonary, 140–146 cardiovascular emergencies, 144–145 cardiocversions, 145
central respiratory depression,
causes of, 4
cerebral perfusion pressure (CPP) in trauma victims, 137–138 cervical spine injury, 133–134 checklists, 60, 181, 192
chin lift, 23
chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD) intubation, considerations during, 143
intubation, indications for, 143
NIV, 164, 166
P\textsubscript{a}O\textsubscript{2} values, 3
post-intubation care, 143
clinical audit, 182 closed loop communication, 180 collaborative approach to emergency airway management, 1 coma. See also non-traumatic coma causes of, 147–148 intubation indications, 35, 38
communication closed loop, 180 verbal and non-verbal, 180 confirmation bias, 178 consciousness, impaired, 39 continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP), 11, 17, 165–166, 168 initiating procedure, 170–171 controlled mandatory ventilation (CMV), 191 convulsions. See seizures Cormack and Lehane classification, 42
Crew Resource Management, 175
cricoid pressure, 82–84, 123
non-traumatic coma, 152
cricothyroidotomy, 35, 99–100 See also needle thyroidotomy difficult, 42, 47, 100, 102–103
critical incident reporting, 181 critically ill patients, 7 CT scanning, 39, 106
damage control resuscitation (DCR), 132 dantrolene, 76
departmental audit, 183 desaturation time, haemoglobin, 18 difficult airway. See also failed intubation definition, 42 facial features and, 46
HAVNO predictor, 48, 185
intubating conditions, 94
laryngeal view improvement, 95–96 neck features and, 46–47 difficult airway. (cont.)
obesity and, 46
oxygenation and, 91
oxygenation techniques and, 91–92
paediatric, 130
practitioner, change of, 96
SADs, 92–93
SADs, insertion technique, 94 use of alternative laryngoscope/blade, 96 electrocardiography (ECG), 59 emergency airway algorithms, 189 emergency airway management challenges of, 1
clinical training in, 2
location, 1
new technologies, 2
dangerous department (ED), 1 clinical teams, 179–180 intubation difficulties, 175
NAP4 results, 193–194
pre-hospital RSI, 155
end tidal carbon dioxide (ETCO2), 106
Eschmann reusable tracheal tube introducer, 97
etomidate, 66
extubation, 119
facemasks, 7–9
bag-mask device, 11, 27–29
difficulties, predicting, 44 difficulties, ventilation, 42 difficulties, with a good seal, 45
HAFOE, 9
Hudson mask, 7–8
Hudson mask with reservoir
8–9, 17
inspired gas mixture, 7
NIV, 169
paediatric use, 125–126
facial trauma, 34, 46
failed intubation , 30, 90 See also difficult airway BURP manoeuvre, 85, 95
can’t intubate, can oxygenate, 97–98
can’t intubate, can’t oxygenate, 92, 98
tracheostomy, 103
fentanyl, 70, 115
fixation error, 177
functional residual capacity (FRC), 141, 165
Glasgow Coma Scale (GCS) score, 38, 147 glycopyrrolate, 119
haemoglobin desaturation time, 18
HAVNO predictor, 48, 185
head injury, intubation indications, 38–40 heat and moisture exchanger (HME), 55, 106 high-airflow oxygen enrichment (HAFOE), 9
hospitals. See also intensive care unit (ICU), See also emergency department (ED) interdepartmental interfaces, 183
Hudson mask, 7–8
Hudson mask with reservoir, 8–9, 17
human factors, 175
aims of, 175
at the individual level, 176–179 at the organizational level, 181–182 at the team level, 179–180 hypercapnia, 4
hyperkalaemia, 72
hypnotic drugs, 64–70
hypoglycaemia, 40
hypotension after rapid sequence induction, 114–115
hypoventilation
alveolar, 4
common causes, 4
hypoxaemia
alveolar hypoventilation, 4
causes of, 3–4
definition, 3
inspired oxygen concentration, 6
POPES mnemonic, 186
pulmonary diffusion defects, 6 ventilation/perfusion mismatch, 4–6

inspired oxygen concentration, 6, 11
intensive care unit (ICU), 1
NAP4 results, 193–194
intracranial haemorrhage, 162 intracranial pressure (ICP). See trauma and raised intracranial pressure intubation. See also failed intubation, See also stylet, See also bougie
asthma patient, 141–142
confirmation of placement, 86–87
COPD, 143
decision to, 30
difficult, 41–42
difficult, predicting, 45
equipment, 129
head elevation and, 95
laryngoscopy and, 84–86
non-traumatic coma, 150–152
orotracheal, 133
paediatric, 127–130
positioning for, 53
post-intubation review, 87 risk of failure, 31
seizure patient, 152–153
tube sizes, 57
urgency of, 31
ventilation systems, 57
intubation indications, 30–40
airway manoeuvre non-responders, 33–35
apnoeic patient with respiratory arrest, 33
coma, 35
facial trauma, 34
general considerations, 31–32 impaired consciousness, 39

laryngeal disruption/swelling, 34–35
respiratory failure, 36–37
reversible causes, 35, 37, 40 severe shock with acidemia, 39–40 significant risk of adverse events, 37–40
intubation indications
coma, 38
intubing laryngeal mask airway (ILMA), 92
jaw thrust, 23–24
ketamine, 66, 68
asthma patient, 142
trauma patient, 135
laryngeal disruption/swelling, 34–35
laryngeal mask airway (LMA), 100 second generation, 92–93 laryngeal tumour, intubation indications, 37
laryngeal view improvement, 95–96
laryngectomy, 32
laryngoscopy, 55, 84–86
alternative laryngoscope/blade usage, 96
Cormack and Lehane classification, 42
difficult, 42
paediatric use, 126–129
second failure for view improvement, 97
videolaryngoscopy, 2, 57, 86, 96
larynx, external manipulation, 95 latent risk factors, 181

Macintosh laryngoscope blade, 55, 96 malignant hyperthermia (MH), 75–76
Mallampati scoring system, 47–48
Mapleson C breathing system, 14, 17 using, 15
masseter muscle spasm (MMS), 76
McCoy blade, 55, 96
mean arterial blood pressure (MAP) in trauma victims, 138
midazolam, 64, 68–69, 115
Miller blade, 55
misplaced intubation, 30 morphine 71, 115
multi-tasking, 176–177

NAP4. See 4th National Audit Project (NAP4) narrow-bore suction, 126 nasal cannulae, 7–9 nasopharyngeal airways, 26–27 needle cricothyroidotomy, 100–101 neostigmine, 119
neuromuscular blockers, 70–75, 115
non-traumatic coma, 152
paediatrics, 123
non-invasive blood pressure (NIBP) monitoring, 59 non-invasive positive pressure ventilation (NIPPV), 166, 169 procedure, initiating, 170–171 non-invasive ventilation (NIV) 164–173 clinical uses, 166–167
complications, 168
contra-indications, 167–168
definition, 164
environment, 168
equipment, 168–169
failure, 173
mechanisms of action, 165–166 modes of, 164
patient suitability, 167
procedure, initiating, 170–171
procedure, monitoring, 171–172
non-traumatic coma, 147–154, See also coma
adjuvant therapy, 152
anaesthesia, 152
causes of coma, 147–148
cricoid pressure, 152
immediate treatment principles, 149–150
intubation, indications for 150–151
intubation, technique, 151–152
neuromuscular blockers, 152
pre-oxygenation, 151
risks to patient, 148
treatment pitfalls, 153–154
normalized deviance, 178 obstetric patient, 158–163
anatomical considerations, 159–160 failed intubation/ventilation 160–161 pharmacology and, 160
physiological considerations, 159
pre-eclampsia, 162
RSL, 160
training, 162
waking or continuing with treatment, 161–162
O HELP mnemonic, 97, 186
opioids, 63, 70
oropharyngeal airways, 24–26
paediatric use, 124
otracheal intubation, 133 oxygen analyzer, 59
oxygen concentration in bag-mask, 12 inspired, 6, 11
oxygen delivery. See also hypoxaemia objectives, 3 oxygen delivery devices. See also oxygenation, See also bag-mask device, See also facemasks anaesthetic breathing system, 13–15 anaesthetic breathing system, pitfalls using, 15–16 assisted ventilation, 10–11, 15, 27–29 fixed-performance, 9–10 Mapleson C, 14–15, 17
spontaneous ventilation, 7–10, 15, 27 variable-performance, 7–9 oxygen requirements in transfer, 118 oxygen saturation by pulse oximetry (SpO₂), 16–17 oxygenation. See also pre-oxygenation, See also oxygen delivery devices apnoeic, 82
basic airway management, 27–29
  can’t intubate, can oxygenate 97–98
  can’t intubate, can’t oxygenate, 92, 98
  critical, 36–37
  ensuring adequate, 91
  monitoring, 16
  O HELP mnemonic, 97, 186
  optimal, 6–7
  techniques, 91–92
oxyhaemoglobin dissociation curve, 16–17, 81
Oxylog 3000 ventilator, 111–112

paediatric emergency airway management, 121–131
  anatomical considerations, 122
  breathing systems, 126
  cricoid pressure, 123
  difficult airways, 130
  drug dosages, 123
  equipment, 124–126
  physiological considerations, 122
  positioning, 124
  ventilators, 130
  weight of child, 123

paediatric rapid sequence induction (RSI) intubation preparation, 129–130
  laryngoscopy, 128–129
  pre-oxygenation, 128–129
  partial pressure of carbon dioxide (arterial) (P_{a,CO_2}), 4 partial pressure of oxygen (alveolar)
    (P_{a,O_2}), 4
  partial pressure of oxygen (arterial)
    (P_{a,O_2}), 4
  values, 3
  patient transfer. See transfer preparation PEACH mnemonic, 52, 185
  peer review, 2
  perfusion ventilation mismatch, 4–6 personal audit, 183
  pharmacology of emergency airway drugs, 63–64, See also propofol, See also neuromuscular blockers,
  See also midazolam, See also ketamine
  analgesia, 70
  elderly patients, 69–70
  etomidate, 66
  induction drugs, 64–70
  paediatric dosages, 123 potential complications, 75–78 summary of main drugs, 65 thiopental, 67–68
  pneumothorax, 37, 44, 135
  POSPES mnemonic, 186
  positive end expiratory pressure (PEEP), 111, 142
  post-intubation management, 105–106
  airway, 106
  asthma patient, 142–143
  breathing, 109–114
  circulation, 114–115
  disability, 115
  exposure and environment, 116
  extubation, 119
  review, 87
  trauma patients, 138
  pre-anaesthesia patient assessment, 43–44 pre-ecampsia, 162
  pre-hospital RSI, 154–158
  assistance, 157
  emergency medical service, 155
  environment, 157
  equipment, 157
  indications for, 155–156
  patient access, 156
  positioning, 157
  principles of, 156
  safety, 156
  technique, 156
  pre-oxygenation, 17–18, 58, 81–82
  non-traumatic coma patient, 151
  paediatric, 128–129
  positioning, 52–53
  seizures, 153
  propofol, 66–67, 115
  ProSeal laryngeal mask airway (PLMA), 92–93
  protocols, failure to follow, 194
pulmonary diffusion defects, 6
pulmonary oedema, 37, 167
pulse oximetry, 16, 59
ramped position, 53
rapid sequence induction (RSI), 80,
See also intubation, See also anaesthesia
checklist, 192
cricoid pressure, 82–84
diagnostic emergency department complications, 194 failed first-attempt intubation, 90
hypotension after, 114–115
laryngoscopy and intubation, 84–86
pre-oxygenation, 58
trauma patient, 132, 134–135
videolaryngoscopy, 86
rapid sequence induction (RSI)
equipment, 53
advanced airway, 56
airway adjuncts, 55
basic resuscitation, 56
failed intubation, 56
laryngoscopes, 55
oxygen delivery systems, 55
suction, 55
trolley, 54
rapid sequence induction (RSI)
preparation, 51–62
apnoeic oxygenation, 82
checklists and team briefings, 60
optimal positioning, 52
pre-oxygenation, 81–82
pre-oxygenation positioning, 52–53
team member organization, 61
remifentanil, 115
rescue ventilation techniques, 100–101
respiratory compromise, causes of 32
respiratory emergencies, 141–144
apnoeic patient in respiratory arrest 33
respiratory failure
high probability of, 37–40

204 Index

pulmonary diffusion defects, 6
pulmonary oedema, 37, 167
pulse oximetry, 16, 59
ramped position, 53
rapid sequence induction (RSI), 80,
See also intubation, See also anaesthesia
checklist, 192
cricoid pressure, 82–84
diagnostic emergency department complications, 194
failed first-attempt intubation, 90
hypotension after, 114–115
laryngoscopy and intubation, 84–86
pre-oxygenation, 58
trauma patient, 132, 134–135
videolaryngoscopy, 86
rapid sequence induction (RSI)
equipment, 53
advanced airway, 56
airway adjuncts, 55
basic resuscitation, 56
failed intubation, 56
laryngoscopes, 55
oxygen delivery systems, 55
suction, 55
trolley, 54
rapid sequence induction (RSI)
preparation, 51–62
apnoeic oxygenation, 82
checklists and team briefings, 60
optimal positioning, 52
pre-oxygenation, 81–82
pre-oxygenation positioning, 52–53
team member organization, 61
remifentanil, 115
rescue ventilation techniques, 100–101
respiratory compromise, causes of 32
respiratory emergencies, 141–144
apnoeic patient in respiratory arrest 33
respiratory failure
high probability of, 37–40
type 1, 36
type 2, 36–37
rocuronium, 70, 74–75, 119
SBAR (Situation, Background, Assessment and Recommendation), 180
seizures, 36, 40, 147–154
control of, 116
immediate treatment principles, 149–150
intubation, indications for, 150–151
intubation, technique, 152–153
pre-oxygenation, 153
risks to patient, 148
treatment pitfalls, 153–154
sepsis, 39–40, 145
Simplified Airway Risk Index (SARI), 47
Simplified Predictive Intubation
Difficulty Score (SPIDS), 47 simulation facilities, 2, 182 skills maintenance, 183 sniffing the morning air position, 20–22 standardizing tasks, 181 stylet, 57, 85, 94
paediatric use, 128
suction, 23, 55
paediatric use, 125
sugammadex, 74, 119
supine hypotensive syndrome, 159 supraglottic airway device (SAD), 98 insertion technique, 94 use of, 92–93
suxamethonium, 70–74, 76, 94, 97, 123
Swiss cheese model, 181 synchronized intermittent mandatory ventilation (SIMV), 109

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-66125-7 - Emergency Airway Management: Second Edition
Edited by: Andrew Burtenshaw, Jonathan Benger & Jerry Nolan
Index

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
transfer preparation, 105–106
airway, 106
breathing, 109–114
circulation, 114–115
definitive management, 116–120
disability, 115
exposure and environment, 116
neuromuscular blockers, 115
oxygen requirements, 118 trauma and raised intracranial pressure, 131–140 agitated patient, 139
airway, 132
breathing, 135–136
cervical spine management, 133–134
circulation, 136–137
neurologic injury, 137–138
post-intubation management, 138
RSI, 132, 134–135
signs of, 150
transport and monitoring, 138–139 traumatic brain injury (TBI).
   See trauma and raised intracranial pressure vecuronium bromide, 75 ventilation. See also non-invasive ventilation (NIV)
   bag-mask device, 28, 44
   impaired mechanics of, 4 perfusion mismatch, 4–6 post-intubation, 109–114 rescue techniques, 100–101 spontaneous, 7–10, 15, 27 systems, checking, 57
ventilator associated lung injury (VALI), 136
ventilators
   CMV mode, 109
   examples of, 110
   initial set-up, 111–112
   paediatric use, 130
   trouble shooting, 112–114 volume controlled mode, 109 ventricular fibrillation, 33 Venturi valve, 9, 11
videolaryngoscopy, 2, 57, 86, 96
Yankauer suction, 125