→ page 181 Language reference: Word formation – adding prefixes

3 Work in pairs. Which of the adjectives in Exercise 2 describe typical attitudes of parents to teenagers? Why? Which describe typical attitudes of teenagers to parents? Why?

4 Work in groups.

- Make a list of things teenage children sometimes say about their parents.

They never listen to me!
They never let me do what I want!
They're very unreasonable.
They work really hard.
They help me when I have problems at school.

- What can you do to live happily with your parents?
Be honest with them and respect their point of view.

5 Read the article carefully, ignoring the gaps, and make a note of the main idea of each paragraph. An example has been done for you.

Parents are humans too !

Talking to parents, can be difficult, but a little understanding on both sides can make it easier.

Do you ever get the feeling that your parents just don't listen to you? They'd rather discuss how much you're studying and how long you've been playing computer games this evening than helping you book tickets to see your favourite band. It's not that your parents ignore you completely; it's more that they don't see things in quite the same way as you. When you talk to them, they may give the impression that they're taking in what you say. 1 It's as if the words are going in, but the meaning just isn't getting through to them. And this isn't the only problem you may face.

It's hard for teenagers to talk to their parents.

As you grow up, your personality is developing and you're trying to become more independent, so naturally you have more questions and opinions about all aspects of your life. You start wondering whether your parents actually know what they're talking about. 2 That's often because it's the first time they've been responsible for a teenager and they're learning to cope!

Obviously, it's important to respect your parents and you should try to understand why they might have a different point of view from yours. Their priority is to provide you with a structured environment, where they can guide and support you. It's crucial for them to know what you're doing and that you're safe. However, it's vital that they try and see your point of view. 3

After all, in only a few years you'll probably leave home and have to look after yourself!

Although this situation is absolutely normal, it doesn't make it any easier. Ideally, your home should be a place where things can be discussed reasonably and constructively. However, parents are human too and can be hurt by what you say to them. Try to remember that in every family there are good times and bad times, but your parents are there for you throughout. 4 You'll be taking steps to earn their trust, and they might be prepared to be more tolerant.

Be sensitive! If there is something you really have to talk about, don't bring it up just before your Mum or Dad goes to work or just before bedtime. Think about what you are going to say and during the discussion, keep calm and be open and honest. Avoid talking about how your friends' parents behave in similar situations. 5 Reminding yourself that many other teenagers are having the same problems can, however, offer the best way of coping with such feelings.

The important thing is to keep talking. 6 Remember that there's no reason why people should automatically understand all your views. The more you can discuss things with your parents in a mature way, the happier you will feel. On the other hand, if you really find it impossible to talk to your parents, it might be a good idea to find a family member, teacher or professional counsellor who can help you. Above all, stay positive and remember that it won't be long before you'll be able to make your own decisions.

6 Six sentences have been removed from the article. Choose the correct sentence (A–G) which fits each gap (1–6). There is one extra sentence which you do not need. Use the underlined words and phrases in the sentences and in the text to help you.

- A These doubts can lead to arguments and it's hard for parents to know how to deal with this.
- B But that doesn't mean they're right on this occasion.
- C They also need to give you the freedom to make your own decisions.
- D In fact they're often not actually doing so at all.
- E And don't take yourself too seriously!
- F It won't help your attempts to communicate and may only increase the frustrations you're experiencing.

More than two-thirds of the young people who were surveyed, clean floors (2) least once a week and more than 80% regularly set the table for meals or (3) the washing-up. Girls are more likely than boys to wash (4) own clothes.

(5) are, however, a few teens who only do the housework because they are made (6) by their parents. Speaking Part 1

EXAM INFORMATION

In Speaking Part 1, the examiner asks you questions about yourself. These may include questions about your life or studies, your plans for the future, your family and your interests, etc.

1 Look at these two questions, which the examiner may ask you in Speaking Part 1.

- Where are you from?
- What do you like about the place where you live?

- 1 Which question asks you to give your personal opinion? Which asks you for personal information?
- 2 Which question can be answered with quite a short phrase? Which question needs a longer answer?

2 03 Listen to two candidates, Irene and Peter, answering the questions above. Who do you think gives the best answers? Why?

3 In the exam, you will get higher marks if you use a range of appropriate vocabulary. Work in pairs. Which of these phrases can you use to describe the place where you live?

Writing Part 1 An essay

EXAM INFORMATION

In Writing Part 1, you:

- ▶ write an essay in which you discuss a question or topic. After the essay title, there are some notes which you must use.
- ▶ must also include your own ideas.
- ▶ must write between 140 and 190 words.

- 1 Read this writing task and underline the points you must deal with.

In your English class, you have been talking about how much teenagers and young people should help with the housework.

Now your English teacher has asked you to write an essay. Write an essay using all the notes and give reasons for your point of view.

Essay question

Teenagers and young people should share housework equally with their parents. Do you agree?

Notes

Write about:

1. who has more time for housework
2. who does housework better
3. ... (your own idea)

Write your essay.

- 2 Work in groups. Discuss the task and try to find two or three things you can say about each of the notes 1–3.

- 3 Read Violetta's answer to the task, ignoring the gaps. Which of her ideas do you agree with and which do you disagree with?

(1) it is fashionable to say that everyone should share the housework equally, in many homes parents do most of it. (2), I believe people of all ages should do their fair share.

It is true that young people spend most of the day at school or college and they also have large amounts of homework to do when they come home. (3), parents go out to work and come home tired. In my view, family life is more pleasant when everyone shares the responsibility for cleaning and tidying because it takes less time.

People often argue that parents do the cooking and ironing better. (4) in my opinion, young people should learn to do them as preparation for the future.

Finally, housework is boring if you do it alone (5) when families do it together, it gives parents and children a chance to talk to each other about the things that matter to them. This greatly improves family life and makes young people more cooperative and responsible.

For all these reasons, I think that family life is more pleasant when everyone shares the chores.

- 4 Complete this plan for Violetta's essay by matching the notes (a–e) with the paragraphs (1–5).

Para. 1: intro:
 Para. 2:
 Para. 3:
 Para. 4:
 Para. 5: conclusion:

- a life more enjoyable doing things together
 b time: young people studying, parents working, chores finished more quickly c get practice – you improve d sharing work together – better family life
 e parents do most of it + my opinion

- 5 It is important to express your opinions in an essay. Find four phrases which Violetta uses to introduce her personal opinions.

- 6 When you write an essay, you should try to present contrasting points of view. Complete Violetta's essay by writing although, however, on the other hand or whereas in each of the gaps 1–5. Then check your answers by reading the Language reference.

→ page 168 Language reference: Linking words for contrast

- 7 Complete these sentences by writing although, however, on the other hand or whereas in the gaps. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible.

- Adults tend to worry more about their health, young people are more concerned about money.
- I am happy to do some of the cooking, I don't want to do it all.
- My mum and dad have similar tastes., mine are completely different.
- my parents give me a lot of freedom, I would prefer to have even more independence.
- Young people often spend many hours a week on their social life., older people are often too busy.
- I enjoy making beds., I'm not at all keen on doing the ironing.

- 8 Write your own answer to the writing task in Exercise 1. Before you write, use the notes you made in Exercise 2 to write a plan. Write between 140 and 190 words.

- Use Violetta's answer in Exercise 3 as a model, but express your own ideas and the ideas which came up during your discussion.
