

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-66565-1 - The History of the Law of Prescription in England

Thomas Arnold Herbert

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

	PAGES
Introductory	1—5
CHAPTER I.
For what time prescription must run	6—21
CHAPTER II.
The Prescription Act	22—57
CHAPTER III.
(i) Who may prescribe	58—76
(ii) Who may be prescribed against	76—84
CHAPTER IV.
What things may be prescribed for	85—133
CHAPTER V.
How prescription must be made: the requisites of prescription	134—142
CHAPTER VI.
The public benefit	143—145
CHAPTER VII.
Prescription against rules of Common Law or against Statutes	146—155
H.	b

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-66565-1 - The History of the Law of Prescription in England

Thomas Arnold Herbert

Table of Contents

More information

x

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER VIII.

	PAGES
Pleading a prescription against a prescription	156—160

CHAPTER IX.

How the prescription must be pleaded	161—181
--	---------

CHAPTER X.

What finding will support a prescription	182—189
--	---------

CHAPTER XI.

How prescriptive rights are destroyed or lost	190—203
---	---------