

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I
 Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

The figures generally refer to pages. The sign § indicates a chief subject of the paragraph in question.

A more compendious index is given in the Danish edition, Vor Folkegruppe Gottjod. In order to facilitate the use of this index, the paging of the Danish edition is put in the margin.

- a*, Gothonic, < I.E. o (cp. Alagabiae, alēv, Baimoi, Maas, Walh-, Wasgau), mark of age in loan words, 61, 99, 106, 213, 241, 243.
- ā>ō*, Gothonic development (cp. alprænn, Anniōna, Bācenis, bók, Dānuvius, fágus, norrænn, Rūmōneis), mark of age in loan words, 61, 95, 193, 241, 243.
- Abodriti, Wendish tribe, inherit Saxon regions, 249; Aptrezi, form with High German Sound Shift, 63.
- Acatziri, Hunnish tribe, with r-suffix, 132.
- Achaei, 'Αχαιοί, name of the Greeks, 88. Doubtful equation—Ingaevones (?), 90 note.
- açpa*, Iranian : see -ahwa.
- Act-auja, Gothonic name of island, with Celtic model in the Rhine delta: *Men-apia, 174.
- Adonis 'the Lord', Semitic fertility god, model for Balder 'the Lord', 72, 76, 224, 225; 'Garden of Adonis', cp. Baldershause, 226.
- Ad-uatuci, Belgian 'Germani', 19.
- Adye or Antes = Circassians, 61, 63, 246, § 68.
- Aegidius, Roman governor of Gaul, in Frankish legend, 105.
- Aestii = Baltic peoples, I.E. group of peoples, with Gothonic 'home-made' name, 62, 67, 250, § 53, § 54.
- Aëtius, Agetius, Roman governor of Gaul, = Angantýr in Norse legend, 104.
- Agenarich or Serapion, Alamannic prince, 98.
- Agilmund, Langb. king, killed by the Bulgarians, 133, 135, 246; model of Angantýr?, 135, 246.
- Agiolfingi, South Gothonic family name, 163.
- Agri Decumates east of the Rhine, 97, 120, 244.
- ahwa*, water names in (> Iranian -açpa? cp. Hydaspes), 176, 197.
- ai>ē>ie*, development in Latin loan words, cp. Raetovarii, Riesser, 61, 63, 160, 243.
- aib*, 'land', cp. Ant-, Bayn-, Burgundaib, Wetareiba, Wingarteiba, 177.
- Airyana = Iranians, 67.
- Ais-marě, Lithuanian = O.E. Est-mere, das Frische Haff, 77.
- Ala-gabiae, 'all-giving', < Celt. Ollo-gabiae, Rhennish spirits (with Gothonic a for o, cp. 61), 123, 186, 213.
- Alamanni, Alemanians, German tribe, stand for Gothonic nations, 24, 36, § 22; Compound type, 159; conquer the Agri Decumates, 244.
- Alani, Iranian tribe, = Iron or Osseti, 60, 68, 70.
- Alarodi, aborigines of Armenia, 70.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Peoples: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I
Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

256

INDEX

- Albanians or Arnaut or Škipetar, I.E. group of peoples, with ‘Satem language’, 60 § 50.
- Albanoi, Illyrian tribe, 71.
- Alberih, Rhenish king of dwarfs=Aubry, Oberon, < Celt. Mars Albiorix, 70, 124, 186.
- Albis, the Elbe, Short Simplex, 59, 164.
- alb-rūna*, a German witch, 185.
- Alci, the dioscures among the East Gothic tribe of Nahanarvali, 185, § 97.
- alēv*, ‘oil’ < lat. olevum* (o > a, cp. 61), 78, 99, 197. Map Fig. 7.
- alfr*, ‘elfish spirit’, § 93.
- alliterative family names, § 83 d.
- Alobriges, Celtic ‘foederati’ of Rome on the Obringa (Moselle), 118.
- alp*, Germ., ‘nightmare’, 213.
- Alpine ‘Germani’, 21.
- al-rūna*, ‘witch’, 185.
- alþroenn*, ‘aged’, with suffix -ōn < -ān, 193.
- Ām-ādaka, ‘Raw-eaters’, Aryan name of non-Aryan neighbours (cannibals ?), 2.
- Amali, archaic Gothic family name; later expanded to Amelunge, 162.
- ambactus*, Gaulish, > Got. andbahts, 123.
- amber trade in Prussia, 78.
- Ambi-touti, Gaulish tribe, Compound with element teut- ‘people’=Goth. þiuda (cp. Gut-þiuda), 56, 158.
- Ambrones, ancient Gothic tribe-name, 155.
- ān*, characteristic of Umbrian-Sabellian tribal names, 96.
- ān*, Germanic mark of foreign nationality, § 46.
- Angantýr, cp. Aëtius and Agilmund.
- Angeilo, tribal name, 156, 169.
- Angel, territorial name, Long type, 169.
- Anglo-Saxons, date of the nationality, 51; ‘Wave-Theory’, § 31.
- animal shape of gods, § 96.
- animism, § 92.
- Anniōna, Bavarian family name, 162; -ōn < -ān ?, 193.
- Ansegis, ‘Anchises’, leader of Frank. Sax. migration, 139.
- Antes, Adyge, Circassians, 61, 63, § 68; in the myth, 64; = Slavs, 136.
- ānum*, mark of Roman estates and colonies, 97.
- Anund, Dan. island, 168; expanded into An(un)d-ø, 174.
- ‘Apollo’, the Celtic Belenus, 111, 112, 123.
- Arab geographers, 137.
- Arabians in Switzerland, 250.
- Argippaei or Arimphaei, in Russia, probably Huns, 119, 132.
- Arianism, ethnic mark of the ‘Gothic group’, 32.
- arja*, Gothic, < Lat. -ārio, 160, 194.
- Armenians or Haikh, I.E. group of peoples, 1, 67, § 49; with ‘Satem language’, 1.
- Arnaut*, see Albanians.
- Arnmœðlingar, Norw. family name, of South Gothic type, 163.
- Aryans=Indo-Europeans, 1; I.E. group of peoples, 1, 2, 9, 60, 119, 127, 197, 202; § 47, § 48; with long trousers, 67, 69, 72, 109, 202; with ‘Satem language’, 1, 67.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

257

- asc*, Ligurian suffix, in Belgium, 23.
Ase, Danish lake, Short Simplex, 165.
Ases, ‘gods’, 214, § 93; derived from ‘Asia’, 138.
Astarte or Nanna, Semitic goddess, 223, 224, 225.
Atecotti in Scotland, so-called cannibals, 65.
Ätra, river in Halland, Short Simplex, 165.
Attila, Hunnish king with Gothic name, 133–135.
Atys, Asiatic god, model for Balder, 72, 226.
Augusta > Augustes-burg, 99, 153, 154.
Augusto-briga, Gaulish non-genitive type, 99, 108, 153.
Auri-wandalus, Or-vendill, the morning star, 184, 220.
Auster-auja, Frisian name of island, with Celtic model (cp. Act-auja), 173.
Avars, East European nomads, 246, 249, § 66.
- b*, irregularly for p (cp. Betaw-*, Beormas, Britannica lingua), 62, 63, 77, 126.
b>p through Gothic Sound Shift (cp. paida, hemp), 57.
Baal ‘the Lord’, Semitic god, cp. Balder ‘the Lord’, 76, 225.
Bäcenis, German mountain, ‘the beech-wood’, 59; with Gothic development ā > ō, 61, 95; Long Type, 168.
Baduhenna, Frisian goddess, 185, 222.
baga, ‘God’, Iranian loan word in Slavonic and Mordwinic, 83, 127.
Baimoi, Bainochaimoi in Bohemia, with Gothic a < o, 162.
Bairn, ‘leather jacket’ > Got. paida, with Sound Shift, 91, 202, 223, 241.
Baivarii < Celt. Boii, with Gothic a < o, 106, 160.
Bajas < Celt. Boii, with Gothic a < o, 62, 106, 241.
Bakssan, Circassian chieftain, killed by the Gut=the Goths, 136.
Balagarðssíða, a Finnish coast=M.H.G. Palaker, 131.
Balder ‘the Lord’, reflects the Semitic Adonis, and Atys, 76, 225, 226.
Baldershaze, cp. the ‘gardens of Adonis’, 226.
Baltic peoples=Aestii, I.E. group of peoples, 1, 60, 64, 127, 197, 222, 240, 246, 247, 251, § 53, § 54, with ‘Satem language’ 1, 77; worship the ‘mother of gods’ (Cybele), 77, 222; absorb the Gothic Vidivarii, 250.
-bant, in Frankish place names (cp. Bucino-bantes, Tu-bantes), 177.
-bara, in Swabian place names, 177.
Basques (=Iberians?; cp. kabliau and Gascogne), 3, 137.
Bastarnae, East Gothic tribe, 15, 38, 49, 68, 73, 90, 132, 145, 240, 241; Long type, 156; perhaps=‘bastards’, 192.
Batavi, West German tribal name, Compound or Derivative?, 159, 174; Celticised, Romanised, 244; worship of ‘Mercurius’, 228.
baurgs-waddjus, the only genitive Compound in Gothic, 150.
becher, ‘beaker’ < Lat. bicarium, showing High German Sound Shift, 100, 101.
Belcae, probably=Belgians, with ‘Scythian’, i.e. non-Celtic nationality, 23.
Bello-vesus, the leader of the Gaulish migration to Italy, 116.
beorht, ‘bright’, with vocalic ‘Breaking’, 45.
Beormas=Permians, with vocalic ‘Breaking’, and irregular b < p, 45, 63, 77, 126.
-berg, compound element, with Celtic model -briga, see -burg.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

258

INDEX

- Berry, Hallstatt basis, starting point of the Bituriges in Italy, 115.
- Bessi, Thracian tribe, not yet denationalised (6 A.D.), perhaps partially surviving in the Albanians (cp. Salamvria), 71, 73, 74.
- *Betaw (Pettau) < Poetovio, Pannonian city, with irregular b for p, 244.
- Biessoi, Dacian tribal name, whence perhaps the Bieskides, name of a mountain, 73.
- Bituriges, Gaulish tribe in Berry, emigrates to Italy, 115; mining work, 110; Hallstatt basis, 115; toponymic Berroviers, 160.
- Bleda, Hunnish prince with Gothic name, 133; the German form Bloedelin expresses foreign nationality, 66, 134.
- blōtan*, 'to worship', Gothic, 211, 230.
- Bobbio, Irish monastery in Italy, 111.
- bōc*, 'beech', O.E. = Lat. fagus, with ō > ā (cp. Bācenis), 56, 61, 89.
- bōc*, 'book', O.E. originally = 'letter', 'rune', 235.
- body-guard, 205.
- bog*, 'God', Slavonic, see baga.
- Böger, inhabitants of Boge on Gotland, 155.
- Bohem, eponymous ancestor of Bohemians, 135.
- Bohemians = Gipsies, 67.
- Boii, Gaulish tribe in Bohemia = Got. Bajas, with a < o, 62, 106, 241; repulse the Cimbri, invade Gaul, ejected by the Marcomans, 242, 243.
- Boio-haemum, Bohemia, Compound formed before A.D., 153, 162, 179.
- Boio-rix, 'king of Boii', Cimbrian personal name, 65; perhaps model for Berig, leader of the Gothic migration from Scandia, 143.
- bonae res*, 'goodminded wights', Lat., 214.
- bændr*, Scand. element in toponymics, 162.
- Bordgal = Bordeaux, Irish monastery, 111.
- Borgund, Dan. Norw. name of islands, important Long type, 167, 183.
- Borkum, Byrchanis, Frisian island, 168.
- Borvo, 'the warm', Gaulish surname of Apollo as god of the hot springs Bourbon and Bourbonne, 112.
- böse wichter*, 'bad wights', German, 214.
- Bos-poros, name of Greek channel, corresponding to Dan. Mejl-far, 177.
- Bourgogne, Hallstatt basis, 115.
- Bove, Bovo, Dan. Germ. phallic god, 226.
- Boz, cp. Bakssan.
- brācae*, 'long trousers', Gaulish, etym. = 'breeches', 202; Aryan fashion of Gauls, Dacians, Gothic nations, 67, 69, 72, 109, 122, 202.
- Breaking of vowels in English and Scandinavian, 45.
- Breoten, Britain, with vocalic 'Breaking', 63, 107.
- Bretas, Bretwealas = Britons, 107.
- Breuni, Rhaetian tribe, expanded to *Breunarii (Pregnarii), 160.
- bridge*, Germ. brügge, with double g, different from O.N. brú, 48.
- Brigantia, eponymous spirit of Brigantes, = Irish fairy Bridget, 111.
- Briges = Phrygians in the native language, 71.
- Brisi-gavi, German tribe in Breisgau, 162, 177.
- 'Britannica lingua' of the Pruteni, erroneous form with irregular b for p, 63, 77.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I
Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

259

- British phase of Gothonic history, § 109.
 Britons, 106, 245, 246, 250; in myth, 125.
-briva, Celtic model of place names in ‘-bridge’, 48, 176.
-brog, Celtic model of place names in -mark (cp. Pem-broke), 176.
 Bructeri, German tribe, Long type, 156.
brub-fabs, ‘bridegroom’, Gothic (cp. dam-pati, hospes), 195.
-búar, Scand. element in toponymics, 162.
 Bucino-bantes, so-called Alamannic tribe, with Frankish element -bant, 177.
 Budorgis, Germ. place name, with favourite Gothonic ending -is, 59.
 Bulgarians, East European nations, with r-suffix, 132, 135, 246.
-burg < -πυργόν? (cp. Saltu-pyrgo), 97, 175.
 Burgund-aib, Langb. place name, 144, 177.
 Burgundians, East Gothonic tribe, 38, 47, 49; derive themselves from the Romans, 103, 138; from Scandinavia, 140; home *Bornholm, 240.
 Burgundo-farones = Burgundians; element -far as in East Danish, 162.
 Buri, East Gothonic tribe, Simplex type, 270; Dacian fashion of caps, 76.
-byggjar, Scand. element in toponymics, 162.
 Byngar, inhabitants of Bynge on Gotland, 155.
 Byrchanis, Borkum, Frisian island, 168.
- Cal-ridge, now Calry, Celtic model for names in -riki, 175.
 Campi, Danubian tribe, in Germ. Champriche, 63.
 Camulus, ‘Mars’, Celtic god, possibly model for Humal and Humli, 228.
 Cantii, British tribe, > Cant-ware, 63, 160.
 Cappadocians in Asia Minor; their relations with the Goths (cp. Wulfila), 137
 Carantani = Kärntner (without High German Sound Shift), 63.
 Caranusca, place name on the Moselle, with Ligurian suffix, 23.
 Carolingi, family name, < Charlemagne, 163.
 Carpi, see Karpoi.
 Cásero, O.E. = Caesar = O.N. Kiar; his palaces, 104. cásering, ‘coin with Caesar’s image’, O.E. = O.H. Germ. cheisuring, 100.
-casses, element in Gaulish tribal names = Cassi in Britain, 115.
-caster, -chester, -ester < Lat. -castra (cp. Leitcastre), 153, 177.
catu-, ‘battle’, Gaulish honorary prefix, model for heabo-, 158.
 Catu-volcus, Celtic personal name, 23; > Germ. Hadu-walh, 66, 122.
 Cauca-land-, Gothic place name, 161.
caupo, ‘chandler’, Latin, model for cheap and Germ. kaufen (showing High German Sound Shift), 100.
-cella > Germ. -zell, 101, 177.
 Celtic phases of Gothonic history, § 105, § 109.
 Celto-Scythians = Gothonic nations, 10, 35, § 17.
 Celts, Galatai, Wealas, I.E. group of peoples, 1, 9, 10, 54, 55, 60, 62, 63, 68, 69, 92, 93, 95, 96, 99, 158 seq., 173 seq., 196, § 38, § 62, § 63, § 102, § 105, § 109; with ‘Kentum language’, 107; eastern and western group, 107; the name used for ‘Gothonic nations’, 24, 35, 92, § 18.
 Cenn Cruaich, Irish idol (cp. Pennocrucium), 4.

17-2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Peoples: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

260

INDEX

- Ceno-mani, Gaulish tribe, model for Gothonic -mann?, 159.
centum, 'hundred', Latin, pronounced kentum (cp. Kentum languages), 2.
Cernunnos, 'the horned-man', Gaulish god with stag's horns, on the vessel from Gundestrup, 112, 124.
cethir, 'four', Old Irish, with c (i.e. k) < q, 108.
Chaid- 'Heath', district name with toponymic Chaideinoi (cp. Letocetum), 164.
Chaideinoi, O.N. Heinir, Norwegian tribe, 156, 164.
Chamaui, German tribe, Compound or Derivative name?, 174.
Chamynē, Greek goddess, cp. Lithuanian Zemyna, 72.
Chasv-arii, German tribe, < river *Haswa, 160.
Chatt-varii, German tribe, 160.
Chauci, tribe in Hanover; among the Ingvarones, 38; their pirates attack Belgium, 211.
Chazari, East European nation, with r-suffix, 132.
Cherusci, German tribe, 38; suffix -usc as in Ligurian names, 156.
Chlodio, Frankish prince, 187; probably = Hlipse, Hlǫðr in legend, 104.
chrotta, the British harp, 110.
Chuni, see Huns.
'church', loan word from Greek, 92.
Churwälse = Rhaeto-Roman people, 95.
Ciar-rige, now Kerry, Celtic model for Compounds in -rīki, 175.
Cimbri, Kimbroi, Jutish tribe in Himmerland, 38, 39, 97, 119, 242; worship 'Mercurius', 228; worship the bull, § 96; the name used for 'Gothonic nations', 10, 35, § 13.
Circassians, Antes, Adyge, 61, 63, § 68.
cnu, 'nut', O. Irish = Lat. nux, O.N. knot, 56.
-co, typical Latin suffix, 96.
coll, 'hazel', O. Irish = Lat. corulus, O.N. hasl, 56.
com-erbe, 'co-heir', O. Irish = M.H.G. gan-erbe, 152.
com-munis, 'common', Latin = Got. ga-mains, 56, 152.
Compound tribal names with Celtic models, Map Fig. 6.
con-junx, 'mate', Latin = Gr. σύζυξ, Got. ga-jukō, 152.
Continental Celtic phase of Gothonic history, § 105.
coracle, Celtic leather boat, 4.
Core-ac, the river Gurk with the element -ahwa 'water', 176.
Corduba, now Cordova, with Iberian suffix -ub, 3.
Cornishmen, Cornwealas, Kornbretar, 107.
Cosmic names, often Compounds, § 80.
Cotenii, Celtic miners in Moravia, 110.
covade, male childbed among Iberian and Caucasian peoples, 3, 8.
cow, worshipped as a deity, 221; the carriages of Cybele and Nerthus driven by cows, 223.
Crécas, O.E. = Got. Krēkōs, 'Greeks', showing no Gothonic Sound Shift, perhaps loan-word from Tyrrhenian Creice, 62, 88.
Crimean Goths, 28, 32; Tartarised, 253.
'crown', Greek loan word, lacking in Gothic, 101, Map Fig. 7.
Cruithne = Picts, pre-Celtic aborigines of Ireland and Scotland, 19; identification with Pretannoi scarcely correct, 107.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothonic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I
Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

261

- Čud' < Got. Thiudos, Russian name of the Finns, 126.
 Cugerni, West German tribe, 122 note; Celticised, Romanised, 244.
 Curi, inhabitants of Courland, 126, 154.
 Curubis, African place name with type -ub as in Spain and Britain, 3.
 Cuso or Gusi, Finnish legendary king, 130.
 Cuturguri, Hunnish tribe with r-suffix, 132.
 Cwénas, O.E., Kvænir O.N.=Kainulaiset, a Finnish tribe; the Gothonic form shows no Sound Shift, 63, 126; interpreted as 'people of queens', 63, 126.
 Cybele, goddess in Asia Minor, model for Nerthus, 72, 76, 77, 223.
- dachs*, 'badger', Germ.=τέκτων, 'carpenter', 210.
 Dacians, I.E. nation, with 'Satem language' (cp. Tzurullon), 60, 62, 119, 240, 243, §51, §52.
 Daedalus, a parallel to Wayland Smith, 216.
dag, 'day', O.L.G.=O.N. dagr, Got. dags, example of the differentiation of Gothonic z, 49.
dagēn, 'to be silent', O.H.G.=Lat. tacere, example of the verbal ē-class, 56.
 Dagobert, Frankish king, beaten by the Slavs (cp. Dankwart), 133, 135, 249.
 Dakṣinā-patha, Deccan, Aryan model for Swed. Medel-pad, 176.
 Damnonii, tribes in Devon and Scotland, probably=the Irish Fir Domhnann, of pre-Celtic nationality, 3, 117. dam-pati, 'house-lord', O. Ind.=δεσ-πότης, 7, 8, 89.
 Dan, eponymous ancestor of the Danes, 142, 214.
 Danai, poetical name of the Greeks, 88.
 Danes, date of state, 52; legend of origin, 142; first viking raids, 251; the name expanded to Danish, Danske, 154; Danish linguistic frontiers, 49.
 Danish tongue=Scandinavian nationality, 49.
 Dankwart, probably an epic reflection of Dagobert, 135.
 Danpar, O.N.=Dnieper, showing no Gothonic Sound Shift, 240.
 Dānuvius>Donau, adopted into German after the Gothonic Sound Shift, but before the development ā>ā, 58, 241.
 Dardani, Illyrian tribe, with eponymus Dardanus, 94.
 Darolažak, Lappish name of Norwegians and Swedes, 129.
-dava, -deva, typical Dacian-Thracian element in place names (cp. Pulpudeva, Setidava), 72.
 De-fid, God's wood, O. Irish model of place names in -wood, 175.
 Defne-sætan=Damnonii in Devon, 107.
 Dejbjerg carriages, 209.
 Delvunda, German river name, 170.
 Demons, § 94.
 Denmark, derived from Danes (not the other way round), 149, 176.
 Deusonianus, Hercules, in Doesborgh, 219.
 Deutsche, Teutsche=Germans, 28; date of nationality, 51; =Gothonic nations, 10, 26, 36, § 20.
dēvas, 'heaven', Lithuanian > Finn. taivas, 127, 218.
dienstag, 'Tuesday', Germ.< Mars Thingsus, 218.
dies Martis, French mardi, genitive model for 'Tuesday', 153, 197, 218.
 Dionysus, Thracian god, 72.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

262

INDEX

- Dioscures Alci among the East Gothic tribe of Nahanarvali (cp. Hasdingi), § 97.
 dipylon style of the sun image from Trundholm, 91, 209, 241.
 Dirschkeim, Prussian place name exhibiting the borrowed Gothic element -heim, 80.
dís, female spirit in Norse mythology, 185, 213.
divum, ‘heaven’, Lat., cp. dēvas and Týr.
 Dnieper, cp. Danpar.
-dælir, ‘inhabitants of valleys’, Norse element in toponymics, 162.
 Donar-beraht, German personal name with the name of the thunder god as first element, 189.
 Donau, cp. Dānuvius.
 Dorn-sætas, Dorn-ware < Brit. Durnov-arii, 107, 159.
dregil, ‘thrall’, O. Germ., with degrading derivative ending -il, 192, 205.
dróttinn, ‘leader of the host’, O.N., with exalting derivative ending -in, 191, 192.
 Drozza, Bavarian family name, archaic Simplex, 162.
druhliz*, ‘body-guard’, 205.
 ‘druid’, Celtic priest, 109; the Gothic nations have no druids, 230.
 Drusi tumulus > Trusiléh, Drusenloch at Mayence, 180.
 Dubra, ‘dark’, Celtic river name in Germany, 113.
 Dún-sætas, British population, 107.
 Durnov-arii > Dorn-ware, Celtic model for the type -vari, 107, 159.
 Dutch language among Negroes and Hottentots, 253; date of the birth of the Dutch nationality, 52.
 Dutchmen = Germans (in America), 26.
dux, ‘duke’, Latin = O.E. (here-)toga, 56, 196, 204.
 Dve-caledones, Scotch tribe, model for Tvi-hanti, 158.
 Dyaus, Indian sky-god, cp. Týr.
éar-endel, ‘dawn’, O.E. (cp. Auri-wandalus, Qr-vendill), cosmic compound, 184.
 East European phase of Gothic history, § 104.
 East Gothic, 37, § 32, § 33, § 34.
 ‘Easter’ = Germ. ostern, 231.
 Edoi, Edones, Scythian peoples, probably = ‘eaters, cannibals’ (cp. Ām-ādaka, Etiones, eotenas), 2, 64.
 Eikund, Norwegian island, 167.
 Eir, the Scandinavian ‘Hygieia’, probably worshipped at Erstall in South Jutland, 224.
 Ekund, Danish island, 167.
 Elbing, O.E. Ilfing, river in Prussia, 79, 81 note.
 Elchsentre, Tyrrhenian < Alexander, exhibiting a kind of ‘Sound Shift’, 58.
 ‘eleven’, occurs also in Lithuanian, 197.
elgr, ‘elk’, O.N. = Russ. losi with East European palatalisation, 145 note.
 Elingia-hem on Gotland, solitary Scand. example of the Walsingham type, 181.
 Elisōn, O. German river-name, 170.
 Ellada, modern Greek river-name < Hellas, 88.
 “Ελληνες = Greeks, 88.
elvegrim, ‘river demon’, Norw., 216.
-enk, -ṇk, I.E. Derivative type = Gothic -ing, -ung, 59.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothonic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

263

- ente*, ‘giants’, O.E., enriman O.H.G. < Antes, Circassians, 63, 64, 136, 215, cp. 246.
eo-réd, ‘cavalry’, O.E. < Gaulish epo-rēdo-, 123.
eormen-grund, ‘enormous ground’, O.E., jormun-grund O.N., cosmic Compound, 184.
eotenas, ‘giants’, O.E., jotnar, O.N. = mythical people Etiones, 2, 64, 126, § 94.
 Eotol-ware, Etel-ware, ‘Italians’ O.E., showing no Sound Shift, 63, 95.
 Epidii, tribe in Scotland, with the British-Gaulish p for q, 108.
 Erac = Phasis, river in Caucasus, where the Goths are defeated by the Huns, 136.
 Ermanaric, Gothic emperor, subjugates Slavs and Baltic nations, 79, 84, 247; defeated by the Huns, 134.
 Erminus, eponymous ancestor of the German Erminones, 38; interpreted as ‘the Armenian’, 70.
 Ermun-duri, German tribe-name, formed after Celtic model, 157; E.’s trade with Augsburg, 241; defeat of Chatti by, 218.
 *Ermun-swaebōz, imaginary constructed form for Erminones, 150.
 Ernac, Hunnish prince = Erp in the Nibelung story, 135.
 Er-stall, Jutish altar of the goddess Eir, 224.
 Eruli, Heruli, Scandinavian tribe, undertake viking raids, 91, 251.
 Eskil-hem on Gotland, solitary instance of Scand. -heim type with personal element, 181.
 Esthonians, Finnish tribe, inherit the Gothonic name of the Baltic, Aestii, 126.
 Etiones, mythical people = eotenas ‘giants’, 2, 64, 126, § 94.
 *Etro-turskus, imaginary constructed form for Etrusci, Tyrrhenians, 7, 150.
 Etzelin = Attila, with ending -in denoting foreign nationality, 66, 134.
eþel Gotena = the land of the Gothonic nations, O.E., 30.
- fágus*, ‘beech’, Latin = O.N. bók, with ð < ð, 56, 61, 89.
faihu, ‘cattle’, Got. = Lat. pecu; also = ‘money’ (Lat. pecunia), 208.
 fair long-skulls, the Gothonic racial type, 54.
faith, ‘seer’, O. Irish = Lat. vātes (loan word or due to primaeval lexical community ?), 110, 236.
 Falchov-arii, German tribe < Veluwe ?, 160.
 Falster, Dan. name of island, long derivative type, 169.
 Færinga-túnir, Swedish place name of the Washington type, 182.
 Færöese, Scandinavian nationality; its date, 53.
 felt caps in Jutish bronze age graves, a Dacian fashion, 76, 202.
 feminism in Gothonic religion about A.D., 225, § 97.
 Fenni; see Finns.
 Fenris wolf, uranic myth ?, 218.
 Fergunnia, O.H.G. = the Hercynian wood, 241.
 Fervir, Danish tribe in the district of Fyøræ, Simplex type, 144, 155, 239.
ᚢli(d), ‘seer’, O. Irish = German loan word veleda, 110, 124, 237.
 Fimnilenia, German goddess, 185, 222.
 Finn, ethnic element in personal names, 65, 130; giant in a Danish local myth, 64, 130.
 Finne, mountain range in Germany and in Bornholm, not = Celt. penna* ‘head’, 113, 114.
 Finn-(h)aithae, toponymic of Finveden in Sweden, 162, 175, cp. 239.
 Finni mitissimi in Southern Norway, 127, 239.
 Finnish phase of Gothonic history, § 103.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Peoples: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I
 Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

264

INDEX

- Finns, Suomalaiset, north-eastern nation, 2, 61, 62, 64, 65, 78, § 64, § 65, § 103; their witchcraft, 127, 130.
- Fir Bolg, 'Men of Bags', pre-Celtic race in Ireland, 3, 117.
- Fir Domhnann, tribe in Ireland, cp. Damnonii, 3, 117.
- Firðir, 'territorial name and toponymic in Norway, Simplex type, 144, 155, 239.
- fiskja*, 'Got. > "fisher", 124.
- fisks*, 'fish', Got. = Lat. piscis, O. Irish iasc, 56, 146, 196.
- Fjalir, territorial name and toponymic in Norway, Simplex type, 155.
- fjørðr* 'fiord, firth', O.N. = Lat. portus 'harbour', 56, 146.
- Fjørgynn, Scand. god = Pruss. Percunis, Celt. *Hercunis ('Hercules'), 185, 229, cp. 112.
- Flevo, Hollandic name of gulf, Simplex type, 165.
- flint mines worked by pre-Celtic peoples, 4.
- folk*, 'county', in Anglian, Jutish, and Götl. territorial names (cp. fylki), 177.
- 'ford', Compounds in; Celtic model -(p)riton (cp. Penrith), 175 & Map Fig. 6.
- Fornjot, Scandinavian ancestor, 10, 130, 141.
- Forseti, Norw. god = Fris. Fosite(?), 136.
- Forum Ger(manorum) in Liguria, 22.
- Fosi, Germ. tribal name, solitary instance of Short Simplex originating from a locality on the very spot (?), 143, 155.
- Fosite, Frisian god, 186, 228.
- fossegrim*, 'waterfall demon', Norw., 216.
- Franken, Germ. territorial name, Simplex type, 166.
- Frankreich, Germ. name of country; Celtic model (cp. Calrige, Ciarrige), 175.
- Franks, Germ. tribe = Germani, 20; derive themselves from the Danes, 142; Simplex type, 155; subjugate Thuringians, Swabians, Saxons, 249; defeated by Slavs, 249.
- Frea, Langb. goddess = O.N. Frigg, 185.
- 'free', loan from Celtic, 122.
- 'freedman', 205.
- freihals*, 'free', Gothic, 205.
- Freyja 'the Lady', Freyr 'the Lord' (cp. Adonis, Baal, Moloch 'the Lord'), 185, 224, 227.
- Friuli, mediaeval influence of Germanism; Thomasin of, author of Der welsche Gast, 252.
- Fricco, surname of Freyr (cp. Priapus), 76, 225, 241.
- Frigg, goddess of fertility, Odin's wife, 185, 224, 229.
- Frigge-rock = Fröje-rock = Orion, 224.
- Friia, O. Germ., cp. Frea.
- fringed garments of the Dacians, 72; among Gothic tribes, 76.
- Frisians, 36, 49; date of birth of the nationality, 51.
- Frode Fredegod, surname of Frey, 186, 225.
- Fróði peace, of Frey's sacred festival peace, 225.
- Fróði, surname of Frey, allowed as name of mortal men, 189.
- full Compound personal names forming basis of family names in -ing; the type is lacking in continental Scandinavian, 163.
- full Compound personal names forming basis of place names in -ing; the type is lacking in Scandinavian, 179.
- Fulla, O.N. goddess = O. Germ. Volla, 225.
- Furgi-satis, Germ. place name with the favourite Gothic ending in -is, 59, 173.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

265

- Fuse, German river; origin of the tribe name Fosi(?), 155.
fustanella, the national Albanian shirt, 71, 202.
futhark, the runic alphabet, 235.
 $-fyki$, 'province', O.N., 178.
- Gabia juno, Rhenish female spirit=O.N. Gefjón(?), 186, 213.
 Gaesates, a name of Alpine warriors; substituted by Germani, 22.
gaesum 'spear', Gaulish, > O.N. geirr, 123.
gāhe, 'steep', Germ. <jāhe, gāren, 'to ferment', Germ. <jērian, a linguistic development contrary to palatalisation, 55 note.
 Gail, river in Carinthia=Sloven. Žila, 87 note.
ga-jukō, 'mate', Gothic, cp. con-junx, 152.
 Galatai=Celts, 106; synonym of 'Gothic nations', 10, 35, § 18.
galdr, 'sorcery', O.N., 238.
galga, 'gallows', Gothic; used for 'cross' which is lacking in Gothic, 101.
 Galindai, Baltic tribe in Goleur, 78.
ga-mains, 'common', Gothic, cp. com-munis.
 Gambrivii, Germ. tribal name, 156; name of a tribal group, 38.
 Gandvík, 'Gulf of sorcery', O.N. name of the White Sea, 131.
ganna, 'witch', O. Germ., 185, 237.
 Gap, town < Gaulish Vapincum (*Wápinkon), 118.
 Gard, river < Gaulish Vardo (*Wárdo), 118.
 Garman-gabis, Rhenish goddess, 21, 186.
 Garmani, British pronunciation of Germani, 24, 25.
 Gascoigne, < Vasconia (Wasconia), land of Basques, 137.
gastim, Gothic & O.H. Germ. dative form of 'guest', different from O.E. ȝiestum, O.N. gestum, 46.
gasts, 'guest', Gothic=Lat. hostis, 'enemy', 57.
 Gausus, 'family of Göts', Langb. family name, 162.
 $-gawi$, 'district', Gothic-German-Saxon type, 177.
gebōm, 'the gifts', O.H. Germ. dative form=Got. gibōm, different from O.E. ȝiefum, O.N. gjófum, 46.
 Gefjón, cp. Gabia juno.
 Gefn=Freyja, 224.
 Geismar, Germ. place with Thor's holy oak, 229.
 genealogical theory of Gothic classification, § 30.
 genitive Compound type, Latin fashion, 99, 153.
 Gepidae, Gothic tribe; emigration from Scandia, 140; in the Weichsel delta, 79; defeated by the Avars in Pannonia, 133, 249.
 Gepid-ōjōs, 'the Gepid islands'=the Weichsel delta, 79.
 Germanasca, Alpine river name, with Ligurian suffix -asc, 22.
 Germani, linguistic family=Indo-Europeans, 1; race='fair long-skulls', 2; group of peoples=Gothic nations, 1, 10, 35, 122, § 19; subordinate group=South Gothic tribes, 36, 41; nation=the Germans, 25; tribe=the Franks, 20.
 Germani, Belgian tribe of non-Gothic nationality, 19, 36; tribe in Liguria, 22; tribe in Spain, 21.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

266

INDEX

- Germaniciani=Belgian Germani, 20.
germanism, ‘a German idiom’; to Germanise ‘to make German’, 26.
germanus, ‘cousin’, Latin, conceived as the stem of Germani, 17.
 Germen-berga, hybrid Latino-German name of person, 21.
 Getae, Dacian tribe, 71.
 Geysir, ‘frothing’, Icelandic hot spring, 166.
 Ghisl-ar-engo, Langb. place name in Italy=Bavar. Geisselhöringen, 179.
 ghost, 213.
 Gibica, Burgundian king, 187.
yield, ‘sacrificial feast’, O.E., gildi, O.N., 230.
 Gil-merd-ingene, in Hanover, one of the earliest northern continental examples of the custom of forming place names on the basis of a full compound personal name, 179.
 Gipsies, ‘Egyptians’, Indian nomad tribe, 67.
 $\gamma\eta\gamma\sigma\tau\omega\Gamma\alpha\lambda\alpha\tau\omega$, ‘genuine Galatians’, Strabo’s interpretation of ‘Germani’, 17.
 ‘God’, 185, 217.
 Godan, Goden, German and Scandinavian ‘taboo’ form of Woden, Odin, 227.
 Godesberg < Wodenesberg, ‘taboo’ form, 228.
goði; ‘priest’, O.N., 230, cp. 190.
 Goð-pjóð, ‘people of Gods’, instead of Gut-piuda, ‘Gothic people’, 33.
 ‘gold’, Gothic-Baltic-Slavonic loan from the Orient, 80, 196, 241.
gos-pod, ‘guest-lord’, Slavonic=Lat. hos-pes (Slavonic loan from Gothic ?), 7, 57 note, 89, 195.
 Gothic script, 32.
 Gothi-Scandza, the Gothic home after the exodus from Scandia, 140, 144.
 Goths-Germans, learned term=‘Gothic nations’, 10, §23.
 Goths=‘Gothic nations’, 10, § 24; =the East Gothic group of tribes, 31, 41, 57; exodus from Scandia, 140; date of birth of the nationality of, 51; sub-tribes Tervingi & Greutungi, 152, 156; colonies in Thrace, 74; viking raids, 244; defeated by the Byzantines, 246.
 $\gamma\sigma\tau\theta\iota\kappa\lambda\zeta\theta\eta\eta$ =the Gothic group, 31.
 Got-pjóð < Gut-piuda, ‘Gothic nations’, 33; Celtic model of Compound, 159.
 Greeks=Hellenes, Ionians, Achaei, Danai, Romaei, § 57, § 58; I.E. group of peoples, with Kentum language, 1, 60, 89; the Gothic name Krēkōs shows no Sound Shift, 62, 89; Greek phase in the I.E. expansion, 9; collisions with Gothic tribes, 92.
 Greutungi, Gothic sub-tribe, 152, 156; derived from a territorial name (cp. Pol. Grudziądz), 172.
 Grudziądz, Pol.=Germ. Graudenz, 172.
 Gundbadigi, Lithuanian name of the Russians, probably=Goths (adopted before the Sound Shift), 31.
 Guillaumes < Gaulish tribal name Vallauni (*Wellaunoi), 118.
 Gundbadigi, the subjects of the Burgundian king Gundobad, a South Gothic type, formed on the basis of the full Compound name, 156, 163.
 Gundestrup, Cimbrian sacrificial vessel of, 221, 233.
guote holden, ‘good wights’, M.H.G., 214.
 Gut=the Goths in Circassian legend, 136.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothonic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

267

- Gutar, Gotlanders, Dan. Gydinger, 154, 156; eastern position, corresponding to that of the Goths in Prussia, 240.
- Gutenswegen < Vodenesvege, taboo form, 228.
- Gutmannshausen < Wotaneshusen, taboo form, 228.
- Gut-jiuda, 'Gothic people', with Celtic model (not: Goths derived from Gut-jiuda, 149), 159.
- haban*, 'to have', Gothic = O.H.G. habēn, Lat. habēre, the ē-class of verbs, 56.
- *Ha-borlingar, exceptional Gotlandish family name formed on the basis of a full Compound, 163.
- Haðir, Norw. tribal name, Short Simplex, > Hadelændinger, 156.
- haedus*, 'goat', caper, 'he-goat', Lat. = Got. gaits, O.N. hafr, 56.
- hafr*, hamarr, hani, krein, kross, kundr, hoggva, Lappish sacrificial animals and objects, alliterating in Scandinavian, 129, 232.
- Hagena, prince of the Holmryge, with his opponent Heoden, example of alliteration in h, 190.
- hæg-steald*, 'bachelor', O.E. = O.H.G. hagu-stalt, O.N. hauk-staldr, 196.
- hæg-tesse*, 'hag', O.E. = O.H.G. haga-zussa, Norw. haug-tysja, 185.
- Haikh = Armenians, § 49.
- hairtō*, 'heart', Got. = O.H.G. herza, with no 'Breaking' (as in O.E. heorte, O.N. hjarta), 45.
- Haithebi, i.e. Slesvig, landing-place of the ancestor Sceaf, 141.
- haiþ*, 'heath', element in place names with Celtic model -koiton (cp. Leto-cetum), 175.
- Halamarðus, Rhenish surname of 'Mars', 186.
- Há-leygir, Norw. tribe, isolated Scand. example of Heavy Compound, 158.
- haliu-runna*, 'hell-rune', a Gothic witch, 185.
- Halja, 'Hell', Got., 184, 215.
- Hallstatt type, originally Illyrian, later with basis in Gaul, 93, 113, 114, 209, 241.
- hama-pitar*, 'with the same father', O. Pers. = Gr. δύο-πάτωρ, O.N. sam-fæðri, 196.
- hamingja*, 'the soul in female shape, luck', O.N., 213.
- hammer, symbol of lightning, 220.
- 'hemp' < Scythian kannabis, showing Gothonic Sound Shift, 69, 196, 209.
- Hanga-týr, 'god of the hanged', O.N. = Odin, 227.
- Harfaþa fjöll, O.N. = the Carpathians, showing Gothonic Sound Shift, 73, 240, 248.
- (h)ari-skild, 'havoc', Langb. = Dan. ær-skjold, 196.
- Hari-wulafa, Haþu-wulafra, Haeru-wulafir, inscr. of Istaby, alliteration in h, 190.
- harn*, 'urine', Germ., cp. the fertility goddess Hörn, 224.
- Hærnborg, Jutish district centre, sanctuary of the goddess Hörn, 224.
- Härnevi, 'sanctuary of Hörn', Swedish, 224.
- Harodos, Langb. family name = Jutish tribal name Harudes, 162.
- (H)aroðhi, Hørðar, Norw. tribe, 169.
- Harpioi (read *HARBIOI), probably = Dacian Karpoi, showing Gothonic Sound Shift, 62, 73, 240.
- *Harud-, 'Wood', Norw. & Jutish territorial name, in the tribal names (H)aroðhi & Harudes, 169.
- Harudes, Jutish tribe, attacks Gaul, 46, 58, 120, 162, 169.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

268

INDEX

- Hasdingi, 'the haired', O.N. Haddingjar, M.H.G. Hartunge, Vandalic family name, originally designating the priests of the Nahanarvali (cp. muliebris ornatus), 76, 163; sub-tribe of the Vandals, 152, 156; eject Dacians from Poland, 74, 244.
- Hase, *Haswa, 'the grey', German river, origin of the tribal name Chasv-arii, 160, 164.
- haþu*, 'battle', emphasising prefix < Celt. catu-, 158.
- hazard, gambling, national vice of the ancient Gothic nations, 209.
- Heapo-Beardan, Heapo-Scylfingas, tribal names with emphasising prefix haþu, 158.
- heban-wang*, 'heaven-meadow', O. Sax.=O.N. himin-vangar, cosmic Compound, 184.
- heim*, 'home', Gothic element (cp. Boio-haemum), 59; substitutes Latin -cohors, 153; adopted in Baltic (cp. Dirschkeim), 80, 177; personal elements, 181.
- Heimdallr, Norw. god, 127, 186.
- Heingæ, Jutish name of district, derived from the toponymic of the parish He, 173.
- Hekla, 'capuchin', Icelandic volcano, Short Simplex, 166.
- hella-wizi*, 'hell-punishment', O.H.G.=O.N. hel-viti, O.E. helle-wite, cosmic Compound, 184.
- Hellenes=Greeks, derived from Helloi, 88.
- Hellusii, fabulous people of the far north-east, 64.
- Helvetians, Celtic tribe, 243; derived from the Helvii in Gaul, 115.
- hendinos*, 'king', Burgundian, with ending -in expressing high rank, 191.
- Heodeninges, O.E.=O.N. Hjaðningar, showing common 'Breaking' of vowel, 45; alliterating names, 190.
- heofon-tungol*, 'celestial body', O.E.=O.H.G. himil-zungal, O.N. himin-tungl, cosmic Compound, 184.
- Heorot, 'hart', probably a temple of Cernunnos, 124; Simplex type, 166.
- Heorrenda, the singer of Heoden=O.N. Hjarrandi, 190.
- herað*, 'district' ('sheriffdom, bailiwick'), O.N. < O.H.G. heri-reit, 'military host', 178, 196, 207.
- 'Hercules', a Celtic god, probably Hellenised for *Hercunis=Pruss. Percunis, O.N. Fjørgynn, 112, 219; his grove on the Weser, 228.
- Hercynia, Celt.=O.H.G. Fergunnia, German mountain range, 58, 241.
- here-toga*, 'army-leader', O.E.=O.H.G. heri-zogo=Lat. dux, 'duke', 56, 196, 204.
- heri-zogo*, heri-zoho, 'army-leader', O.H.G., shows consonantal differentiation according to Verner's Law, 196, 204.
- Herminones for Erminones, German tribal group, with parasitic initial h, 38.
- Heunen, German=Huns, 132.
- Hilp-erd-ingens in Hanover, one of the first examples of place names formed on the basis of a full compound personal name, met with in the north of the continent, 179.
- himation*, Greek national dress, 89.]
- Himmerland (home of the Cimbri), worships the bull, § 96.
- Hiung-nu, Chinese=Huns, 132.
- Hleiðr, Danish temple; its initial h alliterates with the sacrificial animals, 190, 231, 232; residence of king Frode Fredegod, 225.
- hleibrā*, 'tent', Gothic; the Latin loan word 'tent' is lacking in Gothic, 101.
- Hloðr O.N., Hliðr O.E., epic hero, probably=the Frank Chlodio, 104.
- Hloðvér, epic person=the Frank Chlodwig, 187.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothonic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

269

- Hluðana, West German goddess, probably = the Norw. Hlǫðyn, 185, 222.
 Høfund, Norw. name of district, 167.
 Holm-rygir O.N., (H)ulme-rugi Gothic, heavy Compound with Celtic model, 157.
 Hora Galles, Lappish god = Thor Karl, 129.
hgrrgr, ‘stone-heap, sanctuary’, O.N., 230; ‘U-Umlaut’ in Danish, 46.
 Horn, Short Simplex, in Denmark and Iceland, 166.
 horn-bow, characteristic weapon of the Huns, 133.
 Hornsjæger, Dan., reflecting the bull god, 221.
hospes, Lat., cp. gos-pod; hostis, Lat., cp. gasts, 7, 57, 89, 195.
 ‘Hréð-men’, imaginary synonym of Danes, 150.
 Hrossþjófr, ‘horse-thief’, O.N. giant = Rosthiofus Phinnicus, a Shaman, 131.
hūd, ‘sorcery’, Cymric > O.N. seiðr, 238.
 Hugleikr, parasitic king in the Yngling family, breaks the vocalic alliteration, 190.
 Humal, Gothic royal ancestor, perhaps = the Gaulish god Camulus, 124, 228.
Huinengrab, ‘Huns’ grave’, Germ. = Dan. Jættestue ‘giant’s chamber’, 64.
 Hunnish phase of Gothonic history, § 107.
 Huns, Asiatic nomads = Chunoi, Heunen, Hiung-nu, Hunavō, Hünen (cp. Argippaei), 61, 119, § 66, § 67; in the myth, 64; mentioned by Ptolemy in Russia, 62: vanguard of the Slavonic invasion; the name inherited by Avars, Bulgarians, Magyars, 131, 135.
hunsl, ‘sacrifice’, Got. = O.E. húsl, 230.
 Hunuguri, Hunnish tribe, with r-suffix, 132.
 Hydaspes, Iranian river name in -açpa ‘water’, model for the Gothonic type -ahwa, 176.
 Hyperboreans, Greek name for northern peoples, 10.

iasc, ‘fish’, O. Irish = Lat. piscis, cp. fisks.
 Iberians, European aborigines (= Basques ?), 3; Iberian graves in Ireland, 4; suffix -ub, -ob in Britain, 3.
 Icelanders, date of birth of the nationality, 52.
 Idennica, Gaulish surname of ‘Minerva’; perhaps = O.N. Iðun, 112, 124, 185, 225.
 *‘Idisja-viso’, ‘meadow of Valkyries’, imaginary form, introduced for Idistaviso, 171, 180.
 Iðun, Norse goddess of youth, 225.
 Ilfing, O.E. = Elbing, river in Prussia, 81 note, 172.
 Illyrians, I.E. group of peoples, with ‘Kentum language’, 1, 9, 60, 82, § 59.
 imaginary forms of names, introduced by modern philologists, 150.
-in, -än, German epic mark of foreign nationality, § 46.
-in, -än, -āt, favourite Umbrian-Sabellian suffixes in tribal names, 96.
 Indians, Sindh, Hindoos, I.E. nation, 1, 60, 67, 69; Indian (‘Arabian’) signs for numerals, 69.
 Indistra, German river (cp. Idisja-viso), 171.
 Indo-Europeans, § 1–8; I.E. neighbours of the Gothonic nations, § 47–62.
 Indo-Germans = Indo-Europeans, 1.
-ing, -ung, favourite Gothonic ending, 59, 152, 156, 171.
 Inguaeones, Ingaevones, ‘Ingwaiwen’, Gothonic group of tribes, 10, 38, 39, 214; compared with Gr. ’Αχαιοί, 90 note; not = ‘Anglo-Frisians’, 40.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

270

INDEX

- Ingviomer, Cheruscan chieftain; the name shows that the Cherusci do not belong to the Inguaeones, 189.
- ip-se*, 'the same', Latin; suffix -se, as in 'the-se'; different from Got. -uh, 55.
- Irān von Schotten, eponymous ancestor of the Irish, with epic mark of foreign nationality -ān, 66, 125.
- Iranians, O. Pers. Airyana, derived from Arya (cp. Aryans, Alani, Iron), 67.
- Irish migration to Gr. Britain, religious mission on the continent, 111, 120.
- Iron=Alani or Osseti, an Iranian tribe in the Caucasus, 68.
- Isarcus, the river Eisack in the Tyrol (cp. Visurgis), 171.
- 'Isis', worshipped by Swabians, 222.
- Istaevones, German group of tribes, 10, 38, 39, 214.
- Ister-riče=Istria, Compound with Celtic model (cp. Cal-riče, Ciar-riče), 175.
- Itali, I.E. group of peoples, 1, 60, § 60, § 61; with 'Kentum language', 1, 96; lexical community with Gothic, 196, § 38, § 102; the name Eotolware in English with 'Breaking', but showing no Sound Shift, 63, 95.
- Iudeon, 'Jews', O.H.G., with no H. Germ. Sound Shift, 63, 137.
- jaloux*, French > Dan. dial. skalu (cp. jērian > gären), 55.
- Japhet's sons, 1.
- javai*, 'corn', Lithuanian=ζεία, 'German wheat', O. Ind. Yavyas, 'store of corn', 90.
- Javan, 'Ionians', an oriental name for the Greeks, 88.
- Jepping < Jeppe, patronymic in modern Frisian, 163.
- Jews, 63, 137; their German language Yiddish, 53.
- joint family among the Indo-Europeans, 8, 83, 109; early abandoned by the Gothic nations, 207.
- Jomali, Permian god=Finn. Jumala, Lapp. Jubmel, 127.
- Jomsborg, Danish Viking fortress in Pomerania, 86.
- Jordanes, Gothic historian of Alanic origin, 70.
- jotnar*, cp. eotenas.
- Jovis-templo, example of Latin genitive Compound, 99.
- Julio-briga, example of Celtic non-genitive Compound, 99.
- Junones gabiae, Rhenish female spirits (cp. Gefjón), 123, 213, Map Fig. 6.
- 'Jupiter'=Tanarus=Thor, 111, 124, 220.
- Jutes, tribe in Denmark; the Simplex form persists, 154.
- k>q* in primaeval Gaelic and Latin, >p in Gaulish-British and Umbrian-Sabellian, 55 note.
- kabliau*, 'codfish', Dan., loan word from the Basques, 137.
- Kainulačák, Lappish, orig.=Kvænir, becomes=Swedes and Norwegians, 129.
- Kainulaiset, Finnish tribe=O.N. Kvænir, O.E. Cwénas; the name is adopted after the Gothic Sound Shift, 63, 126, 129.
- Kaisarie, town in Asia Minor; the Turkish form originates from a non-Greek language, 75, 118.
- kaiser*, 'Caesar', Germ. loan from Latin, 100.
- Kalev, Finnish hero=Cælic in Widsith, 130.
- Kampoi, tribe in Champriche on the Danube, 63, 175.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

271

- kannabis*, a Scythian word, > ‘hemp’, showing Gothic Sound Shift, 69, 241.
- Karjalaiset, O.N. Kyrjalar, Karelians, a Finnish tribe, 126.
- karkara*, ‘prison’, Gothic < Lat. carcer, with c pronounced as k, 100.
- karlar*, Scand. element of toponymics, 162.
- Karpoi, Dacian tribe in the Carpathians, probably = *Harbioi (Harpioi), showing Gothic Sound Shift, 62, 74, 240.
- karsu*, ‘furrow’, O. Ind. = τέλσον, 90.
- Kasurgis, Germ. place name with the favourite Gothic ending -is, 59.
- katils*, ‘kettle’, Got. = Germ. kessel, loan word from Latin, showing H. German Sound Shift, 100, 101.
- kaufen*, ‘to buy’, kelch, ‘chalice’, loan words from Latin, showing H. German Sound Shift, 100.
- kēlīkn*, ‘upper story, tower’, Got. loan word from Celtic, 123, Map Fig. 6.
- Kentum phase of Gothic history, § 37; Kentum languages, 1, 89, 93, 96, 107.
- Kesselheim, Kesselingen, place names in -heim and -ing, derived from a Latin word, 101.
- Kiar, O.N. = O.E. Cásere ‘Caesar’; his palaces, 104.
- Kiev, Irish monastery, 111.
- kingdom among Goths, Frisians, Scandinavians, Angles (cp. republicanism among Saxons and Germans), 204.
- Kirchheim, place name in -heim containing a Christian element, 101.
- kiste*, ‘chest’, Germ., loan word from Latin, with c pronounced as k, 100.
- Kjartan, Irish personal name in Iceland, 122.
- *Koband-, territorial name, in the Jutish toponymic Kobandoi, 168.
- koch*, ‘cook’, Germ., loan word from Latin, showing H. German Sound Shift, 100.
- Koistobokoi *transmontanoi, Dacian tribe in Poland, 73, 74, 244.
- Kolbjazi, Russ. = O.N. Kyflingar, a Finnish tribe, 126.
- Konungahella, Norwegian town, sacked by the Wends, 86.
- konungr*, ‘king’, O.N., 129, 193, 203.
- Kormakr, Irish personal name in Iceland, 122.
- Korm(u)t, name of Norw. island, Long Derivative type, 169.
- Kornbretar, O.N. = Cornishmen, 107.
- Krēkōs, Got. = Greeks, see Crécas.
- kuningas*, ‘king’, Gothic loan word in Finnish, 129; in Lithuanian = ‘priest’, Slavonic kъnež, 87, 203.
- kveldriða*, ‘woman who rides in the evening’, O.N. witch, 238.
- labberdaan*, ‘codfish’, Dutch, from Lapurdum, i.e. Bayonne, 137.
- labrys*, the double axe of the Cretan thunder god, model for Thor’s hammer, 220.
- lacus*, ‘lake’, Latin = Irish loch, O.E. lagu, 56.
- Lag, typical Scand. river name, Short Simplex, 165.
- Lagina, German river name of the secondary stratum, Derivative type, 145, 171, 176.
- lähhinari*, ‘sorcerer’, O.H. Germ., secondary form < Simplex Got. lēkeis, ‘surgeon’, 185, 194.
- laib*, mod. Dan. -lev, typical Danish element in place names, the first type to introduce personal elements, 182.
- land*, Gothic element in place names (Celt. model in Medio-lanum?), 177.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

272

INDEX

- Langobards, German tribe; heavy Compound with Celtic model, 157, Map Fig. 6; emigration from 'Scandinavia', 140; worship Woden, 228; defeat Eruli and Gepidae, 248, 249.
- Lapps, Samek, Sabmelažak, a Finno-Ugrian people, 125; borrow words from the time before the Gothic Sound Shift (?), 129; religious borrowings from Scandinavia, 129.
- Laesir, O.N. toponymic of Lesjar, Short Simplex, 155.
- Leesir, O.N. = Ljechs, a Polish tribe, 82.
- lāt*, 'freedman', O.E. = O.L.G. laet, O.H.G. lāz, Got. fra-lēts, 205.
- La Tène or Marnian, Celtic period of the Iron Age, 110, 241.
- Latris, Dan. name of island, with favourite Gothic ending -is, 59; Short Simplex, 164.
- Latweeschis, Letts, Baltic nation; Germ. Letten, adopted after the Gothic Sound Shift, 63, 77.
- Laurin, king of dwarfs in Tyrol, with ending -in denoting foreign nationality, 66, 104.
- Ledenware, 'Latin people', O.E., 160.
- Leitcastre, now Leihgestern, solitary German instance of the Latin type -castra, 98.
- Leo Bessus, emperor of Thracian origin, 75.
- Leto-cetum, now Lightfield, Brit. model for place names in -heath (cp. Haip-), 175.
- Letts, cp. Latweeschis.
- lev*, in Dan. place names, cp. -laib.
- lēx*, 'law', Lat., cp. O.N. lög.
- Ligh, Dan. island > Liv-ø, 169, 174.
- Ligurians, a people of probably I.E. nationality, 23, 60, 116; with Alpine tribe Germani, 21; favourite ending -asc, -usc (cp. Germanasca, Caranusca), 23, 156.
- Limgrim, the demon of the Limfjord, 216.
- Lofðar, Lofðungar, probably toponymic of Lofund, 167.
- lög*, 'law', O.N. = Lat. lex, 57; in territorial names: Danelaw, Pröndalög, 178.
- Lœir, O.N. toponymic of Lom, Short Simplex, 155.
- Lupfurdon, the ford on the river Luppe, 175.
- *Luppia, German river, Short Simplex, 170.
- Lycians, a people of Asia Minor; I.E. nationality?, 2.
- ŋ*, ŋ>em, en in Irish and Latin, -am, -an in British-Gaulish and Umbrian-Sabellian, 55 note.
- Maas, Germ. = the river Meuse < Mosa, showing Gothic development a<o, 106, 241.
- Maenoba, Spanish town with Iberian ending -ob, 3.
- Magusanus, Hercules, in Mahusenham, 219.
- males choses, 'mean wights', 214.
- malus, 'mast', Lat., 56.
- Mannung Genealogy, the list of Man's sons = the Gothic nations, § 10, § 27.
- Mannus, the primaeva man, ibid.
- Mānus, O. Ind. ancestor, 11.
- manus*, 'guardianship', Lat. = German-Latin mundium, literally 'hand', 207.
- Man-ware, O.E. = Manxmen, from *Manau-arii < Brit. Manau, 107, 159.
- Marbod, rules the 'Sibinoi' = the Baltic Sudinoi in Prussia, 78.
- Marcianus Thrax, emperor of Thracian origin, 75.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Peoples: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

273

- Marco-manni, German tribe, with Celtic model Ceno-mani?, 158; co-operate with Sarmatians against the Bohemian Celts, 68, 120.
- Marco-manni=‘men of (Den)mark’, 142.
- mar-di*, ‘Tuesday’, French, cp. dies Martis.
- mare*, ‘sea’, Latin-Celtic-Gothic-Baltic-Slavonic word, 146.
- ‘mare’< Celt. marka, ‘war-horse’, showing Gothonic Sound Shift, cp. O.H.G. marha, 123, 243.
- mark*, Gothonic element in place names, with Celtic model (cp. Pembroke), 176.
- Marki-petra, Latin place name of genitive type, 99.
- Marnamanis, Frisian Gulf, with favourite Gothonic ending -is, 59, 170.
- ‘Mars’ among the Gauls, 111; =the Gothonic Týr, 123, 218, 228; worshipped by Ermunduri, 218, 228; M. Thingsus worshipped by Tvhanti, 218.
- Mars Albiorix, cp. Alberih.
- Marsaci, German tribe=Marsi with Celtic ending -āc, 156.
- Marsi, German tribe or group of tribes, 38; worship Tanfana, 222.
- *Marsingi, German tribe=Marsi with Gothonic ending -ing, 156.
- matriarchate, characteristic of non-I.E. aborigines, 8; its existence on Gothonic ground very doubtful, 54, 208.
- Mattiaci, German tribe, toponymic of mattium with Celtic ending -āc, 156.
- ‘mattock’< Slav. motyka, 246.
- mauer*, ‘wall’, Germ., Latin loan word, lacking in Gothic, 101.
- Maurunga, Germ. territorial name, 172; toponymic Maurungani: shifting of -ing and -ung, 172.
- ‘mead’, word common to primitive I.E. and Finnish, 127; ‘Breaking’ of vowel, 45.
- ‘mean wights’, 214.
- Medel-pad, Swed. territorial name, with Aryan model (cp. Dakśinā-patha), 176.
- Medes, an Iranian nation, 67.
- Mediolanum, Celtic model for Gothonic -land?, 177.
- Megalithic graves, 4, 209.
- Mejl-far, ‘main channel’, Dan. place name corresponding to Gr. Bos-porus, 177.
- men*, element in Gothonic tribal names (with Celtic model Ceno-mani?), 158.
- Men-apii, Celt. toponymic, which is the model for Gothonic names of islands in -auj (cp. Act-auja, Auster-auja, Scadin-auja), 174.
- ‘Mercurius’, Gaulish supreme god, 111, 123; Gothonic do. do.=Odin, 131, 224, § 99; worshipped by Batavians, Ermunduri, Cimbri; M. Hanno at the Eifel; M. Leudisius in Düren, 228. Cp. Map Fig. 6.
- Merens, Merja, Finnish tribe by the Volga, so-called subjects of Ermanaric, 126, 128, 131, 245.
- Merevioingas, O.E.=Franks, 156; family name formed on the basis of a full Compound, 163.
- Mernephtha, Egyptian king, 90.
- Meša and Mešianē, Persian parents of humanity, 11.
- Metja, German lake or moor, Short Simplex, 165.
- midjun-gards*, ‘the earth’, Got.; Gothonic Cosmic Compound, 184.
- ‘Midnight peoples’=‘Gothonic nations’, 10, § 12.
- ‘mill’, Latin loan word, lacking in Gothic, 101.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

274

INDEX

- Milla-reka, 'mill-brook', early Slavonic place name south of the Danube, 85.
 'Minerva' Idennica, Gaulish goddess, 112, 124, 185, 225.
 'mint', Germ. münze, Latin loan word showing H. Germ. Sound Shift, 100.
 Miriq-uidui, 'Dark-wood', Gothic=O.N. Myrk-viðr, the Erzgebirge, with Celtic model (cp. De-fid), 175; victory of the Huns over the Goths, 247.
 Mithradates, Iranian conqueror, 68.
 Móð-ylfingar, Icelandic family name of South Gothic type, formed on the basis of a full Compound, 163.
 Moenis, the river Main, with favourite Gothic ending -is, 59.
 Moin-winidā, the Wends of the Main region, 82.
 Moisoi, Thracian tribe in Moesia, probably=Mysoi in Asia Minor, 73.
 Moloch 'the Lord', Semitic god (cp. Adonis, Baal, Balder, Freyr='the Lord'), 225; represented with bull's head, 221.
 Mon-apia, the Isle of Man, Celt. model for Gothic -aujō, 174.
 moon, worshipped by the Germans, 217.
 Mordens, the Mordwines, Finnish tribe by the Volga, so-called subjects of Ermanaric, 126, 128, 131, 245.
 Mœrir, O.N. territorial name and toponymic, Short Simplex, 155.
 Mosa (cp. Maas); derivation > Moselle, 106, 115, 241; also called Obringa, 118.
 mothers, female spirits among Celts, West Germans, and Anglo-Saxons, 123, 213, 231, Map Fig. 6.
 Møttull, 'mantle', Finnish legendary king; the name indicates Shamanism, 131.
motyka, Slav., cp. 'mattock'.
mūd-spelli, 'ruin of the world', O.L.G., cosmic Compound, 184.
 Mugilones, East Gothic tribe, read *Rugilones, 79.
 Mühlingen, Germ. place name in -ing, derived from a Latin word, 101.
muliebris ornatus of the priests among the Nahanarvali, 222.
 Münch-ham, Germ. place name in -heim, derived from a Christian element, 101.
 Musc-raighe, now Muskerry, Celtic model for Gothic -riki, 175.
 Mú-spells-heimr, 'home of the world's ruin', O.N. cosmic Compound, 184.
 Mutziani-kastellon, Latin place name of genitive type, 180.
myj, 'midge', O.N.=O.N. mygg, Germ. mücke; Scand. forms with and without geminated g, 48.
 Myl-verjar, O.N. toponymic of the Celtic island Mull, 160.
myrk-riða, 'woman who rides in the dark', O.N. name of a witch, 238.
 Nahanarvali, East Gothic tribe with Long Derivative type, sub-tribe of the Lugi, 152; worship Dioscures; priests in female dress (cp. Hasdingi), 222.
 Namurcum, Belgian town (cp. Visurgis), 171.
 Nana, Nanna, Semitic goddess, 72, 76; Scand. goddess, 225.
 Närtuna, 'Town of Nerthus or Njörðr', 225.
nau-st, O.N.=Lat nau-stibulum, Gr. ναύ-σταθμον, 210.
 navies, Swedish, 211.
 Nehalennia, West German goddess, 222.
 Nemetes, West German tribe with Celtic name, 120; Celticised, Romanised, 243.
nemeton, 'sanctuary', Celtic>O.L. German nimid, 124.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothonic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

275

- Němici, 'the dumb', Slavonic=(1) Gothonic nations, (2) Germans, 10, § 16; identified with Nemetes (?), 14.
- νέρπετος*, 'deceased soul', Gr., perhaps of the same root as Nerthus, 223.
- Nerthus, Anglian-Jutish goddess of fertility (cp. Njörðr), 185, 222, § 98; driven by cows like Cybele, 223; the victims are drowned, 232.
- Nibelungs, Germ. family name, 152.
- nicor*, 'Neckan, water demon', O.E., to Gr. νιπτω 'to wash'? (cp. elvegrím, fossegrím, Limgrim), 216.
- Nid-vari, Picts on the river Nid, 160.
- night-jar, § 92.
- night-mare, 212.
- Njáll, Irish personal name in Iceland, 122.
- Njard-ey, sanctuary of Njörðr; compound without genitive, 183.
- Njörðr, Scand. fertility god, etymologically=Nerthus, § 98.
- Nóá-tún, 'place of ships', Njörðr's residence, 225.
- non-genitive Compounds in Celtic, 183.
- Nordic race, 2, cp. 54.
- Nor-folk, with Anglian-Jutish-Götic type -folk, 177.
- Nori, eponymous ancestor of the Norwegians, 142.
- *Nærir, Norw. toponymic, Short Simplex, 155.
- Normans, alleged ancestors of the Germans, 142.
- norns (cp. Wyrd, Wé-wurt, Skuld), § 92.
- norraenn*, 'northern', O.N., with I.E. suffix -ān (cp. alþroenn, Anniōna, sipōneis), 193; n. tongue=Gothonic, 70, § 11.
- Norr-pada, Swedish channel, with Aryan model (cp. Medelpad, Dakṣinā-patha), 176.
- Northern nations, 12, 37, § 32–34, cp. Danish tongue; n. origin of the Gothonic nations, 142.
- North Swabians, subjugated by Franks, 249.
- Nort-weg, 'northern part of the globe', O.H.G., cosmic Compound, later=Norway, 184.
- o>a*, mark of age in Gothonic loan words borrowed from abroad: see a<o, and cp. Ala-gabiae, alēw, Baimoi, Maas, Walh-, Wasgau.
- ō<ā*, mark of age in Gothonic loan words borrowed from abroad: see ā>ō, and cp. Dānuvius, Rūmōneis, sipōneis, old native words alþroenn, Anniōna, Bācenis, bōc, norraenn.
- ō>ū*, irregular development in loan words (ep. Rūmōneis), 62, 95.
- ø*, 'island', secondary addition in Danish names, 154, 174.
- 'oath', Celtic loan word, cp. O. Irish óeth, 123.
- Oberon, cp. Alberih.
- Obringa, cp. Mosa, Moselle.
- Od, Dan. name of district, Short Simplex; toponymic Odsinger of genitive type, 183.
- Odin, Woden, supreme god='Mercurius', § 99; 'taboo' form Godan, 227; the victims are hanged (cp. Hanga-týr), 227, 232.
- Odin-dis, 'priestess of Odin', 230.
- Óðr, O.N.=Germ. Wode, a storm giant, develops into a god=Odin, 216.
- óðr, 'poetry, rage', O.N., 236.

18-2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

276

INDEX

- Ogham script, Irish (cp. Ogmios), 112.
 Ogmios, Gaulish god of eloquence, 112.
 Qgvaldr, Norwegian king, worships a cow, 221.
 Olbia, Greek colony, attacked by Sciri and Bastarnae, 68, 90, 242.
 olēvum*, 'oil', Lat., cp. alēw. Map Fig. 7.
 Ollo-gabiae, cp. Ala-gabiae.
 Ol-mœðlingar, Icelandic family name of South Gothonic type, formed on the basis of a full Compound, 163.
 Ql-rūn, Norw. valkyrie = Germ. al-rūne 'witch', 185.
 Omæ, Dan. island, Short Simplex; later > Om-ø, 174.
 ὅμό-γνωσ, -μήτωρ, -πάτωρ = Got. sama-kuns, O.N. sam-mæðri, sam-fæðri, 195.
 Qm(u)ð, large Norw. island, Long Derivative type, 169.
 Qngull, Norw. island, Long Derivative type, 169.
 ðra, 'edge, shore', Lat. = O.E. ðra, Dan. ore, 56.
 Orðost, Norw. island, Long Derivative type, 169.
 Ormarr = Wyrmhære, defender of Gotthiod against the Huns, 134, 247.
 Ortwin, Hunnish prince = Ultzindur, 134.
 Qrvendill, the morning star, cosmic Compound, 184, 220.
 ðs, 'mouth of river', Latin and O.N., 56.
 Oseriates, Pannonian tribe, offshoot of the Osi in Moravia, 94.
 *Osna, German river = Hase, 164; > name of mountain Osning, 172.
 Osna-bruggi, town; Celtic model -briva, 'bridge' (cp. Samaro-briva), 164, 172, 176.
 Os-raige, now Ossory, Celtic model for Compounds in -rīki, 175.
 Osseti, Alan, Iron, Iranic nation in Caucasus, 68, cp. 67.
- pað, Swedish element, borrowed from Aryan (cp. Dakšinā-patha, Medel-pad, Norr-pada), 176, 197.
 paida, 'leather jacket', Gothic <βaɪrn, showing Gothonic Sound Shift, 91, 202, 241.
 Palaker, M.H.G. fabulous region = O.N. Balagarðssíða, 131.
 Pannonians, Illyrian tribe, 93.
 Parisii, tribe name, replaces Lutetia, now Paris, 109; repeated in Britain, 115.
 Parjanya, Indian god = Prussian Percunis, Slavonic Perun, O.N. Fjørgynn, Celt. 'Hercules', 8, 185, cp. 219.
 patriarchate, the normal form of I.E. family (cp. 'joint family'), 8.
 pavas, 'God', Mordwinian < Iranian baga, 127.
 peikabagms, 'fig tree', Gothic < Lat. ficus, borrowed with Celtic substitution of p for f, Map Fig. 6.
 Pem-broke < *Pennō-brog, 'headland', Celtic model of Compounds in -mark, 176.
 pēmū, 'shepherd', Lithuanian = ποιμήν, 90.
 penn, 'head', Celtic, has nothing to do with the German mountain Finne, 113, 114.
 penna, 'feather' (cp. 'fin'), compared with the name of Finns, 126.
 Penno-crucium, Brit. place name = the Irish idol Cenn cruaich, 4.
 Pen-riθ, Brit. place name, model for the names in -ford, 175.
 Peohtas, Picts, with O.E. 'Breaking', but not showing Gothonic Sound Shift, 63, 65, 107.
 Percunis, Pruss., Perkunas, Lithuanian, cp. Parjanya.
 Perkele, Finn = 'the devil' borrowed from Baltic, 127.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I
 Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

277

- Permians, Finnish-Ugrian tribe = O.E. Beormas, O.N. Bjarmar, with ‘Breaking’ and irregular b for p, 45, 63, 126.
 Persians, Iranian nation, 67.
petuar, ‘four’, Cymric = O. Irish cethir, different development of k', 108.
 Peucini or Bastarnae, East Gothic tribe, 38.
pfahl, pfalr, pfau, pfeffer, pfeife, pfeil, pfeiler, pferch, pferd, pfirsich, pfister, pflanzen, pflaster, pflaume, pfliegel, pflücken, pforte, pflropfer, pfullt, pfund, pflütze, loan words from Latin showing High German Sound Shift, 100.
 Pfahlheim, Pforheim, Pforzheim, Pfullingen, Pfäffingen, similar elements in Old German place names (with no parallels in Scandinavia), 101.
 Phoenicians, Semitic nation, 4, 96.
 Phrygians, I.E. nation with ‘Satem language’ (cp. Briges), 71, 72, 75.
 Picts, O. Irish Cruithne (cp. O.E. Peohtas), aborigines in Ireland and Scotland, 3, 107; their matriarchate, 6.
 Pidgin English in East Asia, 253. piscis, Lat., cp. fisks.
pitā-putrās, ‘father and son’, O. Ind., analogy of O.H.G. sunu-fatarungo, ‘son and father’, O.E. suhtor-fædran, ‘nephew and uncle’, 176.
 Poetovio, Pannonian town > Gothic *Betaw- (with irregular b for p) > Germ. Pettau, 244.
 Polen = Poland, German Simplex form, 166.
pons, ‘bridge’, Latin = Dutch vonder, 56.
portus, ‘harbour’, Latin = O.N. fjørðr ‘firth’, 56.
 Præglinge, place name derived from the toponymic Prigildorp, 179.
 Prae-tutii, Italic tribe, Compound with element teut- ‘people’ = Goth. þiuda (cp. Gut-piuda), 56.
 pre-animism, § 91.
predigen, ‘to preach’, German loan word from Latin, not showing H. Germ. Sound Shift, 101.
 Prezzun, O.H. Germ. = Britons, with H. Germ. Sound Shift, 63, 107.
 Priapus, fertility god in Asia Minor, reflected by Fricco = Frey, 72, 66, cp. 225. priests, § 100.
 Prigildorp, Dan. village, with toponymic *Præglinger, 179.
prijatela, ‘friend’, O. Slav. = O.N. friðill, ‘lover’, 192.
probst, ‘provost’, German loan word from Latin, not showing H. Germ. Sound Shift, 101.
 prohibition to adopt the name of the tribal or family eponymous ancestor, § 83b.
 —— to name men after gods, § 83a.
 —— to repeat the full name of a forefather, § 83c.
 ‘Promonturium Varinorum’, imaginary translation of Varnæs, 151.
 Prussians, Baltic tribe, O.H. Germ. Prūzi < Gothic *Bruten-, which has an irregular b for p (cp. ‘Britannica lingua’), 63, 77.
púki, ‘puck’, O.N., 185, 214.
 Pulpu-deva, Thracian = Bulgarian Plovdiv, Greek Philippopolis, 74. πυργίον, Greek model for Lat. -burgium, Gothic -burg (cp. Saltu-pyrgo), 97, 175.
-puteus, ‘well, cistern’, model for Flemish and Jutish place names in -pyt, 177 note, Map Fig. 7.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

278

INDEX

- gairnus*, ‘quern’, Gothic; the Latin loan word ‘mill’ is lacking in Gothic, 101.
- Quadi, German tribe, allied with Sarmatians, 68.
- Quadri-burgium, Roman fortress, model for Gothic -burg, 97.
- ‘queen’, rules the Cwénas, 63, 126.
- Quintana, Roman town > Kinzing, showing H. Germ. Sound Shift, 101.
- Rå, Danish river name, Short Simplex, 165.
- Radanz-winiðā, the Wends on the river Rednitz, 82.
- *Raeto-varii (Raetobari), Germ. Riesser < Raeti, showing H. Germ. Sound Shift, and Latin development ae > α > O.H. Germ. ie, 63, 160.
- ragineis*, ‘chieftain’, Gothic, with exalting derivative -in, 191, 203.
- Ragna-ricii, Norw. toponymic of Rán-rski; Celtic model (cp. Cal-rige, Ciar-rige), 162, 175.
- Rakatai, Pannonian tribe > Czechian Rakousy, ‘Austria’, 94.
- Rapt and Raus, Vandalic chieftains, invade Dacia, 74.
- Rauma-riciae, Norw. toponymic of Rauma-rski, derived from the tribal name Raumar, Short Simplex; expanded to the modern Romerikinger, 154, 162, 175.
- Regens-burg < Lat. Regina castra, 99.
- ‘regnator omnium deus’, among the Semnones, 218.
- Reifer, O. Germ. Rip-varii, < Lat. Ripar(i), ‘river people’, showing H. Germ. Sound Shift, 160.
- reiks, ‘chieftain’, Gothic, loan word < Gall. rīg-, showing Gothic Sound Shift, 123, 203, 243.
- religious prostitution in the Swedish cult of Frey, 225.
- republican constitution among Germans, Saxons, and Lugians, with Gaulish model, 109, 123, 204; Map Fig. 6.
- Reussen = Russia, German Simplex form, 166.
- rēr*, ‘king’ = Gaulish rīr, O. Ind. rāj-, see reiks.
- Rig, Norw. god, borrowed from the Celts, 124, Map Fig. 6.
- riki, compound with Celtic model (cp. Cal-, Ciar-rige, Musc-raighe, Os-raige, Frank-, Römer-reich, Champ-, Ister-riche, Ragna-ricii, Raccina-riciae, Wala-rice), 162, 175.
- Rinds Herred, name of a Dan. district; toponymic Rindsinger of genitive type, 183.
- Ripa, Ripæ, Dan. place names, probably < Lat. ripa, ‘river side, shore’, 48, 98.
- riton, Celtic model for -ford (cp. Pen-rith), 175.
- Rojach, village in Carinthia, with toponymic Rojinger, 157.
- Romaei, the modern Greeks (literally = Romans), 89.
- Roman phase of Gothic history, § 106.
- Romans, O.E. Róm-ware, Gothic Rūmōneis (with Gothic ð < ð, and irregular ū < ð), 62, 89, 117, § 60, § 61; enslave Gothic emigrants, 104.
- Römer-reich, the Roman empire, German, 175.
- Rom-far-tuna, ‘town of the man who went to Rome’, 182.
- Rønd, Norw. lake, Short Simplex, 165.
- Rös, Greek and Arabian name of the Scandinavians < Finnish Ruotsalaiset = Swedes, originally = Rodskarlar, toponymic of Roslagen, 129.
- Ros-thiophus, cp. Hrosspjófr.
- Roxolani, Iranian tribe in Russia, 132.
- ‘Rudbeckiad’, Rudbeck’s theory that Scandinavia was the I.E. primaeva home, 139.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

279

- Rugians, East Gothonic and Norwegian tribe, Short Simplex, 48, 50, 79, 240.
 Rugi-landa, the Rugian country in Austria, 177.
ruhtinas, 'king', Finnish < O.N. drótinn, O.E. dryhten, 129.
 Rumach, Tyrrhenian = Roman; possibly the source of the irregular ū in Gothic Rūmōneis, 95.
Rūmōneis, cp. Romans.
 Rumonsch = the Rhaeto-Roman language, 95.
rūn, 'secret', O. Irish > Gothonic rūnō*, 'rune', 124, 235.
 runic alphabet, 53; classification of the names of runes, 235.
 Ruotsalaiset, cp. Rōs.
 Rutuba, Ligurian river; Rutubis, North African town, Rutupiae, British town, 3.
 Ryfylke, the province of the Norw. Rugians, 178.
ryss, 'monster', Swed. = Russian, 65, 87.
- Saale, German river, west frontier of the Wends, 249.
sabazum, 'beer', Pannonian, cp. Sabazios, 72.
 *Sabal-, territorial name, Long Derivative type, in the Jutish toponymic Sabalingioi, 156, 169.
 Sabazios, vine god of Asia Minor, 72.
 Sabellian languages, 55.
 Sabiri, East European tribe, with -r suffix, 132.
 Sabmelažak = Lapps, 125.
 Sabokoi, Dacian tribe in the Carpathians, 74.
 Sachsen = Saxony, German Simplex form, 166.
 Saivo, Scand. mountain, Short Simplex (cp. Saivo), 164.
sahs 'dagger', O. Germ. = Lat. saxum, 'stone', 56.
 *Sahsa-naūtōs', imaginary original form of the name of Saxons, 150. saitas, 'explanation of signs', Lithuanian < O.N. seiðr, 'sorcery' < Celt. soitos* (Cymric hûd), 238.
 Saivo, the Lappish home of the deceased souls, 129.
 Salamvria, modern name of the river Peneios, perhaps given by Thracians from the vicinity of Selymbria, 75.
 Salduba, Spanish town with Iberian type -ub, 3.
s alliteration in the dynasty of Siklingar, 190.
 'salt', common to Indo-European and Finno-Ugrian languages, 127.
 Saltu-pyrgo, fortress on the Danube, model for Gothonic -burg, 97, 175.
 Samaro-briva, 'the bridge of the Somme', Celtic model for names in -bridge, -brügge, -brú, 176.
 'same', a Gothic-Scandinavian word (Scand. loan word in English), 48.
 Same, Samek, Sabmelažak = Lapps, 125.
 Sæmingr, Norw. ancestor, probably eponymous ancestor of the Lapps, 63, 125, 130.
 Samland in Prussia, Danish viking colony, 79.
 Samogitians, Baltic tribe, 81.
 Samo-jedi, 'self-eaters', a name indicating cannibalism (?), 2.
 Samo-thraki, Greek name of island, which preserves the Thracians' name to-day, 71.
 Sarmatians, Iranian tribe in Pannonia, O.E. Sermende, 63, 69.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

280

INDEX

- sæt*, element in toponymics, generally in frontier districts (cp. Dorn-sætas, Dún-sætas, Defne-sætan), 161.
- 'Satem' languages, 1, 55, 67, 70, 71, 72, 77, 83, 89.
- Saur, Gothic=Syrian, form with o as in Italian Soria, 137 note.
- Sax-nöt, 'Saxon treasure', a Saxon god, 219, 228.
- Saxons, Simplex, no abbreviation of '*Sahsa-nautōs', 150; the Simplex survives unaltered, 154; descent from Danes, 142; return from Italy, 249; subjugated by Franks, 249.
- Sæx-þeod, 'Saxon people', Compound with Celtic model, Map Fig. 6.
- Scadin-auja, Compound with Celtic model (cp. Men-apii), replacing the Simplex Scandia, 174; the only classical Compound on Scand. territory, 164; traditional home of the Gothic nations, 143, 155, 239, § 72 (cp. Skadesi-suolo).
- Scando-Goths, academic term for 'Gothic nations', 10.
- Scarniunga, Gothic river name, Long Derivative type, 172.
- Sceaf, Scef, Anglian ancestor in Scani, § 72, 7a and b.
- Schrutān, Hunnish person, with the ending -ān denoting foreign nationality, 134.
- Sciri, East Gothic tribe, Short Simplex, 155; attack the Greek colony Olbia together with Bastarnae and Scythians, 15, 68, 73, 90, 119, 242.
- scop*, 'poet', O.E. and O.L. Germ., 190.
- Scordisci, Gaulish tribe, secondary Long type, 115, 119, 242.
- Scots, 107, 121.
- Seride-finnas, 'ski-racing Finns'=Lapps, 126.
- Scyld, Skjoldr, eponymous ancestor of the Scyldingas or Skjoldungar, 142.
- Scyldingas, Skjoldungar, i.e. 'shield-bearers', Danish dynasty, 163; the name used for Danes, 156; dynastic alliteration in h, 190.
- Scylfingas, Skilfingar, the Swedish dynasty=Ynglingar, 163; the name used for Swedes, 156.
- Scythians, Iranian nation, 10, 15, 60, 67, 69, 202, 240, 242; with 'Satem' language, 67; westward migration, 4.
- se*, demonstrative suffix in the-se, different from -uh in þanz-uh (cp. Lat. ip-se), 47.
- Seax-néat, cp. Sax-nöt.
- segō-*, 'victory', Celtic honorary prefix > Engl. sige-, 158.
- Sego-briga, Celtic town, in Iberian spelt Seq-prices, 106.
- Sego-dūnum, Celtic model for Swed. Sig-túnir, 176.
- Sego-vellauni, Celtic model for O.E. Sige-scyldingas, 158.
- sehs*, 'six', O.H. Germ., without 'Breaking'; O.E. seox, O. Dan. siax, with 'Breaking', 45.
- seiðr*, 'sorcery', O.N., cp. hūd.
- Selund, now Zealand, large Dan. island with Long Derivative type, 168.
- Semele, Thracian goddess, compared with Greek Chamynē, Lithuanian Žemyna, 72.
- Semites, Asiatic linguistic family, 2, 61, § 69.
- Semnones, German tribe; worship 'regnator omnium deus', 218.
- Semsveinar, O.N.=Lapps, 129.
- Sena Gallica, now Sinigaglia, Italian town, where the name of the Gauls survives today, 106.
- senex*, 'old man', Latin=Goth. sineigs, 'old', 57, 89.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothonic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

281

- sepānjos*, presumable Dacian form, cp. Gothic sipōneis, ‘disciple’.
- Septentrional peoples=Gothonic nations, 10, § 12.
- Sequana, the river Seine, with an irregular q for Gaulish p, 113.
- Sercingas, O.E., Serkir, O.N.=Saracens, not showing Gothonic Sound Shift, 63, 137.
- Seringas, O.E.=Chinese, 63.
- Sermende, O.E.=Sarmatians, 63, 69.
- Setar, inhabitants of Greenland, a Simplex formed in late times, 156.
- Seti-dava, Dacian place name in northern Poland, 73.
- Sexe, O.E.=Germ. Sachsen, territorial name of Simplex type, 166.
- Shamanism of Finns and Lapps (cp. Hrosspjófr, Møttull), 127, 131.
- ships, in Scand. rock carvings, 211.
- shire, typical English element, 177.
- sibb*, ‘relationship’, O.E.=Goth. sibja, O.H.G. sippea, 207.
- Sidores, sub-tribe of the Bastarnae, Simplex type, 156.
- sigi-rūn*, ‘victory-rune’, a German witch=O.N. valkyrie Sig-rán, 185.
- Sigo-vesus, the leader of the Gaulish migration to the regions of the Danube, 116.
- Sigrid-lef, Danish name of the lev type, from the 11th century, 149.
- Sig-túnir, cp. Sego-dūnum.
- Siklingar, Danish family name, 190.
- sīlan*, ‘to be silent’, Gothic=Lat. silēre, the class of ē-verbs, 56.
- Silingi, sub-tribe of the Vandals, 152, 156; the name survives in Ślęzane, Silesians, 87.
- Silund=Sild, North Frisian island, Long Derivative type, 168.
- silver, Gothonic-Baltic-Slavonic loan from the Orient, 80, 241.
- Sindinger, Danish name of Gipsies, originating from Sindh, India, 63, 67.
- sipōneis*, ‘disciple’, Gothic loan from Dacian, with ō<ā, but not showing Gothonic Sound Shift, 76, 193.
- siswa*, ‘necromantic charm’, O.H.G., 238.
- Sit(h)ones, ‘settlers’? or ‘sorcerers’, Gothonic name of the Cwénas, 126.
- Skadesi-suolo, Lappish=Scadin-auja, 130, 174, 239.
- Skaði, eponymous goddess of Scadin-auja, 130, 185, 213.
- Skaði’s land=Scadin-auja, original home of the Volsung family, 140.
- skalks*, ‘servant’, Gothic, loan word from Celtic, 123.
- Skaun, ‘the beautiful’, Norw. name of villages and districts, Short Simplex, 169.
- skeggjar*, Norw. element in toponymics, 162.
- Skep-tuna, ‘Ship-ton’, near När-tuna, ‘Njörd’s town’, 225.
- Skeynir, O.N., toponymic of Skaun, Short Simplex, 144, 155.
- Skjalf, female eponymous spirit of the Scylfing dynasty in Sweden, 130.
- Škjipetar=Albanians, § 50.
- Skjoldr, cp. Scyld.
- Σκλαβηνοί, cp. Slavs.
- Skuld, the norn of the Skjoldungs, 231.
- Skul-tuna in Sweden=Skuld’s town ?, 182.
- slava*, ‘fame’, Slavonic, 81.
- Slavonic advance, the phase of, § 108.
- Slavs, I.E. group of peoples, 1, 60, 80, 132, § 55, § 56, § 108, § 109; with ‘Satem’ language, 83; the survey of their migrations and history, 247.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

282

INDEX

- Slesvig, halting-place of the wandering Swabians, 143.
 Slęzane, Silesians < Gothonic Silingi (with Slav. palatalisation), 87.
stovo, ‘word’, Slavonic, 81.
 Smeldingi, Slavonic tribe, 63.
 ‘smith’, old Gothonic occupational name, 190, 210.
 Smør-pyt, ‘sacrificial well’ (?), Jutish place name with Latin model, -puteus, 177 note.
 Snær, ‘King Snow’, Scand. ancestor, residing in Finland, 130.
 Sól-eyjar, isolated Norw. district name in -eyjar, ‘islands’, 174.
 southern origin of the Gothonic nations, theory of, § 71.
 ‘Sow’, Norw. surname of Freyja, 224.
 Spali, Slavonic tribe, defeated by Goths, 82, 84.
 Spercheios, Greek river, now called Ellada = Hellas, 88.
 spiral ornamentation, 209.
 Sporoi, Greek = Slavs, 82.
 Sprögar, toponymic of Sproge on Gotland, Short Simplex, 155.
 -stead, element in place names, comes to Scandinavia from the south ; compounded with personal names, 182.
steall, ‘altar’, O.E. = O.N. stallr (cp. Er-stall), 230.
stikls, Gothic = the loan words ‘cup’ and ‘beaker’ (of Latin origin), 101.
 Stonehenge, megalithic temple of the sun, 4.
 Strath-wealas, the British realm in Southern Scotland, 106.
 Strind, Norw. territorial name, Short Simplex ; toponymic Strindir, later < Strindinger, 155, 156.
 Stryn, Dan. island, Short Simplex ; later > Stryn-ø, 169, 174.
 Sudinoi, Baltic tribe, probably = Strabo’s ‘Sibinoi’, 78 ; the Germ. territorial name Sudauen shows no Sound Shift, 63.
suðrænn, ‘southern’, O.N. = South Gothonic, South European, 41, 193.
 Suf-folk, ‘south-folk’, county, an Anglian-Jutish-Götl. type, 177.
 Su-gambri, West German tribe name, with Celtic model Su-essonnes at Soissons, 157, 158 ; transplanted west of the Rhine, 120.
suhtr-fædran, ‘nephew and uncle’, O.E., cp. pitā-putrās.
 Sumblus, ‘Feast’, Finnish legendary king, 131.
 Suomalaiset, cp. Finns.
 Svehans, Gothic = Swed. Svéar, common development of the earlier form Sviones = O. Norw. Svíar, 48 ; expanded to Svenskar, 154.
 Sví-hjóð, ‘Swedish people’, with Celtic model, 159.
 Swabians, Germ. group of tribes, 38 ; allies of the Sarmatians, 69 ; emigration from the island of Swabia (= Sweden), 142 ; hair dress, 200.
 Swedes (cp. Svehans), date of birth of the nationality of, 51 ; navies, 211 ; invasion of Persia, 68.
 swine-phalanx, Odin’s military technique, 227.
 Sygnir, O.N. toponymic of Sogn, Short Simplex ; later > Sogningar, 155, 156.
 -sýsla, ‘county’, Dan. Norw. element, 178.
t, irregular initial of Thor- in pet forms, 186.
tacēre, ‘to be silent’, Lat. = Got. þahan, O.H.G. dagēn, the class of ē-verbs, 56.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothicic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

283

- tafn*, 'sacrificial animal', O.N. = δαπάνη, 'sacrificial meal', 230.
 Taman, Gothic colony on the coast of the Caucasus, 136.
 Tanarus, the Celtic Jupiter > O.H.G. Thonar, O.N. Þórr, 111, 124, 220.
 Tanfana, West German goddess, 222; her temple, 239.
 Taranis, probably 'taboo' form of Tanarus, 111.
 Tarvos tri-garanos, 'the bull with three cranes', Gaulish god, 112, 124, 221.
 Tatere, Dan., i.e. 'Tartars' = Gipsies, 67.
 Tating, Frisian town, built on Tate Eskel's ground, 173.
 Taurisci, Celtic tribe in the Hohe Tauern, secondary Long type, 113; mining work, 110.
τέκτων, 'carpenter', etymologically = Germ. dachs, 'badger', 210.
 temples, 233, Map Fig. 106.
 Tervingi, Gothic sub-tribe, secondary Long type, 152, 156.
 Teurio-chaim-, old Compound in -heim, 162, 173.
 Teuta, Illyrian queen, cp. biudans, 93, 203.
 Teutates, Toutatis, the Gaulish 'Mercurius', 111.
 Teuti-burgion, Germ. name of mountain, with Celtic model -brigia, 175.
 Teutones, Gothonic tribal name, 19, 38, 97, 119, 241; Short Simplex, 155; Gothonic-Illyrian-Italic-Celtic element teut-, 'people', 56.
 Teutons, Theutonici = Gothonic nations, 1, 36, 248, § 13 a, § 21.
 Teutsche = Deutsche, Germans, 28; = Gothonic nations, § 20.
 Thastris or Chartris, Jutish headland, Short Simplex, 164; favourite Gothonic ending -is, 59, 164.
 Theodisca lingua, the popular language, later = German, 28.
thero, 'their', O.H.G. bizē Gothic; differed from the Engl. Scand. stem * baiz-, 47.
 'the-se' with suffix -se (cp. Lat. ip-se), different from Goth. -uh, 47.
 Thingsus, 'Mars', German god (cp. Dienstag), 218.
 Thiudos, 'peoples', Gothonic name of the Finns, whence Russ. Čud', 126.
 Thonar, cp. Tanarus; the backbone of his victims is broken, 232.
 Thorsbjerg, colossal sacrifice, 233.
 Thorstuna, district of, dedicated to Thor, 181.
 'thrall', O.N. þræll, O.H.G. drigil, with degrading suffix -il, 192, 205.
thungin, 'leader of the thing', Frankish title; ending -in as mark of rank, 191.
thuris, 'giant', O.E. þyrs, Finn. tursas < Tyrrhenians?, 64, 215.
 Thyur-guth, Jutish sanctuary of the bull god?, 221.
 Thyuthæbiærg, district of = Germ. Teuti-burgion, 175.
 Tí, O.E., O. Fris. = the god Týr (cp. Tuesday), 218.
 Tifeld, Saxon district, dedicated to Tí, 219.
 Tigrini, Celtic tribe, accompanies the Cimbri, 119.
 Tislund, Tisvilde, Danish sanctuaries of Týr, 219.
 '*Tiu-warjöz = Týr's men', imaginary interpretation of Cyuuari, 150.
 Tiwes-le in Surrey, dedicated to Tí, 219.
 Toisobis, British river, with name of Iberian type -ob, 3.
torquis, Celtic national neck-band, 109.
toutius, 'chieftain', Celtic, cp. biudans, 56, 203.
 Tri-boci, German tribe; Compound with Celtic model, 153; migration, 120; Celticised, Romanised, 120, 244.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

284

INDEX

- Trieste, west frontier of Slavs, 249.
- triggwa*, 'the trusty', Gothic, with gemination of g, as in O.N. tryggvi; different from O.E. triowa, O.H.G. treowo, 47.
- trinities of gods (Germ.: 'Mercurius', 'Mars', 'Hercules'; Saxon: Woden, Thunor, Saxnöt; Scand.: Odin, Thor, Frey), 124, 229.
- Troy, tale of Gothic migration from, 138.
- trud*, 'night-mare', Germ., 212.
- Trusi-lēh, Drusen-loch = Drusi tumulus at Mayence, 180.
- Tschorlu < Tzurullon, with Thracian palatalisation of k, 72.
- tt* > s in Gothic, Celtic, Italic, 55.
- Tubal-Cain the smith, representative of the Tibarenes, 136.
- Tulko-burgo, Gothic place name on the Danube, 74.
- tūn*, Saxon-Scand. element in place names with Celtic model, 176; sporadic propagation, 181; Map Fig. 6.
- Tungri, tribe at Tongres in Belgium, derived from Cimbri and Teutones, 19; Celticised, Romanised, 244.
- tún-riða*, 'woman who rides on the fence', O.N. = O.H.G. zūn-rita, a witch, 185, 238.
- Turcilingi, East Gothic tribe name, 156.
- tut*, Lat. suffix = Goth. -dub, 56.
- Tverobis, British river with Iberian ending -ob, 3.
- Tvi-hanti, West German tribe; light Compound with Celtic model (cp. Dvealedones), 157; worship Mars Thingsus, 218.
- Tvisto, 'the hermaphrodite' (?), ancestor of humanity, 38, 39; symbolises the Gothic nations as aborigines, 140, cp. 144.
- 'twelve', Gothic-Baltic numeral, 80, 197.
- Tyboers = Teutones?, § 13 a, § 21.
- Týr, O.N., Gothic Tyz, O.E. Tí, O.H.G. Ziu, interpreted as 'Mars', 218, cp. 124; probably = Dyaus, Zeus, Jupiter, 218; the victims are burnt or thrown among bushes of thorns, 232.
- Tyrrhenians, Etrusci, non-I.E. nation in Italy, 2, 3, 7, 62, 64.
- Tysnes, solitary sanctuary of Týr in Norway, 219.
- Tzurullon, cp. Tschorlu.
- þeiwo*, 'thunder', Gothic, cp. Mars Thingsus.
- þiudans*, 'king', Gothic = O.N. þjóðann, O.E. þeoden; ending -an as mark of rank, 56, 191, 192, 203.
- Piu-st, Swed. Tjust, territorial name, Long Derivative type, 169.
- þrówend-, 'flourishing', Norw. regional name, Long Derivative type, 167.
- þulr*, 'poet, priest', O.N. = O.E. þyle, 236.
- Ubii, West German tribe, Celticised, Romanised, 120, 244.
- Uggr, surname of Odin, allowed as name of mortal men, 189.
- uh*, Gothic demonstrative suffix = Lat. -unque (cp. -se), 47.
- ulbandus*, 'camel'; Long Derivative type indicating a large animal, 192; originally = mammoth, 145 and Fig. 1.
- Ulburg, district dedicated to the god Ullr, 183, 220.
- Ullaråker, district dedicated to the god Ullr, 220.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I
 Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

285

- Ullerslev, founded by a worshipper of Ullr, 189.
 Ultrajectum, Utrecht = O. Frank. Vultaburch, 99.
 Umbrians, Italic tribe, 55, 96.
 Umeå Lappmark, with eponymous giant Ymir (?), 130.
 Ungern, Germ. territorial name of the Simplex type, 166.
unhulþō, 'mean wight', Gothic, 214.
 Uppsala, residence of the Scand. ancestor Ypper, 142; temple of Frey, 225.
 Urðr, cp. Wyrd.
 -usc, Ligurian suffix (cp. Caranusca), 23, 156.
useregð, 'earring', O. Slavonic loan from Gothic, 87.
 Uturguri, Hunnish tribe, with -r suffix, 132.
- vada*, 'shallow waters', Lat. = Germ. watten, Dan. vader, 56, 146, 239.
 Vagdavercustis, Rhenish goddess, 186.
vala, 'necromantic witch', O.N., 185.
 Valamer, Gothic king, killed by the Sarmatians, 69.
 Valhalla confused with Wealas, 65, 104.
 Valir, O.N. = Celts, 106.
val-kyrja, 'corpse-choosing', O.N. = O.E. wæl-cyrze, 'necromantic witch', 185.
 Vandals, East Gothic tribal group, 49, 156, 240; subjugated by the Byzantines, 250.
 Vandili = the East Gothic group, yorθukā ēθvη, 38, 49.
 Vangiones, West Germ. tribe, 120; Celticised, Romanised, 244.
 Vænir, Swed. lake, Short Simplex, 165.
 Vanir, Scand. fertility gods, § 98.
 Vapincum, *Wápinkon, Gaulish town > French Gap, 118.
 Vardo, *Wardo, Gaulish river > French Gard, 118.
 Varini, tribe in Mecklenburg, not in South Jutland, 151; worship Nerthus, 223; subjugated by Franks, 249.
 Varjazi, O. Slav. = Varangians; used = 'Gothonic nations', 10, § 15.
vātes, 'seer', Lat. = O. Irish fāith (common primitive word, or loan word ?), 110, 236.
 Vébjørg, eponymous spirit of Viborg, 214.
 Velchanos, surname of the Cretan Zeus, 91, 217 note.
veleda, 'prophetess', O. Germ. borrowing from Celtic, cp. fili(d), 124, 237, cp. 110.
 Veletabi, Slav. tribe = Germ. Wilzen, showing H. Germ. Sound Shift, 63, 82.
 Veluwe, Dutch region, perhaps with toponymic Falchovarii, 160.
 Venäjä, Finn. = Russia, originally = land of Wends, 82.
 Vendill, Dan. Swed. territorial name, Long Derivative type (cp. Vandili), 168.
 Venethi = Wends, foreign name showing Gothonic Sound Shift, and consonantal inflection in Scand., 62, 81, 82, 240.
 Veneti, Illyrian tribe, 83, 93.
 Vermir, Swed. tribe, Short Simplex, 168.
 Viberi, Ligurian tribe < river name *Vibera (cp. Wipera), 171.
viq-pati, 'house-lord', O. Ind. = Lithuanian vieš-pats, 7.
-vicus, 'town', Lat. model for Saxon -wic, 177, Map Fig. 7.
 Vidi-varii, Gothic toponymic of Livonian Vidu-maa, 161; the original form probably Vidu-arii, 161; absorbed by Baltic peoples, 250.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothonic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic,

German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

286

INDEX

- Vi-folka härad, Götl. (cp. Nor-folk, Suf-folk, Wændle-folk), 177.
 *Víkir, Norw. toponymic, Short Simplex, 155.
 Vík-verjar, Norw. toponymic, solitary instance of the type -vari in ancient Norway, 161.
 Vilcinus, eponymous ancestor of the Veletabi; ending -in as mark of foreign nationality, 66, 87.
-villa, -villare, Lat. model for Germ. place names in -weil, -weiler, 97, 99, 180, Map Fig. 7.
 Vindr, O.N.=Wends, with consonantal inflection, 82.
visand-, 'bison', Gothic, Long Derivative type denoting large animal, 192.
 Vistula, Visurgis, river names in Germany, Long Derivative types (cp. Isarcus, Namurcum), 170; battle of Huns and Goths took place near, 134, 247.
-vivārium, 'fish-pond', Lat. model for Germ. place names in -weiher, 177, 180.
 Vlaci, Slavonic='Romans', 95.
 Vokieciei, Lithuanian='Germans', 80.
 Volcae, Gaulish tribe > O.H.G. Walhun, 'Celts'>'Romans', showing Gothonic Sound Shift and development o>a, 62, 106, 217; > Slavonic Vlaci, 'Romans', 95.
 Volla, Germ. goddess=O.N. Fulla, 225.
 Volsungar, perhaps derived from the phallic god Vølsi, 163; emigrate from Skaði's land, i.e. Scandinavia, 140.
 Vør(u)s, Norw. territorial name, 169; toponymic Vørsar or Versir, 169; later > Vos-singar, 156.
 Vosegus, Gaulish mountain=Germ. Wasgau, with development o>a, 99, 241.

 Wachalinga in Westphalia, probable home of the matres Vacalin(g)ehae, 172.
 Wala-ríce, 'Roman Empire', O.E., with Celtic model (cp. Cal-rike, Ciar-rike), 175.
 Walen, Dutch=Walloons, 95.
 Wales, territorial name, Short Simplex, 166.
 Walhun, cp. Volcae.
wal-riderske, corpse-riding woman', L. German, 238.
walu-burg, 'witch', O. Germ., 185, 237.
 Wændle-folk, Jutish district (ep. Nor-, Suf-folk, Vi-folka härad), 177.
 Waralden Olmay, Lappish god < O.N. veraldar goð, 'god of the world', 129.
-wargs, 'outlaw', Gothic, literally='wolf', 207.
 Wasgau, cp. Vosegus.
 Wash, stronghold of British survivals in the vicinity, 120.
 'Wave Theory', § 31.
 Wayland Smith, 191, 210, 216.
 Wealas, O.E.=Celts, § 62; =Wales, 166.
weahl, 'slave', O.E., literally=Welshman, 106.
-weiher, -weil, -weiler, elements of Germ. place names, cp. -vivārium, -villa, -villare.
 Wends, § 55.
weor-old, 'world', O.E., cosmic Compound, 184.
 'wergild', 205, 207.
 West European phase of Gothonic history, § 38, § 102.
 Westfalahi, Germ. tribe in Westphalia, > Westfalingi, 156.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I

Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

INDEX

287

- West Gothic linguistic community, § 32, § 33, § 34; no striking political and historical community, 50.
- West Jutish area of archaic place names, 178 and Fig. 4.
- West Slavonic retreat, phase of Gothic history, § 110.
- West and South Jutish definite Article, 42.
- West-wealas = Wales, 106.
- Wetar-eiba, Germ. territorial name in -aib, 177.
- Wetur, 'water', Swed. lake, Short Simplex, 165.
- We-wurt, 'fatal norn', O.H. Germ., 214.
- Wibil, destroyer of Aventicum, which is later called Wifflisburg (first instance of Gothic place name with personal element), 181.
- Wight, landing-place of the Jutes, 120.
- wights, § 93.
- wih*, 'sanctuary', O.H.G. 230; O.E. wéoh, O.N. vé, with common vocalic development, 45.
- Wiht-sætas, Wiht-ware, toponymic of the Isle of Wight, 161.
- Wilde Leute = Arab invaders in Switzerland, 250.
- Wilzun, cp. Veletabi.
- Winden, i.e. Wends = Slovenes, 82.
- Windisch Matrei in the Tyrol, west frontier of the Slavs, 249.
- Wineslän = Venceslaus, Slavonic person with foreign nationality (-ān), 66, 87.
- Wingart-ciba, Germ. territorial name in -aib, 177.
- Winnili, surname of the Langobards, 141.
- winzuril*, 'vine dresser', O.H.G. < Lat. vinitor, exhibiting H. Germ. Sound Shift, 100, and degrading suffix -il, 192, 210.
- Wipera, German river = Italian Vevera (cp. Viberi), 171.
- Wisinnus, eponymous ancestor of the Finnish Vesi, with mark of foreign nationality (-īn), 66, 131.
- Witheslef, the ancient realm of the Danes; the only prominent territorial name in -lev, 142.
- Wizlän = Vitslav, Slavonic person with mark of foreign nationality (-ān), 66, 87.
- Wodan, Woden, Germ. = Odin; originates from the giant Wode (cp. Óðr), 227.
- Wotaneshuson, now Gutmannshausen ('taboo' form), 228.
- Wulfhere, Germ. Wolfhart, defender of the Gothic country against the Huns, 134, 247.
- Wülfinge, 'wolves', Germ. family name, 163.
- Wyrd, O.E., Wurt, O.H.G., fate, 214.
- Wyrmhere, Wulfhere's companion; cp. Ormarr.
- Yev-ād, 'corn-eaters', O. Ind. name of the Aryans (cp. Ām-ādaka), 2.
- ylfa gescot*, ésa gescot, 'elfshot' = L. Germ. alf-schot, Dan. elle-skud, 214.
- Ymir, Ymuman, cp. Umeå.
- Ynglingar, Swed. dynasty = Scyldingas, worship the ancestor Yngvi, 163.
- Ypper, Scand. ancestor, whence Uppsala, 142.
- Zalmoxis, Thracian god, reflected by a myth of Frey, 72, 76, 225.
- Zdebrēn, Slavonic place name south of the Danube, 6th century, 85.

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-67478-3 - Our Forefathers: The Gothic Nations: A Manual of the Ethnography of the Gothic, German, Dutch, Anglo-Saxon, Frisian and Scandinavian Peoples: Volume I
Gudmund Schütte

Index

More information

288

INDEX

- zelle*, ‘cell’, Germ. loan word from Latin, with palatalised c, 101, 177.
Zemeluks, Lithuanian fertility god, cp. Zalmoxis.
Zemyna, Lithuanian fertility goddess, cp. Chamynē.
Zeus, cp. Týr.
Žila, Slovenian river name = Germ. Gail, 87.
Zimbri, Germ. colonists north of Verona, 250.