

Cambridge University Press
 978-1-107-67803-3 - Blaise Pascal Thoughts
 Selected and Translated by Moritz Kaufmann
 Table of Contents
More information

CONTENTS

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION	vii
PART I. MISERY OF MAN WITHOUT GOD.
A. Man's Place in Nature.
The Greatness and Littleness of Man	1
Man's Vanity and Self-love	13
Man's Feebleness and Ignorance. Imagination, the Mistress of Error	20
Man's Misery producing Restlessness and Dis- traction	37
B. Man and Society.
Opinions and Customs	47
Justice, Law, Social Ethics	54
Instinct, Intelligence, Style	75
Scepticism. Man a Monster of Contradictions	84

CONTENTS

PART II. HAPPINESS OF MAN WITH GOD.

A. Man in Search of Truth.

	PAGE
The Duty of studying Religious Problems ; the Venture of Faith	96
Difficulty of demonstrating the Existence of God by the Light of Nature	108
The Notes of true Religion	119
Proofs of Religion in Human Nature	127
Submission and Use of Reason	137
Religious Inquiry and Revelation	140

B. Man in Possession of the Truth.

Judaism and Christianity	144
Types and Figures	154
The Greatness of Christ	159
Prophecies concerning Christ	164
Moses, Mohamed, and Christ	166
God seen by some and hidden from others	168
God as revealed by Christ	172
Thoughts on Miracles	176
Diverse Thoughts on Religion	183
Desires and Christian Duties	201
The Mystery of Jesus	210
Pascal's Confession of Faith	217
NOTES	220
INDEX	225