

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-68806-3 - Informed Consent: A Primer for Clinical Practice

Deborah Bowman, John Spicer and Rehana Iqbal

Index

More information

Index

- addiction 72
- age of consent 15, 21
- Agich, George 67
- altruism 35
- assault 5, 45, 60
- autonomous choice 7
- autonomy 63, 64, 87, 90
 - as shared process 36
 - contingent 66
 - ethical value of 36
 - fostering 27
 - patient 64
 - personal 1, 5, 36
 - professional 64
 - respect for 2
- battery 45
- Beauchamp, Thomas 2
- beneficence 2, 23
- best interests 16, 23, 25, 34, 64, 68
- Bolam test 44
- Bolitho v. City and Hackney Health Authority* 45
- Bournewood case 73
- capacity 11–28, 90
 - and illness 21–26
 - and understanding 12–14
 - children 16–18
 - definition of 11
 - development of 18–21
 - immaturity 15–16
 - mental See understanding
- case histories 33
- causation 13, 44
- children 11
 - capacity 16–18
 - capacity development 18–21
 - immaturity 15–16
 - proxies 17
- Children Act 1989 16
- Childress, James 2
- clinical history 33
- clinician, change of 82–85
- coercion 56
 - systemic 59–66
- cognitive impairment 11
 - Mini Mental State Examination 12
- Coker, Richard 71
- compassion 35
- competence 11
- compulsion 70–73
- confidentiality 4, 59
- consent
 - age of 15
 - composition of 4
 - context of 7–8
 - continuing 76–88, 91
 - express 6
 - forms of 5–7
 - implied 6
 - informed See informed consent
 - narrative approach 34
 - nurse-led 41
 - seeking 1
 - terms and conditions 60
 - virtue-based approach 35
- consequentialism 4
- contingent autonomy 66
- continuing consent 76–88, 91
 - and healthcare process 76–82
 - changing clinicians 82–85
 - changing patients 85–88
- courage 4

98	Index
decision-making 32–52	honesty 35
autonomous 1	Human Tissue Act 2004 69
incapacitous 13	Hunter, Kathryn 46
medical 2	Huntington’s disease 22
dementia 22, 28	identity 85–88
deontological theories 4	illness
Deprivation of Liberty orders 73	and capacity 21–26
discretion 57	immaturity 12, 15–16
eccentricity 26	implied consent 6
Enlightenment 1	incapacitous decisions 13
epistemological uncertainty 46	Independent Mental Capacity
‘essential humanity’ 87	Advocate 14, 25
ethical dilemmas 3–4	information 32–52, 90 ethico-legal issues 70	effect of familiarisation on ethics 2, 5	provision of 34
and risk 63	exchange of 37
genetic information 50	how much to give 42–46
information sharing 33	importance of 32–38
narrative-based approach 33	purpose of 49–52
European Court of Human Rights 73	who should provide 38–42
express consent 6	information transfer 34
familiarity, effects in information	informed consent 5, 32–52 provision 34	integrity 4, 35
families 66–70	investigations
Family Law Reform Act 1969 19	consent to 80
Foucault, Michel 57	irrationality 12, 26
Foundation Schools 39	Jehovah’s Witnesses 20
Fox, Renee 46	jurisdiction 2, 3
Fraser competence See Gillick	Lasting Power of Attorney
competence	25, 69
freedom of choice See voluntariness	legal environment 2
‘gaze’ 57	negligence 44
General Medical Council (GMC) 3, 39	liberty, deprivation of 73
genetic information 50	mental capacity See understanding
Gillick competence 11, 20	Mental Capacity Act 2005 13, 14, 20,
Gillick v. West Norfolk and Wisbech	23, 25, 26, 70, 72, 73
AHA 20	mental health 71–73
Health and Social Care Act 2008 71	Mental Health Acts 1983 and 2007
Hippocratic Oath 4	70, 72

	Index	99
Miller, Jonathan 85	Public Health (Control of Disease) Act 1984 70, 71
Mini Mental State Examination 12
negligence 44	Quality and Outcomes Framework 65, 66 non-maleficence 2, 23 numbers needed to treat (NNT) 47
Nursing and Midwifery Council 3	rapport 33 relatives and friends 66–70
O'Neill, Onora 67	Research Ethics Committees 91
opportunistic interventions 65	risks and benefits 34, 36, 60, 64
paradox of epistemological naïveté 46	seeking consent 1
paternalism 8, 51, 65	self-determination 87, 90
patient autonomy 64	Supervised Community Treatment Orders 72 patient identity, illness-induced changes 85–88 patient-centredness 8	therapeutic relationship 33 patient-doctor partnership 57	trust 7, 33 patient-led information 43	loss of 60 performance indicators 66
personal autonomy 1, 5, 36	uncertainty 46–49
and the Enlightenment 1	understanding 12–14, 73
police	utilitarianism 4 duty to inform 4
Post, Stephen 87	virtue theories 4
power 56–59	virtue-based approach to consent 35
'pre-morbid personality' 85	voluntariness 56–73, 90
professional autonomy 64	coercion 56, 59–66
professional judgement 61	legal limits 70
professionalism 2	power relationships 56–59
proxies 17	third-party influences 66–70 public health 70–71 welfare 16	