

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-68985-5 - Cognitive Behaviour Therapy for Children and Families: Third Edition

Edited by Philip Graham and Shirley Reynolds

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

	List of contributors	page viii
	Preface	xi
1	Introduction Philip Graham and Shirley Reynolds	1
Section 1 Developmental cognitive theory and clinical practice
2	Anxiety and depression in young people: developmental considerations Jennifer Y. F. Lau, Kevin Hilbert and Alice M. Gregory	7
3	Adapting cognitive behaviour therapy for children and adolescents Paul Stallard	22
4	Issues in evaluation of psychotherapies Miranda Wolpert, Andrew Fugard and Jessica Deighton	34
Section 2 Engagement and assessment
5	Engagement Isabel Boege and Dennis Ougrin	51
6	Formulation: a systemic approach in cognitive behaviour therapy Nicola Dummett	69
Section 3 Client groups
7	Working collaboratively with parents and carers in cognitive behaviour therapy (CBT) Cathy Creswell, Sam Cartwright-Hatton and Natalie Rodriguez	91
8	Working with black and minority ethnic children and their families Iyabo A. Fatimilehin and Amira Hassan	110
9	Working with schools and children's wider social environment Peter Fuggle and Sandra Dunsmuir	126

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-68985-5 - Cognitive Behaviour Therapy for Children and Families: Third Edition

Edited by Philip Graham and Shirley Reynolds

Table of Contents

More informationvi Contents*Section 4 Cognitive approaches to children facing adversity

- |    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 10 | Trauma-focused cognitive behaviour therapy for child sexual abuseJudith A. Cohen, Laura K. Murray and Anthony P. Mannarino | 145 |
| 11 | Children with chronic and life-limiting health conditionsMelinda Edwards and Inés Baños                                    | 159 |
| 12 | Cognitive approaches to children with chronic painEllen Trautmann  | 176 |

Section 5 Applications in specific child and adolescent syndromes

- |    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 13 | Cognitive behaviour therapies for youth with autism spectrum disordersJeffrey J. Wood and Benjamin C. Schwartzman | 189 |
| 14 | Eating disordersBeth Watkins  | 203 |
| 15 | Treating broad-based anxiety problemsCarol Newall, Helen F. Dodd, Jennifer L. Hudson and Ronald M. Rapee          | 222 |
| 16 | Post-traumatic stress disordersDavid Trickey  | 235 |
| 17 | Phobic anxietyElla L. Milliner, Lara J. Farrell and Thomas H. Ollendick   | 255 |
| 18 | Obsessive-compulsive disorderSarah Clark and Shirley Reynolds   | 275 |
| 19 | Depressive disordersShirley Reynolds and Sarah Clark  | 292 |

Section 6 Cognitive behaviour therapy: applications in preventive interventions

- |    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 20 | Prevention of conduct disorders: cognitive behavioural approachesStephen Scott    | 311 |
| 21 | Prevention of anxiety disordersJennifer L. Allen, Cathy Creswell and Lynne Murray | 323 |

Section 7 New developments in cognitive behaviour therapy for children

- |    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 22 | Using low-intensity treatment methods with familiesCynthia M. Turner and Georgina C. Krebs  | 337 |
| 23 | Using new technologies to deliver cognitive behaviour therapy with children and adolescentsCaroline L. Donovan, Susan H. Spence and Sonja March | 351 |

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-68985-5 - Cognitive Behaviour Therapy for Children and Families: Third Edition

Edited by Philip Graham and Shirley Reynolds

Table of Contents

More informationvii      Contents

24	Mindfulness-based interventions in child and adolescent psychopathology Susan M. Bögels, Esther I. de Bruin and Saskia van der Oord	371
25	Conclusion and future directions Shirley Reynolds and Philip Graham	385
	Index	389