

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

- Abinger, James Scarlett, afterwards Lord, see Scarlett, James
- Acts, see Exercises
- Adams, Sir Thomas, founds an Arabic Professorship, 132, 133
- Ad respondendum quæstioni, 41, 42, 48, 57, 62, 82
- Airy, Sir George, Plumian Professor of Astronomy, 152
- Amelia, Princess, 282
- Anatomy, Professorship of, see Professorships
- Ansell, Thomas, Fellow of Trinity Hall, and right of appeal, 30
- Appeal, right of, in disciplinary cases, 29–31
- Arabic, Adams' Professorship of, see Professorships
- Arabic, Lord Almoner's Professorship of, see Professorships
- Arnald, Richard, and appointment of John Martyn to Botany Professorship, 163–164
- Arnald, William, Fellow of St John's, his Commencement Sunday sermon, 1781, 210
- Arts, bachelor and master of, see Degree Courses
- Ashton, Charles, Master of Jesus, and the decree of the Heads in 1684, 58; and honorary degrees, 80
- Assessor, Vice-Chancellor's, 28
- Assize of bread, wine and beer, 23
- Astronomy and Experimental Philosophy, Professorship of, see Professorships
- Astronomy and Geometry, Professorship of, see Professorships
- Atwood, George, Fellow of Trinity, lectures delivered by, 151
- Audley, John, and Regius Professorship of Civil Law, 126
- Audley End, and mastership of Magdalene, 19, 283
- Backhouse, James, Fellow of Trinity, and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 248
- Balsham, estate at, purchased by Plumian Trustees, 148
- Banks, Robert, Professor of Anatomy, connected with Christ's Hospital, 153; question of his lectures, 153–154
- Barnardiston, John, as Tutor of Corpus, 276
- Barnes, Francis, Vice-Provost of King's, his appointment to mastership of Peterhouse, 285–295
- Barnes, Joshua, Regius Professor of Greek, his scholarship, 120
- Baronets, and honorary degrees, 79–81
- Barrow, Isaac, Lucasian Professor of Mathematics, his lectures, 130
- Baskett, Kingsman, Fellow of Trinity, and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 242
- Baskett, Richard, and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 241–242
- Baynes, John, Fellow of Trinity, and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 242–243, 252; death of, 254
- Beadon, Richard, Master of Jesus, continued as Vice-Chancellor, 14–15; see also 284
- Beaufort, Lady Margaret, founds Lady Margaret Professorship of Divinity, 96
- Beaumont, Joseph, Regius Professor of Divinity, 124
- Bedells, 26, 63, 277
- Bedford, Francis Russell, fifth Duke of, admitted at Trinity, 203
- Beer, Assize of, see Assize
- Beeston, of Norwich, 191
- Bell, John, and divinity exercises, 67
- Bentley, Richard, Master of Trinity, successful appeal to court of King's Bench, 32–33; his election to Regius Professor of Divinity, 111–112; his conduct as Professor, 98, 102, 104, 106; and Joshua Barnes, 120; helps to frame the statutes for

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

392

INDEX

- the Plumian Professorship, 148; and the Botany Professorship, 162; and Conyers Middleton, 168; and the Westminster claim upon Trinity fellowships, 231–232; and Edmund Miller, 233: see also 202, 245, 277, 278, 280, 283
- Berridge, John, Fellow of Clare, 105, 295
- Bishops, exempted from Vice-Chancellorship, 10; and honorary degrees, 79, 81; sons of, and honorary degrees, 80–81
- Blackburne, Francis, publishes The Confessional, 304
- Blythe, Samuel, Master of Clare, 235
- Borlase, George, Fellow of Peterhouse, becomes Knightbridge Professor, 138; a candidate for mastership of Peterhouse, 284–294
- Boswell, James, his praise of Ogden's sermons, 259
- Botanical Garden, 164–166; and bequest by Richard Jackson, 176
- Botany, Professorship of, see Professorships
- Bowyer, William, as a sizar at St John's, 202
- Bradley, Richard, Professor of Botany, appointment of, 162; neglect of his duties, 162–163
- Brand, Thomas, Fellow of Christ's, lectures as Professor Shepherd's deputy, 150–152
- Bread, Assize of, see Assize
- Brockett, Laurence, Regius Professor of Modern History, neglect of his duties, 157; his ignominious death, 157–158
- Brooke, Zachary, Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity, omission to lecture, 98; and the Knightbridge Professorship, 139; death, 99
- Brown, James, Master of Pembroke, and the controversy over religious tests, 311
- Browne, Theophilus, Fellow of Peterhouse, 291
- Buck, John, Esquire Bedell, 47
- Burghley, William Cecil, Lord, Chancellor of the University, and the grace of 1580, 9; and interpretation of 1575, 73; his complaint of Tutors, 268
- Bute, John Stuart, Earl of, 157
- Byde, Mr, candidate at parliamentary election for borough of Cambridge, 264
- Caius, see Gonville and Caius
- Cambridge, Town of, and Chancellor's Court, 31–32; parliamentary election for, 263–265
- Cambridge Chronicle*, 172
- Camerarius, Dr, 167
- Campbell, John Campbell, Lord, testimony to industry of undergraduates, 227–228; description of a college feast, 257
- Canons of 1604, and university degrees, 302–304
- Canterbury, Archbishop of, and appointment of Wallop to mastership of Magdalene, 19; and Dr Law's resignation of University Offices, 140; an elector to the Woodwardian Professorship, 167–168; and elections to mastership of St John's, 282–283
- Caput, powers of, 24; composition and election of, 24–25, 277; its right of veto, 24–27, 164, 305–306, 315, 320–321; provision in case of absent members, 25; and court of Delegates, 29
- Carr, Dr, his Commencement Sunday sermon, 1782, 210
- Carr, John, Fellow of St John's, and Charles Yorke, 217
- Carr, Nicholas, Regius Professor of Greek, 116–117
- Caryl, Lynford, Master of Jesus, 284, 322
- Castell, Edmund, Adams Professor of Arabic, fails to attract an audience, 133; his devotion to study, 134
- Caution payments, explanation of, 61; and medical exercises, 61, 76–77; and divinity exercises, 72, 74; and civil law exercises, 75; and mandate degrees, 83–85
- Cautley, Richard, and Trinity fellowship election, 241–242

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

393

- Cautley, Thomas, Fellow of Trinity, and Trinity fellowship election, 242
- Cavendish, Henry, 224
- Cecil, Sir Robert, his complaint of Tutors, 268
- Chancellor, court of, see Court of the Chancellor
- Chancellor of the University, mode of appointment, 6; non-residence of, 6; his functions, 7; duties as a patron, 7–8; considerations determining the choice of, 7–8; and mandate degrees, 85–88; King's College exempted from jurisdiction of, 190
- Chancellor, The Lord, an elector to the Lowndean Professorship, 171; and Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 251–254
- Chancellor's medals, qualification to compete for, 56–57, 192: see also 187–188
- Chancery, see Court of
- Chappelow, Leonard, Adams Professor of Arabic, his lectures, 133; a serious student, 134; appointed Lord Almoner's Professor, 135; death of, 136
- Charles II, dispenses with one of the acts for degree of bachelor of medicine, 61; and opponencies required of masters of arts, 66; extends right to honorary degrees, 79–80; and mandate degrees, 83–84; and the Regius Professorships, 101–102, 113–115; and Lucasian Professorship, 129
- Chemistry, Professorship of, see Professorships
- Christ's College, decline of, in eighteenth century, 186; and the Chancellor's medals, 188; fellowships of, 196; feast at, 257; Parkinson as Tutor of, 272
- Christ's College, Master of, an elector to the Regius Professorships of Divinity, Greek and Hebrew, 101; an elector to Plumian Professorship, 148; stipend of, 279: see also Rooke, G. H., Thomas, H., Towers, W.
- Civil Law, bachelor and doctor of, see Degree Courses
- Civil Law, Regius Professorship of, see Professorships
- Clare College, great reputation of, 188, 193–194; fellowships of, 235, 256–257; election of Dr Goddard as Master of, 282
- Clubbe, John, a sizar at King's, 191
- Coaching, see Tuition, private
- Coffee-houses, 206–208
- Colbatch, John, Fellow of Trinity, author of Jus Academicum, 29; as Knightbridge Professor, 138; testimony to Clare, 193
- Cole, William, estimate of Dr Watson, 107; account of John Colson, 131; recollections of Mickleborough, 144; opinion of Charles Collignon, 154; account of Shallet Turner, 156; account of Brockett, 157; account of John Smith, Lowndean Professor, 173; comments on changes in University, 204, 207; dissatisfaction with University, 210
- Colleges, their condition in eighteenth century, 185–186; academic successes of, 188; resemblance to one another, 189; principles governing selection among, 192–196; restrictions upon fellowships, 194–196; exercises in, 198, 316; and the courts of the land, 224; rents of, 279; jealousy of interference by University, 319–320, 325–328, 333–334; and private tuition, 332–334: see also under names of Colleges and under Lecturers
- Collignon, Charles, Professor of Anatomy, lectures delivered by, 154
- Colman, William, Master of Corpus Christi, and the fellowship election of 1782, 236–237; see also 12
- Colson, John, Lucasian Professor of Mathematics, 130–131; his lectures, 131
- Commencement, ceremony of creation at, 62–64, 78–79
- Commissary, acts as Vice-Chancellor's Assessor, 28, 32, 36; acts as deputy High Steward, 36–37

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

394

INDEX

- Commissary, court of the, see Court of the Commissary
- Commission, Royal, of 1850, recommends abolition of office of Taxor, 24; opinion of the High Steward's Court Leet, 36; favourably disposed towards ten-year men, 71–72; and Lady Margaret Professorship, 97; Dr Whewell's evidence upon Knightbridge Professorship before, 138; favourable notice of Norrisian Professorship, 175; tribute to King's College, 192; and religious tests, 316
- Commorantes in villa, 26
- Composition, The, and King's College, 190
- Concessio Universitatis*, and King's College, 190
- Confessional*, publication of The, 304
- Constitution of University, its component parts, 4; conventions of, 6; disregard of conventions of, 11–16; changes made in, 41; general account of, 3–37
- Cooke, William, Provost of King's, and proposal to establish annual examinations by University, 319–322
- Corpus Christi College, inadequate stipend of mastership, 8, 279–281; and the Cambridge antiquaries, 188–189; scholarships and fellowships at, 194–195, 229; the Yorkes at, 225; fellowship election at, 236–237; Barnardiston and Masters as Tutors of, 271, 276
- Cotes, Roger, appointed first Plumian Professor, 148–149; great reputation of, 149; his lectures, 149, 151; Newton's epitaph upon, 149
- Cotton, Sir John, 225
- Court of the Chancellor, history of, 27–28; powers and procedure, 28–29; appeal from, 29–31; decline in importance of, 31–33; and court of King's Bench, 28, 32–33
- Court of Chancery, and Knightbridge Professorship, 137, 141
- Court of the Commissary, 33–34
- Court of Delegates, hears appeals from Chancellor's court, 29; how constituted, 29; dispute as to its right to hear appeals in disciplinary cases, 29–31
- Court of King's Bench, and jurisdiction of University, 28, 32; Bentley and Ewin appeal to, 32–33; and Charles Crawford, 222–224; and the appointment to mastership of Peterhouse, 291–292: see also 252
- Courts of the High Steward, 34–36
- Cowling, John, deputy High Steward and University Counsel, 35
- Cranke, John, Fellow of Trinity, and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 241–242, 244
- Craven, William, Master of St John's, as Professor of Arabic, 137
- Craven Scholarships, 187
- Crawford, Charles, his conduct as fellow commoner of Queens', 218–224; pamphlets published by, 218–219; and religious tests, 306–307
- Creation of masters of arts and doctors, 62–64, 78–79
- Creighton, Robert, Regius Professor of Greek, 116–118
- Cumberland, Richard, and Senate House Examination, 48–49; and Trinity fellowship election, 230, 238–239
- Cumming, William Collins, elected to Trinity fellowship in 1786, 241
- Cust, Francis, University Counsel, 311
- Cuthbert, George, Professor of Anatomy, 153; resignation of, 153
- Dampier, Thomas, Prebendary of Durham, mandate degree obtained for, 89
- Davy, Sir Humphry, high opinion of Dr Watson as a chemist, 145
- Dawes, Francis, and appointment to mastership of Peterhouse, 286, 288, 291
- Degrees, honorary, 79–83; mandate 83–91; ordinary, 50–51; per saltum, 73–75

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

395

Degree Courses

- (1) Bachelor of arts, 41–57
- (2) Bachelor of civil law, 57–60; numbers taking the degree, 59; attendance at lectures required, 59–60; low reputation of the degree, 58–60, 76; admission to the degree, 78
- (3) Bachelor of divinity, 64–65; course for ten-year men, 68–72; admission, 72, 78; and the Lady Margaret Professorship, 96, 100
- (4) Bachelor of medicine, 60–62; and lectures, 61; number taking the degree, 62; admission, 78
- (5) Bachelor of music, 77–78; admission, 78
- (6) Doctor of civil law, 75–76; admission, 78; creation, 78–79
- (7) Doctor of divinity, 72–73; taken per saltum, 73–75; creation, 78–79; and Lady Margaret Professorship, 96
- (8) Doctor of medicine, 76–77; low reputation of the degree, 77; admission, 78; creation, 78–79
- (9) Doctor of music, 77–78; admission, 78; creation, 78–79
- (10) Master of arts, lectures and exercises required, 62–63; and residence, 5–6, 62; creation, 62–64, 78; as an honorary degree, 79–80

De la Pryme, Abraham, and Senate House Examination, 47; and Viganì's lectures, 143

Delegates, see Court of

Deputy High Steward, 35–37

De Quincey, Thomas, 145

Determination, 68, 76, 105, 124, 127

Determiner, 42

D'Ewes, Sir Symonds, praises his Tutor, 268

Dickins, Francis, Professor of Civil Law, his reputation as a Moderator, 76, 124; as a lecturer, 123–124; compared with Professor Beaumont and Professor James, 124; his appointment, 126

Dickins, George, Sergeant Surgeon to the King, 126

Dissing, 64

Divinity, bachelor and doctor of, see Degree Courses

Divinity, Lady Margaret Professorship of, see Professorships

Divinity, Regius Professor of, see Professorships

Doctors, and the nomination of candidates for the Vice-Chancellorship, 9, 11; and the Caput, 24, 277; when members of regent house, 26; when able to sit in either house, 26–27; and Chancellor's court, 28; and caution payments, 74: see also Degree Courses

Dowsing, Horace, of Corpus, 237

Duport, James, Regius Professor of Greek, commends his Tutor, 268

Edwards, Dr, and abolition of religious tests, 315

Elizabeth, Queen, grants charters to the University, 23; and University courts, 28, 34–35; and Trinity College, 231; and Westminster School, 231: see also under Statutes

Ely, Bishop of, an elector to the Woodwardian Professorship, 168; and election to mastership of St John's, 283; and the masterships of Jesus and Peterhouse, 283–284: see also under Keene, Edmund and Yorke, James

Emmanuel, decline of, in eighteenth century, 186; fellowships of, 229; and annual examinations by University, 325: see also 210, 276

Esquire Bedell, see Bedells

Essex, James, 210

Eton College, close connection with King's, 189, 191; election of scholars of King's at, 189

Eugenius IV, Pope, and King's 190 Ewin, William Howell, and right of appeal to court of Delegates, 30; and appeal to court of King's Bench, 33; and age of admission of undergraduates, 203; and immorality of undergraduates, 209: see also 211

Exercises, College, see Colleges

Exercises, imposed upon masters of arts, 65–68

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

396

INDEX

Exercises for degrees

- (1) for bachelor of arts degree, 41, 43–48; subordinate position assigned to, 50–51; decline of, 51–52; undergraduate interest in, 52; huddling of, 52, 199
- (2) for bachelor of civil law degree, 58
- (3) for bachelor of divinity degree, 64–65, 68, 71, 105–106, 109
- (4) for bachelor of medicine degree, 60–61, 127
- (5) for bachelor of music degree, 77–78
- (6) for doctor of civil law degree, 75–76
- (7) for doctor of divinity degree, 72–73, 105–106, 109
- (8) for doctor of medicine degree, 76–77, 127
- (9) for doctor of music degree, 77–78
- (10) for master of arts degree, 62–63: see also Huddling and Quadregesima

Farish, William, Professor of Chemistry, 147; popularity of his lectures, 147; candidate for Jacksonian Professorship, 178–179

Farmer, Richard, Tutor and afterwards Master of Emmanuel, opposes annual examinations by University, 323; and John Jebb, 329

Father of the College, 57

Fawcett, James, his lectures as Norrisian Professor, 175

Feathers Tavern, meeting at, 304, 306

Fellow-Commoners, and huddling of exercises, 52, 199; and lectures of Regius Professor of Modern History, 159; and King's, 191; matriculation of, 197; privileges and characteristics of, 198–199; and gifts of plate, 200; patronise coffee-houses, 208; disorderly conduct of, 217; industry among, 224–227; and tuition fees, 271; proposals to examine them, 323–330

Fellows, and per saltum degrees, 74; and coffee-houses, 206–207; Dr Carr's attack upon, 210; characteristics of, 256–267; emoluments of, 279–280; proposal to allow them to marry, 300–301: see also under the names of Colleges

Fellowships, restrictions upon, 194–196; award and tenure of, 228–255: see also under the names of Colleges

Finch-Hatton, John, fellow-commoner of Christ's, and a mandate degree, 88–89

Fitzmaurice, Thomas, and religious tests, 308

Fordyce, William, granted a mandate degree, 88

Forster, Samuel, of St John's, 56–57

Francis, Alban, attempt to obtain him a mandate degree, 84–85

Francklin, Thomas, Regius Professor of Greek, 120

Frend, William, and right of appeal to court of Delegates, 30; and exercises, 46; and College teaching, 275

Fuller, John, and Trinity fellowship election of 1762, 240

Geology, Woodwardian Professorship of, see Professorships

George I, visit to the University, 135; founds Professorship of Modern History, 154–155, 162: see also 86

George II, and Regius Professorship of Modern History, 156

George, William, Provost of King's, and the Regius Professorship of Divinity, 110

Gibson, Edmund, Bishop of London, and foundation of Regius Professorship of Modern History, 154–156

Gibson, William, Professor of Anatomy, 153–154

Glynn, Robert, lectures of, 61

Goddard, Henry, Fellow of St John's, candidate for Botany Professorship, 163

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

397

- Goddard, Peter Stephen, supports Jebb for Arabic Professorship, 136; his intrigue to become Master, 282; improves value of College livings, 235
- Gonville and Caius College, academic successes of, 188; East Anglian element at, 194-195; Framingham Willis' account of his life at, 205-206, 208, 209; fellowships of, 194-195, 232; tutorship at, 268
- Gonville and Caius College, Master of, an elector to Plumian Professorship, 148; a Trustee for the Norrisian Professorship, 174: see also Gooch, Sir T. and Smith, J.
- Gooch, Sir Thomas, Master of Gonville and Caius, continued as Vice-Chancellor for three years, 13
- Gordon, Dr John, a candidate for Knightbridge Professorship, 139, 141; and religious tests, 309-311; and annual examinations, 325-326
- Gough, Richard, testimony to Corpus Christi College, 189
- Graces, mode of passing, 25-27
- Grafton, Augustus Henry, Duke of, Chancellor of the University, inactivity of, 7-8, 282; and mandate degrees, 88; and the appointment of Gray and Symonds to Regius Professorship of Modern History, 158-159; appoints Samuel Peck his University Secretary, 263; supports proposals for annual examinations, 323-324, 326
- Granby, John Manners, Marquis of, and mandate degrees, 88
- Gray, Thomas, Regius Professor of Modern History, 157-158, 229
- Great St Mary's, Cambridge, tenable with Trinity fellowship, 236
- Greaves, William, Commissary, Assessor to the Vice-Chancellor, and deputy High Steward, 36
- Greek, Regius Professor of, see Professorships
- Green, John, Bishop of Lincoln, as Regius Professor of Divinity, 105-106, 110; and Knightbridge Professorship, 139; and Professorship of Chemistry, 147; and religious tests, 312-313
- Green, Thomas, Fellow of Peterhouse, 287
- Green, Thomas, Woodwardian Professor of Geology, 170
- Greene, Christopher, Regius Professor of Physic, 127
- Gremials, 73-74
- Griffin, Sir John, and mastership of Magdalene, 19
- Grisdale, John, Fellow of Christ's, 257
- Gunning, Henry, and Senate House Examination, 53; and knowledge of mathematics, 54; estimate of Isaac Milner, 56; account of Milner's lectures, 178; and election of Wollaston to Jacksonian Professorship, 179; reason for choice of Christ's, 196; and undergraduate supper parties, 206; on rioting and disorder among undergraduates, 211-214: see also 108
- Hackett, Andrew, and Stephen Whisson, 272-274
- Hackett, Andrew, Junior, as undergraduate at Trinity, 272-273
- Hackett, John, as undergraduate at Trinity, 272-273
- Hadley, John, Professor of Chemistry, 144; physician at St Thomas' Hospital, 144; physician at the Charterhouse, 144; reputation as a scientist, 144
- Hailstone, John, Fellow of Trinity, elected Woodwardian Professor of Geology, 170; studies in Germany, 170; attempts to lecture, 170-171; his services as Professor, 171; and Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 242
- Hall, dinner in, 203-205; supper in, 206
- Hallifax, Samuel, Professor of Civil Law, his lectures, 124-125; elected to Adams Professorship of Arabic, 136; hopes to succeed Ridlington as Professor of Civil Law, 136; and religious tests, 305, 314-315; opposes annual examinations, 323

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

398

INDEX

- Harborough, Lord, 14
- Hardwicke, Philip Yorke, first Earl of, High Steward, 193, 224, 263–265
- Hardwicke, Philip Yorke, second Earl of, High Steward, and mandate degrees, 88–89; and Michael Lort, 114, 117; and Samuel Ogden, 135; and the Regius Professorship of Modern History, 160–161; and Corpus Christi College, 193; correspondence with Philip Yorke, 225–227; and Samuel Peck, 263–265; and religious tests, 312–313; and annual examination at St John's, 317–318; and annual examinations by the University, 323; see also 7, 54, 138, 198, 221, 224–225, 284–285
- Harris, Dr, legal adviser of James Yorke, Bishop of Ely, 288–292
- Harris, Samuel, Regius Professor of Modern History, appointed, 155; neglect of duties, 155–156; his whig opinions, 156
- Harwood, Sir Busick, Professor of Anatomy, his lectures, 154; his obscene stories, 261
- Hatton, John, fellow-commoner of Emmanuel, mandate degree obtained for, 90
- Haviland, John, Regius Professor of Physic, 128–129; resumes lecturing, 128; reorganises medical course, 128; value of his work, 128–129
- Heads of Houses, and interpretation of statutes, 5–6, 43, 62, 69, 73–74, 79, 81; and appointment of Vice-Chancellor, 8–10, 277; and appointment of other officials, 24, 277; as advisers to Vice-Chancellor, 18, 32; and the Caput, 24, 277; as assessors in the Chancellor's court, 28; consent necessary for cautions, honorary and mandate degrees, 74, 85–91; and appointment to professorships, 129, 132, 137, 174; and the Regius Professorship of Modern History, 159–160; Dr Carr's attack upon, 210; and the Proctors, 211; and payments to Tutors, 271; exclusiveness of, 276; influence in the University, 276–277; influence in their Colleges, 277–278; emoluments of, 278–281; mode of appointment, 281–284
- Heathcote, Ralph, as a sizar at Jesus, 201
- Heberden, William, Linacre Lecturer at St John's, 61
- Hebrew, Regius Professor of, see Professorships
- Henry VI, and King's College, 190
- Henry VIII founds Professorships, 101, 112
- Hey, John, his lectures as Norrissian Professor, 175–176
- Higgs, John, Fellow of Trinity, and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 240–242, 244, 247, 249
- High Steward, courts of, see Courts of the High Steward
- High Steward, mode of appointment and duties, 35–37; remuneration, 36; absenteeism of, 36
- Hill, Rowland, as an undergraduate, 295
- Hinchliffe, John, Master of Trinity, and Bishop of Peterborough, as Vice-Chancellor, 21; and election to Knightbridge Professorship in 1769, 139, 141; and Professorship of Chemistry, 147; and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 243–255; see also 281
- History, Regius Professorship of Modern, see Professorships
- Hodson, William, Fellow of Trinity, as a candidate for Professorship of Chemistry, 145–147
- Hoffman, Milner's German assistant, 178
- Holbrook, John, Fellow of Trinity, disorderly conduct of, 260
- Holdsworth, Richard, commended as Tutor, 268
- Holmes, John, Fellow of Peterhouse, 291
- Honorary degrees, see Degrees
- Hooper, Francis, Fellow of Trinity, as an examiner for fellowships, 238–239

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

399

- Hubbard, Henry, Tutor of Emmanuel and Registrar, his love of good cheer, 257–258; as Tutor of Emmanuel, 276
- Huddling, 48, 52, 63, 199, 224
- Hudson, John, Tutor of Trinity, 82
- Hughes, David, Senior Fellow of Queens', and Charles Crawford, 218, 220; and Philip Yorke, 225
- Hull, Christopher, an undergraduate of St John's, 213
- Hunt, Mr, Vice-Chancellor's Assessor, 28
- Hunter, George, neglect of his proctorial duties, 211
- Hutton, John, an undergraduate at St John's, 213
- Hyde, Thomas Villiers, Lord, 147
- Ingram, Goodricke, Fellow of Trinity, disorderly conduct of, 260
- Interpretation of Statutes, authority for, 5; exercise of right, in March 1575, 73–74; in January 1577/78, 79; in February 1578/79, 43; in March 1608, 5–6, 62, 69; in May 1786, 81
- Jackson, Richard, founds a Professorship of Natural Experimental Philosophy, 176–177; bequest to Botanical Garden, 176
- Jackson, Richard, University Counsel, 311
- James I, and mandate degrees, 83–84; and Lady Margaret Professorship of Divinity, 97; and Regius Professorship of Divinity, 102; and Trinity and Westminster, 231; and religious tests, 302–303, 305
- James II, and mandate degrees, 84–85
- James, Henry, Regius Professor of Divinity, 104–106; and Professor Dickins, 124; death of, 111
- Jebb, John, character of, 306; his views on the Caput, 25–26; his opinion of the exercises, 46; a candidate for Arabic Professorship, 136–137; and religious tests, 306–307; attempts to establish annual examinations, 318–330; embraces Unitarianism, 328–329; effect of his activity, 334
- Jesus College, decline of, in eighteenth century, 186; and Chancellor's medals, 188; expenses of sizars at, 201; teaching of classics at, 275; emoluments of mastership of, 279–281; appointment to mastership, 283–284
- Johnson, Dr Samuel, friendship with Francklin, 120; his appreciation of Ogden's sermons, 259; and religious tests, 315
- Jones, Thomas, as Tutor of Trinity, 194, 271; migration from St John's to Trinity, 196; and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 242
- Jowett, Joseph, Professor of Civil Law, 76
- Jus Academicum*, and the Chancellor's court, 29
- Kaye, John, Regius Professor of Divinity, resumes lecturing, 103–104; his opinion of his predecessors, 104–105
- Keene, Sir Benjamin, 193
- Keene, Edmund, Master of Peterhouse and Bishop of Ely, continued as Vice-Chancellor for second year, 13; makes Peterhouse a fashionable college, 193; and Thomas Wilson, Fellow of Trinity, 260; his opinion of Samuel Peck, 262–263
- Kendall, Richard, Fellow of Peterhouse, 286, 291
- King, Colonel, one of Dr Woodward's executors, 169; appoints John Michell and Samuel Ogden to Woodwardian Professorship, 169; accused of taking a bribe, 170
- King's Bench, see Court of
- King's College, privileged position of, 43, 189–191; fellowships of, 189–191, 228, 232, 234; tribute of Commission to, 192; scholarship elections of, 189; exempted from Chancellor's jurisdiction, 190; members of, forbidden to take degrees, 190; and the composition, 190–191; intellectual reputation of, 192

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

400

INDEX

- King's College, Provost of, an elector to Regius Professorships of Divinity, Greek and Hebrew, 101, 110; a Trustee for the Norrisian Professorship, 174; and scholarship elections, 189: see also George, W.
- Kinross, Andrew, and Stephen Whisson, 274
- Kinross, Joseph, an undergraduate at Trinity, 274
- Kipling, Thomas, appointed deputy Regius Professor of Divinity, 107–108
- Knightbridge, John, founds a Professorship of Moral Theology, 137
- Knights, and honorary degrees, 79–81
- Lambert, James, Regius Professor of Greek, and religious tests, 304
- Landbeach, 144
- Laughton, Richard, Tutor of Clare, his great reputation, 188, 193–194, 271
- Law, Edmund, Master of Peterhouse, appointed Bishop of Carlisle, 138–139; resigns Knightbridge Professorship, 139–140; and the election of Dr Plumtre as his successor, 139–141; and Professorship of Chemistry, 147; and religious tests, 304; death of, 284
- Law, Edward, Fellow of Peterhouse, 290–291
- Lax, William, Lowndean Professor, omission to lecture, 173; elected to Trinity fellowship in 1786, 241
- Lechmere, Edmund, and Stephen Whisson, 274
- Lechmere, Nicholas, an undergraduate at Trinity, 274
- Lecturers, college, decline of, 269–270: see also under Monk, J. H.
- Leeds, Edward, and second Lord Hardwicke, 7
- Letters, Royal, 4, 305
- Librarian, University, mode of appointment, 24; Michael Lort hopes to become, 114, 117; Dr Law's retirement from office of, 139–140
- London, Bishop of, and election to mastership of St John's, 283: see also Gibson, Edmund
- Long, Roger, Master of Pembroke, failure to secure election as Vice-Chancellor, 1769, 12; as Lowndean Professor, 171–173; and election of William Mason to fellowship of Pembroke, 230
- Longmire, Daniel, candidate for mastership of Peterhouse, 284–294
- Lort, Michael, Regius Professor of Greek, and University Librarianship, 114, 117; scholarship of, 120; and Samuel Peck, 265
- Lowndes, Thomas, founds a Professorship of Astronomy and Geometry, 171
- Lowther, Sir James, 157
- Lucas, Henry, founder of Lucasian Professorship of Mathematics, 129; his will, 129
- Ludlam, William, candidate for Lucasian Professorship, 131
- Lyon, John, of Trinity, claims an honorary degree, 82
- Macclesfield, George Parker, Earl of, frames statutes for Lowndean Professorship, 172
- Madan, Spencer, Bishop of Peterborough, 230
- Madingley Hall, Philip Yorke's visit to, 225
- Magdalene College, Isaac Milner's partiality for, 56; undergraduates of, known as water rats, 209; fellowships at, 229; right of appointing master of, 19, 283
- Mainwaring, John, Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity, ceases to lecture, 99
- Mandate degrees, see Degrees
- Mansel, Lort, appointed Master of Trinity, 74–75; takes doctor's degree per saltum, 74–75; interest in undergraduate attire, 205
- Mansfield, William Murray, Earl of, and proceedings against Dr Ewin, 33; and case of Charles Crawford, 223–224

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

401

- Marriott, Sir James, Master of Trinity Hall, declines to serve as Vice-Chancellor, 10-11; absenteeism of, as Vice-Chancellor, 21
- Marsh, Herbert, Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity, lectures of, 99-100; becomes Bishop of Peterborough, 100
- Martyn, John, Professor of Botany, election of, 162-164; ceases to lecture, 164; resignation of, 164
- Martyn, Thomas, Professor of Botany, how he came to be appointed, 164-165; his lectures, 165-166; ceases to lecture, 166-167; appointed Reader to Botanical Garden, 165; appointed King's Professor of Botany, 166; retirement to Pertenhall, 166
- Mary I, and Statutes of Trinity, 101: see also 117
- Mary II, and mandate degrees, 85
- Mason, Charles, Woodwardian Professor of Geology, 168; treatment of collection of fossils, 168-169; as examiner for Trinity fellowships, 238; disorderly conduct of as Fellow of Trinity, 259-260
- Mason, William, Fellow of Pembroke, 158, 229-230
- Masters, Robert, Tutor of Corpus, unpopularity of, 236-237; fussiness of, 271
- Masters, William, a candidate for fellowship of Corpus Christi College, 236-237
- Masters of arts, and membership of Senate, 26; divided into regents and non-regents, 26-27; and court of the Commissary, 34: see also Degree Courses
- Masters of Colleges, see Heads of Houses and under individual colleges
- Mathematics, Lucasian Professorship of, see Professorships
- Mathematics, predominance of, at Cambridge, 49; and Senate House Examination, 50, 53; textbooks, 53; in schools, 53-55
- Matriculation, 197-198
- May, Samuel, Senior Fellow of Pembroke, attacked by Charles Crawford, 218
- Medicine, bachelor and doctor of, see Degree Courses
- Meeke, Mr, candidate at Parliamentary election for borough of Cambridge, 264
- Meredith, Moore, Vice-Master of Trinity, and Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 240-242, 247
- Meredith, Sir William, and religious tests, 307-309, 312, 314
- Metcalf[e], John, Fellow of Christ's, lectures as Professor Shepherd's deputy, 150-151
- Mickleborough (Micklebrough), John, appointed Professor of Chemistry, 144; as a dispensing chemist, 144
- Middleton, Conyers, and divinity exercises, 73, 105; and omission of Professors to lecture, 95, 98; as Woodwardian Professor, 168
- Midsummer Fair, and court of the Commissary, 34; drunkenness at, 257
- Miller Edmund, and his Trinity fellowship, 233
- Milner, Isaac, President of Queens', as a sizar, 202; keeps a divinity act, 68; elected Vice-Chancellor (1792), 12; upon duties of a Vice-Chancellor, 17; and right of appeal, 30; claim to have resuscitated Chancellor's court, 31; and riotous undergraduates, 214-215; accused of favouritism as examiner, 56; partiality for Magdalene, 56; upon Dr Watson's neglect of duty, 108; his conduct as Lucasian Professor, 132; appointed Jacksonian Professor, 147, 177; his lectures as Jacksonian Professor, 177-178; obtains a parliamentary grant, 178; resigns professorship on becoming Dean of Carlisle, 178; his estimate of greatness of Trinity, 187-188; upon fellowship elections, 236; his influence as President, 278
- Mitre Tavern, 207

WUC

26

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

402

INDEX

- Modd, George, Fellow of Trinity, 239–240
- Moderators, sat in regent house, 26; and exercise for degree of bachelor of arts, 43–46; appointed by grace, 43; and Senate House Examination, 50, 52, 53, 56, 331: see also Watson, Richard
- Monk, James Henry, Regius Professor of Greek, holds college lectureships, 114–115; attacked for so doing, 114–115; omission to lecture, 119; becomes Dean of Peterborough, 115; becomes doctor of divinity and claims to hold the professorship, 115–119; resigns the professorship, 118–119; Tutor of Trinity, 119; estimate of scholarship of Joshua Barnes, 120; defends Sir Isaac Pennington for not lecturing, 127; statement about Colbatch as Knightbridge Professor, 138; on death of Cotes, 149; and proposals to establish annual examinations, 330
- Montfort, Thomas Bromley, Lord, 147
- Moral Theology, Knightbridge Professorship of, see Professorships
- Morgan, John, Professor of Anatomy, lectures of, 153
- Morgan, William, Junior Dean of Trinity, attack upon, 260
- Murfitt, Matthew, Fellow of Trinity, and Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 242
- Murray, Dr, Vicar of Gainsborough, and election of Master of St John's, 282
- Musgrave, Thomas, Fellow of Trinity, 261
- Music, bachelor and doctor of, see Degree Courses
- Music, Professorship of, see Professorships
- Nasmith, James, declines to stand for mastership of Corpus, 8
- Newcastle, Thomas Pelham-Holles, Duke of, Chancellor of University, activity of, 7; as a patron, 8; attempts to prolong Vice-Chancellors, 13–14; and mandate degrees, 86–88; and Lady Margaret Professorship, 101; and Regius Professorship of Divinity, 110; and Trinity Hall, 126–127; and Regius Professorship of Civil Law, 126–127; and Trinity fellowship, 240; and Dr Ogden, 259; and Dr Powell's election to mastership of St John's, 282
- Newcome John, Master of St John's and Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity, his omission to lecture, 98; deputy Regius Professor of Divinity, 106; and an election to Regius Professorship of Divinity, 110
- Newmarket, meetings of True Blue Club at, 211–212; Philip Yorke's visit to, 225–226
- Newton, Sir Isaac, Lucasian Professor of Mathematics, able to retain his fellowship without taking orders, 129–130; his lectures, 130; his epitaph on Roger Cotes, 149: see also 202
- Noblemen, degrees of, 79–81; and the lectures of the Regius Professor of Modern History, 159; matriculation of, 197–198; attendance at lectures, 199; gifts of plate, 200; and tuition fees, 271; proposals for examination of, 323–330
- Non-gremials, 74
- Non-regent house, composition of, 26; and reading of graces, 26–27
- Non-regents, definition of, 26; and representation on Caput, 24; and Senate House Examination, 48, 50
- Norfolk, Alderman, 222
- Norris, John, founds a Professorship, 174; conditions prescribed by him, 174–175
- North, Frederic North, Lord, and mandate degrees, 89
- North, Roger, on coffee-houses at Cambridge, 207
- Oaths, on creation, 63–64, 78: see also Supremacy, Oath of

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

403

- Observatory, bequest by Thomas Plume for erection of, 148; erection of, 148–149
- Ockley, Simon, Professor of Arabic, 134; his devotion to study, 134
- Ogden, Samuel, Fellow of St John's, thinks of being a candidate for Adams Professorship of Arabic, 135; appointed Woodwardian Professor of Geology, 135–136, 169–170; his conduct as Professor, 169–170; his sermons, 258–259; boorishness of, 258–259
- Opponencies, see Exercises
- Optime, Senior and Junior, 50, 51, 56
- Orator, Public, mode of appointment, 24; able to vote in either house of the Senate, 26
- Ordinary degree, see Degrees
- Ordo Senioritatis, 48–50
- Otter, William, upon classical teaching at Jesus, 275
- Oxford, Regius Professorship of Modern History at, 154, 158; in comparison with Trinity, 188
- Paley, William, Fellow of Christ's, mathematical equipment of, 54; and religious tests, 304
- Parkinson, Thomas, Tutor of Christ's, his treatment of Gunning, 272
- Parne, Thomas, Fellow of Trinity, a candidate for Botany Professorship, 163
- Parr, Samuel, and the Professors, 95; estimate of Rutherford, 106; excuses Waring for not lecturing, 131–132; and Pugh, 265–266
- Peacock, George, and duties of the Vice-Chancellor, 18; and divinity exercises, 67; and law degrees, 76; his lectures as Professor, 173; and annual examinations, 330
- Pearce, William, President of St John's, 215–217; Master of Jesus, 284
- Peck, Samuel, Fellow of Trinity, his interest in law, 262; attempt to blackmail Lord Hardwicke, 262–265; appointed University Secretary, 263
- Peckard, Peter, Master of Magdalene, 15
- Peers, see Noblemen
- Pembroke College, undergraduates of, suspected of murder, 34; academic successes of, 188; Cornish connection of, 195; fellowships of, 195, 229–230
- Pennington, Sir Isaac, Regius Professor of Physic, 127–128; Professor of Chemistry, 145–147; conduct of, as Professor, 147
- Pensioners, matriculation of, 197; characteristics of, 200–201, 227; tuition fees of, 271: see also Undergraduates
- Per saltum degrees, see Degrees
- Pertenhall, 166
- Peterborough Cathedral, statutes of, 115
- Peterhouse, patronised by the aristocracy, 193; fellowships of, 195, 228, 229, 232; Master of and Knightbridge Professorship, 137, 140; appointment to mastership of, 283–294
- Philosophy, Jacksonian Professorship of Natural Experimental, see Professorships
- Philosophy, and Senate House Examination, 50–51: see also under Schools
- Physic, Regius Professorship of, see Professorships
- Physicians, College of, and mandate degrees, 86; President of, an elector to Woodwardian Professorship of Geology, 168
- Piazza, Jerome Bartholomeo, an assistant to Regius Professor of Modern History, 156; Shallet Turner's mean treatment of, 156
- Pilgrim, Thomas, Regius Professor of Greek, 120
- Plucknett, William, Fellow of St John's, 282
- Plume, Thomas, Archdeacon of Rochester, bequest to the University, 147–149
- Plumptre, Robert, President of Queens', and office of Vice-Chancellor, 17–18; and office of Taxor,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

404

INDEX

- 23; and right of appeal, 30; and appointment of deputy High Steward, 36–37; and law degrees, 59; and mandate degrees, 88–91; and Jebb's candidature for Arabic Professorship, 136; elected to Knightbridge Professorship, 138–142; and Charles Crawford, 218–224; and marriage of Fellows, 300; and religious tests, 304–305; and annual examinations, 325–326; and private Tutors, 332
- Plumptre, Russell, Regius Professor of Physic, 127
- Popple, Miles, Fellow of Trinity, and Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 242, 251–252
- Porson, Richard, Regius Professor of Greek, his election, 120–121; Postlethwaite's treatment of, 121
- Porter, Harry, Fellow of Trinity, and Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 242
- Portsmouth, Lady, and mastership of Magdalene, 19
- Posers, 47
- Postlethwaite, Thomas, Master of Trinity, his treatment of Porson, 121; and reform of Trinity fellowship election, 255
- Powell, William Samuel, Master of St John's, his election as Master, 281–282; and lectures of Modern History Professor, 159; and Professorial lectures, 180–181; and religious tests, 303; institutes annual examinations at St John's, 316–318; opposes annual examinations by University, 318–320, 327–328, 330–331; and private tuition, 331; death of, 328
- Prescot, Kenrick, Master of St Catharine's, 20
- President, The Lord, an elector to Lowndean Professorship, 171
- Press syndicate, proposals for re-organisation of, 17
- Preston, Mr, Tutor of Queens' College, 225
- Privileged persons, and Chancellor's court, 28
- Privy Councillors, and honorary degrees, 79, 81
- Proctors, mode of appointment, 22; duties, 22–23, 210–211, 214–215; and election of the Caput, 24; members of regent house, 26; read graces in regent house, 26; tellers in regent house, 27; and court of Delegates, 29; and court of Commissary, 34; and bachelors of arts, 42, 57; and exercises 43; and Senate House Examination, 47; and creation of masters of arts, 63–64
- Professors, characteristics of, 95, 179–182; difficulties in way of lecturing, 96, 98–99, 173, 179–182; numerical increase of, 181: see also Professorships
- Professorships
- (1) Anatomy, Professorship of, foundation, 152–153; lectures delivered by its holders, 152–154; subsidised by Crown, 154
 - (2) Arabic, Adams Professorship of, foundation and statutes, 132–133; lectures delivered by holders of, 133; tenable with Lord Almoner's Professorship, 134–135; elections to, 135–137
 - (3) Arabic, Lord Almoner's Professorship of, origin, 134–135; history, 134–137; stipend, 135
 - (4) Astronomy and Experimental Philosophy, Plumian Professorship of, foundation, 147–149; statutes, 148; history, 149–152
 - (5) Astronomy and Geometry, Lowndean Professorship of, foundation, 171; statutes, 171–172; history of, 172–174
 - (6) Botany, Professorship of, foundation, 162–164; history, 162–167
 - (7) Chemistry, Professorship of, foundation, 143–144; lectures of the holders of, 143–145, 147; receives a grant from Crown, 145; election to, 145–147
 - (8) Civil Law, Regius Professorship of, foundation of, 101; statutory duties of, 122–123;

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

405

- lectures by holders of, 123–126; attendance at lectures of holders of, 58, 60, 75; duties connected with exercises for degrees, 58, 75–76; duties connected with the admission of bachelors and doctors of law, 78; duties connected with creation of doctors, 78; appointment to, 126–127; lecture fees, 125
- (9) Divinity, Lady Margaret Professorship of, duties of, 65, 96–97; becomes a sinecure, 97–98; rectory of Terrington annexed to, 97; attempt to compel holders of, to lecture, 99; ceases to be a sinecure, 99–100; elections to, 100–101; association with St John's, 100–101, 112; and the Knightbridge Professorship, 137
- (10) Divinity, Regius Professorship of, foundation, 101; and the Vice-Chancellorship, 8; duties of, and mode of election to, 65, 68, 101–112; neglect of duties of, 103; and ten-year men, 71; and admission of bachelors of divinity, 72, 78; and creation of doctors, 78; and exercises, 73; association with Trinity, 101–102, 112–113; stipend of, 101–103; rectory of Somersham annexed to, 102; elections to, 109–113; and Knightbridge Professorship, 137
- (11) Geology, Woodwardian Professorship of, foundation and statutes, 167–168; mode of appointing to, 167–168; history of, 168–171
- (12) Greek, Regius Professorship of, foundation, 101; and Vice-Chancellorship, 8; association with Trinity, 101–102, 113; duties of, and mode of election to, 101–102; stipend of, 101; Trinity fellowship tenable with, 113–114; treated as a sinecure, 119–121; doctors disqualified for, 115–119; see also Monk, J. H.
- (13) Hebrew, Regius Professorship of, foundation, 101; and the Vice-Chancellorship, 8; association with Trinity, 101–102, 113; duties of, and mode of election to, 101–102; stipend of, 101; Trinity fellowship tenable with, 113–114; and lectures, 121–122
- (14) History, Regius Professorship of Modern, foundation of, and definition of duties, 154–155; becomes a sinecure, 155–158; scheme for delivery of lectures, 158–160; becomes a teaching office, 160–162
- (15) Mathematics, Lucasian Professorship of, foundation and statutes, 129; privileged position of, 129; history of, 130–132; and the Plumian Professorship, 148
- (16) Moral Theology, Knightbridge Professorship of, foundation, 137–138; treated as sinecure, 138, 142; election to, 138–142
- (17) Music, Professorship of, foundation, 77, 142; duties of, 142–143; and admission to the Senate House, 77, 142; and exercises, 77–78; and admission of bachelors and doctors, 78; and creation of doctors, 78–79
- (18) Philosophy, Jacksonian Professorship of Natural Experimental, foundation, 176–177; statutes, 176–177; history of, 177–179; parliamentary grant to, 178
- (19) Physic, Regius Professorship of, foundation, 101; statutory duties of, 122–123; neglect of lecturing duties of, 61, 127–129; and exercises, 61; and admission of bachelors and doctors of medicine, 78; and creation of doctors, 78; becomes a teaching office, 128
- (20) Revealed Religion, Norrison Professorship of, foundation, 174; statutes, 174–175; history of, 175–176; and candidates for holy orders, 176

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

406

INDEX

- Proudman, John, a ten-year man, 69
- Pryme, Abraham de la, see De la Pryme
- Pryme, George, undergraduate life of, 203, 205; on heavy drinking among undergraduates, 211–212
- Public Orator, see Orator
- Pugh, William, Fellow of Trinity, eccentric behaviour of, 265–267
- Quadragesima, standing in, 42, 57
- Quarterly Review*, attack on Thomas Martyn, 166
- Queens' College, President of, and Regius Professorships, 111–112: see also Milner, Isaac and Plumtre, Robert
- Queens' College, Vigani's lectures at, 143; fellow-commoners, 198; sizars at, 202; Philip Yorke's undergraduate life at, 208, 225–227; and Charles Crawford, 218–224; fellowships of, 229; and religious tests, 305
- Questionists, 47
- Regent house, composition of, 26; and reading of graces, 26–27
- Regents, and election of Proctors and Taxors, 22; and representation on Caput, 24; and Senate House Examination, 47–48, 50; and Jacksonian Professorship, 176: see also 63, 64, 66
- Registry of the University, mode of appointment, 24
- Residence, see Terms
- Revealed Religion, Norrisian Professorship of, see Professorships
- Reynolds, Sir Joshua, friendship with Francklin, 120
- Richard II, his charter to the University, 23
- Richardson, William, Master of Emmanuel, complains, as Vice-Chancellor, of the Proctors, 210–211
- Ridlington, William, Regius Professor of Civil Law, appointment of, 126–127: see also 136
- Rolfe, George, Professor of Anatomy, his appointment, 152–153; deprived of his office, 153, 162
- Rolleston, Sir Humphry, estimate of Haviland, 128–129
- Rooke, George Henry, Master of Christ's, and an election to Regius Professorship of Divinity, 110
- Royal Society, President of, an elector to Woodwardian Professorship, 168
- Rutherford, Thomas, Regius Professor of Divinity, does not lecture, 104; and the divinity exercises, 106; and election to Knightbridge Professorship, 139–141: see also 21
- St Catharine's College, fellowships of, 195, 234; stipend of mastership of, 279
- St John's College, and Lady Margaret Professorship, 100–101, 112; and Professorship of Chemistry, 146; size of, 185–186; rivalry with Trinity, 186–188; scholarships and fellowships at, 100–101, 195–196, 229, 232, 236, 238; fellow-commoners at, 199–200; sizars at, 202; rioting at, 213–214; elections to mastership of, 281–283; annual examinations at, 316–318; and annual examinations by University, 325: see also 194, 196
- St John's College, Master of, and the Regius Professorships of Divinity, Greek and Hebrew, 101: see also Craven, W., Newcome, J., Powell, W. S.
- St Michael's, Cambridge, and Trinity fellowships, 236
- Salter, Samuel, private tutor of Philip Yorke, 193
- Sandby, George, appointed Master of Magdalene, 19; compelled to resign, 19–20; and the Knightbridge Professorship, 141–142
- Sanderson, Nicholas, Lucasian Professor of Mathematics, his blindness, 130; receives mandate degree, 130; delivers lectures, 130
- Sandwich, John Montagu, Earl of, supports Hodson for Chemistry Professorship, 146–147; activity in University contests, 282

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

407

- Scarlett, James, Lord Abinger, and his exercise for his degree, 45–46; attendance at lectures, 199; declines to join True Blue Club, 211–212; see also 224
- Scholarships, appropriated, 194–195
- Schools, philosophy, 44, divinity, 65, 72; law, 76; and the Chancellor's court, 28–29
- Scrutators, tellers in non-regent house, 24, 27; electors to the Caput, 24, 277; read graces in non-regent house, 26–27
- Seal, the Lord Keeper of the Great, an elector to Lowndean Professorship, 171
- Seal, The Lord Privy, an elector to Lowndean Professorship, 171
- Sedgwick, Adam, Woodwardian Professor of Geology, and divinity exercises, 66; services as Professor, 171; reminiscences of, 204; and Sir Busick Harwood's story, 261
- Senate, composition of, 26; and graces, 26–27; divided into two houses, 26; protection of minority rights in, 27; and court of Delegates, 29; and mandate degrees, 90; and appointment of Woodwardian Professor, 167
- Senate House Examination, early days of, 47–48; transformed in eighteenth century, 48–51; standard of, 52–54; how far impartially conducted, 55–57, 331; and private tuition, 331–333; see also 132, 180, 199, 224, 316–317, 319, 324, 330
- Sermons, requirements about, 64–66, 72
- Shepherd, Anthony, appointed Plumian Professor, 150; scandalous conduct of, 150–152
- Sherard, William, and Botany Professorship, 162
- Sidney Sussex College, fellowships of, 229
- Sike, Henry, Regius Professor of Hebrew, 121–122
- Simeon, Charles, 233
- Sizars, unfavourable position of at King's, 191–192; matriculation of, 197; poverty of, 201–203; menial duties of, 202; intellectualemminence of, 202–203; and tuition fees, 271; see also 227
- Size Bill, 206
- Skyunner, Mr, advises about procedure against Charles Crawford, 221
- Smith, Sir James Edward, 166
- Smith, John, Master of Gonville and Caius, and the Knightbridge Professorship, 141; as Lowndean Professor, 173
- Smith, Robert, Master of Trinity, appointment of, 150; supports Philip Yonge for Regius Professorship of Divinity, 110; as Plumian Professor, 149–150; adds to endowment of professorship, 152; friendship with Shallet Turner, 156; as examiner for fellowships, 239; see also 112, 187, 283
- Smyth, William, Regius Professor of Modern History, his account of Milner's lectures, 178
- Smythies, Ferdinand, Fellow of Queens', greediness of, 258
- Somerset, Charles Seymour, Duke of, Chancellor of the University, inactivity of, 7; and mandate degrees, 86
- Somersham, rectory of, and Regius Professorship of Divinity, 102
- Sovereign, persons related to, and honorary degrees, 79, 81–82; eldest sons of such persons and honorary degrees, 79, 81–82
- Staggins, Nicholas, Professor of Music, 142
- Stale, nominating a, 9, 287
- Statutes of University (ancient), 4; and tenure of Chancellorship, 6; and degree of bachelor of divinity, 69
- Statutes of University (Elizabeth), rigid character of, 4; detailed character of, 4; violations of, 4–6; right of interpreting, 5–6; residence required of bachelors of arts by, 5; and appointment of Vice-Chancellor, 8; and appointment of Proctors and Taxors, 22;

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

408

INDEX

- and power of Proctors, 22; and appointment of other officials, 24; and graces, 27; and right of appeal, 30; and requirements for becoming bachelor of arts, 41–42; relaxation of these requirements, 41–43; and keeping of terms, 42–43; and Senate House Examination, 47–48; and the degrees of Bachelor of Civil Law and Medicine, 57–58, 60; and degree of bachelor of divinity, 64–65; and exercises and sermons, 65–68; and ten-year men, 69; and per saltum degrees, 73; syndicate appointed to revise, 71; and degree of doctor of divinity, 72–75; and degree of doctor of civil law, 75; and the degree of doctor of medicine, 76–77; and honorary degrees, 79–81; and Regius Professor of Divinity, 102; and Regius Professors of Civil Law and Physic, 122–123
- Stephens, Thomas, deprived of fellowship of Peterhouse, 232
- Steward, The High: see High Steward
- Steward, The Lord, an elector to Woodwardian Professorship, 171
- Stonehewer, Richard, 158
- Stourbridge Fair, and Commissary's court, 34
- Strange, Lord, 147
- Subscription, see Tests
- Supremacy, Oath of, and degrees, 301–302, 313
- Symonds, John, Regius Professor of Modern History, ignorance of university studies, 41; conscientious discharge of his duties, 158–162; scheme proposed by him, 159–160; whig opinions of, 160; mode of lecturing, 160–161; and Philip Yorke, 161–162; death of, 162
- Taverns, 206–207
- Taylor, Walter, Regius Professor of Greek, 120
- Taxors, mode of appointment of, 22; duties, 23–24; in the regent house, 26; and Commissary's court, 34; abolition of, recommended by Commission, 24
- Ten-year men, 68–72
- Terms, number of, required to be kept for degree of bachelor of arts, 42; and for honorary degrees, 80, 82; portion required to be kept, 42–43; number of, required to be kept for the degrees of bachelor of law and bachelor of medicine, 58, 60–61; and for other degrees, 5–6, 62, 64, 69–70, 72, 75, 77, 78, 315
- Terrington, Rectory of, and Lady Margaret Professorship, 97
- Tests, Religious, imposed on graduates, 301–303; agitation against, 303–305; attempts to abolish them, 305–312; modification of, 312–315; defence of, 315–316
- Thomas, Hugh, Master of Christ's, refuses to serve as Vice-Chancellor, 11; attempt to prolong his Vice-Chancellorship, 13–14; nominated as candidate for Vice-Chancellorship in 1774, 20; and mandate degrees, 89
- Thurlow, Edward Thurlow, Lord, and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 251–254; and religious tests, 311
- Tindal, Nicholas, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, 118
- Torkington, John, Master of Clare, intellectual defects of, 14; and the Vice-Chancellorship, 14–16
- Towers, William, Master of Christ's, and John Martyn, 164
- Treasurer, Lord High, an elector to Lowndean Professorship, 171
- Treasury, First Commissioner of, an elector to Lowndean Professorship, 171
- Trevor, Thomas Trevor, Lord, 194
- Trinity College, and mandate degrees, 90; and close association with three Regius Professorships of Divinity Greek and Hebrew, 101–102, 110, 112–115, 119, 122; and Viganì, 144; and Professorship of Chemistry, 146; and the erection

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

409

- of an observatory, 148–149; residence of Plumian Professor in, 148; memory of Roger Cotes in, 149; association with Jacksonian Professorships, 176–177; size of, 186; rivalry with St John's, 186–188; recognitions of its supremacy, 187–188; fellowships of, 194–196, 228–236; fellow-commoners at, 199; regulations about plate, 200; sizars at, 202; dinner in hall at, 203–205; cloisters of, 209; riotous undergraduates of, 214; preacher-ships of, 234; fellowship examination at, 238–240; fellowship election of 1786 at, 240–256; aspersions upon the morality of Seniors of, 258; Tutorship at, 270; stipends of Fellows of, 279–280; annual examination at, 318
- Trinity College, Master of, an elector to Regius Professorships of Divinity, Greek, and Hebrew, 101; statutory supervisor of these three Regius Professors, 118–119; an elector to Plumian Professorship, 148; a trustee for Norrisian Professorship, 174; power of, within college, 277; emoluments of, 279–280; appointment of by Crown, 283: see also Bentley, R., Hinchliffe, J., Mansel, W. Lort, Postlethwaite, T., and Smith, R.
- Trinity Hall, and law degrees, 59–60; fellowships of, 228–229; stipend of Master of, 279–280
- Tripes, first and second, 49–50
- Tripes day, first and second, 42, 57, 62
- True Blue Club, evil reputation of, 211–212
- Trumpington, Vicarage of, and Trinity fellowship, 236; and Samuel Peck, 263
- Trusler, John, and Senate House Examination, 49; on immorality of undergraduates, 210
- Tuition fees, scale of 270–271
- Tuition, private, supplements college teaching, 275; attempts to limit it, 331–334
- Tuns Tavern, 207
- Turner, Shallet, Regius Professor of Modern History, treats the office as a sinecure, 156–157; friendship with Dr Smith, 156
- Tutors, and exercises for degree of bachelor of arts, 43–45; and claims to honorary degrees, 81–82; lectures of, 199, 269–270, 274–275, 327; and professorial lectures, 173, 180–181; Dr Carr's attack upon, 210; their duties and increase of power, 267–276; emoluments of, 276; residence of, 322; examination of their pupils, 316; opposition to annual examinations by University, 327–328
- Tutors, Assistant, 274–275
- Twining, Thomas, his account of John Hey's lecture, 175–176
- Tyrwhitt, Robert, Fellow of Jesus, and mandate degrees, 90; and religious tests, 305, 306, 312
- Uffenbach, Zacharias von, and dinner in hall of Trinity, 204; and coffee-houses, 207
- Undergraduates, and right of appeal, 29; and Chancellor's Court, 32; and requirements for degree of bachelor of arts, 41–57; and requirements for the degrees of bachelor of civil law and bachelor of medicine, 57–62; and honorary degrees, 80–82; and the choice of a college, 192–197; social status of, 194; life of, 197–228; age of admission of, 203; and dinner in hall, 204–205; supper parties of, 205–206; and coffee-houses, 206–208; recreations of, 208–209; dissipation among, 209–212; idleness and extravagance of, 212–213, 316–317; rioting among, 212–217; industry of, 227–228: see also Fellow-Commoners, Noblemen, Pensioners, Sizars
- Union coffee-house, 208
- University Calendar* for 1802, and veto of Caput, 25; and lectures in medicine, 61; and Trinity, 188

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

410

INDEX

- Veasey, Thomas, Tutor of Peterhouse, and claim to honorary degree, 82: see also 286, 287
- Vice-Chancellor, and interpretation of statutes, 5; and the Chancellor, 6; mode of appointment, 8–10; exemption from serving as, 10–11; disregard of conventions governing appointment of, 11–16; prolongation of, 12–16; duties of, 16–18; advised by Heads of Houses, 18, 32; general competence of, 18–21; and appointment of Proctors and Taxors, 22; and the Caput, 24–25; sat in regent house, 26; and Chancellor's court, 28–29, 31–32; and court of Delegates, 29; and admission of bachelors of arts, 41, 57; and Senate House Examination, 47; and admission of doctors and bachelors, 78; as an elector to professorships, 101, 110–112, 129, 132, 137, 148; as supervisor of Regius Professors of Divinity, Greek and Hebrew, 111, 118; and syndicate meetings, 17, 311
- Vigani, John Francis, Professor of Chemistry, appointment of, 143; lectures of, 143–144; death of, 144; see also 147, 152
- Vince, Samuel, Plumian Professor, 152
- Waddington, George, Fellow of Trinity, and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 242, 245, 251
- Wainwright, Leonard, and the exercises for degree of bachelor of arts, 46–47; and the Greek and Hebrew Professorships, 121–122
- Wakefield, Gilbert, and mathematical teaching, 55; and Chancellor's medals, 56–57; and Ogden, 259
- Walker, Richard, Vice-Master of Trinity, and the Botanical Garden, 165–166: see also 260
- Wall, Adam, Fellow of Christ's, and "huddling", 63; and divinity exercises, 67; and Regius Professorship of Greek, 116; and Gunning, 196
- Waller, John, Professor of Chemistry, 144
- Wallop, Barton, Master of Magdalene, his appointment to mastership, 19–20, 283; as Vice-Chancellor, 20–21; and honorary degrees, 80–81
- Walpole, Horace, piety as undergraduate of, 295
- Ward, Edward Michael, claims an honorary degree, 82
- Ward, Mr, Fellow of Queens', 221–222
- Waring, Edward, Lucasian Professor of Mathematics, his appointment, 131; neglect of his duties, 131–132; retires from Cambridge, 132
- Watson, Richard, Regius Professor of Divinity, and Barton Wallop, 21; estimate of the exercises, 46; makes changes in Senate House Examination, 51–52, 56; his disappointment at only being second wrangler, 56; and mandate degrees, 89; as Regius Professor of Divinity, 102–104, 106–108; appointed Bishop of Llandaff, 107; and the Bishopric of Durham, 107–108; as Professor of Chemistry, 144–145; reputation as a chemist, 145; lectures as Professor of Chemistry, 145; his grant from the Crown, 145; and religious tests, 304: see also 270
- Wedderburn, Alexander, and religious tests, 308, 311
- Werner, Professor, and John Hailstone, 170
- Westminster School, and Trinity, 230–232
- Weston, Samuel, Fellow of St John's, 152, 161, 215–217, 225–226; refuses mastership of Jesus, 281
- Whalley, John, Regius Professor of Divinity, 105, 106, 110
- Whewell, William, Master of Trinity, and the exercises for degree of bachelor of arts, 47; and Knightbridge Professorship, 138; and private tuition, 333
- Whish, and the Tuns Tavern, 207
- Whisson, Stephen, Fellow of Trinity, attempt to nominate him for Vice-Chancellorship, 11; as an ex-

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-00229-5 - Unreformed Cambridge: A Study of Certain Aspects of the University in the Eighteenth Century

Denys Arthur Winstanley

Index

More information

INDEX

411

- aminer for Trinity fellowships, 238; as a Tutor, 272–274
- Whiston, William, Lucasian Professor of Mathematics, lectures, 130; expelled the University, 130; and Clare, 194, 256–257
- Whitefield, George, 105
- Wilberforce, William, 187
- Wilcox, John, Master of Clare, 13, 282
- Wilke, David, Lord Almoner's Professor of Arabic, 135
- Wilkins, David, see Wilke
- Willes, Mr Justice, and the Crawford case, 222–224
- Willis, Framingham, undergraduate life of, 205–206, 208–209
- Wilson, Sir John, 291, 331
- Wilson, Matthew, Fellow of Trinity, and the Trinity fellowship election of 1786, 242, 248, 250, 254
- Wilson, Thomas, Fellow of Trinity, 260
- Winchester, Bishop of, and election to mastership of St John's, 283
- Wine, Assize of, see Assize
- Woodhouse, Robert, Plumian Professor, 152
- Woodward, John, founder of a Professorship of Geology, 167–168
- Wranglers, 50, 51, 53–54, 56, 187
- Wynne, Dr, and the appointment to mastership of Peterhouse, 1787–1788, 290
- Yonge, Philip, Master of Jesus, prolonged as Vice-Chancellor, 13; and mandate degrees, 87; and Regius Professorship of Divinity, 110
- Yorke, Charles, son of first Lord Hardwicke, 54, 210, 224–225
- Yorke, Charles, son of Charles Yorke, knowledge of mathematics on entering Cambridge, 55; why sent to St John's, 193; his encounter with the bargemen, 215–217
- Yorke, James, Bishop of Ely, and appointment of Master of Peterhouse, 284–294; and annual examinations, 328
- Yorke, Philip, son of Charles Yorke, classical and mathematical equipment on entering Cambridge, 54–55; given an honorary degree, 80; his opinion of Dr Hallifax's lectures, 124–125; and Anthony Shepherd, 150; attends lectures of Shepherd's deputies, 150–151; account of Symonds' lectures, 160–162; life as an undergraduate, 208–209, 225–227; and Samuel Weston, 217, 225–226; and annual examinations at St John's, 317; and Jebb's unpopularity, 329
- Young, William, a candidate for Trinity fellowship in 1705, 240