CAMBRIDGE LIBRARY COLLECTION

Books of enduring scholarly value

Cambridge

The city of Cambridge received its royal charter in 1201, having already been home to Britons, Romans and Anglo-Saxons for many centuries. Cambridge University was founded soon afterwards and celebrates its octocentenary in 2009. This series explores the history and influence of Cambridge as a centre of science, learning, and discovery, its contributions to national and global politics and culture, and its inevitable controversies and scandals.

The Western Manuscripts in the Library of Trinity vol.1.

M. R. James (1862-1936) is probably best remembered as a writer of chilling ghost stories, but he was an outstanding scholar of medieval literature and palaeography, who served both as Provost of King's College, Cambridge, and as Director of the Fitzwilliam Museum, and many of his stories reflect his academic background. His detailed descriptive catalogues of manuscripts owned by colleges, cathedrals and museums are still of value to scholars today. James's catalogue of the extensive manuscript holdings of Trinity College was first published in four volumes between 1900 and 1904, the final volume consisting of plates and an index. Now reissued, it will be welcomed by librarians and researchers alike.

Cambridge University Press has long been a pioneer in the reissuing of out-of-print titles from its own backlist, producing digital reprints of books that are still sought after by scholars and students but could not be reprinted economically using traditional technology. The Cambridge Library Collection extends this activity to a wider range of books which are still of importance to researchers and professionals, either for the source material they contain, or as landmarks in the history of their academic discipline.

Drawing from the world-renowned collections in the Cambridge University Library, and guided by the advice of experts in each subject area, Cambridge University Press is using state-of-the-art scanning machines in its own Printing House to capture the content of each book selected for inclusion. The files are processed to give a consistently clear, crisp image, and the books finished to the high quality standard for which the Press is recognised around the world. The latest print-on-demand technology ensures that the books will remain available indefinitely, and that orders for single or multiple copies can quickly be supplied.

The Cambridge Library Collection will bring back to life books of enduring scholarly value across a wide range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and in science and technology.

PREFACE.

THE manuscripts in the Library of Trinity College are kept in three locked classes, designated respectively as B, R, and O. Class B is situated near the southern end of the Library, on the east side; class R is directly opposite to it; and class O is on the east side, near the north end. In B are contained the theological MSS.; in R those of historical and miscellaneous contents, together with the oriental MSS.; in O are the MSS. given by Roger Gale in 1738, commonly known as the Gale MSS. The present Catalogue will be divided into three volumes, each of which will treat of one of these classes. The subject of this first volume is class B.

I am not at this moment in a position to write a general introduction to the whole catalogue: I propose in this Preface to give some few indications of the principal sources whence the books have come, and to say something of the methods I have employed in describing them.

In the volume called Memoriale (R. 17. 8), which is a Register of the benefactors of the College compiled by Sir Edward Stanhope, are to be found lists of the principal donations of MSS. to the library—exclusive of the Gale MSS. Three donors stand out conspicuously among these.

The first is John Whitgift, Master of the College from 1567 to 1577, and Archbishop of Canterbury from 1583 to 1603–4.

He gave some 150 MSS. In Strype's Life of him (iii. 410 sqq.) is another list of his MSS., furnished to Strype by John Knight. A very large proportion of these books come from Christ Church, Canterbury, a few from St Augustine's, Canterbury, and a good many from Buildwas Abbey in Shropshire.

The second is Thomas Nevile, Dean of Canterbury, Master of the College from 1593 to 1615, to the very great advantage of it. The MSS. given by him number 126. Of those whose provenance can be determined, the larger number are from Christ Church, Canterbury.

The third is George Willmer, sometime Fellow-Commoner, who died in 1626.

He gave 39 MSS. A fair proportion of these also are Canterbury books.

Sir Edward Stanhope appears as the donor of 15 MSS.: and there is another list in the Memoriale of "Manuscripti ad Collegium pertinentes," 24 in number, of which by far the greater part are from the Abbey of Wardon, or de Sartis, in Bedfordshire, where the College had property. I have not been able to ascertain the date at which these books came into the Library.

The names and benefactions of more recent donors, and of those who gave only a few volumes, as Jonathan Dryden, Edward and Thomas Rud, Silvius Elwis, Richard Bentley, and Samuel Sandars, appear in one of the lists which follow this Preface.

The gifts of Sir Henry Puckering, being all placed in class R, will be more fitly discussed in the second volume of this catalogue.

The first printed Catalogue of the MSS. belonging to Trinity College is to be found in Thomas James's Ecloga Oxonio-Cantabrigiensis in 1600 (p. 138). It consists of two items:

1. Nicolai Triuetti Annales;
2. Athanasius, Graece;

of which the first does not appear to be now in the Library. The other is B. 9. 7.

The second printed Catalogue is that in Bernard's Catalogi Manuscriptorum Angliae et Hiberniae (Oxford, 1647: Vol. I, Pt. III, pp. 93—102). This is the only attempt at a complete list which has hitherto appeared. It is no more than a list, giving no dates or sources for the MSS.: and there are in it several mistakes in description and numbering, and items left blank, which make it difficult to identify all the books named in it. However, I have succeeded in producing a fairly complete table of correspondences.

Lastly, in 1897, appeared that part of Dr Schenkl's Bibliotheca Patrum Latinorum Britannica (II. 2), which deals with the Trinity MSS. Its primary object is to catalogue the Latin patristic MSS., so that only the briefest notes of Greek books and of liturgical MSS. and mediaeval authors are given, and very many have to be passed over entirely. Dr Schenkl has also attempted a table of correspondences with Bernard's numbers. I have—with the kind permission of the author—made copious use of his work: especially in regard to the references which he gives to Migne's Patrologia Latina.

The methods of cataloguing these MSS. are those which I have employed in previous catalogues. If anything, the descriptions are fuller. I have everywhere noted the occurrence of pictures and described them, save in the case of the very latest books. I have also collated (i.e. ascertained and recorded the structure) of every MS. except the late paper ones: and I have devoted a good deal of time and space to the investigation of the history of the various volumes. If I should be enabled to complete the three volumes of this work, I shall hope to furnish them with adequate Indexes.

In sending forth this first volume I would desire to express my great gratitude to the Master and Fellows of Trinity College for the opportunity they have readily given me of indulging in my favourite pursuit, and of adding to my knowledge of ancient manuscripts. The Sub-Librarian of the College, Mr William White, has been most courteous and helpful. The staff of the University Press have borne with uncomplaining fortitude the strain of dealing with some seven hundred pages of my handwriting. They are not to blame for such misprints as may, and I fear will be, detected by critics.
